Years indicate final year in a season; therefore, 2001-2005 would show a player performing on the varsity for the 2001-2002, 2002-2003, 2003-2004, and 2004-2005 seasons.

We can't believe your senior year is here-
So quickly have gone the years.
As we've watched you grow to the fine person you've become,
You have given us so much to cheer.
This final chapter in your high school basketball story
Can't make us any more proud.
So pour yourself into these final days
Creating memories that will speak very loud.
And when you look back in the years ahead,
You'll remember you gave your best
To the team and the school known as the Bellaire Big Reds!

Love from your biggest fans,
Mom and Dad
Kara and Trevor

Remember our before the game song?

When you move I move just like that.

Keep up the great defense.

GOOD LUCK BIG REDS!

We believe that the coaches' records are more accurate, as early yearbooks didn't always list complete seasons. Therefore, we are recognizing these totals as accurate: 1097-676 = 1773.]

excellent defender . . . above average strength and foot speed . . . three-year starter . . . extremely coachable . . . loves to compete

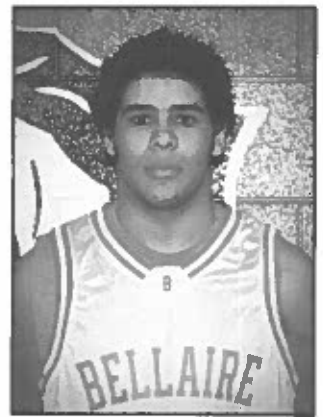

"Andrew returns for his third year as a starter. He will once again fulfill his role as a lock-down defender who usually defends the opponent's top scorer. Andrew is easily one of the most coachable players we have had the pleasure to be associated with in our 29 years at BHS. His strength and ability to drive the ball to the hole will help us become more efficient offensively this hoop season."

four-year starter . . . loves the hoops at least as much as anyone we have coached in the last thirty years . . . can do damage to opponent in every possible way . . . five-headed basketball monster who can try, post, rebound, assist, and defend . . . can play at the next level

"Nate returns for his fourth year as a varsity starter. He has been an impact player since he arrived at BHS four years ago. He is a player in all aspects: shooting, rebounding, passing, dribbling versus pressure, and a basketball presence defender. Nate has improved in his decision-making each year and must do so this year if we are to succeed. If he remains healthy, he will complete his career as not only one of the best in Bellaire High School history, but as one of the top players in Ohio high school basketball history."

defensive intimidator . . . can pick the opponent's pocket . . . impact player as a sophomore . . . can fly in the open court . . . good take to the basket . . . will finish more in '05-'06

"Trey returns for his second year as a varsity starter. He made vital contributions to our success last year as a sophomore starter. His ability to use above-average footspeed garnered many 'takeaways' from our opponents to gain us valuable possessions. If Trey improves his ability to finish drives to the basket and increases his self-confidence, he will dramatically improve his contributions to the '05-'06 Big Reds hoop team."

Years indicate final year in a season; therefore, 2002-2005 would show a player performing on the varsity for the 2001-2002, 2002-2003, 2003-2004, and 2004-2005 seasons.
