A Word of Welcome to All . . .

On behalf of the OVAC, I want to sincerely welcome each and everyone of you to the annual OVAC Wrestling Tournament. Our warmest expressions of good luck are extended to each team and its supporters entering the great event.

From its meager and uncertain start in 1943, the OVAC Wrestling Tournament has grown into one of the major sport attractions in the Ohio Valley.

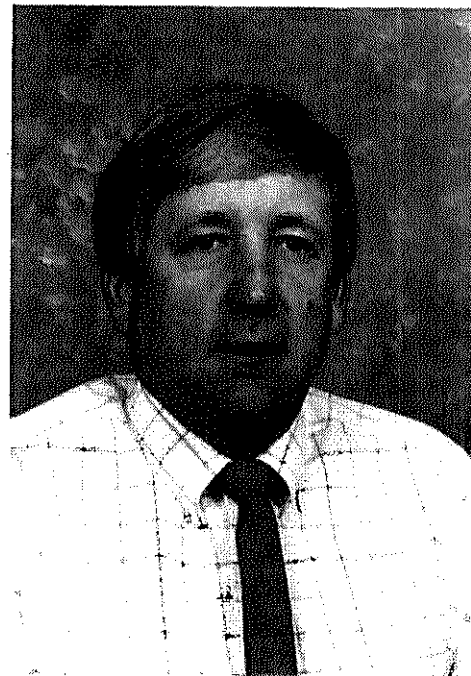

We do not hesitate to say the tournament is actually a demonstration of high character, good conduct, under the rules of the games, and on ethical relationship with one's opponent.

As you cheer for your favorite team, may the highest standards of sportsmanship prevail throughout the tournament.

I am proud to act as Director for the annual OVAC Wrestling Tournament. It is our wish that your visit be pleasant and rewarding. Since only a few will reach the pinnacle of total victory, in our hearts you shall all be champion. May I extend a sincere congratulations to all the schools participating and wish you the very best of luck.

In closing, let us all work in the spirit of good sportsmanship and remember the motto of the conference is "Serving the Youth of the Upper Ohio Valley."

THE WRESTLER'S CREED

It takes a man to stick it out,
He wants to cry but only shouts,
He ponders quitting, yet then looks up,
His prime objective - the Champion's Cup!

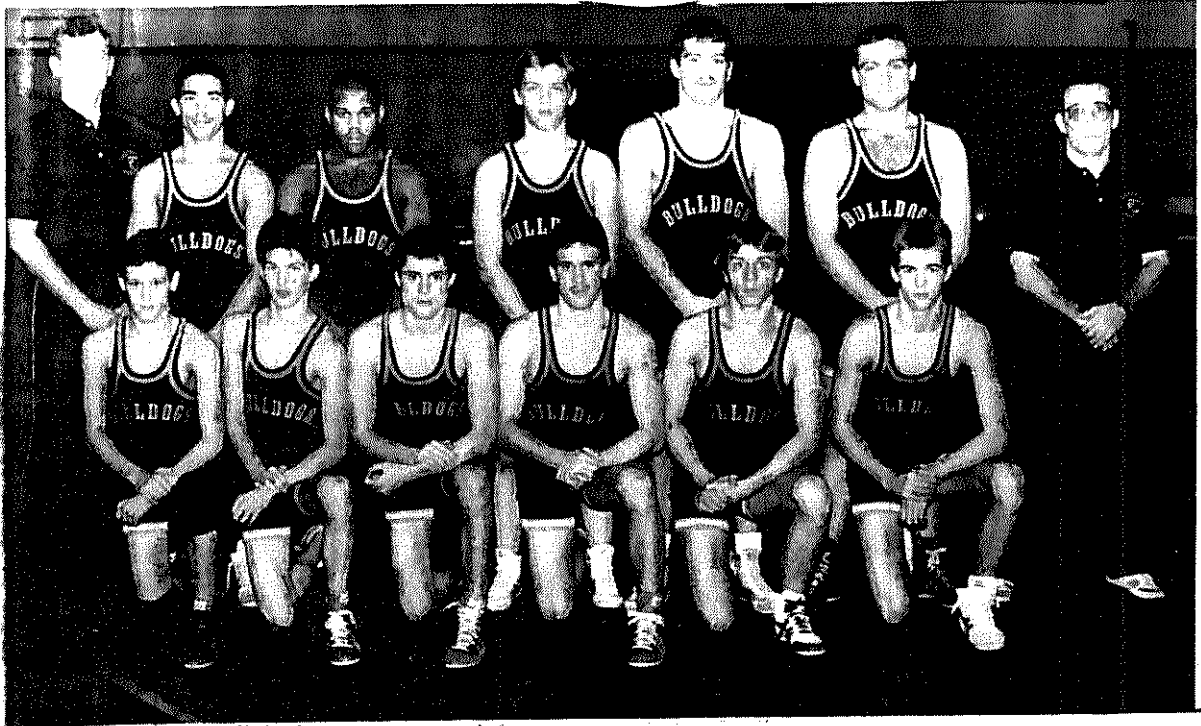

Sometimes he thinks and wonders why,
But then, thanks God for his chance to try,
He's sweating, tired, and considers rest,
But keeps on moving - his goal, Be the Best!

It takes dedication, simple and pure,
To be on top, he's got to endure,
He must prevail, be second to none,
His ultimate drive - Be Number One!

MAT THOUGHTS ON EXCUSES vs. APOLOGIES

Although many wrestling enthusiasts might consider "excuses" and "apologies" as being similar in meaning, there is a subtle, but very important, difference between the two words.

To begin with, excuses usually involve the inability to accept responsibility for inadequate performances. Now making excuses would include such statements as "He was stronger than me," "I wasn't feeling well," or "He was too tall to take down." In each of these cases, the wrestler is fabricating an alibi for not performing to his fullest potential. Naturally, this is no way to become a better matman. So, don't make excuses for losing! If you do, your coach (who knows all about excuses) will probably come down on you much harder than he originally intended to.

On the other hand, apologies involve accepting responsibility for poor performances. The mature wrestler knows when he has blundered, and is not afraid to admit to his shortcomings during competition. Likewise, by realizing your errors on the mat and owning up to them, you will have overcome the obstacle of "excuse-making" — and will undoubtedly be a better person for it.

Yes, we all make mistakes for which apologies are in order. But remember, excuses are of another breed. They are only weak attempts to conceal errors in performance, and no perceptive coach will ever condone such "cover ups" from his wrestlers!

A Mat Salute To "A Man Who Is Dedicated To Ohio Valley Wrestling"

DAVE KOVALICK

Dave Kovalick symbolizes the best in dedication to Ohio Valley Wrestling!

With a quarter century of experience in the mat sport, Dave Kovalick has excelled as a competitor, coach and contributor to OVAC wrestling. But he is foremost in the area of adding a touch of "levity," even during stressful situations that would otherwise be void of such humor.

Dave Kovalick began his wrestling endeavors as a matman at Bridgeport High School, and also was a varsity performer at West Liberty State College. After college, Kovalick took over the coaching reins at Barnesville High School in 1967. And by 1972, Coach Kovalick brought the "Shamrock" mat program to major-sport status at the school.

Over the years, Dave Kovalick produced numerous OVAC champions and Ohio state qualifiers. Furthermore, Coach Kovalick initiated the Barnesville Invitational Wrestling Tournament in 1970, which has matured into one of the premiere mat events in the valley. By the way, two of Dave's teams won this very competitive tourney in 1975 and 1976.

After ten highly successful seasons, Coach Kovalick stepped down as head coach. But to this day, Dave Kovalick assists the Shamrock varsity program as the school's junior high's mat mentor. And during the 1984 and 1985 seasons, Barnesville wrestling squads won the Ohio AA State and OVAC team titles, respectively, under the tutelage of Darrell Davis.

In conclusion, Dave Kovalick also gives hours upon hours of his time, behind the scenes, to the annual OVAC Wrestling Tournament. Likewise, he is highly respected and admired by all of us who know him personally. Yes, yours truly salutes Dave Kovalick - a man who epitomizes the best in dedication to the mat sport in the upper Ohio Valley!

Going to McDonald's® is almost as much a part of school as going to class. You've made us the place to meet, to talk, to have a good time, to celebrate your victories and help forget defeats.

You've made McDonald's more than just another place to eat. And that's why, at McDonald's, "We do it all for you.®"

Nobody can do it like McDonald's can
