we're snake-bitten, but we've never been able to kick home an unbeaten, untied season . . . somebody's alvays getting into the act . . . Bud Bonar quarterbacked that ball club, and also the 1926 team which got by Linsly 9-6, but Marietta came along three games later to play us off 0-0 . . . those were the years they stopped the games and bought out Bud's special square-toed kicking shoe when he got back tod rop-kick . . . and you marked them up almost tod rop-kick . . . and you marked them up almost

You got a million more of these memories hanging around somewhere just waiting to be pulled out of the mental file, dusted off and relived . try it!

> That little booklet which the Eig Red Boosters club is distributing, "40 Years With the Big Reds", will open the gate on a lot of memories, mostly good, some bad, for both the guy who wore the red and black and the ordinary Joe Fan who sat in the bleachers at leth st. the day before yesterday, in Riverview Pk. yesterday, and here at 26th st. today. Activity Pk. yesterday, and here at 26th st. today.

> Actually, this is the 42nd year in an unbroken string that starled in 1910, when a touchdown counted 5 points and you wore a big welt across the jaw from sontebody's nose guard, and has carried through to '52 when you have to look close to see who has the ball on the tricky T-handoffs and you don't have to be toted off the field before they'll don't have to be toted off the field before they'll give you a substitute

> The first big year, the one they still talk about around here, was 1014, when Coach Joe Estabrook's club won seven-in-a-row without even being pressed, then was tied by the famed "Chick" Harley and Columbus East team, closing out the season with two more wins for an unbesten and once-tied record. That was the year they gave it good to favorite enemy Martins Ferry, and the next year the Riders were absent from the schedule. A lot of the fellows wore absent from the schedule. A lot of the fellows of them aren't.

> You can wrap yourself around many pleasant recollections by browsing thru the booklet, - the scores will bring up a picture of a play or player from the half-forgotten corner of your mind. Like, for instance, that Colbus East game, when Clyde boys and the stands in shape for you, caught Harley on the 5-yard line in last seconds to hold score at can't remember everything, and we don't go back that far in our own conscious life, but these are some of the things we remember or were told about: The stores uptown in the days before the 1930's The stores uptown in the days before the 1930's > when you could walk down Belmont street and see a dozen football window displays arranged for a particular game, like the Hart Bakery window with the cutouts of the players, lined up on a marked-off field . . . the signs the Boosters Club painted on the windows in the early '30s, the one particular window sticking in our memory, 'Rutan U-Tan Union'' . . . Modeling', and the combinations worked up like "Beat Wheeling, Eat Wheeling, At Wheeling'', just ''Beat Wheeling, Eat Wheeling, At Wheeling'', just by tearing off the first and second letters!

> Bellaire's first drum major, Charley Bomar, now a city fireman, and the big white shako that looked as if he ever fell down he'd be sticking straight up in the air . . . the school band developed from the guy who borrowed a bass drum for the Wheeling Eame, then got so tired carrying it that he threw the drum in the river when the band marched across the Island bridge . . .

> Coach Al Sears' 1925 team which duplicated the 1914 record of nine wins and one tie, Linsly spoiling that year with a scoreless draw. . . it must be
