11th ANNUAL OVAC BASKETBALL CLASSIC

ST. JOHN ARENA
JUNE 11, 1988

WELCOME

Welcome to the 1988 Ohio Valley Athletic Conference All-Star Charity Basketball Classic. These games are a showcase of the OVAC's boys' and girls' talents. This year's game, like the ten that preceded it, promise to spotlight some excellent basketball abilities.

Today's athletes come from all corners of the OVAC to feature their talents one last time for area fans. These fine individuals have demonstrated their talents, abilities, and sportsmanship throughout their high school careers. The OVAC is proud to recognize these All-Star players and their All-Star coaches for their dedication, hard work, and commitment. We also salute their families, coaches, and communities who have supported their efforts. We hope that you will enjoy cheering for your favorite players, and, in general, have a great day of basketball with the stars.

A special thank you must go to the fine people at St. John Arena who are hosts for this year's basketball classic.

Sincerely,
Clyde DiAngelo
Steubenville Central
Catholic High School
OVAC Basketball Classic
Director

★ THANKS ★

TEEN AGERS

Now... Read This

Always we hear the plaintive cry of the teen-agers:

What can we do . . . ?

Where can we go . . . ?

I can make some suggestions, GO HOME!

Remove the storm windows. Paint the woodwork. Rake the leaves. Mow the lawn. Shovel the walk. Wash the car. Learn to cook. Scrub the floors. Repair the sink. Build a boat. Get a job.

Help the Minister, the Red Cross, the Salvation Army. Visit the sick. Assist the poor. Study your lessons. And when you are through—and not too tired—read a book.

Your parents do not owe you entertainment. Your village does not owe you recreational facilities.

The world does NOT owe you a living .
You owe the world something.

You owe it your time and energy, and your talents, so that no one will be at war or in poverty, or sick, or lonely again.

In plain simple words: 'GROW UP, quit being a crybaby; get out of your dream world; develop a backbone, not a wishbone; and start acting like a man or a lady.'

I'm a parent. I'M tired of nursing, protecting, helping, appealing, begging, excusing, tolerating, denying myself needed comforts for your every whim and fancy, just because your selfish ego instead of common sense dominates your personality and thinking

YOUR NEXT TWELVE HOURS

Just for today I will try to live through this day only, and not tackle my whole life problem at once. I can do something for 12 hours that would appall me if I felt that I had to keep it up for a lifetime.

Just for today I will be happy. This assumes to be true what Lincoln said, that "Most people are as happy as they make up their minds to be."

Just for today I will try to strengthen my mind. I will study. I will learn something useful. I will not be a mental loafer. I will read something that requires effort, thought, and concentration.

Just for today I will adjust myself to what is, and not try to adjust everything to my own desires. I will take my "luck" as it comes, and fit myself to it.

Just for today I will exercise my soul in three ways: I will do somebody a good turn, and not get found out. I will do at least two things I don't want to do — just for exercise. I will not show anyone that my feelings are hurt; they may be hurt, but today I will not show it.

Just for today I will be agreeable, I will look as well as I can, dress becomingly, talk low, act courteously, criticize not one bit, not find fault with anything, and not try to improve or regulate anybody except myself.

Just for today I will have a program. I am not sure I will follow it exactly, but I will have it. I will save myself from two pests: hurry and decision.

Just for today I will have a quiet half hour all by myself, and relax. During this half hour, sometime, I will try to get a better perspective of my life.

Just for today I will be unafraid. Especially I will not be afraid to enjoy what is beautiful, and to believe that as I give to the world, so the world will give to me.

... and

Just for today I will try to remember that this is NOT just for today.

Remember the turtle — He never makes any progress till he sticks his neck out.

Failure is frequently the path of least persistence.

The road to success is marked with many tempting parking places.

The average man has 5 senses: touch, taste, sight, smell, and hearing. The successful man has two more: horse and common.

Folks with a lot of brass are seldom polished.

People don't plan to fail — they just fail to plan.

Those who complain about the way the ball bounces are often the ones who dropped it.

When you try to make an impression, that is the impression you make.

Life asks of every individual a contribution; it's up to the individual to discover what that contribution will be.

The man who makes every minute count becomes the man of the hour.

The man who removes a mountain begins by carrying away small stones.

The reason a dog has so many friends is that his tail wags instead of his tongue.

Hold fast to dreams, for if dreams die, I is a broken winged bird that cannot fly.

Don't walk in front of me — I may not follow.
Don't walk behind me — I may not lead.
Walk beside me — and just be my friend.

Faith is the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen.

Where there is great love there are always great miracles.

There can be no rainbow without a cloud and a storm.

If any man seeks for greatness, let him forsake greatness and ask for truth, and he will find both.

Feelings are not like faucets you can turn on and off.

When life gives you lemons, make lemonade.

The greatest use of life is to spend it for something that will outlast it.

The greatest truths are the simplest.

After all is said and done, there's a lot more said than done.

*It's easy to cry that you're beaten and die,
It's easy to crawfish and crawl,
But to fight and to fight when hope's out of sight,
Why, that's the best game of them all;
And tho' you come out of each grueling bout
All broken and beaten and scarred
Just have one more try. It's dead easy to die.
It's the keeping on living that's hard!*

CAMBRIDGE BOBCAT BOOSTER CL

Luv Ya Blue!!!

He who laughs — lasts.

Hit or miss methods usually miss.

To be satisfied with yourself is a sure sign that your forward motion is about to stop.

Men may be divided almost any way we please, but I have found the most useful distinction to be made between those who devote their lives to conjugating the verb "to be," and those who spend their lives conjugating the verb "to have."

About the only thing people in every walk of life will agree about is that they are underpaid and overcharged.

Kindness is a language which the deaf can hear and the blind can read.

Nice guys finish last (Don't misjudge the finish line).

One big problem in life is how to stay in the groove without turning it into a rut.

No God	Know God
No Peace	Know Peace

There is more happiness in the world than "gloomy" eyes discover.

We all make footprints in the sands of time. Some leave the imprint of a great soul; others just the mark of a heel.

If my mind can conceive it and my heart can believe it, I know I can achieve it.

A man should be upright, not kept upright.

Every man takes his own limits of vision for the limits of the world.

You can give a man a fish and he will eat for a day. You can teach a man how to fish and he will eat for a lifetime.

The only person you should want to get even with is the person who does you a good turn.

SCENARIO FOR A WINNER

A winner says, "Let's find out"; A loser says, "No body knows."

A winner makes commitments. A loser makes promises.

A winner says, "I'm good, but not as good as I ought to be"; A loser says, "I'm not as bad as a lot of other people."

A winner credits his "Good luck" for winning — even though it wasn't his good luck; A loser blames his "Bad luck" for losing — even though it wasn't his bad luck.

A winner listens; A loser just waits until it's his turn to talk.

A winner respects those who are superior to him and tries to learn from them; A loser resents the superiority of others and tries to find chinks in their armor.

A winner does more than his job; A loser says, "I only work here."

A winner says, "I fell"; A loser says, "Somebody pushed me."

A youth is a person who is going to carry on what you have started. He is going to sit where you are sitting and attend to those things which you think are important. You may adopt all the policies you please, but how they will be carried out depends on him. He will assume control of your duties, states, and nation. He is going to move in and take over your churches, schools, universities, and corporations. All your books are going to be judged, praised or condemned by him. The fate of humanity is in his hands. So it might be well to pay him some attention.

It is safe in a harbor, but that is not what ships are built for.

The most important thing is this: to be able at any time to sacrifice what we are for what we want to become.

MUSIC FOR ALL OCCASIONS

Be nice to the fellows you meet on the way up. They are the same fellows you will meet on your way down.

A man is as little as the things that annoy him.

The bigger a man's head gets, the easier it is to fill his shoes.

One doesn't need to be smart to say things that do.

THE SICK AMERICAN

Former Governor Charles Edison, as director of the company Committee for Public Affairs, has mailed to all McGraw-Edison employees a copy of a letter by an unnamed San Franciscan. It was published in the Copeland newspapers in California, but deserves the attention of all the authentic fellow citizens in the other 49 states as well. The writer says:

"I am one of the Americans who heard Mr. Krushchev tell our nation that my great-grandchildren will grow up in a Communist world. For some time now, this has bothered me. I am not a brave man — not even a brave one . . . I am now 50. I paint my own house, repair my own car, grub up my own devil grass, and nurse a modest savings account. . . . I am a law-abiding man on the quiet side, and dissension makes me terribly nervous. Frankly, I am the kind who simply doesn't have it in him to fight anyone, even

He goes on to report coming across "the huge old family bible" in the attic with his great-grandmother's journal of her covered wagon trek across the Great Plains to the wild, new land of California.

"On the trail she wrote of sickness and hunger, and heat and cold and dust and thirst, and the deaths and births, like beads strung together on a thread of hope — hope of freedom and a land of plenty for their children yet unborn. . . . As I read, I began to think about America and what it stands for; and I thought about our enemies and what they intend to do to America . . . to its freedom and its hope.

"And, suddenly, I realized that I am a sick American. I mean really sick. . . . I am sick of bureaucrats who tell me that my enemy is not really my enemy and that I should live together with murderers and tyrants. I am sick of government that hasn't the guts to clean traitors out of its own office. And I'm sick of being a nice, pleasant guy about it. . . . I am sick of my country being ridiculed all over the world. I am sick of pink-fingered diplomats and lily-livered politicians who place personal career above the fate of the Flag.

"I am sick of 40 years of relentless, creeping cancerous Communist godlessness that never once has wavered from its avowed purpose of conquering that Flag and seeing it trampled in the mud under Russian boots. I am sick of my genteel desire to stand pat and pray while the enemy advances. I am sick of educators who teach tolerance of subversion and of clergymen who would have me quail at the spectre of battle and turn the other cheek in fear of what our enemies might do.

"In all honesty, the thing of which I am most sick is the man who makes these things come to be: myself. And, by the living God who made me, I am a sick American who intends to get well."

The letter is signed "Fed-up Citizen." Are there enough more, I wonder, who will make up their troubled minds to get well?

ANGELO J. VACCARO

Angelo J. Vaccaro served his entire teaching, administrative and coaching career in his native city, Steubenville. Born in the Ohio River community, he was graduated from Steubenville High School in 1931, where he had participated in football, basketball, and baseball.

Following his graduation from Steubenville High School, he attended and was graduated from Newton Academy, Newton, New Jersey in 1933 and then received a B.A. degree from Ursinus College in Collegeville, Pennsylvania in 1938. He played football, basketball and baseball at both institutions. In 1947, he received a Master in Education degree from the University of Pittsburgh. He has achieved fifty graduate hours beyond the Master degree.

Mr. Vaccaro served as a teacher, coach and high school principal in the Steubenville Public Schools from 1938 to 1973. He became allsports coach at Grant Junior High School in 1940 and assumed the head coaching responsibilities at Steubenville High School in both basketball and baseball in 1947 - duties he retained until 1960. He also served as assistant football coach at Steubenville High School from 1938 to 1950. Mr. Vaccaro was principal of Steubenville High School from 1966 to his retirement in 1973.

During World War II, Mr. Vaccaro served as an officer in the United States Navy and saw active duty service from January 31, 1943 to November 26, 1945. He earned medals for serving the American, Asiatic-Pacific, European-African-Middle Eastern, and the Philippine liberation, World War II victory and naval reserve. Mr. Vaccaro retired from the United States Navy Reserve with the rank of Commander after 24 years of service.

The basketball record compiled at Steubenville High School by Coach Vaccaro shows 213 wins and 98 losses. His 1951-52 team won 28 games before losing in the final game of the state championship tournament. In addition, his teams won eight sectional championships, four district championships and one regional championship. The 1956-57 team won 22 games in a row and Vaccaro teams won two Ohio Valley Athletic Conference championships.

From 1947 to 1960, Mr. Vaccaro's Steubenville High School's baseball teams won 196 won seven sectional championships, four district championships, and four Ohio Valley Athletic Conference champion

Ang Vaccaro has been named to the Ohio High School Basketball Coaches Hall of Fame, the Upper Ohio Dapper Dan Hall of Fame and has received the Distinguished Achievement in Athletics Award in 1968, 1979, and 1980. He received the Jefferson Lodge Sports Award in 1979. He is a member of the Steubenville Rotary Club and has received its highest award, Paul Harris Fellow.

During and after his association with the Steubenville Public School System, Mr. Vaccaro has served as a former manager of sectional and district basketball and baseball tournaments. He served as a member of the Eastern District Board of Control and also as a Director of the Ohio High School Basketball Coaches Association. He has been active for over 40 years in community affairs and has been listed as President and Chairman of most civic minded organizations in the Upper Ohio Valley.

Mr. Vaccaro has not limited himself to school affairs in sports. He has been manager of the Argonne Post 33 Steubenville Baseball Team for 36 years. His teams have won 1084 games and lost but 232 games. They have won three Ohio State Athletic Legion Championships, in 1978 and 1979,; were runner up six times and have been district champions 31 times.
