EXCEPTIONS AND ADDITIONS TO RULES

For OHIO High School Games Only

1. A forward pass can be made anywhere back of line of scrimmage. (General rules require 5 yds. back.)
2. Penalty 5 to 15 yards if forward passer is run into or roughed when it is clearly indicated by his actions that he is going to pass.
3. On all outbound plays, ball is brought in 15 yards instead of the usual 10 yards
4. Head gears must be worn by all players of both teams—player has two minutes to obtain head gear and his team is charged with time out or player disqualified.
5. A kicked ball not having crossed line of scrimmage can be downed or advanced by either team. A lateral pass is permissible by the team recovering ball.

OFF-SIDE: One hand extended in direction of penalty.

HOLDING: Grasping of wrist.

INTERFERENCE: Pushing motion with hands

FOUL BY BOTH TEAMS: Arms form a zero, finger tips touching above head.

SPORTSMANSHIP

Football, of all sports, is a man's game. Every player stepping into uniform knows full well the rocky road of hard, bruising jolts awaiting him. The game itself calls for skill, intelligence and courage, and by its very nature has developed to a high plane of sportsmanship little appreciated by the spectator. Not long ago Knute Rockne was called upon, at a banquet, to define sportsmanship; he replied by stating this was a difficult thing to do, but that he could illustrate the meaning of its code by quoting an incident occurring in a game last year between Notre Dame and Northwestern. Notre Dame arrived for this important gridiron epic with one of her best linemen handicapped by a painful side injury. Just before the game began, Coach Dick Hanley of Northwestern appeared in Notre Dame's dressing rooms bearing a specially constructed contrivance to protect the injury of this injured player, and while this same player was hit hard and often during the bruising game which followed, not once during the four hard quarters of that afternoon, was this injured player hit or tackled on his bruised side. This was a typical instance of the term "sportsmanship"—so hard to define, but so often illustrated on a thousand gridirons in every section of the land from September to December.

For the colors they are wearing are the RED and BLACK.
