Purple reign at OVAC track

· Ferry girls win overall and 3A title; SJC girls win 1A crown

By SETH STASKEY Times Leader Sports Editor

When the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference went to the championship style track and field meet three years ago, it had a mental picture of what it could look like.

It was pretty close to ideal Saturday afternoon at sun-drenched Red Devil Stadium as the overall and five class champions received their hardware, bringing the championship year to a close for the OVAC.

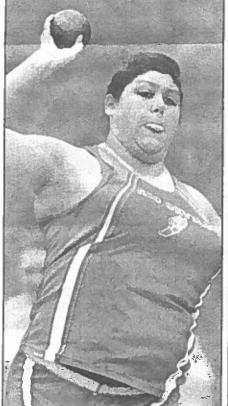

Martins Ferry had been the premier girls team in the immediate area all season. The Lady Riders had captured the Bellaire Early Bird, Martins Ferry Relays, Shadyside Relays and Buckeye 8 titles already this season.

However, each week head coach Rich Materkoski professed to his Lady Riders that the bigger goals were still ahead.

The message got across loud and clear and neither Morgantown, nor the prom, could slow down the Lady Riders of accomplishing the ultimate goal.

Ferry is making room in its trophy case for OVAC Class 3A championship trophy for the first time since 2000. And while cleaning a spot for the trophy, it will need to make room on a wall for the school's first overall title and the banner that goes along with it.

For example, an athlete can finish 13th overall, but if he or she is the top finisher in his respective the respective class, he or she will receive an award as class champion.

Under the current system, the athletes will run their respective races just once and the top three times in short sprints and hurdles - regardless of heat - will advance. The top three finishers in distance races and relays will qualify to the championship run. The top three marks in the field events will also qualify.

The running events ticketed for the first day of competition are as follows: 4x800, high hurdles, 100M, 4x200, 3200M and 400. The field events, which will consist of four throws, will feature boys' discus, girls' high jump, boys' long jump, girls' shot put and both boys and girls' pole vault.

The remaining running and field events will qualify on the second day of competition.

Schools not competing in the OVAC meet this year include: Wellsville, Fort Frye, Tyler Consolidated, East

All five classes have officially begun the journey toward an OVAC Track and Field Championship.

The 2A and 4A classes got into the act Tuesday afternoon at Red Devil Stadium and completed the field in nine events for Saturday's title runs.

The 3A and 5A members will reconvene in St.

Clairsville this afternoon with remaining field events set to begin at 4 p.m. and running at 5 p.m. The 1A meet will also wrap up today at Shadyside's Fleming Field.

CLASS 4A

Steubenville and St. Clairsville appear primed to wage an all-out battle Saturday after qualifying action.
The defending champion in 3A Red Devils and Big Red, which has been chasing Wheeling Park in the big-school field, both paced two events in the qualifying round.

Freshman dandy Malik Richmond of Big Red led the long jump field with a mark of 20-feet-11 3/4.

Steubenville's crack 800-relay team of Jaquan Lavender, Robert Hayden, Tayari Lavender and Najee Murray posted a 1:32.37, which was more than a second better than the Red Devils.

The Red Devils, meanwhile, were led by senior distance dandy Andy Thornburg who paced the 3200-meter field. He circled his home track eight times in 9:52.91

Sophomore pole vaulter Michael Eaton soared more than 12 feet to lead the vault qualifying.

Union Local's Collin Jones led the 4A field in the high hurdles. He posted a 16.28, which was one hundredth better than Big Red's Joey Nodianos.

Buckeye Local senior speedster showed once again that his effort at last week's Buckeye 8 championship was no fluke. He led the 4A qualifying with a blistering 10.86, which was just a hundredth off his time from a week ago.
Oak Glen's Ethan

Delekta took the first step toward the discus crown by qualifying with the top mark in the competition of all divisions. He twirled the platter to 158-4.

Edison senior Kyle Minger led the way in the 400 meter dash in a time of 51.10.

The seemingly wide-open 4A girls field had five different schools earn the top mark in an event.

Edison led the way with three top marks in qualify-

Sophomore Ashley Borsch posted a 16.38 to edge Big Red's Toshchel Demus by two hundredths of a second for the top spot in the high hurdles.

Katelyn Pollock cleared 4-10 for the top high jump spot in the next-tobiggest class, while Nhung Tran ran down the fontstretch in 13.15 to lead the 100 meter marks.

Weir capitalized on the two distance events staged.

The Red Riders' 3,200 team of Alexis Virtue, Chantelle Harper, Rachel Marker and Kristen Mastrantoni posted 10:12.89.

Mastrantoni was also the top 3,200 meter runner in the field, posting an Linsly and Steubenville Catholic both demonstrated they could be factors in Saturday's meet.

No one had a better individual day than Steubenville Catholic's Doug Maslowski. The younger brother of Central icon Teddi Jo Maslowski. Doug raced to the top mark in the 100 meters (11.60), the high hurdles (15.41) and the long jump (20-ft-2 1/2).

Linsly, which was without the services of senior speedster Ricky Jordan on the opening day, qualified with the top time in the 800 and 3,200.

The Cadets' 800 relay team of Chinelo Opara-nozie, Jamal Ebanks, Robert Felton and Chris Stephens ran a 1:34.96.

Their 3,200 relay team of Luke Miller, Justin Lee, Stan Borrell and Mike Hammond ran eight laps in 8:53.03.

Toronto's Thompson was the top entrant in the discus with a twirl of 128-7.

Wheeling Central's Daniel Scott was the lone vaulter to clear a height and he did so in record fashion. He cleared 14 feet, breaking the former mark of 13-3.

Steubenville The Catholic girls showed they are not going to let the 2Å title they've owned for the past four seasons go without a fight.

Monica Rigaud paced the high hurdles in 16.13. while Rachel Rigaud was the top shot putter with a mark of 31-2.

The Crusaders, who won the Division III state title last season, also qualified tops in the 800. The team of Monica Rigaud, Michaela Gotta, Taylor Bednar and Taylor Zapol-nik ran a 1:49.38 to lead River, which finished second in the 2A race last season to Steubenville Catholic, was led by talented junior Cassidy McCullough, who led the 100 meter dash qualifying with a time of 13.08.

Shadyside distance dandy Tara Tollett ran the best 3,200 meter time by 61.07 to lead the 400 nearly a minute. She dashers. Big Red's 800 crossed the line in 11:22.01.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE - Finally, the field is set.

The next time area thinclads set foot on the Red Devil Stadium oval, there will be Ohio Valley Athletic Conference titles officially on the line.

The final entrants for the third annual all-division final were decided on a warm and muggy afternoon in which 2A and 4A schools returned to finalize their preliminary meets.

events, and running events hear baton in a meet-record time of the sounding of the gun at noon. 43.41. All of the team titles will be determined Saturday as well as the individual champions.

CLASS 4A

Steubenville Big Red has seemingly asserted itself as the favorite for both the boys' and girls' titles thanks to another strong day of qualifying.

The Big Red boys produced the top qualifying mark in four events.

Their lone individual top entrant was Leshawn Luke in the shot put (46-feet, 7-inches).

Big Red's cumulative speed was on display in the 400 relay when the team of Najee Murray, Action for the championship runs begins at 10 a.m. with field and Tayari Lavender passed the Steubenville's 1,600 team of Murray, Lavender, Jaquan Lavender and Malik Richmond checked in with a 3:29.46 to lead all teams in both classes.

The Big Red shuttle team of Joey Nodianos, Oko Anyabwile, Michael Diaz and Shakur Miller ran a 63.48 to earn a spot as the top 4A team in Saturday's title

St. Clairsville's strength in distance events was evidenced by senior Andy Thornburg and junior Drake Walker posting the top times in the 1,600- and 800meter runs, respectively.

Thornburg ran four laps in 4:43.42 and Walker ran half as many laps in 2:02.74.

Buckeye Local's Jordan Piergallini continued his brilliant season with the top mark in 200. He raced to a 22.34, which was almost 8-tenths of a second better than his nearest competitor.

Union Local's Kurtis Ogilbee achieved a personal best height of 6-4 to lead the qualifying in the high jump.

The Steubenville, St. C. and Edison girls could all wage a serious battle throughout the course of the 18 events Sat-

The Red Devils produced three top marks Thursday. Senior Taryne Soukup marked the sand at 15-3.

Junior Julianna Madzia was the top 800 runner in the field with a 2:30.11.

Junior Alyssa Robinson, the premier shot putter in the OVAC, was the top mark in the discus with a twirl of 102-9

In the relays, Steubenville led the 400 (51.54) and 1,600 (4:12.30). The 400 team was comprised of Jasmine Ware, Shilynn Crawford, Cierra Macon and Toshchel Demus. The 1,600 team consisted of Phillips, Queen Elder, Nadia Edwards and Aliah Stinson.

Oak Glen had two top entrants. The Golden Bears shuttle team of Megan Nally, Amy Webster, Tori Feicht and Paige Smearman posted a 69.37.

The Bears' Kelsey Chambers was the top 1,600 with a 5:32.62. CLASS 2A

The Linsly boys, who've been battling injuries and are without defending 100 and 200 champion Ricky Jordan this week, flexed their muscle and demonstrated they'll be a handful.

Coach James Cowart's squad produced the top entrant in seven of the nine events contested, and one of the events, the shuttles, didn't have a qualifier because the a 68.30 to lead.

Cadets were the only team in the field and they false started.

Senior Mark Dodd had an impressive showing in the shot put with a heave of 50-3. Senior Akil Blount turned in a height of 5-10 to lead the high jump.

Senior speedster Chris Stephens paced the 200 qualifying with a time of 22.85. Stan Borrell was the top 1,600 runner in 2A with a time of 4:47.62.

Junior Mike Hammond posted a 2:08.81 to lead the 800 qualifying.

The Cadets' 400 team of Dodd, Blount, Iamal Ebanks and Chinella Operanogies.

Jamal Ebanks and Chinello Oparanozie ran a lap in 45.36. The Linsly 1,600 team of Luke Miller, Borrell, Hammond and Stephens turned in a 3:38.85.

Snadyside's Jake Dull led the 300 hurdle qualifying with a time of 40.92.

The wide-open 2A girls' battle could very well come down to which school can place the most girls near the top of the field.

River is in a strong position because of it featured arguably the most versatile athlete in the class in junior speedster Cassidy McCullough. She led the way in the 200 (26.28) and 300M low hurdles (46.79). Both of those marks are the premier times in the conference this week.

If the meet comes down to depth, Steubenville Catholic could have the leg up. The Crusaders had the top marks in three of the events contested in 2A.

Rachel Rigaud, who was the top shot putter Tuesday, added the top discus mark (92-9), while Michaela Gotta was the premier long jumper at 15-3.
Shadyside's Tara Tollett, who led the 3200 qualifying on Tuesday, paced the 1600 qualifying with a time of 5:23.25. Cameron freshman Rena Reid led the 800 2A field with a time of 2:35.07. Wheeling Central's strong shuttle team, which consists of Adeline Schneid, Anna Pockl, Bailey Clark and Emily Bucon ran

 Qualifying complete as 2A and 4A members get set for Saturday's championship finals

By SETH STASKEY Times Leader Sports Editor

ST. CLAIRSVILLE - Finally, the field is set!

The next time area thinclads set foot on the Red Devil Stadium oval, there will be Ohio Valley Athletic Conference titles officially on the line.

The final entrants for the third annual all division final were decided on a warm and muggy afternoon in which 2A and 4A schools returned to finalize their preliminary meets.

Action for the championship runs begins at 10 a.m. with field events and running events hear the sounding of the gun at noon. All of the team titles will be determined on Saturday as well as the individual champi-

CLASS 4A

Steubenville Big Red has seemingly asserted itself as the favorite for both the boys' and girls' titles thanks to another strong day of qualifying.
The Big Red boys pro-produced the top fying mark in four different events.

Their lone individual top entrant was Leshawn Luke in the shot put (46-ft-7).

Big Red's cumulative speed was on display in the 4x100 relay when the team of Najee Murray, Quinton Smith, Robert Hayden and Tayari Lavender passed the baton to a meet-record

Steubenville's 4x400 team of Murray, Lavender, Jaquan Lavender and Malik Richmond checked in with a 3:29.46 to lead all teams in both classes.

The Big Red shuttle team of Joey Nodianos. Oko Anyabwile, Michael Diaz and Shakur Miller ran a 63.48 to earn a spot as the top 4A team in Saturday's title meet.

St. Clairsville's strength in distance events was evidenced by senior Andy Thornburg and junior Drake Walker posting

OVAC meet deserves high marks

Most, who know me around the track and field circles, know quite well that I've been on board with the OVAC's new system for crowning track champions since its inception.

SETH STASKEY From the  Press Box: because of my stance. I understand their points about training, life being tough on the West Virginia schools, distance runners, etc., but what you saw on Saturday was the ideal system.

First and foremost, the weather was gorgeous all week for the first time since this format has been utilized.

Secondly, St. Clairsville did a simply outstanding job as the host. There's no other way to put it. In just its second year of hosting track meets, this week's OVAC ran like a welloiled machine all five days it was there. It seemed as if St. C. had been hosting track meets for 30 years.

Athletic Director Kelly Rine, head coach Ben Frye and numerous others were diligent all week in making sure the meet went well. It should be no brainer that the meet has found a permanent home in the Belmont County

Thirdly, the team races were basically all nip-and-tuck as teams waited for others to slip up to surge to the front. Under this system, coaching is required. It's not a matter of having the premier athlete and winning. Because the premier 3A athlete might not be the premier athlete in other classes, so you have to have some depth and elite personnel.
The OVAC Track and Field committee reconvenes on Sunday, May 20. It should be a much more relaxed meeting than it was last year after the numerous snafus at Meadowbrook.

SEE WHAT INDOOR TRACK CAN DO

The Martins Ferry track program is a perfect example of what kind of upperhand running during the indoor season can provide high school ath-

Coach Rich Materkoski and his staff have done a tremendous job of making track a big-time sport and not just something fun to do that's later deemed a social event. The Riders began working to what they achieved Saturday and what they hope to achieve down the road in the Ohio postseason before Christmas.

Many schools in the area have added indoor track, which isn't formally recognized by the OHSAA, but schools must declare it to be able to compete under their school name. However, few - if any - have put the work into it that the Riders' program has.

Basically, every Ferry athlete who doesn't play hoops, wrestle or swim, that runs track in the spring is out for indoor track. The Ferrians don't just go to a handful of meets. They took part in numerous meets last season, including the indoor state meet.

While obviously, anytime you compete, you want to win, Ferry never lost sight of its long-range goals. Those came to fruition Saturday when the Lady Riders claimed the school's first overall OVAC title and seventh conference crown in school history.

And, oh by the way, if you look up and down the Ferry girls' roster, you won't see too many names with the grade level 12 listed. This could be the first of quite a string for the Lady Riders, but keep in mind, they do bump up to a strong Class 4A next season.

Those schools in 4A had better be prepared to up their regimine next season because it's tough to out-work the Ferry program.

NOT TO BE OVERSHADOWED

The St. Clairsville boys' track team is quite versatile. The run of athletes the Red Devils have had of late has been impressive especially in distance events.

The name Thornburg has become household around St. C. running circles. Alex Thornburg enjoyed a brilliant four-year career and now runs at Loyola of Chicago. Andy Thornburg a past all-Ohioan in cross country is winding down a brilliant career and did so with two OVAC gold medals Saturday and has high hopes for the postseason.

I think it's safe to say that the Red Devils have found their primary replacement for Thornburg for next season.

Junior Drake Walker is enjoying a fine campaign, but he sometimes gets overshadowed by Andy's exploits. Walker had as strong an OVAC meet as you'll find. He finished second in the 1600 meter run and a short while later came back to run a personal best time of 2:00.18, which is also the top time in the conference this season.

IMPRESSIVE RUNS

There were several times and efforts that were outstanding. However, in my eyes, one jumped out.

Linsly senior Chris Stephens deserved some kind of special award for the gutsy performances that kid put forth. The Alderson-Broaddus football recruit flashed the speed and power that's made him the area's top 200 and 100 meter sprinter.

After finishing second in a grueling 400 meter dash with a time of 49.76, Stephens came back about 30 minutes later and busted out a 21.90 to win the 200 meter

Obviously, he's fast. But, from my standpoint, you can't measure that kid's will, heart and determination with a stopwatch. It looked as if he had the mentality that he wouldn't be denied and not all kids have that train of

GOING FOR BROKE

I was highly impressed with how the River coaching staff utilized its standout junior Cassidy McCullough during the OVAC meet. Knowing it would be in a tough battle with Steubenville Central, River elected to put McCullough in four open events to maximize her point

She didn't disappoint even though the Lady Pilots came up 2.5 points short. McCullough led all scorers in the meet. She scored 35 of River's points by winning the 300 low hurdles, finishing second in the 100 and 200 meter dash and earning a bronze in the high hurdles.

It's going to be interesting to see what River does with McCullough in the postseason. Obviously, she's going to run the 300 hurdles and will probably be one of the favorites for an extremely high place in Columbus. Her other three events will be interesting because of the rest involved between races.

What we know for sure is, regardless of the event,

McCullough is going to come through.

INJURIES TAKE A TOLL
As good as Saturday's meet was, it could have been even more entertaining for the fans when you consider who didn't take part or who wasn't at 100 percent.

Wheeling Park's Errin Baynes - the USC high jumping recruit - may be shutting down for the season he told me on the field Saturday. A minor knee procedure in April has kept him on the shelf and he realizes that he's got bigger fish to fry down the road.

Linsly's Ricky Jordan - the 2011 OVAC 100 and 200 meter dash champion - didn't compete in anything. He pulled his hamstring for the second time this season during the 200 final at the Shadyside Relays.

St. Clairsville's Jaylon Brown came up lame in the qualifying round and wasn't anywhere near 100 percent, but he did gut it out Saturday, which was big for the Red

gering back issue. THE OUT OF NOWHERE TEAM

Each year, there seem to be few athletes who emerge basically from relative obscurity

The captains of those teams for this season - even with still a month to go - have to be Buckeye Local senior sprinter Jordan Piergallini and Shadyside distance runner Tara Tollett.

Piergallini is the top 100 meter sprinter in the conference has been consistently running under 11 seconds. We expect him to make significant noise in the postseason barring something unforseen.

Tollett has been one of the better distance runners, but she's exploded this season, running consistently near the 5:10 mark in the 1600 and flirting with going under 11 minutes in the 3200 meter run. She's another who could make a serious push toward a high place in the postseason.

RECORDS SMASHED

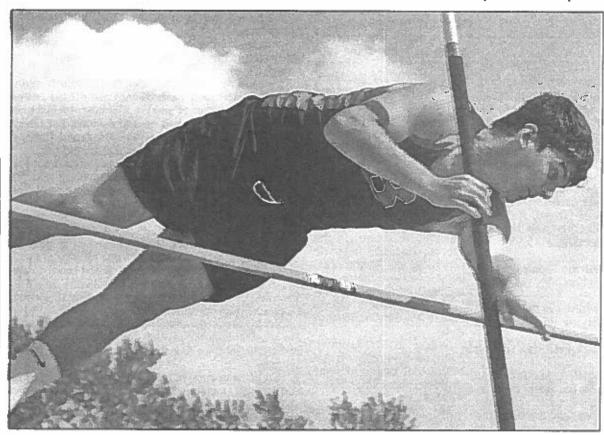

Saturday's gorgeous weather led to 15 new boys' records in 18 events and 10 new girls' records and one record equaled during the OVAC Championship Meet.

We must preface, however, and point out that due to the timing malfunction at Meadowbrook in 2011, those marks weren't considered in terms of records.

The only boys' records that weren't broken were the high jump, 3200 meter run and 110-meter high hurdles. The girls' records that went unbroken were the 100, 200, high hurdles, low hurdles, long jump, pole vault and discus.

CLASS 4A

Steubenville and St. Clairsville appear primed to wage an all-out battle on Saturday after qualifying action.

The defending champion in 3A Red Devils and Big Red, which has been chasing Wheeling Park in the big-school field, both paced two events in the qualifying round.

Freshman dandy Malik Richmond of Big Red led the long jump field with a mark of 20-ft-11 3/4.

Steubenville's crack 4x200 team of Jaquan Lavender, Robert Hayden, Tayari Lavender and Najee Murray posted a 1:32.37. which was more than a second better than the Red Devils.

The Red Devils, meanwhile, were led by senior distance dandy Andy Thornburg who paced the 3200 meter field. He circled his home track eight times in 9:52.91. Sophomore pole vaulter Michael Eaton soared over 12-feet to lead the vault qualifying. Union Local's Collin Jones led the 4A field in the high hurdles.

He posted a 16.28, which was one hundredth better than Big Red's Joey Nodianos.

Buckeye Local senior speedster Josh Piergallini showed once again that his effort at last week's Buckeye 8 championship was no fluke. He led the 4A qualifying with a blistering 10.86, which was just a hundredth off his time from a week ago.
