COACHING HISTORY

Coach Al Joseph is starting his ninth season as head basketball coach at Cambridge High School.

Joseph began his coaching career in 1953 at Cambridge as an assistant coach. In 1958, he was appointed head basketball mentor and his 1960, 61, 62, Bobcat teams captured three sectional tourney crowns. Al's tournament record is an outstanding 23-8 with an overall record 103-56.

"Zip", as some of Al's close friends call him, left coaching at CHS for a few years, but he stayed active by coaching teams in the industrial league and also at Guernsey Central Catholic. He returned to CHS in 1974 and after having a 1-18 season his first year back, "Zip" turned his team around and won 17 of the next 22 games. This included 2 sectional Championships and 2 District Runner-ups in a row.

Al has a B. A. degree from West Liberty State College, Wheeling, West Virginia. He has taught art at C. H. S. since 1953.
