

Ohio downs West Virginia in OVAC volleyball

The annual OVAC all-star volleyball match was held Sunday at Ohio University Eastern's Health and Physical Education Center.

Led by Chelsey Keylor's 12 points, two aces, nine digs and two kills, the Ohio all-stars prevailed in four sets by scores of 25-22, 25-13, 25-12 and 17-25.

Sarah Abboud had four points, five digs and 10 assists for the Lady Buckeyes. Jenna Vavra added six points, two aces, three kills and two blocks, while Latara Arnold contributed three points, one dig and six assists.

Rebecca Paden and Morgan Ramage combined for 10 points, two aces, nine digs, three kills and four blocks.

Renee Shepherd led the Lady Mountaineers with six points, three assists, four kills and two blocks. Tori Greene added two digs and 27 assists while Carrie Talkington chipped in four points, one ace, one assist, five kills and seven blocks.