e Samuel A. Mumley Memorial Basketball Classic

Back in 1977, four veteran Ohio Valley basketball coaches decided that the concept of a high school game, similar to the highly successful football game, would be a very practical idea. And so, Earl Haberfeld of Winterville, Dick Potts of River, Henry Lazasz of Tiltonsville, and Bobby Dawson of Morgantown sat down and drew up the format of what would become the OVAC Basketball Classic.

Earl Haberfeld was chosen as the game's first director. The committee enlisted the support of Ogden newspapers to help underwrite the game, and booked the Wheeling Civic Center for the location, hoping to pack the arena.

However, the only problem was that the game would be played in June. Due to the rules of the West Virginia Secondary Schools Activities Commission, Mountaineer athletes could not participate without losing eligibility for spring sports. As the game was a summer event, the Classic did at one time see 1700 fans witness the game, but the heat and the timing soon began to diminish the interest of area spectators.

Over the years, due to expenses and availability of venues, the game was played at St. John Arena, Park High School, Bellaire High School, Wheeling High School, East Liverpool High School, and Buckeye High School.

Although the game always showcased some outstanding hardcourt performers, other problems surfaced. The format underwent several changes, and as interest in girls' sports became greater, the need to have two games for the boys and two games for the girls became apparent. However, West Virginia schools, smaller in number, often had difficulty finding quality players, while Ohio schools had more than they needed.

Another change in the program came in 1982 when Earl Haberfeld left the area to coach in northern Ohio. Before leaving, however, the committee made a change in turning over the directorship to Gene Haberfeld of Bellaire. Under his leadership, the game became more organized and competitive.

Ammirante ran the game until 1987 when, due to a heavy work load, he resigned the contest to Clyde Haberfeld of Steubenville Catholic Central who guided the game for two years. The game was then directed by Bobalik of Wellsville. After a one-year tenure, the game faced serious problems, as no one wanted to take over the directorship. Also facing financial problems, the game more than ever needed strong leadership. In mind, only one man was obvious - Ammirante. In his direction for the second time, the game made several changes. First, the game was placed back on a sound financial footing.

The second change came in the form of strong support from the OVAC Executive Secretary, Sam Haberfeld, who took it upon himself, with the assistance of Joe Lett of Moundsville, to petition the WVSSAC to change the ruling, allowing the game to be played soon after the completion of the regular basketball season.

After many trips to Charleston and hours of phone conversations and lobbying, the game was approved. Starting with the 1992 contest, the game would be moved to April.

Because of his dedication to the Conference and his unselfish support of the Classic, the committee decided to change the name of the Classic to the Samuel A. Mumley Memorial Basketball Classic.

The format was changed to one boys' game and one girls' game and a Conference cheering competition was added. Through the hard work and efforts, not to mention the enthusiasm, of Linda Alexander of Paden City, the contest never struggled like the game, but jumped right into successful the first year. Although all 44 OVAC schools chose not to participate, the Championship brought hundreds of cheerleaders before the Valley fans to show them that cheering was a bona fide sport also.

With the 1994 Classic, two more changes took place. First, Tom Rataiczak of Bellaire High School, who had served as program director for fifteen years, took over as Game Director. With this came the inception of a coaches' clinic held prior to the game and a luncheon for all the players and their parents. One of the best decisions made was moving the game to the campus of Wheeling Jesuit College and their beautiful facilities. The game was held there for seven years. This change not only established a home for the Classic, but allowed its players and cheerleaders to enjoy a major college experience without leaving the Valley.

The 1995 Classic saw three more adjustments. First, the coaches' clinic was dropped, as its timing ran too close to the NCAA Tournament and the availability of quality college coaches. Second, it was decided to begin honoring a coach who pioneered in the establishment of girls' basketball as a sport. The third reason was perhaps the most noticeable. After three years, the cheerleading advisors decided to branch out on their own and moved their competition to November.

In 1997, reaching its twentieth anniversary, the advent of a reunion team was created. Thirty plus athletes from the original all-star game returned to initiate an annual 20th-year reunion.

Although the committee thought the Classic was stabilizing, another big change came in 1998. Following on the heels of the All-Star Football Game and the OVAC Wrestling Tournament, the game was broadcast live on Channel 7. Now, instead of the athletes playing before 2,000 people, they went into over 50,000 homes throughout the Ohio Valley.

Even though the All-Star game has undergone and is still undergoing change, one fact remains constant: it continues to showcase the finest basketball talent the Ohio Valley has to offer.

Ohio University Eastern's Ney Center now offers us a beautiful facility in Eastern Ohio to carry on the tradition. We welcome you today, and hope you enjoy the contests.

This OVAC All-Star Memorial Basketball Game has been named after and dedicated to

SAMUEL A. MUMLEY,
Former Executive Secretary of the OVAC,
for his untiring efforts on behalf of the youth

RULES OF THE GAME

This game is sanctioned by the West Virginia Secondary Schools Activities Commission, The Ohio High School Athletic Association, and the National Collegiate Athletic Association and will be played under the following rules:

1. Each game will consist of two 20-minute halves.
2. Zone presses may be used but must end after first trap past half court.
3. Man-to-man defense must be played in the normal attack area.
4. Each player must make an appearance in both halves. Attempts are to be made to give all 15 players equal playing time.
5. Dunking will be permitted during the pre-game warm-up.
6. In the event of a tie score at the end of regulation play, a three-minute overtime period will follow. If the game is tied after the first overtime period, a sudden death playoff will be held. The team that scores the FIRST TWO CONSECUTIVE POINTS will be declared the winner.
7. Each player is allowed SIX (6) personal fouls before he is disqualified.
