Scholarships At Stake In Annual Competition

The 2003 Queen of Queens competition features 26 queens representing high schools throughout the Ohio Valley.

Once again, $5,000 in scholarships will be awarded to the top five places and to Miss Congeniality, which will be voted by the queens. The announcement of the winners will be at halftime of the Rudy Mumley All-Star Football Classic at Wheeling Island Stadium Sunday, July 27.

The Queen of Queens talent and gown competition will be held at the Wheeling Civic Center at 7 p.m. Friday, July 25.

Tickets for the event may be purchased at the door the night of the performance. The talent competition will showcase a wide array of talents including singing, dancing, instrumental performances and monologues.

Bob Koch is the all-star game director and Linda Myers is the Queen of Queens coordinator. Diana Tucker is the assistant coordinator for the Queen of Queens event. Choreographer and sound system operator for the Queen of Queens performance are Cheryl Pompeo and Bill Graham, respectively. Everett Briggs is the official OVAC photographer. Queen of Queens sponsors include WTOV-TV and Kaufman's of Wheeling.

A tape-delayed broadcast of the entire Queen of Queens talent and gown competition will be shown on WTOV. However, the entire 2003 "Football Fever" All-Star Football Classic, including the McDonald's All-Star Band performance, will be televised live Sunday, July 27, starting at 7 p.m.

All-Star week kicks off today, July 20, with the football players reporting to camp at West Liberty State College. On Wednesday, July 23, the "Evening

With the Stars" dinner will be held at the Ramada Plaza Center City Hotel in Wheeling. Reservations are required for this event.

A pep rally will be held at Russek Field on the West Liberty campus at 6 p.m. Saturday, July 26. Teams and queens will be introduced. The All-Star band and the All-Star cheerleaders from both Ohio and West Virginia will perform. There is no admission fee for the pep rally.

The week will culminate with the All-Star Football Classic at 7:15 p.m. Sunday, July 27.
