Dear Chad,

Your grandfather and I have so enjoyed following your athletic career.

We visited cities during your high school and college days that we would never have gone to otherwise.

It was so exciting flying to Wisconsin to watch the Green Bay Packers' game.

The accomplishments you have made in sports are second only to your fine character and we are proud to be here this evening as you are inducted into the OVAC Hall of Fame.

OVAC HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2014

Bill Brubaker

Bill Brubaker (Mechanicsburg, Pa. High School, Class of 1974). Not only has Brubaker enjoyed an ultra-successful 34-year stint as head swimming coach at The Linsly School, he's been a driving force behind the continued growth of the sport throughout the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference.

He has spent his entire high school coaching career at Linsly and has continued the school's amazing OVAC dominance in the pool. Brubaker's list of conference titles includes: combined titles (1981, '82, '83 and '84); boys titles (1985, '86, '87, '88, '89, '90, '91, '92, '99, 2003, '04, '5, '09, '10, '11, '12, '13); and girls titles (1990, '91, '93, '94, 2009, '11, '12, 13).

He has coached four All-American swimmers – Bert Hazlett, Jenny Loew, Theron Pappas and Kevin Rosepappa – and has coached a total of 31 Academic All-Americans.

Brubaker serves as the meet director of the OVAC Swimming Championships and the event was renamed the Bill Brubaker Swimming Championships in 2013.

For “Bru”, swimming is a 365-day a year sport, everything from regular season high school meets to summer meets to AAU competitions. He is not only well-know locally, but is highly-respected on the state and national level.

As an athlete, Brubaker was a four-year letterman in swimming at Mechanicsburg High and a four-year letterman at West Virginia University. He served as team captain and won the John Law Award as the outstanding senior swimmer.

After obtaining his Bachelor of Science degree in Education and Teaching from West Virginia University, he spent a year as an assistant coach with the Mountaineers' swim team and served one year as meet director of the Eastern Intercollegiate Swimming Championships.

A teacher at Linsly since 1980, he currently serves as chair of the Social Studies Department.

Bill Brubaker

James Companion

James Companion

James F. Companion, Jr. (The Linsly School, Class of 1990). He established Scholastic Sports Marketing, LLC along with Bill Ihlenfeld in 2004 (he has been the sole owner since 2011) to help high school leagues raise money to enhance the overall experience for high school student-athletes by developing revenue streams while fostering awareness of the athletic events, conferences and institutions.

Scholastic Sports Marketing, LLC began its association with the OVAC in the 2005-06 school year, overseeing marketing and promotions for the conference. Companion has secured local, regional and national sponsorships (among them the likes of McDonald's, Huntington Bank and Subway Restaurants) and not only acquires the sponsors, but makes sure that the bills are paid.

Thanks to SSM, more than $750,000 has been generated to help make the Conference run, including more than $218,000 return to the schools through the basketball playoffs over the past seven year and more than $42,000 to provide certified trainers at every Conference-run event.

SSM has also served as the marketing arm for the West Virginia “Super Six” State Football Championships since 2008 and, along with WTOV-TV9, directs the “OVAC Kickoff Night” each year.

Prior to forming Scholastic Sports Marketing, LLC, Companion performed marketing and promotion duties at both Davidson College and the University of South Carolina; served as an associate commissioner of the Big South Conference; and served on national Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA) Board.

Companion, who currently resides in Charlotte, North Carolina, received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from Denison University in 1994 where he was a three-year letterman in baseball and an all-North Coast Athletic Conference honoree. He earned his Master's Degree in Sports Administration and Facility Management from Ohio University in 1995. Companion spent two seasons with the minor league Class AAA Columbus Clippers and a year as bullpen catcher for the Charlotte Knights. At Linsly, he was a three-year letterman in both baseball and football, gaining all-OVAC honors in baseball. He was also a member of the Wheeling Post 1 State Championship team in 1988.

Jim Potts

Jim Potts (Buckhannon-Upshur High School, Class of 1964). Potts began teaching at Cameron in 1971 and he started the junior high wrestling program there that year.

He spent 31 years as head wrestling coach of the Dragons (1974-2005) and later returned as an assistant varsity coach for several years.

Potts compiled an impressive 363-94-4 dual meet record, winning 87 tournament championships and finishing as runner-up on 36 occasions.

In OVAC competition, Potts-led mat squads amassed 15 OVAC Class A tournament championships (1984, '91, '92, '93, '94,, '95, '96, '97, '98, '99, 2000, '01, '02, '03 and '05); finishing as the overall second or third place finisher as well. His teams also won 15 OVAC Dual Meet championships. Potts was named OVAC Wrestling Coach of the Year a total of 15 times. His 1996 team won the first Bob Sandler Sportsmanship Award.

In state competition, Cameron won four consecutive W.Va. Class AA/A championships (1991-94) and finished as the runner-up three times. He was named West Virginia Class AA/A Coach of the Year five times (1989, '91, '92, '93 and '94).

He received the OVAC's prestigious “Mr. Mat” award in 2008 for his dedication and service to the sport of wrestling and was inducted into the West Virginia Chapter of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2007.

He also served as head football coach at Cameron for 11 years, posting a 55-55 overall record including one appearance in the W. Va. Class A state semifinals. He coached W. Va. to a 22-14 win over Ohio in the OVAC All-Star Football Classic in 1989. Potts also spent time as the head track and baseball coach.

As an athlete, Potts competed in three sports (wrestling, football and baseball) at Buckhannon-Upshur where he was a member of the school's 1963 state championship football team and then played both football and baseball (a first team all-conference selection) at Glenville State College, earning his degree there in 1967.

Jim Potts

OVAC HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2014

Bob Roe

Bob Roe (Warwood High School, Class of 1925). He did it all in the athletic realm: a talented athlete; a multi-sport coach who succeeded at both the high school and college level; and even an official.

At the time he retired from high school coaching in 1965 to take the West Liberty State College job, Roe was the winningest football coach in OVAC history with a 182-122-31 record. He coached at Warwood High for 10 years (1931-40) and then at Wheeling High for 24 seasons (1941-64).

He was the winning co-coach (with Irwin Howell) of the first West Virginia-Ohio All-Star Football Game in 1940, beating Ohio 13-7. He later served as the All-Star Game Director from 1946-62.

He also led the Wheeling boys' track squad to three straight OVAC titles (1944-46) and a rare one-class W. Va. state championship in 1946 (his teams were runner-up in 1943 and '44).

At West Liberty, he coached the Hilltoppers for nine seasons including an unbeaten season in 1970 and into the NAIA playoffs in 1970 and '71 as West Virginia Conference champions. His WL coaching record was 50-24-7. He was twice named WVC Coach of the Year.

Roe was also a basketball official for 20 years, serving three terms as president of the Ohio Valley Board of Approved Basketball Officials.

As an athlete, he was a team captain of the Warwood High football team and a four-year varsity performer at Bethany College.

Roe, who passed away in 1984, is a member of five other halls of fame – West Virginia State Sports, City of Wheeling, Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan, West Liberty University and Bethany College. He was also the recipient of the OVAC Track Cal Giffin Award.

Bob Roe

Jack Prettyman

Jack Prettyman

Jack Prettyman (Moundsville High School, Class of 1958). One of the best-known officials in the Ohio Valley, he retired in 2007 after working 43 years as a member of the Ohio Valley Board of Approved Football Officials, spending two years as president, two years as vice-president and 10 years on the Executive Board; and 20 years as a member of the Ohio Valley Board of Approved Basketball Officials, serving as president and vice-president.

He worked WVSSAC playoff games for 30 years, including the finals eight times, as well as the West Virginia North-South All-Star Game; and spent 20 years working OHSAA playoff games plus the Ohio North-South All-Star Game.

Prettyman officiated the Rudy Mumley OVAC All-Star Charity Football Classic five times and was the Honorary Referee at the game in 2008.

He officiated West Virginia Conference games for 30 years in basketball and 27 in football, including 20 years at the finals in basketball and eight years of playoffs in football; and he also worked games in the Eastern 8 and Atlantic 10 conferences for 25 years, including 10 years of playoff action.

Prettyman officiated three years in the professional Indoor Football League, working the championship game in 2002.

A resident of Glen Dale, he received the Robert Dawson OVAC Basketball Officials Award in 2002; a Special Achievement Award from the Dapper Dan Club of the Upper Ohio Valley in 2008 and several service awards from various officiating organizations.

Paul Rickards

Paul Rickards (Wheeling High School, Class of 1944). He was a three-sport star who was labeled by Hall of Fame coach Bob Roe as the best football player he ever coached. The 6-foot-1, 190-pounder played center as a sophomore before becoming a running-passing quarterback-tailback-linebacker-punter for the Wildcats. He was the only two-time first team, one-class all-stater in 1942 and 1943 and was voted the top state passer for two years. As a senior, he completed 60 passes - a rare total at the time - for nine TDs and rushed for 10 scores. He also was the team's top tackler, kick returner and punter. He earned nickname of "Pitching Paul" because of passing in era or mostly running.

In basketball, he was a three-year regular and helped the Wildcats win the state one-class title as a junior when Wheeling capped 26-1 record by winning its final 21 games. He was first team All-OVAC on the first-ever selections and first team one-class all-state as a senior and second team as a junior.

In track, he won a rare "double" in the one-class state meet, capturing the long jump and shot put for the state runner-up team. He also helped Wheeling win the first of three straight one-class OVAC crowns.

Recruited for football by Pitt, he was a four-year letterman who led the NCAA in passing yards as a freshman with a school-record 897 yards.

He also played one year in the NFL with the Los Angeles Rams. He passed away in 1999.

Paul Rickards

OVAC HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2014

Mike Ingram

Mike Ingram (Bellaire High School, Class of 1957). Nicknamed "The Tank" because of his physical play as a 5-foot-9, 220-pound fullback-linebacker, he was a three-sport Big Reds' stalwart in football, basketball and track. He led Bellaire to football records of 7-3, 9-0-1, 7-3 and 5-5.

He was a two-time All-Eastern Ohio choice who was All-OVAC Class AA first team, All-Valley second team, and AP All-Ohio second team as a junior.

Recruited by Ohio State coach Woody Hayes, he was converted to an offensive guard-linebacker and became a three-year Buckeye starter and 1961 team co-captain for the 8-0-1 record Big Ten Conference champions which were ranked No. 2 in both wire service polls. The 8-2 record 1960 team was ranked No. 8.

He earned first team All-Big Ten as a senior and played in the East-West Shrine game and Hula Bowl game. He was drafted by the NFL Washington Redskins and AFL Boston Patriots, but didn't play pro ball. He passed away in 1981.

Mike Ingram

Jim Kerr

Jim Kerr

Jim Kerr (St. Clairsville High School, Class of 1957) After playing quarterback as a junior, the first-year 6-foot, 180-pound running back led the Red Devils to a 7-0-2 record while leading the Ohio Valley in scoring with a school-record 150 points in nine games. He rushed for 1,298 yards (8.3 yards per carry) and landed six pass receptions for 81 yards.

As a defensive back, he had seven pass interceptions and the speedster also returned kicks (7 kickoffs for 323 yards and five punts for 133 yards).

He earned All-Ohio, All-Valley, All-OVAC and All-Eastern Ohio football honors and he also competed in track.

The multi-threat back earned a scholarship to Penn State where he was a three-year regular running back-defensive back and kick returner on teams with records of 7-3, 9-2 and 6-3-1. As a senior, he was the Nittany Lions' top rusher, pass receiver, kickoff returner and scorer. He scored three touchdowns against Army. In his last two seasons, Penn State won the first two Liberty Bowls over Alabama and Oregon.

He was drafted by the Washington Redskins and was a regular safety in his only two seasons. As a rookie, he led the Redskins in pass interceptions (7) and kickoff returns (14 for 385 yards) before being slowed by a leg injury. He is deceased.

Alan Jack

Alan Jack (Wintersville High School, Class of 1966). He was a three-year starter as a 6-foot, 205-pound fullback-linebacker on teams coached by OVAC Hall of Famer Bob Kettlewell that went 9-1, 8-1-1 and 9-1 with only one loss to Ohio Valley foes. The last two teams also won Big Eight League titles. He was a blocking fullback but, as a senior, he also rushed 115 times for 583 yards and scored 60 points.

His senior honors included All-OVAC Class AAA, All-Valley Big School, All-Eastern Ohio and All-Big Eight.

He earned a scholarship to Ohio State and, after playing on the freshman team, he became a three-year starter as a 6-foot, 220-pound offensive guard on teams with records of 6-3, 10-0 and 8-1. The unbeaten 1968 Big Ten Conference champion team defeated an O.J. Simpson-led Southern California team, 27-16 in the Rose Bowl and was crowned National Champion with a No.1 ranking in both national polls.

Jack was selected co-captain of the Buckeyes' 8-1 record 1969 team which was co-Big Ten Conference champion. He also played in the 1970 Hula Bowl game.

Alan Jack

OVAC HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2014

James 'Junior' Moore

James "Junior" Moore (Wheeling High School, Class of 1969). He was a three-sport Wildcat all-star in football, basketball and baseball who earned a football scholarship to Wake Forest.

In football, the 5-foot-10, 170-pound running back-defensive back-kick returner was the OV's top Class AAA rusher with 1,142 yards on 189 carries with nine TDs plus 14 pass receptions for 181 yards and a score. He was first team All-Valley, All-OVAC, All-Mountaineer League and All-City Offense and Defense while earning second team Class AAA All-State while placing sixth in voting for the Kennedy Award. He was second team All-Valley as a junior.

A two-year basketball letterman on top Wildcat teams, the left-handed point guard led the 1969 team in scoring (20 ppg), steals and assists as Wildcats went 19-1 in regular season to win the OVAC Class AAA crown and ranked No. 2 in the final state regular season poll. He earned first team Class AAA All-State, All-OVAC, All-Valley, All-City and All-Mountaineer League. As a junior, he was sixth man on a Wildcat team which advanced to the state Class AAA semifinals.

In baseball, he earned three letters as a first baseman-pitcher and started on the state one-class championship team as a junior. He earned second team one-class All-State twice and, as a senior, was first team All-Valley while leading the Wildcats in hitting (.446).

At Wake Forest, he led the freshman team in rushing before earning three varsity letters and helping the Deacons, as a sophomore, win their first-ever Atlantic Coast Conference title. He was a running back, wide receiver, defensive back and kickoff-punt returner. He averaged over 20 yards per kickoff returns for his career and had an 89-yard TD return vs. Virginia Tech as a junior.

Junior Moore

Rick Coles

Rick Coles

Rick Coles (Wheeling High, Class of 1971). He was a star for the Wildcats in both football and basketball, earning a scholarship to West Virginia University in the latter.

The 6-3, 170-pound guard enjoyed a record-setting hoop career. He averaged 33.7 in the regular season as a senior, leading the Wildcats to a 21-3 record and OVAC championship honors. That squad also went on to win sectional and regional titles en route to a state tourney berth.

He tied the school's single-game scoring record, held by legendary Everett Brinkman, with 54 points in a 147-88 conquest of Oak Glen. He also averaged an amazing 22 rebounds per game in his final campaign.

For his career, Coles netted 1,389 points, just 22 shy of Wheeling High's school standard.

He was a two-time all-Valley "Big School", all-OVAC and all-W.Va. first team honoree. Coles was selected as state player of the year by the Morgantown Touchdown Club following his senior campaign.

Coles also starred on the gridiron, lettering three years while performing at quarterback, wide receiver and defensive back. As a senior, he ranked second in OVAC Class AAA passing yards with more than 1,100 yards.

Coles also used his versatility and athleticism on the Wildcats' track team, competing in relays and as a high jumper.

At WVU, Coles was the second-leading scorer as the Mountaineers' freshman squad via his 14-point average. He earned a letter as a sophomore, playing in 22 games. As fate would have it, however, Coles suffered a broken leg in the pre-season of his junior year which limited his play over the next two years.

Basketball coaching icon Sam Andy called Coles one of the two best players he ever coached, the other being Hall of Famer Anthony Reed.

Gordon 'Charley' Gordon

Gordon "Charley" Gordon (John Marshall High School, Class of 1977). He was nothing short of outstanding for the Monarchs in three sports — track, wrestling and football.

As a weightman in track for the powerful JM thinclads, Gordon established the all-time Ohio Valley discus mark on the strength of his 166-9 toss as a senior, a season in which he won the OVAC Class 3-A and West Virginia state discus championships. He was second in the state shot put event with a heave of 52-4. As a junior, he was OVAC and state discus runner-up to OVAC Hall of Famer John Leon of Brooke.

He grappled for OVAC Hall of Fame Coach Bill Hinegardner and scripted a senior season to remember. Gordon went undefeated, leading the Monarchs to the overall OVAC crown. He went on to cap his mat career with the W. Va. Class AAA heavyweight title.

Gordon was also a standout on the football field, starting three years as an offensive lineman and linebacker. He received all-Mountaineer League and all-OVAC laurels as senior, although the Monarchs won just one game.

The 6-2, 255-pounder received an offer to walk on to the WVU football program. The move paid off as Gordon earned a full scholarship while starting two seasons on the offensive line and lettering three times.

His senior season of 1980 marked the inaugural campaign for Coach Don Nehlen and new Mountaineer Field. He was elected as a co-captain that season.

Stan Boroski

Stan Boroski (Buckeye South High School, Class of 1981). He may be best known for his baseball career, but Boroski was a tremendous three-sport standout at Buckeye South. He earned all-Ohio honors in football, basketball and baseball for the Rebels.

Boroski quarterbacked South into the football post-season as a senior, becoming the first Ohio Valley school to play in the OHSAA grid playoffs. He, unfortunately, missed that game due to an injury incurred in the Buckeye North contest.

As a junior, he was a hard-running tailback. He rushed for more than 1,200 yards and 15 TDs that season. He also booted four field goals, amassing 116 total points.

In hoops, Boroski finished as Buckeye South's fifth all-time leading scorer.

As a senior, the Rebels got off to a 1-4 start while Boroski still nursed his football injury. Upon his return, South reeled off 16 straight wins. He averaged 16 points a game in his senior season, after posting an 18-point average as a junior. The 6-2 forward was a three-year letterman for legendary coach Henry Laszsz.

In baseball, Boroski starred on the mound and at the plate for South.

He batted .400 as a senior and nearly the same as a junior. He tossed a no-hitter as a senior. Boroski led the Rebels to a pair of OVAC championships and two districts berths.

The talented right-hander also was a standout in Legion baseball, performing for Maynard. In his final season for Post 666, he batted .327 while going 6-2 on the hill.

The Rayland native, who attended Ohio University earning a biology degree, played two seasons in the Milwaukee Brewers' organization. He ended his professional playing days as a pitcher in the Kansas City Royals organization. His minor league career spawned a long and successful coaching career in professional baseball. Boroski spent 18 years coaching with the Houston Astros organization before being named bullpen coach for the Tampa Bay Rays on Dec. 17, 2009. He still holds that post today, overseeing one of the premier staffs in Major League Baseball.

Stan Boroski

Mike Smith

Mike Smith

Mike Smith (Buckeye Trail High School, Class of 1983). He enjoyed both personal and team success as the first four-year basketball letterman for the Warriors.

Individually, Smith finished a stellar hoops career with 2,188 points, which ranks 23rd all-time in the OHSAA record book.

He scored 25 points in his first varsity game as a freshman, finishing with 254 points that season. He then displayed remarkable consistency, scoring 625 as a sophomore; 643 as a junior and 666 as a senior for a four-year average of 22.8 points per game.

Smith was selected to the all-Ohio Class A first team three times, including being named the "Player of the Year" in 1983. He was also a three-time first team all-Eastern District and all-District 12 selection, named "Player of the Year" on both teams as a senior; and was a first team all-OVAC Class 2-A honoree. He played in the OVAC All-Star Basketball Classic and the Ohio North-South All-Star Game following his senior season.

In addition to ranking as Trail's all-time leading scorer, he is also the leading rebounder with 643 and is third all-time in free throw percentage at 83.9 percent.

During Smith's career, Trail posted a sparkling record of 88-8 under the guidance of Coach Terry Leggett. The Smith-led Warriors won three sectional titles, three district crowns and one regional championship, making a state tournament appearance in 1983 with Smith scoring 33 points in that game. Trail also captured two OVAC crowns.

Smith continued to showcase his basketball talents at Rio Grande College, graduating in 1987 with a degree in business. A four-year letterman, he ranks ninth all-time on the Rio Grande scoring list with 1,741 points.

He was inducted into the District 12 Basketball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2010.

Chad Brinker

Chad Brinker (Martins Ferry High School, Class of 1998). This Purple Rider legend shined in three sports during his four-year prep career, but it was in football where he really left a lasting mark.

After lettering as a freshman, Brinker got his chance to be the Purple Riders' main tailback midway through his sophomore season and clearly made the most of his opportunity. Brinker finished his prep career with 3,984 yards, which ranks second all-time at Ferry, and 51 touchdowns. The majority of his career yards came as a senior when he racked up 2,024 yards. After both his junior and senior seasons, Brinker was named first-team all-Eastern District and first-team all-Ohio. As a senior, he was the district's offensive player of the year and also the district's nominee for Ohio's coveted Mr. Football Award. He was also named a USA Today All-American. Along with his state honors, Brinker was twice named first-team all-OVAC and all-Valley, serving as a co-captain both in 1996 and 1997. Brinker took part in the Rudy Mumley OVAC All-Star Charity Football Classic, but after rushing for 160 yards in the first half, he was injured and didn't play in the second half.

His success wasn't limited to the high school ranks. Brinker signed with Ohio University and earned four letters for the Bobcats. He was twice named all-MAC and was chosen to play in the 2002 Hula Bowl All-Star Game in Hawaii. Brinker finished his career with the Bobcats with 2,826 yards and 27 rushing touchdowns, which rank fifth and fourth on the O.U. career listing, respectively. Of his yards, he ran for 1,099 as a senior. He put forth 10, 100-yard rushing games during his career. Brinker put forth those numbers despite missing four games as a junior because of an injury. Though he went undrafted, Brinker signed with the New York Jets in 2003 and played in the preseason before being released on the final cut. He scored two touchdowns that pre-season. He played in NFL Europe in 2004.

Along with his football exploits, Brinker was an all-Ohioan in track and field. He finished seventh in the Division II 100-meter dash as a senior, running 11.27. He also lettered in basketball and baseball. He earned all-OVAC in hoops.

Since graduating from Ohio University with a degree in exercise science, Brinker served as a radio color analyst for Bobcats' football games, served as an assistant coach at Westerville Central and since 2010 has worked in the player personnel department with the Green Bay Packers. He received a Super Bowl ring after the Packers defeated the Steelers in 2010.

Chad Brinker

OVAC HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2014

Eddie Drummond

Eddie Drummond (The Linsly School, Class of 1998). Speed was the name of the game for this former Cadet, Nittany Lion and NFL Pro Bowler. Drummond was one of the fastest athletes to ever participate in the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference.

While he excelled in track and field, it was in football where Drummond truly left his mark with the Cadets, leading them to a 29-11 mark during his four years in the Orange & Black. Drummond ran for 3,918 yards and 55 touchdowns during his career. He finished with 70 TDs total and scored 424 points. He also closed his career with 5,729 all-purpose yards in 40 games. During his junior season, in which Linsly finished 10-0, Drummond ran for 1,383 yards, which was his career high. The 168 points he scored that season ranked fifth in the state of West Virginia. Drummond was named Ohio Valley Player of the Year following that season. He was three times named all-OVAC and twice named to the first-team all-state unit in West Virginia. As a junior, he was named as a defensive back and as a running back as a senior. He was the runner-up for the Kennedy Award, which goes to the Mountain State's top prep player. He was also named first-team all-Valley three times.

Drummond chose to play for Joe Paterno and Penn State over offers from the likes of Notre Dame, Michigan and Florida State. He was a wide receiver, primarily for the Nittany Lions. He made 71 receptions for 1,132 yards and five touchdowns. He also ran for 272 yards and a score.

After not being selected in the draft, Drummond signed with the Detroit Lions and made the team as a kick returner. He averaged 26 yards a kickoff return, ranked third in the NFC and fifth in the NFL. He had a punt return for a touchdown. He was selected to the Pro Bowl and named all-Pro in 2004. All told, he played five seasons in the NFL (four with Detroit and one with Kansas City). He spent the 2008 season on the Steelers' practice squad.

Other than football at Linsly, Drummond was one of the top track sprinters in the Ohio Valley. He lost only one race to an Ohio Valley athlete and that was as a freshman. He had a PR of 10.37 in the 100, which he ran during a summer meet after his senior season. He ran 21.7 in the 200 and 48.9 in the 400. He was a four-time all-Valley selection.

Eddie Drummond

David Bertolino

David Bertolino

David Bertolino (Buckeye Local High School, Class of 2003). This Panther product was a one-sport athlete, but was one of the best wrestlers to ever grace the mats in the Ohio Valley.

Bertolino was a four-year regular at Buckeye, but really blossomed as a junior and senior. He won the individual championship at the OVAC Tournament in both seasons.

He was a state qualifier as a junior and came back as a man on a mission the following season. During his senior season, Bertolino put forth an unblemished 44-0 record and won the 160-pound Division II state championship in the process.

Bertolino finished his prep career with a strong 154-22 record and was named the 2003 Eastern District Wrestler of the Year. Bertolino didn't hang up the prep singlet immediately after receiving his OHSAA gold medal. He went to the National High School Senior Coaches Association Championship Tournament and placed third, earning all-American honors at 160 pounds.

Prior to his senior season, Bertolino was the gold medalist at the National Open Wrestling Championship and then won the gold at the AAU Junior Olympics.

He wrestled for four years at Iowa State University, three of those seasons were spent under Bridgeport High graduate and OVAC Hall of Famer Bobby Douglas.

During his senior season, Bertolino earned NCAA All-American by virtue of finishing in the top eight at 197 pounds in his only trip to the national tournament.

All told, Bertolino finished his collegiate career with a 68-41 record.

Following his collegiate career, Bertolino attempted to qualify to the United States Olympic Team for the 2012 games in London. He spent more than a year at the United States Olympic Training Center in Colorado training.

Karrie Hutchins

Karrie Hutchins (Wheeling Park High School, Class of 2001). This former Patriot helped officially put Wheeling Park soccer on the map locally and around the state of West Virginia during her splendid prep career.

Hutchins was a defensive standout and unquestioned leader of the Lady Patriots, which resulted in her twice being named the West Virginia Gatorade Player of the Year (2000 and 2001).

With Hutchins playing a key role, the Patriots claimed three straight West Virginia Class AAA state titles and four straight big-school OVAC crowns.

Along with those honors, she was a three-time first-team all-state selection and four-time all-OVAC pick. She was named OVAC Player of the Year as a junior and senior.

Hutchins was inducted to the Wheeling Park High School Hall of Fame in 2007.

After her prep career, Hutchins played at West Virginia University where she became the first Mountain State native to start for the Mountaineers' women's program.

Hutchins started 45 of 49 career matches as a defensive player and during her career, the Mountaineers posted 30 shutouts.

During the 2003 season, with Hutchins playing a key role, the Mountaineers advanced to the Sweet 16 in the NCAA Tournament. The season prior, WVU was the Big East Mid-Atlantic champion.

She was named a team captain for the 2005 season, but her career came to an end due to injury in the second match of that season.

Hutchins was also a standout in the classroom at Park and WVU. She was presented the Red Brown Cup in 2006, which goes to WVU's most outstanding all-around student-athlete in terms of athletic, academic and civic achievement. She also earned CoSIDA Academic All-District team in 2005 as well as the WVU Foundation Outstanding Senior and was a four-time Big East academic all-star.

Hutchins graduated with a degree in business administration and completed a Master of Professional Accountancy at WVU.

Karrie Hutchins

OVAC HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2014

Dan Stephens

Dan Stephens (The Linsly School, Class of 2000). It didn't matter the season, field or sport, this Cadets' product played and played well.

The only Linsly athlete to start for four years in football, basketball and baseball, Stephens shined exceptionally bright on the football and baseball fields.

Stephens was a four-year letterman for Terry Depew's football team, amassing a school record 292 tackles, playing primarily along the defensive line. He had a senior season in which he registered 76 tackles and five sacks. On the offensive side of the ball, Stephens ran for 832 yards and 12 touchdowns. He was a first-team all-state selection in Class A and was a multiple-time all-OVAC and all-Valley honoree on the gridiron.

On the baseball field, long-time Linsly head coach Gary Sprague called Stephens the "finest hitter" he'd ever coached. Stephens led the Ohio Valley in hitting as a senior at .537 and connected on eight home runs and drove in a school-record 45 runs. He struck out just four times that season. Stephens still holds the Linsly career record for home runs and RBI. His efforts were recognized by his selection to the all-OVAC team multiple times and the all-Valley team multiple times.

On the basketball court, Stephens played on the interior. He still holds the Linsly record for rebounds and charges taken in his career. He was recognized on the all-Valley team for hoops.

Stephens took part in the OVAC All-Star games for all three sports and was the winner of the Zimmerman Award which goes to Linsly's best male athlete.

After receiving more than 25 collegiate scholarship offers combined between football and baseball, Stephens elected to attend the University of Pittsburgh to play football. For the Panthers, Stephens was a four-year letterman and started 41 games along the defensive line. The Panthers took part in five straight bowl games during his time in the Steel City, including the Fiesta Bowl. Stephens received the Fiesta Bowl Art Bodine MVP Award.

All told, Stephens was an all-Big East player and twice named an Academic All-American. He was listed on the All Big East Academic Team four times. Stephens also received the David Sandberg Award, which goes to the Pitt athlete with the best overall academic and athletic achievements. He received the Demale Stanley Award, which goes to a Pitt football player who has overcome the most adversity. Finally, Stephens received the Blue/Gold Award. All of the winners have their names on the 'Varsity Walk' on campus. It's the Pitt version of the Hall of Fame.

Stephens was signed by the Buffalo Bills and was in early camp with the organization in 2005.

"As a former OVAC coach, I am aware of the unique role that this conference plays in the lives of the member schools' student-athletes. Your demonstrated emphasis on sportsmanwhip and scholarship are a tribute to your dedicated leadership and is rivaled by no other high school organization of which I am aware.

The OVAC Hall of Fame is providing an opportunity to recognize and honor individuals whose accomplishments continue to inspire and motivate today's athletes.

It is both my honor and extreme pleasure to play a small part in your continuing success."

LEGENDS OF OVAC SCHOOLS - 2014

Porter Mackey

Connie Sanford

Andy Tonkovich

John Wood

Bill Young

Legends of OVAC member schools honors those great athletes who played or coached in the Ohio Valley prior to the formation of the conference in 1943 or who played or coached after that date but before their school became a member of the conference.

Porter Mackey (East Liverpool High School, Class of 1936). In the final year of the jump ball-after-every-goal era, this Potter shooting whiz also noted for his passing finesse was listed by media as leading Ohio preps in scoring.

He tallied 408 points during a senior season when the Potters recorded an 18-3 record. Rules were changed in 1937 to eliminate the center jump after every goal and scoring totals, both for individuals and teams, generally increased with the faster, uninterrupted play.

In the era of low scoring games, the four-year Potter performer set a school career scoring record and reached a game high of 28 points three times during his final season.

He was recognized on local all-star teams, but played before the All-Ohio selections were originated by The Associated Press in 1939. Mackey, who was among the charter inductees into the East Liverpool High School Sports Hall of Fame, is acclaimed by some Potter historians as the school's finest high school cager. He retired to Peoria, Ariz., and is deceased.

Connie Sanford Richardson (Caldwell High School, Class of 1982). A 10-time, three-sport All-Pioneer Valley Conference honoree regarded as the best all-round female athlete in school history, she capped her basketball career by earning second team UPI All-Ohio Class A honors.

As a senior, she led the Redskins to an 18-4 record and averaged 22.7 points and 13.7 rebounds while shooting 65% from the floor. As a junior, she had norms of 25.2 points and 19.5 rebounds. Her sophomore averages were 17.6 points and 17.3 rebounds. There was no team her freshman year because of gymnasium construction problems. Her career totals were 1,254 points and 855 rebounds with three All-PVC selections plus team MVP honors.

She also was a four-time All-PVC pick in softball and three times in volleyball. A four-year starter at Heidelberg College, the 5-10 forward led the Ohio Athletic Conference in scoring (20.1) and rebounding (14.2) as a senior and earned first team Kodak All-America honors. A four-time team MVP and three-year co-captain, she was twice All-OAC. She scored 1,691 career points with a school record 1,161 rebounds.

The winningest coach in Otterbein College history, she just completed her 23rd season with a 319-276 record. She resides in Westerville.

Andy Tonkovich (Benwood Union High School, Class of 1940). The 6-1 forward-guard and leading Ironman scorer earned All-Ohio Valley Athletic Association (OVAA) honors and was mentioned on the all-class West Virginia all-state selection before earning college and professional fame. The OVAA was the predecessor to the OVAC.

After high school, he served in the U.S. Armed Forces before enrolling at Marshall in 1944. He played four seasons with the Thundering Herd and graduated in 1948 with a school career record of 1,578 points. He was captain as a junior and second leading scorer of the 32-5 record 1947 team which won the school's only national championship, the NAIB (now NAIA) Tournament in Kansas City, Mo. He earned first team Little All-America honors as a junior and second team as a senior. He has been featured with a full-page photo in the Marshall media guides and was among the charter basketball honorees into the Marshall Athletic Hall of Fame. He also is in the NAIA Hall of Fame.

He became the only Ohio Valley athlete drafted overall No. 1 in the National Basketball Association Draft when the Providence Steamrollers selected him in 1948. He played the 1949 season before returning to the Ohio Valley to be a player-coach with the local professional team, the Wheeling Blues, from 1950-52 in the Tri-State Pro Basketball League. He then served as basketball coach from 1952-54 at St. John Central High School in Bellaire and guided the Irish to a 16-6 record in his first season. He relocated to Florida where he passed away in 2006.

John Wood (Magnolia High School, Class of 1932). This triple-threat football player is the only Blue Eagle athlete selected as captain of the All-West Virginia one-class honor roll picked from 1917-47 before class selections started in 1948. This is comparable to the current Kennedy Award given to the state Player of the Year.

He played quarterback, running back, defensive back, drop-kick placekicker and punter as a 5-11, 165-pound three-year standout. He was shifted from running back as a sophomore and junior to quarterback as a senior and led the Blue Eagles to a 7-3 record while playing mostly larger schools. One of the losses was 14-6 to overall state champion Benwood Union, which selected Wood to its All-Opponent Team.

Wood also was a two-year basketball team captain and a standout tennis player in summer tournaments.

He accepted a football scholarship to the University of Pittsburgh, then a national power which lost only 10 games from 1930-38. He played three seasons, mostly at defensive back, for teams with records of 8-1, 7-1-2 and 8-1-1. In 1936, Pitt upset then-unbeaten Notre Dame, 26-0 as Wood broke the game open with a long interception return. He also played in the 1937 Rose Bowl win over Washington, 21-0.

After graduation, he turned to college coaching/teaching at Harvard and Northeastern before joining the Wesleyan University staff in Middletown, Conn. He was head basketball coach from 1947-68 and also coached football and golf. He passed away in 1970.

Bill Young (Martins Ferry High School, Class of 1943). He was a three-sport standout in a Golden Era of Purple Rider sports. He was honored on Ferry teams which won, or shared, two Ohio state championships in 1941.

He was the only sophomore starter on the Lou Groza-led 1941 basketball team which capped a 27-2 record by winning the first Ohio basketball team title—the largest Class A-of any Ohio Valley school. He was named All-Tournament. Later that year, the junior led Ferry to a 10-0 regular season football record and an invitational to play Toledo Libbey for a mythical state title. The teams tied, 14-14. In regular season, Ferry outscored 10 foes by 333-19 including a 54-6 rout of Steubenville.

The rare four-year Rider football letterman and three-year basketball starter on teams with records of 27-2, 22-3 and 24-1, he was team captain in both sports. As a senior on the 24-1 record state semifinalist—the first unbeaten regular season team in school history, he was team MVP on a squad featuring sophomore Alex Groza, an OVAC Hall of Famer and later college All-America and Olympic star.

In 1942, Young became the first Rider to wear football jersey No. 44, a school tradition for several years to the team's top player. He also played baseball. After graduation, he entered U.S. military service before returning to enroll at West Liberty State. He starred on three teams which lost only one game. He earned Little All-America and Small All-America honors in 1947 when he led the nation in rushing with 1,353 yards. He held the West Virginia Conference career total offense record until the 1970s. He's a charter member of the WLS Athletics Hall of Fame. Young retired to live in Martins Ferry and is deceased.

Ohio Valley Athletic Conference

Embarks on 72nd Year

The Ohio Valley Athletic Conference was organized in 1943 with F.W. Bowen, J.E. Ewing, J.C. Greer, M.S. Hattala, B.G. Lockhart, J.V. Nelson, C. Petty, C.F. Walker, and C.S. Wiseman among those responsible for its basic conception. C.S. Wiseman became the conference's first president.

A demand arose in 1943 for a conference which would help stimulate and promote a more lucrative program of competitive high school athletics in the upper Ohio Valley.

Today, the OVAC is the largest and most functional high school conference of its kind in the United States. A total of 50 schools supply the upper Ohio Valley with more than 12,000 athletes in the various competitive athletic areas.

It is the basic objective of the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference to continue the promotion of all high school athletics and to serve in the overall development of proper school relationship, scholarship, and sportsmanship within the conference.

PREVIOUS OVAC HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

Class of 2004

OVAC Hall of Fame

Sponsored by Robinson Auto Group

George Kovalick (OVAC 'Family')

George E. Kovalick (Bridgeport High School), recognized as the "father" of high school wrestling in the Ohio Valley. Kovalick previously has been honored with membership in numerous halls of fame, including those at Kent State University; the Ohio Valley Football Coaches Association; Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Club; West Liberty State College; Ohio Athletic Directors and the Ohio Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Kovalick was selected as the first recipient (1976) of the prestigious OVAC Wrestling Committee's prestigious "Mr. Mat Award," an honor given annually to an individual for outstanding contributions to the sport of wrestling.

Kovalick directed championship teams in football, baseball and wrestling at both the intercollegiate and interscholastic levels during an enormously-successful 28-year coaching career.

Among the athletes he tutored in high school or college were all-time Ohio Valley greats John Havlicek, Phil and Joe Nickro, and Bobby Douglas. In baseball, Kovalick coached the Hilltoppers to the 1964 NAIA baseball championship, the only national title ever captured by the school. He also had West Virginia Interscholastic Athletic Conference championship teams at West Liberty in football, wrestling and baseball.

Kovalick not only was one of the founders of the OVAC Wrestling Tournament, but his Bridgeport grapplers won the first seven conference championships. In 1959, Kovalick's Bulldogs made history by becoming the first school outside the Cleveland area since 1942 to win an Ohio state wrestling title since 1942 to win an Ohio state wrestling title since. He coached six individual state champions.

Kovalick's other OVAC coaching stops were at Moundsville, Bellaire and Weir schools. His 1973 Weir High football team was a state runner-up, losing to East Bank in the Class AAA state final. He retired from coaching in 1978 but then served as athletic director at Bellaire until the time of his death in 1984.

He was OVAC Baseball Director for many years and also directed the conference's mat championship event.

Along with his great coaching knowledge, Kovalick was also recognized as a marvelous competitor, meticulous organizer and a man with an enormous capacity for work.

Samuel A. Mumley (OVAC 'Family')

Samuel A. Mumley (Benwood Union High School) served two terms — covering a total of 32 years — as executive secretary of the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference. During the second term which lasted until his death in 1999, Mumley helped resurrect the bi-state league from the brink of bankruptcy to its current standing as one of the great high school conferences in the entire country.

Some of the many highlights from his stewardship included: Helping to establish the OVAC Foundation as a major fund-raising arm for the conference; Securing NCAA certification for the Rudy Mumley OVAC Charity All-Star Football Classic; Attracting major financial sponsors to support all of the OVAC programs, including the Banquet of Champions, an awards dinner that honors more than 1,000 athletes each spring and provides more than $20,000 annually in scholarships; Establishing the all-star basketball game which was later renamed as the Samuel A. Mumley OVAC All-Star Basketball Classic.

Mumley's response to a call of duty went beyond the OVAC as he was one of the founders of the Wheeling Super Six Committee, which has hosted the West Virginia state championship football games at Wheeling Island Stadium since 1994. He also helped secure the West Virginia state soccer championships for the city. Five years after his death, the fruition of another one of his dreams occurred when an artificial grass playing surface was installed at Wheeling Island Stadium.

Although awards were never important to Mumley, he was the recipient of numerous honors. The major awards presented to him included: The National Federation of Officials Outstanding Service Award; Dapper Dan Man of the year; OVAC Man of the Year; and Outstanding West Virginian.

He was a basketball official for 23 years, an assistant coach, athletic trainer and athletic director at several area schools, including Cameron, The Linsly School and St. Clairsville. He was also a trainer at his college alma mater, the University of Maryland, along with the Washington Redskins and Philadelphia Eagles. Mumley served on the state of Ohio Board of Equity, was a member of the St. Clairsville Board of Education and a special liaison for the Mental Retardation Board and School of Hope.

Bill Van Horne (Media)

Bill Van Horne (Martins Ferry High School), was the dean of Ohio Valley sports-writers during a legendary newspaper career that spanned 53 years.

Van Horne was sports editor of The Times Leader for 25 years and the Wheeling News-Register for 28 years, during which time he was recognized by his peers as the most informational and influential writer in Ohio Valley history.

His work with the OVAC over the years was especially instrumental in the success of the wrestling, track and field and cross-country. Van Horne was the second recipient of wrestling's "Mr. Mat" Award in 1977 and he also received the Calvin Giffin Memorial Track Award.

His columns, "Van Horne on Sports," were masterpiece chronicles of the lives of others. A giant in his field and a role model for aspiring writers, Van Horne was admired and respected for his integrity, dedication, fairness, knowledge and compassion.

Van Horne's coverage and support for events like the Wheeling Distance Race (now The Ogden Newspapers 20K Classic), the West Virginia Tennis Open and the (now defunct) Wheeling LPGA Classic helped those events reach prominence in our area. His hacking also was a factor in the popularity enjoyed by the Wheeling Ironmen, Wheeling Blues and Wheeling Thunderbirds (now the Wheeling Nailers), professional football, basketball and hockey teams.

Numerous awards and honors were bestowed on Van Horne. The Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Club named him Man of the Year in 1993; he was selected as the West Virginia SportsWriter of the Year three times; received the Gene Morehouse Memorial Award for contributions in sportswriting throughout the Mountain State; and he was inducted into numerous halls of fame. Among those were the Wheeling Hall of Fame; the Lou Holtz Upper Ohio Valley Hall of Fame; Ohio Baseball Hall of Fame; Minor League Pro Football Hall of Fame and the Wheeling-Oglebay Tennis Club Hall of Fame. He served as president of the West Virginia Sports Writers Association and was a member of the Football Writers Board of Directors. Bill was the first sports-writer from West Virginia to be elected to the Football Writers Board of Directors. He also served as state chairman for the Heisman Trophy selection committee.

Cal Pokas (Media)

Cal Pokas (Bellaire High School) was another giant in the sports writing profession who cut his eye teeth under Bill Van Horne and developed into one of the area's true newspaper greats in his own right.

Pokas, who died in 2000, was employed for 40 years at The Times Leader, including 29 memorable years for Ohio Valley sports fans as the sports editor. He also was assistant sports editor, a courthouse and political reporter and Martins Ferry City Editor. Even after his retirement, Cal continued to contribute to his newspaper's sports pages with his weekly "Eye on the Bucks" column about Ohio State football. Pokas also personally saw to it that many of the so-called minor sports such as cross-country, track and volleyball, received their share of coverage in his newspaper.

Pokas was deeply interested in the OVAC throughout his career and he devoted much of his spare time to serving on committees for the Rudy Mumley Charity Football All-Star Classic, along with compiling standings for the football and basketball championship races. He also served on a media relations committee for the bi-state league.

Pokas had a term as president of the Ohio Prep Sports Writers Association, and was commissioner of the Ohio Valley Baseball League for 23 years. His interests in the community went beyond the world of sports as Pokas served on an advisory board for the Salvation Army; was Belmont County Chairman of the Multiple Sclerosis Association; and filled a seat on the Martins Ferry Civil Service Commission for 32 years until his death.

Pokas' honors were numerous. In 1960 he was presented a Community Service Award by United Press International. The Ohio Prep Sports Writers Association named him Sports Writer of the Year in 1976 and he was given a Distinguished Service Award from the Ohio Association of Track and Field and Cross Country Coaches.

Cal was selected to the Ohio Prep Sports Writers Hall of Fame and the UPI Sports Editors Association Hall of Fame. He also received service awards from the Ohio Valley Golf Coaches Association, the OVAC, Ohio Valley Football Coaches Association; Ohio Baseball Hall of Fame; and he was honored to be presented the first Sportsmanship Ethics and Integrity Award for the Eastern District from the OHSAA. Pokas was a "Mr. Mat" award honoree at the OVAC Wrestling Tournament, along with being selected for Bellaire High School's Wall of Fame. He was named as the Honorary Referee for the Wheeling Park Track Classic because of contributions to Ohio Valley youth.

Richard L. 'Dick' Potts (Coaches)

Richard L. "Dick" Potts finished his career as the Ohio Valley's all-time winningest basketball coach with 589 career victories.

Inducted into the Ohio High School Hall of Fame in 1983 by the Ohio High School Basketball Coaches Association, Potts coached a total of 40 seasons, all of which were spent in Monroe County. He began in 1951 at Bethel High School. His 1957 Blackhawks came out of the Monroe County hills at tournament time and advanced all the way to the Ohio Class A state finals where they lost by a single point. At the time the school had just 13 boys in grades nine through 12 and all but one of the male students was on the basketball team.

In seven years at Bethel, his teams won more than 20 games five times, including the 27-2 miracle team that played in the state tournament.

When the school was taken into the Skyvue consolidation after the '58 campaign, Potts was named coach of the Golden Hawks where he spent four years before moving on to River High in 1963. He remained at the Pilots' helm through the 1991 season.

The former Hannibal High School athlete was named in 1981 as the recipient of the prestigious Ohio Paul Walker Award, given in memory of Jerry Lucas' high school coach at Middletown, Ohio. Walker was the Buckley State's all-time winningest coach.

The navy veteran, Potts was the first OVAC coach to reach the 500-win plateau in basketball, reaching that goal with a win over Monroe County rival Woodsfield in 1983.

Considered a master strategist and teacher of the game, Potts may have been at his best during critical situations in post-season play. His teams won seven overtime tournament games, including a nine-OT win achieved by River against Morgan in Class AA sectional play.

Jim Foti (Coaches)

Jim Foti was a basketball coach for 38 years and a head football mentor for 20 seasons. He already has been inducted into the City of Wheeling, West Virginia Sports Writers Association, Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Club and John Carroll University's Halls of Fame.

Foti, a native of Jamestown, N.Y., came to the area in 1942 after having coached at Erie (Pa.) Prep. He coached basketball at Warwood, Wheeling Central Catholic and Bellaire. Overall, Foti posted 466 varsity basketball victories, all but 26 coming at OVAC schools. He coached Warwood High to seven West Virginia regional championships and his 1967 Viking squad won the state title. In 1976, his final year as a head coach and the last season before the Ohio County consolidation, Foti's Vikings advanced to the state tournament semifinals before being eliminated. The 1975 team played in the state championship game. He had five W.Va. Catholic title-winning teams at Wheeling Central and guided his squads to OVAC championships in three divisions.

In 1943, Foti had a 24-3 record team at Central, which lost by a point while playing in the Eastern Catholic championships held at Newport, R.I.

Foti's football coaching career produced another 124 victories, including a 90-106-3 record at Warwood, where the Class A school was saddled with playing one of the most competitive schedules in the area. His 1943 Wheeling Central football team went 9-1 and gained a Steel Bowl berth, where it lost a 20-19 thriller to Rochester, Pa., at Steubenville.

Foti also coached semi-professional basketball for two years as he directed the Wheeling Puritans in 1947 and '48.

Foti coached several outstanding athletes during his distinguished career. Among the Central standouts were James "Dubie" Dailer and Billy Gompers, both of whom went on to play at Notre Dame; Jack McConville, Alabama; Pete Schuetz, Duquesne, and Paul Schuetz, Northwestern. At Warwood he had a role in the development of Chuck Howley, former WVU and Dallas Cowboys' great; Bob Dunlevy (WVU), and basketball standouts Bob Ayers (VMJ), Bill Kennedy (Arizona State) and Greg Church (Army).

Evan Reese (Officials)

Evan Reese (Follansbee High School) served as an area high school and college arbiter for more than 50 years. He also officiated football in the Canadian League, the United Football League and the West Virginia Interscholastic Athletic Conference.

Reese was OVAC Commissioner for both football and basketball officials and he was president of the West Virginia Interscholastic Athletic Conference (WVIAAC) officials in both sports. He worked numerous state and conference tournament championship events throughout his long and storied career.

Reese also was a member of the West Virginia Secondary Schools Activities Commission Advisory Board and he was secretary of the Eastern District Board of Football and Basketball Officials. For many years, he was on the basketball rules committee in the Eastern District.

Today's Ohio Valley officials remember Evan as someone who had a tremendous influence on up-and-coming referees.

PREVIOUS OVAC HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

A. Wilson Murray (Official)

A. Wilson Murray (Wheeling High School) officiated high school basketball, football, baseball and track for 30 years, from 1946 through 1975. He actually began his officiating career in 1942, the year after he graduated from Wheeling High School. Murray entered the service in 1942 and did not return home until the after World War II had ended.

He worked numerous sectional, district, regional and finals in Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania. He also officiated basketball for 12 years in the Mid-American Conference and the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. Murray was a referee in the old United Football League in the days of the Wheeling Ironmen professional football team.

He served on the OVAC Executive Board and served for 10 years as the commissioner of the bi-state league's basketball officials. He later was appointed the OVAC's commissioner of football officials, a post he held from 1977 until retiring in 1985. In 1977, he was elected treasurer of the Ohio High School Athletic Association's Commissioners.

Murray officiated six West Virginia state tournaments and two WVAC tournaments. The former City of Wheeling Treasurer was a three-year football and basketball letterman at Wheeling High School. He played on the Wildcats' 1940 state championship basketball team.

Among the awards he was presented were: Ohio High School Athletic Association's Meritorious Award (1970); a West Virginia Secondary School's Activities Commission Award for his contributions to officiating in the Mountain State; Honorary Life Membership in the Ohio Valley Board of Approved Basketball Officials (1981); OVAC Exemplary Service Award (1981), and an Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Club Achievement Award (1982). In 1989, he was selected as the first recipient of the Bobby Dawson Basketball Officials' Award presented at the Samuel A. Mumley OVAC Charity Basketball Classic.

Ken Alessi (Athlete - 1940s)

Ken Alessi (Yorkville High School) was a 5-7, 155-pound basketball guard from 1947-49. He still holds two all-time OVAC scoring records — 1,142 points in 32 games as a senior and a career per-game point average of 31.0 for 66 games.

He was the first OVAC player to score 2,000 career points (2,047) after averaging a then-record 35.7 points a game and setting a mark of 70 points, including 31 goals, against Shadyside as a 1948-49 senior. That effort prompted the national exposure in "Ripley's Believe-It-Or-Not."

He also scored 65 points vs. Adena and 55 points vs. Dillonvale in back-to-back games. In one game, he converted 16 straight free throws. As a junior, Alessi scored 845 points in 30 games.

A two-time All-OVAC Class A and All-Ohio Class B honoree, he was the leading vote-getter in '49 when he was selected Ohio's Class B Player of the Year.

A three-sport prep standout, he was an All-Eastern Ohio football player as a two-way back and kicker, and he was a shortstop-pitcher in baseball.

Recruited by West Virginia University, he played three seasons (1950-52) and was the starting point guard two years. He led the team in assists as a sophomore while playing with 6-9 All-America Mark Workman.

In 1951, he scored 23 points in a home win over Wake Forest and tallied 18 in a 77-73 loss at Duke, which featured All-America guard Dick Groat, a future Pittsburgh Pirate infielder.

Alessi served as head basketball coach the final 12 seasons (1961-72) for alma mater Yorkville High before consolidation. His best team went 18-3 in 1962 and his 1970 team won an OVAC Class A crown. The '70 team featured Chuck Saus, who would surpass Alessi's career point total.

John Havlicek (Athlete - 1950s)

John Havlicek (Bridgeport High School, Class of 1958) was a three-sport high school honoree for the Bulldogs who later became one of Ohio State's basketball greats and was selected one of the 50 greatest NBA players.

In high school, the 6-5, 180-pounder was a two-time All-OVAC Class AA basketball performer as well as All-Ohio Class A. The Bulldogs won the OVAC AA crown in 1958.

An excellent rebounder, he also scored 1,594 career points in 59 games and averaged more than 30 points per game the last two seasons. He led the OVAC in scoring as a junior with a 31.9-point norm, including a school record 53 in a 103-101 overtime win over Cadiz.

He played in the Ohio North-South All-Star game with Jerry Lucas. The two later led Ohio State to three straight NCAA championship games including a title their sophomore season of 1960.

He was an All-Eastern Ohio shortstop on two OVAC championship baseball teams and batted over .400. He also starred in American Legion baseball and later played first base for Ohio State.

In football, the All-OVAC quarterback was recruited by several colleges including Ohio State and West Virginia.

At Ohio State, the Buckeyes were 78-6 during his three varsity basketball seasons and he twice earned All-Big Ten Conference honors.

Havlicek was the No. 1 draft choice of the NBA Boston Celtics and was also selected by the NFL Cleveland Browns even though he never played in college. He played a few exhibition games as a wide receiver with the Browns before reporting to the Celtics, where he would become team captain and have his No. 17 jersey retired.

Nicknamed "Honda", Havlicek retired in 1978 after 16 NBA seasons including eight Celtic championships. A 13-time All-Star, he is the Celtics' all-time leading scorer (26,395 points) and was the first NBA player to score 1,000 points in 16 consecutive seasons and, when he retired, Havlicek had played more regular season games than anyone in history. His career game averages were 20.8 points, 6.3 rebounds and 4.8 assists.

Besides the Basketball Hall of Fame and National High School Hall, he is a member of the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan and Ohio State Halls of Fame.

Bill Mazerowski (Athlete - 1950s)

Bill Mazerowski (Warren Consolidated High School, Class of 1954) is best known for his baseball feats, but the 5-11 basketball center also led the OVAC in scoring with a 27.6 per game average as a senior and was a two-time All-OVAC roundball selection and three-year basketball starter. He earned second team All-Ohio Class A recognition as a senior.

A four-year baseball standout as a shortstop-pitcher, Mazerowski led Warren Consolidated to the 1953 Ohio Class A (largest class) baseball finals before falling, 2-1 to Cincinnati Purcell. Mazerowski pitched a four-hitter in a losing cause.

The athlete, known as "Catfish" as a youth and "Maz" during his pro playing days, led Warren Consolidated to four straight OVAC Ohio-side baseball titles. The team was coached by Al Burnizio.

Signed by the Pittsburgh Pirates out of high school and summer, sandlot baseball, the Rush Run native was in the major leagues in 1956 and became a 10-time All-Star second baseman from 1956-72 with the National League team. He won eight of the first 10 second base Gold Glove fielding awards.

He played in 2,363 games and collected 2,016 hits but his best known feat is hitting game seven 1960 World Series winning home run versus the New York Yankees. He still holds some major league fielding records for double plays and assists. The Pirates retired his jersey No. 9.

Mazerowski was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2001 and also is enshrined in the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Hall, the Ohio Baseball Hall and the Pennsylvania Sports Hall.

Buckeye Local High School, a consolidation which includes Mazerowski's alma mater, named its high school field in his honor and a section of Route 7 near his Rush Run childhood home north of Titonoville is known as "Bill Mazerowski Highway."

Bobby Douglas (Athlete - 1960s)

Bobby Douglas (Bridgeport High School, Class of 1961) was a three-sport high school standout and the first wrestler to win four OVAC individual championships. He became the first black athlete to win an Ohio state mat crown (1959) when he emerged as the 112-pound titlist. He then finished third in the 1960 state tournament and won the 127-pound crown as a senior.

An All-OVAC football player and the conference Class AA captain as a 140-pound running back in 1960, Douglas also was a starter in baseball.

He wrestled two years at West Liberty State College, winning an NAIA championship and placing second in the NCAA. He then transferred to Oklahoma State, where he won the Big Eight Conference 147-pound title. The team never lost a dual meet with Douglas in the lineup and captured a pair of conference titles along with the 1964 NCAA team title.

Also as a competitor, he won five national championships and a pair of U.S. Olympic Trials titles. He had a fourth-place featherweight finish at the 1964 Tokyo Olympics and he captained the U.S. freestyle team at the 1968 games in Mexico City. Named the nation's outstanding wrestler in 1970 — the year he retired — Douglas compiled a career record of 303-17-7 (953). He was runner-up at the World Championships that year.

Still recognized as one of the nation's outstanding wrestling coaches, Douglas has been at the Iowa State University helm for 14 years and became just the fourth Division I mentor to reach the 400-victory plateau in January of 2003. He coached the Cyclones to 10 top-10 at the national finals. He also had runner-up teams in 1996, 2000 and 2002. In 2000, he was selected the National Wrestling Coach of the Year. He has produced six national champions, 17 conference titlists and 25 All-Americans at Iowa State. Before taking over the Cyclones' program, Douglas built a dynasty at Arizona State. From 1975-92, he guided ASU to nine conference title and nine top-10 NCAA team finishes, including the school's first national championship in 1988. While with the Sun Devils, he had three national individual title winners, 37 conference champs and 58 All-Americans.

He was head coach of the 1992 U.S. Olympic freestyle team that competed in Barcelona, Spain. All 10 of his wrestlers placed among the top 10 in their respective weight classes. Douglas has been on the U.S. coaching staff for five other Olympics.

Douglas was inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame, the NAIA Wrestling Hall of Fame, the Ohio Hall of Fame and the Arizona State Hall of Fame.

Allan Hornyak (Athlete - 1960s)

Allan Hornyak (St. John Central High School, Class of 1969) was best known as a record-setting 40-point per game scorer his last two basketball seasons, but the left-hander also was a three-sport standout performer as a football quarterback and first baseman-pitcher in baseball.

A 6-1, 185-pound long-range shooting guard in the era prior to the three-pointer, Hornyak led the OVAC and the state of Ohio in scoring his last two seasons with an all-time OVAC record 42.7 average as a junior plus a 41.95 senior norm.

As a junior, he scored 812 points in 19 games, including 295 goals and 222-of-272 free throws. In his senior year, he tallied 923 points in 22 games with 346 goals and 231-of-296 free throws.

The two-time All-OVAC and All-Ohio cager set the OVAC record of 86 points, including 40 goals, in a 1969 win over Titonoville and he scored 61 points the next night against rival Bellare.

He scored at least 50 points in a game 14 times and ended his 80-game career with a then OVAC record 2,385 points. The Irish won back-to-back OVAC Class AA basketball titles including a 20-2 overall record in 1969.

His scoring efforts resulted in articles in Sport magazine, the New York Times and Sports Illustrated "Faces in the Crowd". Hornyak earned Scholastic Coach All-America honors and his No. 20 home basketball jersey was retired by the school.

In football, St. John's also won an OVAC crown with a 9-1 record in 1968, with Hornyak as an All-OVAC quarterback. He passed for 14 touchdowns that season.

Recruited for basketball by numerous colleges, he opted for The Ohio State University where he led the Buckeyes in scoring three straight years and earned All-Big Ten Conference honors each year and All-America recognition as a senior.

He left OSU as the school's fourth all-time career scorer with 1,572 points in 69 games and is a member of The Ohio State University Sports Hall of Fame.

Hornyak was the second round pick, and 26th overall, of the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers. He was also drafted by the ABA Indiana Pacers in the fifth round, but didn't compete in the pro ranks.

Ron 'Fritz' Williams (Athlete - 1960s)

Ron 'Fritz' Williams (Weir High, Class of 1964) was a four-year, three-sport standout for the Red Riders. He led Weir to three straight state Class AAA title games including an unbeaten 1962 regular season, two state runner-ups and a state title in 1963 (a three-year record of 62-8). The three-year All-OVAC and All-West Virginia Class AAA basketball player was also an All-OVAC and All-West Virginia football end in 1963 and the OVAC and West Virginia Region 1 sprint champion in the 100, 220 and 440-yard events in 1964.

The 6-3, 185-pound Williams was the first African-American to be named first team All-West Virginia in basketball and only the fourth person in history to be named first team all-state three times. He scored 2,203 career points — then an OVAC "big school" record — and averaged 30.9 as a senior and 30.1 as a junior. He scored a school-record 55 points against East Liverpool. He was named All-America by Parade and Scholastic Coach magazines.

Williams was a regular end on the 1961 Class AAA state championship football team and was all-state and Scholastic Coach All-America as a senior.

He played on two OVAC Class 3-A title basketball teams (1962 and '64) and the 1962 OVAC track championship squad. The first African-American recruited to play basketball at West Virginia University, he still holds season and career assist records while averaging 20.1 points for his career — sixth best in history and leading the team in scoring and assists three years. Only two WVU players — Jerry West and "Hot Rod" Hundley — combined for more points and assists than Williams, a three-time All-Southern Conference honoree and a second team All-American.

The two-time team captain is a member of the All-Time WVU team (1966-75 era) and has been inducted into the WVU Sports Hall of Fame as well as the West Virginia Sports 'Hall' and the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan 'Hall'. He was the ninth overall NBA draft pick in 1968 by the San Francisco Warriors and also was drafted in the ABA fifth round by the New Orleans Buccaneers. Despite not playing college football, he is one of only two OVAC products to be drafted both by the NBA and NFL (Dallas Cowboys, 14th round).

Williams played eight NBA seasons — five with the Warriors, two with the Milwaukee Bucks and one with the Los Angeles Lakers. He scored 4,797 career points and had 1,818 career assists. He died, at age 59, on April 4, 2004 at his home in California. The road near his Weirton childhood home named "Ron (Fritz) Williams Boulevard."

Doug Donley (Athlete - 1970s)

Doug Donley (Cambridge High School, Class of 1977) was a three-sport standout, excelling in football, track and basketball and earning the nickname "White Lightning" for his blazing speed.

On the gridiron, Donley was a three-year letterman at running back for the Bobcats, finishing with a career total of 2,572 rushing yards. He also had 226 yards receiving and 1,028 yards in kick returns for a career all-purpose yardage total of 3,826 yards to go with 31 TDs.

Donley's football accolades included first team All-Ohio Class AAA (1976) by both The Associated Press and United Press International; Eastern District Class AAA "Player of the Year" (1976); and first team All-OVAC Class 4-A (1976).

In track, Donley won the OVAC Class 4-A championship in the long jump as a junior (1976) with a leap of 21 ft. 2.5 in. and was a double-winner at the conference meet as a senior (1977) — winning the long jump (21-10.75) and the 220-yard dash (22.4 seconds), helping the Bobcats to the OVAC team title.

He earned All-Eastern District in the 100-yard dash and was recognized as a high school All-American in track.

Also a standout in basketball, Donley was hampered by a shoulder injury but still managed to score 10 points per contest and had a school-record 17-assist game.

Widely recruited for football, Donley attended The Ohio State University and earned first team All-Big Ten and honorable mention All-America accolades at wide receiver (1980). He ranks among the Buckeyes' all-time leading receivers in several categories, including career yards per catch (21.2, second); yardage (2,252, fourth); touchdowns (16, fifth); and receptions (106, tied for ninth). He led the team in receptions from 1978-80.

Donley was a second round draft choice of the Dallas Cowboys in 1981, playing four years in the NFL. He caught 55 passes for 898 yards and four TDs.

Inducted into the Cambridge High School Hall of Fame, Donley is president of Advantage Golf Tournament Services in Addison, Texas.

PREVIOUS OVAC HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

Tim Spencer (Athlete - 1970s)

Tim Spencer (St. Clairsville High School, Class of 1979) ranks with the greatest running backs ever to grace Ohio Valley high school gridirons. Spencer — who plied his trade for legendary coach George Strager — rushed for some 3,144 yards and 50 touchdowns. He scored 338 points during his Red Devil grid career.

As a senior, the Parade All-American gained 1,670 yards and scored 28 touchdowns while his junior numbers totaled 1,280 rushing yards and 18 touchdowns. Spencer's top prep game came as a senior when he rushed for 306 yards and scored six touchdowns against Martins Ferry. All told, he scored 40 points in that contest.

He was awarded All-OVAC and All-Ohio football honors following his junior and senior seasons.

Spencer also played basketball and ran track for the Red Devils, excelling in the 100- and 200-meters. After his prep days, Spencer matriculated to Columbus to play for Coach Earle Bruce's Ohio State Buckeyes.

The 6-1, 210-pounder was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes. He finished his career with 3,553 yards which still ranks third on Ohio State's all-time rushing charts.

Spencer led the Big Ten in rushing as a senior with 1,371 yards, eighth best in the nation. He was accorded All-Big Ten honors twice and was a second-team UPI All-American selection as a senior.

He served as the Buckeyes' co-captain as a senior and was voted the team MVP that year. He was also named MVP of the Holiday Bowl as he rushed for 167 yards and two TDs in OSU's 47-17 win.

Spencer was the second player selected in the United States Football League (USFL) draft by the Chicago Blitz. After a three-year USFL stint, he signed with the San Diego Chargers where he started for four years at fullback.

He gained more than 5,000 rushing yards and scored 45 touchdowns as a professional. Spencer served as Ohio State's running backs coach from 1994 through the 2003 season. He left the Buckeyes for an assistant's role with the Chicago Bears.

Amy Gamble (Athlete - 1980s)

Amy Gamble (John Marshall High School, Class of 1982) is one of the Ohio Valley's greatest female athletes of all time. Gamble excelled in three sports — basketball, track and women's handball.

She became Marshall County's first Olympian when she competed with the U.S. Women's Handball Team in the 1988 Games held in Seoul, Korea. Earlier, the U.S. Women were crowned as champions of the Pan American Games.

Gamble was selected as the West Virginia Women's Basketball Player of the Year in 1982 after leading John Marshall to the state Class AAA championship. She averaged 23 points and 18 rebounds on a 22-1 record team which avenged its only loss by defeating Elkins in the state finals. Captain of the All-State Team, Gamble was a two-time Class AAA first-team honoree. She was chosen All-OVAC and All-Valley three straight years.

She was the first JMHS girls' basketball performer to score more than 1,000 points and the initial Monarch athlete to have her jersey retired. She scored 1,498 career points. Gamble was ranked as the No. 4 girls' basketball player in the country her senior season when she was named to the Parade, Street & Smith and USA Today All-American teams.

Recruited by Tennessee, she played as a backup on the 1983 Lady Vols' squad that finished as the NCAA tournament runners-up, losing to the Cheryl Miller-led Southern Cal powerhouse. She left Tennessee at the end of that season and transferred to West Virginia University but played just one season before deciding to try team handball.

After her appearance in the Olympics, Gamble returned to basketball and enrolled at the University of Arizona. Despite having just one season of eligibility remaining, Gamble was the team's leading scorer and she earned Pacific-10 Conference player of the week laurels.

Her high school track career was also brilliant, as Gamble set numerous invitational meet and OVAC records in the shot put and the discus. She established all-time OVAC standards in both events and was a West Virginia state champion in both events. She was a three-time All-Valley honoree.

Mitch Hannahs (Athlete - 1980s)

Mitch Hannahs (Skyvue High School, Class of 1985) was the epitome of a winner in high school as the two-sport, four-year letterman sparked the tiny Golden Hawks to the state tournament in both basketball and baseball.

In basketball, Skyvue made the OHSAA state tournament in Hannahs' junior and senior seasons, finishing as the Class A runner-up in 1984-85. He was selected first team All-Ohio as a senior and second team as a junior and was a two-time first team All-Eastern District, All-OVAC and All-Pioneer Valley Conference honoree. He also participated in the Ohio North-South All-Star classic following a senior season where the 5-10 guard averaged more than 22 points per game.

In baseball, the consistent-hitting and sure-handed shortstop helped the Hawks to the Ohio Class A state championship as a senior (1985) as well as the OVAC and PVC titles. He earned first team All-Ohio, All-Eastern District, All-OVAC and All-PVC honors and was selected for the Ohio Baseball All-Star Series.

He also received All-Eastern District, All-OVAC and All-PVC accolades following his sophomore (1983) and junior (1984) seasons.

After graduation Hannahs pulled off a rare "double" when his college team - Indiana State University - advanced to the NCAA Division I College World Series in 1986 and that same season, he played for the Maynard Post 666 team which advanced to the American Legion World Series. Hannahs was voted MVP of the regional tournament that season and won the Louisville Slugger Award for the highest batting average in tournament play.

At Indiana State, Hannahs was a three-time All-Missouri Valley Conference performer (1987-89) and was an NCAA Division I All-American following his senior year (1989).

He was a 16th round draft pick of the Milwaukee Brewers, playing in their farm system from 1989-93. Hannahs is currently athletic director and head baseball coach at Lincoln Trail College in Robinson, Illinois. He previously coached for seven years at his alma mater - Indiana State University.

Vicki Pullie-Stokes (Athlete - 1980s)

Vicki Pullie-Stokes (Wellsville High School, Class of 1987) is believed by many Wellsville residents to be one of the greatest athletes in the school's history, attested to by her induction as a member of Wellsville High School's Athletic of Fame inaugural Class of 2004.

During her high school career, Pullie-Stokes collected 15 first-place finishes at the annual Cal Giffin OVAC Track Championships and she was selected as the area "Track Athlete of the Year" three times. She also earned both All-Valley and All-Eastern District laurels four times each. She was a two-time long jump champion at the Ohio high school state meet and was a runner-up in the 200 meters.

In volleyball, she was twice selected as the team MVP and earned All-Area (three times), All-Eastern District (twice), and All-OVAC (twice). Three times she was named to the All-Columbiana County team.

In basketball, she led the 1987 Lady Tigers to the state finals. Her 27-1 record Wellsville team ended one of the nation's longest basketball streaks at 108 when the Tigers defeated West Holmes in tournament play. She scored more than 1,400 points and collected more than 800 rebounds while helping the Tigers to a three-year record of 66-8. Pullie-Stokes was chosen OVAC "Player of the Year" that season and was a two-time All-Ohio honoree. She also earned All-Valley and All-Area recognition three times each on the hardwood.

All told, she won 11 varsity letters and was selected as the American Legion 1987 Ohio State "Athlete of the Year". She went on to play collegiate basketball at Ohio State and was a member of the 1989 Buckeyes' squad that won the Big Ten Conference championship. She gained personal honors when in 1990 she was selected as Ohio State's best defensive player, team MVP and Big Ten honorable mention. Twice, she was designated as the conference's player of the week.

Additionally, Pullie earned a gold medal with the North Team in the 1989 U.S. Olympic Festival, held in Norman, Okla.

Geno Ford (Athlete - 1990s)

Geno Ford (Cambridge High School, Class of 1993) achieved the ultimate honor of a high school basketball player in the state of Ohio when he was selected "Mr. Basketball" following his senior season.

The 5-8 sharpshooter finished a stellar four-year career with the Bobcats as Ohio's second all-time leading scorer with 2,680 points which also stands as the OVAC's all-time high-water mark.

Ford's name also appears in the OHSAA record book in the following categories: 288 free throws made in a season (1991-92), first all-time; 697 free throws made in a career (1989-93), first all-time; and 928 points in a season (1991-92), seventh all-time.

Playing for his father, highly-successful Cambridge coach Gene Ford, Geno earned All-Ohio Division II first team accolades following both his junior and senior seasons. He was also a two-time All-Eastern District Division II "Player of the Year" and two-time All-OVAC Class 4-A first team pick.

Ford went on to become a four-year letterman at Ohio University, earning All-Mid American Conference second team honors as a junior (1996) and first team plaudits as a senior (1997). He is the fifth all-time leading scorer at OU with 1,752 points. One of the most popular players at OU, Ford helped the Bobcats to one NCAA and one NIT appearance during his career.

Following graduation, he served as a graduate assistant (1998-99) and assistant coach (1999-2001) at Ohio University; was head coach for one season at Division II Shawnee State University (2001-02), leading his team to a 22-10 record and earning American Midwest Conference "Coach of the Year" honors; served as an assistant coach at Kent State University since the 2002-03 season.

Stephanie Petho (Athlete - 1990s)

Stephanie Petho (St. John Central, Class of 1992) remains the measuring stick for female basketball greatness in the OVAC.

The Fighting Irish three-sports luminary re-wrote the St. John Central and OVAC scoring books during her career on Guernsey Street. The 5-7 sharpshooter finished her four-year career with 2,667 points which is first in conference annals and still ranks sixth in the state of Ohio.

Petho was accorded first-team All-OVAC all four years. The Bellaire native earned All-Ohio honors three years, culminating by being named the state's Division IV "Player of the Year" following a season in which she averaged a staggering 37.1 points a game.

As a junior, she tallied 35.9 points per game in leading her Lady Irish teammates to a 22-3 record a berth in the OHSAA regional tournament. She was named first team All-Ohio after scoring 910 points that winter alone. Petho twice cracked the 50-point plateau in a game, scoring 57 against Shadyside and 56 against Toronto.

The two-year starter at the University of Pittsburgh carried St. John Central to four OVAC championships in basketball and an overall 75-16 record. Petho was no one-sport wonder, also starring in volleyball and track during her prep career. She earned All-OVAC in volleyball her junior and senior years.

In track, Petho is one of the valley's all-time great throwers, earning five OVAC gold medals in the weight events — three in the discus and two in the shot put. Petho tossed the platter a school-record 121-7 en route to a regional championship and a third-place showing in the state meet as a junior.

She capped her high school career by being named co-valedictorian of her senior class and she went on to become an Academic All-American at Pitt. While there, she led the team in scoring in the 1994-95 season, became the career free throw percentage leader (81.4) and is 14th on the all-time scoring list.

Rudy Mumley (OVAC 'Family')

Rudy Mumley (Wheeling High School, Class of 1936). If Rudy Mumley's heart was measured by the size of his love for his fellow men and women, it never could have fit inside his body.

Mumley, an educator, administrator, humanitarian, dynamic organizer and charity fund-raiser, served the OVAC and the rest of Ohio Valley in many different, but special ways. He was a two-time president, charter member of the conference's Foundation Board, served on the football and basketball committees and was the organizer and long-time game director of the Ohio-West Virginia Charity Football Classic. The mid-summer all-star football clash was renamed in his honor in 1986. He also served as OVAC president during the 1967-68 school year. To help the game get off the ground, Mumley once mortgaged his home to achieve the financing needed for the inaugural OVAC-sponsored contest in 1972. He also was a great supporter of the OVAC wrestling tournament.

A graduate of old Wheeling High School and West Liberty State College with a master's degree from WVU, Mumley served in the Air Force during World War II and was recalled during the Korean conflict. He taught at Powhatan, Shadyside and Smithfield High Schools before being appointed principal at Warren Consolidated High in Tiltonsville in 1964. Rudy later served as principal at Buckeye High. Later, when the Buckeye Local School District was formed, he became principal at Buckeye South and remained there until his retirement in 1979.

Mumley, who was born in 1918 and died in 1999, also provided great service to the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Club and his college alma mater, West Liberty State. Rudy was a member of the Dapper Dan Board of Directors for some 25 years and was banquet co-chairman six times. At West Liberty, he earned a rare honor as a non-athlete when he was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1985. He was president of the Hilltoppers' Alumni Association and the Foundation. Among the numerous honors he received include: the Robert McKelvey Award and Man of the Year honors from the Dapper Dan Club; WLSU Gold and Black Achievement Award and the College President's Award, along with the Warwood Lions Club's Citizen of the Year Award in 1981.

PREVIOUS OVAC HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

Joey Galloway (Athlete - 1990s)

Joey Galloway (Bellaire High School, Class of 1990). This Big Reds' four-sports performer has excelled on the prep, collegiate and professional levels.

The mercury-neeled wide receiver was an All-Ohio grinder for coach John Magistro before a sparkling career at Ohio State University. After his Scarlett & Gray days, Galloway was a first round draft pick by the Seattle Seahawks of the National Football League.

Galloway rewrote the Ohio Valley record books for pass receiving yards with 2,332 and touchdown receptions with 27. He ended with 108 career catches. The 5-9 explosive game-breaker helped lead the Big Reds to the OVAC 3-A football title his junior year, playing an integral role in the 9-1 campaign. He landed 43 passes for 973 yards and 13 TDs that fall. Galloway was a three-time All-OVAC and All-Valley honoree and was named All-Ohio second team in Division III as a senior.

In basketball, he was just as dominating as a point guard. Galloway was a starter for three straight OVAC championship teams for coach Gene Ammirante. He earned All-OVAC, All-Valley and All-Ohio honors.

The springtime saw Galloway serve the Big Reds as an infielder on the baseball diamond, but it was on the oval where he made an even bigger impact. Galloway claimed the state Division II 100-meter and 200 state sprint titles as a senior.

The Bellaire Bulletin then took his amazing athletic skills to Columbus, starring for John Cooper on the gridiron. He was honored as an All-Big Ten wide receiver as a junior—a season in which he grabbed 47 passes for 946 yards. His career totals at Ohio State were 108 receptions for 1,594 yards and 19 TDs. Galloway finished with 2,754 all-purpose yards and was the team's co-captain in 1994. He was an All-Big Ten Academic honoree in 1991, 1993 and 1994 while earned the National Football Foundation Scholarship in 1994. He earned a degree in business/marketing.

Galloway was the eighth overall pick in the 1994 NFL Draft. He played five seasons with the Seahawks, catching 283 passes for 4,457 yards and 37 TDs. In his best season in Seattle, he collared 72 passes for 1,049 yards and 12 TDs. He left Seattle for the Dallas Cowboys and is now a member of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Matt Gaudio (Athlete - 1990s)

Matt Gaudio (Brooke High School, Class of 1991). This fluid athlete dominated the West Virginia prep hardwood as he was a four-year starter for the Bruins.

He concluded his sparkling Brooke career by being named the W. Va. "Player of the Year" as well as the Gatorade state "Player of the Year" in 1991. The 6-7 forward paced Brooke to records of 19-4, 22-4, 16-7 and 18-7 for a four-year career mark of 75-22.

Gaudio was a two-time all-state Class AAA honoree and twice named to the all-state tournament team. He averaged 17.9 points and 10.1 rebounds as a sophomore and followed that up with a state Class AAA-best 24.8 scoring norm as a junior while averaging 11 rebounds.

Gaudio capped his superb prep career with a brilliant senior campaign. He averaged 24.3 points and grabbed 13.4 rebounds to repeat as All-OVAC, All-Valley and All-W. Va. honors while being accorded honorable mention All-America. He was the first Bruin to earn first team all-state in boys' basketball. Gaudio surpassed the 1,000 mark in career points (1,874) and career rebounds (1,108), both Bruin records.

He opted to continue his academic and athletic career at Penn State University, where he was plagued by chronic back problems which required surgery. In spite of the medical woes, Gaudio endured to turn in a solid career. During his redshirt sophomore season, he averaged 9.4 points and 4.7 rebounds a game and was named recipient of the Lou Lamie Most Inspirational Player Award.

The following year, he served as student assistant coach while completing his liberal arts degree with an emphasis on architecture. He returned to play as a senior and was second on the team in scoring with a 13.1 averaged while collected 6.4 rebounds a game during a 21-7 record season.

Cal Giffin (OVAC 'Family')

Cal Giffin (Bellaire High School, Class of 1947). One of the legendary figures involved in the sport of high school track and cross country in the OVAC.

During his 17 years employed as a teacher and coach in the Bellaire City School District, Giffin was one of the founders and the director of the famed Bellaire Relays. During its 52-year history, the Bellaire Relays attracted many of Ohio's greatest athletes to the Nelson Field. At one time, the Bellaire Relays was recognized as the second-largest track event in the Buckeye State. His teams won five OVAC and district track championships. During his reign, the Big Reds won 58 dual/triangular track meets. Also while at Bellaire, he served as an assistant coach in football and basketball.

Giffin's time-consuming work and contributions to the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference included a term as president (1973-74) and commissioner of the football and basketball officials. He directed many major OVAC track meets and to honor his efforts, the league championships in track and field were renamed as the OVAC Cal Giffin Classic. He was a member of the Eastern District of the Ohio Athletic Board, the Ohio High School Coaches Association, the Ohio Football Coaches Association and the National Collegiate Track and Field Coaches Association. He was voted into the Ohio State Track Coaches Hall of Fame in 1972. Giffin was presented two awards of merit from the OHSAA and, following his death in 1975, he was selected for a posthumous Alumni Achievement Award by West Liberty State College. Giffin served the Eastern Ohio Coaches Association as president as well as being the state vice president for the Ohio Association of Track Coaches.

Athletically, Cal was a three-sport letterman (football, basketball and track) at Bellaire High. He played on the first Big Reds' football team to win an OVAC championship (1946). He also played in the Ohio-West Virginia All-Star Football Game in 1947. Giffin's career also led him to the Martins Ferry School District where he was the supervisor of elementary and secondary education. From there, he became the principal of St. Clairsville High School and later served as superintendent of the St. Clairsville-Richland School District. He received his B.S. in Education from West Liberty in 1951 and his Master of Arts Degree in school administration from WVU in 1967.

Ron Mauck (OVAC 'Family')

Ron Mauck (Bridgeport High School, Class of 1958). Educator, administrator, community leader. Mauck has been director of the OVAC Wrestling Tournament, one of the largest high school events of its kind in the entire country, since 1979. This highly-regarded championship was renamed as the Ron Mauck OVAC Wrestling Tournament in 2006.

A pupil of the late George Kovalick, an OVAC Hall of Famer and considered to be the patriarch of high school wrestling in the Ohio Valley, Mauck also established the conference's dual meet championship standings in 1971 and directed five W.Va. state tournaments at the Wheeling Civic Center (now WesBanco Arena). Three times, he served as a volunteer on the staff for NAIA and NCAA Division II championships (hosted by West Liberty State College) held in Wheeling. In addition to his duties with the conference mat tournament, Mauck was a long-time member of the Rudy Mumley OVAC Charity All-Star Football Classic. He was assistant game director and later served as game director from 1993 through 1998.

The Bridgeport High and West Liberty State College graduate, who earned his master's in safety education, began his teaching and coaching career in 1965 at Follansbee High School where he started the school's varsity wrestling program and coached the school's only individual state champion (Lou Daly). While at Follansbee, Mauck coached John Craig, a first-time wrestler as a senior in 1965 who went on to become an All-American at West Liberty and later was one of the area's outstanding coaches before becoming an administrator. When the consolidated Brooke High School opened in 1968, Ron was named to coach the wrestling team where he tutored the Bruins' first West Virginia mat champ in Jim Suddeth. Before retiring after a 34-year career in education, Mauck served Brooke as director of the school's Driver's Education Department, Physical Plant Director, Assistant Athletic Director and Athletic Director in addition to having the OVAC Wrestling Tournament renamed in his honor. Mauck also was presented the "Mr. Mat" Award in 1985. He was named the W. Va. Wrestling Coaches Man of the Year (1987); and received recognition awards from the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Club (1983 and 1997); W. Va. Athletic Director of the Year (1995). Mauck twice was selected Warwood Lions Citizen of the Year, winner of the H.V. Corcoran Sr. Award (2001) and a member of the Brooke County Wall of Fame (2006). He is past president of the W. Va. Safety Association, the Bridgeport Alumni and Warwood Junior High Athletic Association.

Boyd Nelson (Media)

Boyd Nelson (Bellaire High School, Class of 1945). Nelson spent 41 years as a photographer with The Times Leader in Martins Ferry. Fellow staffers and friends have called him a pioneer, a legend and, perhaps, the greatest goodwill ambassador in the newspaper's history. His work behind the camera, according to many area high school coaches, help bring the sports world alive to the readers of The Times Leader.

Nelson, a quiet, unassuming man, let his camera do his talking for him. No assignment was too big nor too menial for Nelson, who had the opportunity to take pictures of seven U.S. presidents from Harry Truman through Ronald Reagan. Nelson chronicled nearly every major happening throughout the Ohio Valley and was a familiar and much-welcome face at high school, college and professional games and matches from the start of his career in the late 1940s until his retirement in 1988. As was pointed out at the time of his death in 2003, there wasn't a gymnasium, football field or baseball diamond in The Times Leader's coverage area where Nelson didn't capture the exploits of athletes of all ages and abilities. Among the future professional greats he covered included baseball hall of famers Phil Niekro and Bill Mazeroski; basketball hall of famer John Havlicek; Joe Niekro, Tim Spencer, Olympic wrestler and coach Bobby Douglas and Allan Hornyak, just to mention a few.

Boyd's devotion to his work also made him a role model and an inspiration to aspiring and seasoned photographers alike. Nelson shunned the limelight throughout his life despite the urgings of co-workers and admirers to enter his pictures in statewide competition. As a result, he was bypassed for many awards that easily would have come his way. However, United Press International began presenting awards to newspaper and magazine photographers in the early 1970s and the very first honoree was none other than Boyd Nelson. When The Times Leader published a pictorial history of Eastern Ohio in 1989, the book was dedicated to Nelson, a lifelong Belmont County resident. He began his career following a stint in the U.S. Navy. He served a stint in the Philippines during World War II. After returning home, Nelson attended Ohio University for a year. However, after being hired as a summer intern by The Times Leader, he never returned to college and made photography his lifetime profession.

Paul 'Bud' Billiard (Coaches)

Paul "Bud" Billiard (Wellsburg High School, Class of 1959). Head coach at Brooke High School for 23 seasons (1979-2001) where he compiled a record of 185 wins, 79 defeats and 1 tie. During this span, Billiard's Bruins won three West Virginia Class AAA state championships — 1985, 1987 and 1990. His 1987 and '90 powerhouses recorded perfect record seasons and both were nationally ranked. The 1987 team finished 25th in the country while the 1990 squad ended up in 23rd place. In 1994, Brooke also ended the campaign with a 10-0 record but lost in the state playoffs. Fifteen of his 23 Bruin teams participated in the post-season playoffs and seven made the state championship game. Also, Billiard coached the green and gold to seven OVAC Class AAA Division III championships. He coached in two Rudy Mumley OVAC Charity All-Star Football games and in three West Virginia North-South Games. He was among the founding members and past president of the Ohio Valley Football Coaches Association for whom he also was chairman of the group's annual awards dinner. He also assisted in organizing the OVACA's Clinics and Prospect Nights. Billiard's Brooke coaching career also included eight years as an assistant in football, two years as a wrestling assistant, six years as head wrestling coach and three years as head track coach. Prior to Brooke, he spent four years as an assistant in football at Wheeling Central, two years as a volunteer assistant in wrestling and three years as head track coach.

While attending Wellsburg High School, he played four years of football and lettered three years, serving as team captain in 1958. He played baseball three years, earning two letters. At West Liberty State College, Billiard was a four-year varsity letterman in football playing on both the offensive and defensive lines. After his junior season, he earned first-team All-WVAC laurels.

Among his awards are: Ohio Valley, OVAC and West Virginia Coach of the Year; Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Man of the Year; Carl Hamill Coaching Award; Sieubenville Moose Lodge Coach of the Year; West Liberty State College Athletic Hall of Fame; 2005 Ohio Valley Football Coaches Hall of Fame inductee; H.V. Corcoran Sr. Award for the Brooke football program bringing national attention to the Ohio Valley; and a 2005 recipient of the West Virginia Athletic Coaches Association's Retired Coaching Award.

Richard 'Lefty' Hall (Coaches)

Richard "Lefty" Hall (Barnesville High School, Class of 1959). Hall was one of the most successful two-sport coaches (baseball/golf) in OVAC history, compiling a whopping 1,116 victories over a 34-year span.

He began his baseball coaching career at Powhatan High School for a year before taking the same post at St. Clairsville High School. In his 33 years with the Red Devils (1969-2001), his teams amassed an outstanding 515-320 record.

With "Lefty" calling the shots from the dugout, St. Clairsville won seven OVAC championships and made five Ohio High School Athletic Association regional tournament appearances (1978, 1982, 1986, 1990 and 1997). The Red Devils advanced to the state tournament "Final Four" in 1997. St. Clairsville also won five Eastern Ohio Baseball League titles under Hall's guidance.

Hall as named OVAC Coach of the year in 1991 and received the same accolade from the Eastern District three times, 1990, 1995 and 1997. He also served as one of the coaches in the Mizuno All-Star Series in 1997. A true baseball "junkie," Hall was inducted into the Ohio High School Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame in 1996 and was named the Ohio Baseball Hall of Fame "Man of the Year" in 1999.

Hall coached six players who signed professional baseball contracts, the list including Gerry Craft, Gene Cattane, Ted Rose, Scott Barnhouse, Joe Slavik and Joe Dudek.

In golf, "Lefty" coached St. Clairsville for 27 years (1974-2000), finishing with a 601-123 record. He had three unbeaten teams and also tutored three squads that advanced to the Ohio state tournament. The Red Devils also collected 14 OVAC golf championships.

Hall, a life-long resident of Barnesville, lettered in baseball and track while performing for the Shamrocks. He graduated from Ohio University.

PREVIOUS OVAC HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

Warren Pugh (Officials)

Warren "Nookie" Pugh (The Linsly School, Class of 1920). The Wheeling Island resident who died in 1983 at the age of 81 served the coaching and officiating profession very well and also was an outstanding contributor to his committee.

As an official, Pugh served as a football and basketball referee for over 40 years. In football, he worked in both high school and college, including the West Virginia Interscholastic Athletic Conference and West Virginia University, Pitt and Penn State. A basketball official for more than 40 years, Pugh officiated high school and college contests. In 1933 and 1934, he worked the entire West Virginia state high school basketball tournament, his partners being Judge Paul Camillellet the first year and Dink Westfall the second year. Pugh and John Gott of Bluefield blew the whistle for all 11 games of the first WVAC tournament held in 1935 at Fairmont. Pugh served as president of both the Ohio Valley Board of Football and Basketball Officials. He also was the referee of the famed Bellaire Relays for many years and was later named as the meet's honorary referee. He was also honored for his service by the Shadyside Relays and the West Virginia Secondary School Activities Commission. Pugh conducted officials' clinics in several sports and wrote a newspaper series on officiating. Pugh also was a Red Cross instructor in water safety and life-saving for over 50 years. In his youth, he was recognized as a tri-state diving champion and was known to many people in Wheeling for diving off the Suspension Bridge into the Ohio River. He performed that feat for the first time on Labor Day during the state fair held when he was a teenager. He repeated that dive on several other occasions during his youth. He coached swimming at his alma mater, The Linsly School for nearly three decades, guiding the Cadets to 26 OVAC championships, including 25 in a row.

Pugh was also a tremendous athlete, especially as a football player. He attended Alderson-Broadus College in Philippi for two years and played football before transferring to Davis & Elkins College where was a stellar fullback and center for Hall of Fame Coach Cam Henderson. Since eligibility rules never really existed in those days, Pugh played four years at D&E. His community service included 15 years as Wheeling's Recreation Director, two terms as Ohio County Sheriff and six years as an Ohio County Commissioner. Pugh was inducted into the West Virginia Sports Hall of Fame (1980), the Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Hall of Fame (1984) and now the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference Hall of Fame.

Bob Gain (Athlete - 1940s)

Bob Gain (Weir High School, Class of 1947). An all-time great on the high school, college and professional levels, he started his football career for the Red Riders and twice earned first team All-OVAC honors as a lineman and was honored on the 1946 All-WVA selections.

In 1969, he was selected as a 'Modern Era' defensive tackle on an All-Time Ohio Valley football team selected by The Intelligencer newspaper. In 2005, he was honored on an All-Time WVA high school team selected by The Fairmont Times newspaper. At Weir High, he was the largest all-state honoree at 6-2, 210-pounds and was a two-way tackle as well as handling punting and kickoff duties. His late coach Carl Hamill never singled out his best Red Rider football product but always started his list with Gain, a four-year starter and his most honored protégé.

Gain is regarded as the greatest lineman in University of Kentucky, where he was a three-time All-Southeastern Conference honoree and a two-time first team All-America choice in 1949 and 1950. As a senior, he won the Outland Trophy as the nation's outstanding lineman, the first from the SEC so honored, and one of only two from the Ohio Valley. The other Outland Trophy honoree was the University of Iowa's Calvin Jones from Steubenville High. Playing for the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant at Kentucky, the Wildcats were 23-10-2 in Gain's four seasons and he was co-captain of the 10-1 record team that upset national champion Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. Gain was the No. 5 choice — the highest ever for an OVAC athlete — in the first round of the 1951 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers. However, he opted for Ottawa in the CFL before starting a 12-year NFL career with the Cleveland Browns. The five-time Pro Bowler was a starter on three NFL championship teams under legendary coach Paul Brown in 1954, 1955 and 1964.

The Cleveland area resident has been inducted into seven Halls of Fame — College Football, West Virginia Sports, Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan, University of Kentucky, Cleveland and Akron Halls and Cleveland Browns' Legends Hall.

Phil Niecko (Athlete - 1950s)

Phil Niecko (Bridgeport High School, Class of 1957). The Baseball Hall of Famer got his athletic start with the Bulldogs where he was a three-sport performer. Besides baseball, he was a football end and basketball forward and a teammate of fellow OVAC Hall of Famer John Havlicek.

Nicknamed "Knuckskie" because of his staple pitch, the knuckleball, which he learned from his father, Niecko was a four-year Bulldog pitcher with a 17-1 career record. His only loss was 1-0 to Tiltonsville in 1954, his freshman year, when fellow Baseball and OVAC Hall of Famer Bill Mazerowski hit the game-winning home run. The 1955 Bulldog team shared the East Ohio League title with Martins Ferry. In a 9-4 Ohio sectional tournament win over St. John's, Niecko won the game in relief and belted a two-run single. Bridgeport, however, was halted in the finals by Shadyside, a team twice defeated by the Bulldogs. In 1956, Niecko and the Bulldogs defeated Steubenville Central, 7-1, in the Class A district tournament after sectional wins over Barnesville and St. Clairsville. Bridgeport bowed to East Liverpool in the district finals. As a senior, Niecko tossed a four-hitter and struck out 10 in a 4-2 win over Steubenville Central for the OVAC Ohio-side title. He earlier hurled an 8-2 win over East Liverpool in the Class AA district semifinals. Unbeaten Steubenville Central halted Bridgeport, 6-1 in the finals.

Niecko, who also played for the Bridgeport Legion team and Blaine in the summer Twilight League, was signed by the Milwaukee Braves for a $500 bonus at a 1958 tryout camp in Bellaire.

In 1964, he started a 24-year major league career with the Braves, New York Yankees, Cleveland Indians and Toronto Blue Jays. He had a 318-274 career record while appearing in 864 games and striking out 3,342 batters, eighth on the all-time charts. He hurled a no-hitter and won five Gold Gloves and was named to five All-Star teams. The Braves honored him by erecting a bronze statue in front of their home stadium and, in 1997, he was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame. He resides in the Atlanta area.

Lee Patrone (Athlete - 1950s)

Lee Patrone (Bellaire High School, Class of 1956). For 50 years, Patrone was the all-time leading career scorer in Big Reds' history with 1,842 points in three seasons. He led Bellaire High to three straight sectional titles with won-loss marks of 18-4, 20-3 and 19-4 while averaging 23.5, 26.7 and 32.9 points per game each season. His 27.1 point career average remains a school record.

The two-time first team All-OVAC honoree, and an All-Ohio first team honoree by The Associated Press as a senior, he was a scoring machine with 57 career games over 20 points, including all 23 as a senior, and he had 28 straight games in which he scored at least 20 points.

He tallied 54 points twice in a game in 1956, including his final game while playing with an injured leg against Martins Ferry in the district tournament title game. Ferry prevailed, 91-87, while surviving a limping Patrone's heroics. Earlier, against a Bridgeport team featuring Basketball and OVAC Hall of Famer John Havlicek, he converted 25 goals. His 299 goals in a season remains a school standard.

After a brief stay at Ohio State, the stocky 6-0 guard enrolled at West Virginia University in 1957 and led the 1958 freshman team in scoring with a 20-point norm. A member of the 1959 NCAA runner-up team led by All-American Jerry West, he was second to West in 1960 team scoring with a 14.2 per game norm and was named to three all-tournament teams: NCAA regional, Southern Conference and University of Kentucky. A Virginia sportswriter described him as "good enough to be cocky and cruddy enough to be good."

As a senior, he was a third team All-America honoree by Helms Foundation. He ended his career with 1,028 points — then seventh best in WVU history.

After graduation, he taught and coached five seasons at Wintersville High School where his first 1969 team went 14-4 and 1972 team was 16-4. After retiring, he relocated to his current home in Florida.

Bob Hummel (Athlete - 1960s)

Bob Hummel (Moundsville High School, Class of 1966). This 6 ft. 3 guard was a scoring machine for Moundsville High School before taking his vast hoop talents to West Virginia University.

Hummel finished his stellar four-year prep career with 1,941 points, good for a 22.6 per game average. That average still ranks sixth among Class AAA players in the state.

His senior year was one for the record books at the Marshall County school. He poured in 897 points in 25 games for a 35.9 average, which is tied for the highest average in Class AAA archives.

Moreover, his scoring antics translated into team success as Moundsville finished as state runnerup in Class AAA, the school's first state final since 1920. Hummel torched Richmond for 45 markers in the state semifinal game. He established the Moundsville single-game scoring mark with 53 points in a win against Follansbee. Hummel was chosen as the West Virginia "Player of the Year" by the Morgantown Touchdown Club while also being named captain of the Class AAA all-state team, all-OVAC and Scholastic Coach All-American. He also was a top-notch baseball player for Moundsville, earning second-team all-state honors as a pitcher.

Following his glorious stay at Moundsville, Hummel joined the WVU hoop squad and he wasted no time in making his presence felt. Hummel led the WVU freshman team in scoring with a 24.2 average, including a 45-point outburst against Maryland and 41 against Duquesne. In those days, freshmen were ineligible by NCAA rules from playing on the varsity level.

He went on to average 12.9, 15.5 and 14.0 points a game the following three seasons, all of which he served the Mountaineers as a starter. Hummel was the team's captain in senior season.

Hummel totaled 1,137 points in his WVU career, placing him seventh in school annals at the time his career ended in 1970. He was an adept free throw shooter, hitting at an 80.7 clip for his career. Hummel — who had 14 games of 20 or more points — was selected to the 1966-75 all-time WVU hoop team.

Harry Wilson (Athlete - 1960s)

Harry Wilson (Steubenville High School, Class of 1963). This former Big Red star ranks with the elite running backs in OVAC history.

His gridiron career at Steubenville was nothing short of spectacular. His ability to carry the football took him to a starring role at the University of Nebraska and a short stint with the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles.

The 5 ft. 11, 190-pounder was also a safety and kick returner for Big Red, but rushing the football is what Wilson did best.

He carried the Big Red to a 9-1 mark his senior season, a campaign in which the Jefferson County charges pocketed a prized 14-8 win over heralded Massillon. Wilson paced the Ohio Valley in both rushing yards and scoring with 1,756 infantry stripes and 23 touchdowns. The former standard is a modern day school record for a 10-game campaign.

His achievements garnered him Ohio "Back of the Year" designation by both the AP and UPI in Class AA, which was the largest class back then. He was named first team all-Ohio and a Scholastic Coach All-American. Wilson was almost as dominating his junior year. The "Steubenville Stomper" rushed for 1,586 yards and scored 28 touchdowns and 168 points in 10 games. He was selected first team all-Ohio by AP as a safety while also earning all-OVAC and all-Valley laurels.

Wilson — who was also nicknamed "Lighthorse" — enjoyed a sparkling career at Nebraska. He led the Cornhuskers in rushing his junior and senior seasons, finishing his career with 1,702 yards and a stellar 5.0 per carry average.

He was named unanimous All-Big Eight as a senior and honorable mention All-America by UPI. He has the distinction of playing in three major bowl games — Cotton, Orange and Sugar.

After his playing days in Lincoln, Wilson was selected in the third round of the 1967 NFL draft by the Eagles. He spent three years with the team as a backup running back and kick returner.

Ed Burgy (Athlete - 1970s)

Ed Burgy (Bellaire High School, Class of 1971). This former Big Reds' star remains the measuring for prep baseball greatness in the Ohio Valley.

While also starting in football and basketball at the Giermeyer Street school, Burgy distinguished himself as arguably the premier prep baseball player in OVAC annals. While his baseball statistics are staggering, he accomplished feats in just three seasons as Bellaire High did not start a baseball program until Burgy's sophomore season. Known for his overpowering pitching prowess, Burgy was also a tremendous shortstop and powerful hitter. Burgy etched his name in Bellaire High, Ohio Valley and OHSAA record books. The three-year All-Valley first-team honoree completed his prep career with a 20-5 record, still the most wins ever by a Big Red's pitcher. He owns the career strikeout mark with 326 (in just 175 innings) and the single-season strikeout standard of 128. While possessing nearly-unhittable heat, he also owned great control. The talented right-hander walked just 31 batters in his career and went eight straight games without issuing a base on balls. He carved out state records with a minuscule 0.13 ERA for a season and an 0.63 ERA for a career. His third OHSAA record was for hurling 16 shutouts. Burgy also set an Ohio Valley mark with 23 strikeouts in a 10-inning no-hitter versus River. He was also a deadly hitter. Burgy owns Bellaire High records for hits in a game (6), triples in a season (8) and career triples (12).

Burgy also was a stellar, four-year football performer for coaches Rudy Sharkey and Jake Olsavsky. He was a slashing running back until his senior season. Olsavsky opted to switch Burgy to quarterback, a move that paid big dividends. Burgy helped guide the Reds (to an 8-1) season, losing only to Marietta (12-0) while tying Wintersville (0-0). He was joined in the backfield by Ron Lee, who went on to fame with WVU and the Baltimore Colts. Burgy was a multi-talented hooper. Starting for three seasons, he poured in 1,197 points, a total that still ranks seventh on the all-time school scoring card. It was second only to legendary Lee Patrone when Burgy hung in the Big Red sneakers. He was a first-team All-Valley Big School honoree his sophomore and junior seasons. He exploded in his senior campaign for a 21.2 per game average.

Burgy was a sixth-round draft choice of the New York Mets and spent three years in the Mets' farm system, first in Virginia followed by a stop in Pompano (Fla.) and Memphis. He had 13 wins in one season and fanned 20 in one game.

Bruce Smith (Athlete - 1970s)

Bruce Smith (Martins Ferry High School, Class of 1976). He is at the top of the list when it comes to distance running as a four-time Ohio state champion who set countless meet, valley and school records along the way.

In cross country, Smith was a three-time All-Ohioan (1973, '74 and '75), capturing first place at the state meet in both his junior (9-43.0) and senior (9-33.4) seasons after placing seventh (10:05.0) as a sophomore. His time in 1975 was the state record at the time.

As both a junior and senior, he also finished first in the sectional, district, OVAC and Belmont County meets and finished undefeated both years. As a sophomore, he was second in the sectional, district and county meet and third in the OVAC.

He was a three-time All-Eastern District and All-Valley honoree in cross country as well.

In track, Smith earned All-Ohio status two times (1975, '76), winning the state championship in the two-mile run both years. He posted a time of 9:11.1 as a senior after winning in 9:31.1 as a junior. He also placed seventh at the state event as a sophomore (9:39.9).

He finished first in the sectional and district meets all three years, winning the county event twice and finishing as runner-up once. In OVAC meets, he won the OVAC one-mile run and finished third in the 880-yard run as a senior; and captured the two-mile run as both a sophomore and junior.

Smith garnered All-Eastern District and All-Valley laurels three times in track. In the two sports at Martins Ferry, Smith was part of four undefeated teams, three sectional and district championship teams, one OVAC championship team and three OVAC runner-up teams.

Smith was also a long-time competitor in most area road races, including several years as the top local runner in the Elby's Distance Race (now the Ogden 20K Classic).

PREVIOUS OVAC HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

John Leon (Athlete - 1970s)

John Leon (Brooke High School, Class of 1976). This Bruin starred in three sports, etching his name into the OVAC annals as one of the premier football linemen and track weightmen ever to compete in the conference.

Leon — who was also a standout grappler at Brooke — was a two-way line star for the powerful Bruins, earning a myriad of all-star accolades, including the 1975 Ken Hunt Award, going to the Lineman of the Year in West Virginia, making Leon the first OVAC winner of the prestigious honor.

Leon led Brooke to a 9-1 season en route to the OVAC championship in his junior campaign before earning all-conference and all-state laurels as a senior. The powerful Leon played in the 1976 OVAC All-Star game, captaining the Mountaineers to victory.

He was just as impressive in track circles, rewriting the OVAC record books in the shot put and discus. In the 1976 state meet, Leon launched the iron ball 59-1, breaking the W. Va. standard by some two feet. The record lasted two years before being eclipsed by future Olympian Randy Barnes. Leon won three state throwing titles, two in the shotput and one in the discus.

Leon was also a force on the mats, compiling a 48-6 mark as a junior and senior heavyweight.

Upon graduation from Brooke, Leon accepted a football scholarship to Notre Dame. He was a three-year letterman for the Fighting Irish as a guard. The Irish won two Cotton Bowls and one Gator Bowl during his career at South Bend. After graduating from Notre Dame, he received his MD degree from West Virginia University in 1984.

He has been a radiologist for 20 years. He is the current president of Radiological Physicians Associates. He is past president of the West Virginia Radiological Society, past president of the Marion County Medical Society as well as past president of the Fairmont Field Club.

Leon and his wife Marcy have been married for 22 years. They have four children: Johnny, Camille, Isabella and Joseph.

Jennifer Hyland Brown (Athlete - 1980s)

Jennifer Hyland Brown (River High School, Class of 1986). She ranks among the all-time greats in girls' track, having excelled at the conference, league and state levels of competition as a sprinter.

In four years at OVAC Championship meets, Hyland scored a whopping 126 points as River won two Class 2-A team titles (1983 and '86) and finished as runner-up twice (1984 and '85). During her freshman, sophomore and junior years, she won the 100, 200 and 400-meters and was on the winning 1600-meter relay team. While as a senior, she won the 400 and 1600-meter relay and was second in the 100 and 200.

In state meet competition, Hyland was the 400-meter runner-up as a freshman in 1983; first in the 400, second in the 100 and third in the 200 as a sophomore in 1984 (her 24 points single-handedly gave River a third place finish in the state); first in the 400 as a junior in 1985; and first in the 400 with a state-record time of 55.65, and on the sixth place 1600-meter relay team as a senior in 1986.

Hyland also sparked in the Ohio Valley Track League (OVTL) Championship meets for the Lady Pilots, winning the 200 and 400 all four years while taking the 100 the last three.

She also enjoyed tremendous success in the Belmont County Relays, finishing as the top scorer as a sophomore after winning the 100, 200 and 400; duplicating the top scorer feat as a junior by winning the same three events (including a meet record in the 200); and scoring the same "triple" as a senior (bettering her mark in the 200).

She was selected All-Ohio in the 400-meters all four years by the Ohio Association of Track and Cross Country Coaches. She was also an All-District and All-Valley honoree in multiple events. In 1984, Hyland was named honorable mention High School All-America and in 1986, she was invited to participate in the Midwest Meet of Champions in Indiana, an event showcasing the best senior athletes from Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

A member of the River High School Wall of Fame, she received a scholarship to run track at West Virginia University where she competed for one season.

Anthony Reed (Athlete - 1980s)

Anthony Reed (Wheeling Park High School, Class of 1989). Reed left a lasting mark on the athletic scene both for the Patriots and the OVAC, evident when he became the first person inducted into the Wheeling Park Sports Hall of Fame in 1997 for his exploits in basketball and track.

On the basketball court, Reed was a two-time first team All-W.Va. Class AAA selection, serving as captain as a junior. He was a two-time USA Today W.Va. Player of the Year and the Gatorade State Player of the Year as a senior. He also gained first team All-OVAC and All-Valley accolades twice and was a tri-captain on The Intelligencer's all-decade team of the 1980s.

The 6-4 wing scored 1,290 points in two seasons, including what still stands as a school-record 663 points (a 28.9 per-game average) as a senior. He averaged 11.5 rebounds per game that year and also set what was then an OVAC-record 88 three-point goals as a senior. As a junior, Reed was selected to the West Virginia Class AAA All-Tournament team.

In track, the talented Reed was a stellar performer in the high jump, hurdles and relays.

A two-time West Virginia Class AAA state champion in the high jump (including a meet-record 6 ft. 9 in. effort), he also set what was then a valley-record with a 6 ft. 11 in. leap. Reed placed second in the 110-meter high hurdles at the state meet (14.65 seconds) and was on state championship relay teams to help Park finish a close second in the Class AAA state meet in 1989.

The Park product also made his presence felt at the collegiate level, starting and lettering for three years at Cleveland State University. He scored 1,090 points (ranking him 10th on the all-time CSU scoring list at the time), averaging 15.6 points per game as a senior to earn second team All-Mid-Continent Conference accolades. As a junior, he averaged 13.2 points per game and received the Paul Stewart Award presented to the player whose unsung contributions did the most to further the success of the team. Reed also won the Mid-Continent Conference high jump championship as a junior.

Jose Davis (Athlete - 1990s)

Jose Davis (Bellare High School, Class of 1996). Davis put together some eye-popping numbers in both football and basketball, earning him All-Ohio recognition in both sports during his stellar career.

On the gridiron, Davis was a three-year starter at quarterback, leading his team to a record of 30-5. As a senior, he led the Big Reds to a third straight OVAC Class 3-A championship, first undefeated regular season and first-ever OHSAA playoff appearance (Bellare advanced to the Division IV state championship game, losing a 50-44 double-OT thriller to Versailles). He finished the season 253-of-406 passing for 3,551 yards and 32 TDs while adding another 10 scores rushing. Davis earned All-Ohio Division IV Offensive Player of the Year honors and was runner-up for the prestigious Mr. Football award as a senior. He also received first team All-Eastern District, All-OVAC Class 3-A and All-Valley high school accolades on multiple occasions. The talented signal-caller set BHS career records for most yards gained (7,306), pass attempts (730), pass completions (455), highest completion percentage (55.7), passing yards (6,769) and TD passes (60).

On the hardwood, Davis started and lettered four years, racking up 1,457 points, 479 rebounds, 167 assists and 151 steals (all ranking in the top five on the BHS career list). His all-star accolades in basketball included first team All-Ohio Division III, All-Eastern District, All-OVAC Class 3-A and All-Valley big school. He was also named third team All-American as a senior.

Also a three-year letterman in baseball at Bellare, Davis continued his career at Kent State University. A three-year starter and letterman for the Golden Flashes in football, he put up equally impressive numbers including single-game record for most pass attempts (59), completions (34) and TD passes (7); single-season marks for offensive yards (2,883), pass attempts (365), pass completions (194), passing yards (2,707) and TD passes (32); and career records for offensive yards (7,731), passing yards (6,722) and TD passes (52). He had a Mid-American Conference record 551 yards passing in 1997 against Central Florida and when he left KSU, he ranked 10th in MAC history in passing yards and was third in TD passes.

Davis also doubled as point guard on the Kent State basketball team in 1997-98.

Professionally, Davis played for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League in 2000 and 2001; for the Ohio Valley Greyhounds of the National Indoor Football League in 2002, leading the team to the league title by passing for 1,668 yards and 37 TDs and earning championship game MVP honors; for the Indiana Firebirds of the Arena Football League in 2003, the Colorado Crush in 2004 and 2005; and the Grand Rapids Rampage in 2006.

Chris Enochs (Athlete - 1990s)

Chris Enochs (Oak Glen High School, Class of 1994). Enochs excelled in three sports for the Golden Bears, but it was baseball where he would make his biggest impact.

Enochs' senior season diamond exploits earned him first team all-West Virginia Class AA accolades and he was named the "Player of the Year" by both Gatorade and USA Today and was selected as the runner-up for that honor by the W. Va. Sportswriters Association.

Also a first team all-OVAC Class 3-A first teamer and "Player of the Year" and an all-Valley first teamer and "big school" captain, Enochs led the valley with 11 home runs and 42 RBI while batting .442. His pitching totals included a 6-4 record and a 1.22 E.R.A. with 106 strikeouts and 26 walks in 63 innings. He pitched a perfect game for Oak Glen against Toronto.

On the basketball court, Enochs was first team all-OVAC and all-Valley and was an honorable mention all-West Virginia Class AA choice. He averaged 19.2 points and 13.2 rebounds per game as a senior and finished his career with 1,047 points.

On the football field, Enochs earned first team all-West Virginia Class AA as a quarterback after leading Oak Glen to its first-ever WVSSAC playoff appearance. Also a first team all-OVAC Class 3-A and all-Valley pick, he led the valley with 1,729 passing yards.

Drafted by the Cleveland Indians in 1994, Enochs opted for a scholarship to West Virginia University where he became the Big East "Pitcher of the Year", first team All-East Region and was a second team All-American pick by Baseball America, The Sporting News and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers. Named the team's co-MVP, he was 12-4 on the mound with a 3.03 E.R.A. and 10 complete games, including a no-hitter against Villanova. As a junior he was named the Big East Tournament's MVP and Outstanding Pitcher. Enochs had 21 wins, including 14 complete games, in his three-year Mountaineer career.

Following his junior year, he became the highest drafted player in OVAC history, selected No. 11 in the first round by the Oakland Athletics in 1997. The 6-3, 225-pound right-hander with a 93-mile per hour fastball played nine seasons in the minor leagues, the first seven in the Oakland organization and then one year each for Houston and Pittsburgh. He pitched in 250 games with a 4.5-5.2 record and a 4.91 E.R.A., posting 661 strikeouts while walking 380. He was a member of the Class AAA Pacific Coast League champion Sacramento Rivercats and played for the Puerto Rican Winter League champion Ponce Leones.

Enochs also played for Team USA, winning a silver medal at the 2001 World Cup in Taiwan.

OVAC Museum Seeks Memorabilia

The Ohio Valley Athletic Conference, the nation's largest high school conference with 46 member schools, has established an OVAC Museum to display memorabilia from its member schools — past and present — and is currently seeking additional display items. Each school will have a display case for its trophies, photographs and other items to showcase its athletic history. For more information, call the OVAC office at 740-671-3269.

Be sure to check out the display cases in the outer concourse.

Bob Hedmond (OVAC 'Family')

Robert L. "Bob" Hedmond (Follansbee High School, Class of 1948). During his high school days, Hedmond was a varsity letterman in football, track, baseball and basketball. He won the half-mile title and played in the 1948 OVAC Charity All-Star Football Game in which he sustained torn knee cartilage.

After spending 21 months in the military, Hedmond enrolled at Shepherd College where he played fullback and defensive end before graduating in 1954.

In coaching, Hedmond met with success at every stop. He was especially adept at starting neophyte programs or rebuilding teams that needed a spark. He coached football, track and/or wrestling at several schools, including Oxon Hill (Md.), East Liverpool, Brooke and Steubenville. Hedmond started the program at Oxon Hill and took his team from an 0-5-4 record the first year to a 5-3-1. He became the first head football coach at the consolidated Brooke High School in 1969 and led the Bruins to an OVAC championship. Hedmond took over at Steubenville in 1981 and directed the Jefferson County squad for two years. His teams compiled an 18-4 record and qualified for Big Red's first two post-season berths since Ohio adopted a playoff system in the 1970s. While at East Liverpool, Hedmond lettered 18 sophomores as the Poters turned in a 3-7 record. The following season, they rebounded to finish at 7-3. Overall, his record as a head football coach was 44-22-5. During his time as track coach with the Poters, his teams went through four straight seasons without losing a dual meet.

Successful as he was with a coaching whistle around his neck, Hedmond was even more effective as an administrator. Within the OVAC, he served as a class representative, was a long-time member of the OVAC Foundation Executive Board and, for several years, he directed giant OVAC Wrestling Tournament. Hedmond served as Athletic Director at Steubenville High School and later was the Building and Grounds Superintendent with Steubenville City Schools. Among his numerous honors were the Carl Hamill Memorial Award, presented by the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Club; OVAC Mr. Mat Award; Ohio Eastern District Coach of the Year; Eastern District Athletic Director of the Year and an Outstanding Achievement Award from Dapper Dan. Before his passing, Hedmond was inducted into the Ohio Athletic Administrators Hall of Fame.

PREVIOUS OVAC HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

James 'Jimmy' Stewart (Media)

James C. "Jimmy" Stewart (Triadelphia High School, Class of 1918). Stewart devoted nearly a half-century to the newspaper profession, serving with great distinction.

He began his career associated with the Wheeling News and The Register, which then were separate newspapers. Stewart was sports editor of the now-defunct Wheeling Telegraph from 1921 through 1929 and later became the sports editor of the News-Register. He eventually concluded his long career as the associate sports editor of the N-R where he worked alongside fellow Hall of Famer Bill Van Horne.

In the early years of the OVAC, the conference perhaps had no greater friend than "Jimmy" Stewart, this according to Van Horne himself. Beginning in 1943, Stewart kept the weekly standings on football and basketball until his retirement on December 31, 1968. Stewart also painstakingly kept record books that proved invaluable to anyone interested in Ohio Valley sports lore. He also was recognized as a walking encyclopedia on local athletics. His head was a storehouse of sports information. What wasn't committed to his memory could be found in his pocket-sized record books and envelopes which filled his desk and filing cabinet.

Beginning in the early 1920s, Stewart's "Lookin' Em Over" column was one of the most widely-read throughout the area. In later years, he penned a golf column, "The 19th Hole," which appeared in the newspaper every Sunday from the spring months into the fall. He also initiated a popular Monday column on area collegiate sports which he titled, "With the Colleges."

He was also involved with the scheduling of basketball games worked by members of the Ohio Valley Board of Approved Basketball Officials. His love of sandlot baseball was well known, as he almost meticulously covered happenings in the old Intelligencer and United Mine Workers baseball leagues.

A quiet man who never cast himself in the limelight during his career, Stewart was honored with a special award at the time of his retirement from an appreciative Ohio Valley Athletic Conference. He also received an award of appreciation from the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Club.

John Craig (Coaches)

John Craig (Follansbee High School, Class of 1967). Craig enjoyed an illustrious 26-year career as a head wrestling coach, including two seasons at Hillsboro (Ohio) High School, 18 years at Steubenville Big Red and five years at Indian Creek High School in Winterville.

While at Big Red, his teams earned six overall championships in the OVAC Wrestling Tournament. Steubenville also captured seven divisional titles and finished in the top three a total of 13 times at the conference championship event. Thirty-one of his Big Red matmen earned individual conference titles. He had 87 qualifiers for the Ohio state meet, five of whom earned individual championships, and 23 who were state place-winners. His team finished in the top five at the Ohio state tournament four times, including a runner-up finish in 1988.

Craig's 1989 squad finished the regular season ranked No. 1 in The Associated Press Division II wrestling poll and placed third at the state tournament. His overall dual meet record was 201-74-3 and he coached his teams to 42 tournament championships, including nine district titles. Four times, his teams turned in undefeated dual meet records. Several of his former wrestlers went on to compete in college at schools such as Ohio State, Purdue, Army, Navy and West Liberty. One of his protégés won a Big 10 championship and others were place-winners in the NCAA Division I, II, III and NAIA national tournaments.

Craig was named OVAC Wrestling Coach of the Year on five occasions and was presented the prestigious "Mr. Mat Award" in 2002. He is a member of the Ohio Wrestling Coaches and the West Liberty State College Athletic Hall of Fame. In 1989, he was selected as the East-Southeast Wrestling Coach of the Year and the Ohio Division II Coach of the Year. For 21 years, Craig served as a wrestling official on the youth, junior high, high school, college and open levels. As a principal at Indian Creek, he was one of the founders of the Buckeye 8 Athletic League.

As an athlete, Craig wrestled at Follansbee High School and was a three-year letterman at West Liberty where he earned WVAC championships three times and twice was the MVP in the conference tournament. In 1972, Craig was the runner-up in the NAIA national meet, where he earned All-American honors.

Robert 'Bob' Kettlewell (Coaches)

Robert S. "Bob" Kettlewell (Linsly Military Institute, Class of 1947). During his 20 years as the head coach at Winterville High School (1956-75), Kettlewell's teams posted a 143-40-10 record, the third-best winning percentage in Ohio Valley history for coaches with 100 or more wins. His teams earned nine league championships (four in the Big Eight and five OVAC titles). Winterville won its first OVAC crown under Kettlewell in 1956, got its second in 1966 and then captured three in a row from 1970 through 1972, which equaled a record held previously by Bellaire and Martins Ferry.

Kettlewell had three undefeated teams at Winterville — 1957, 1967 and 1972 — and seven clubs that sustained just one loss. From 1966 through '73, the Warriors lost only 11 games. Under Kettlewell's direction, Winterville scored in a record 140 straight games, ending with a scoreless tie against Bellaire in a contest that saw the Gold Warriors denied what would have been a game-winning and streak-continuing touchdown because of a penalty.

Among the stars coached by this highly-regarded mentor was Donnie Young, the Ohio Valley career rushing record holder. Among the other numerous college athletic football standouts tutored by Kettlewell were Ohio State captain Alan Jack who played on an undefeated Rose Bowl team with the Buckeyes, and Roger Alford, the first black to sign at West Virginia University.

Kettlewell also was a standout athlete while playing at Linsly Military Institute. He lettered in four sports and played football at West Virginia University, where he also lettered.

Indian Creek High School's (formerly Winterville High) football facility was renamed "Bob Kettlewell Memorial Stadium" in his honor. In 1990, Bob was the fourth Ohio Valley coach inducted into the Ohio Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame. He joined the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Hall of Fame in 1987.

William 'Bill' Thomas (Officials)

William D. "Bill" Thomas (Bellaire High School, Class of 1952). During a 48-year career as a track official, Thomas served as the meet referee for nearly every major championship in the Ohio Valley. The list includes the Martins Ferry and Shadyside Relays, the St. Clairsville, Barnesville and Wheeling Park Invitationals; Cal Giffin Track Classic; various OVAC championship meets; West Virginia Regionals and the Ohio High School Athletic Association Eastern Sectional and District meets.

He was a meet official for 10 OVAC schools, including Bellaire, Barnesville, Cambridge, John Marshall, Martins Ferry, Shadyside, Skyview, St. Clairsville, Wheeling Park and Union Local and Thomas also worked as a meet official at the Mansfield Relays (15 years); Bellaire Relays (48 years); Ohio regional championships (10 years) and the Ohio high school state meets for boys and girls (15 years). Thomas also served as meet director as numerous Buckeye State district and regional events, along with the OVAC Track Championships.

He received the OVAC Cal Giffin Award for service to track and field in 1983; was honorary referee at the Bellaire Relays in 1996 and was honored again during the 50-year celebration of the famed Bellaire meet in 2004. The former Bellaire High athletic great is a member of the school's Wall of Fame.

Thomas attend Mississippi State on a football scholarship and also lettered there in track his freshman year. After two years with the Bulldogs, he entered the Army and served overseas before coming home and playing on the 1956 National Service football championship team, coached by Don Coryell, who later coached the San Diego Chargers. Thomas finished his college career at West Liberty State College where he lettered in football and baseball. He also had a long and successful career in coaching. He spent five years as an assistant in football and basketball at Bellaire High. After that tenure, he went to St. Clairsville as head baseball coach and an assistant in football and basketball. Bill later spent five years as head football coach at Barnesville before becoming athletic director at Bellaire in 1973. He served as head coach at Union Local from 1978 until 1981 when he returned to Bellaire as a teacher until retiring in 1989.

Tom Keane (Athlete - 1940s)

Tom Keane (Linsly Military Institute, Class of 1944). The Bellaire native was a multi-sport standout for the Cadets and earned All-OVAC basketball and football on the first selections in 1943-44. He also was an All-City basketball selection. As a senior on a 7-4 record Cadet football team, the two-way back and punter returned a pass interception 106 yards to score in an 18-6 win over Warwood.

He enrolled at Ohio State where he lettered as a freshman before serving 20 months in the U.S. Navy.

Upon discharge, he enrolled at West Virginia University and lettered in 1946 and 1947, becoming a rare letterman at both OSU and WVU.

Keane was a third round pick and 18th overall National Football League Draft selection by the Los Angeles Rams in 1948. He played eight NFL seasons, and 87 games, as a defensive back-offensive end including the first four with the Rams. In 1952, he played with the Dallas Texans before two years with the Baltimore Colts and ended his career in 1955 with the Chicago Cardinals. He was a two-time All-Pro and played in the 1953 Pro Bowl, ranked second in the NFL in pass interceptions twice, and played in three NFL championship games including the 1951 Rams' title team. From 1948-52, both Keane brothers competed in the NFL.

He was a long-time assistant coach in the NFL, including Chicago Cardinals (from 1957-59, Pittsburgh 1965 and was an original member of the Miami Dolphins' staff in 1966 where he remained through 1985 as defensive backs and special teams coach. In 1962, he became the first head coach of the Wheeling Ironmen and served until joining the Steelers' staff. The Ironmen went 9-4 in 1962 before winning the United Football League title with a 12-1 record in 1963. In 1964, the Ironmen were 7-7.

Keane died at age 74 in 2001.

Nick Mumley (Athlete - 1950s)

Nick Mumley (Wheeling High School, Class of 1955). One of the most honored three-sport athletes in the long history of Wheeling High, he starred in football, basketball and track, earning three varsity letters in each.

He was first team All-State in football as a two-way end and he also received All-OVAC and All-City accolades.

In basketball, he was first team all-class All-West Virginia as a senior and was a two-time All-OVAC and All-City first team selection. He scored 15.8 points per game as a junior and 24.3 per outing as a senior.

As a Wildcat center in 1955, the 6-foot-6 center was the anchor of the final team coached by OVAC Legends' honoree Everett Brinkman which won its first 18 games before bowing in the regular season finale at Bellaire. The OVAC title-winning team won the sectional and regional titles before bowing in the first round of the state tournament to Mullens to finish with a 22-2 record.

He also scored 30 points in a record-setting 146-110 victory over Weir High at Madison Gymnasium, a game which set Ohio Valley and West Virginia marks for combined points in a game (256).

In track, he won two state one-class shot put titles with marks of 51-3 3/2 in 1955 and 52-2 3/4 in 1954 and two OVAC shot put crowns, including a conference-record toss of 53-5 1/2.

He earned a football scholarship to Purdue University, where he lettered three years as a regular two-way end.

He was the 51st overall NFL draft pick in 1959 by the Philadelphia Eagles, but opted to play in the new American Football League where he competed three seasons from 1960-62 with the New York Titans, a forerunner of the Jets, as a defensive end-offensive tackle. He played in a total of 42 AFL games.

Tom Yakubowski (Athlete - 1950s)

Tom Yakubowski (Adena High School, Class of 1958). A three-sport standout for the Golden Wave who starred in the first year the school joined the conference, which expanded to three classes in 1957-58.

At Adena, he was a three-sport team captain in football, basketball and baseball and earned 10 letters — four in baseball and three each in basketball and football.

The 1957 Adena football team went 6-2-2 and won the OVAC Class A crown. He was a fullback-linebacker-quarterback in football and an All-OVAC, All-Valley Small School and All-East Ohio Athletic League selection. He was the MVP of the 1958 Ohio-W.Va. All-Star game won by Ohio, 25-0. He scored 13 points and starred as fullback-linebacker.

In basketball, he was a two-time All-East Ohio Athletic League honoree and averaged in double figures for three seasons, including 11.3 points per game as a sophomore; 17.5 points as a junior and 19.2 points as a senior.

In baseball, the pitcher-infielder was an All-Ohio selection as a senior and he also pitched in the East-West All-Star game in Columbus. He led the Golden Wave to a 12-1 record, losing in the regional finals to Northwestern High and future Major League pitcher Dean Chance. He tossed two one-hitters in a three-day span and had 32 2/3 consecutive scoreless innings in tournament play, which ranks second in the Ohio High School record book.

He earned a football scholarship to Purdue University, where he lettered as a sophomore and senior fullback-linebacker while suffering a series of knee injuries. He was second on the team in rushing (310 yards) as a sophomore. He also played baseball one season at Purdue.

Yakubowski competed in the 1962 Blue-Gray All-Star Football Game and tried out as a free agent with the Buffalo Bills.

Bill Kennedy (Athlete - 1960s)

Bill Kennedy (Warwood High School, Class of 1967). Basketball and Bill Kennedy are synonymous. Some four-plus decades since starring at old Warwood High School, basketball still is a major part of his life.

Kennedy enjoyed a stellar prep career with the Vikings. The dazzling 6 ft. 2 guard led Warwood to state Class AA basketball tournament appearances in both the 1966 and '67 campaigns. He capped his prep hoop career by sparking the Vikings to the school's only state basketball crown. That team finished with a stellar 24-2 mark, including closing the season on a 15-game victory run. Warwood captured its first OVAC hoop title in 21 years, with Kennedy providing much of the firepower with his 26.7 points per game average.

The explosive backcourt slandy garnered first-team All-West Virginia, All-OVAC, and All-City plaudits. Just a season prior, Kennedy led the Vikings to a 22-4 mark and the state semifinals before being eliminated by Mullens. He was a first-team All-OVAC honoree that year and was named an all-state tournament selection, an honor he duplicated as a senior. Kennedy finished his illustrious Vikings' basketball career with more than 1,200 points. He was also an accomplished high jumper, as reflected in his third-place finish in the state Class AA meet as a senior.

His basketball achievements earned him a spot with the West Liberty State College basketball team. He wasted no time in making his mark for the Hilltoppers, leading the team in scoring in both his freshman and sophomore seasons with 509 and 445 points, respectively. Kennedy earned all-WVAC and all-tournament plaudits as a freshman.

His two years of impressive play with WLSC provided a springboard to a transfer to Arizona State University for the 1971 and '72 seasons. Kennedy proved he was no small-school wonder as he led the Sun Devils in scoring both seasons, averaging 14.8 and 14.6 points per game, respectively. His two-year point total of 765 is the ninth best for Sun Devil in a two-year career. All told, he scored 1,719 on the collegiate level.

His play at Arizona State caught the eyes of professional scouts. He was drafted by Memphis of the ABA, but opted for a career as a basketball official. Kennedy, who still resides in the Phoenix area, continues to be a Pac-10 college basketball official.

PREVIOUS OVAC HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

Jim Hanna (Athlete - 1950s)

Jim Hanna (Weir High School, Class of 1950). A three-sport all-star who led the Red Riders to two state one-class championships as a senior, he is one of the most decorated athletes in school history. A varsity football starter as a freshman, he continued to excel under Hall of Fame coach Carl Hamill, who labeled Hanna and Daugherty as "two of the finest all-around athletes" he coached in his legendary career.

In 1949, Hanna starred on the 11-0 record Weir football team which won the first W.Va. largest Class A playoff title with a 27-13 victory over Milton. The two-way end/punter/placekicker landed nine touchdown passes and scored 83 points as a senior when he was runner-up for the West Virginia Player of the Year Heisman Award (now the Kennedy Award) and was selected first team All-OVAC, All-Valley and All-State. He also played in two all-star games: West Virginia vs. Ohio and the West Virginia North-South game.

In basketball, he was second team All-W.Va. and All-OVAC.

In baseball, he pitched and batted Weir to the one-class West Virginia championship. In the 5-3 finals' win over East Bank, he struck out 10 in a six-bit effort and batted in four runs with two singles.

He accepted a football scholarship from legendary Kentucky coach Paul (Bear) Bryant and started at end on a freshman squad quarterbacked by Babe Parilli. He left school to play minor league baseball for several seasons before returning to Weirton, where he has been a long-time local American Legion, high school and summer baseball coach and scout.

Bill Jobko (Athlete - 1950s)

Bill Jobko (Bridgeport High School, Class of 1953). A three-year, three-sport Bulldog athlete in football, basketball and baseball, he earned All-OVAC and All-Valley football honors as a senior lineman.

Recruited by Ohio State University, he became a two-way offensive guard and linebacker who played on the Buckeye national title teams of 1954 and 1957 when the Buckeyes won two Rose Bowls. He was team MVP in 1957. He is the only player in Big 10 Conference history to never play in a losing Big 10 regular season game. He recorded a safety for the College All-Stars in a 35-19 victory over the NFL champion Detroit Lions, one of only eight times the collegians defeated the NFL champions in the annual classic.

He was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams and played for the NFL team from 1958-62 before performing for the Minnesota Vikings from 1963-65. Jobko capped his pro playing career as a team defensive captain of the original Atlanta Falcons in 1966. From 1967-89, he worked for the Falcons in various roles - assistant coach, scout and Director of Pro Player Personnel. He closed his NFL career as chief college scout of the Phoenix Cardinals from 1989-94.

Bridgeport High School honored Jobko by naming the street entrance to Perkins Field as "Bill Jobko Way" and then on Aug. 21, 2008, dedicated its home complex as "Bill Jobko Football Stadium."

Tim Anderson (Athlete - 1960s)

Tim Anderson (Follansbee High School, Class of 1967). Anderson's football career was a well-traveled one, as well as a quite successful one. He first realized grid greatness in Follansbee, a prep career so good that it landed him a scholarship at one of the premier football colleges in the nation - The Ohio State University.

Just like for the Blue Wave back on the banks of the Ohio River, Anderson starred for the Buckeyes, so much so that he was a first-round pick of the San Francisco 49ers. His NFL, days, however, got off to a delayed start due to contract difficulties. In the meantime, Anderson enjoyed an all-league honors stint with the Canadian Football League's Toronto Argonauts.

Anderson was a three-sport standout at Follansbee High. In addition to his many football achievements, the 6 ft., 195-pounder distinguished himself quite nicely in baseball and track.

As a senior, Anderson's Blue Wave went 8-2. Those two blemishes came in the season's first two games, contests in which Anderson did not play due to injury. In just eight games, Anderson rushed for 863 yards and also led the team in tackles. As a result, he was all-OVAC, All-Valley and all-W.Va. Class AAA first-team honors. As junior, he was all-OVAC and All-Valley second team.

He started two years for the Blue Wave baseball squad as an outfielder. He also joined the track team as a senior and was fifth in the state Class AAA shot put.

At Ohio State, Anderson started three years as a defensive back. During that span, the powerful Buckeyes went 27-2 with two Big Ten titles while also being named the consensus national champions in 1968. That team beat the O.J. Simpson-led USC Trojans in the Rose Bowl. As a senior, he was first-team all-Big Ten and was a first team All-American.

His Buckeye standout proved a springboard to being the 23rd pick in the 1971 NFL draft. He owned the distinction of being the highest of the 12 Ohio State gridder chosen in that draft, including Jack Tatum. When unable to agree to terms with the 49ers, he played four seasons in Canada before returning to San Francisco and playing the 1975 campaign for the Niners. The following season, Anderson played for the Buffalo Bills.

Mark Thompson (Athlete - 1960s)

Mark Thompson (Mount Pleasant High School, Class of 1969). Basketball was a way of life in the Thompson family, with Mark being the most productive. His two older brothers - Rich and Jim - started a hoop tradition at Mount Pleasant High in 1960. Every year during that decade witnessed a Thompson in the Mounties' starting lineup, ending with Mark's graduation in 1969. Mark set the family standard, however, for basketball greatness. He wasted no time making his presence felt on the hardwood, finishing as the second-leading scorer for the junior varsity team as a frosh. That jayvee squad went 18-0.

Thompson was nothing short of magical the next three winters, leading the team in scoring and rebounding each campaign. His tremendous play also sparked an eye-popping 92-9 record during that span for the Mounties, which included three successive sectional co-championships, a district final berth and a district semi-final appearance. As a sophomore, the hard-working hooper averaged 17.6 points a game. That figure jumped to 24.8 as a junior and was capped by a 28.1 per game showing as a senior, including a career-best 50 lightings against Smithfield. During that senior year, the Mounties averaged more than 95 points a game, topping the century mark in six of 18 regular season contests.

All told, the 6 ft., 4 Thompson - who was blessed with both inside and outside scoring skills - exited high school with 1,623 points in his portfolio. He netted a host of accolades for his basketball expertise, headed by first team all-Ohio honors as both a junior and senior. He was also an all-Eastern District, all-Eastern Ohio Athletic League and all-OVAC honoree all three years. He was captain of the OVAC team as a senior.

Thompson was no one-sport wonder as he also displayed his athletic prowess on both the gridiron and baseball diamond. He was a two-way starter in football, starting as quarterback and defensive back. The three-year regular was an all-Eastern District, all-OVAC and Eastern Ohio Athletic League selection in his junior and senior seasons. Thompson also picked up three letters in baseball - chalked up two no-hitters and four one-hitters.

Not surprising, Thompson received some 120 Division I college scholarship offers. He cast his lot with basketball at the University of Florida. Thompson was the second-leading scorer on the Gators' freshman team. After redshirting as a sophomore due to an ankle injury, he worked himself into being a part-time starter during his junior and senior seasons and was a co-captain his final campaign with the Gators.

Marty Coyne (Athlete - 1970s)

Marty Coyne (Linsly Military Institute, Class of 1977). Coyne was a three-sport standout for the Cadets, but basketball was definitely the versatile 6 ft., 5 athlete's meal ticket.

Coyne distinguished himself as one of the premier hoopsters in the Ohio Valley during the decade of the '70s. He was a three-year starter in roundball at Linsly, blossoming into a virtual scoring machine his junior and senior campaigns. Coyne netted 599 points in his junior season alone, good for a 27.2 average. He was also a beast on the boards, grabbing 14.2 canyons per outing. He nearly duplicated those numbers in his senior campaign, scoring 598 points for a 27.1 average. The talented post's rebound totals ballooned to 16.5 per game.

Coyne's scoring antics were tops in the Ohio Valley both seasons. His single-game high was 46 against Wheeling Central. The dependable cager scored in double figures in all 47 of his high school starts. Coyne's scoring prowess also translated into team success. The Cadets compiled 54-12 record during his final three campaigns. The Bridgeport native garnered all-City, all-OVAC and all West Virginia honors each for his last two years. He also was co-captain of the all-state team as a senior. He ended his illustrious hardwood career with 1,389 points.

He was also a standout on the gridiron, starting three seasons. The glue-fingered receiver led all Ohio Valley small school pass catchers his senior season while also averaging 37.5 yards per punt. Coyne was also named all-OVAC and all-state first team for his football success as a senior.

Springtime saw Coyne start three seasons on the Linsly diamond, serving as co-captain as a senior.

After graduation from Linsly, Coyne received an appointment to the U.S. Military Academy at West Point (NY). He had the privilege of playing for the now legendary Duke head coach Mike Krzyzewski. Coyne started three seasons, helping the Black Knights of the Hudson to an NIT berth in 1978. He averaged 15.6 points a game as a junior and 16.5 points as a senior. His 1,126 career points ranked 11th on the all-time Army scoring list at the time of his graduation. He also grabbed more than 400 rebounds for the Cadets, where he served as co-captain as a senior. Coyne ascended to the rank of LTC with 11 years active duty.

Mike Dawson (Athlete - 1970s)

Mike Dawson (Magnolia High School, Class of 1978). When you begin to recall the great athletes in Magnolia High annals, Mike Dawson is always near the top of the list. And why not? The rugged 6 ft., 2, 195-pounder earned 12 letters in four sports for the Blue Eagles.

It was football, however, which brought Dawson the most acclaim. Following his senior grid season in 1977, Dawson was selected as the W.Va. All-Class Player of the Year by the Morgantown Touchdown Club while finishing as runnerup for the Kennedy Award. That same season, he was named captain of the all-W.Va. Class AA team as a defensive back after pilfering seven passes. He was also the captain of the all-Valley and all-OVAC teams. Dawson rushed for 833 yards on just 112 carries in nine games as a senior for Coach Dave Cisar. He was named second-team all-state as a quarterback as a junior. For his career, Dawson accounted for more than 3,000 all-purpose yards and totaled 152 points despite missing four games with injuries.

Dawson ultimately selected West Virginia University. As a sophomore, he earned a starting spot as a linebacker, but he injured his knee while blocking a punt against Penn State. Dawson ended as a two-year Mountaineer grid letterman.

The talented Blue Eagle was also dominant in baseball. He was a four-year starter, seeing action at both catcher and shortstop and earning all-West Virginia laurels his junior and senior seasons after helping lead the Eagles to the state tournament two years. He was a two-time all-OVAC and all-Valley honoree, serving as captain of the latter as a senior. Springtime proved quite busy for Dawson. When not playing baseball, he was a valuable contributor to the Blue Eagles' track team. Despite little practice time, he was still able to sparkle in the West Virginia Class A state track meet. As a junior, he was runner-up in both the 100-yard dash and long jump, the latter on the strength of a leap better than 21 feet. He also won the West Virginia AAU 100-yard dash in 1977.

Dawson was also a three-year starter in basketball. Among his many hoop highlights was a 36-point outburst against Wheeling Park.

Charlie Keenan (Athlete - 1980s)

Charlie Keenan (Steenbenville High School, Class of 1985). Be it on the gridiron, wrestling mat or in the classroom, Keenan prided himself on excellence and in all three areas of his life, he was nothing short of sensational.

Keenan was the cornerstone of Big Red's initial state grid playoff championship, captaining the 1984 grid juggernaut. He led the Reno Saccochia-coached gridder to a 13-0 season that fall. He established new school records for tackles and sacks en route to being named the state's Division II Lineman of the Year. The first-team all-star was also accorded honorable mention All-American plaudits. He was named captain of the all-OVAC and all-Eastern District teams and was selected to play in the OVAC and Ohio North South All-Star games.

The relentless lineman was a three-year starter for Steenbenville that went 30-0 in the regular season and 33-2 overall. His great grid play earned him the distinction of being named the co-captain of the 1980s All-Decade Football Team selected by The Intelligencer. His Big Red success proved a springboard to a football scholarship to The Ohio State University where he was a letterman for the Scarle & Gray gridder.

Keenan was just as impressive on the prep mats. He won a pair of OVAC titles, capturing the 175-pound class as a sophomore followed by the 185-pound crown as a junior before grabbing the brass ring as the Ohio state kingpin that winter. Keenan opted to move up to heavyweight as a senior, preparing him for the rigors of an Ohio State gridder. That move to heavyweight set up a match against Barnesville High's mammoth and fellow OSU grid recruit Tim Moxley. The two met in the OVAC finals in 1985, attracting possibly the largest crowd at a wrestling match in Ohio Valley annals, with Moxley pulling out an epic 11-8 triumph. It snapped Keenan's 45-match winning streak. Keenan was awarded the George Kovalick Scholarship that year. He finished his Big Red wrestling career with a sparkling 110-18 record.

Keenan also opted to wrestle at Ohio State, earning two varsity letters in the mat sport.

He was the Steenbenville High valedictorian, compiling a 4.0 GPA. He went on to earn master's and doctorate degrees. After receiving his OSU degree, Keenan returned home and served as a teacher, administrator and coach at his alma mater. He now is a school superintendent in northern Ohio.

Tim Moxley (Athlete - 1980s)

Tim Moxley (Barnesville High School, Class of 1985.) A heavyweight in every sense of the word, Tim Moxley is certainly that. Moxley came up huge in both football and wrestling for the Shamrocks. He enjoyed a star-studded and champion-filled four athletic years at the western Belmont County school.

Moxley garnered all-Ohio honors in football for the Red & Green while also grabbing a pair of state wrestling championships. The 6 ft., 7, 300-pounder parlayed his prep achievements into a football scholarship at The Ohio State University.

Moxley was a three-year starter on the Shamrocks' line. He helped guide the Red & Green to a 17-3 mark over his last two seasons and the OVAC championship in 1983.

He was accorded a bevy of first team all-star honors for his senior season play. They included all-Valley, all-OVAC, all-Eastern District and all-Ohio by The Associated Press. He was a second-team all-Ohio United Press International honoree. As a junior, Moxley was a second-team all-Valley selection.

Moxley carved out an even more glittering prep resume in the mat sport. The powerful heavyweight captured a pair of Ohio state championships, matching the number of OVAC crowns to his credit. As a senior, he led the Shamrock grapplers to the overall OVAC Tournament title while also being accorded the prestigious Bierkorte Award. Moreover, the Moxley-led matmen of Coach Darrell Davis captured the state tournament team title in 1985. His OVAC title matches against Steenbenville's Charlie Keenan - also joining this year's OVAC Hall of Fame induction field - are legendary. Moxley handed Keenan his only two losses in the OVAC event. Moxley was so impressive on the mat that he was selected to the USA's Scholastic All-America Wrestling "Dream Team" for 1984-85. He was third in the OVAC as a sophomore.

At Ohio State, Moxley was all football. He moved into the Buckeyes' starting lineup as a sophomore, after seeing playing time in all 13 games as a red-shirt freshman. He started seven out of the Bucks' final eight games as a sophomore. As a junior, he started all 11 games and continued that strong play as a senior. He played in two bowl games for Ohio State - the 1987 Cotton Bowl and the 1990 Hall of Fame Bowl. Moxley was selected by the Washington Redskins in the ninth round of the 1990 NFL Draft.

PREVIOUS OVAC HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

David Bosley (Athlete - 1990s)

David Bosley (Paden City High School, Class of 1993). Padon City prides itself on quality basketball. To that end, David Bosley is on the short list of great Wildcats.

Bosley was a scoring terror at the tiny Wetzel County School. The scoring also translated into a wealth of Wildcat winning as the Green & White advanced to the West Virginia state tournament in 1991 and 1992. Coach Bob Burton's Cats also grabbed the OVAC crowns in the 1992 and 1993 seasons. All told, Padon City won 81 times and lost just 12 during Bosley's four-year hoop career. While the Wildcats were winning, Bosley was scoring. He finished his prep days with 1,996 points, including a senior campaign in which he netted 29.2 points, 7.8 assists and seven rebounds per start. Those lofty numbers earned him the captaincy of the all-state team. He was also captain of the all-OVAC squad that year and was honored by the Dapper Dons for outstanding achievement. During his sophomore and junior seasons, the 5 ft. 11 backcourt dandy earned all-OVAC and all-state honors as Padon City advanced to the state tournament each winter.

Bosley also made use of his superb athleticism to star on the football field for Mike Flannery. The four-year grid letterman sparked as a quarterback, earning all-OVAC first-team honors as a junior and senior. He completed 113-of-231 passes for 1,271 yards and 11 touchdowns while rushing for 489 yards and seven additional scores as a senior. Bosley was named to the West Virginia Sports Ultimate All-State Football Team. As a junior, he completed 69-of-112 tosses for 995 yards and eight touchdowns. He also rushed for 559 yards and six TDs. Bosley was also a stellar punter, averaging 36.1 yards on 29 punts.

Bosley took his vast basketball skills to the next level, earning a scholarship to LSU in the rugged SEC. He played four years for legendary Dale Brown, who retired after Bosley's senior campaign. In Bosley's final regular season game, he netted the final four points of the game to give Brown his first-ever triumph over Nolan Richardson's Arkansas Razorbacks since they joined the SEC in 1991. Bosley was awarded the LSU's Director Cup for academic excellence and was recognized as an SEC Scholar Athlete.

Otis Winston (Athlete - 1990s)

Otis Winston (Toronto High School, Class of 1992). Winston is synonymous with Ohio Valley high jumping. He still remains the measuring stick for prep jumping greatness.

Winston, however, was more than an accomplished high jumper. He possessed multi-faceted skills both in track as well as basketball.

While becoming the Ohio Valley's first seven-foot leaper, he was equally as dominating on the hardwood, lettering four years for the Red Knights, while garnering first-team all-OVAC honors as a senior.

Winston is still the Red Knights' all-time leading scorer via his 1,453 markers. As a senior, the athletic forward carried his team to an OVAC 3-A crown thanks, in part, to his 31.1 points, 14 rebounds, six steals and six assists per game. He was the model of consistency as reflected in a 20-game streak of 30 points or more. His single game high was 46. He was both the Eastern District and District 5 Player of The Year and starred in the Ohio North-South Game, scoring 18 points in a winning cause. As a junior, he averaged 25 points a game and was first-team all-OVAC. He also enjoyed a superb sophomore year, gaining first-team all-OVAC honors with his 18 points a game.

For the Red Knight triumphals, the 6 ft. 5 Winston was a three-time state champion, twice in the high jump and in the long jump as a senior with a 22-10 effort. He captured the state high jump title as a sophomore with a 6-10 jump followed by his record-setting state leap of 6-11 the following June.

His athletic achievements led him to Columbus where he starred in both sports for The Ohio State University. Winston earned All-American honors at OSU in track, winning the Big Ten high jumping title four times, twice outdoors and twice indoors. He finished third in the NCAA as a freshman with his still Ohio State record of 7-4.5. Winston competed in the 1996 Olympic trials.

He was no slouch for the Buckeyes in basketball, earning a starting berth as a junior, specializing as a defensive stopper. He served the Buckeye hoopers as co-captain as a senior and finished his career with a 17-point outing against hated rival Michigan. He was a three-year OSU basketball letterman.

Winston went on to play professional basketball in Russia. An ordained minister, he still lives in the Columbus area. He owns his own production company and is a bank computer technician. He also finds time to coach track at New Albany High School.

Class of 2010

OVAC Hall of Fame

Sponsored by Robinson Auto Group

Rick DeLuca (OVAC 'Family')

Rick DeLuca (Warren Consolidated High School, Class of 1970). Probably the only question regarding DeLuca is in what aspect of the OVAC hasn't he made a significant contribution. Whether it's the arduous task of compiling the conference standings, serving on various committees, developing new ventures, coaching and even reporting the events through the media, DeLuca has done it all.

He's the one who puts together the weekly standings in a majority of sports in the OVAC, including football, volleyball, boys' and girls' basketball and baseball.

It was DeLuca who formulated the OVAC basketball playoffs, serving as the director of that event, and who also combined with OVAC Executive Secretary Tom Rataiczak to establish the OVAC Museum - a historical look at the conference, its schools and athletes throughout the years - which is housed in WesBanco Arena in Wheeling.

DeLuca also serves on the OVAC Volleyball Committee, the OVAC Baseball Committee, the OVAC Boosters Committee and the OVAC Scholarship Committee.

He also offers - through his DeLuca Realty business venture - a yearly OVAC Volleyball Scholarship.

DeLuca, who also coached the high school baseball teams at Bridgeport for three years and Buckeye Local for one year, is a veteran of the Ohio Valley media, working for more than 40 years as a part-time sportswriter at The Times Leader. He was a three-time finalist for Ohio Sportswriter of the Year by the National Sportswriter and Sportscasters Association and received four awards from the Ohio Prep Sportswriters Association. He also wrote some articles for USA Today in its early years and has had several non-sports articles published in various regional and national publications.

Frank Baxter (OVAC 'Contributor')

Frank Baxter (Bridgeport High School, Class of 1949). When you think of Bridgeport High School, this is surely one of the names that comes to mind. After all, Baxter was part of the Bridgeport school system for more than 60 years as a student, athlete, teacher, coach and administrator.

As an athlete, he was an all-OVAC honoree in football as a center-linebacker and in basketball where he averaged 25 points per game as a senior. After a stint in the armed services during the Korean War, he enrolled at West Liberty State College where he played football and ran track and received a bachelor's degree, later receiving his master's from the University of Dayton.

After teaching and coaching at Barnesville High School for one season, he returned to his alma mater and began an incredible 47-year run as Bridgeport's athletic director - believed to be the longest tenure in OVAC history - retiring in 2004.

From 1962 to 1980, he also doubled as the Bulldogs' head boys' basketball coach, guiding the team to a solid 269-128 record. His teams won four OVAC championships (1963, '66, '72 and '74); 14 sectional titles; two district crowns and one regional championship. Bridgeport posted an unbeaten regular season in 1966, ending with a final 23-1 record and the UPI Class A state poll championship; and finished as the 1969 Ohio Class A runner-up with a 25-2 record at a time when there were only two classes in the state.

Baxter was named the Ohio Class A "Coach of the Year" in 1966 and became the first recipient of the OVAC's all-sports "Coach of the Year" award in 1969. He was also selected Eastern Ohio and Eastern District "Coach of the Year" on several occasions. In 1988, Baxter was the Eastern District "Athletic Director of the Year" and he was inducted into the Ohio Athletic Administrators Hall of Fame in 1994. He has also been recognized by the Ohio High School Basketball Coaches Association, the Naimith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame through the OHSAA in 1988 and with the Earl Haberfield Coaches Award at the OVAC Basketball Classic in 1987. Baxter received the Carl Hamill Award from the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Club in 2003 and when the new Bridgeport High School was constructed, the floor at the John J. Havlicek Gymnasium was named Frank Baxter Court.

William 'Bill' Davies (Media)

William J. "Bill" Davies (Barnesville High School, Class of 1944). A "gentle giant" who wore many hats during his lifetime, it would be easy to label Davies as "Mr. Barnesville" to many inside and outside the western Belmont County community, but it was in the media where he made perhaps his greatest impact.

After enlisting in the Navy during World War II and serving with the Navy Seabees in Okinawa, he attended Miami (Ohio) University and completed his education at The Ohio State University where he graduated from the OSU School of Journalism in 1950.

A true "old school" reporter who could recall many names and events at the drop of a hat, his lifelong career was spent right in his backyard at The Barnesville Enterprise until his retirement in 1994, serving several years as editor-publisher while also covering Shamrock sporting events religiously.

Not only did he report on Barnesville athletics for The Enterprise, but he also was a valuable contributor to the sports departments at The Times Leader in Martins Ferry and The Daily Jeffersonian in Cambridge.

Among the sports-related awards Davies received were a Distinguished Service Award from the Barnesville wrestling program in 1991; the District 12 Basketball Coaches Association Distinguished Service Award in 1996; the Ohio Baseball Hall of Fame Media Award in 1997; and induction into the Ohio Prep Sportswriters Association Hall of Fame in 1998.

He also was inducted into the Barnesville Area Education Foundation Hall of Fame in 1998; was named Barnesville Citizen of the Year in 1994; received a Founders Award from the Ohio Association of Community Colleges; and graces the top of the Heritage Tree at Belmont Technical College.

Davies was a varsity letterman in football and basketball in high school, and was a member of the gold medal-winning basketball team in the 1945 Pacific Olympics. He was a registered basketball official for 20 years and served as Ohio Stadium bench security and as an usher at Buckeye football games from 1958 until the year of his death in 2003.

John Stephenson (Coaches)

John Stephenson (Waynesburg High School, Class of 1969). Regarded as the "Father of Cadiz Wrestling", Stephenson assumed the role of head mat coach in the second year of the sport at the school.

His first team had just 12 wrestlers on the squad and finished 5-5-2, but by the next year the team had increased to 34 members and the program was off and running.

What followed during the next 14 years until Stephenson stepped down after the 1988 season was that Cadiz wrestling became highly-respected throughout the state of Ohio and was a perennial Ohio Valley Athletic Conference powerhouse.

Stephenson-coached Cardinal squads won 12 OVAC Class AA dual meet titles, 12 OVAC Class AA tournament titles and the overall OVAC mat championship in 1981. His teams also won eight sectional championships and seven district titles with numerous top 10 state tournament finishes, highlighted by the 1987 team which captured the Ohio Class A State Wrestling Championship. That feat earned Stephenson the Ohio Class A "Coach of the Year" selection.

Under his tutelage, Cadiz produced 29 state place finishers including two state champions and countless OVAC Tournament champions. Stephenson's dual meet record with the Cardinals was an impressive 142-18-2.

For his many contributions to the sport of wrestling, including serving for many years on the OVAC Wrestling Committee and as director of several sectional and district tournaments, Stephenson was honored with the OVAC's prestigious "Mr. Mat Award" in 1993. Harrison Central later recognized the long-time coach with the naming of school's multipurpose building as The John W. Stephenson Center.

Stephenson received his degree in Industrial Arts and Physical Education from Fairmont State College, where he was an NAIA All-American wrestler. After stepping down as wrestling coach, Stephenson served as assistant principal at Cadiz High School and then was promoted to principal at Harrison Central when the district reorganized in 1999 and he maintained that position until 2001. He has also served as principal at Harrison Hopedale Elementary, Harrison Lakeland Elementary and has been Buildings and Grounds Supervisor for the district.

Charles 'Chuck' Watt (Coaches)

Charles "Chuck" Watt (Stuebenville High School, Class of 1945). A mainstay of Big Red athletics, Coach Watt made his mark both as head basketball and baseball coach.

In basketball, Watt assisted Ang Vaccaro before taking over in 1967 and beginning a 23-year stint as head coach. During that time, he compiled a stellar record of 350-149, a winning percentage of 70.1.

Big Red won eight OVAC championships under Watt (1971, '75, '78, '79, '80, '81, '86 and '90) and he was named the District 5 Basketball Coaches Association "Coach of the Year" in each of those seasons while being named OVAC "Coach of the Year" in both 1971 and 1990. His teams won 12 sectional titles, including seven straight from 1983 through 1990; and captured four district championships (1970, '71, '85 and '90).

He was inducted into the Ohio High School Basketball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 1994 and into the District 5 Basketball Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

Watt also succeeded Vaccaro as the school's head baseball coach, serving in that role from 1965-75 and compiling a 192-87-4 mark. His Big Red teams won two OVAC championships (1968 and 1973); three sectional titles (1968, '72 and '75) and one district crown (1972).

He also coached the Steubenville American Legion Post 33 team for many years. After serving as an assistant to Vaccaro from 1957-82 before becoming the manager in 1983 and posting a 367-104 record, including state championships in 1984 and 1989.

Watt's coaching career actually began in his senior season at Steubenville College when he took over at mid-season and guided a team that started out 3-5 to a 14-8 record to earn recognition as the "Most Improved Team in the Country" as determined by the Dick Dunkel National Rating System.

PREVIOUS OVAC HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

C.R. 'Dick' Dei (Coaches)

C.R. 'Dick' Dei (Wheeling Central High School, Class of 1959). He was the architect of the OVAC's most dominant boys' track program at Wheeling Park High. During the school's first 13 years (1977-89), the Patriots won eight OVAC Class 4-A championships and finished second three times; won nine West Virginia Region titles and captured three West Virginia Class AAA state championships while finishing as the runner-up twice.

Under the guidance of Dei, who coached 22 All-America track honorees during his career, Park lost only two dual meets in 13 seasons. He was named West Virginia Track Coach of the Year on two occasions and the Ohio Valley Track Coach of the Year by The Intelligencer twice.

The coach established one of the area's top invitational meets -- the Pepsi Park Classic -- which was later renamed the Dick Dei Track Classic. He designed Wheeling Park's all-weather track facility and is responsible for implementing the first photo-electric timing system at a West Virginia high school, with Park's system originally used at the West Virginia State meet in Charleston. He served as chairman of the OVAC Track Committee and the OVAC Track Championships; West Virginia Region Meet director; a member of the West Virginia State Track Meet Committee; and was a presenter at the WVU Track and Field Clinic.

Dei received the R.A. Thom Award in 1990 for West Virginia track service and contributions; and was named the OVAC Cal Giffin Track Official of the Year in 1995. He was also honored by the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Club and the W.Va. Sports Writers Association.

Dei was inducted into the Wheeling Park Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998 and the West Liberty State College Hall of Fame in 2005.

Dei played football at Wheeling Central and West Liberty and earned a master's degree from West Virginia University. He began a 39-year teaching/coaching career in 1965 at Bellaire High, serving as head track coach and assistant in football. He also coached as a football assistant at Martins Ferry; head football coach at Adena; and head football and track coach at Wheeling High. He also served as defensive coordinator at Bethany College in 1980, helping the Bison to an NCAA Division III playoff berth. He passed away in 2007 at the age of 66.

Larry Shaw (Coaches)

Larry Shaw (Shady Spring High School, Class of 1973). Mention wrestling in the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference or anywhere in the state of West Virginia and no doubt Shaw's name comes to mind in a hurry. After all, Shaw was a fixture in the mat sport for 31 years.

He led the Bears on an incredible run of 13 consecutive West Virginia Class AA-A state championships from 1997-2009, a feat unmatched by any OVAC or West Virginia program in any sport. Prior to Oak Glen dropping to the AA-A ranks, Shaw-led teams posted five straight Class AAA runner-up finishes (1987-91).

In OVAC Tournament action, Shaw's teams won nine class titles, including eight in a row from 2001-2008 in Class 3-A. The Bears won the overall title five times (1991, 2002, 2004, 2005 and 2007). During his tenure, Shaw's teams won 13 OVAC dual meet titles (Class 4-A in 1985, '90 and '98 and Class 3-A in 1999, 2000, '01, '03, '04, '05, '06, '07, '08 and '09) and he finished with a career dual meet record of 330-96-4. He coached 51 state champion wrestlers and more than 160 others who earned all-state honors.

Shaw was named the OVAC all-sport Coach of the Year twice -- in 2002 and 2007 -- and the OVAC Wrestling Coach of the Year on 13 occasions. He was the West Virginia Class AA-A Wrestling Coach of the Year six times and is the only wrestling coach to be selected the West Virginia all-sport Coach of the Year by the W. Va. Sports Writers Association (2000). He was named the 2008 National Wrestling Coach of the Year by Wrestling USA Magazine and was a finalist for the award in 2004.

Shaw, a 1977 graduate of Concord College who earned his master's degree from Marshall University, is a past president of the W. Va. Wrestling Coaches Association; a past vice-president of the West Virginia Chapter of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame; and a former member of the WVSSAC and OVAC Wrestling Committees. He assisted in producing an instructional video for wrestling officials for the NFHS Officiating Wrestling On-Line Methods Course and has worked at countless wrestling clinics. Shaw was the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Club's Co-Man of the Year in 2003; was inducted into the Raleigh County Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2000; the Lou Holtz Upper Ohio Valley Hall of Fame in 2009; the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2010 and earlier this year into the National High School Sports Hall of Fame by the National Federation of State High School Associations.

Plennie Clutter (Officials)

Plennie Clutter (Wheeling High School, Class of 1943). He ranks among the best officials of all-time in the Ohio Valley, spending 30 years as a football referee and 25 years as a basketball official.

Clutter's officiating career began at the urging of the late A. Wilson Murray, a charter member of the OVAC Hall of Fame in the officials' category, and he worked his way up from junior varsity games to the top of the officiating world in both sports.

He earned assignments to work four West Virginia state high school football championship games and three state basketball tournaments.

Clutter officiated numerous sectional and regional tournament games in West Virginia and worked several OVAC All-Star Football Games. He was also selected as the referee in the 1982 Ohio North-South All-Star Game.

He is an Honorary Life Member of both the Ohio Valley Basketball Officials and Ohio Valley Football Officials organizations. He was the recipient of the Robert Dawson Officials Award at the OVAC Basketball Classic in 2005.

Clutter also worked football and basketball games in the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

As an athlete, Clutter was an all-West Virginia selection in football and basketball at Wheeling High. As a senior, he was named the all-state captain and led the Wildcats to the state basketball championship under coach V. Everett Brinkman.

He was offered a football scholarship to the University of Alabama, he entered the Navy during World War II. He played one year with the Philadelphia Naval Base team, and then after fulfilling his military obligation, he played professional basketball in England. When he returned home, he was selected to play in the 1946 OVAC All-Star Football Game.

Edgar Martin (Athlete - 1940s)

Edgar Martin (Warwood High School, Class of 1945). A multi-sport high school and college standout despite his size of 5-foot-4 and weighing between 130-145 pounds, he left his mark on the OVAC and Ohio Valley sports.

A three-time All-OVAC honoree in basketball (1944 and 1945) and football (1944), he helped the Vikings win the first OVAC Class A title and five-school City of Wheeling crown with a 9-1 record in 1944. In basketball, he was the leader of two OVAC title teams which went 14-6 and 22-3. The 1945 City of Wheeling title team also won the W. Va. section and region crowns and advanced to the one-class state tournament before bowing to Beckley Woodrow Wilson. As a senior on a 9-1 record football team, he returned a kickoff 85 yards to score in the team's only loss to Follansbee, 21-13. He was a third team all-state one-class selection. In basketball, he earned second team one-class all-state as a senior and scored 42 points -- a rare total at the time -- in a 100-68 win over Follansbee.

At Bethany College, he was a three-sport standout (football, basketball, baseball) and was a two-time All-West Virginia Conference basketball tournament honoree. As a senior, he averaged 22.5 points a game. After coaching in high school at Jefferson Union and Linsly, he coached alma mater Bethany College for 11 years from 1956-66, including a 17-1 record Presidents' Athletic Conference title team in 1962 and an unbeaten 18-0 PAC championship club in 1964.

He finished his career at West Liberty State as athletic director from 1973-88 and also coached basketball from 1969-74. He was one of the original organizers of the current Beast of the East summer baseball tournament named in his honor. Martin died in 1989.

Bob Jeter (Athlete - 1950s)

Bob Jeter (Weir High School, Class of 1956). Possibly the most prominent name to bridge the transition from segregated schools into integrated education in the Ohio Valley. He was a multi-sport standout at segregated Dunbar High School in Weirton through his junior season of 1955. With integration in West Virginia, he finished at Weir High School and became the first black athlete to be recognized on the All-State football selections by the W. Va. Sports Writers Association. A two-way back, he was a third team choice.

In his one season at Weir High, he helped the Red Riders to an 8-1-1 record and the OVAC Class AA title.

Recruited by the University of Iowa, he became a three-season two-way regular. As a senior, the All-Big Ten honoree set a Rose Bowl rushing record in 1959 which lasted two decades before broken by USC's Marcus Allen. Jeter rushed for 191 yards on only nine carries and scored on a record 81-yard TD run in a 39-14 win over California.

After being selected to play in the East-West Shrine Game, he was the No. 2 draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 1960 but opted to play in the Canadian Football League with the Vancouver B.C. Lions and the Hamilton Tiger Cats for two seasons. He then joined the Packers as a defensive back-wide receiver and played in three straight NFL winning championship games and started the first two Super Bowl games for the winning Packers in 1966 and 1967. An All-Pro twice and a Pro Bowl selection, he played eight NFL seasons and finished his career by playing three seasons with the Chicago Bears.

A member of the W. Va. Sports Hall of Fame and Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Hall of Fame, he was the 1970 Dapper Dan Man of the Year. Jeter died in 2008.

Jim McCormick (Athlete - 1950s)

Jim McCormick (Magnolia High School, Class of 1958). Arguably the No. 1 Blue Eagle basketball product, he set or tied 55 school records while playing only two varsity seasons.

As a senior, he earned All-OVAC Class A honors and All-W.Va. mention when he scored 61.3 points for a 29.2 per game average, both school records which lasted 45 years. He also scored 51 points in a game which has been tied, but not broken after five decades. He averaged 22.1 points for his career. He also played baseball for the Blue Eagles.

After high school, the 6-foot-3 guard prepped for a year at old Greenbrier Military in Lewisburg, W.Va., where he started on an unbeaten post-graduate team composed of several high school all-stars.

He enrolled at West Virginia University as an invited walk-on and was the second-leading scorer behind future All-American Red Thorn on WVU's second-ever unbeaten freshman team.

In the third game of his sophomore season, he became a varsity starter for the rest of his career and, with Thorn, formed a top backcourt which led WVU to three Southern Conference titles and a pair of NCAA Tournament berths. He averaged double figures all three years and scored 1,156 career points which, at the time, was fifth all-time in WVU history behind four All-Americans -- Jerry West, Red Hundley, Mark Workman and Thorn. McCormick and Thorn were featured on the cover of the 1962 WVU Basketball Media Guide.

After twice earning All-Southern Conference second team and honorable mention All-America, he became Magnolia's only NBA draftee in the sixth round by the Cincinnati Royals, but a foot injury halted his pro career.

McCormick is a member of the WVU Sports Hall of Fame and was selected on the six-player 1956-65 All-Time WVU Team.

Rick Boron (Athlete - 1960s)

Richard L. Boron (St. John Central High School, Class of 1965). He was a three-sport performer for the Fighting Irish, but it was on the gridiron where he gained national recognition.

Boron blossomed under the tutelage of Coach Dan McGrew into a two-way star as a senior. The multi-talented griddler scored 126 points as a senior while rushing for 698 yards on just 91 carries. He also hauled in 28 passes for 563 additional stripes.

While Boron was an offensive dynamo, he was just as highly-regarded for his prowess at defensive back. As a senior, he intercepted three enemy passes and also returned a punt 88 yards for a TD. McGrew, a former Purdue and professional griddler, called Boron "the best defensive back I ever saw."

For his senior exploits, Boron was named to the prestigious Parade Magazine All-America High School Football Team. He was also a first team all-OVAC, all-Eastern Ohio and AP all-Ohio honoree. Boron also lettered four years in baseball at SJC and two seasons in basketball.

He turned down an offer to play at Notre Dame and instead accepted a scholarship from Coach Bu Schembeckler to play at Miami of Ohio. It was a decision Boron never regretted. He was a three-year regular for the Redskins as a defensive back. He was awarded second team all-Mid-American Conference honors as a junior and first team plaudits as a senior. He left the Oxford-based campus with several grid records, including most interceptions in a season (7) and freshman record for interceptions (5). Boron finished his Miami career in third place on the career interception list (1-4).

Boron distinguished himself in the prep coaching ranks as well. He served as head coach at Wadsworth High for five seasons, compiling a 39-9 mark. During that tenure, he received a host of coach of the year awards, including the Cleveland Plain Dealer and the Akron Beacon Journal. Boron left Wadsworth to serve as an assistant at Miami before heading into private business.

Randy Donahue (Athlete - 1960s)

Randy Donahue (Warren Consolidated High School, Class of 1965). The area that makes up the Buckeye Local School District has had countless stellar football players in its annals. Few, if any, enjoyed the success that Donahue did, however.

The 6 ft. 1, 235-pounder is regarded as one of the best linemen in Ohio Valley history, and that lofty designation is well supported. Donahue was the first OVAC player to be accorded first team Parade Magazine All-America honors (1964). In the 1960s, Ohio was divided into just two classes in football, but he still managed the respect and admiration of coaches throughout the state as he was voted a three-time first-team AP all-Ohio Class A selection (defensive tackle as a sophomore and junior and offensive tackle as a senior).

The line great was a four-year starter for Coach Dick Thurnes' Blue Ramblers. Thurnes, also a 2011 OVAC Hall of Fame inductee, put together an amazing string of success in the early '60s and Donahue was a major cog in that machine. Donahue tasted defeat just once in four years as the Ramblers went 9-0-1, 9-0, 7-1-1 and 9-0 in that span. Three of those grid juggernauts captured OVAC Class A championships.

Donahue, who also excelled on the baseball diamond, spearheaded a Warren Consolidated defense which recorded seven shutouts in his senior campaign. He recorded 64 tackles and 28 assists that season. His defensive stats as a sophomore are striking. In just nine games, the two-way terror registered 112 tackles and 52 assists.

After such a stellar prep career and with ideal size, it is no wonder Donahue was showered with college football scholarship offers. He eventually signed a grant-in-aid with West Virginia University. Fate dealt him a cruel blow, however, as in the summer before he left for Morgantown, Donahue lost the vision in one of his eyes in a freak wood-cutting accident. Much to his credit, he still attempted to play for the Mountaineers, but the handicap was too much to overcome. He returned home and took a job with Wheeling-Pittsburgh Steel and he also served many years as a Warren Township trustee. Donahue passed away several years ago.

PREVIOUS OVAC HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

Craig Miller (Athlete - 1970s)

Craig Miller (Bridgeport High School, Class of 1979). He was an all-star football player and standout basketball player for the Bulldogs, but it was in track and field where Miller is remembered as one of the best to ever perform in the Ohio Valley.

Miller had superb size at 6 ft. 3 and 200 pounds to be the punishing fullback-linebacker and the rugged post in basketball that he was, but that size was combined with great speed which he utilized to excel in three distinct events in track. His all-around versatility drew him the tag as the Bulldogs' most versatile athlete since John Havlicek.

Miller was the greatest discus thrower of his era. He used his elongated frame and superb athleticism to become the first Ohio Valley prepster to twirl the platter more than 170 feet, establishing a new valley standard with his 172-10 toss in the district meet as a senior. In the 32 years since, only two discus throwers have bettered that mark. Miller was state runner-up in the discus as a senior while also placing second in the Bellaire Relays as a junior and senior. The powerful Bulldog also ranked with the premier shotputters during that time, owning a best of 52 feet. Miller was equally adept on the track where he was a prime-time high hurdler, recording the best time in the Ohio Valley as a senior with a scorching 14.7 clocking.

Miller was also a three-year letterman at Bridgeport in basketball where he was the leading rebounder for Coach Frank Baxter each season. Miller averaged 15.4 points a game as a senior.

In football, he earned all-Ohio, all-OVAC and all-Valley honors after a senior year which saw him total 105 points, which included three field goals and 21 kicking PATs, another sign of his all-around talents. He was a blocking fullback, but still managed 422 yards on just 90 totes for the 9-1 Bulldogs of Coach Dave Bruney. He also averaged 40 yards per punt.

He opted to accept a football scholarship to Miami of Ohio University, where he lettered four years as a tight end and was accorded all-MAC honors as a junior.

Pat Miller (Athlete - 1970s)

Pat Miller III (Shadyside High School, Class of 1979). He was able to do what few athletes can do, that being a star in two sports during the same season.

Miller was nothing short of sensational for the Tigers in baseball, lettering four times. His tremendous diamond time did nothing to adversely impact his track career where he was equally as exceptional.

The talented Tiger was also a stellar grinder and also possessed the prowess to graduate with a 3.94 GPA.

Miller captured the Tiger baseball team both as a junior and a senior, the latter season one in which he hit for a sizzling .431 average. That proved a springboard to be selected to participate in the All-Ohio Baseball Series.

He was selected an EOBL all-star all four seasons and all-Eastern District three seasons. Miller's diamond exploits earned him a baseball scholarship to Ohio University.

While his prep baseball resume is quite glittering, it may take a backseat to his track and field accomplishments. Miller achieved the ultimate by winning the state pole vault title in 1979. He also finished sixth in the high hurdles in the same state meet. He won virtually every pole vault competition as a senior, except for the Bellaire Relays which was in his heyday. Miller was third in the pole vault and third in the high hurdles in that meet, finishing as the top local scorer in the state's second-largest meet at the time.

The terrific Tiger was a two-time all-Valley honoree and was selected to The Intelligencer's all-Decade Track Team.

He enjoyed much gridiron success as well. The hard-running Tiger earned all-Ohio honors both his junior and senior campaigns. The three-year grid letterman was first team all-OVAC, all-Valley and all-Eastern District his last two seasons.

Miller, who served as the Tigers' captain as a senior, followed in his father's footsteps and played in the OVAC All-Star Game.

Willie Clay (Athlete - 1980s)

Willie Clay (Linsly School, Class of 1988). This former Cadet did it all during his four years on the Wheeling campus. While earning letters in three sports, it was on the football field where he made his biggest impact to the Cadets' program.

Clay was the unquestioned leader and most recognized player on teams which won 23 consecutive games and recorded the first two undefeated seasons in the school's history when it finished 10-0 in 1986 and 9-0 in 1987. Excelling as a defensive back, wide receiver and kick returner, Clay earned numerous postseason honors during his career. As a senior, despite the Cadets' run-first offensive schemes, Clay managed to catch 30 passes for 428 yards and five touchdowns. He also took two kickoffs back for touchdowns and had five interceptions. He was named All-State, all-OVAC and all-Valley. He was the captain of the big-school team after his senior season.

On the basketball court, Clay led the Cadets in his senior season with a 17.5 points per game average while shooting 48 percent from the floor. He also passed out 170 assists en route to earning all-OVAC and all-Valley.

In the spring, Clay lit up area baseball diamonds. He batted .423 as a senior and was named all-OVAC and all-Valley.

Despite his success on so many surfaces, it was football that was his calling at the next level. Clay accepted a scholarship to attend Georgia Tech University where he earned all-ACC honors twice. At one time, Clay held the Yellow Jackets' school record for interceptions (16) after starting in the defensive backfield for three seasons.

In 1992, Clay was drafted in the eighth round by the Detroit Lions and played eight seasons in the NFL. He also played for the New England Patriots for three seasons and one with the New Orleans Saints. All told, he played in 118 NFL games and started 90.

Sharon Vincent (Athlete - 1980s)

Sharon Vincent (St. Clairsville High School, Class of 1981). This Lady Red Devil was easily one of the most decorated and successful sprinters ever to grace the ovals in the Ohio Valley.

Vincent finished her prep career with eight state medals and led St. C. to its only state championship in school history in June of 1981. In that state meet her senior season, Vincent capped an undefeated campaign in both the 100 and 200-meter dashes by sprinting to the OHSAA state championships in both events in 12.18 and 24.79, respectively.

Vincent won a state gold as a sophomore as well as a member of the Lady Red Devils' 440-yard relay team. She was the state runner-up in the 200 and placed fifth in the 100 that season. Prior to breaking through in Columbus as a senior, Vincent was the state runner-up in the 100 and bronze medalist in the 200 as a junior.

The only individual loss Vincent suffered as a senior came in the 400-meter dash at the district meet where she took third, but still ran an impressive 58.7. En route to her state meet performances, athletes competed in sectionals and districts where she won 19 championships. She was a three-time sectional and district 100 and 200-meter champion.

At the OVAC meet, Vincent won a total of 12 conference championships. She was a three-time champion in both the 100 and 200. At the time of her graduation, Vincent held eight meet records and three all-time Ohio Valley records.

Vincent, who still holds the 100, 200 and 400-meter dash school records, was named St. Clairsville's Most Valuable Athlete four times and was also named All-District Athlete of the Year. She also competed in the prestigious Midwest Meet of Champions in the 100-meter dash in 1981.

After her prep career, Vincent accepted a scholarship to Eastern Kentucky University. She competed there for two seasons before transferring to The Ohio State University where she completed her bachelor of arts degree in economics. Vincent, who was inducted to the St. Clairsville Athletic Hall of Fame as a member of the 1981 state championship team and then in 2007 as an individual athlete, later earned a master's degree from Otterbein.

T.J. Hannig (Athlete - 1990s)

T.J. Hannig (Linsly School, Class of 1996). This three-sport Cadet standout excelled as an all-around athlete, but it was on the soccer field where he made his biggest impact.

Hannig earned four letters for the Cadets as their starting goalkeeper for teams which posted a 70-13-10 record. Included in those seasons were two OVAC all-class titles in 1992 and 1994. The Cadets were winning these titles because opposing teams just couldn't get the ball past Hannig, who set the Ohio Valley record with 41 career shutouts. Overall, he owned a 0.88 goals against average. His exploits didn't go unnoticed. He was twice named all-OVAC and captained the all-Valley team as a senior. He was also named Gateador Player of the Year and a Parade All-American.

On the basketball court, Hannig blossomed as a senior, scoring nearly 17 points a game and grabbing eight rebounds en route to all-OVAC and all-Valley accolades. In track and field, Hannig competed in a bevy of events, but it was in the long jump where he stood out. He set the OVAC record with a mark of 21 feet, 7 3/4 inches and won three conference titles (high hurdles, high jump and long jump).

Hannig accepted a scholarship for soccer to the University of Indiana where he started in net from 1997-2000 and finished No. 1 in IU history with 42 shutouts and second in victories (63). The Hoosiers played in four consecutive NCAA Final Fours, winning the NCAA titles in 1998 and 1999, defeating Stanford (3-1) and Santa Clara (1-0), respectively. Hannig and OVAC and NBA Hall of Famer John Havlicek (Bridgeport High) are the only two OVAC products to play in three consecutive NCAA title games. Hannig's name is all over the Indiana University record book. He ranks seventh at IU with 176 saves, and the 23 victories in 1998 are tied for the most in a season.

After his collegiate career, Hannig was selected in the MLS Draft and spent time with D.C. United. He also played for the Pittsburgh Riverhounds.

Quincy Wilson (Athlete - 1990s)

Quincy Wilson (Weir High, Class of 1999). This former Red Rider was a multi-sport standout, but it was on the football field where he earned his highest acclaim.

Wilson rewrote Ohio Valley and West Virginia record books as he helped lead the Red Riders to the 1998 West Virginia Class AA state championship.

As a senior on the state championship squad, Wilson became the first Ohio Valley and West Virginia prep athlete to accumulate 3,000 yards in a season. All told, Wilson rushed for 3,262 yards. He scored an Ohio Valley record 47 touchdowns and finished with 282 points, which is second best all-time in the Ohio Valley, trailing only Jack Simons of New Cumberland, who scored 288 points in 1919.

Wilson, a four-year letterman, finished his prep career with 6,162 yards, but 5,624 of those came during his junior and senior seasons since he played primarily on defensive during his first two seasons. For his career, he scored 93 touchdowns and 564 points, with all but seven TDs and 44 points came during his junior and senior seasons. Wilson took his play to another level when the postseason rolled around. He set all-time West Virginia records with 1,671 yards and 23 touchdowns in seven playoff games. Included is a single-game record of 327 yards. In 1998 state title game against Dupont, Wilson ran for 250 yards and two scores.

Wilson won nearly every postseason award imaginable. He was named Kanawake State Player of the Year and shared the Kennedy Award with Nairo's J.R. House after he finished fourth in the balloting as a junior. He was named first-team all-State twice and captained the All-Valley team and was twice named all-OVAC. He also played basketball at Weir High.

After accepting a scholarship to West Virginia University, Wilson fought his way up the depth chart and through a medical redshirt before bursting onto the scene in a big way in 2003. He ran for 1,380 yards and 12 touchdowns en route to being named WVU's Offensive MVP and won the team's award for all-around excellence. Wilson played in 44 games at WVU, running for 2,608 yards and 20 TDs. He also caught 30 balls.

Wilson was then selected in the seventh round as the 219th player taken by the Atlanta Falcons. He was released and eventually signed with the Cincinnati Bengals, with whom he spent parts of four seasons. He was also drafted in the inaugural UFL Draft by the Florida Tuskers.

Ashley Battle (Athlete - 2000s)

Ashley Battle (Linsly School, Class of 2000). When asked to name the greatest girls' basketball players in Ohio Valley history, this former Lady Cadets' name is always one of the first mentioned. And for good reason.

Battle arrived on the Linsly campus at the urging of some of her family and friends to get her away from the rough section of her hometown of Pittsburgh. She went to Linsly to take an admissions test prior to entering high school and seemingly the rest was history.

When she arrived at Linsly, the girls' basketball team was struggling, but she helped turn that around quickly and eventually led Linsly to an undefeated season in 1998-99.

At Linsly, she became the school's all-time leader in numerous statistical categories, including points (1,532), rebounds (823), assists (385) and steals (371).

She was named OVAC Class A Player of the Year four consecutive seasons and was a three-time all-State pick in West Virginia.

After receiving countless recruiting letters, Battle eventually chose to continue her career at the University of Connecticut over the likes of Duke, Penn State and Stanford.

At UConn, she joined with Dianna Taurasi and Maria Conlon and helped lead the Lady Huskies to three NCAA National Championships, including an undefeated season in 2003.

Battle was a standout on the defensive end of the floor as evidenced by the fact that she won the Big East Defensive Player of the Year award, but she also scored 1,000 career points.

Battle, who owns a degree in marketing and economics from UConn, was drafted by Seattle in the second round of the 2005 WNBA Draft. She then signed with the New York Liberty of the WNBA in 2006 and she also spent time playing for Seattle and San Antonio. All told, she appeared in 142 WNBA Games and averaged five points per game. She also played professionally in Spain in 2007 and 2008.

PREVIOUS OVAC HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

Amber Ellison (Athlete - 1990s)

Amber Ellison (Meadowbrook High School, Class of 1999) . The Lady Colts' basketball program is one of the most storied in the Ohio Valley and Ellison is a major reason why.

Ellison was a four-year letterwinner for the Lady Colts, twice earning first-team all-Ohio accolades en route to her honors and eventual basketball scholarship to Wheeling Jesuit University.

She's currently Meadowbrook's second all-time girls' leader in points (1,363) and rebounds (850) and the all-time leader in steals (506) and assists (472). Ellison also holds the Meadowbrook single-game record for 44 points, which she netted as a senior against John Marshall.

During that senior season, Ellison averaged 24.1 points and 14.6 rebounds per game en route to every first-team award imaginable. She was first-team all-Ohio in Division II, Eastern District Player of the Year; All-District 12; Player of the year in the East Central Ohio League and first-team all-OVAC. She was also chosen for the Ohio North-South and OVAC All-Star games.

As a junior, Ellison poured in 19 points, grabbed 10 rebounds, passed out 5.7 assists and snared 5.5 steals per game en route to first-team all-everything. She was also named honorable mention all-USA Today.

If basketball wasn't enough, Ellison is also one of the finest softball players to ever wear a Lady Colts' uniform. She batted better than .400 every year of her career. Ellison was a three-time all-Ohio softball selection and four-time all-district pick. She was player of the year, as a sophomore, in the ECOL after batting .506 with seven home runs, seven triples and 37 RBI.

At Wheeling Jesuit, Ellison scored 1,273 career points, grabbed 521 rebounds, passed out 389 assists and made 218 steals and blocked 42 shots. A four-year letterwinner, she was a two-year captain for the Lady Cardinals and was twice named to the all-WVVIAC squad.

After her playing career at Jesuit, Ellison accepted a coaching position at Shenandoah where she served as an assistant for a season before ascending to the head coaching job. She was with the Lady Zepps for three seasons, posting a 54-17 record while reaching three district tournaments. She also had brief coaching stints at Franklin Heights and Olentangy Orange.

Denver Williams (Athlete - 1990s)

Denver Williams (Cadiz High School, Class of 1996). When it comes to speed, there have been very few, if any, faster than Williams.

Regardless if it was on the track or on the football field, Williams was consistently running away from the opposition.

Williams was a four-year regular in both track and football for the Cardinals. On the oval, Williams wrote his name into Ohio Valley history in both the 100-meter and 200-meter dashes.

He wasted little time in making a name for himself. He won the Division III state 200-meter dash title as a freshman in 1993. He proceeded to win three more, making him one of just five athletes in state history to win the same event four straight years.

Williams didn't stop with the 200 titles. He added the Division III 100-meter crowns to his resume in both his junior and senior seasons. Williams ran his personal-best times of 10.55 and 21.50 to win the gold medals as a senior, and both still stand as all-time OHSA and Ohio Valley records.

On the football field, Williams also sparkled, earning first-team all-Ohio and all-Eastern District twice. He owns the Cadiz school record for career rushing yards with 4,479.

After his prep career, Williams accepted a football scholarship to the University of Kentucky where he also ran track. He red-shirted as a freshman and then transferred to Youngstown State where he helped the Penguins win the NCAA Division I-AA National Championship. All told, he lettered four years at YSU in football and three in track.

For the Penguins' track team, Williams was the 200-meter runner-up in the Mid-Continent Conference and was apart of school records in the indoor 4x400 and sprint medley.

Williams has now entered the coaching field. He's spent time at Ashland, Ohio Northern and Heidelberg. Currently, he's working as a football coach and track coach at Trinity College in Hartford, Conn.

Kenny Howell (Athlete - 2000s)

Kenny Howell (St. John Central High School, Class of 2000). It didn't matter the how or the sport for this former Irish standout.

However, it was in track and field where Howell made his greatest impact despite only participating in the sport for three years because he played baseball as a freshman.

After being encouraged to give track and field a try, Howell became the area's most decorated male thrower, shining in the discus and shot put.

Howell was a three-time all-Ohioan in the discus. He placed third in the state his first season in the circle and then captured the coveted Division III state championship in 1999. As a senior, Howell was undrafted until the state meet when he settled for silver despite a personal-best throw of 180 feet. That mark still stands as the best in Ohio Valley history. Along with his efforts in the state competition, Howell was a three-time OVAC Champion in the platter event.

Howell placed fifth in the state shot put competition as a senior and was a two-time OVAC champion in the iron-ball event.

Howell also ran on high quality sprint relay teams for the Irish.

On the football field, Howell etched his name into St. John Central history as a three-year starter for squads which combined for a 25-6 record and qualified for the playoffs in 1999 after a 9-1 season.

Howell was the primary running back for the Irish, amassing 1,500 yards as a junior en route to second-team all-Ohio status. He was first-team all-stater as a senior when he ran for better than 1,300 yards and was twice named to the OVAC's first team.

Howell was also a three-year starter for the Irish basketball program.

After high school, Howell accepted a track scholarship to West Virginia University, but eventually transferred to The Ohio State University where he completed his career and degree. He now resides in Columbus and works in the construction business.

Thomas E. Rataiczak (OVAC Family)

Thomas E. Rataiczak (Bellaire High School, Class of 1964). Succeeding the late Sam Mumley and his friend-to-all, get-it-done attitude as the guiding force of the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference would not be an easy task, but it's one that Rataiczak has done with tremendous vision and class... and then some.

"Rat" has been the de facto head of the OVAC as Executive Secretary since 1999, and under his leadership, the bi-state conference has grown to an all-time high of 50 member schools from Ohio and West Virginia.

During Rataiczak's watch, the Conference has grown by leaps and bounds in a variety of areas. Among them have been the formation of the OVAC Hall of Fame and the OVAC Sports Museum (both located in WesBanco Arena in Wheeling); instituting boys' and girls' basketball tournaments and expanding many of the other events, most notably the revised format of the track championships; creating an All-Conference Academic Team in conjunction with Ohio University Eastern; the creation of an official OVAC website; standardizing all championship awards; developing a meet director's handbook; computerizing all financial accounts; providing countless SportsWorld speakers to the area for more than 600 school assemblies, raising more than $250,000 to bring them in at no cost to the Conference; and placing the Conference on solid financial ground through a partnership with Scholastic Sports Marketing.

A retired Bellaire High School teacher, he served as a "Founding Father" and Director of the BHS Sports Foundation and has been chairman of the Bellaire Wall of Fame/Hall of Fame Committee for more than 20 years. Rataiczak has been the Big Reds' basketball scorekeeper for 43 years, working at more than 1,700 consecutive varsity and junior varsity games. In fact, the OVAC's Scorekeeper/Timer Award presented annually at the OVAC All-Star Basketball Classic is named in his honor.

He has also served more than 30 years as the BHS record-keeper, publishing extensive media guides for both football and basketball.

The recipient of the Bellaire Alumni Association's Outstanding Alumnus Award in 1992, he graduated from West Liberty State College and obtained a master's degree from West Virginia University. He received the Robert S. McKelvey Award from the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Club in 2010 and his most recent undertaking was being elected to the Bellaire Board of Education in 2012.

Tim McCoy (OVAC Contributor)

Tim McCoy (Jefferson Union High School, Class of 1978). For a quarter of a century, McCoy has taken the lead role in expanding broadcast and internet coverage of Ohio Valley high school sports, specifically those of the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference.

Those efforts have helped give thousands of area high school athletes tremendous exposure, with countless thousands of viewers able to watch the valley's best perform in the athletic realm.

Among the many highlights has been live TV coverage of various all-star contests, most notably the Rudy Mumley OVAC All-Star Charity Football Classic from Wheeling Island Stadium and the Ron Mauck OVAC Wrestling Championships from WesBanco Arena in Wheeling. At one time, WTOV-TV9 also aired the Samuel A. Mumley OVAC All-Star Basketball Classic.

Other events include the football "Game of the Week" broadcasts (replays of area games following the comprehensive "Sports Friday" shows); in-depth pre-season football team previews and the "Big 22" awards banquet in December. WTOV-TV9 also has an extensive internet football super-site available.

McCoy became Vice-President and General Manager of WTOV-TV9 in 1994. Prior to that, he served as the station's Operations Manager for six years.

He began his career in television as a Production Technician at WNEO-TV in Kent from 1979-82. He first joined WTOV as a Promotion Producer from 1982-85 and then spent two years at NBC affiliate WLEX-TV in Lexington, Kentucky as Promotions and Creative Services Director where he received two ADDY awards.

He has served on various boards in the Ohio Valley, including as president and campaign chairman of the United Way of Jefferson County, the St. John Arena, the Steubenville Rotary and the Steubenville City of Murals. He is also a member of The Friends of Wheeling, the Eastern Ohio Valley Tech Prep Consortium, Jefferson County Chamber of Commerce, the Wheeling Area Chamber of Commerce, Franciscan University of Steubenville, Historic Fort Steuben and the Jefferson County WIND Team. He was named 1995 City of Murals "Volunteer of the Year"; the Community Leadership Award from the Franciscan University of Steubenville; a Community Award from the Steubenville branch of the NAACP; and the One in a Million Award from the Steubenville Million Man March Committee. awards.

He was the 1997 Robert S. McKelvey Memorial Award recipient from the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Club.

PREVIOUS OVAC HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

Richard 'Hoot' Gibson (Media)

Richard "Hoot" Gibson (St. Clairsville High School, Class of 1970). He began his career in the local media in 1981 and has spent 32 years on the staff at The Times Leader, serving as a sports writer and for a brief time as Sports Editor and also as Area News Editor.

Gibson has written countless columns covering high school, college and professional sports and instituted the All-Times Leader teams in all high school sports.

He has covered OVAC contests in nearly every sport and at most conference schools over the years, including OVAC All-Star games in every sport.

Gibson has been seen at countless sporting events not only locally, but around the country. He's covered several NCAA men's basketball "Final Four" games, many World Series and MLB All-Star Games, 10 Super Bowls and 18 college football bowl games. He's also authored countless stories on the Ohio State Buckeyes and the West Virginia Mountaineers and served one year as the beat writer for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

He received the OHSAA Media Service Award for the Eastern District in 2000 and has won several Ohio Prep Sports Writers Association awards over the years.

Gibson was also a freelance writer for several years for Basketball Weekly magazine based out of Detroit, Michigan.

Gibson, who attended Harding University in Arkansas, also spent several years as a local baseball, basketball and volleyball official and served as manager of the Fairpoint-Neffs hall-of-club of the Ohio Valley Baseball League.

He served three years in the United States Navy (1976-78), working in communications for Command 6th Fleet Europe while stationed in Italy and touring both Europe and northern Africa.

Nick Aloï (Coaches)

Nick Aloï (Midland (Pa.) High School, Class of 1962). His coaching career began with a three-year stint at his alma mater, Midland (Pa.) Lincoln High, where he led the team to a state runner-up finish in 1986. He was named Class A "Coach of the Year" in western Pennsylvania in 1985.

Aloï's coaching stay at East Liverpool began in 1986 and spanned 20 years, longer than any basketball coach in school history. He compiled a career record of 326-121, an impressive winning percentage of 73%.

His Potter-coached teams won four Ohio Valley Athletic Conference championships (1991, '94, '95 and '99); nine sectional titles; six district crowns and one regional championship with an OHSAA State "Final Four" Appearance in 1999. The '99 team finished with a 23-2 record, falling to Shaker Heights (71-63) in the Division I state semifinals.

He was selected Ohio Division I "Coach of the Year" in 1996 by the Ohio High School Basketball Association and 1999 by The Associated Press; was the District 5 Basketball Coaches Association "Coach of the Year" 11 times, Eastern District "Coach of the Year" seven times and received similar honors in Columbiana County numerous times.

He was previously inducted into the East Liverpool High School Athletic Hall of Fame, the Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame, the Midland High School Sports Hall of Fame and the District 5 Basketball Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

Among Aloï's attributes were consistency, continuity and commitment, evident in the fact that he never missed an open gym, practice, scrimmage or game during his playing or coaching careers. He also started the popular "Potter Holiday Classic," a tournament known for quality competition, and conducted the "Little Potters Clinic" yearly for the district's elementary and middle school students free of charge.

As an athlete, Aloï was the leading scorer, MVP and team captain of Midland's 1962 undefeated basketball team, earning All-WPIAL and All-State recognition. He then went to Bowling Green State University where he was a three-year starter and team co-captain, averaging 15 points per game. Aloï earned his bachelor's degree from Bowling Green and later obtained his master's degree from Duquesne University. He was drafted by the St. Louis Hawks of the NBA.

Jim Thomas (Coaches)

Jim Thomas (Wheeling Central Catholic High School, Class of 1963).

The highly-regarded "JT" is the fourth-winningest coach in Ohio Valley history behind Reno Saccoccia, Jay Circosta and the fellow Hall of Famer George Strager with a 35-year record of 235-134-2. He wound up only 35 wins off of the all-time West Virginia state record for football coaching victories (267).

His first head coaching stint came at old Yorkville High where he spent three years (1968-70), guiding the Ducillites to an unbeaten season in 1970.

He then assumed the head coaching position as Wheeling Central (1971-80), and moved on to Wheeling Park for six seasons (1981-86). From there, it was back to his alma mater for a second stint, this time guiding the Maroon Knights from 1987-2004.

He coached teams to seven Ohio Valley Athletic Conference championships (1974, 1976, 1978, 1979, 1990, 2000 and 2004) and four West Virginia state titles. The Maroon Knights were Class AA state champs at the first "Super Six" event in Charleston in 1979 and they won the Class A crown in 2000, 2002 and 2004. The 2000 team set a school record for wins (13-1).

He also coached the West Virginia squad four times in the Rudy Mumley OVAC Charity All-Star Football Classic.

Thomas was voted the West Virginia All-Sport "Coach of the Year" for 2004-05 and the OVAC All-Sport "Coach of the Year" in both 1980 and 2003. He was also The Intelligencer's "Coach of the Year" in 1979 and the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan "Man of the Year" in 2001.

He earned his bachelor's degree from West Liberty State College and a master's degree from West Virginia University.

Thomas passed away in 2005 at the age of 60.

John Howell (Officials)

John Howell (Lancaster Fairfield Union High School, Class of 1967). When it comes to high school basketball officials, Howell is among the most recognized individuals throughout the Ohio Valley. After all, during a 38-year officiating career, he worked in practically every gymnasium out there.

Howell became a member of the Ohio Valley Board of Approved Basketball Officials in 1972. He served as secretary of the board for 14 years; as a training class instructor for 14 years; as rules interpreter for 16 years and assigned junior varsity officials for 14 years.

He served as the OVAC's Assistant Basketball Commissioner from 1983-94 and became the Basketball Commissioner in 1995, a role he still has today.

Howell worked his first varsity basketball game in 1974 (Paden City vs. St. Marys) and his final appearance on the hardwood came March 11, 2009 in a West Virginia Class AA Regional game at Phillip Barbour High School.

Howell worked a total of 27 state tournaments: 14 Ohio boys (1987, '88, '90, '92, '94, '95, '96, '98, '99, 2000, '02, '04, '06, '08); 5 Ohio girls (90, 91, 93, 01, 03); 6 West Virginia boys (88, 91, 94, 97, 99, 03); and 2 West Virginia girls (83, 89). He also worked a total of 75 regional tournament games over the years.

In 1993, Howell worked a W. Va. boys' state semifinal game in Charleston with Mike Coyne in morning and then Ohio girls' semifinal game in Columbus with Roger Levi later same day. He officiated the first three-man championship boys' game in Ohio in 1996 and the first 3-man championship boys' game in W. Va. in 1997.

Howell received a host of awards over the years, including NFIOA (National Federation of Interscholastic Officials Association) Official of the Year in West Virginia in 1992 and Ohio in 1997; Ohio District 5 Official of the Year in 1991, Ohio District 12 Official of the Year in 1992; West Virginia Official of the Year in 1994 and was the 2013 recipient of the OVAC's Robert Dawson Officials' Award. He was inducted into the OHSAA Officials Hall of Fame in 2003.

In addition to basketball, Howell has worked as a track official since 1972, serving in various capacities over the years at OVAC meets as well as at the Bellaire Relays and Shadyside Relays, and he has handled the position of clerk at those meets for the last 15 years.

While not an on-field official in football, Howell served as the OVAC's Assistant Football Commissioner under Hall of Famer Evan Reese from 1983-94.

Don Zinni (Officials)

Don Zinni (Yorkville High School, Class of 1954). He began his officiating career in 1970 as a member of the Ohio Valley Board of Football Officials, remaining active until 1991.

He officiated at the district, regional and state level in the WVSSAC playoffs from 1975-90, working the 1977 Class AAA State Championship Game, and he worked games at the regional and state semifinal level in the OHSAA during that same time span.

Zinni officiated the Rudy Mumley OVAC All-Star Charity Football Classic four times (three as referee and one as back judge) and worked the OHSFCA North-South All-Star Classic in Massillon in 1982.

A member of the OHSAA Football Advisory Committee for four years and a Past President and Rules Interpreter of the Ohio Valley Board of Football Officials, Zinni became OVAC Football Commissioner in 1995 and held that position until retiring in 2012 as the longest-tenured individual to serve in that capacity.

While serving as OVAC Football Commissioner, the affable Zinni expanded officiating crews from four men to five; expanded the officiating base to include several areas on both sides of the river including Wheeling, Weirton-Stebensburg, Mason-Dixon, Parkersburg-Marietta, Columbiana County, Cambridge-Zanesville and Columbus; established rating of crews by coaches during the season and by the Commissioner after the season; served as a clearinghouse for schools seeking opponents for schedule openings; and assigned officials to the Rudy Mumley OVAC All-Star Charity Football Classic by position rating.

Zinni also spent several years in the coaching ranks. He first served as junior high and freshman basketball coach from 1958-65; was an assistant football coach at Yorkville High from 1959-65; was the head coach at Yorkville from 1965-70; and then was the high school principal from 1970-72.

He is also a member of the OVAC Hall of Fame Committee.

As a high school athlete, Zinni was a four-year letterman in baseball, a two-year letterman in football and a one-year letterman in basketball at Yorkville.

Harry 'Moo' Moore (Athlete - 1940s)

Harry "Moo" Moore (Moundsville High School, Class of 1948). The 6-foot-2 forward set school career scoring records which lasted 18 years until broken in 1966 by OVAC Hall of Famer Bob Hummel. He scored 1,700 career points in four seasons and he also set the all-time Trojan single-game record of 54 points, including 25 goals, in a 101-17 rout of Cameron.

He earned first team, one-class All-State as a senior and was twice a first team All-OVAC largest Class AA honoree. He also was the first state High School Player of the Year honoree in selections made from 1948-60 by the Tri-State Independent Tournament held in Sistersville.

Moore led the Trojans to records of 15-2 in 1948 and 19-3 in 1946 when the team advanced to the W.Va. region finals.

He earned a scholarship to West Virginia University where he played on three varsity teams with a combined 60-20 record, including a Southern Conference regular season and tournament championship. Moore's 84 percent career free throw percentage ranks No. 2 all-time at WVU. He averaged 12.8 points a game as a senior and was selected honorable mention All-America.

He also was chosen in the sixth round of the 1952 NBA Draft by the Syracuse Nationals. He served in the Army infantry from 1953-55 and was selected to play in the 1954 armed forces Pan-American Games in Mexico and International Games in Germany. In 2007, he was inducted into the West Virginia University Sports Hall of Fame.

Moore, who retired in 1995 from the oil industry, resides in Moundsville.

Legends of OVAC member schools honors those great athletes who played or coached in the Ohio Valley prior to the formation of the conference in 1943 or who played or coached after that date but before their school became a member of the conference.

V. Everett Brinkman (Wheeling High School, Class of 1923)

One of only three 13-letter winners in football, basketball, baseball and track at Wheeling High, he was an all-state football end and scored 54 points in a basketball game as a freshman. He became a three-sport, nine-letter standout at W. Va. Wesleyan College before returning to the Ohio Valley to earn his mark in coaching.

A pioneer of the jump shot and fast break, Brinkman coached Benwood Union from 1928-33 and Wheeling High from 1934-55 to a combined 405-193 record. At Wheeling, his teams were 356-138 with five state titles in seven trips to the finals. The 1938 and 1950 teams were unbeaten. Other state titles were won in 1936, 1940 and 1943. The '40 and '43 teams lost but once.

Brinkman also coached football for 14 years — six at Benwood Union and eight at Wheeling, with a combined record of 87-32-15 including 40-9-4 at Union. Four of his gridiron teams claimed state titles in the pre-official state playoff era: 1928 and 1931 Union, both unbeaten, and at Wheeling in 1934 and 1937. The '34 team was unbeaten but twice tied.

He also was a top-flight football official for several years and active in state coaches and officials' organizations.

Brinkman earlier was elected to four Halls of Fame — West Virginia Sports, Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan, City of Wheeling, and W. Va. Wesleyan Sports.

Clarence 'Bevo' Francis (Wellsville High School, Class of 1952)

A record-setting basketball scoring machine in high school and college who attracted national attention and was profiled in numerous books, national magazines and major newspapers. Two books were written on his career.

The 6-9, 190-pounder played only one season at Wellsville High after sitting out a year following transfer from Irondale. In 1952, he scored 776 points in 25 games with 31-point average, second best in Ohio. He outscored six opposing teams with highs of 57, 54 and 50 points. Wellsville lost only to 28-1 record state runner-up Steubenville and handed W. Va. Class B champion Newell two of its three losses.

He followed Wellsville coach Newt Oliver to Rio Grande College and played two seasons. In 1953, he scored 1,954 points in 39 games for national record 50.1 per game average. He scored 116 vs. Ashland Junior College. In 1954, he averaged 46.5 points and scored 113 vs. Hillsdale College. The schedule included wins over Wake Forest, Providence, Butler and Creighton and games in Madison Square Garden, Boston Garden and Miami Beach Auditorium.

The NAIA Hall of Famers left school to join the Boston Whirlwinds and tour with the Harlem Globetrotters. He also played in the Eastern and ABL pro leagues before retiring in 1962.

Lou 'The Toe' Groza (Martins Ferry High School, Class of 1942)

The Purple Rider luminary is best known as a record-setting professional football placekicker, but he was much more.

In high school, he was a three-sport standout and All-Ohio in football and basketball. He was center, and the state tournament's leading scorer, on the 27-2 record Rider team which won the 1941 state Class A title. He also was a tackle on the 10-0-1 record 1941 football team which claimed an Ohio co-championship after a 14-14 tie with Toledo Libbey in a post-season challenge game. Groza, by the way, kicked only one field goal in high school.

He played football as a freshman at Ohio State before joining the armed services which preceded his 21-year career with the Cleveland Browns which ended in 1967.

When he retired, he was pro football's all-time leading scorer with only one TD and 1,609 points. He booted 234 field goals, with a long of 53 yards. He had conversion streak of 134 and scored in 107 straight games. The Lou Groza Award is given annually to college football's top placekicker.

A nine-time Pro Bowl offensive tackle, as well as kicker, he played in nine NFL title games, with four titles, and played on four All-American Conference title teams.

The Pro Football and Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Hall of Famer had his jersey No. 76 retired by the Browns. A portion of Route 7 is named for him in Martins Ferry.

Clarke Hinkle (Toronto High School, Class of 1926)

This versatile early era football player left such an impression on his alma mater that the Toronto High School Football Stadium behind the school is named in his honor.

The 5-11, 195-pound athlete also left an enduring imprint at Bucknell University, where he was inducted into the first Hall of Fame class, and in the National Football League. He was inducted, in 1964, in the second class of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He's also a member of the Halls of Fame for College Football and the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dans.

At Bucknell from 1929-31, he led the East in scoring with 128 points in 1929 and later his team to an unbeaten season in 1931. He then played in the East-West Game where he was selected the Most Outstanding Player.

From 1932-41, the Green Bay Packer star was one of the most versatile players in the National Football League. He was a fullback-linebacker-punter-placekicker, and was cited for his running, blocking, receiving, kicking and tackling.

Hinkle was first or second team all-league all 10 seasons and four-time All-Pro. He was on the NFL All-Time Two-Way team selected in 1994. One of the Packer practice fields is named in his honor.

When he retired, he was the leading rusher (3,860 yards on 1,171 carries) in NFL history and his totals now rank sixth in Packer history. He scored 379 career points and averaged 40.8 yards punting.

Calvin Jones (Steubenville High School, Class of 1952)

This two-sport Big Red standout was a high school basketball rival of fellow honoree Bevo Francis but is best known for football.

At Big Red, he helped the 1952 basketball team to a school-best 28-1 record and Ohio Class A runner-up finish. En route, Big Red handed the Francis-led Wellsville team its only two losses.

In football, the All-Ohio lineman selected the University of Iowa over Ohio State and went on to All-Big Ten Conference honors three times. He made 22 All-America teams at guard, including a record 15 in 1954. As team captain, he earned the Outland Trophy given to the nation's top interior lineman and became one of only two consensus All-America picks at Iowa, where he played both offense and defense.

A member of the College Football and Helms Athletic Foundation Halls of Fame, he was inducted into the first Iowa Hall of Fame class and is a member of the All-Time Hawkeye team. His jersey No. 62 was retired by Iowa, one of only two at the school.

He was the first African-American athlete pictured on the cover of Sports Illustrated.

LEGENDS OF OVAC SCHOOLS - 2006

Bernie Allen

Russ Craft

Carl Hamill

Bernie Mehen

Jule Rivlin

Legends of OVAC member schools honors those great athletes who played or coached in the Ohio Valley prior to the formation of the conference in 1943 or who played or coached after that date but before their school became a member of the conference.

Bernie Allen (East Liverpool High School, Class of 1957)

A 10-letter winner in three sports for the Potters, he was a quarterback-placekicker for the 8-2 record 1956 football team; a regular basketball player on team which upset unbeaten Steubenville in the sectional tournament; and an all-state baseball infielder. He played in the Ohio All-Star Baseball Game and was on winning Ohio football team in annual Ohio-West Virginia All-Star Game.

At Purdue University, he earned six letters as football quarterback and baseball shortstop and was team MVP in both sports and All-Big Ten in baseball.

Allen earned National Football Back of Week honors from The Associated Press and Sports Illustrated for play in upset of Ohio State. He was Purdue's Outstanding Senior Athlete for 1960-61.

Allen signed a pro baseball contract in 1961 with the Minnesota Twins. After spending one year in the minor leagues at Charlotte, N.C., he went on to a 12-year major league career from 1962-73 with the Twins, Washington Senators, New York Yankees and Montreal Expos. In 1962, he was runner-up to the Yankees' Tom Tresh for the American League Rookie of the Year honors. He batted .269 with 12 home runs in 1962. In 1972, he hit three home runs in the Hall of Fame game in Cooperstown, N.Y.

He's been inducted into four other halls of fame. In 1999, he became the fifth inductee into the Purdue Hall and was a charter inductee into the East Liverpool Hall of Fame. He's also in the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan and Lou Holtz Ohio Valley Halls of Fame.

Russ Craft (Wellsburg High School, Class of 1939)

He was a three-sport performer in football, basketball and baseball for the Orange Knights and earned All-Valley and All-State honors as a senior football back.

Craft played football, baseball and ran track at the University of Alabama, where he was a two-way back regular in football and earned second team All-Southeastern Conference honors.

Drafted in 1943 by the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League, he played eight seasons (1946-53) as a defensive back-kick returner and was selected to the All-Time Eagles' Team. He played on Eagles' teams which won NFL titles in 1948 and 1949 and finished second in 1947. He was named to the Pro Bowl in 1951 and 1952. He is tied for the current NFL record of four pass interceptions in one game against the Cardinals in 1950. He also blocked three Pittsburgh Steeler extra-point kicks in 1952 game and returned a kickoff for a ten team record 103 yards against the Rams in 1950.

Craft is credited as the first player in the NFL to wear the new hard plastic helmet in 1951. He ended his NFL career in two seasons as a player-assistant coach with the Steelers. In 1995, he was included in the NFL Films' presentation of the 100 Greatest Touchdowns in NFL History. It featured his defensive theft, and 20-yard TD return, of a pass reception caught by NFL Hall of Famer Elroy (Crazylegs) Hirsch of the Rams.

Craft is inducted into the W. Va. Sports Hall of Fame and the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Hall.

Carl Hamill (Linsly School, Class of 1922)

A legendary athlete and high school coach in the Ohio Valley, he was a three-sport standout at Linsly and Bethany College. An All-Valley football player, he also scored an unheard-of 330 points in 21 basketball games in 1920, a rare total in the center jump, low-scoring era.

From 1929-51, he was the three-sport coach at Weir High. His football teams scheduled top-notch programs from three states and went 166-35-13 including a 111-10 mark vs. Mountain State teams. He coached six unbeaten teams and four with only one loss. Three state titles were claimed in 1935, 1942 and 1949 when the Red Riders won the first-ever WVSSAC largest class state playoff title and the school narrowly missed a state title trifecta. Later that school year, he coached the 1950 baseball team to its second state one-class crown (the other was in 1945). The 1949-50 basketball team lost a 38-37 regional title game to unbeaten Wheeling High, which went on to win the championship. He was selected West Virginia "Coach of the Year" for high school and college all sports.

In basketball, he guided Weir to a 370-127 record and six state tournament berths. Weir was runner-up in 1942.

Hamill has been inducted into several halls of fame, including W. Va. Sports, Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan, Bethany College and was the first inductee into the Ohio Valley Football Coaches Hall. The annual Dapper Dan coaching award is named for him and he was one of three prominent Weirton community leaders pictured on a downtown mural. The Weir High Fieldhouse is named in his honor.

Bernie Mehen (Wheeling High School, Class of 1938)

The first Ohio Valley athlete to be selected first team all-state basketball three straight years, he led the Wildcats to W. Va. state titles in 1936 and 1938 including a 24-0 record in 1938.

During those three years that he was the leading scorer, Wheeling High was 65-4 under Hall of Fame coach Everett Brinkman. Mehen scored 1,193 points in 84 career games with many coming during the center jump, low scoring era.

He later earned All-America and All-Southeastern Conference recognition at the University of Tennessee, where he helped the Vols win the 1941 Southeastern Conference championship. After serving in World War II, where he was wounded, he played professionally with the Youngstown Bears and Toledo Jeeps.

He was inducted into the City of Wheeling Hall of Fame in 1992.

Jule Rivlin (Triadelphia High School, Class of 1935)

He was an all-state basketball guard in high school where he led the Triads to a 20-1 record in 1934. He also was the high-point scorer in the 1935 one-class state track meet where he won three gold medals. He timed 10.2 for 100 yards, 22.8 for 220 yards and was a member of the medley relay winning unit.

At Marshall College, he was one of the first guards to run the fast break offense for state Hall of Fame coach Cam Henderson and earned Little All-America honors while setting a school season scoring record with 530 points. He helped the Herd to two Buckeye Conference titles. He later coached the Marshall basketball team to two Mid America Conference titles.

He played professionally with the Toledo Jeeps and was player-coach of the Wheeling Blues from 1950-52.

In 1947, he was the Most Valuable Player in the World Tournament in Chicago which featured the nation's best pro teams including the Harlem Globetrotters.

He was a 1980 charter inductee into the City of Wheeling Hall of Fame and is a member of four other halls of fame, including W. Va. Sports, Marshall and Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan.

LEGENDS OF OVAC SCHOOLS - 2007

Rudy Baric

Mike Basrak

Les Carney

Charles 'Doc' Hartwig

Jim 'Monk' Moscrip

Legends of OVAC member schools honors those great athletes who played or coached in the Ohio Valley prior to the formation of the conference in 1943 or who played or coached after that date but before their school became a member of the conference.

Rudy Baric (Benwood Union High School, Class of 1938)

He was a first team All-W.Va. basketball honoree as a senior when the OVAC charter member school bowed to unbeaten Wheeling High in the section finals. As a junior, he helped the Ironmen to a state tournament berth and the school's best-ever record of 23-2.

At West Virginia University, the 6-3 center captained the 1942 team which won the National Invitation Tournament championship in New York's Madison Square Garden when the NIT was more prestigious than the NCAA Tournament. After a 16-4 regular season record, the Mountaineers were seeded last in the eight-team event before they upset top-seeded Long Island U., 52-49, in the first round. WVU then defeated Toledo, 51-39, and Western Kentucky, 47-45, before 17,000 fans in the finals. The team's only 6-footer was the team's leading rebounder and second-highest scorer and was selected tournament MVP. The three-year regular helped WVU to a 45-20 record.

In 1943, with WVU coach Dyke Raese in the armed services, Baric served as interim coach and guided WVU to a 14-7 record. He then went on to coach high school basketball for 19 years at Penns Grove, N. J., where his teams won more than 300 games.

A member of the All-Time WVU era team, he was inducted into the second WVU Hall of Fame class and is a W. Va. Sports HOF inductee.

Mike Basrak (Bellaire High School, Class of 1931)

The 6-3, 210-pound football center started 22 games in his Big Reds' career and earned All-Eastern Ohio and All-Valley honors before becoming the first college All-America player from Bellaire and the first in Duquesne University history. He started 30 games at Duquesne and was selected All-America by the A-A board, The Associated Press and other major selectors. Bellaire displayed its pride for its hometown hero by placing a 10-foot pictorial banner above the front entrance to the City Building.

In the second National Football League Draft of 1937, Basrak was the fifth overall league selection in the first round by the Pittsburgh Pirates, later renamed the Steelers. No other OVAC product has been drafted earlier than Basrak. Weirton's Bob Gain, inducted into the OVAC Hall in 2006, also was a fifth pick. Basrak played two seasons in the NFL.

Les Carney (Wintersville High School, Class of 1952)

A 10-letter winner in four sports — football, basketball, baseball and track — for the Warriors, the football running back played in only one losing game in three seasons for Coach Bob McFarren. Wintersville, however, didn't join the OVAC until 1955 after Carney accepted a scholarship to Ohio University.

As a sophomore OU running back, he earned honorable mention All-Mid American Conference for the MAC champions before being called to military service.

After returning, he led the Bobcats' track team to the 1958 and 1959 MAC titles while earning NCAA All-America honors as a senior. He held the NCAA 220-yard dash record of 20.8 seconds for one day. The two-time MAC 220-yard champion set a conference record which lasted 21 years. He also won the conference 100-yard crown with a 9.7-second clocking. At one time, he claimed all or parts of five school individual or relay records.

Carney was drafted by the NFL Baltimore Colts, but bypassed the offer for a job in his current hometown of Akron where he competed in AAU track meets. He earned a spot on the U.S. team for the 1959 Pan-American Games and won a silver medal at 200 meters.

In 1960, he placed third in the U.S. Olympic Trials at 200 meters and earned a spot on the U.S. team for the Rome Olympics. In the 200-meter finals, he earned a silver medal in a photo finish with hometown hero Livio Berutti of Italy, who set an Olympic record of 20.5 seconds. Carney's time of 20.6 would have won every previous Olympic final including the 1936 Games won by the legendary Jesse Owens in 20.7.

Charles 'Doc' Hartwig (Benwood Union High School, Class of 1930)

An All-Valley and All-West Virginia football lineman who went on to earn national fame and recognition at the University of Pittsburgh. He played for Coach Everett Brinkman at Union and helped the Ironmen to the school's first unbeaten season of 8-0 in 1928. At Pitt, he was selected team captain, starred in the 1933 Rose Bowl, and earned All-America honors in 1934 after coming back from an injury which forced him to miss his sophomore season. The 1934 Pitt team was acclaimed national champions. The three-year letterman played on Panther teams with a combined 24-3-2 record.

He also played in the East-West Shrine Game along with fellow honoree Jim Moscrip and Michigan's Gerald Ford, a future U.S. president.

Hartwig became a national hero when he was pictorially featured on a Wheaties cereal box, the only Ohio Valley athlete so honored.

He coached Moundsville High in 1938 and Martins Ferry High the next two years before returning to Pitt to join the athletic department.

Hartwig died in 1950 after a lingering illness and Benwood Union named its football field, Hartwig Field, after the school's only All-American.

Jim 'Monk' Moscrip (Adena High School, Class of 1931)

He earned 10 letters in three sports — football, basketball and baseball — and was an All-Eastern Ohio and All-Valley football end under Coach Fred Thomas. He led the 1930 football team to a 9-1-1 record as the Golden Wave outscored foes, 284-19. He also the MVP of the county basketball tournament.

After spending a year at Kiski Prep in Saltsburg, Pa., the 6-foot, 186-pounder became a three-year starter at Stanford University and played on the famed "Vow Boys" team — so named for vowing not to lose to Southern California during their career. Moscrip and teammates kept their promise and defeated USC three times and compiled a 25-4-2 record while becoming the first team to play in three straight Rose Bowls. Stanford won twice and Moscrip, a two-way end and placekicker, was MVP of the 1936 Rose Bowl win over SMU. He also played in the East-West Shrine Game.

He was selected by the old NFL Brooklyn Dodgers in the first NFL Draft in 1936, but his NFL career was two seasons with the Detroit Lions.

A member of the All-Time Stanford team, he was inducted into the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Hall of Fame and the College Football Hall of Fame.

LEGENDS OF OVAC SCHOOLS - 2008

Ernie Bell

John Blatnik

George Burgwin

Kenny Griffith

Jim Keane

Legends of OVAC member schools honors those great athletes who played or coached in the Ohio Valley prior to the formation of the conference in 1943 or who played or coached after that date but before their school became a member of the conference.

Ernie Bell (East Liverpool High School, Class of 1953).

He was a two-way line standout on the unbeaten 1952 Potter football team regarded as one of the best in school history.

The 160-pound guard was named to five All-Ohio first team selections, and an Ohio Lineman of the Year selection by the International News Service after the 9-0-1 record team was voted No. 3 in the final statewide poll.

The Potters defeated Cleveland West, Steubenville, New Philadelphia, Youngstown Rayen, Alliance, Martins Ferry, Salem, Ashtabula and Wellsville and tied Sandusky, 13-13.

Opposing teams found it almost impossible to keep Bell out of their backfield. Alliance quarterback Len Dawson, a future star at Purdue University and the Kansas City Chiefs, was sacked several times by Bell and he lauded the Potter defender as the best he faced all season.

Bell also blocked four punts in one game of his four-year career.

An inductee into the East Liverpool High School Hall of Fame, Bell also was a member of the winning North team in the annual Ohio North-South game.

John Blatnik (Bridgeport High School, Class of 1939).

He was a two-sport Bulldog standout who signed a pro baseball contract before his senior high school season. He was a member of two teams which advanced to the Ohio state basketball tournament in the largest Class A division.

The 1938 team, coached by Floyd Baker, defeated Bowling Green and Akron St. Vincent before bowing to eventual champion Newark in the semifinals. In 1939, under coach Stan Plummer, the Bulldogs defeated Akron Buchtel in the tournament before bowing to eventual champion Akron North in the quarterfinals.

Baseball was where Blatnik earned fame in high school and the pros, however. He competed for Coach Orville (Tubby) Edmundson in high school and played for the Fred Englehardt-coached Bridgeport National Bank Juniors in the summer. Between his junior and senior prep seasons, he worked out for six weeks with the Cleveland Indians and signed a contract with scout Bill Bradley but played his final high school season.

After graduation, he started his pro career with Greensburg, Pa., in the Class D Penn State League. He then competed, as a first baseman and outfielder, in Fargo, N.D., and Charleston, W.Va., before serving from 1942-46 in the Air Force. He returned to play in Harrisburg and Wilkes-Barre, Pa., before being called up by the Philadelphia Phillies. He competed for the Phillies and St. Louis Cardinals for two full seasons, plus minor league stops, from 1948-56 before retiring from baseball.

George 'Puck' Burgwin (Steubenville High School, Class of 1933).

A legendary early era four-sport Big Red who set school and Ohio Valley football rushing records while playing for 31-3 record teams against top tri-state competition from 1929-32.

He was the anchor of the 9-0 record, unscored-upon Big Red team of 1930 and a program which reeled off an OV record 17 straight shutout wins. As a junior, he rushed for 2,126 yards and scored 196 points in nine games — both Big Red records after 75 years and OV standards for six decades.

His career totals of 541 points and 5,614 rushing yards are both Big Red school records.

A two-way football player and kicker, he also excelled in track, baseball and basketball and some of his school track records lasted until the early 1950s. He played one college season for Western Reserve before leaving school and played in 1947-48 for the Steubenville semi-pro team. He's inducted into the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Hall of Fame.

Burgwin died of a heart attack at age 37 in 1951.

Kenny Griffith (Wellsburg High School, Class of 1937).

He was a senior standout on the 1937 Orange team which won its first, and only, OVAA championship with an 18-1 regular season record. It ended a school-best 22-2 season, under coach Reed Clark, in the regional finals with a loss to Benwood Union.

He enrolled at Alderson-Broadbent College, where he became a national scoring sensation under Coach Rex Pyles. He broke the national career scoring record of 1,596 points set by national Hall of Famer Hank Luisetti of Stanford by scoring 1,941 points in four seasons. Griffith led the nation in scoring his last two seasons (1940 with a 23.9 average and 1941 at 22.0) and became the first West Virginia Conference player to average 20 points for a season.

In 1941, the small college All-American became the first state basketball player to be selected the W. Va. Amateur Athlete of the Year. He also competed in a national All-Star game in Chicago.

An Alderson-Broadbent Hall of Famer who is featured on the walls of the school gymnasium, he was selected to the all-time West Virginia Conference team. After college, the 6-foot-2 Griffith played briefly in 1942 with the pro Akron Goodyears.

Jim Keane (Linsly Military Institute, Class of 1941).

The Bellaire native was a six-sport Cadet letterman in football, basketball, track, golf, tennis and boxing. He earned All-Valley honors in football and received a football scholarship to the University of Iowa. He finished his career at Northwestern University in Chicago.

A 6-foot-4, 208-pound end, he was drafted in the 18th round by the Chicago Bears in 1945 and played seven seasons in the National Football League — the first six with the Bears and one with the Green Bay Packers. In his rookie season, the Bears defeated the New York Giants, 24-14 in the NFL championship game.

In his second season, he led the NFL in pass receiving with 64 catches for 910 yards and 10 touchdowns in 12 games.

His seven-year, 81-game NFL career included 224 pass receptions for 3,222 yards and 24 touchdowns.

LEGENDS OF OVAC SCHOOLS - 2009

Tom Kinkade

Fred Negus

Charley Seabright

Nick Skorich

Moffat
Storer

Legends of OVAC member schools honors those great athletes who played or coached in the Ohio Valley prior to the formation of the conference in 1943 or who played or coached after that date but before their school became a member of the conference.

Tom Kinkade (Toronto High School, Class of 1938)

He was a football and basketball standout for the Red Knights before excelling in football at Ohio State University.

As a senior in high school, he led Toronto to a school record 19-2 record with only a regular season split with Weir High marring an unbeaten season. The 1938 team advanced to the regional tournament finals, the farthest in school history, before bowing, 50-49 to state tournament-bound Bridgeport.

The 6-foot-1, 190-pound Kinkade was selected All-Ohio by The Associated Press and led all scorers with a 25-point average. Toronto averaged 53 points a game.

In a 82-31 rout of Midland, Pa., Kinkade scored a school record 52 points on 23 goals and six free throws. It was the second highest Ohio Valley effort at the time and lasted as a school record for 30 years.

A quarterback in football, he was recruited by Ohio State and was a three-year letterman and two-way regular as a running back-linebacker on teams which finished 6-2 and Big Ten Conference champions in 1939 and 6-1-1 in 1941 under first-year coach Paul Brown. He was drafted by the Green Bay Packers in 1942, but opted not to play pro football.

Fred Negus (Martins Ferry High School, Class of 1940)

He was a three-sport, three-year Purple Rider athlete in football, basketball and baseball and earned All-Valley honors as a junior center and senior full-back while serving as team captain in two sports.

After a year in prep school, he played football two years at the University of Wisconsin and earned All-Big Ten as a sophomore center on an 8-1-1 record team ranked No. 3 in the nation. After enlisting in the Marine Corp Reserve, he earned All-Big Ten center as a junior at the University of Michigan and also lettered in track. After a year in the active U.S. Marine Corp where he competed on the Marines' football team, he was drafted by the NFL's Cleveland Rams, but opted to return to the University of Wisconsin. He earned his third All-Big Ten first center honors and competed for the College All-Star team against the Chicago Bears.

After college, he played three seasons in Chicago in the All-American Football Conference and the 1950 season with the Chicago Bears.

In 1998, he was inducted into the University of Wisconsin Athletic Hall of Fame. In 2005, he died at age 83 in Fort Atkinson, Wis.

Charley Seabright (Benwood Union High School, Class of 1937)

He was a three-sport standout in football, basketball and baseball at old Benwood Union High, earning All-West Virginia one-class honors in football and basketball and was All-Valley in football. As a senior, he led the Ironmen to a school-best 23-2 basketball record and sectional and regional titles plus a state tournament berth. During that run, the Ironmen ended a 33-game winning streak of defending state champion Wheeling.

At West Virginia University, he earned seven letters and is one of only 12 athletes in school history to earned letters in football, basketball and baseball. A three-year starter as blocking back, single-wing quarterback and linebacker, he also batted .300 as a left-handed baseball first baseman and played guard in basketball.

He was selected to the WVU football all-time decade team (1940-49) and was a 2004 inductee into the WVU Sports Hall of Fame. In 1977, he was inducted into the West Virginia Sports Hall of Fame.

In 1941, Seabright played with the NFL's Cleveland Rams before serving in the U.S. Army. After the war, he played five seasons (1946-50) as one of the last two-way offensive-defensive players in the NFL as blocking back-linebacker with the Pittsburgh Steelers. He started on the 8-4 record 1947 team regarded as the best in team history prior to the 1970s. He was selected in the 1970s on an All-Time Steeler Defensive Team.

After residing and working in the Ohio Valley for three decades, he died in 1981.

Nick Skorich (Bellair High School, Class of 1939)

He was a three-sport Big Reds' athlete in football, basketball and track and earned All-Valley honors as a football center while playing on three teams which won titles in the OVAA, the forerunner of the OVAC. The three teams had records of 9-1, 8-2 and 9-1.

He earned a football scholarship to the University of Cincinnati where he was team captain as a senior and earned honors on the All-Ohio college selections.

Skorich was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1943 before serving in the U.S. Navy. After military service, he played three seasons as guard for the Steelers before turning to coaching — first in high school before serving as an assistant with the Steelers, Green Bay and Philadelphia before becoming Eagles' head coach for three seasons. He then joined the Cleveland Browns' staff and became the Browns' head coach from 1971-74. After leaving Cleveland, he capped his career as supervisor of officials for the National Football League. He died in 2004.

Moffat Storer (The Linsly School, Class of 1939)

He was a three-sport Cadet standout in football, basketball and track where he set the longest-lasting Ohio Valley and W. Va. record in the 100-yard dash.

An All-Valley fullback, he helped Linsly to 7-2 and 9-2 records as a sophomore and junior but is best known for his record-setting first place finish in the 1939 Intelligencer Tri-State Track Meet, the most prestigious meet in the area at the time. He clocked 9.7 seconds for 100 yards which remained on the OV record books for four decades and was the best-ever in West Virginia until 1972.

He continued his football and track career at Duke University where he was a starting back in the 1942 Rose Bowl game against Oregon State. It was played in Durham, N.C., the only time outside Pasadena, Calif., because of World War II in the Pacific. He also starred on the Blue Devils' track team and led the sprint relay unit to a victory in the prestigious Penn Relays.

Storer was drafted by the NFL Chicago Cardinals but, after graduation, served in the armed forces.

He lived in Chattanooga, Tenn., for several years, and is deceased.

LEGENDS OF OVAC SCHOOLS - 2010

Floyd Baker

Carl Hoppel

Dick Mehen

Will Robinson

Jack Simons

Legends of OVAC member schools honors those great athletes who played or coached in the Ohio Valley prior to the formation of the conference in 1943 or who played or coached after that date but before their school became a member of the conference.

Floyd Baker — The graduate of Wittenberg University left his boys' basketball coaching imprint on the Ohio Valley from 1932-45. He put Bridgeport High on the roundball map during a golden era from 1934-40 when the Bulldogs had three straight 20-win seasons (20-5, 27-4 and 23-3, all by Baker), five sectional crowns (three by Baker), and four straight Ohio state tournament berths (three by Baker), reaching the semifinals in 1936 and 1938, a team that included OVAC Legend John Blatnik. His seven-year Bulldog coaching record was 118-56. Baker then moved over to rival Martins Ferry, where he enjoyed even more success and became the only area coach to guide two different schools to the Ohio state tournament, highlighted by the 1941 Ohio championship squad. He started the Purple Riders' golden era in basketball, which lasted from 1939-54 and included 12 sectional titles, six by Baker-coached teams. His final six Ferry teams won more than 20 games. From 1941-45, his teams went 122-9. That included the 29-2 record title team of 1941, led by Hall of Famer Lou Groza, and followed by records of 22-3, 24-1, 25-1 and 21-2. A 33-game winning streak ended in 1942. The 1944 team (26-1), led by Hall of Famer Alex Groza, won the first OVAC Class AA title. His seven-year Ferry record was 159-21. Baker's 14-year Ohio Valley coaching record was 277-77, with seven Ohio state tournament berths and the 1941 Ohio largest Class A championship. He left Ferry for a job in Richmond, Ind.

Carl Hoppel (Beaver Local High School, Class of 1962). The youngest of five sons to Everett and Lee Hoppel, a famous wrestling family known throughout Ohio, he became the first freshman to win an Ohio wrestling championship in 1959. Had it not been for a highly-disputed takedown in the last few seconds of his semifinal match as a sophomore, where he placed third, he could have been a four-time state champion. He went on to win Ohio titles as a junior and senior to become a three-time champion. Hoppel, who also played football at Beaver, was never pinned in four years and finished his career with a 99-2 won-loss record and three state championships. He was honored at the 2000 Ohio State Wrestling Tournament as one of the Top 15 "Greatest Ohio High School Wrestlers." For 10 straight years, from 1953-62, the five Hoppel brothers competed in the Ohio State Tournament and had 12 state placers including six champions — three by the youngest son, Carl. The four oldest sons competed for East Liverpool High. Carl Hoppel, a retired businessman, was once owner of Hoppel Enterprises, Hoppel Block and Brick and co-owner of West Point Electric.

Dick Mehen (Wheeling High School, Class of 1940). He and older brother Bernie Mehen, who was honored as an OVAC Legend in 2006, became the first two West Virginia basketball players to earn all-class, first team all-state basketball honors three times. The 6-foot-5 center was honored as all-state captain in 1940 when the Wildcats went 23-1 and won the second state title in three years and also claimed the OVAA championship. The OVAA was a conference forerunner of the OVAC.

In 1938, when both Dick and Bernie Mehen started for the Wildcats, Wheeling High went 24-0 and won a state title for Coach Everett Brinkman, an OVAC Legends charter selection. The Wildcats went 64-3 in the three years that Dick Mehen was a starter.

As a senior, Mehen scored 556 points to lead the Ohio Valley, and probably the state of West Virginia, and ended his prep career with more than 1,300 points, a high total for that era.

Dick joined Bernie at the University of Tennessee and earned two first team All-Southeastern Conference honors and was second team All-America. He then played five years of pro basketball in the pre-NBA era, including the Toledo Jeeps coached by Triadelphia High product and OVAC Legend, Jule Rivlin.

Will Robinson (Steubenville High School, Class of 1933). A five-sport Big Red letterman in football, basketball, baseball and track, he was the "T" quarterback on the 1930 9-0 record football team which was unbeaten, untied and unscored-upon and also featured OVAC Legend George (Puck) Burgwin. Big Red went 26-1 in his three years at quarterback.

He was also a fine golfer, placing second in the Ohio state tournament. At West Virginia State, Robinson captained three teams in three sports, won 12 varsity letters, and quarterbacked the 1936 national Negro championship team. He became a legendary high school coach in Detroit where his 28 teams won 85 percent of their games while producing numerous college and pro athletes at Cass Tech and Pershing High School.

In 1970, he became the first black to become head basketball coach at a major university — Illinois State — where he coached Olympian and NBA player Doug Collins. After five winning seasons, he returned to Detroit to join the NBA Pistons' staff as a scout.

He's also a member of several Halls of Fame including W. Va. State, Illinois State, Michigan Sports Hall, and Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dans. He died, at age 96, in 2008.

Jack Simons (New Cumberland High School, Class of 1920). He has held the Ohio Valley single-season football scoring record for 90 years. In 1919, he scored 38 touchdowns and 60 extra points for a record 288 points. He was a four-year, four-sport (football, basketball, baseball, track) performer at the school which was merged, along with Chester and Newell, into the current Oak Glen High School. He became the first New Cumberland athlete, in 1919, to earn first team all-state football honors.

At West Virginia University, he was a four-year starter (1920-23) at halfback and fullback as well as linebacker. He started on the 10-0-1 record 1922 team, the only unbeaten team in school history. He was captain of the 7-1-1 record 1923 team and is a member of the 1919-29 all-time WVU decade team.

In 1924, he spent one year as player-coach of the professional Steubenville Pros. He also became athletic director and started the football program at old St. Francis High School in 1931 and coached until 1938 including two 9-0 record teams. Simons has been inducted into the WVU Sports Hall of Fame and the W. Va. State Sports Hall of Fame. He died, at age 96, in 1997 in Morgantown, where he operated an insurance agency.

LEGENDS OF OVAC SCHOOLS - 2011

Bob Bentz

'Punque' Cartledge

Jim Jordan

Cas Myslinski

Norman
Willey

Legends of OVAC member schools honors those great athletes who played or coached in the Ohio Valley prior to the formation of the conference in 1943 or who played or coached after that date but before their school became a member of the conference.

Bob Bentz (Beaver Local High School, Class of 1972). In high school, he dominated the area and Ohio distance running scene while setting school 1,600- and 3,200-meter school records which remain on the books.

He became the first sub-nine minute 3,200-meter runner in Ohio history (8:58) and his 4:20 time in the 1,600 remains on the school record books. As a junior, he won the Ohio Class AA cross country title and placed second in the state meet 2-mile run.

As a senior, Bentz was undefeated in cross country and track while setting an Ohio two-mile record. He earned All-America status by placing third with a time of 8:58.4 for two miles at the High School Track & Field National Meet in Baton Rouge, La.

Recruited by the University of Tennessee, he led the Vols to four unbeaten cross country seasons, four Southeastern Conference titles and the 1972 NCAA title. In track, his teams won three SEC crowns and the 1974 NCAA championship. He contributed to 11 SEC titles in four cross country and track seasons while earning All-SEC honors.

Charles "Punque" Cartledge (Steubenville High School, Class of 1912). The first area inductee into the Ohio Football Coaches Hall of Fame and the initial honoree in the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Hall of Fame, he put Big Red football on the area and Ohio maps with a 22-year record of 140-38-11 from 1916-40.

His teams outscored foes by 3,772-870 and dealt famed Massillon its worst loss ever, 68-0, in 1931. That team was led by OVAC Hall of Fame Legends George (Puck) Burgwin and Will Robinson. The Big Red schedule during that era included top team from around Ohio and western Pennsylvania.

In a pre-playoff era, his Big Red teams were acclaimed Ohio state champions five times (1925, 1926, 1930, 1931, 1935). He coached seven unbeaten teams and three one-loss squads.

From 1922-26, Big Red was unbeaten in 45 games against high school teams, with a lone defeat in 1924 to the Carnegie College freshmen. They had 35 shutouts in 46 games. In 1930-31 seasons, they had an Ohio Valley record 17 straight shutouts.

He also coached Big Red basketball to a 181-139 record from 1919-39 and also coached the tennis team.

As a high school senior (1911-12), he captained Big Red football, basketball and baseball teams and was a football quarterback. He died in 1978.

Jim Jordan (Chester High School, Class of 1943). A 6-foot-3, 195-pound basketball center, he was selected captain of the 1943 one-class West Virginia All-State team after leading Chester to a 20-4 record. Two of the losses, including the regional tournament, were to 26-1 record state champion Wheeling High.

In five years of college play, Jordan competed for four conference championship teams. Enrolled in the Navy V-12 program at Mount St. Marys (Md.) College, he was the leading scorer in the Mason-Dixon Conference.

He enrolled at the University of North Carolina in the Naval ROTC program and earned second team and first team All-America honors in two seasons with the Tar Heels. The 1946 UNC team finished as NCAA runner-up to Oklahoma A&M. He was the only unanimous choice for All-Southern Conference and led the league in scoring. Featured on a Tar Heel trading card of basketball legends, his jersey No. 8 hangs from the rafters of the Dean Smith Center.

Jordan finished his college career with two seasons at the University of Kentucky and played on the Wildcats' 1947 NIT title team and the 1948 NCAA championship squad led by fellow OVAC Hall of Famer and All-American, Alex Groza of Martins Ferry. Both Groza and Jordan were later selected to the All-Time Ohio Valley Pre-1950 team by The Intelligencer.

Jordan, who died in 1999, was an attorney in Chester for 35 years.

Casimir Myslinski (Steubenville High School, Class of 1941). In high school, he was a football running back and captain of the 1940 Big Red team, the final one for fellow OVAC Legend honoree Charles (Punque) Cartledge.

He entered West Point in the last pre-World War II class and under the stepped-up wartime program, he graduated in three years with a B.S. in engineering.

He served as captain of the 1943 Army team and earned the Most Valuable Player award while being named to every first team All-America selection as a 6-foot, 195-pound center. He also received the Knute Rockne Award as the nation's outstanding lineman in 1943.

After graduation in 1944, Myslinski entered the Air Force and returned to West Point in administration in 1952. In 1956, he became head of the Physical Education Department at the Air Force Academy and from 1968-82, he served as Athletic Director at the University of Pittsburgh.

He was selected Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Man of the Year in 1977.

Myslinski died in 1993.

Norman "Wild Man" Willey (Pine Grove High School, Class of 1945). He is the Ohio Valley's most prominent product of the old six-man football teams at the smaller enrollment schools.

The 6-foot-2, 225-pound athlete played football, basketball and baseball for the Tornados.

After high school, he enrolled for one year in the U.S. Navy and briefly attended Salem College before enrolling at Marshall College, where he played football and basketball.

A fullback-defensive end in football, he was drafted in the 13th round by the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles, where he played eight seasons from 1950-57. He was a two-time Pro Bowl selection and is a member, along with Reggie White, as a defensive end on the All-Time Eagles' honor roll.

Willey is credited as the reason the NFL started charting defensive sacks after it was reported he was unofficially credited with 17 sacks against New York Giants' quarterback Charley Conerly on Oct. 26, 1952. He earned the nickname "Wild Man" from his pass rushing resulting in opponents' yardage losses.

An inductee into the Marshall and West Virginia State Sports Halls of Fame, he was honored in Pine Grove with a "Norman Willey Day" on Sept. 15, 2006. Signs proclaiming "Home of Wild Man Willey" were erected at the entrance to the town as well as at Valley High School.

LEGENDS OF OVAC SCHOOLS - 2012

Tony Carna

Jim George

Carter Howell

Dave Jones

Kenny Mikes

Legends of OVAC member schools honors those great athletes who played or coached in the Ohio Valley prior to the formation of the conference in 1943 or who played or coached after that date but before their school became a member of the conference.

Tony Carna (Caldwell High School, Class of 1987). He is one of only four boys to win three Ohio cross country championships and led the star of the most successful team program in state history. He captured individual Class A titles from 1984-86 and had a winning senior time of 15:44.2. The Redskins started a record run of eight straight state team titles, with Carna the main cog in the first two crowns of 1985 and 1986. The 1986 team went unbeaten with a 137-0 mark and was ranked No. 1 in the nation by The Harrier publication, with Carna as an All-American selection.

He was a nine-time All-Ohioan in cross country and track, claiming two Ohio state crowns —the 1,600-meters as a junior and 3,200-meters as senior. His personal best times were 4:18 at 1,600; 8:38 at 3,000; 9:18 at 3,200; and 15:12 at 5,000 meters. He also set a national meet record in the 5,000-meter run in the 15-16 age group at The Athletics Congress (TAC) Junior Olympics in 1985.

Carna earned a scholarship to the University of Michigan where he won eight varsity letters in track and cross country and was an All-Big Ten and All-American honoree. He led the Wolverines to sixth place in the 1991 NCAA Division I National Cross Country Meet, where he finished 21st in individual competition. He resides in Jersey City, New Jersey.

Jim George (Smithfield High School, Class of 1950). A three-sport Spartan, he was a 190-pound fullback-tackle-end who was selected to the first All-Ohio Associated Press Class B team in 1949 and also was an All-Ohio Class B honorable mention basketball honoree as well as a baseball standout. The two-time All-Eastern Ohio football player led the Spartans to a school record 22-game win streak with a 22-1-1 record from 1947-49 including unbeaten seasons in 1947-48. As a senior, the Spartans opened the season with a 40-6 victory over the Massillon reserve team before playing their regular varsity schedule. He also started for the winning Ohio team in the 1950 Ohio-West Virginia All-Star Game.

In basketball, he led the Spartans to a 22-3 record —second best in school history — and the Jefferson County title.

He accepted a football scholarship to Syracuse University, where he was a three-year letterman and regular for the Orangemen. He became the only Smithfield product drafted by the National Football League when he was selected by the Detroit Lions. He opted to join the Air Force.

Carter Howell (Flushing High School, Class of 1955). The 6-foot-5 center led the Orioles to the two best seasons (43-3 combined record) in school history, including an unbeaten regular season in 1954 and an overall 21-2 mark in 1955. A four-year starter, he scored 905 points — second most in area history at the time — as a senior for a then Ohio Valley record 39.3 points per game norm after sporting a 40.2 average in regular season. He scored 74 points against New Athens —second best in Ohio Valley history at the time — and also had games of 58 and 55 points. In the 118-52 rout of New Athens, he hit 26 of 37 goals and 22 of 30 free throws.

A two-time All-Eastern Ohio selection, he also was honored on the 1955 five-player first team All-Ohio Class B selections by the three major wire services.

The four-year basketball regular ended his career with what was then a Belmont County record 1,961 points including 905 and 513 his last two seasons.

Howell, who also played on the Orioles' six-man football team and baseball team, enrolled at West Virginia State before joining the armed services. He returned to Flushing where he served as mayor for two years before passing away in 1990.

Dave Jones (Jewett-Scio High School, Class of 1981). The 6-foot-2 basketball guard led the Ohio Valley in scoring his last two seasons with averages of 33.6 and 32.1 points and he scored a Harrison County record 1,885 career points. He had a game high 50 points twice and averaged 12 rebounds a game as a senior.

A two-time first team All-Valley captain, he was Ohio Class A player of the Year and first team All-Ohio as a senior and second team as a junior. His basketball jersey was retired by the school and is displayed in the Scio Museum. In 1982, he was selected to the All-Time Ohio Valley Post-1950 Team by The Intelligencer newspaper.

A three-sport, 11-letter winner, he was an All-Valley selection at end as a junior when he led the "Small Schools" with 51 receptions for 766 yards. In track, he cleared 6-foot-7 as a high jumper.

Jones accepted a basketball scholarship to Ohio State where he was a four-year letterman and one of three seniors featured on the cover of the 1984-85 OSU Media Guide. He was a full-time starter as a senior and part-time regular as a junior.

He resides in Manhattan Beach, Calif.

Ken Mikes (Sistersville High School, Class of 1954). The only Tiger to earn all-state recognition in football, basketball and baseball, he led the 1953 football team to a 10-0-1 record and the first state title (Class B) in school history. Playing for OVAC Hall of Fame coach George Strager, he starred in the 27-12 state title game victory over Romney. He was selected first team Class B All-State as well as co-captain of the All-Valley "Small School" team. He also started for West Virginia's winning team over Ohio in the annual Ohio-West Virginia All-Star Game. He was accorded National All-American High School Team honors.

In basketball, he led the Tigers to a 22-2 record as a senior, the school's best mark at the time, and he scored 582 points for a 23-point average. He had a game high of 44 points against Pine Grove. Mikes was selected the state Player of the Year at the Tri-State Independent Basketball Tournament in Sistersville.

In baseball, he was a pitcher-shortstop and helped the Tigers to their first ever one-class sectional championship.

Recruited by numerous major colleges for football, he enrolled at Purdue and was a three-year letterman and two-year regular as a two-way back and punter. He led The Big Ten in punting as a senior and was fourth in the nation with a 41.2-yard average. He was featured in Sports Illustrated for a major role in Purdue's upset of No. 1 ranked Michigan State, 20-13 in 1957, and is also featured in a book entitled "The Greatest Moments in Purdue Football History."

Mikes played on the winning (21-20) North team in the North-South Shrine All-Star Game.

He declined offers to try out for NFL teams and served in the armed forces. He resides in Parkersburg.

LEGENDS OF OVAC SCHOOLS - 2013

John 'Zip' Behen

Ken Cunningham

Russell 'Tuss' Edwards

Bob Hugh

Joel Jones

Legends of OVAC member schools honors those great athletes who played or coached in the Ohio Valley prior to the formation of the conference in 1943 or who played or coached after that date but before their school became a member of the conference.

John 'Zip' Behen (Cambridge High School, Class of 1918). The former Bobcat was one of the first 1,000-point scorers in Ohio, and Ohio Valley, hoops history. He finished his four-year high school career with 1,271 points, which still ranks fifth on the all-time Bobcat scoring charts.

In his senior season, Behen rewrote school and Ohio Valley records by scoring 68 points against Woodsfield. The mark remains as the Bobcats' single-game school record and was the standard for Ohio Valley schools until Yorkville's Ken Alessi, a charter member of the OVAC Hall of Fame, broke the record with 70 points in 1949 versus Shadyside.

Behen wound up with 454 points as a senior while leading the Bobcats to a second straight 18-2 record.

As a junior, he scored 386 points. His sophomore total for a 10-10 record team was 302 points. He started his career as a freshman with 129 points for a 16-2 record squad. During his four-year career, the Bobcats posted a combined 62-16 record.

Behen played one season at West Virginia University, lettering as a freshman forward and scoring 123 points for an 8.2 per game average.

In 2007, Cambridge High School retired Behen's jersey number 18.

Ken Cunningham (East Liverpool High School, Class of 1961). A three-sport Potter athlete, he earned All-Ohio honors in basketball and football and was the Ohio High School Basketball Player of the Year selection for 1960-61 by The Associated Press, the only Potter ever accorded the honor. He also was selected to the Scholastic Coach All-American team.

During his prep career, Cunningham became the Potters' all-time leading scorer in basketball, including a school-record 41 points in a game while scoring 439 season points for a 24-point per game average. He also led the Potters in scoring as a sophomore and junior.

In football, he was a quarterback-defensive back and earned All-Ohio and team Most Valuable Player honors in 1960 while also being honored on the All-Eastern Ohio and All-County selections. He also played three baseball seasons for the Potters.

He accepted a basketball scholarship to the 1961 NCAA national champion University of Cincinnati and the Bearcats repeated as titlist in 1962 when he was a freshman. As a sophomore on the varsity, Cincinnati went 26-2 and finished as NCAA runner-up to Loyola-Chicago.

Cunningham led the Bearcats in assists as a junior and the three-year letterman was elected team captain as a senior.

He later returned to Cincinnati as an assistant coach and was head coach at Akron University for three seasons before leaving the coaching ranks. He currently resides in Stow, Ohio.

Russell 'Tuss' Edwards (Martins Ferry High School, Class of 1923). He was an honored, record-setting Purple Rider athlete who served as team captain of football, basketball and baseball as a senior. He was an All-Valley halfback as a senior after two years as an All-Valley end. In his senior season, he set record which was listed as an Ohio Valley record for several years. He scored 56 points on eight touchdowns plus eight conversion kicks in an 81-0 blanking of Coshocton.

Edwards enrolled at Washington & Jefferson College, then a "major college" football power under coach John Heisman, for whom the Heisman Trophy is named. He played his final three years as a regular end for coaches Allie Miller and Andy Kerr. As a senior, he was All-East and earned some second team All-America honors.

After rejecting an offer to play pro football with the Philadelphia Yellow Jackets, he returned to the Ohio Valley to coach high school at Adena, Warwood and Linsly. At Adena, his 1927 football team went 10-0, the girls' basketball team was 18-0 and the boys' hoop team had a winning season. He coached OVAC Legends honoree Jim (Monk) Moscrip, a Stanford University All-American who started in three Rose Bowls, at Adena. His 1930 Linsly boys' basketball team took a 21-0 record to Chicago to compete in the National Scholastic Basketball Tournament. The Cadets won two games before bowing in the quarterfinals.

He helped found the Wheeling Midget Baseball League in 1950 and served as president from 1953-68. He was named Wheeling Jaycees' Citizen of the Year in 1956. In 1984, he was inducted into the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Hall of Fame.

Bob Hugh (Scio High School, Class of 1950). The most honored athlete in Scio High history, he set school and Harrison County basketball scoring records which remain six decades later. He was the second Eastern Ohio athlete to twice earn first team, five-player Associated Press All-Ohio Class B honors (the first was one year earlier by OVAC charter Hall of Famer Ken Alessi of Yorkville). He was the second-leading Ohio Class B scorer both his junior and senior years. He scored 744 points in 30 games as a junior, second best in Ohio to Alessi. Hugh scored 1,386 points in 55 games for an average of 25 points during his last two seasons.

The 6-foot-3 forward scored a school, and current Harrison County, record 60 points in a 96-50 win over New Athens. He also scored 50 in an earlier 96-36 rout of New Athens.

In his senior season, he led the Panthers to their best-ever season of 24-1. Scio won its first 24 games, and the Harrison County and sectional tournaments, before bowing to Strasburg in the district. In his four seasons on the varsity, Scio went 88-13 with records of 24-1, 26-4 and a regional tourney berth, 22-5 and 16-3.

Hugh also played on the Scio six-man football team which went unbeaten (9-0) in 1949 and 8-0 in 1947. The four-year record was 26-5-1.

He played freshman basketball at Ohio University.

Joel Jones (Weirton Dunbar High School, Class of 1954). The first graduate of a segregated high school to be honored by the OVAC, he was a three-season football standout for the Raiders before competing in the Big Ten Conference as a member of a nationally-ranked Michigan State University team.

At Dunbar, the 6-foot-1, 215-pound Jones was a fullback for Coach Jim Wares from 1950-53 and served as captain of the once-beaten 1953 teams which defeated the other Ohio Valley segregated school, Lincoln of Wheeling, twice by 28-6 and 19-0. He was the team's leading scorer and ground-gainer his last two seasons and was a multiple-year all-star.

In an era when many college athletic teams were segregated, his talents were noticed by scouts from Penn State, Indiana and West Virginia State, then a national contender in the black college ranks. He enrolled on his own at Michigan State and walked on to the football team. In his four seasons at the school, the Spartans played in two Rose Bowl games including the 17-14 win over UCLA on Jan. 1, 1956 with Jones at defensive end. He lettered two seasons and played guard and tackle in the fall of 1956 when he earned some all-star recognition.

The Spartans were 9-1 in 1955 and 7-2 in 1956 with Jones in the lineup.

After college, he remained in Michigan, where he currently resides, as a high school educator and was a counselor at Henry Ford High School in Detroit.
