HISTORY OF EAST LIVERPOOL BAND BOOSTERS

The first East Liverpool High School band was organized just before World War I - in 1917. Prof. H. F. Laughlin was the director — the band consisted of 20 pieces.

In 1920, Prof. Ralph E. Johnson assumed Directorship and an era of development and expansion was begun. In 1925, the Potter Band was one of the first scholastic units to furnish music at football games. Since then, ELHS Bands have been in popular demand for parades, civic functions, college games and other guest appearances.

Well-trained and well-equipped, Blue & White Bands perennially reach top brackets in scholastic rating both in music and in marching. In competition, they have reached the heights as Ohio State co-champion — seldom fail to win or tie for top honors in district tournaments.

The ELHS Band Mothers were organized and held their first meeting on June 12, 1933. One of their first projects was the arranging of a Band Room for practice. This was in Central Building and was first used in January, 1934. Upon completion of the M-A, the Practice Room was moved there in November, 1947. Mrs. Danks Cochran was the group's first President, serving three years. Other Past Presidents are: Mrs. J. W. Batey, Mrs. A. J. Michels, Mrs. J. E. Hedenquist, Mrs. G. W. Chambers, Mrs. C. F. Adams, Mrs. B. W. Hunsicker, Mrs. Garnett Burgess, Mrs. Charles Kittridge, Mrs. Robert Risinger, Mrs. C. G. Kiernan, Mrs. James Reynolds, Mrs. Willard Montgomery, Mrs. Glenn McCall, Mrs. Peter Mihalik, Mrs. Herbert Anderson, Mrs. Victor Cline, Mrs. Wayne Russell, Mrs. Richard Curren, Mrs. Earl Locke, Mrs. Meri McSwegin, Mrs. Charles R. Waggoner, Mrs. James Lessel, Mrs. Thomas Snow, Mrs. Norris Koerber, Mrs. Arthur Eddy, Mrs. Stanley Hargreaves, Mr. James Anderson, Mrs. Donald Raber, Mr. Harry Simpson, Mr. Ben Weber, Mrs. Violet Reardon, Mrs. Velma Hissom, Mr. Hayden Howell, Mr. Bob Lewis, Steve Cooper, Terry Jarvis, and this year, Chuck Cermak.

In 1948, the group changed its name to the ELHS Band and Orchestra Mothers and it was then that the All-Girl Band was organized. The two bands have since been combined. Since 1955 the group has spent over $250,000 for equipment, including uniforms, horns, etc.

In 1969, the organization changed its name to ELHS Band and Orchestra Parents with the inclusion of fathers. In 1979, the name was changed once again to East Liverpool Band Boosters. The organization now encompasses all parents of instrumental students in the East Liverpool School System, not only parents of high school instrumentalists.

The group presents to a Senior boy or girl an award known as the "Joe Thornberry" Award. It is based on good character, high moral standards, ability to accept and carry out responsibilities, and cooperation with teachers and students by the recipient. The award is made annually.

The John Phillip Sousa Award (a national award) is also presented annually to a deserving member of the senior band, along with the David H. Miller Awards.

All financial success of the organization is made possible by the continued cooperation of our many friends who support the various projects throughout the year.

Dear Band Friend,

In case you don't get a chance to see a performance this fall, that smooth marching "newly uniformed: Precision Corp Marching Unit you missed is the East Liverpool "Potters Pride" Marching Band. A band for which we, the Band Boosters are aptly proud. This band did not happen by chance. Nor did it come together magically overnight. First it had dedicated students willing to work night and day, mostly on their own time. Add to that outstanding auxiliary leadership and finally a director who stepped in and took over a very hard position and still did a fantastic job.

In November of 1986, the Boosters decided to buy new uniforms. Decisions were weighed, projects coordinated for both Boosters and students to raise some $20,000. In other words, it came in small amounts from many projects and dedicated people like yourself, who supported our band throughout all of these projects. And for this, The East Liverpool High School Band & Boosters are proud to present and display "Our Pride" in these beautiful new uniforms and hard working students.

Thank you, from the heart of ELHS, to all of you who helped in any way.
