"It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly...who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions; who spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who have never known neither victory or defeat."

TO OUR SONS . . .

... From the Bottom of our Hearts!

A Mother of A Football Player Is:

- She's the person who watches you grow from the innocence of boyhood to the dignity of a man.
- No one else looks so forward to September and so little to November.
- Along with you, she plays every second of every minute of every period of every game.
- Whether you are in for one play, one quarter, part of the game, the whole game – in her quiet satisfaction, YOU are her All-American!
- You are her courage in cleats, her hope in a helmet, her pride in pads.
- When you hurt, she hurts; when you are victorious, she is victorious.
- Dedicated and decorated in her red and black, banner in her hand, she brings nothing but glory in the stands.
- She is your coach, your teammate, your cheerleader, your critic, and your judge – and above all, your #1 fan!

Throughout the years, she'll treasure and reminisce the fantastic year.
