

14th ANNUAL OVAC BASKETBALL CLASSIC

Bellaire High School
June 8, 1991

Welcome!

The Bellaire City School District would like to welcome you to Bellaire High School for the 14th Annual OVAC All-Star Basketball Classic. We are proud of the fact that both our boys' and girls' basketball team were OVAC Champions this past year, with the boys gaining their FOURTH STRAIGHT title and the girls capturing their SECOND STRAIGHT crown.

Many of the fine athletes who we played against this year are once again our guests, and we welcome you back.

We are also proud of the fact that our former principal/superintendent, J.V. Nelson, was one of the nine men responsible for setting up the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference in 1943. We have also had three principals of our high school serve as president of the OVAC: Steve Polinsky (1956-1957), James A. Dixon (1958-1959), and Steve Kish, Jr. (1982-1984).

As all schools in our Conference do, we take extreme pride in the OVAC Championship banners hanging from our wall and the OVAC trophies located in our lobby. The athletes you will see today represent some of the finest talent to be found in any high school conference in the nation.

We hope you enjoy the contests today. Many of the participants have entertained you for the past four years and this gives them one of their last chances to do so again before leaving the scholastic scene.

We hope that your visit is an enjoyable one and that you'll take the time to visit our Wall of Fame in the cafeteria.

Congratulations to all the players performing today, as well as their parents and coaches, and our best wishes for continued success.

The Bellaire City School District

1991 OVAC BASKETBALL CLASSIC'S COACHING HONOREE: BOB DAWSON

When you speak of the OVAC Basketball Classic, and the hundreds of players and coaches who have participated over the past 13 years, you realize that none of this would have been possible had it not been for the insight and work of Wellsville's Bobby Dawson.

Along with Earl Haberfield and Henry "Herk" Lazasz, the trio dreamed up the Classic back in 1978, and it's only appropriate that tonight, on the last Classic to be played in June, the OVAC Basketball Classic honors Coach Dawson.

Thirteen League Championships, 10 Sectional Championship, 3 District Championships, and 1 Regional Championship. For 14 years, the Wellsville Tigers' Basketball Teams were respected throughout the Valley and the State, and part of the reason was because of their leader. In his fourteen years at Wellsville, Dawson accumulated a 260-60 record. That averages out to 18 wins a season!

Overall, in 21 years of coaching both at the varsity and reserve levels, Dawson-coached teams went 356-121. And that averages out to 16 wins a season!

Three times, 1972, 1974, and 1976, Bobby was named Ohio Basketball Coach-of-the-Year. As a matter of fact, he has received that honor from various associations a total of 28 times.

He was also honored in 1976 by being selected to coach the United States All-Stars in the Roundball Classic held in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He also piloted the Ohio North/South All-Stars on one occasion.

Stories of Dawson-coached teams abound. His teams were never taken lightly, regardless of who was playing them.

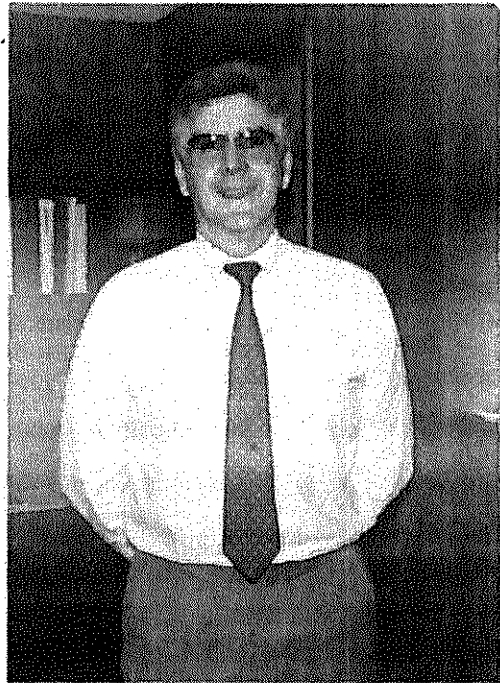

But the impact of Bobby Dawson goes beyond his wins and losses. A master of pregame hype and psychology, an intense tactician on the court, Dawson was a gentleman and teacher off the court.

Several Valley coaches owe their start and their knowledge of the game to Dawson, and anyone who coached against him learned a little more about basketball.

After 21 years on the hardwood, Dawson retired to take an administrative job at Wellsville, where he serves as Principal of Wellsville Junior High and Assistant Principal of Wellsville High School.

Bob's wife, Eileen, is a first grade teacher, and the couple have two sons: Dr. Tim Dawson, an optometrist, and Bob, a junior at East Liverpool High School.

The OVAC Basketball Committee is proud to recognize Bob Dawson, one of the Classic's founders, as tonight's coaching honoree.

The OVAC Basketball Committee Tonight Honors John "Streaky" Haloszka, Veteran Valley Official

Tonight, the OVAC Basketball Classic Committee is proud to honor its second official, veteran John "Streaky" Haloszka.

Haloszka has been known the length and breadth of the valley and beyond. If you've been around here any number of years and are inclined to attend local basketball and/or football games, you've probably booed him somewhere. If you're too refined to boo him, then you've at least been aroused to a few negative head shakes over some of his calls.

Not that "The Streak" was a bad official. Bad officials don't get the chance to work the hundreds and hundreds of games he has. Truth is that if God donned a striped shirt and blew a whistle, he'd probably get booed. It simply goes with the territory.

"Streaky," now 64 years old, sits up there in the stands with some of his former critics now. Being forced to give up both football and basketball officiating because of an irregular heartbeat, he is now an observer for the West Virginia Secondary Schools Activities Commission and sends in reports on officials to that organization.

"I can still go golfing and I can still work but my doctor doesn't want me officiating," he says, with a tinge of regret in his voice. "I'm out of officiating and I miss it but I still love to go to the games."

"Streaky" Haloszka, one of nine children of Polish-born Thomas and Catherine Haloszka, has been involved with sports virtually all his life. As a teenager, he attended Wheeling Central one year, then transferred to Wheeling High and subsequently played under Coach "Abe" Martin at McKinley Vocational.

He came out of high school at the height of World War II. He served in the U.S. Coast Guard and was stationed at such spots as Norfolk, Camp LeJeune and Catalina Island. Catalina was not exactly tough duty, he admitted.

He says an older brother, Stanley, was first called "Streaky" and, as he grew up, he sort of inherited the nickname.

After the war, "Streaky" worked at the Wheeling Corrugating and played baseball and basketball with the PAP Club. "I played third base for the PAP and I could field but I was never much of a hitter so I got frustrated after three or four years and gave it up," he says candidly. "I also played basketball for the Ukranian Club."

Haloszka got into officiating by accident. He encountered his friend Albert Cerullo, who was then establishing himself among the basketball arbiters around the valley, on the street one day. Cerullo said, "I'm going to work a reserve game over at Martins Ferry. You know the rules. Come along and work with me."

Regulations weren't so stringent then so "Streaky" worked that reserve game in the old Carlisle St. hoophouse, even though he didn't have an officiating card. That game hooked him. He was soon a full-fledged official. He was 5ft. and 140 pounds then and he's still 5-9, 140.

Basketball officiating led to football officiating and baseball and softball umpiring and Audrey, wife of this busy guy, wasn't seeing much of him. But she knew "Streaky" loved sports. Moreover, the money, even though it wasn't anything like what officials can command today, came in handy. "Audrey made it all possible," the veteran official emphasized. "She packed my bag, washed my clothes, and made sure I had a sandwich with me. And she didn't bug me about being out of the house all the time.

Audrey married John Haloska 40 years ago. Residents of 1620 Wood Street, in East Wheeling, they have three children - Janice, who is married to Etz Rine Jr. (son of the Dapper Dan Hall of Fame coach); Molly Cieply, wife of Jeff Cieply; and a son, Terry, who played baseball and basketball and ran cross country at Wheeling Central, and who is married with three daughters - Alysha, Jazlyn, and Jade. The Cieply's have a daughter, Cayla, and the Rines have three sons - Jason, Justin, and Joshua - in a family obviously big on alliteration. Jason kicked a school record 43-yard field goal for Wheeling Central last fall, and has another year in high school to go.

For 32 years, "Streaky" worked as a dental technician at the Wheeling Dental Lab, which was owned by his father-in-law, Norbert Stahl. When Stahl died, "Streaky" and Audrey took over the business. However, he is now semi-retired, though he works some at Wheeling Jesuit College as a groundskeeper. If anything, Haloska was often busier in the summer than in the fall and winter because he officiated in the Wheeling Outdoor Basketball League when it was populated by such greats as Hot Rod Hundley, Jerry West, Charlie Slack, Walk Walowac, John Havelcik, Jerry Lucas, Leo Byrd, Alex Groza, and many, many more. And he often umpired baseball and fast pitch softball (for many years there wasn't any other kind), often with Morrie Lebin or Wilson Murray as a partner.

The names of officials used to be listed in the newspapers below the football lineups and basketball box scores. But some of the valley scribes had difficulty spelling Haloszka. To accomodate them, "Streaky" shortened his professional name to "Hall" for a season or two. But he went back to the true Polish spelling and, if every sport fan in the valley didn't know how to spell his name, most everyone knew who "Streaky" was.

If a person wanted to learn the geography and topography of the local area-especially in the days before consolidations--the thing to get into was officiating. "We hit all the little places--Powhatan, Holloway, Flushing, Bethesda, Clarington, Bethany, Sherrard, Hundred, Middlebourne, Centerville, New Athens, Hopedale, Smithfield, and out there at Bethel where Dick Potts had those great teams with hardly enough players in school to suit up a whole club," Haloszka recalls. "We traveled in all kinds of weather--rain, snow, sleet, ice--and we learned all of the back roads. I even officiated six-man football. I worked football and basketball from Parkersburg to East Liverpool and I worked for the local colleges too."

OVAC Basketball Community Loses Two Coaching Legends

The 1990-91 basketball season brought to an end two OVAC coaches' legendary careers. Coaches Dick Potts of River High School and Henry Lazasz of Buckeye Schools will never be forgotten for the impact they left on OVAC Basketball.

It would be ponderous to list their long list of accomplishments and records. We recall entering the ranks in 1976, and the successful programs of Coaches' Lazasz and Potts were the measuring sticks with which to compare an Ohio Valley High School basketball program. A number of us, then young, coaches, tried desperately to simulate and duplicate their success. But their programs went far beyond x's and o's, wins and losses, and even records and titles. Their programs were marked with a positive impact on a young man's early adult life. Discipline and respect were cornerstones of their programs.

Coach Potts and Lazasz both had that infectious enthusiasm for basketball which contaminated the will of coaches and players alike. Our most vivid reminder of Coach Potts and Lazasz was on a hot July afternoon. Some of the OVAC coaches had gathered for a clinic on the campus of Wheeling Jesuit College. In attendance were Coach Potts, with over 600 career wins, and Coach Lazasz, with over 400 career wins. It was amazing that here were two "legends" who had a plethora of basketball knowledge, and yet were there to listen to coaches who were younger and inexperienced by twenty plus years. To our amazement they were there in search of the almighty "nugget" which could gain some advantage for their high school program---Stuff legends are made of!

On another occasion we asked Coach Potts why he never chose to move on to college coaching, since numerous opportunities arose. His answer was direct and simple. He never wanted to move on to a higher level. The people that he worked with, his players and fellow coaches, were what kept him where he found fulfillment in high school basketball. Sage advice from a wise person.

OVAC Basketball Classic Camps were also memorable times. With Coach Potts spinning his "down on the farm" humor and the heckling back and forth of Coaches Lazasz and Saffield, it made for fun-filled occasions. Coach Potts and Coach Lazasz may not be coaching basketball during the 1991-1992 season, but they will survive!! The lesson of surviving disappointment and minor setbacks are integral parts of the basketball lesson plan. We certainly have lost two of our basketball coaching legends but their influence will never be lost. The impact of their coaching philosophies and wisdom have become critical parts of many coaches, both Conference and Statewide, who have coached with them and against them. We will never be rid of them -- nor do we want to be.

"Streaky" Haloszka

Haloszka was assigned to the West Virginia state high school basketball tournament three times when the tourney was being held at old Mountaineer Fieldhouse in Morgantown. He also worked the state Catholic tournament in Huntington "three or four times" and remembers doing those old county tournaments they used to have in Ohio.

In 1961, "Streaky" was vice-president of the Ohio Valley Board of Approved Basketball Officials and was in charge of the training of officials. He recalls Al Rakay and Lou Tolzda among the trainees. In 1962-63 Haloszka was president of the Ohio Valley Board.

During the Wheeling Ironmen days, "Streaky", Gene Britt and Charles "Moe" King comprised the chain gang along the sidelines.

"Gee I worked with some great officials," Haloszka remembers. "There was Plennie Clutter, Evan Reese, Murray, Carullo, Earl Klevins, Peck Pell, and Joe Muccheck, just to name a few."

Haloszka can spin stories about coaches such as Eudie Joseph, Jim Foti, Everett Brinkman, Claire Cribbs, Butch Jones, Jim "Killer" Campbell, Ed Murphy, Dick Potts, Herk Lazasz, Emil Rubcich, Joe Closser, Lou Blumling, Eddie Bentz, Tommy Ackerman, Francis Sebring, Bob Smith, Ernie Albanese, Jerry Melchiori, Frank Baxter, Ed McGlumphy, Russ Schwertfeger, Bud Jones and many more. He knew 'em all.

"I enjoyed the coaches and I enjoyed being around the kids and I also got a lot out of my association with fellow officials," he says.

"Streaky" feels that football was easier to officiate than basketball, though the football rules were more difficult to learn.

As for advice to younger officials, he says, "Study the rulebook, stay in shape, always be on time, be fair, hustle, always be in position to make the call, and never hesitate."

Looking back on his own officiating career, he reminisces, "I had a great time and there are many marvelous memories. I've made a lot of friends down through the years and I feel that I have had a chance to contribute something to sports. I've always enjoyed being around young people and that's why I like working at the college."

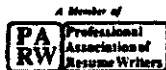

And so, tonight, the OVAC Basketball Committee would like to recognize "Streaky" for his accomplishments and contributions to the basketball program, and wish him the best of health and the longest retirement.

[EDITORS' NOTE: The above article was reprinted, in part, from a column written by Bill Van Horne, editor of the Wheeling News Register upon Haloszka's retirement.]

TO AN ATHLETE :

*There are little eyes upon you,
And they're watching night and day;
There are little ears that quickly
Take in every word you say;
There are little hands all eager
To do anything you do;
And a little girl who's dreaming
Of the day she'll be like you.*

*You're the little lady's idol,
You're the wisest of the wise,
In her little mind, about you
No suspicions ever rise;
She believes in you devoutly,
Holds that all you say and do,
She will say and do, in your way
When she's a grown-up like you.*

*There's a wide-eyed little girl
Who believes you're always right,
And her ears are always open,
And she watches day and night;
You are setting an example
Every day in all you do,
For the little girl who's waiting
To grow up and be like you.*
