LAKE BUENA VISTA, Fla. (AP) - Anthony Davis punched his chest in celebration. LeBron James let out a huge scream.

The Los Angeles Lakers are on the cusp of what they want most – the franchise's first championship in 10 years

Davis' 3-pointer with 39.5 seconds left was the backbreaker, James finished with 28 points, 12 rebounds and eight assists, and the Lakers beat the Miami Heat 102-96 in Game 4 of the NBA Finals on Tuesday night.

The Lakers lead 3-1 and can win the title when the series resumes Friday

Kentavious Caldwell-Pope scored 15 and Danny Green added 10 for the Lakers, who didn't trail at any point in the final 20-plus minutes. Davis' 3-pointer in the final minute made it 100-91, starting the celebration that took the Lakers all night to earn.

"Felt like a finals game," James said. "Felt like both teams were desperate ... and that's what it's all about."

Jimmy Butler scored 22 points for Miami, which got 21 from Tyler Herro, 17 from Duncan Robinson and 15 from Bam Adebayo – who returned after missing two games with a neck injury.

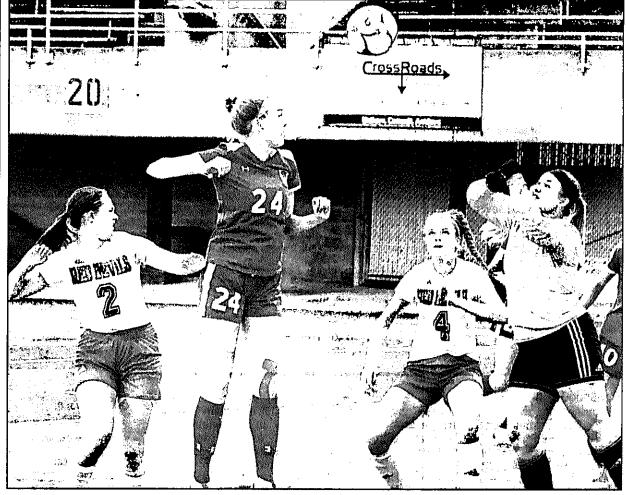

James' 3-pointer with 8:18 left in the third put the Lakers up 55-54 and set the tone for the way the rest of the night was going to go; L.A. leading, Miami chasing. The Lakers were up by seven with 2:27 left in the third after a 3-pointer by Davis – the 71-64 margin representing the biggest by either side to that point. Miami scored the next six to get within one, yet couldn't get back on top, a trend that persisted into the fourth.

Herro made a 3 early in the fourth to get Miami within one again; the Heat promptly fouled Markieff Morris on a 3-point try, and he made all three shots. Butler scored inside to tie the game with 6:27 left; James scored the next five points himself, including a three-point play where he ended up flat on his back after spinning the ball perfectly off the glass for a score on a drive while taking contact.

WHEELING - Not being able to play for a conference championship due to circumstances beyond a team's control can drive it to higher goals. Such is the case for the Wheeling Park girls' soccer team which was denied participation in the recent Ohio Valley Athletic Conference Class 5A Tournament because of Ohio County's COVID-19 color-coded status the week of the event.

However, instead of hanging their heads, the Patriots are hoping for a little deja vu.

"I think it was a stinger to be in gold that particular week. It was unfortunate that we missed that opportunity," Wheeling Park head coach Carrie Hanna said after watching her team dominate St. Clairsville in a 3-2 victory Tuesday night on the artificial pitch inside Wheeling Island Stadium. The final score was not indicative of the way the Patriots (9-2) controlled the contest. "I always look at the silver lining. Two years ago when we went down to (the) state (tournament) we didn't even qualify for field.' the OVACs, so we always look at these type of things as a blessing in disguise. We had a good week of practice that half, mainly due to the aggressive play of the Patriots' week, but we also had a week of sting. Hopefully we come midfielders. back with avengence."

So far. So good.

Freshman Merritt Delk got Wheeling Park on the scoreboard in the sixth minute. She split a pair of defenders with a nifty move and dribbled the ball down low to St. Clairsville goalkeeper Jaeda Nowak's right. Delk then unleashed a laser that found the far corner of the net for a 1-0 margin. Emma Shelek charted an assist.

It became 2-0 in the 24th minute. Gracelynn Hanna's perfect cross from the left corner to the crease found the foot of Maya Taggart, but Nowak denied that attempt. However, Delk was in the right spot at the right time to bang home the rebound. Taggart logged the assist.

Delk completed her natural hat trick as time was winding down in the first half. Taking a pass from Lily Hanna, Delk blasted the ball into the net as the lead ballooned to 3-0

"We told her we're happy she is on the hat trick train again. It seems like when we score a lot of goals she always has a hat trick," Hanna allowed. "She may only be a freshman on the roster, but she plays like a senior on the

Barnesville, St. C. girls win OVAC CC

By KYLE LUTZ For The Times Leader

CAMBRIDGE -- Going into Saturday's OVAC Cross Country championship at Cambridge High School, Barnesville coach Mark Brown knew it was between him and a couple teams that were going to take home the Class 3A title. When it came down to it, the Shamrocks were the ones taking home the hardware.

Sophomore Aubrey John-son's 18th place finish (21:18) paced the Shamrocks to the title while.

"We knew it was going to be between us and Buckeye Trail. We've been real close all year," Brown said. "And Linsly, they haven't run much and we haven't seen them and Ferry ran well, too. It's nice to win this. It's been about 10 years since we won one in the girls, so it's finally nice to get one again."

What's even more special is that there are no seniors on the team for the Shamrocks.

Mara Bethel, a freshman placed 27th in a time of 21:41 while Emma Helmick (junior, 22:12) got 37th. A pair of freshmen rounded out the scoring for Barnesville in Layna Kuhn (24:25) and Kylee Moore (25:11).

Barnesville defeated runner-up Buckeye Trail, which was paced by Kathryn Wil-liams (eighth, 20:46) by 40 points.

In Class 4A, St. Clairsville reclaimed the throne winning the title for the first time since 2017.

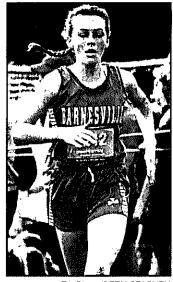

Allyson Evonek secured a Top 10 overall spot pacing the Red Devils with a 20:59 good enough for 10th.
