

BUBBA KAPRAL, right, was presented with the Bill Van Horne Wheeling News Register OVAC Coach of the Year award during Monday's annual OVAC Banquet of Champions held at WesBanco Arena in Wheeling. Pictured with Kapral is OVAC Executive Secretary Tom Rataiczak. Kapral led his St. John Central girls track team to the Division III state championship last year. Kapral had been a finalist for the award two other times and became only the third track coach and first girls' track coach to win the award. Additional images may be found at cu.timesleaderonline.com

T-L Photos/SETH STASKEY

Kapral captures OVAC honor

• Long-time St. John coach becomes first girls honoree in track

By JIM ELLIOTT
For The Times Leader

St. John Central girls' track and field coach Robert "Bubba" Kapral knew he was up against some tough competition as one of the five finalists for the Wheeling News-Register/Bill Van Horne OVAC Coach of the Year Award during the 23rd Ohio Valley Athletic Conference Banquet of Champions on Monday night at WesBanco Arena in downtown Wheeling.

Grouped in with Wheeling Central girls' basketball coach Penn Kurtz, Wheeling Central football coach Mike Young, Wheeling Park boys' cross country coach Michael Jebbia, and St. Clairsville football coach Brett McLean, Kapral wasn't sure where he stood.

In the end, it was at the top, as Kapral was selected for the prestigious honor and given a standing ovation by the large crowd in attendance.

"I was shocked, stunned, and humbled," he said. "When they run

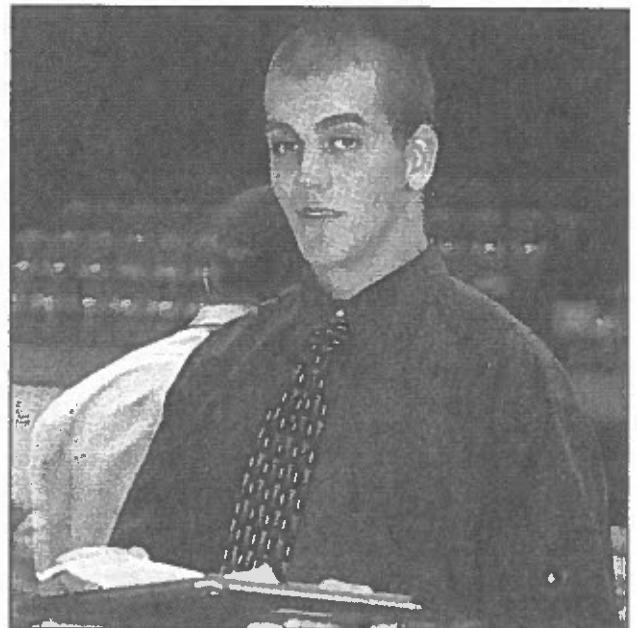

'I was shocked, stunned and humbled.'

—SJC's Bubba Kapral

through the scope of this, there's (roughly) 500 head coaches in the OVAC. They pare it to five. That's a great honor in its own rite."

Kapral had twice previously been a finalist for the award.

"Once you get to the final five, that's an honor in itself. You don't expect to win it. You have Mike Young winning all those state titles, Penn Kurtz, who I thought did a tremendous job this year. Believe me, it was numbing. It's like when you win the state title itself, BEALLSVILLE'S JIMMY Reisz was a double winner during Monday's annual OVAC Banquet of Champions. Reisz officially received the Bierkorette Award he won during January's, OVAC Wrestling Tournament and he received the Matt Salsberry Wrestling Scholarship.

See, COACH, Page B2

Photo by Seth Staskey

Bellaire St. John track coach Bubba Kapral, center, is pictured with The Intelligencer/Wheeling News-Register Ohio Sports Editor Shawn Rine, left, and West Virginia Sports Editor Jim Elliott, right, at the OVAC Banquet of Champions on Monday at WesBanco Arena. Kapral was awarded the Wheeling News-Register/Bill Van Horne OVAC Coach of the Year award.

He's the One

St. John's Kapral honored as the top coach in OVAC

By JIM ELLIOTT
W.Va. Sports Editor

Bellaire St. John Central girls' track and field coach Robert "Bubba" Kapral knew he was up against some tough competition as one of the five finalists for the Wheeling News-Register/Bill Van Horne OVAC Coach of the Year Award during the 23rd Ohio Valley Athletic Conference Banquet of Champions on Monday night at WesBanco Arena in downtown Wheeling.

Grouped in with Wheeling Central girls' basketball coach Penn Kurtz, Wheeling Central football coach Mike Young, Wheeling Park boys' cross country coach Michael Jebbia, and St. Clairsville football coach Brett McLean, Kapral wasn't sure where he stood.

In the end, it was at the top, as Kapral was selected for the prestigious honor and given a standing ovation by the large crowd in attendance.

"I was shocked, stunned, and humbled," he said. "When they run through the scope of this, there's (roughly) 500 head coaches in the OVAC. They pare it to five. That's a great honor in its own right."

Kapral had twice previously been a finalist for the award.

"Once you get to the final five, that's an honor in itself. You don't expect to win it. You have Mike Young winning all those state titles. Penn Kurtz, who I thought did a tremendous job this year. Believe me, it was numbing.

"It's like when you win the state title itself, you just don't know if it's reality yet."

That's part of the reason Kapral was a finalist for the award, because he and his St. John girls' team reached the pinnacle of their sport last spring. After back-to-back state runner-up finishes in Ohio's Division III, Kapral's group won the 2007 state title.

That's a rarity among OVAC track programs, as they joined St. Clairsville's 1979 girls' team as the only Ohio Valley teams to win Ohio's biggest prize.

"The one thing that spoke volumes about our program was that we were state runner-ups, state runner-ups, then winning the state title," Kapral said. "In Ohio, that's tough to do. In Ohio, it's only been done one other time (by an OVAC program) ... it's a nice accomplishment. It's eight girls scoring and assistant coaches doing great things."

Kapral also knows it's tough, for a track coach, to gain notice in a football and basketball-crazed area, and he thanked the OVAC committee for recognizing what his team accomplished.

"Obviously I'm biased," he said. "I ran track in college and high school, and I've coached it for 20 years so I would like to think track is a major sport."

Please See ONE, Page 16

● Coach

Continued from Page B1

you just don't know if it's reality yet."

That's part of the reason Kapral was a finalist for the award, because he and his St. John girls' team reached the pinnacle of their sport last spring. After back-to-back state runner-up finishes in Ohio's Division III, Kapral's group won the 2007 state title.

That's a rarity among OVAC track programs, as they joined St. Clairsville's 1979 girls' team as the only Ohio Valley girls teams to win Ohio's biggest prize. The Shadyside boys also laid claim to the title in 1976.

"The one thing that spoke volumes about our program was that we were state runner-ups, state runner-ups, then winning the state title," Kapral said. "In Ohio, that's tough to do. In Ohio, it's only been done one other time (by an OVAC program) ... it's a nice accomplishment. It's eight girls scoring and assistant coaches doing great things."

Kapral also knows it's tough, for a track coach, to gain notice in a football and basketball-crazed area, and he thanked the OVAC committee for recognizing what his team accomplished.

"Obviously I'm biased," he said. "I ran track in college and high school, and I've coached it for 20 years so I would like to think track is a major sport."

Can his girls' repeat that top-shelf performance?

"We had eight girls score in the (2007) state track meet," Kapral pointed out. "Well five of them are still out there — Natalie Perzanowski, Kelly Perzanowski, Justene Delman, Kylie Kidder, and Alexis Campbell. All of the 'prime timers' from last year are back, so if we stay healthy, you know you're to be in the mix again, and that's all you can hope for. And we like to think we will be."

Kapral, the managing editor of The Times Leader and a former sports writer and sports editor at the newspaper, has a unique perspective on Van Horne, the longtime Wheeling News-Register Sports Editor for whom the award is named.

"When I started, Bill Van Horne and Cal Pokas were the two idols," Kapral said. "Track and Field was big to Bill Van Horne. He was passionate about track. It was like football and basketball. I had a great relationship with him, both working-wise along with coaching. He was a heavyweight."

During a 20-year career, Kapral's teams have won 11 OVAC track championships, including the past seven in a row on the girls' side — an OVAC record. He has been named the Eastern District Coach of the Year in each of the past five years, and he has coached 13 state gold medalists and seven Division-I athletes.

Also awarded during the banquet were 44 scholarships were awarded

One

(Continued from Page 15)

Can his girls' repeat that top-shelf performance?

"We had eight girls score in the (2007) state track meet," Kapral pointed out. "Well five of them are still out there — Natalie Perzanowski, Kelly Perzanowski, Justine Delman, Kylie Kidder, and Alexis Campbell. All of the 'prime timers' from last year are back, so if we stay healthy, you know you're to be in the mix again, and that's all you can hope for. And we like to think we will be."

Kapral, the managing editor of the Times Leader and a former sports writer and sports editor at the newspaper, has a unique perspective on Van Horne, the longtime Wheeling News-Register Sports Editor for whom the award is named.

"When I started, Bill Van Horne and Cal Pokas were the two idols," Kapral said.

"Track and Field was big to Bill Van Horne. He was passionate about track. It was like football and basketball. I had a great relationship with him, both working-wise along with coaching. He was a heavyweight."

During a 20-year career, Kapral's teams have won 11 OVAC track championships, including the past seven in a row on the girls' side — an OVAC record. He has been named the Eastern District Coach of the Year in each of the past five years, and he has coached 13 state gold medalists and seven Division-I athletes.

Also awarded during the banquet were 44 scholarships presented to students-athletes who were recognized for their abilities on the field and in the classroom.

B

Sunday News-Register

MAY 11, 2008

SPORTS

INSIDE:

Local Golf/Page 2

Prep Baseball, Softball/Page 3

Pirates Win Again/Page 5

Saturday's Scoreboard/Page 6

OVAC Coach of the Year Finalists Named

Kurtz, Kapral, Jebbia, Young and McLean in running for Wheeling News-Register/Bill Van Horne honor

By JIM ELLIOTT
W.Va. Sports Editor

With roughly 500 varsity head coaches in 46 Ohio Valley Athletic Conference High Schools all experiencing various levels of success in a given year, it's not easy to narrow the nominees for the Wheeling News-Register/Bill Van Horne OVAC Coach of the Year Award down to five.

As with any prestigious award, someone who is deserving is invariably going to be left out.

That's what makes the accomplishments of Wheeling Central girls' basketball coach Penn Kurtz, Bellaire St. John Central girls' track and field coach Robert "Bubba" Kapral, Wheeling Central football coach Mike Young, Wheeling Park boys' cross country coach Michael Jebbia, and St. Clairsville football coach Brett McLean that much more meaningful, as they've been selected as the five finalists for this year's award by a panel of media and OVAC Board members.

Kurtz

Kapral

Capsules of each coach's accomplishments follow:

Penn Kurtz Wheeling Central girls' basketball

Kurtz certainly had his work cut out for him when, after a blistering start, Wheeling Central lost Kara

Jebbia

DeSantis, one of its top players, to a knee injury. After an 8-1 beginning, the Maroon Knights lost their next two games, then went 14-1 the rest of the way. That included a victory in the West Virginia Class A state championship game — the school's second state title under Kurtz.

"We went from winning

Young

work in his 15th season at the helm of the program.

During the season-ending run, Central's only loss was to Barnesville in the OVAC Tournament semifinals.

Kurtz has led Wheeling Central to 14 sectional titles by a lot to winning by a little bit." Kurtz said of DeSantis' injury. Still, Kurtz put together what might have been his best

McLean

Mike Young

Wheeling Central football
Young was recently selected as the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Man of the Year.

in his 15 seasons and 13 Region One titles. His teams have finished as the state runner-up five times.

See, Finalists, Page B4

FINALISTS

Continued from page B1

He has a record of 38-4 in three seasons as head coach at Wheeling Central, including three W.Va. Class A state titles and an overall active winning streak of 33 consecutive games.

Prior to returning to his alma mater as an assistant coach under the late Jim Thomas, Young was the head coach at St. Clairsville for nine seasons, where he compiled a record of 51-42. His overall career record is 89-45 (.664).

Among his accomplishments, he was named the Eastern District Coach of the year three times — 1989, '90, and '91; his teams won OVAC championships in 1989, '90, and 2007; he was named the Big Season Sports Coach of the Year in 2005 and '06; his teams won state championships in 2005, '06, and '07, including back-to-back perfect seasons; and he was the runner-up for last year's OVAC Coach of the Year award.

Brett McLean
St. Clairsville football

McLean, a Brooke High and Mount Union graduate, learned the game from some of the best in Paul "Bud" Billiard and Larry Kehres, respectively.

It's clear from his work early in his career, he was paying attention. McLean has led St. Clairsville to back-to-back Ohio Division IV playoff appearances, including its first perfect regular season since 1986, in 2007.

For his efforts, he was named The Intelligencer, Times Leader, Eastern District, and Big Season Sports Coach of the Year. McLean was an assistant coach on the South squad of the Ohio North South Classic, which defeated the North 55-6, the largest margin of victory in game history. He was also the head coach of the 2007 Rudy Mumley OVAC All-Star Classic, which his Ohio team won 7-6. St. Clairsville closed the season as Division IV, Region 15 runner-ups; Buckeye 8 Champions; and an Ohio AP ranking of sixth in Division IV.

In six seasons at St.

Clairsville, he's compiled a record of 40-24.

Bubba Kapral
St. John Central
Girls' Track

Kapral is in his 20th season in charge of the St. John Central track and field programs, and at the moment, none have been better than last season. That's when Kapral's talented charges, who had been knocking at the door for three seasons, blew it open and won the Ohio Division III state championship.

The Irish were state runners in 2005 and '06.

Kapral's teams have won 11 OVAC track championships, including the past seven in a row on the girls' side.

He has been named the Eastern District Coach of the Year in each of the past five years, and he has coached 13 state gold medalists and seven Division-I athletes.

Kapral was a four-year track letterman at Bethany College.

Michael Jebbia
Wheeling Park

Boys' Cross Country

In his fourth season back at his alma mater, Jebbia led his runners to the 2007 West Virginia Class AAA state cross country championship last fall, the school's first since 1986. That was one season after he led them to a runner-up finish in 2006. He coached both the boys' and girls' teams to OVAC championships in 2006, with the boys' repeating the feat in 2007. The girls' had a three-year run end after winning a conference title from 2004-06.

Led by individual state champion and Tennessee recruit Ryan Beabout, Wheeling Park had four all-state runners in Kyle Gramlich (5th at state meet); Courtney Yaeger (4th), and Logan Wojcik (9th) between the two teams.

On the boys' side, Jebbia will welcome back 5 of 7 athletes, losing Beabout and Brandon Janesczko.

Other members of Park's team are Jason Bennett, who finished 17th at the state meet, Russell Mulley, and Ethan Casey.

Wheeling Park has had all five guys make the all-OVAC team the last two seasons, with Yaeger making the grade on the girls' side each of the last three years.

OVAC Coach of the Year finalists set

By JIM ELLIOTT
For The Times Leader

With roughly 500 varsity head coaches in 46 Ohio Valley Athletic Conference High Schools all experiencing various levels of success in a given year, it's not easy to narrow the nominees for the Wheeling News-Register/Bill Van Horne OVAC Coach of the Year Award down to five.

As with any prestigious award, someone who is deserving is invariably going to be left out.

That's what makes the accomplishments of Wheeling Central girls' basketball coach Penn Kurtz, Bellaire St. John Central girls' track coach Robert "Bubba" Kapral, Wheeling Central football coach Mike Young, Wheeling Park boys' cross country coach Michael Jebbia, and St. Clairsville

JEBBIA

KAPRAL

KURTZ

McLEAN

YOUNG

football coach Brett McLean that much more meaningful, as they've been selected as the five finalists for this year's award by a panel of media and OVAC Board members.

Capsules of each coach's accomplishments follow:

Penn Kurtz

Wheeling Central girls' basketball

Kurtz certainly had his work cut out for him when, after a blistering start, Wheeling Central lost Kara DeSantis, one of its top players, to a knee injury. After an 8-1 beginning, the Maroon Knights lost their next two games, then went 14-1 the rest of the way. That included a victory in the West Virginia Class A state championship game - the school's second state title under Kurtz.

See, OVAC, Page B2

Continued from Page C1

"We went from winning by a lot to winning by a little bit," Kurtz said of DeSantis' injury.

Still, Kurtz put together what might have been his best work in his 15th season at the helm of the program. During the season-ending run, Central's only loss was to Barnesville in the OVAC Tournament semi-finals.

Kurtz has led Wheeling Central to 14 sectional titles in his 15 seasons and 13 Region One titles. His teams have finished as the state runner-up five times.

Mike Young

Wheeling Central football

Young, recently selected as the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Man of the Year, has a record of 38-4 in three seasons as head coach at Wheeling Central, including three W.Va. Class A state titles and an overall active winning streak of 33 consecutive games.

Prior to returning to his alma mater as an assistant coach under the late Jim Thomas, Young was the head coach at St. Clairsville for nine seasons, where he compiled a record of 51-42. His overall career record is 89-45 (.664).

Among his accomplishments, he was named the Eastern District Coach of year three times – 1989, '90, and '91; his teams won OVAC championships in 1989, '90, and 2007; he was named the Big Season Sports Coach of the Year in 2005 and '06; his teams won state championships in 2005, '06, and '07, including back-to-back perfect seasons; and he was the runner-up for last year's OVAC Coach of the Year award.

Brett McLean

St. Clairsville football Coach

McLean, a Brooke High and Mount Union graduate, learned the game from some of the best in Paul "Bud" Billiard and Larry Kehres, respectively.

It's clear from his work early in his career, he was paying attention. McLean has led St. Clairsville to back-to-back Ohio Division IV playoff appearances, including its first perfect regular season since 1986, in 2007.

For his efforts, he was named The Intelligencer, Times Leader, Eastern District, and Big Season Sports Coach of Year. McLean was an assistant coach on the South squad of the Ohio North South Classic, which defeated the North 55-6, the largest margin of victory in game history. He was also the head coach of the 2007 Rudy Mumley OVAC All-Star Classic, which his Ohio team won 7-6. St. Clairsville closed the season as Division IV, Region 15 runner-ups; Buckeye 8 Champions; and an Ohio AP ranking of sixth in Division IV.

In six seasons at St. Clairsville, he's compiled a record of 40-24.

Bubba Kapral

St. John Central girls' track

Kapral is in his 20th season in charge of the St. John Central track and field programs, and at the moment, none have been better than last season. That's when Kapral's talented charges, who had been knocking at

OVAC Banquet of Champions Monday

The annual OVAC Banquet of Champions is slated for Monday at WesBanco Arena, starting at 6:30 p.m. All of the senior members and captains of the respective teams along with their coaches are invited as championship banners are passed out at this time.

Along with the recognizing of the champions, some 35 scholarships, totaling more than $27,000 in financial rewards will be presented at this time.

The list of scholarships include: Kroger (2); Pepsi-Cola (2), Bodkin Wilson & Kozicki Co. Soccer, Douglas Pilney Memorial Golf, OVAC Softball, Ohio Valley Football Officials, Samuel A. Mumley, WesBanco (2), OVAC Boosters (8), Scholastic Sports Marketing, Clare Kapral Track, Henry Laszsz Basketball (2), Richard Potts Basketball (2), Stephen E. Hanning Memorial, DeLuca Realy Volleyball, OVAC Cheerleader (2), Wrestling (5), OVAC Baseball and OVAC Basketball Coaches Clinic.

Along with the rewards for the students, the official presentation of the Dave Bierkorette Award, which is presented to the Most Outstanding Wrestler from the giant Ron Mauck OVAC Wrestling Tournament held this past January.

The Irish were state runnerups in 2005 and '06.

Kapral's teams have won 11 OVAC track championships, including the past seven in a row on the girls' side.

He has been named the Eastern District Coach of the year in each of the past five years, and he has coached 13 state gold medalists and seven Division I athletes.

Kapral was a four-year track letterman at Bethany College.

Michael Jebbia

Wheeling Park Boys' Cross Country

In his fourth season back at his alma mater, Jebbia led his runners to the 2007 West Virginia Class AAA state cross country championship last fall, the school's first since 1986. That was one season after he led them to a runner-up finish in 2006. He coached both the boys' and girls' teams to OVAC championships in 2006, with the boys' repeating the feat in 2007. The girls' had a three-year run end after winning a conference title from 2004-06.

Led by individual state champion and Tennessee recruit Ryan Beabout, Wheeling Park had four all-state runners in Kyle Gramlich (5th at state meet); Courtney Yaeger (4th), and Logan Wojcik (9th) between the two teams.

On the boys' side, Jebbia will welcome back 5 of 7 athletes, losing Beabout and Brandon Janeschko.

Other members of Park's team are Jason Bennett, who finished 17th at the state meet, Russell Mulley, and Ethan Casey.

Wheeling Park has had all five...

we went from winning by a lot to winning by a little bit," Kurtz said of DeSantis' injury.

Still, Kurtz put together what might have been his best work in his 15th season at the helm of the program. During the season-ending run, Central's only loss was to Barnesville in the OVAC Tournament semi-finals.

Kurtz has led Wheeling Central to 14 sectional titles in his 15 seasons and 13 Region One titles. His teams have finished as the state runner-up five times.

Mike Young

Wheeling Central football

Young, recently selected as the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Man of the Year, has a record of 38-4 in three seasons as head coach at Wheeling Central, including three W.Va. Class A state titles and an overall active winning streak of 33 consecutive games.

Prior to returning to his alma mater as an assistant coach under the late Jim Thomas, Young was the head coach at St. Clairsville for nine seasons, where he compiled a record of 51-42. His overall career record is 89-45 (.664).

Among his accomplishments, he was named the Eastern District Coach of year three times - 1989, '90, and '91; his teams won OVAC championships in 1989, '90, and 2007; he was named the Big Season Sports Coach of the Year in 2005 and '06; his teams won state championships in 2005, '06, and '07, including back-to-back perfect seasons; and he was the runner-up for last year's OVAC Coach of the Year award.

Brett McLean

St. Clairsville football Coach

McLean, a Brooke High and Mount Union graduate, learned the game from some of the best in Paul "Bud" Billiard and Larry Kehres, respectively.

It's clear from his work early in his career, he was paying attention. McLean has led St. Clairsville to back-to-back Ohio Division IV playoff appearances, including its first perfect regular season since 1986, in 2007.

For his efforts, he was named The Intelligencer, Times Leader, Eastern District, and Big Season Sports Coach of Year. McLean was an assistant coach on the South squad of the Ohio North South Classic, which defeated the North 55-6, the largest margin of victory in game history. He was also the head coach of the 2007 Rudy Mumley OVAC All-Star Classic, which his Ohio team won 7-6. St. Clairsville closed the season as Division IV, Region 15 runner-ups; Buckeye 8 Champions; and an Ohio AP ranking of sixth in Division IV.

In six seasons at St. Clairsville, he's compiled a record of 40-24.

Bubba Kapral

St. John Central girls' track

Kapral is in his 20th season in charge of the St. John Central track and field programs, and at the moment, none have been better than last season. That's when Kapral's talented charges, who had been knocking at the door for three seasons, blew it open and won the Ohio Division III state championship.

Champions Monday

The annual OVAC Banquet of Champions is slated for Monday at WesBanco Arena, starting at 6:30 p.m. All of the senior members and captains of the respective teams along with their coaches are invited as championship banners are passed out at this time.

Along with the recognizing of the champions, some 35 scholarships, totaling more than $27,000 in financial rewards will be presented at this time.

The list of scholarships include: Kroger (2); Pepsi-Cola (2), Bodkin Wilson & Kozicki Co. Soccer, Douglas Pilney Memorial Golf, OVAC Softball, Ohio Valley Football Officials, Samuel A. Mumley, WesBanco (2), OVAC Boosters (8), Scholastic Sports Marketing, Clare Kapral Track, Henry Lasasz Basketball (2), Richard Potts Basketball (2), Stephen E. Hanning Memorial, DeLuca Realy Volleyball, OVAC Cheerleader (2), Wrestling (5), OVAC Baseball and OVAC Basketball Coaches Clinic.

Along with the rewards for the students, the official presentation of the Dave Bierkorette Award, which is presented to the Most Outstanding Wrestler from the giant Ron Mauck OVAC Wrestling Tournament held this past January.

The Irish were state runnerups in 2005 and '06.

Kapral's teams have won 11 OVAC track championships, including the past seven in a row on the girls' side.

He has been named the Eastern District Coach of the year in each of the past five years, and he has coached 13 state gold medalists and seven Division I athletes.

Kapral was a four-year track letterman at Bethany College.

Michael Jebbia

Wheeling Park Boys' Cross Country

In his fourth season back at his alma mater, Jebbia led his runners to the 2007 West Virginia Class AAA state cross country championship last fall, the school's first since 1986. That was one season after he led them to a runner-up finish in 2006. He coached both the boys' and girls' teams to OVAC championships in 2006, with the boys' repeating the feat in 2007. The girls' had a three-year run end after winning a conference title from 2004-06.

Led by individual state champion and Tennessee recruit Ryan Beabout, Wheeling Park had four all-state runners in Kyle Gramlich (5th at state meet); Courtney Yaeger (4th), and Logan Wojcik (9th) between the two teams.

On the boys' side, Jebbia will welcome back 5 of 7 athletes, losing Beabout and Brandon Janesczko.

Other members of Park's team are Jason Bennett, who finished 17th at the state meet, Russell Mulley, and Ethan Casey.

Wheeling Park has had all five guys make the all-OVAC team the last two seasons, with Yaeger making the grade on the girls' side each of the last three years.

Five finalists named for OVAC Coach of the Year award

JIM ELLIOTT
OF THE JEFFERSONIAN

With roughly 500 varsity head coaches in 46 Ohio Valley Athletic Conference high schools all experiencing various levels of success in a given year, it's not easy to narrow the nominees for the Wheeling News-Register/Bill Van Horne OVAC Coach of the Year Award down to five.

As with any prestigious award, someone who is deserving is invariably going to be left out.

That's what makes the accomplishments of Wheeling Central girls' basketball coach Penn Kurtz, Bellaire St. John Central girls' track and field coach Robert "Bubba" Kapral, Wheeling Central football coach Mike Young, Wheeling Park boys' cross country coach Michael Jebbia, and

St. Clairsville football coach Brett McLean that much more meaningful, as they've been selected as the five finalists for this year's award by a panel of media and OVAC Board members.

Capsules of each coach's accomplishments follow:

Penn Kurtz (Wheeling Central girls' basketball). Kurtz certainly had his work cut out for him when, after a blistering start, Wheeling Central lost Kara DeSantis, one of its top players, to a knee injury. After an 8-1 beginning, the Maroon Knights lost their next two games, then went 14-1 the rest of the way. That included a victory in the West Virginia Class A state championship game — the school's second state title under Kurtz.

Still, Kurtz put together what might have been his best work in his 15th season at the helm of the program. During the season-ending run, Central's only loss was to Barnesville in the OVAC Tournament semifinals.

Kurtz has led Wheeling Central to 14 sectional titles in his 15 seasons and 13 Region One titles. His teams have finished as the state runner-up five times.

Mike Young (Wheeling Central football). Young, recently selected as the Upper Ohio Valley Dapper Dan Man of the Year, has a record of 38-4 in three seasons as head coach at Wheeling Central, including three W.Va. Class A state titles and an overall active winning streak of 33 consecutive games.

Prior to returning to his alma mater as an assistant coach under the late Jim Thomas, Young was the head coach at St. Clairsville for nine seasons, where he compiled a record of 51-42. His overall career record is 89-45 (.664).

Among his accomplishments, he was named the Eastern District Coach of the Year three times — 1989, '90, and '91; his teams won OVAC championships in 1989, '90, and 2007; he was named the Big Season Sports Coach of the Year in 2005 and '06; his teams won state championships in 2005, '06, and '07, including back-to-back perfect seasons; and he was the runner-up for last year's OVAC Coach of the Year award.

Bubba Kapral

Penn Kurtz

Michael Jebbia

Brett McLean

Mike Young

Brett McLean (St. Clairsville football coach). McLean, a Brooke High and Mount Union graduate, learned the game from some of the best in Paul "Bud" Billiard and Larry Kehres, respectively.

It's clear from his work early in his career, he was paying attention. McLean has led St. Clairsville to back-to-back Ohio Division IV playoff appearances, including its first perfect regular season since 1986, in 2007.

For his efforts, he was named The Intelligencer, Times Leader, Eastern District, and Big Season Sports Coach of the Year. McLean was an assistant coach on the South squad of the Ohio North South Classic, which defeated the North 55-6, the largest margin of victory in game history. He was also the head coach of the 2007 Rudy Mumley OVAC All-Star Classic, which his Ohio team won 7-6. St. Clairsville closed the season as Division IV, Region 15 runner-ups; Buckeye 8 Champions; and an Ohio AP ranking of sixth in Division IV.

In six seasons at St. Clairsville, He's compiled a record of 40-24.

Bubba Kapral (St. John Central girls' track). Kapral is in his 20th season in charge

The Irish were state runner-ups in 2005 and '06.

Kapral's teams have won 11 OVAC track championships, including the past seven in a row on the girls' side.

He has been named the Eastern District Coach of the Year in each of the past five years, and he has coached 13 state gold medalists and seven Division-I athletes.

Kapral was a four-year track letterman at Bethany College.

Michael Jebbia (Wheeling Park boys' cross country). In his fourth season back at his alma mater, Jebbia led his runners to the 2007 West Virginia Class AAA state cross country championship last fall, the school's first since 1986. That was one season after he led them to a runner-up finish in 2006. He coached both the boys' and girls' teams to OVAC championships in 2006, with the boys repeating the feat in 2007. The girls had a three-year run end after winning a conference title from 2004-06.

Led by individual state champion and Tennessee recruit Ryan Beabout, Wheeling Park had four all-state runners in Kyle Gramlich (5th at state meet); Courtney Yaeger (4th), and Logan Wojcik (9th) between the two teams.

On the boys' side, Jebbia will welcome back five of seven

Coach of the Year award was the ach at irsville

e sea-where mpiled rd of His career is 89-

Bubba Kapral

Penn Kurtz

Michael Jebbia

Brett McLean

Mike Young

g his accomplishments, named the Eastern
Coach of year three
- 1989, '90, and '91;
ns won OVAC cham-
s in 1989, '90, and e was named the Big Sports Coach of the 2005 and '06; his teams ate championships in
'06, and '07, including back perfect seasons;
was the runner-up for
's OVAC Coach of the ard.

Brett McLean (St. Clairsville football coach). McLean, a Brooke High and Mount Union graduate, learned the game from some of the best in Paul "Bud" Billiard and Larry Kehres, respectively.

It's clear from his work early in his career, he was paying attention. McLean has led St. Clairsville to back-to-back Ohio Division IV playoff appearances, including its first perfect regular season since 1986, in 2007.

For his efforts, he was named The Intelligencer, Times Leader, Eastern District, and Big Season Sports Coach of Year. McLean was an assistant coach on the South squad of the Ohio North South Classic, which defeated the North 55-6, the largest margin of victory in game history. He was also the head coach of the 2007 Rudy Mumley OVAC All-Star Classic, which his Ohio team won 7-6. St. Clairsville closed the season as Division IV, Region 15 runner-ups; Buckeye 8 Champions; and an Ohio AP ranking of sixth in Division IV.

In six seasons at St. Clairsville, He's compiled a record of 40-24.

Bubba Kapral (St. John Central girls' track). Kapral is in his 20th season in charge of the St. John Central track and field programs, and at the moment, none have been better than last season. That's when Kapral's talented charges, who had been knocking at the door for three seasons, blew it open and won the Ohio Division III state championship.

The Irish were state runner-ups in 2005 and '06.

Kapral's teams have won 11 OVAC track championships, including the past seven in a row on the girls' side.

He has been named the Eastern District Coach of the Year in each of the past five years, and he has coached 13 state gold medalists and seven Division-I athletes.

Kapral was a four-year track letterman at Bethany College.

Michael Jebbia (Wheeling Park boys' cross country). In his fourth season back at his alma mater, Jebbia led his runners to the 2007 West Virginia Class AAA state cross country championship last fall, the school's first since 1986. That was one season after he led them to a runner-up finish in 2006. He coached both the boys' and girls' teams to OVAC championships in 2006, with the boys repeating the feat in 2007. The girls had a three-year run end after winning a conference title from 2004-06.

Led by individual state champion and Tennessee recruit Ryan Beabout, Wheeling Park had four all-state runners in Kyle Gramlich (5th at state meet); Courtney Yaeger (4th), and Logan Wojcik (9th) between the two teams.

On the boys' side, Jebbia will welcome back five of seven athletes, losing Beabout and Brandon Janesczko.

Wheeling Park has had all five boys make the all-OVAC team the last two seasons, with Yaeger making the grade on the girls' side each of the last three years.

