OVAC All-Star Volleyball Match set for Nov. 16

It will mark the ninth year that the OVAC will feature some of the best senior volleyball players in the conference when the OVAC Volleyball All-Star Match gets underway on Sunday, November 16 at the Ohio University Eastern Physical Fitness Center in St. Clairsville.

With action getting underway at 2 p.m., Ohio will be looking to extend its domination in the series. The Buckeyes have won five straight and hold a 7-1 lead in the series. West Virginia's lone win came in 2002. Ohio won last year's match, 25-22, 25-13, 25-12, 17-25.

Ohio's squad will be coached by Indian Creek's Crystal Hammack, Bellaire's Kaye Sechrest, Monroe Central's Troy Baker and Beallsville's Patrick Wells.

West Virginia will be coached by Courtney Redilla of Wheeling Park, Pam Chapman of Magnolia, Dr. David Mallow of Linsly and Fred King of Paden City.

Ron Kelly serves as match director.
