St. Clairsville claims 25th OVAC golf championship

By SETH STASKEY Times Leader Sports Editor

WHEELING - St. Clairsville believed it was the clear favorite for the OVAC Class 4A Golf Championship.

After all, the classification is primarily made up of the Buckeye 8 membership which the Red Devils soundly defeated over two rounds last month at Cadiz and Belmont Hills Country Clubs.

However, head coach Ryan Clifford also knows that golf can be a fickle game, so he made sure he had his team as prepared for the challenging, Par 71 Jones Course at Oglebay Park's Spiedel Golf Club as he possibly could.

In the days and weeks leading up to Tuesday's tournaments, the Red Devils have competed or held practice rounds on the course as many as five times. It paid dividends, too.

St. Clairsville produced two of the top three individual scores in the tournament and posted an impressive 320 total en route to claiming the school's 25th conference title by 44 shots over defending champion Beaver Local.

"We've pretty much camped out here (at Oglebay) for the past month," Clifford joked. "We made it a point to get down here and be prepared and the kids played really well today."

Indeed.

All told, the Red Devils team score included a 76, 78, 82 and an 84.

"It's pretty good team golf when you throw out an 85," Clifford said. "Shooting a 320 on this course is hard to do. It's definitely the best score we've had here all season.

WHEELING - Fort Frye and Barnesville came into Thursday's OVAC Class 3A Championship as the clear favorites.

Both the Cadets and Shamrocks delivered at Oglebay Park's Crispin Course.

In the end, the evenly matched teams both posted a 316 after four scores were compiled, forcing a fifth-score playoff, which allowed the Cadets to claim their first conference title in school history in golf.

"One way or another, we thought we'd be within five strokes of each other," Fort Frye head coach Doug Pfeffer said. "We played well at the beginning of the year, hit the skids for a few matches and the last three or so matches we've kind of gotten back to where we had been playing. These kids were determined to one and bring the first (OVAC golf championship) back to Beverly.

The Cadets were fueled by three play- BARNESVILLE'S ers earning All-OVAC acclaim.

Braiden Allen shot what Pfeffer called a 79. He played as the Cadets fifth player.

"His best, prior to (Thursday), had been an 81," Pfeffer admitted. "If you're going to shoot a career-best round, there was no better time to do it than (in the OVAC).'

Fort Frye played a match at Crispin on Tuesday to get a feel for the course and finished with a 319.

was the fifth-best on the team. Though it didn't figure into the 316, it was six shots better than Barnesville's fifth score.

"We're really disappointed," Barnesville head coach Jerry Robinson said. "We knew it was going to come down to a tight score and we got beat on a tiebreak-er. But, I couldn't be more proud of these kids who have given me all they had. I'd go to battle with these kids on any day."

The Shamrocks had a four-shot lead in the team standings after the first cards were recorded thanks to senior standout Carter Wells.

After a rough front nine, Wells caught fire on the back, shooting a 1-under 34 to finish with a solid 2-over, 73 for the round. That was good enough for medalist honors.

"I knew had to get it going on the back nine if I wanted to pull something off," Wells said. "At the turn, I had a number in my mind that I thought I would have to shoot to give myself a chance, but I had to keep applying pressure and keep on play-

Wheeling Park wins 5A golf

By CODY TOMER For The Times Leader

WHEELING -Eighteen holes of extremely competitive golf simply weren't enough to decide Thursday's OVAC 5A Golf Championship at Oglebay's Jones Course.

Wheeling Park shot a team score of 324 to capture its fourth OVAC team title in five years and John Marshall was the runner-up with a 345 but a pair of Patriots and one Monarch needed one more hole to decide the individual winner.

When the dust settled, it was Park's Gavin Goodrich who emerged from the playoff as the OVAC 5A medalist.

Goodrich earned a par on 18 in the playoff to defeat teammate Owen Leary and JM's Colton Sprowls. All three finished 18 holes with an 80.

Both Leary and Sprowls bogeyed and played another hole for runner-up honors, which was won by Leary.

"Gavin was All-OVAC last year so not only did he step it up a notch but he won the whole thing, Park coach Don Headley said. "He could have won it outright but he three-putted and bogeyed the last hole but he works so hard at this game and I'm so happy for him.

"My goal wasn't to come out here and win but it would have been the cherry on top. I'm happy that Gavin won."

Along with Sprowls' top score of 80, the Monarchs received standout performances from Ethan Cook (85), Mason Orndorff (87) and Travis De-Garmo (93).

"In 20 years of coaching, it's been a long road and it's a great feeling to see it all come to fruition," JM coach David Gaudino said. "There are a lot of good things going on in our program right now and the kids worked so hard for this. They believe in what we are do-

Sprowls was dynamite and consistent all day with a 40 on the front and back nines, leading up to the playoff hole.

"I got out of the gate pretty well and was hitting the fairways," Sprowls said. "My iron game wasn't bad but I didn't three-putt all day until the playoff hole. I hit one out on 16 but drained a 20-footer to par and I got par on 17. I've never been All-OVAC before.'

Rounding out the All-OVAC team was Dover's Carter Begue, who shot an 82 and was sparked by an eagle on No. 14.

New Philadelphia (352), Dover (353), University (356) and Morgantown (358) put forth solid days on the links, as well.

"I would have lost my house if I was a betting man because I thought someone would have broken 80," Headley said.

WHEELING – Eighteen holes of extremely competitive golf simply weren't enough to decide Thursday's OVAC 5A Golf Championship at Oglebay's Jones

Wheeling Park shot a team score of 324 to capture its fourth OVAC team title in five years and John Marshall was the runner-up with a 345 but a pair of Patriots and one Monarch needed one more hole to decide the individual winner.

When the dust settled, it was emerged from the playoff as the OVAC 5A medalist.

COVID Issues Force Changes to Football Slate

By SETH STASKEY For The Intelligencer

Thursday was certainly a hectic day for football coaches and athletic direc-
