Dear Lord, in this battle that goes on through Life,
I ask but a field that is fair;
A chance to compete with all in the strife
And courage to strive and to dare.
And if I should win, let it be by the code,
With my faith and my honor held high;
But if I should lose, let me stand by the road,
And cheer as the winner goes by.

by Dorothy R. Funk
Copyright 1975 by U.M.C. Inc., Wellsburg, W. Va.

The spirit of freedom is the legacy and birthright of every citizen of the United States of America. Our Liberty, not won and preserved with ease, indifference or selfishness, rather, has been forged in the fires of self-sacrifice, loyalty, courage and wisdom, with a vision dedicated to a United States of America, forever free.

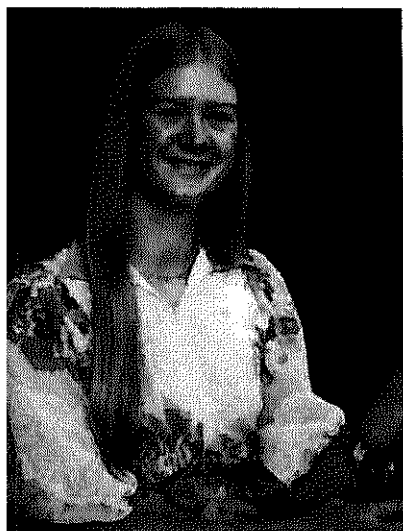

The total sacrifice of patriotic men and women for our great nation can never be measured, nor can we ever fully comprehend their precious gift of freedom. However, let us never forget, that the freedom we enjoy every day in these United States was made possible only through the sacrifice of battle; and with a dollar cost $581,833,089,154.00.

Because these patriots of the past believed enough in a free United States of America, safeguard, with their lives if necessary, its spirit of freedom, we of today, enjoy that legacy. Liberties, as guaranteed in the Constitution continue to survive only if we and each successive generation, elect to serve our country with courage, loyalty and wisdom, and to persevere forever — the spirit of freedom.

A COACH'S PRAYER.

by Burt Willeford

Baseball Coach, Akron Ellet High School

Dear God:

Thank you for the opportunity You have given me to lead young men. Help me lead them to You.

Help me to be diligent in their preparation—for the contests and for life as You would have them lead it; considerate of their well-being—both moral and physical; exemplary in inspiring their efforts and their conduct—on the field and in life, and kind but firm in assessing their athletic performance—as You will be in assessing their performances in life.

Assist me in coaching in such a way that my charges learn that what really counts is not how they perform for me once, but they consistently perform for You. Let me help them to realize that making the small sacrifices for sports is just a way of developing their ability to make the big sacrifices for You.

I pray that I will always coach so that my players will see that, with Your assistance, they need never fall victims to despair; that regardless of how tough the going gets, they can always count on You.

O God, let me never be so tempted by the desire for material victory that I misuse an athlete or abuse my fellow man, thereby risking the greater victory of reaching You.

Help me to teach my athletes that how they win is more important than winning itself. Hear my prayers for the athlete with a difficult assignment in the game and in life. Keep me humble in victory and proud in defeat. And instill in me the desire to pray to You, after the game as well as before it—regardless of the outcome.

And God, whatever happens, let me always be man enough to speak, with sincerity, that greatest of all prayers, "Thy Will be done."

Amen.

A TRIBUTE TO A FRIEND

Some poet has said:

*"I want men to remember
When gray death sets me free
I was a man who had many friends
And many friends had me."*

This is a time for us to recall the many friends that Cal had and to whom he was a friend.

How did Cal have so many friendships? To all of us, he was a friend. He loved people and gave freely and cheerfully of himself.

Long ago a wise man said, "Blessed is the man who has a friend and twice blessed he, who is a friend." We, of the OVAC, have been doubly blessed by having had Cal as a friend.

OVAC will be eternally grateful to Calvin Griffin for his dedication and hard work for the charity football game.

We Salute You*

You Know What I'm Gonna Be...?"

"You know what I'm gonna be when I grow up?"

"No, waddaya gonna be?"

"Can't tell. You gotta guess."

can be uncomfortable being little. Door knobs and hips hit you in the arge dogs tip you over. Dad walks too fast, and you have to run to keep up.

"A basketball player?"

"No."

Tom makes you eat peas . . . and they're always cold. Old ladies gush "darling" you are. Seems as if you're always brushing your teeth.

"A policeman? Astronaut? Coach? My dorm counselor?"

"No."

and it can be uncomfortable being big. You experience losing and z. You struggle with strange feelings inside you and constrictive pres- outside you. You learn such words as greed and selfishness and loneliness ejection and hatred and find they are more than words.

"Howard Cosell?"

"What's that?"

being big is trying to be sophisticated and coming off like a clod . . . trying cool when your guts are all tied-up . . . trying to be loving and not merely r . . . trying to get answers and coming up with more questions . . . trying . . . rying again.

Coach is calling, little buddy. Waddaya gonna be?"

"I'm gonna be really big . . . just like you."

everybody goes from little to big. But there is "big" and there is "really big." and who becomes big and who becomes really big depends on the process e and influence and experience to which a little guy is exposed.

helping little guys become really big is what makes a big guy really big.
