*Welcome to the 14th Annual Ohio-W.Va.
All-Star Football Game This 18th Day of August, 1956.*

Tonight W. Va. is playing, as it were, with their backs to the wall, as the Ohio Boys have a one game edge. Doug Stone, of Follansbee and Jack LaBay of Triadelphia will try to even the score against the Ohio Boys. They teach the W. Va. footballers and they are wise and canny. On the other hand, two tough boys, who won't be napping as they know their football and are tricky and efficient in tutoring the Ohio Boys and you can rest assured you will see a great game. Again luck to both sides. The Ohio coaches are Nick Wasyluk of St. Clairsville, and Geo. Straily of Dillonvale.

There is always an unsung hero and one who so untiringly gives his time and effort to arranging all details of the game, one who cares nothing for notariety, one who is admired by the schools of the Valley and officials of all the schools and the fans from everywhere — that man is Robert (Bob) Roe.

At mid-game the capable arranger of Beauty contests, Jack Maloney will be in complete charge. There are 26 schools, of which one will produce a Beauty Queen, an honor indeed for some pretty girl. Stone & Thomas, West Virginia's largest department store are the sponsors. Sistersville and Brilliant will enter two girls in the contest.

To the folks who read this program I would like very much if you would patronize the ones who advertised in this program and make possible the printing of same again. I thank all the candidates, who assisted the Boosters and in November, remember them, please.

Game Chairman
