You name the sport and David Easterling probably coached it during his 32-year teaching career at Shenandoah High School.

However, it was basketball that was Easterling's true love and where his passion resided.

Easterling spent 35 years coaching basketball at all levels, including junior high, freshmen and jayvee.

Because of his dedication and longevity, Easterling is being recognized with the Bob Burton Distinguished Service Award.

Easterling, who graduated from Skyvue High School in 1979, earned a degree in business administration from Alderson-Broadus in 1983. Four years later, he decided to pursue education and earned a certification in special education from Ohio University. He was hired that same year as an intervention specialist at Shenandoah and remained there his entire career.

Easterling compiled a record of 309-174 coaching at the aforementioned three levels. He was recognized as the District 12 Boys Assistant Coach of the Year following the 2008 season and he also received the prestigious Bob Arnzen Longevity Award through the Ohio Basketball Coaches Association.

As the Zeps' softball coach, he guided his club to a PVC and sectional title before it bowed out in the district final. He also coached junior high football before ascending to the varsity level. He remains involved with Shenandoah football as the team's videographer.

David and his wife, Danielle, reside in Woodsfield.

Butch Antill got into officiating simply because of the love of the game and his interest in helping young people in any way shape or form.

That's the rationale a lot of long-time officials have taken. That approach, mindset and his on-court career have earned Antill the Richard Dawson Officials Award.

Antill, who is a 1956 graduate of Shadyside High School, began officiating boys and girls basketball in 1970. He spent 20 years wearing the stripes and earned the right to work sectional and district games in Ohio as well as sectional and regional assignments in West Virginia.

Butch married his wife, Annie Trolley, in 1964 and they have two sons — David and Todd. Both of their sons were standout athletes at Shadyside and each scored 1,000-plus points in their prep careers.

During the course of his coaching career, Mike Podlasiak was well-traveled.

And one thing that the former Woodsfield High athletic standout brought with him to each stop was success. Podlasiak made stops at Meadowbrook, Coshocton, Caldwell, Union Local and then at Caldwell once again as the girls coach before retiring after the 2011 season.

Today, the OVAC All-Star Basketball Game recognizes Podlasiak for his success and longevity with the Earl Haberfield Boys Coaching Award.

Podlasiak began his coaching career in 1978, working at the junior high level at Meadowbrook under the man for whom this award is named ... Earl Haberfield.

In 1981, Podlasiak ascended to the role of head coach, serving as two seasons. He was at Coshocton from 1989-92 when he came to Caldwell and was head coach until 1998. In 2000, he accepted the job at Union Local and held the position for three seasons. He was out of coaching for a stint and then got back with the Caldwell girls from 2008-11.

All told, Coach "Plaz" racked up a record of 197-174 and advanced to the district tournament four times and twice got to within a game of the regional tournament.

Along with his basketball coaching, he was a head baseball coach for 14 years and spent 10 years as an athletics director. If all of that wasn't enough, Podlasiak, who owns a degree from West Liberty, was a registered baseball and softball umpire for 27 years.

Mike and his wife, Mary Lou, currently reside in Caldwell.

Erin DeSantis has experienced plenty of success in sports both as a player and coach.

The 1979 Wintersville High School graduate is being recognized as the recipient of the Richard Saffield Girls Basketball Coach Award because of a career at Indian Creek in which she held the post for nearly a decade until retiring after the 2016 season.

DeSantis' teams won three consecutive OVAC championships from 2008-10 and was named OVAC Basketball Coach of the Year multiple times.

Along with basketball, DeSantis experienced great success as the Redskins volleyball coach, guiding the 1998 squad to a state runner-up finish in Division II with a 28-1 record. She won five consecutive volleyball conference titles from 1997-2001 and compiled more than 400 wins along the way in a career that also included serving as the coach at her alma mater, Wintersville High School. The 1998 Ohio State Volleyball coach of the year never had a volleyball team in her tenure finish below .500.

DeSantis was an accomplished athlete herself. She took part in this same OVAC All-Star Game in 1979. She went on to play basketball at Alderson-Broadus, but eventually transferred not only schools, but sports. She matriculated to Youngstown State University and played field hockey. She graduated in 1983 with a Bachelor of Science in Health and Physical Education. She eventually earned a Master's Degree in Guidance and Counseling from the University of Dayton.

Erin, who retired from Indian Creek in 2015, has been married to her husband, Marc, since 1989 and they have a son, Cullen, who is an active basketball official within the OVAC.

The late John Pizzuti was a heavily involved in numerous civic groups and activities during his lifetime in Brooke County. But it was his work as the timer and scorekeeper at Brooke High School athletic events that has earned him the honor of the Thomas E. Rataiczak Timer/Scorekeeper Award. Pizzuti graduated from West Virginia University and was hired at Brooke County Schools and never left. He did spend a stretch of time in the United States Army and served actively in the Korean War. In Brooke County, Pizzuti was a member of the Follansbee Council and Tree Committee. A member of the St. Anthony Catholic Church, Pizzuti was active in the Holy Name Society. He was also an active member of the Veterans of Foreign War and the American Legion. John died on Dec. 27, 2004.

Your individual definition of what success is may vary,
but many might define it as being fulfilled, happy, safe, healthy and loved.

It is the ability to reach your goals in life, whatever those go may be.
