

OVAC to launch 45th year with dinner meet at Mingo

The Ohio Valley Athletic Conference will launch its 1984-85 season, the 45th year of operation, when the Fall Dinner Meeting is held at the Mingo K. of C. Hall Thursday evening.

Ron Trowbridge, principal at Cameron High, officially assumes the presidency of the conference and will direct the program which will include:

- Roll call of member school and vote on proposed 1984-85 budget.

- Report of OVAC Cage Classic by director Gene Ammirante.

- Report of OVAC Charity All-Star Football Game by director Rudy Mumley.

- Review of packet information by OVAC executive secretary Sam A. Mumley Sr.

- Report on football and basketball fees meeting by class representative Bob Kettlewell of Wintersville High.

- Introduction of IGA representatives and report on their donor assistance for the 1984-85 school term.

- Report on 2.0 academic rule in West Virginia and possible OVAC support relative to reform.

- Report by Ron Mauck concerning 175-pound weight rule in wrestling.

Mumley said several spring championship teams will be honored at the fete. They include baseball winners Skyvue in Class A, Cadiz in Class AA, Steubenville Central in Class AAA and Steubenville in Class AAAA; softball winners Bishop Donahue in Class A, Buckeye North in Class AA and John Marshall in Class AAAA; and tennis winners Linsly in Class AA and St. Clairsville in Class AAAA for boys, and John Marshall in Class AAAA for girls.