CONFERENCE GOALS

IN 1969 - 1970

1. The continuance of all that has been accomplished in the 26 years of service to the many youth of our upper Ohio Valley.
2. To support and maintain proper communication between all member schools.
3. The application of further stimulation and motivation within our conference itself.
4. The following of more diverse and pointed dinner meetings with some additional emphasis on the last meeting of the year.
5. A more informative conference brochure.
6. Realignment program beginning in 1970.

MAIN SPEAKER

JOE MORRISON

Joe Morrison is recognized as one of the National Football League's most versatile backs. In a decade with the New York Giants, he has been a regular safety on defense, returned punts and kickoffs, been a regular flanker and a first string running back. At various times in his career he has led the Giants in most receptions, most rushing yardage and most touchdowns scored during a season. A product of Lima, Ohio and the University of Cincinnati, the 31-year-old Morrison has been labeled by Coach Allie Sherman as being "the closest I've ever seen to the complete football player."

The Ohio Valley Athletic Conference was organized in 1943 with F. W. Bowen, J. E. Ewing, J. C. Greer, M. S. Hattala, B. J. Lockhart, J. V. Nelson, C. Petty, C. F. Walker, and C. S. Wiseman among those responsible for its basic inception. Mr. C. S. Wiseman became the Conference's first president.

A demand arose in 1943 for a conference which would help stimulate and promote a more lucrative program of competitive high school athletics in the upper Ohio Valley.

Today, the O. V. A. C. is the largest and most functional high school Conference of its kind in either Ohio or West Virginia. A total of nine major athletic programs are enjoyed by its member schools of which forty-three schools supply the upper Ohio Valley with over 6,000 athletes in the various competitive athletic areas.

It is the basic objective of the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference to continue the promotion of all high school athletics and to serve in the over all development of proper school relationship and sportsmanship within the Conference.
