THE TRI-STATE WRESTLING CLASH

Festivities and History

The 25th annual wrestling classic between the OVAC All-Stars and the Pennsylvania MAC Conference All-Stars – also known as “The Clash” - is set for March 23th.

The Clash festivities begin with a banquet for both stellar teams and their coaches on Monday, March 22nd at Undo’s in Weirton at 6:00 p.m. Team members and coaches from both squads will be introduced to their opponents during the feast.

The Clash wrestling meet will be held at West Liberty University (WV) on Wednesday, March 23rd at 7:00 p.m.

The Clash is the brainchild of East Liverpool’s former Coach Nick Trombetta and former Coach Ed Driscoll of Quigley Catholic High School (Baden, PA). To date, the OVAC All-Stars lead the series with 17 wins to MAC All-Stars’ 7 victories.

You don’t want to miss this post-season, super rivalry. Since its emergence in 1988, “The Clash” has spotlighted some of the most outstanding wrestling talent in the tri-state area.

THE CHAMPION WRESTLER

What is the difference between a champion wrestler and winner?

There is a difference. The champion wrestler is a man of character, whereas the winner is just a character. The champion wrestler respects his adversaries while the winner belittles his opponents. The champion wrestler is thankful for his success. On the other hand, the winner is a showboat, self-centered and arrogant. And finally, the champion wrestler accepts defeat with dignity, but the winner makes excuses and blames others.

Below are the personal qualities the champion wrestler always exhibits:

C – COMMITMENT: The champion is dedicated to improving his athletic skills.

H – HUMILITY: The champion attributes his success to those around him.

A – ATTITUDE: The champion always exhibits a positive attitude – win or lose.

M – MATURITY: The champion keeps his composure at all times.

P – PERSEVERANCE: The champion never quits no matter the outcome.

I – INTEGRITY: The champion constantly plays by the rules.

O – OBEDIENCE: The champion always accepts advice and positive criticism.

N – NOBILITY: The champion presents himself as a positive role model.

If you want to truly be respected by others as a wrestler, compete as a “CHAMPION” – and not just a winner.

THE WRESTLING PARENT

Parents in wrestling are courageous -- it's true,
They feel all the pain that their child must go through,
At home, when he diets, they wish it could stop,
Yet know he must do it to stay at the top.

Excuses for losing they will not endure,
"Don't blame the ref, son, because of the score,
The coach, he will show you the best way to move,
Keep working in practice if you want to improve."

At dual meets, you'll see them breathing a prayer,
As their boy must compete with no one else there,
Whatever the outcome - mom cheers with deep pride,
While dad -- you will notice - stands right by his side.

They'll travel to tournaments many miles away,
To witness a child who's prepared for this day,
Their boy, he has trained, with all of his might,
Having dreams of becoming a champion tonight.

But should he fall short, at his corner you'll find,
A mother and father -- supportive and kind,
They teach that through wrestling he'll learn about life,
Yes, living is filled with both triumph and strife.

Now if you are searching for people who care,
Just look by a mat, they'll always be there,
Such love for a sport is truly inherent,
That's why we salute The Wrestling Parent.
