EXCEPTIONS AND ADDITIONS TO RULES

For OHIO High School Games Only

1. A forward pass can be made anywhere back of line of scrimmage. (General rules require 5 yds. back.)
2. Penalty 5 to 15 yards if forward passer is run into or roughed when it is clearly indicated by his actions that he is going to pass.
3. On all outbound plays, ball is brought in 15 yards instead of the usual 10 yards
4. Head gears must be worn by all players of both teams—player has two minutes to obtain head gear and his team is charged with time out or player disqualified.
5. A kicked ball not having crossed line of scrimmage can be downed or advanced by either team. A lateral pass is permissible by the team recovering ball.

INTERPRETING THE DECISIONS

Almost everything that happens is communicated to the spectators by signs from the officials:

SAFETY: One hand raised above the head, with two fingers extended.

TOUCHDOWN, POINT AFTER TOUCHDOWN, FIELD GOAL: Both hands raised high over head.

TOUCHBACK: Arms crossed over head.

DEAD BALL: One hand raised above head.

OFF-SIDE: One hand extended in direction of penalty.

CLIPPING, ROUGHING KICKER PILING UP: Shaking of fist.

INCOMPLETE FORWARD PASS, MISSED GOAL: Arms crossed in front of body.

HOLDING: Grasping of wrist.

INTERFERENCE: Pushing motion with hands

FOUL BY BOTH TEAMS: Arms form a zero, finger tips touching above head.

PENALTY DECLINED: Military salute.

SPORTSMANSHIP and FOOTBALL

Football is a pastime that demands sportsmanship. It is a grueling, personal-contact battle, in which a man knows in advance he must accept punishment.

The slightest show of weakness on his part is a signal to the other side to "let him have it." No rival can be censured for taking advantage of a technical defect in the other team's play.

But drawing the line at inflicting personal injury is part of the sportsman's code, which every true American youth who plays football should learn and practice.

It is hardly necessary to say there have been instances aplenty on the gridiron where fine sportsmanship has not been displayed. It was not so many years ago that we had what were called "muckers" in football.

More than one team had a reputation for roughing opponents beyond reason. A few such outfits eventually found it difficult to complete their schedules. There have been coaches who had the reputation of teaching "dirty" football.

With them it was a case of "get him before he gets you." An injured opponent was the special "meat" for such teams, and was hammered out of the lineup as early in the game as possible.

But throughout the length and breadth of the land, there are scores of teams about which could be written epics of fine sportsmanship.

As long as sportsmanship is the usual thing, football will flourish. It will always be a rough battle, fit only for he-men carefully trained and conditioned, but it will never deteriorate into brutishness.

SONGS & YELLS

BOOST FOR BELLAIRE HIGH

Joyous and ever loyal, let us boost for Bellaire High,
Let every voice ring, let every heart sing.
There's no time to grieve or sigh;
It's ever onward, our course perusing.
May defeat ne'er our ardor cool,
But united we will boost for her, Bellaire High School.

THERE'S A TOWN IN EAST OHIO

There's a town in east Ohio, with a high school full of pep.
And a lot of husky boys and girls, who will make you watch your step.
You'll know them when you see them, in class room or on track,
For the colors they are wearing are the RED and BLACK.
