DAY AND NIGHT DELIVERY

All-Star Game Is Growing Up

Tonight, because of the war years interruption, the Ohio Valley All-Star Football Game will be nine years "old" but actually the spectacle between the Eastern Ohio schoolboy seniors of last fall and the Northern West Virginia squad you will witness is only the sixth since the inaugural here at the Stadium late in the summer of 1940.

Tonight, for the third year in succession the rival squads are coached by collegiate mentors. Red Drew, U of Alabama's head coach, has readied the West Virginia Mountaineers for the second time and across the field, directing the Ohioans is Don Faurot, who specializes in the T formation at U. of Missouri.

Drew, a transplanted Yankee, won the 1947 game with a West Virginia team that had Bob Blake of Linsly (now at Cornell), as its Johnny-on-the-spot. For Blake picked an Ohio pass out of the night air only 65 seconds before the gun, raced 39 yards over the north goal and set the stage for the West Virginians to win their third of five games, 13-0. The Bucks gambled again, after the kickoff and Elwood Meyers, of Warwood high, grabbed a pass to the other side and scored on a 15-yard TD dash.

The inaugural contest of 1940 also was won by the West Virginians. Directed by Bob Roe, then Warwood coach and Irvin (Stech) Howell of Union high—he's here as a WVU talent scout tonight—the Mountaineers defeated the first Ohio squad coached by Charles (Doc) Hartwig of Martin Ferry and John (Butch) Niemiec of Bellaire. A first period touchdown gave Ohio a 7-0 lead and it was thus until Charley Helinski, of Union and WVU sparked West Virginia with his running to score twice for the nod, 13-7.

In 1941 the victory margin again was a touchdown with the West Virginia eleven cramming its points into the first quarter, 7-0. "Stech" Howell played a return engagement as West Virginia mentor with Reed Clark of Wellsburg joining him. "Butch" Niemiec also returned to mentor the Ohioans, Bill Dorsey of Powhatan high and now of Bellaire St. John, serving as his co-worker.

The last of the contests until after the war, the game of 1942 which was played for the Navy Relief Society's benefit, brought the Eastern Ohioans their first triumph. Gomer Jones, then of Martins Ferry and Myrl Kepner of St. Clairsville bossed the Bucks while Bob Roe was back as West Virginia coach with Carl Hamill of Weirton as his co-worker.

The first of the last four training camps at Bethany college was instituted for this contest. And the Buekeyes of 1942, many anticipating a grim game on the battlefields of the world, gave off some of their pent-up emotion in a near rout of the West Virginians. Seizing a first half advantage of 20-0 by scoring twice in the second period, the Ohioans realized ample points to break the run of reverses. A fourth quarter touchdown kept West Virginia from being shutout in a 20-7 defeat.

The postwar renewal of the series marked August of 1946 when a preponderance of ex-servicemen appeared in the rival lineups and the East Ohio combine, led by one of those ex-Army hands, Johnny Stojack of Steubenville, paid off another installment on the overdue Buckeye account. Bigger and the oldest teams of the series marked that game for any graduated senior of the previous four years was permitted to perform under college mentors for the first time. Frank Thomas, of Alabama bossed the Ohioans and Lynn Waldorf, then at Northwestern, ran the Mountain state crew.

Stojack, good enough to win a trial with the Chicago Cardinals of the National Football league, scored three touchdowns for Ohio to lead the Buekeyes to a 26-7 triumph. Three quick first quarter touchdowns and another early in the second, set a record for the game. Ohio ran its total to 26-0 before a final period touchdown by West Virginia ended the scoring.

The squads you will watch here tonight are manned by seniors who completed their high school careers last fall on Valley gridirons. The elastic eligibility of the first postwar game rules have been scrapped and the contest will be played under its original plan for the second straight August.

So, although the victory balance rests temporarily with the West Virginians, again, we say may the best team win!

THE WEST VIRGINIA ALL-STAR COACH

Harold (Red) Drew is a familiar face to all-star fans of last year for the man who succeeded Frank Thomas as head football coach at Alabama, is with us for the second straight year. A native New Englander, Drew has been associated with football for well over 25 years and all but four of his 27 years have been spent in the Deep South. A Maine native, he graduated from Bates college in 1916 and Springfield (Mass.) college in 1920. He won college letters in football, baseball and track. A veteran of both world wars, he began his coaching career in 1920 at Trinity college, went to Birmingham Southern in 1924. Assistant to Thomas at U. of Chattanooga in 1928 before becoming head coach following season when Thomas removed to Georgia. Reunited at Alabama in 1930 with Thomas until Drew entered the Navy as Lieut. Commander in 1941. Spent season of 1946, after service discharge, as U. of Mississippi head coach and was recalled to Alabama in January of 1947 when health forced Thomas' retirement.

THE OHIO ALL-STAR COACH

Don Faurot, head coach and athletic director at University of Missouri, located at Columbia, Mo., is a graduate of Old Mizzou. Lettering in football, basketball and baseball at Missouri, Faurot was graduated in 1925 but remained for a year as coach of the freshman team to earn his M.A. Struck out on his own as head coach of Kirksville (Mo.) Teachers college the following season. In nine years there his teams won seven championships in the MIAA Conference, his squads compiling one winning streak of 26 consecutive games. Faurot succeeded Frank Carideo as head coach of his alma mater in 1935, winning his first title with his Missouri elevens in 1939 and going to the Orange Bowl that year. Faurot's all-time record shows 122 victories, 44 defeats and 10 ties. He enlisted in the Navy in 1943 and while in service he coached football at the Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Fla., and at the Navy's Pre-Flight School at Iowa City, Ia. His 1943 Iowa Pre-Flight Seahawks lost only to Notre Dame and were rated the nation's No. 2 eleven.

Yes, SHEEN-O-WALL can be easily applied to almost any surface economically and it covers twice the surface, too.

Ideal for covering wall-paper, calcimined or painted walls, wallboard, interior brick or cement.

Not a water paint but a real oil-base enamel that washes clean with mild soap and water.

Try SHEEN-O-WALL today! Comes in 9 modern pastel shades . . . at your dealers.
