THE BAND MOTHERS' CLUB

The Band Mothers' Club was originally organized to help the music department procure instruments and uniforms. In the early history of the club, they bought more than two thousand dollars worth of instruments. This was at a time when school inspectors held that a board of education could not spend public money for instruments for the band and orchestra. Thus all the expenses of the music department had to be sustained by money raised by public subscription or other means.

Some ten years ago, the law was changed and schools were permitted to use tax money to buy instruments. Generally speaking, the small instruments are owned by the students, while the larger instruments are the property of the school.

However, no tax money can be spent for the purchase of any kind of uniforms including those for athletic purposes. The Band Mothers have raised the money and bought the last two sets of uniforms worn by our band. The present uniforms cost about $2500. Part of this money was solicited from the business men and other friends of the band by the Band Mothers.

A highly prized event each year is the banquet given to all band and orchestra personnel by the Band Mothers.

Some of the money raised by the club is made at the refreshment stand at the football and basketball games. Other means of making money have included the sale of useful articles such as brooms, which they have for sale at the present time.

This organization has always cooperated in a fine manner with the school officials. They are a fine asset to the school and their efforts are appreciated by everyone.

The present club is comprised of but eighteen members of which only four have children in the band. Some have been active members for as long as ten years. The present officers are: Mrs. Arthur Goldsmith, Pres.; Vice Pres., Mrs. K. E. Hill and Sec.-Treas., Mrs. Elmer Dean. They would appreciate the cooperation of more of the mothers of music students.

Here is a fine example of school loyalty and every member of the band and orchestra should be proud of them.

Even some of the folks who keep up with all the latest radio and newspaper news and mark lines of military strategy on tablecloths get a little behind on their Bond buying now and then. They are getting used to War Bond booths by now and that first fever of Bond buying that came after Pearl Harbor is running a little low.

They can read a list of casualties or men captured by the Japs and Germans without that impending urge to do something! Yet each time it's a different boy and a different mother to suffer heartaches. So, let's not fall down on the job. Come in and buy not only your pledged 10 percent, but dig down deep and buy an extra War Bond this week.

This Is Your Enemy

NICE FELLOWS—A man, not a beligerent, who lived on a Jap-held island, and who recently escaped, has some interesting tales about Jap army life. From his talk it would appear that the lot of a GI in the Jap army is not very pleasant. At that, the Japs don't seem to mind it.

The Japs hold to a rigid caste system, he said. Jap flyers will not talk to Jap marines. The soldiers, at the bottom of the Jap military heap, will not speak to Koreans. In fact, the Japanese habit of hissing their words comes from their sucking in as they talk. The idea is that a man's breath should never fall on a superior. When a Jap is an equal he breathes in as a matter of courtesy.

Showing how the caste system works among the officers, the man said that a Jap officer had done him a favor and so the man had given the Japanese his last two eggs. The following day the officer's superior called, kept looking at the ice box and said, finally, that he wanted some eggs, too. The man had to prove he had no more, and then the Jap staged a tantrum because a junior officer had been shown preference.

Babble About Bellaire's Baffling Batan Balancers

We would like to give a word of praise to the drum majors and majorettes who so skillfully exhibit their abilities for our enjoyment at the halftime period.

Many, many hours of laborious practice precedes these exhibits. Cold, numb fingers often upset their perfect execution of intricate twirling, so let us appreciate that fact. A clap of your hands is their only reward; let's make it long and loud!

Drum Major: Tony Chirpas

Second Drum Major: Sandy Bass

Majorettes: Orla Roseberry, Mary Louise
