

OVAC Honors 1975 Football Champions.

The Ohio Valley Athletic Conference honored its football champions at the OVAC dinner meeting at Linsly Military Institute Thursday night. Receiving trophies and pennants for their schools were Mike Hayden, coach of Parkersburg South (9-2), which won the triple-A crown in its first year in the conference; Ron Pabolish, pilot of Cadiz High's double-A champions (9-0-1); and

Woody Miller, who directed Weirton Madonna (9-2) to the single-A laurels and also to the West Virginia Catholic championship. The trophies were donated by Kelly, Mike's Sports Center (Class AAA), Tri-State Asphalt Corp. (Class AA) and WSTV-TV (Class A) while the pennants were furnished by the Ohio Valley Safety Equipment Co. (News-Register Photo by Cochran)
