MEET THE CRUSADERS

Steubenville Catholic Central is rich in tradition, both in scholastics and athletics. The present building in which Central is housed was formerly opened to the first class in September 1950. Prior to this, Central was located in downtown Steubenville on Fifth Street. Steubenville Catholic Central was formerly dedicated by the late Bishop John King Mussio as a Central High School in 1945. It thus became a Central High School with several local parish schools sending their children there. In prior years, it was known as Holy Name Central High School.

Steubenville Central High School is located 2½ miles from downtown Steubenville off Route 22 on St. John Heights. Central High School curriculum includes preparatory work for college, technical schools and vocational schools. Recent innovations at the school is the development of a reading laboratory, flexible scheduling, research center, tennis courts and mini-courses. Central this year will move into their new 18,000 square foot gymnasium complex. The athletic program is extended to cover boys' baseball, basketball, football, golf, track, wrestling and girls' basketball, track, softball and volleyball. Central also has a co-ed tennis team.

School Enrollment - 850
 School Nickname - Crusaders
 School Colors - Blue and Gold
 School Classification - AA
 School Phone - 264-5538
 Athletic Phone 264-4484

Central's home stadium is Harding Stadium, known as one of the best in the state of Ohio. Located on West Market Street just off Route 22, one mile from downtown Steubenville. Stadium phone is 264-3323. The Crusaders also makes extensive use of St. John Arena, one of the finest facilities in the Tri-State Area.

"What's the score?"

Everyone will know the score with a Nevco solid state scoreboard and we've got a UL approved, solid state scoreboard for every sport. All solid state electronic components are engineered for long life, reliability and unmatched accuracy.

"from the best seat in the house."

Bleachers and grandstands both permanent and portable, made of carefree aluminum will help keep your fans happy. We can replace your wood seating with specially designed Alumn-a-Plank. It never requires refinishing, and will reduce the overall weight of fold away bleachers.

Call us today for scoreboards, aluminum bleachers, grandstands and replacement seating and the best in athletic equipment.

CATHOLIC CENTRAL MOTHERS OF THE ATHLETES CLUB

The Mothers of Catholic Central Athletes is to promote the welfare of the individual sports participants at school, home and community.

The aims of our organization is concerned with the needs of football, basketball, track, baseball and girl sports participants.

Academic development is stressed as well as sports development.

All projects are worked together with cooperation from the administration and school and Athletic Boards.
