OVAC Plans All-Star Basketball Tripleheader At Civic Center

A colorful basketball extravaganza, featuring the brightest high ichool talent in the area, will be resented by the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference at the Wheeling Civic Center on Saturday night, June 17.

The News-Register and the Wheelng Intelligencer will Join with the DVAC in sponsoring the big night of

The evening's card will consist of hree games, each of them pitting itellar hoopsters from Eastern Ohio igainst those of Northern West Virzinia, thus following the format which has been so successful in the annual valley all-star football game.

The initial contest of the evening will be a girls' game, with a 10-player iquad selected from among the senior girls of the West Virginia panhandle clashing with their Ohio counterparts at 6 p.m.

At 7:30, there will be a boys' game, with the standouts from the double-A ind single-A divisions of the conferance involved in an Ohio-West Virrinia cetta inter-state engagement.

Earl Haberfield

His committees will include coaches executive secretary of the OVAC, from schools in each division of the conference.

Coaches for the various teams have already been selected and will be announced soon.

"We are planning to make this a gala night of basketball," Haberfield said. "We plan to have college coaches, who may be interested in some of the conference players, present to view the contests in hope that some scholarship offers may develop for our athletes."

The tripleheader will be surrounded by all of the color and flavor associated with all-star games. There will be bands and cheerleaders and between-halves entertainment.

The conference plans to make the Climaxing the program will be a all-star basketball classic an annual hmigh helween the heat nigyers from saffair. The Odden Newsnaners of the triple-A and four-A divisions (the Wheeling are committed to sharing in big school divisions), again as an the sponsorship of the game for at least two years.

Earl Haberfield, veteran basket— "We are very happy to add this ball coach at Wintersyllie High basketball event to our schedule of School, will be the game chairman: conference activities." Sam Mumley, said. "With the OVAC Track Class on June 3, the basketball games in June 17, and the all-star footh game on Aug, 5, we are offering [] fans of our area an opportunity to si the finest athletes of the conference in action. We are hopeful that th will give the public an even great awareness and appreciation of I caliber of competition within of conference. We are happy to have! Wheeling nespapers sharing in 却 sponsorship and appreciate their sy port."

NEWS-REGISTER-Wheeling, W.Va.-Friday, April 21, 1978.

The first woman coach ever to pilot a leam in an Ohio Valley Athletic Conference all-star event is Mrs. Joanne Hess, of St. Clairsville High School. She is shown here with the Ohio squad which she will send against West Virginia in the girls' clash-which will open Saturday night's three-game basketball program at the Wheeling Civic Center. In front, left to right, are Beth Sproul, alternate from Union Local;

Angle Borkoski, Barnesville; Cheryl Martin, Wintersville; Cammie Beavon, alternate from Martins Ferry; and Debbie Taylor, Frontier Local. Standing are Mrs. Hess, Chris McCauley of St. Clairsville, Kim Domyan of St. Clairsville, Terry Swinehart of Jefferson Union, Ellie Leach of Martins Ferry, Chris Slocum of Toronto, and Anna Kay Brettell of Mingo.

(News-Register Photo-Matt Mumley)

OVAC's 3-Game Classic Saturday Night

Basketball In June At Civic

NEWS-REGISTER-Wheeling, W.Va.-Friday, June 18, 1978

By BILL VAN HORNE News-Register Sports Editor June, the traditional month of brides, becomes basketball time Satourday at the Wheeling Civic Center where the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference pioneers a new addition to dibe local sports scene.

The occasion will be the first annual OVAC Basketball Classic, can accomodate over 6,000 customers conference against those of Eastern sponsored jointly by the conference for basketball. Tickets will be availa- Ohio but it is also flavored by all of and by the Wheeling News-Register ble at the Civic Center box office the colorful trappings—cheerleaders, and it will parade during the day on Saturday, as well music by the Paden City High band, while there has been an encourage high. All of the elements are there. An intriguing aspect of the proing advance sale of tickets, plenty of Not only does the classic offer three gram is that it will be tipped off at 6 before fandom the greatest ascenas Saturday evening. All seats are the roar of the crowd and, at the blage of local area hardwood stars reserved at the bargain price of $3.

Civic Center refreshment stands, hot-good scats remain available at the contests pitting premier athletes p.m. by a girls' game, thus taking aur-conditionedCivic Center, which from the West Virginia schools of the cognizance of the ever increasing emphasis on sports for the fair sex.

All-staters Judy Ross, of Wheeling Park, and Joyce Kaczynski, of Weirton Madonna, and the high-scoring Rita Coyne, of Brooke, will lead the West Virginia young ladies into action against the Buckeyes.

Mike DelRe, of Madonna, and Pat Clutter, of Wheeling Park, are piloting the Mountaineer girls, while Joanne Hess, of St. Clairsville, and Dave Linn, of Buckeye Trail, direct the Ohioans. Mrs. Hess has two of her own Red Devil stars, Kim Domyan and Chris McCauley, to throw at the West Virginians.

In the 7:30 game, it will be the Ohio Class AA-Class A boys' team against that of West Virginia. And the Mountaineers will show two of the most publicized players in the state in Richard Summers, of Sistersville, and Gary Fonner, of Bishop Donahue. The 6-2 Summers, a deadly perimeter shooter, was the leading scorer in the state last winter with a spectacular 38.2 average. He piled up 74 points in one game.

Fonner was the second highest scorer in West Virginia as the 5-11 Donahue dandy averaged 33.4 points per start.

For size in the AA-A tussle, the Mountaineers will count largely on 6 ft. 6 Mike Krayzel, of Weirton Madonna; 6 ft. 5 Matt Hartley, of Cameron; 6 ft. 4 Jim Maurer, of Linsly Institute; and 6 ft. 3 Tim Fagert, of Paden City.

The Ohioans will counter with 6 ft. 4 Tom Miziker, of Guernsey Catholic: 6-6 Tom Putinsky, of Bellaire St. John's Central; 6-4 John Lyons, of Buckeye Trail; 6-3 Greg Stubbs, of Beallsville; and the high-jumping, 6-2 Dennis Johnson, of Buckeye North.

All-stater Miziker, who averaged a brilliant 31.4 points per game, and Johnson, with a 24.1 gail, are the top tally-makers for the Bucks in the middle game on the card.

Ohio's AA-A team will be piloted by the two Terrys, Leggett and Snively, who coached the Class A (Buckeye Trail) and Class AA (Shadyside) champions of the OVAC last winter.

Bob Burton, of Paden City, and John Stanko, of Bishop Donahue, will be the bench bosses for W. Virginia's Class AA-Class A forces.

'In the "big school" (Class AAAA-Class AAA) setto at 9:30, Wheeling Park's Sam Andy and Weirton's Jack Kostur command the Mountaineers while Mark Matz, of Bellaire's 1978 OVAC triple-A kingpins, and Dick Potts, of River, winningest coach in valley basketball history, handle the Ohioans. In both boys' games West Virginia will have a coach who has directed a state champion team— Andy and Burton.

There'li be plenty of fire power on both sides in the nightcap but the Bucks could have an edge around the backboard with such outstanding performers as all-staters Pete Abuls, 6-6, of Cambridge; Brian Pruitt, 6-3, Steubenville and Brian Dawson, 6-2, Bellaire, along with Tom Orzolek, 6-6, Martins Ferry, and Greg Gray, 6-2, Bellaire.

West Virginia's tallest talent includes all-stater Jimmy Paige, 6-4, of Wheeling Park; muscular John Canel, 6-5, of Weirton; H.A. Savage, 6-4, of The Park; Mark Gundling, 6-3, of Brooke, and Steve Petrovich, 6-3, of Weir.

But also regarded as a strong board man is Magnolia High's doeverything marvel, Mike Dawson, at 6-1. He will be returning to the floor where he tallied 35 points against Wheeling Park in the Region One tourney final.

Except for Savage, who was invaluable coming off the bench for the Patriots and won acclaim at the state tournament, every player involved in the evening's final game boasts a double figure average for his senior year in high school. But the West Virginia averages, in general, are not as high as those of the Ohioans, who have Abuls at 25.1, Pruitt at 24.2, River's Tim Tolzda at 22.4. Wintersville's John Haberfield at 21,4, Orzolek at 20.0 and Brian Dawson at 19.6. Paige, averaging 21 counters per outing, is the top point-maker on the Mountaineer roster.

Depth is important because in each of the three games, every athlete on the 10-player rosters must play one complete, uninterrupted quarter during the first half, with the only exceptions being allowed for injury, illness or an accumulation of three personals on any individual. That means the coaches will platoon, at least until the second half.

Zone presses may be used but must end after the first trap past midcourt. Thus, there will be no zone defenses permitted in the normal attacking area. Dunking will be allowed both during the games and in the warm-

Harold Cook, Wintersville, and Joe Ripoly, formerly of Bellaire and now of Warwood, will work the girls' game. The Class AA-Class' A boys' game will be officiated by Pat Duffy and Jim Murray, both of Wheeling. David "Peck" Pell, of Wheeling, and Jack Prettyman, of Glen Dale, will have the finale, This is appropriate in that Pell will end a 22-year officiating career with this contest.

Earl Haberfield, Wintersville High coach, is director for the classic. Tim McCocrmick, of Wheeling Park High, is trainer for the teams.

The boys' squads are now in camp at Wheeling College and the girls at Weskt Liberty State College. They will be guests at Wheeling Downsj tonight as they relax from the practice scrimmages that they have been sent through in preparation for Saturday's hoop spectacular.

Team rosters follow:

Team rosters follow:

OHIO GRLS
Cheryl Marin, Winnersville; Chris McCasley,
St. Clairsville; Kien Donryan, St. Clairsville;
Angle Borticcki, Barnesville; Debbie Elilson,
Anadowbreaz; Terry Swireshart, Jefferson Usion;
Elile Leech, Marins Perry; Debbie Taylor, Frontier; Anny Kay (Breffail, Mingo; Chris Slocam, Toronte.

WEST VIRGINIA OHRLS
Carris B-II, John Marshall; Judy Ross, Wheeling Park; Rifa Coyne, Brooke; Tisa Phillips, Wele; Sharon McEldowney, Mt. de Chantal;
Almee Harna, Wheeling Central; Joyce Kaczyaski, Weirfen Madonna; Swan McNeoley, Pire
Grove Valley; Lori Chambers, Jehn Marshall;
Marie Shipley, Wheeling Park.

OHIO CLASS AA CLASS A BOYS
Brest Deatt, Buckeye Trail; Dan Johnson,
Shadyside Tem Mulker, Geernsey Cathelie; Bob
Smitt, Mingo; Bob Yazrombek, Bellaire St.
Jehn's; Grog Andez, Shadyside; Gerns Stubs, Benitsville, Dennis Johnson, Buckeye North; Tom Puliesky, Bellaire St. John's; John Lyons, Beckver Trail.

WEST VIRGINIA CLASS AA CLASS BOYS
John Smitti, Valley; Lynn Ullons, Cameron;
Gary Fooner, Bishop Donahue; Matt Hartley,
Cameron, Sickard Summers, Slehrsville; Tim
Fagert, Pacon City; Bill Shraws, Sistersville;
Bob Berry, Paden City; Jim Mawer, Linsty;
Mills Krayzel, Weirfon Madonnia.

OHIO CLASS AAAA-CLASS AAA BOYS
Tim Telzia, River; Derek Gawdio, Buckeye S
Doth; John Hoorfield, Wintersville; Brian Dewison,
Bellaire; Parte Abuls, Cambridge; Tem Orzolei, Martine Ferry,
WEST VIRGINIA CLASS AAAA-CLASS AAA
Ralph Perito, Brooke; Milke Bukovich, John Marshall; Tracy Sha, Wheeling Central; Steve Petrovich, Weir; HA, Savage, Wheeling Park;
Genes Didrekten, John Marshall; Jim Falee,
West Marker, Park Gending, Brooke; Milke
Dawson, Magnella; John Casel, Weir.

Ohio Conquers West Virginia, 86-76, In 'Big School' Struggle

By BILL VAN HORNE News-Register Sports Editor

After leading only 31-29 at halftime and falling behind by a point late in the third period, Ohio's high-flying all-stars, playing above the rim much of the time, turned back West Virginia, 86-76, in the Class AAAA-Class Valley Athletic Conference's first annual charity basketball classic Sat urday night before nearly 3,000 fans attack in the entertaining game. at the Wheeling Civic Center. There were 10 lead changes in the at the Wheeling Civic Center.

card was not completed until after front, 26-20, when the quarter ended. midnight because of a late start created when the opening tussle of the night, the Ohio-West Virginia girls' game, went two overtimes.

The Ohioans had a little too much size for the Mountaineers in what was ginia, 86-76, in the Class AAAA-Class an exciting, fast-paced contest, fea-AAA game which climaxed the Ohio turing some spectacular marksmanship and spirited board play.

The Bucks presented a balanced

The last contest on the three-game first period but the Ohioans were in

The Ohio lead mounted to 39-28 at one stage of the second period but West Virginia closed to within two, 41-39, at halftime. However, the Mountaineers suffered in fatal dry spell at the start of the third period. They went over four minutes without scoring and the Bucks, coached by Mark Matz of Bellaire and Dick Potts of River High, rocketed their edge to 53 - 39

But West Virginia fought back. The Mountaineers ran off 15 points without retaliation and took the lead, 54-53, with 3:21 left in the third round on two foul converisons by Magnolia's Mike Dawson.

Buckeye South's Derek Gaudio and Wheeling Central's Tracy Shia matched long bombs but then Bellaire's Brian Dawson converted two at the line and drove for a goal and Ohio was ahead to stay.

After three rounds, the count was 66-58 and it went to 70-58 before West Virginia tallied its first points of the fourth stanza. Midway through the fourth frame, it was 79-61.

The Mountaineers lost Brooke's Mark Gundling, Wheeling Park's Jim Paige, and Brooke's Ralph Perito on personals in the fourth quarter and Shia was carried off with a leg injury.

Ohio's scoring was led by Brian Dawson, with 18 points; Gaudio and Cambridge's Pete Abuls, with 12 each; and River's Tim Tolzda and Steubenville's Brian Pruitt. with 11 apiece.

The surprise scoring leader for West Virginia was Mike Bukovich, of John Marshall, with 17 markers. Mike Dawson added 11 and Shia 10 for the Mountaineers, who were coached by Wheeling Park's Sam Andy and Weirton's Jack Kostur.

With each side making 32 goals, Ohio won via 22 conversions in 38 free throws. The Mountaineers canned only 12 of 25 at the line.

The Buckeyes had 86 shots from scrimmage to 72 for the West Virgin-

Martins Ferry's Tom Orzolek pulled down 12 rebounds while Abuls and Brian Dawson grabbed eight each, Weir's John Canei and The Park's H.A. Savage collected 10 caroms apiece for the losers and Paige picked off nine.

All-Star Summaries

GIRLS GAME WEST VIRGINIA — Bell 2, 1-4; Ross 6, 6-6: Coyne 4, 1-3; Phillips 2, 6-12; McEldowney 0, 0-1; Hamm 4, 0-0; Kaczynski 5, 4-10: McNesley 1, 0-4: Chambers 4-10; McNeeley 1, 0-4; Chambers 2, 0-4; Shipley 1, 0-0. Totals, 28, 18-44. OHIO — Martin 1, 1-3; Mc-Cauley 0, 0-0; Domyan 9, 5-6; Borkoski 0, 0-1; Ellison 2, 0-0; Swinehart 2, 0-0; Leach 3, 0-2; Taylor 5, 9-14; Brettell 2, 0-0: Slocum 1, 6-9. Totals, 25, 21-35.

CLASS AA-A GAME OHIO - Dan Johnson 2, 2-2; Miziker 10, 6-8; Yazrombek 6, 2-Miziker 10, 6-8; Yazrombek 6, 2-2; Andes 7, 0-0; Stubbs 1, 0-3; Dennis Johnson 7, 4-4; Putinsky 4, 0-0; Lyons 4, 7-8; Doutt 2, 1-2. Totals, 43, 22-28. WEST VIRGINIA — Smith 3, 1-3; Ullom 0, 1-4; Fonner 9, 4-4; Hartley 2, 3-4; Summers 9, 5-6; Fagert 4, 0-2; Shreves 0, 3-6; Berry 3, 0-0; Maurer 7, 6-11; Krayzel 1, 1-2. Totals, 38, 25-41.

CLASS AAAA-AAA GAME OHIO — Pruitt 3, 5-6; Orzolek 3, 1-3; Abuls 4, 4-6; Tolzda 5, 1-2; 3, 1-3; Abuls 4, 4-6; Tolzda 5, 1-2; Gaudio 6, 0-0; Haberfield 0, 4-10; Byers 1, 0-1; Gray 3, 0-0; B Dawson 5, 6-9; Hulsey 2, 2-2 Totals, 32, 22-38. WEST VIRGINIA — Paige 3, 1-2; Petrovich 3, 0-1; Canei 4, 0-0; Shia 4, 2-6; Perito 1, 2-5; Savage 1, 2-2; Gundling 2, 0-2; M. Dawson 4, 3-3; Bukovich 8, 1-2; Didreksen 2, 1-2. Totals, 32, 12-Didreksen 2, 1-2. Totals, 32, 12-

Ohio Cage Stars Dominate First Classic

By CAL POKAS Times-Leader Sports Editor Six hours, 13 minutes and a few seconds after it began, the first Ohio Valley Athletic Conference Cage Classic at Wheeling Civic Center Saturday night (and part of Sunday morning) became history.

For Buckeye fans and hemorrhold sufferers, it was welcome relief. For the latter, a long the winning side of an all-star game with their West Virginia counterparts.

Ohio won both of the boys schools. games, and the Buckeye girls dropped a tough double overby a 74-71 count, but Ohio bounced back to capture the Class AA-A tussle, 108-101, before the Buckeyes wrapped up the night's honors with an 86-76 verdict in the Class AAAA-AAA finale.

The crowd, estimated at between 2,000 and 2,200, was somewhat disappointing, but it's believed that the OVAC will take another shot at sponsoring the

With Derek Gaudio of Buckeye South and Tim Tolzda time decision in the copening of River connecting from outgame of the tripleheader. Side, Ohio took the early lead. The West Virginia girls won but West Virginia battled back, but after several lead changes, still trailed the Buckeyes at the quarter, 26-20.

Ohio maintained a comfortable margin throughout most of the second period before a late Mountaineer surge brought the losers to within 41-39 at halftime.

The Buckeyes ran off the first 12 points of the second half, but relier: For the satter, a long of sitting had mercifully Olassic next year, although revisions for Buckeye, slops to the format appear markers to assume their first fans, it was nice to see Ohio on necessary. lead at 54-53. After the clubs fans, it was nice to see Ohio on necessary. THE FEATURE game on the straded goals, Bellaire's Brian Buckeye North and one by Bob card was the finale pitting the Dawson connected inside and cage stars from the larger Ohio never trailed again. After Ohio never trailed again: After three rounds, it was 66-58 and the Buckeyes built a 79-61 lead midway through the final panel and Cambridge's Pete Abuls had 12 apiece, while Tolzda, with five long-range buckets, and Steubenville's Brian Pruitteach connected for 11. Martins Ferry's Tom Orzolek hauled in a game-high 12 rebounds, while Dawson and Abuls had eight each.

Mike Bukovich of John Marshall led West Virginia's scoring with 17 markers.

THE OHIO CLASS AA-A all stars never trailed after two goals by Dennis Johnson of Yazrombek gaye them a 6-0 lead. West Virginia did pull eyen at 10, but another goal by Johnson put Ohio ahead to stay.

Ohio∗led 24-13 at the initial before coasting home. break and built a commanding Dawson led Ohio's balanced 56-38 halftime advantage. With offense with 16 points. Gaudio Linsly's Jim Maurer leading the

By BILL VAN HORNE

News-Register Sports Editor It's back to the drawing board for Earl Haberfield, chairman of the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference Charity All-Star Basketball Classic, and his committee.

Saturday night's Great Experiment, the first presentation of the three game all star format at the Wheeling Civic Center, was a rousing success in most respects. But it lasted too long. lasted too long.

The Classic started on Saturday (at 6 p.m.) and ended on Sunday. The last buzzer didn't sound until about 12:15.

Thus, some streamlining has to be another year rolls done before another year rolls around. But the feeling among coaches and others concerned with the classic, which was co-sponsored by the Wheeling News-Register and Intelligencer, is that none of the three games can be eliminated. Certainly not the girls' game, even though it was the big time-consumer, due to an excessive number of personal fouls and jump balls and the fact that the contest went two overtime periods before West Virginia eked out a 74-71

We made some mistakes," Haber-, field said, "But we did a lot of things right too. It was a tremendous learning experience. I hope to sit down with the coaches and others involved and discuss various aspects of the games, the training camps, the ticket sales, and other facets of the project. We were very much encouraged by the quality of the basketball and also by the fact that we had 14 or 15 college coaches, including a couple of women coaches, turn out for the games. If the SSAC ever changes its rules so we can stage this event in late March or early April, we could pack the Civic Center. But we will continue to work and we think we can improve the whole package. We are fortunate in having so many quality people to work with on this. We got it off the ground this year and we are extremely proud of that fact. A lot of work was put into the classic, most of it by volunteers, and I want to thank them all.

The final financial figures aren't in yet but there is certainly likely to be a profit on the classic. The rub is that much of the profit will go to various charities but not to the OVAC itself. which is in serious need of operating funds. Otherwise, there could be no NCAA sanction:

West Virginia's girls After squeezed by in the opener, Ohio won both boys' games, with the score in Class AA-Class A being 108-101, and that in Class AAAA-Class AAA being

Even though 10-minute quarters were played in the boys games, Mark Matz, who piloted the Ohio "big. school" forces with the help of River's Dick Potts, says, "I really didn't think there would be that many points scored because both sides were keyed up and determined to play good defense. I was impressed by the fact that the two clubs were team-oriented most of the way, though play got a bit rough and ragged right at the end. I was very pleased with the attitude of our played. They worked their tails off and they were proud of that win."

Matz got 18 points out of his own Bellaire standout, Brian Dawson, while Buckeye South's Derek Gaudio and Cambridge's Pete Abuls tallied 11

NEWS-REGISTER—