WE, TOO, ARE INVOLVED!

Once again, we of Picoma Industries, Inc., are proud to support the fine efforts of the O.V.A.C. in the promotion and progress of the Annual All-Star Football Game. As a responsible local industry, we are sincerely concerned with the well-being of our youth in the Ohio Valley.

In an effort to be of additional aid to the deserving student athletes of the Ohio Valley in furthering their education, we have since 1968 sponsored the Alfred Briese Scholarship Award. We are gratified with the results of our scholarship program thus far and are pleased to acknowledge the recipients as well as their current status as follows:

1968	Dean Stambolis St. Clairsville High	Ohio State University

1971	James Elcessor Brooke High	University of Dayton

OHIO VALLEY ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

S. A. MUMLEY, SR. 227 EFAW AVENUE PHONE 68
EXEC. SECRETARY ST. CLAIRSVILLE, OHIO 43950 AREA COI

Dear Coach,

We hardly know each other, and yet have a lot in common; namely, my son Mike. Now that your season has begun, you have in your hands one of the greatest possessions the good Lord has seen fit to give us – our son, and make no mistake about it, coach, during these few months he is yours.

To his mother and me he is still a little boy in many respects, but of course we wouldn't dare let him know we felt that way since he thinks he's quite grown up at age 15. To most coaches, he and his buddies are looked upon as young men because they have the backbone to come out for the team and to stick with it. Little boys couldn't do this, only "men" can take it. But I guess most parents are hesitant to want to see their sons in this light because these youngsters seem to grow up so quickly anyway.

You know, Mike has been a hero worshipper ever since he was little more than a baby and I'm happy to say that at one small point in his life he even included me. But now, you are number one. In his eyes, you are the man. He believes in you. He believes in what you do. He believes in what you stand for and what you say. He doesn't miss a thing where you are concerned, and most importantly he believes in what you are. This, my friend makes you a very special person fulfilling a very special role, with very special responsibilities which far outweigh the limited message any scoreboard might tell.

THE DAPPER DAN STORY

A Tribute to the Late Robert S. McKelvey of Toronto

Within a span of less than eight years, the Dapper Dan Story in the Upper Ohio Valley area has grown from a dream to reality.

Most responsible for the huge success of this charitable organization was the late Robert S. McKelvey, who served as president for all but one of those years and held that capacity until his death last May 31.

From East Liverpool to Powhatan in Eastern Ohio and in Hancock, Brooke and Ohio Counties in West Virginia, Dapper Dan has become a symbol of people helping people.

Postmaster in Toronto for 29 years before his retirement two years ago, Mr. McKelvey was a tireless worker in behalf of Dapper Dan.

Annually, the organization has held a Sports Award Banquet to honor coaches, athletes and sports figures who have brought recognition to the Ohio Valley area.

However, this is only a small part of the group's main objective, and that is assisting various charitable groups throughout the Ohio Valley, primarily organizations involving children and youth. Its motto is appropriate, "A Helping Hand Towards a Happier Life."

Since its inception nearly eight years ago, Dapper Dan, through its membership drives and a variety of projects, has been able to contribute nearly $45,000 to a number of charitable groups in the Ohio Valley.

of the Sports Award Banquets. It was appropriate that one of the presenters was Al Abrams, right, sports editor of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and founder of the original Dapper Dan Club in that city. The other presenter was former Ohio Governor James A. Rhodes, a special guest at that particular banquet.

Mr. McKelvey was an avid sports fan. He acknowledged the great sports tradition of the Ohio Valley. While he looked forward to the annual banquet when the organization honored the men and youth who did much to bring recognition to our area through athletics, his main interest was the charitable work done by Dapper Dans. To this end, his efforts were unlimited. Since his retirement, he spent nearly every free moment in behalf of the Dapper Dan work.

His leadership was inspiring to the many men who are directors or have served as directors. Through his motivation, the sports fans of the Ohio Valley have responded to Dapper Dan and the charitable work done by this organization.

There are many ways to pay tribute to a dear friend. The best, in Mr. McKelvey's case, would be for the Dapper Dan directors, friends and sports fans of the Ohio Valley to carry on the work of the organization with the dignity befitting this fine gentleman.

The OVAC Story

Tonight's Ohio-West Virginia All-Star Football Game is the second held under the auspices of the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference, an organization which has played an integral part in Ohio Valley athletics for 30 years.

Previously, the Ohio-West Virginia All-Star Game was sponsored by booster club organizations in Eastern Ohio and the Northern Panhandle area of West Virginia.

The interstate classic was suspended on several occasions and completely disbanded several years ago when the boosters were unable to obtain NCAA sanction.

The OVAC, through the efforts of its officers and primarily its executive secretary, Sam A. Mumley Sr., was successful after several years of negotiating to obtain NCAA sanction.

Thus, one of the great high school sporting events was back on the scene.

Because of the heavy damage inflicted by Wheeling Stadium in last year's floods, the game was switched to Martins Ferry and it drew a capacity audience, despite a deluge of rain which fell shortly before game time. The rain, however, failed to dampen the spirits of the all-star gridders and fans who converged on Ferry Stadium.

Ohio won the game, 24-6. The contest was much closer than the score indicated.

The victory by the Buckeyes gave Ohio a 16-11 edge since the first Ohio-West Virginia All-Star Game was played in 1940.

While the OVAC was instrumental in returning the all-star game to the valley sports schedule last year, Stone and Thomas of Wheeling also decided to resume sponsorship of the popular and colorful Queen of Queens Pageant. Last year's queen was Cathy Erwin of Mt. Pleasant High School.

The OVAC does not benefit financially in sponsoring the All-Star Game. All proceeds are earmarked for charitable or educational organizations. For example, four groups benefitted from last year's game, West Liberty State College, the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Club, College of Steubenville and the Upper Ohio Valley United Fund.

This year, the OVAC is hopeful of assisting six organizations in the Ohio Valley.

Undertaking of such a project is an example of the outstanding work done by the Ohio Valley

Athletic Conference in its support of valley athletes. The efforts of Game Director Rudolph Mumley and his associates are to be commended.

It was in 1943 that birth was given to the OVAC. F. W. Bowen, J. E. Ewing, J. C. Greer, M. S. Hattala, B. J. Lockhart, J. V. Nelson, C. Petty, C. F. Walker and C. S. Wiseman were among the valley educators responsible for the formation of the conference. Mr. Wiseman became the group's first president.

Naturally, the OVAC experienced growing pains, but there was a demand for a conference which would help stimulate and promote a more lucrative program of competitive high school athletics in the Ohio Valley.

This, the OVAC has accomplished. Today, it is the largest high school athletic conference in either Ohio and West Virginia. Consolidations cut down on the membership from a high of nearly 50 in the 1950's and early 60's, but the popularity of the OVAC has grown in recent years and it now encompasses 42 schools in 12 counties in Eastern Ohio and the Northern Panhandle of West Virginia.

During the last two years, the OVAC has admitted eight new schools into the conference, including Meadowbrook, Shenandoah, Zane Trace, Wellsville, East Liverpool, Jefferson Union, Guernsey Catholic and Skyvue.

Schools in the OVAC sponsor up to nine different athletic programs and the conference supervises tournaments and championship meets in many of these sports.

Another major contribution of the OVAC has been its administration of scholarships through the generosity of Ohio Valley businesses and industries. Presently, the OVAC administers scholarships provided by Morris Plan Bank of Wheeling, Picoma Industries of Martins Ferry, Pepsi-Cola Bottling of Moundsville and Parkersburg, and the Ohio Valley Board of Approved Umpires.

In addition, many organizations and business people assist the OVAC annually with the presentation of trophies and other awards for its champions in the various sports.

The basic objective of the OVAC is to continue the promotion of all high school athletics and to serve in the overall development of proper school relationship, scholarship and sportmanship within the conference.

In this respect, the OVAC has performed admirably.

"CHARITY AND LOVE FOR OUR FELLOW MAN"

Be more than his dad, be a chum to the lad;
Be a part of his life, every hour of the day;
Find time to talk with him, take time to walk with him,
Share in his studies and share in his play;
Take him to places; to ball games and races,
Teach him the things that you want him to know;
Don't live apart from him, don't keep your heart from him,
Be his comrade, he's needing you so!

You can inspire him with courage, and fire him
Hot with ambition for deeds that are good;
He'll not betray you nor will he repay you,
If you have taught him the things that you should.
Father and son must in all things be one----
Partners in trouble and comrades in joy.
More that a dad was the best pal you had;
Be such a chum as you knew, to your boy.

KINDNESS

I shall pass through this world but once.
If, therefore, there be any kindness
I can show,
or any good thing I can do,
let me do it now;
let me not defer it or neglect it,
for I shall not pass this way again.
