Guest Speaker BOBBY DOUGLAS

Head Wrestling Coach,
Arizona State University Sun Devils

After achieving the ultimate goal of winning a national championship in 1988, head wrestling coach Bobby Douglas entered his 16th campaign at Arizona State University looking for history to repeat itself in 1990.

During his collegiate coaching tenure, he has recorded 196 victories, seven conference championships and 12 top 20 NCAA finishes. Douglas is considered one of the nation's most knowledgeable and respected experts in his field.

In 1987-88, Arizona State earned the nation's number one ranking for the first time in school annals en route to a 17-2 mark and the NCAA Championship. All seven of ASU's NCAA qualifiers garnered All-America honors after a half dozen competitors won PAC-10 titles.

Douglas was rewarded by being named 1988 national Coach of the Year, as well as Pacific-10 Conference Coach of the Year.

During his 15 seasons (not including this year) at ASU, his teams have won 75 percent of its matches (192-62-3) and Douglas has a career mark of 196-71-3 in the collegiate coaching ranks thru last year.

The Sun Devil program has risen to national prominence since he arrived on the Tempe, Arizona campus in 1974.

The Olympic Games have been part of Douglas' life since 1964, when he finished fourth (featherweight) at the Tokyo Games. At the 1968 Olympiad, he captained the U.S. squad in Mexico City. During the past four Olympic Games (1976, 1980, 1984, 1988), he has worked as a valuable member of the U.S. coaching staff.

He is considered one of the top wrestling technicians in the world and was named the U.S. head coach for the '89 World Championship in Switzerland.

He is a silver certified member of the U.S. National coaching staff, and a member of the NCAA Rules Committee.

During his years as a competitor, Douglas captured five national AAU Championships and a pair of U. S. Olympic Trials titles. He was named outstanding wrestler in America in 1970. When he retired in 1970, he had accumulated a career record of 303-17-7 (.953) from his high school days through the World Championships.

In 1958, Douglas became the first black Ohio high school state finalist when he captured the 112-pound weight class at Bridgeport High School.

He wrestled for West Liberty State College and won the NAIA title. After transferring to Oklahoma State, Douglas captured the Big 8 Conference 147-pound class in 1965.

In 1987, Douglas was inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame following enshrinement into the NAIA Wrestling Hall of Fame in 1985.

He earned his bachelor's degree from Oklahoma State in 1967 and his master's degree from ASU in 1981. Douglas and his wife, Jackie, have one son, Bobby.

WELCOME

Welcome to the fifth "Banquet of Champions"! The Kroger Company and the O.V.A.C. extend our sincere congratulations to all the fine young athletes and their coaches who are being recognized tonight for their tremendous athletic and academic accomplishments.

We are particularly proud to have as our guest Mr. Bobby Douglas, head wrestling coach at Arizona State University. Coach Douglas is the first speaker we have had who was himself an O.V.A.C. champion and he epitomizes what hard work, dedication, and a belief in one's abilities can accomplish.

Not only do I want to congratulate you on all you have achieved this season, but I also want to recognize the contribution of The Kroger Company without whose financial support this banquet would not be possible. Their unselfish support and service to the Ohio Valley and its young people deserves our gratitude.

The Executive Board of the O.V.A.C., The Kroger Company, the O.V.A.C. Foundation and all our members hope this is a memorable evening for all of you.

Thank you for coming!
