Twenty-nine young ladies from across the Ohio Valley compete for title

THERE ARE 29 queens representing high schools throughout the Ohio Valley competing in the OVAC Queen of Queens 2009 pageant.

Once again, $5000 in scholarships will be awarded to the top five place winners including Miss Congeniality. Winners will be announced at half time of the Rudy Mumley All-Star Football Classic on Sunday, July 26, at Wheeling Island Stadium. Kick-off is at 7:15 p.m.

The Queen of Queens Pageant will be held July 24 at 7 p.m. at the WesBanco Arena in Wheeling. Tickets for this competition may be purchased at the door the night of the performance for $5. Masters of Ceremonies will be Allison Latos and Eric Minor from WTOV-9. Bodkin, Wilson, & Kozicki, certified public accountants, are the official tabulators of the scores for the pageant.

Bob Koch is the All-Star Game Director and Reva Icard is the Queen of Queens director. Everett Briggs is the official OVAC photographer.

The All-Star week kicks off today with the football players reporting to camp at West Liberty State College. The cheerleaders and the McDonald's All-Star Band report on July 22. Also on on July 22, the "Evening With the Stars" dinner will be held at the White Palace at Wheeling Park. Reservations are required for this event.

The pep rally will be held July 25 at 6 p.m., at Russek Field, West Liberty State College. Teams and Queens will be introduced and the All-Star Band and the All Star Cheerleaders from both Ohio and West Virginia will perform. There is no admission fee for the pep rally.
