Twenty-Seven To Compete For Title

Twenty-seven young women representing high schools throughout the Ohio Valley are participating in the 2002 Queen of Queens competition.

During the Queen of Queens event, $5,000 in scholarships will be awarded to women ranking in the top five places and to "Miss Congeniality," which will be voted by the queens. Announcement of the winners will be made at half-time of the Rudy Mumley All-Star Football Classic at Wheeling Island Stadium next Sunday.

The Queen of Queens talent and gown competition will be held at the Wheeling Civic Center at 7 p.m. Friday. The competition will showcase a wide array of talents including singing, dancing, instrumental performances and monologues.

Master of ceremonies for the queens' show will be Karin Janiszewski of WTOV-TV. Linda Myers is the Queen of Queens coordinator. Cheryl Workman is the choreographer for the Queen of Queens event, while Bill Graham is handling the sound system.

Bob Koch is the all-star game director. Everett Briggs is the official Ohio Valley Athletic Conference photographer. The Queen of Queens sponsors include WTOV and Kaufman's of Wheeling.

A tape-delayed broadcast of the entire Queen of Queens talent and gown competition will be broadcast on WTOV. However, the entire all-star event will be televised live, starting at 7 p.m. next Sunday.

Tickets for the Queen of Queens talent and gown competition may be purchased at the door Friday night. Tickets for the all-star football game may be purchased in advance (for a reduced price) at any area Kroger store or at the gate next Sunday.
