BUY BONDS

SAY,

DO YOU KNOW
SOME FOLKS FORGET
TO BUY WAR BONDS?

Even some of the folks who keep up with all the latest radio and newspaper news and mark lines of military strategy on tablecloths get a little behind on their Bond buying now and then. They are getting used to War Bond booths by now and that first fever of Bond buying that came after Pearl Harbor is running a little low.

They can read a list of casualties or men captured by the Japs and Germans without that impending urge to do something! Yet each time it's a different boy and a different mother to suffer heartaches. So, let's not fall down on the job. Come in and buy not only your pledged 10% but dig down deep and buy an extra War Bond this week.

Bellaire Band Program at the Half

With the assistance of the Twirling Corps the Bellaire Band will present a formation depicting the first Thanksgiving. After the entrance the girls and boys will all face the Wheeling stands and pay respects to our opponents with a small "W" formed by the girls, while the boys furnish music for a short twirling routine.

The theme of the first Thanksgiving will be depicted by forming the date "1621" in center field while an Indian wigwam is pictured in the foreground. Action by characters dressed as Indians, performing an Indian stomp dance, will accompany the formation.

The wigwam will then change to a church steeple and Pilgrim Fathers come on the scene thanking God for his watching care.
