BELLAIRE vs. MARTINS FERRY

November 1, 1975

Mr. James Dixon
Supt. of Bellaire City Schools

On behalf of the Bellaire Public Schools, I take pleasure in extending to our opponents and other visiting friends a most cordial welcome to the football games for the season of 1975.

We believe that you will have an opportunity to witness good games played under good coaching. Our team is composed of loyal dedicated young men who deserves your support and recognition.

During your visit with us we hope you will find nothing but courtesy, kindness and friendly feelings.

Mr. Don Miller
Principal - Bellaire High School

The administration, faculty, and students join me in welcoming you to this afternoon's football game, and we thank you for your support.

There are many people who have worked long hours so you, the fans, may have an enjoyable day. To these people we say, "Thank you."

To our visitors we extend our courtesy and sportsmanship.

To our fans we thank you for your support and "Big Red" dedication.
