Ohio stars spike West Virginia

The Ohio All-Stars made quick work of West Virginia, dispatching their cross-river rival in four games at the annual OVAC All-Star Volleyball Match' contested at Bridgeport High School Sunday.

The Buckeyes prevailed by scores of 25-11, 24-26, 25-14 and 25-7.

Ohio was led on the stat sheet by Beaver Local's Jessica McGeehan who had 15 assists, three aces, two digs, two kills and a block.

Katherine Jirles of Meadowbrook had three digs, seven kills and a block. St. John Central's Andrea Timko had two aces and eight assists, while Ellie LeMasters had three aces and three kills.

St. Clairsville's Sarah Slenski had two digs and two kills. Barnesville's Heidi Hines had four kills and Monroe Central's Alex Kuhn had four digs.

Harrison Central's Haley Harrison turned in a strong game with three aces, two digs, two kills and seven assists.