Bob Vogler
P.O. Box 101
Follansbee, WV 26037

Bob donated his original copy for the OVAC archives. He said the two weeks of practice in Cadiz was tough because they had both teams in the same gym with a tarp down the middle. Bob was the game MVP in an WV-18, OH-0 win.

Virginia Eyes Upset Bid

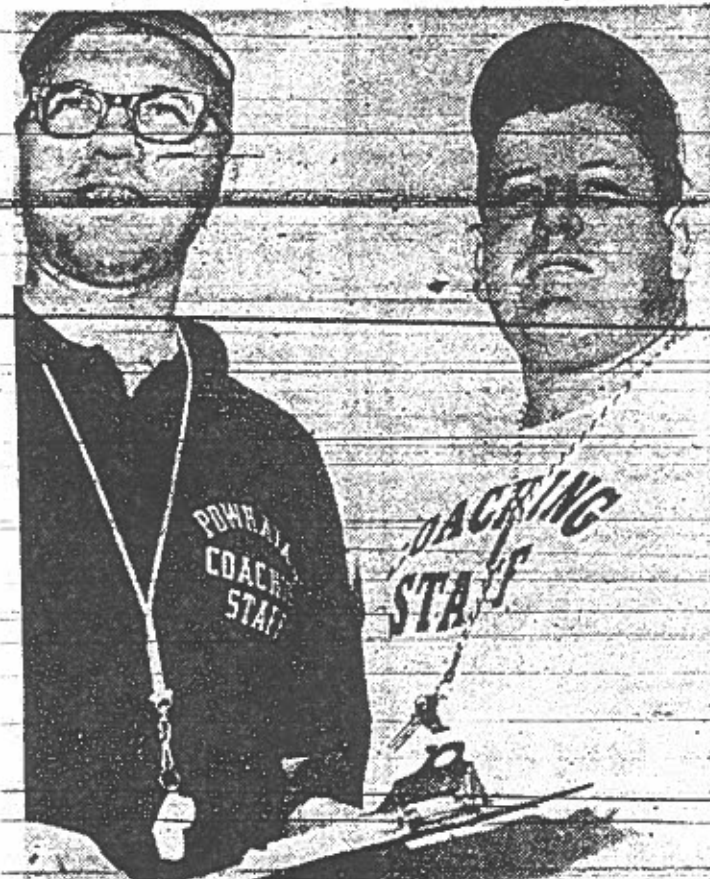

Wheeling Area Gridders on W. Va. All-Star Team

Six Wheeling area gridgers and two managers take a break from drills as the West Virginia squad trains at Cadiz for tomorrow night's annual schoolboy all-star game at the Island Stadium. Kickoff will be at 8 p.m. as West Virginia attempts to end Ohio's victory streak in the gridiron spec-

adelphia, halfback Bobby Vogler of Wheeling, guard Jerry Kosem of Central, defensive back Ron Weisenborn of Wheeling Central and manager Dave Hudson.

Browns Concerned Over Groza's 'Toe'

HIRAM, Ohio (UPI) — Despite the injuries to veteran defensive back Ross Fichtner and concern over the durability of veteran place kicker Lou Groza, things are swinging in the Cleveland Browns' training camp. Fichtner, out of action with three broken ribs, is whiling away the hours showing his pet "mongoose" to friends. Ross brings out an elaborate box and invites people to feed the animal a carrot. After an elaborate buildup about the "mongoose," he releases a catch and the lid flips open.

"Swich! Not the sound of a mongoose, but a tail swatting the face of the victim. Several players who have "seen" the "mongoose" are anxiously awaiting Fichtner's return to the field.

New on the Brown's practice field is Tom Zupke, former Kent State place-kicker.

Zupke checked into camp after he was released from the Dallas Cowboys. He was among six place kickers invited to the Cowboys' camp from a "kicking caravan" in which 1000 prospective place kickers were checked out.

The Browns' are concerned that Lou Groza's toe may be losing accuracy with age.

Reports from the College All-Star camp are that Browns' rookie Don Cockroft is not kick-

Buckeyes Out To Extend Victory Skein

The 1967 Ohio-West Virginia schoolboy all-star game unfolds tonight at the Wheeling Stadium with the Buckeyes expected to extend their domination of the series to a fifth straight year.

Kickoff will be at 8 p.m. with the game to be preceded by the entrance of the Queen of Queens candidates.

Both gridiron squads will break from their Cadiz training base shortly after 5 p.m. today and journey by two chartered buses to the game site. The teams will trot off the field for pre-game warmups at 7 p.m.

with the procession of the queens candidates to start at 7:20. Providing the musical entertainment will be bands from St. Clairsville and Follansbee High Schools.

Tonight's game is the 24th in the long series between the two teams. Ohio, thanks to a run of four straight victories, has opened up a 14-9 edge. Plenty of seats are available and will be on sale at the gate tonight, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Both coaches are anticipating a high-scoring battle with the offensive units to possibly stress a passing game. Both team boast quarterback with impressive passing credentials. Doing the ball-handling for the West Virginians will be Gene Wertz of Union and Pete Giglio of Follansbee. Johnny Bill Merrill of St. John's will split the quarterbacking duties for the Ohioans.

Ohio has been listed as a one-touchdown favorite but West Virginia coach Jim Foti doesn't believe it. "This looks like an even football game with breaks playing a key role. The team which makes the least number of mistakes should win."

Foti and Ohio coach Mike Matsakis are no strangers. Mat-

Wins in 13th

The Cave Club nipped the Prison, 7-6 in 13 innings in the Moundsville Softball Tournament Friday. Maroh Merchants met Steve Mason's in the night-cap with more games slated for this evening. Bob Flading doubled and Ike Comer singled him home with the winning run. Ike Murphy, despite six walks and three hit batters, struck out 23 as he went the distance for the win.

which makes the least number of mistakes should win." Foti and Ohio coach Mike Matsakis are no strangers. Matsakis, now coach at Powhatan High School, played under Foti at Warwood High School and beat his former coach during the last three seasons. Foti hasn't forgotten the three defeats pinned on his Warwood teams by Powhatan and hopes to take some sort of revenge in his final appearance as a football coach tonight. The veteran mentor, who continues as basketball coach of the defending West-Virginia double-A champion Vikings, surrendered the football helm at the end of the 1966 campaign.

Foti will open the contest with Union's Weltz operating at the quarterback slot. Weltz is a 170-pounder with a strong arm. At the halfback slots will be 147-pound Tim Stefan of Follansbee and 162-pound Bobby Vogler of Wheeling. Chuck Evans, a 190-pounder who came into his own as a senior at Weirton last fall, will be the West-Virginians' fullback.

1967 Vogler Is Star, MVP For Foti

West Virginia defeated Ohio State with the lights out and lights on Saturday night in the Valley All-Star football game at Wheeling Stadium.

Scoring once in the first half, when the lighting system at the Island park was on the blink, the Mountaineers added a pair of touchdowns after the electricity began working in the second half and presented the veteran Warwood coach, Jim Foti, with an 18-0 decision in his final appearance as a grid mentor.

Thus, the West Virginians broke an Ohio domination of the series that had extended back through 1964 and reduced the Buckeye margin in the interstate rivalry to four, at 14-10.

The electricians were unable to get the lighting system working until after intermission but the crowd of 7,500 which showed up on a pleasantly warm evening was surprising patient through a first half which saw the Mountaineers go ahead on a 12-yard sweep of left end by their starting quarterback, Gene Weitz, of Union, late in the second period. A 37-yard punt return by Wheeling's Bob Vogler set up the tally.

The aroused Buckeyes came on like gangbusters at the outset of the third period and drove from their own 20 to the W. Va. 8 before yielding the pigskin on downs. The Barnesville combination of little Johnny Merrill, at quarterback, and tall Dallas Adkins, at end, clicked on a 39-yard pass play and Bellaire's Rich Gianangeli reeled off a 17-yard run during the foray.

Follansbee's Terry Kidder, who did a tremendous job of punting throughout the game, extricated W. Va. from the hole with a 53-yard boot out of his own end zone.

In the opening seconds of the fourth quarter the Mountaineers jumped their lead to 12-0 when Pete Giglio hit his former Follansbee High teammate, Tim Stefan, on a 54-yard pass play. Stefan was wide open at the Buckeye 25.

Ohio advanced to the W. Va. 30 after the next kickoff but the alert Vogler thwarted the bid with an interception in his own end zone.

Late in the game another interception by Vogler, followed by his 28-yard return to the Buckeye 2, set up the final TD, which the Wheeling High grad made himself on a plunge with 1:25 left in the fray.

Vogler was stopped short on the point try but his outstanding performance won him an award as the Most Valuable Player on the winning side. Gianangeli was picked as Ohio's MVP.

The Mountaineers produced their three touchdown margin although garnering only 62

Pittsburgh Edges L.A.

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Veteran pitcher Al Luplow squeezed home Al Mazonoski in the sixth inning Saturday to give the Pittsburgh Pirates a 2-1 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Law, who yielded singles to Ron Hunt and Al Ferrara in the first inning when the Dodgers pushed over their run and a single to Len Gabrielson in sixth, won his second game against six setbacks. He fanned three and walked one.

Phil Regan, making only his second career start as a Dodger, suffered his sixth loss against four victories. Regan gave up six hits, struck out one and walked two in six innings before going out for a pinch-hitter.

Roberto Clemente started the winning rally in the sixth with a single. Luplow forced him at second—but Donn Clendenon singled to right, sending Luplow to third. Mazonoski laid down a squeeze bunt.

The Pirates scored their first run in the fourth. Maury Wills and Clemente singled and both moved up on a wild pitch by Regan. Wills scored on Clendenon's groundout to first.

Dick Schofield walked in the Dodger first and took second on Hunt's single. Willie Davis forced Hunt at second with Schofield taking third on the play. Ferrara got an infield single to score Schofield.

Willie Davis singled in the eighth and John Roseboro singled in the ninth for the other Dodger hits.

Ohio advanced to the W. Va. 30 after the next kickoff but the alert Vogler thwarted the bid with an interception in his own end zone.

Late in the game another interception by Vogler, followed by his 28-yard return to the Buckeye 2, set up the final TD, which the winning high grad made himself on a plunge with 1:25 left in the fray.

Vogler was stopped short on the point try but his outstanding performance won him an award as the Most Valuable Player on the winning side. Gianangeli was picked as Ohio's MVP.

The Mountaineers produced their three touchdown margin although garnering only 62 yards by rushing during the contest. They added 80 yards in the air with three completions in seven tries and had but five first downs.

Ohio made 114 yards rushing and hit on air of 19 passes for 103 but suffered four interceptions. The Bucks had seven first downs. They were penalized 40 yards in W. Va.'s 20.

Ohio was presented with an early opportunity to move the ball in W. Va. territory when Mike Hostasa, tackle from Shadyside, covered a Mountaineer fumble on the first scrimmage play at the W. Va. 43. However, three plays later the Buckeyes returned the favor as Chuck Bonit, of Weirton Macedonia, confiscated an Ohio bobble at the 36.

The Bucks forced a W. Va. punt but Dave Grandstaff, defensive back from Magnolia, subsequently picked off a pass thrown by Barnesville's Johnny Merrill and returned from the Mountaineer 45 to the Ohio 42.

Neck Decision Decides Record $36,998 Double

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. (AP)—A track record $36,998.20 was won by a single bettor in the twin double Saturday at Charles Town Race Course.

The unidentified fan had the closest call with his first selection, Mr. Bake Price winning the fifth race by a neck while paying $13.20 for $2.
Miss Ella Cee won the sixth race by two lengths at a $28.60 payoff. Mr. D. K. the seventh by 1 1/4 lengths for $13.00, and Hot Blast the eighth by two lengths at $12.60.

Hot Blast led all the way in the 6-furlong dash, holding a five-length margin entering the stretch.

The winning numbers for the record payoff were 6, 3, 8 and 2. The old Charles Town record of $36,651.40 had stood since before going out for a second hit.

Roberto Clemente started the winning rally in the sixth with a single. Lopus forced him at second but Donn Cleblen singled to right, sending Lopus to third. Mazeroski laid down a squeeze bunt.

KANSAS CITY (UPI)—Mike Hershberger scored on an error by catcher Jake Gibbs following Ted Kubiak's attempted squeeze bunt in the 12th inning Saturday night to give the Kansas City Athletics a 3-2 victory over New York and drop the Yankees into last place in the American League.

Hershberger opened the inning with a single and moved to second on a bunt single by Jim Gosger. Joe Nosske then sacrificed the runners along aid reliever Thad Tillotson walked Phil Roof to load the bases.

Kubiak then bunted down the third base line where John Kennedy fielded the ball and threw home in plenty of time to get Hershberger. But Gibbs dropped the ball as Hershberger slammed into him.

give the St. Louis Cardinals a 4-3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

Shannon had singled with one out off reliever Don Nottebart and Phil Gagliano followed with a single. Dal Maxwell then hit a grounder to shortstop Tommy Helms, who booted it to fill the bases. Ricketts, who had been out of action with an injured rib cage since July 14, bailed for Ron Willis and singled sharply to center for the decisive run.

The victory boosted the Cardinals lead to eight games in the National League over the second place Chicago Cubs.

The eight-game lead is the largest margin enjoyed by a National League team this season.

Willis, who entered the game in the 10th inning, received credit for his fourth victory in seven decisions. Nottebart suffered his third loss against no victories after entering in the 12th inning.

The victory was the 10th in the last 11 games for the league-leading Cards.

The Reds tied the game 3-3 in the eighth when Tommy Harper walked, took second on a sacrifice by Vada Pinson and scored on a single by Pete Rose.

Whitworth Is Carling Leader

COLUMBUS (UPI)—Texan Kathy Whitworth fire an immaculate two-under-par 70 Saturday to remain the leader of the third annual $20,500 Lady Carling Open Golf Tournament with a two-round total of 141.

Hot on her heels in second place were all-time LPGA money winning champion Mickey Wright, who scorched the 6,300-yard Walnut Hill Country Club layout with a three-under 69, and saucy Susy Maxwell of Oklahoma, who carded the best round of the tourney, a four-under 69. Both were off 142.

Four shots off the pace and tied for fourth place were tall Sarah Adams and Wendy Suggs at 145, one over par. Miss Adams carded a 73 while Miss Suggs shot a two-under 70.

Shade Box, 2-1

Versalles' homer led off the third inning and handed Leo Stange his seventh loss against as many victories.

The Twins had scored in the first inning on Cesar Tovar's single and a whistling double to right field by Tony Oliva which Tony Conigliaro misjudged and let roll to the wall, enabling Tovar to tally from first base.

Rico Petrocelli hit his 10th homer of the season in the second inning for the Red Sox to tie the score at 1-1.

Boswell walked the bases full in the fourth inning but got out of the jam by striking out Elston Howard, who started his first game for the Red Sox since being acquired from the New York Yankees.

Two long punts by Terry Kid-the hole in the second period.

One with the aid of a good roll traveled 56 yards from scrimmage and the second was good for 58 yards to push the Ohioans back to their seven.

The Bucks were forced into a punting situation but Rich
Gianangeli's kick was nullified

Wheeling Area Gridders on W. Va. All-Star Team

Six Wheeling area gridders and two managers take a break from drills as the West Virginia squad trains at Cadiz for tomorrow night's annual schoolboy all-star game at the Island Stadium. Kickoff will be at 8 p.m. as West Virginia attempts to end Ohio's victory streak in the gridiron spec-

delphia, halfback Bobby Vogler of Wheeling, guard Jerry Kosem of Central, defensive back Ron Weisenborn of Wheeling Central and manager Dave Hudson.

Browns Concerned Over Groza's 'Toe'

HIRAM, Ohio (UPI) — Despite the injuries to veteran defensive back Ross Fichtner and concern over the durability of veteran place kicker Lou Groza, things are swinging in the Cleveland Browns' training camp.

Fichtner, out of action with three broken ribs, is whiling away the hours showing his pet "mongoose" to friends.

Ross brings out an elaborate box and invites people to feed the animal a carrot. After an elaborate buildup about the "mongoose," he releases a catch and the lid flips open.

"Swich! Not the sound of a mongoose, but a tail swatting the face of the victim. Several players who have "seen" the "mongoose" are anxiously awaiting Fichtner's return to the field.

New on the Brown's practice field is Tom Zupke, former Kent State place-kicker.

Zupke checked into camp after he was released from the Dallas Cowboys. He was among six place kickers invited to the Cowboys' camp from a "kicking caravan" in which 1000 prospective place kickers were checked out.

The Browns' are concerned that Lou Groza's toe may be losing accuracy with age.

Reports from the College All-Star camp are that Browns' rookie Don Cockroft is not kick-

Buckeyes Out To Extend Victory Skein

The 1967 Ohio-West Virginia schoolboy all-star game unfolds tonight at the Wheeling Stadium with the Buckeyes expected to extend their domination of the series to a fifth straight year.

Kickoff will be at 8 p.m. with the game to be preceded by the entrance of the Queen of Queens candidates.

Both gridiron squads will break from their Cadiz training base shortly after 5 p.m. today and journey by two chartered buses to the game site. The teams will trot off the field for pre-game warmups at 7 p.m.

with the procession of the queens candidates to start at 7:20. Providing the musical entertainment will be bands from St. Clairsville and Follansbee High Schools.

Tonight's game is the 24th in the long series between the two teams. Ohio, thanks to a run of four straight victories, has opened up a 14-9 edge. Plenty of seats are available and will be on sale at the gate tonight, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Both coaches are anticipating a high-scoring battle with the offensive units to possibly stress a passing game. Both team boast quarterback with impressive passing credentials. Doing the ball-handling for the West Virginians will be Gene Weltz of Union and Pete Giglio of Follansbee. Johnny Bill Merrill of Barnesville and Tony Vavra of St. John's will split the quarterbacking duties for the Ohioans.

Ohio has been listed as a one-touchdown favorite but West Virginia coach Jim Foti doesn't believe it. "This looks like an even football game with breaks playing a key role. The team which makes the least number of mistakes should win."

which makes the least number of mistakes should win." Foti and Ohio coach Mike Matsakis are no strangers. Matsakis, now coach at Powhatan High School, played under Foti at Warwood High School and beat his former coach during the last three seasons. Foti hasn't forgotten the three defeats pinned on his Warwood teams by Powhatan and hopes to take some sort of revenge in his final appearance as a football coach tonight. The veteran mentor, who continues as basketball coach of the defending West Virginia double-A champion Vikings, surrendered the football helm at the end of the 1966 campaign.

Foti will open the contest with Union's Weltz operating at the quarterback slot. Weltz is a 170-pounder with a strong arm. At the halfback slots will be 147-pound Tim Stefan of Follansbee and 162-pound Bobby Vogler of Wheeling. Chuck Evans, a 190-pounder who came into his own as a senior at Weirton last fall, will be the West Virginians' fullback.

All-Star Fray May Be Explosive One

SAT. AUG. 5, 1967

An explosive game that could go either way.

That's how the rival coaches, Jim Foti and Mike Matsakis, evaluate the outlook for Saturday night's Ohio-West Virginia football clash at Wheeling Stadium.

Foti, the half-pint pilot of the Mountaineer forces, figures that "the team which makes the least mistakes should win."

Matsakis, who once played under Foti at Warwood and who is guiding the Ohio forces, counters, "It could go either way, depending upon who gets the breaks—and who has learned the most in less than two weeks of practice."

Given dry weather, both teams are expected to put the ball in the air, with Tony Vavra, of Bellaire St. John's Central, and Johnny Merrill, of Barnesville, tossing it for the Buckeyes and Gene Weltz, of Union, and Pete Giglio, of Follansbee, throwing for W.Va.

Both coaches praised the condition and attitudes of their squads as they breezed through final practice sessions today. The two teams, traveling by special bus, will leave their training quarters at Cadiz at 5 p.m. Saturday, which should get them to the island in ample time, even if they get trapped in the Bridgeport bottleneck.

The squads are due on the field at 7 p.m. for warm-ups. At 7:20, the Queen of Queens candidates will make their entrance, along with the St. Clairsville and Follansbee bands.

Introduction of players will precede an 8 o'clock kickoff in the twenty-fourth clash of the inter-state series, in which Ohio leads 14-9. Plenty of seats will be available.

Matsakis, the Powhatan High coach, figures that "if it is a nice night, it could be a high-scoring game; with both teams capable of putting the ball in the end zone."

In Ends Larry Holloway of Bellaire, Dallas Adkins of Barnesville and Danny Wingate, of Wintersville, Ohio appears to have outstanding receivers. And the ground game looks strong, with All-Ohioan Jack Hale, of Stanton Local, and Rich Gianangeli, Bellaire hard-nose, at the halves and rugged Ron Valentine, of St. Clairsville, at full back.

Bob Vogler, Wheeling—High three-sports star, looms as a key man in the West-Virginia running game, which also features Charlie Evans, Weirton full-back.

Foti is concerned about Tony Fiberto, 198-pound tackle from Wellsburg. He's a question mark because of an eye injury. Ohio has lost Ed Kubat, husky back from Mt. Pleasant, and Todd Weekley, halfback from Wellsburg, due to injuries but both were hurt during the first week of practice and have been replaced.

Probable lineups for both teams follow:

OHIO OFFENSE — LE, Dallas Adkins, 190, Barnesville; LT, Mike Hostasa, 200, Shadyside; LG, Larry Wehr, 180, Barnesville; C, Tony Smolinsky, 197, Stanton Local; RG, Pete Keller, 183, St. Clairsville; RT, David Keyser, 203, Shadyside; RE, Larry Holloway, 190, Bellaire; QB, Johnny Merrill, 145, Barnesville, or Tony Vavra, 160, St. John's; LH, Jack Hale, 100, Stanton Local; RH, Rich Gianangeli, 185, Bellaire; FB, Ron Valentine, 210, St. Clairsville.

Moundsville Tourney Play Delayed by Rain

Opening of the Moundsville Invitational Softball Tournament, postponed Thursday because of rain, has been rescheduled for today weather permitting.

"Games originally slated for today will be set back to Saturday, with the action this evening now to send Cave Club against the West Virginia Prison at 7 o'clock at the lighted East End diamond. The nightclub, approximately at 9 matches Steve Mason's with the 'Maroh' Merchants.

The Saturday slate has Zane Bar taking on the winner of tonight's second game. This contest will be at 7, followed by a clash between the Castle Club and Beallsville.

No games will be played Sunday, due to a conflict with the pro football game, between the Wheeling Ironmen and the Akron Vulcans.

Steelers Deal For John Brown

LABROBE, Pa. (UPI) — The Pittsburgh Steelers Thursday acquired offensive tackle John Brown from the Cleveland Browns in exchange for two future draft choices.

Brown, a five-year veteran of the Browns who played his college ball at Syracuse, was expected to report to the Steeler training camp here Saturday.

The 28-year-old lineman was one of five Browns players involved in a contract dispute with Art Modell, owner of the Cleveland club. The other players were LeRoy Kelly, Mike Howell, John Woolen and Sid Williams.

One of the demands of the players was that all would be traded if one were traded.

1967 Vogler Is Star, MVP For Foti

By BILL VAN HORNE
News-Register Sports Editor

West Virginia defeated Ohio State 27-14 on Saturday night in the Valley All-Star football game at Wheeling Stadium.

Scoring once in the first half, when the lighting system at the Island park was on the blink, the Mountaineers added a pair of touchdowns after the electricity began working in the second-half and presented the veteran Warwood coach, Jim Foti, with an 18-0 decision in his final appearance as a grid mentor.

Thus, the West Virginians broke an Ohio domination of the series that had extended back through 1964 and reduced the Buckeye margin in the interstate rivalry to four, at 14-10.

The electricians were unable to get the lighting system working until after intermission but the crowd of 7,300 which showed up on a pleasantly warm evening was surprising patient through a first half which saw the Mountaineers go ahead on a 12-yard sweep of left end by their starting quarterback, Gene Weltz, of Union, late in the second period. A 37-yard punt return by Wheeling's Bob Vogler set up the tally.

The aroused Buckeyes came on like gangbusters at the outset of the third period and drove from their own 20 to the W. Va. 8 before yielding the pigskin on downs. The Barnesville combination of little Johnny Merrill, at quarterback, and tall Dallas Adams, at end, clicked on a 39-yard pass play and Bellaire's Rich Gianangeli reeled off a 17-yard run during the foray.

Follansbee's Terry Kidder, who did a tremendous job of punting throughout the game, extricated W. Va. from the hole with a 53-yard boot out of his own end zone.

In the opening seconds of the fourth quarter the Mountaineers jumped their lead to 12-0 when Pete Giglio hit his former Follansbee High teammate, Tim Stefan, on a 54-yard pass play. Stefan was wide open at the Buckeye 25.

Ohio advanced to the W. Va. 30 after the next kickoff but the alert Vogler thwarted the bid when an interception in his own end zone.

Late in the game another interception by Vogler, followed by his 28-yard return to the Buckeye 2, set up the final TD, which the wheeling high grad made himself on a plunge with 1:25 left in the fray.

Vogler was stopped short on the point try but his outstanding performance won him an award as the Most Valuable Player on the winning side. Gianangeli was picked as Ohio's MVP.

The Mountaineers produced their three touchdown margin although garnering only 62

Pittsburgh Edges L.A.

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Veteran pitcher Law pitched a five-hitter and Bill Mazeroski squeezed home Al Luplow in the sixth inning Saturday to give the Pittsburgh Pirates a 2-1 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Law, who yielded singles to Ron Hunt and Al Ferrara in the first inning when the Dodgers pushed over their run and a single to Len Gabrielson in sixth, won his second game against six setbacks. He fanned three and walked one.

Phil Regan, making only his second career start as a Dodger, suffered his sixth loss against four victories. Regan gave up six hits, struck out one and walked two in six innings before going out for a pinch-hitter.

Roberto Clemente started the winning rally in the sixth with a single. Luplow forced him at second but Donn Clendenon singled to right, sending Luplow to third. Mazeroski laid down a squeeze bunt.

The Pirates scored their first run in the fourth. Maury Wills and Clemente singled and both moved up on a wild pitch by Regan. Wills scored on Clendenon's groundout to first.

Dick Schofield walked in the Dodger first and took second on Hunt's single. Willie Davis forced Hunt at second with Schofield taking third on the play. Ferrara got an infield single to score Schofield.

Willie Davis singled in the eighth and John Roseboro singled in the ninth for the other Dodger hits.

Cards Win in 12th On Ricketts Single

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Pinch-hitter Dave Ricketts singled home Mike Shannon with one out and the bases loaded in the 12th inning Saturday night to give the St. Louis Cardinals a 4-3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

Shannon had singled with one out off reliever Don Nottebart and Phil Gagliano followed with a single. Dal Maxvill then hit a grounder to shortstop Tommy Helms, who booted it to fill the bases. Ricketts, who had been out of action with an injured rib cage since July 14, batted for Ron Willis and singled sharply to center for the decisive run.

Yanks Sink Into Cellar

KANSAS CITY (UPI)—Mike Hersherberger scored on an error by catcher Jake Gibbs following Ted Kubiak's attempted squeeze bunt in the 12th inning Saturday night to give the Kansas City Athletics a 3-2 victory over New York and drop the Yankees into last place in the American League.

The victory boosted the Cardinals lead to eight games in the National League over the second place Chicago Cubs.

Hersherberger opened the inning with a single and moved to second on a bunt single by Jim Gosger. Joe Nossok then sacrificed the runners along and reliever Thad Tillotson walked Phil Roof to load the bases.

The eight game lead is the largest margin enjoyed by a National League team this season.

Kubiak then bunted down the third base line where John Kennedy fielded the ball and threw home in plenty of time to get Hersherberger. But Gibbs dropped the ball as Hersherberger slammed into him.

The victory was the 10th in the last 11 games for the league-leading Cards.

The Reds tied the game 3-3 in the eighth when Tommy Harper walked, took second on a sacrifice by Vada Pinson and scored on a single by Pete Rose.

Versalles' homer led off the third inning and handed Lee Stange his seventh loss against as many victories.

The Twins had scored in the first inning on Cesar Tovar's single and a whistling double to right field by Tony Oliva which Tony Conigliaro misjudged and let roll to the wall, enabling Tovar to tally from first base.

Rico Petrocelli hit his 10th homer of the season in the second inning for the Red Sox to tie the score at 1-1.

Boswell walked the bases full in the fourth inning but got out of the jam by striking out Elston Howard, who started his first game for the Red Sox since being acquired from the New York Yankees.

get the lighting system working until after intermission but the crowd of 7,300 which showed up on a pleasantly warm evening was surprising patient through a first half which saw the Mountaineers go ahead on a 12-yard sweep of left end by their starting quarterback, Gene Weitz, of Union, late in the second period. A 37-yard punt return by Wheeling's Bob Vogler set up the tally.

The aroused Buckeyes came on like gangbusters at the outset of the third period and drove from their own 20 to the W. Va. 8 before yielding the pigskin on downs. The Barnesville combination of little Johnny Merrill, at quarterback, and tall Dallas Adams, at end, clicked on a 39-yard pass-play-and, Bellaire's Rich Gianangeli reeled off a 17-yard run during the foray.

Follansbee's Terry Kidder, who did a tremendous job of punting throughout the game, extricated W. Va. from the hole with a 53-yard boot out of his own end zone.

In the opening seconds of the fourth quarter the Mountaineers jumped their lead to 12-0 when Pete Giglio hit his former Follansbee High teammate, Tim Stefan, on a 54-yard pass play. Stefan was wide open at the Buckeye 25.

Ohio advanced to the W. Va. 30 after the next kickoff but the alert Vogler thwarted the bid with an interception in his own end zone.

Late in the game another interception by Vogler, followed by his 28-yard return to the Buckeye 2, set up the final TD, which the winning High grad made himself on a plunge with 1:25 left in the fray.

Vogler was stopped short on the point try but his outstanding performance won him an award as the Most Valuable Player on the winning side. Gianangeli was picked as Ohio's MVP.

The Mountaineers produced their three touchdown margin although garnering only 62 yards by rushing during the contest. They added 90 yards in the air with three completions in seven tries and had but five first downs.

Ohio made 114 yards rushing and hit on six of 19 passes for 103 but suffered four interceptions. The Bucks had seven first downs. They were penalized 40 yards for W. Va.'s 20.

Ohio was presented with an early opportunity to move the ball in W. Va. territory when Mike Hostasa, tackle from Shadyside, covered a Mountaineer fumble on the first scrimmage play at the W. Va. 43. However, three plays later the Buckeyes returned the favor as Chuck Bonitt, of Weirton Madonia, confiscated an Ohio bobble at the 36.

The Bucks forced a W. Va. punt but Dave Grandstaff, defensive back from Magnolia, subsequently picked off a pass thrown by Barnesville's Johnny Merrill and returned from the Mountaineer 45 to the Ohio 42.

The winning numbers for the record payoff were 6, 3, 8 and 2. The old Charles Town record of $36,461.40 had stood since Dec. 27, 1965.

Neck Decision Decides Record

$36,998 Double

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. (AP)—A track record $36,998.20 was won by a single bettor in the twin double Saturday at Charles Town Race Course.

The unidentified fan had the closest call with his first selection, Mr. Bake Price winning the fifth race by a neck while paying $13.20 for $2.

Miss Ella Cee won the sixth race by two lengths at a $28.60 payoff; Mr. D. K. the seventh by 1 1/4 lengths for $13.00, and Hot Blast the eighth by two lengths at $12.60.

Hot Blast led all the way in the 6-furlong dash, holding a five-length margin entering the stretch.

The winning numbers for the record payoff were 6, 3, 8 and 2. The old Charles Town record of $36,461.40 had stood since Dec. 27, 1965.

Roberto Clemente started the winning rally in the sixth with a single. Luppow forced him at second but Donn Clendenon singled to right, sending Luppow to third. Mazerowski laid down a squeeze bunt.

The Pirates scored their first run in the fourth. Maury Willis

Browning Gains Semi-Final Spot

Zeke Browning has surged into the semi-finals, a round ahead of the field in the club championship tournament at Steubenville County Club with his conquest of Dr. Richard Har- sor.

The defending club champion, Dr. Albert Mollsky, is one of a half dozen others contending for the other four places in the semi-finals. Dr. Mollsky meets Wayne O'Reilly while a former champion, Chuck Klasic, plays Jack McVey and the other match puts Andy Fraser against Steve Starr.

Whitworth Is Carling Leader

COLUMBUS (UPI)—Texan Kathy Whitworth fire an impressive two-under-par 70 Saturday to remain the leader of the third annual $20,500 Lady Carling Open Golf Tournament with a two-round total of 71.

Hot on her heels in second place were all-time LPGA money winning champion Mickey Wright, who scorched the 6,300-yard Walnut Hill Country Club layout with a three-under 69, and saucy Susy Maxwell of Oklahoma, who carded the best round of the tourney, a four-under 69. Both were at 142.

Four shots off the pace and tied for fourth place were tall carded Miss Mary Ann Suggs at 145, one over par. Miss Mann carded a 73 while Miss Suggs shot a two-under 70.
