Ronald Rose

Ronald Rose is beginning his twelfth year as band director in the Marshall County Schools having served two years at Moundsville Junior High and nine years at John Marshall High School. His bands received superior ratings in all the music festivals.

Mr. Rose attended Ohio County Schools, graduated from West Liberty College and received a Masters Degree in Music Education from W.V.U. He has also done graduate study at Vandercook College, Indiana University, and private study under Mr. Philip Faini of W.V.U.

A percussion ensemble was organized by Mr. Rose in 1967 made up of Ohio Valley students. The ensemble performed at schools and colleges and conducted percussion clinics, including a clinic at the Mid-East Music Educators National Convention at Pittsburgh. Mr. Rose is the principal percussionist with the Wheeling Symphony.

In 1974, Mr. Rose received the "Outstanding Teacher Award" and was nominated to "Who's Who in Music Education" the same year. He is now First Vice-President of the W.Va. Bandmasters Association, Chairman of the W.Va. Stage Band Contest, President of the Region V Bandmasters Association, and host Chairman of the Region V Music Educators Band Festival.

Mr. Rose was named "Bandmaster of the Year" for 1977 by the PHI BETA MU TAU Chapter of the National Bandmasters Association. The chapter is a select group of band directors who may join only by invitation.
