Shadyside girls topple Ferry, 64-46

By KIM NORTH Times Leader Sports Writer

Any team playing the Shadyside girls' basketball team knows you have to stop the high-scoring duo of Karli Bonar and Hayley Holenka in order to have a chance at beating the Lady Tigers.

Martins Ferry held the Tigers' terrific twosome in check for the most part Saturday afternoon, but it was junior Toni Andes who did the most damage.

The 5-5 returning letterwinner pumped in a season-high 20 points in leading Shadyside to a 64-46 victory over the Purple Riders inside the Tigers'

THE 2013 Mr. Mat Award was presented to Bridgeport High product Dave LaMotte prior to Saturday's championship matches. He's joined by tournament director Dr. Dan Doyle, tournament namesake Ron Mauck and Dr. Vince

Bridgeport graduate .aMotte named Mr. Mat

By BILL WELKER For The Times Leader

Dave LaMotte finished his coaching career as the head wrestling coach at Payson High School in Payson, Arizona. During his 26-year coaching tenure, LaMotte has produced 18 individual state champions, 53 state place winners, 28 district titlists, and 3 high school All-Americans.

LaMotte began his coaching career at Wheeling Central Catholic High School in 1979. In the fall of 1980, Dave LaMotte returned to his high school alma mater in Bridgeport, Ohio, where his 1988 team captured the Division III State Championship. He also was head mat mentor at Buckeye Local High School during the 1996-97 wrestling season before returning to Arizona.

For his efforts, Coach LaMotte was voted by the upper Ohio Valley media as the OVAC Coach of the Year, and by area wrestling coaches as the OVAC 3-A Wrestling Coach of the Year. LaMotte was also selected as the Ohio Division III Eastern District and State Wrestling Coach of the Year in 1989.

In 1993 LaMotte earned Coach of the Year honors when his Gilbert High School (Arizona) squad won the 5A Arizona State Wrestling Team Championship. LaMotte reside in Payson, Arizona.

also coached his two sons, who were both Arizona state champions and NCAA Division II All-Americans at West Liberty State College (now West Liberty University).

As a competitor, Dave LaMotte had a scholastic record of 59-5 as a Bridgeport High School "Bulldog." An OVAC champion, LaMotte was a three-time Sectional and District Champion. He completed his senior year on the mats as an Ohio All-State wrestler finishing fifth in Columbus. In 1979, Dave LaMotte was inducted into the Bridgeport High School Wall of Fame.

After a two-year stint in U.S. Army (1974-1976), LaMotte returned to the Valley to matriculate and wrestle at West Liberty State College under the tutelage of Coach Vince Monseau, a member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

As a "Hilltopper" wrestler, LaMotte compiled an outstanding record of 103-14-2 for West Liberty State College (West Virginia). He was also a two-time National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) All-American, finishing 3rd in 1978 and winning an NAIA championship in 1979, which was held at the Wesbanco Civic Arena.

In 2004, he was inducted into West Liberty University's Athletic Hall of Fame. LaMotte and his wife, Vickie, WHEELING — Parkersburg South and Steubenville are neck and neck heading into today's final rounds at the 60th annual Ron Mauck OVAC Wrestling Tournament.

With championship semifinal matches beginning at noon at Wes-Banco Arena, the three-time defending champion Patriots hold a 163.5-155.5 lead against Big Red. After the second day last year, South led Big Red by seven points.

The Patriots have nine competitors in the semifinals and Steubenville has seven.

"We're really proud of what the boys have done so far," South coach Donna Dixon said. "It's looking positive for us.

South and Big Red will not face each other in a semifinal match, leaving the possibility of three championship showdowns.

The finals begin at 6:30 p.m.
Wheeling Park is third in the team standings with 127 points, while Beaver Local (99.5) and University (86.5) round out the top five. John Marshall (86), Brooke (82), Cambridge (81), Shadyside (74.5) and Morgantown (74) complete the top 10.

The Patriots held a five-point lead after Day 1. South won 13 of its 14 matches by pin and the bonus points that were accrued continued to aid in its lead as both teams had solid days Friday.

South sent two No. 6 seeds into the championship semifinals, while Steubenville sent two No. 5s, a No. 6 and one unseeded entrant -Brandon Jones at 182 pounds into the semis.

Magnolia's Alex Newman (285) is the other unseeded semifinalist.

All of the top seeds haven't lost. Also, just four of the 14 weight classes (120, 126, 195 and 220) have the top four seeds alive for championships.

Five No. 6 seeds made it to the semifinals, including Park's Danny Colby at 152. He is joined by six teammates in the semis.

"I think all of them have a chance," Park coach Jack Doyle said. "I think if we get guys that wrestle hard and give themselves a chance to win late in matches, I'll be happy."

As for Colby advancing, Doyle wasn't surprised.

Maybe from an outside standpoint it's a mild upset, but we came in expecting him to win. He wrestled very smart (against Cambridge's Dillon Sunnafrank). He won 1-0, but a win is a win."

Action resumed today at noon with second-round championship bouts and then first-round consolation matches will get under way. The second round of consolation will also be staged in the afternoon session.

The evening session is slated for a 6 p.m. start and that'll feature championship quarterfinals and additional consolation bouts.

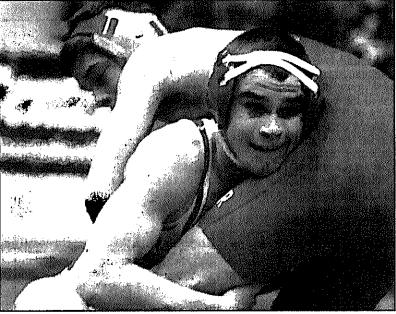

The Patriots went a perfect 14-for-14 on the first day, while Big Red was 13-of-14, which caused the five-point differential.

St. Clairsville, which was the top team from the local area after the first day, had a strong first day with 26 points. The Red Devils got a nice lift from Alex Timko at 113 pounds. Unseeded, he knocked off Toronto's Donnie Starkey, the eighth seed, 6-2.

Barnesville's Collin Wilson recorded the first upset

WHEELING — All top seeds remain in the championship chase as Day 2 of the 60th annual Ron Mauck OVAC Wrestling Tournament gets under way today.

Action begins at noon with championship second-round and first- and second-round consolation matches. The second session of the day, beginning at 6 p.m., will contain championship quarterfinal and third- and fourth-round consolations. "We wrestled OK," said Steubenville coach Mike Blackburn, whose team had 11 seeded entrants, tied with Parkersburg South for the most.

'It was a good opening day. We didn't get all the bonus points we might need. I think South pinned there way through except in one weight class.

That's true.

The Patriots sent 14 wrestlers to the second round, 13 by pin, in taking the top spot in the standings after the first day.

South finished with 54 points, followed by Steubenville with 49.

His victory helped springboard the Pilots to the Class 3A lead after the first round. River finished with 24 points.

Wheeling Park's Cody Amos, who is in search of his third consecutive OVAC title, set the pace for the quickest pin. He was on the mat for just seven seconds before pinning his opponent at 182 pounds.

Steubenville's top seed at 220 pounds - senior Greg Moray - made quick work of his first opponent. He was a winner by pin in 11 seconds.

Caldwell's Kale Rayner had the third quickest pin. The 170-pound top seed was a victor in just 16 seconds.

The debate over seeding is complete and the brackets are set.

It's almost time to get down to wrestling at the 60th annual Ron Mauck OVAC Wrestling Tournament, which opens Thursday evening at WesBanco Arena.

RON DILORENZO and his trusty trumpet are a tradition at the OVAC Ron Mauck Wrestling Tournament opening ceremonies. The retired Wheeling Park educator returned to the floor of the WesBanco Arena Thursday to perform the national anthem this season to kick off the 60th Annual wrestling classic.

Our Opinion OVAC Spectacle

THE 60TH edition of the Ron Mauck OVAC Wrestling Tournament unfolds in full splendor Thursday at Wheeling's WesBanco Arena. First-round action commences that evening following a grand Olympic-style opening ceremony.

The three-day wrestling extravaganza is one of the pinnacles of the prep mat season, along with mental resolve.

To emerge as a kingpin, a grappler must prevail five successive times against some quality foes. Each eventual kingpin (14 in all) will have successfully displayed their championship mettle.

The tournament brings together some 500 wrestlers from 40 conference members, meshing small schools with big. That is one of the beauties of the event, giving David a spectacular forum to possibly slay Goliath.

Parkersburg South is one of the pre-tournament favorites, and rightly so. The Wood Countybased Patriots are still infants in the OVAC, but have impressively flexed their mat muscles by pocketing the overall team title in their initial three forays in the event.

South, however, is no championship lock this year as it will be challenged by several battled-testthe respective Ohio and West ed teams, with Steubenville, on Virginia state tournaments, The paper, the strongest competitor. Kon Mauck tourney is a grueling. The Big Red gave South a spirited test of a participant's physical and battle for the overall team crown a year ago.

The Ron Mauck tournament operates seamlessly as the wrestling fraternity is a tight-knit and passionate collection of mat diehards. They all selflessly chip in with their respective strengths for the good of the cause.

We extend the best of luck to all the wrestlers and coaches competing this weekend. We also commend an impressive wrestling family which elevates this tournament to elite status.

Ironically, Shadyside, which figures to be one of the favorites in the Class 1A/2A field, has only its three top seeds as wrestlers who earned a seed.

The Tigers' top seeds are defending champion Alex Quinn (152), defending runnerup Ian Baker (145) and Chase Kinemond, who was runnerup as a sophomore, but didn't compete last winter due to injury, at

"I think those kids are deserving of the seed they received, but it's just a number," said Shadyside head coach Scott Kinemond. "They still have to come out, wrestle and prove they were worthy of earning that spot."

Quinn is one of four wrestlers in the tournament who've yet to taste defeat.

Steubenville's top seeds for the weekend are freshman Tariq Wilson at 106; Anthony Craig at 126 and Greg Moray at 220.

The remaining top seeds are: South's Lance Hill (1.13); Meadowbrook's Jerad Patterson (120); University's Scott Lopez (132); Wheeling Park's Dylan Taylor (138) and Cody Ámos (182); Caldwell's Kayle Rayner (170); Brooke's Nathan Daweson (195) and Morgantown's Taylor Ortiz (285).

"I think the fact that one seed might be a little deceiving," Blackburn said. All told, 34 schools in the tournament had a wrestler garner a seed.

After the aforementioned Steubenville Parkersburg South, University had eight wrestlers seeded, while ] Wheeling Park and Brooke each had seven wrestlers

St. Clairsville and Beaver both had six earn seeds

OVAC coaches gather for annual get-together

WHEELING — The area prep wrestling season got its "unofficial" start Monday night as OVAC mat coaches gathered for their annual preseason presser and dinner at
Was Rango Areas WesBanco Arena.

Dr. Dan Doyle, the evening's MC and director of the conference's wrestling tournament, reported during his remarks a 25-percent turnover in coaches this season within the conference.

One of those new faces will be at Wheeling Park, where Jack Doyle has been selected to replace his cousin, Sean Doyle, as the Patriots' mat boss.

Jack Doyle really isn't a new face. He served as an assistant at for Sean Doyle.

"We've been together for seven years so I hope it will be a seamless transition," said Jack Doyle, a John Marshall High School and West Liberty University graduate. "He teaches right next door to me so we'll be together the whole year."

The younger Doyle said he's been fortunate in watching and learning from his cousin during his years as an assistant coach.

"I've learned how a program needs to be run and what things need to be done to make sure we remain successful.

"But (Sean's) knowledge of the sport is going to be missed, no doubt."

The Patriots return 11 of 12 starters this season.

"Not too many coaches are fortunate enough to jump into a program as a head coach and have this amount of talent returning," Jack Doyle said.

"We're looking for a huge year out of many kids. We have two state finalists returning and two OVAC finalists back so we're looking to be very successful."

One of the teams that stood as a roadblock on Park's championship road the last few seasons is Parkersburg South.

The Wood County Patriots also have a new coach in Donna Dixon, who replaced the retired Paul Jackson.

Linsly has resurrected its wrestling program following a 10-year hiatus.

WHEELING, WV — Jerad Patterson: OVAC champion.

Has a nice ring to it, don't you think? Patterson,

Meadowbrook High's talented senior, lived up to his No. 1 seeding by capturing the 120-pound championship at the 60th Ron Mauck champion since 1992, claiming the 120-pound division via an 11-2 decision over second-seeded Matthew Beaman of Brooke in the title bout.

Patterson Meadowbrook's first OVAC the finals.

"I was very proud last year," stated Meadowbrook coach Jesse Wells of the topseeded Patterson, who emerged mark to 27-2. "He wrestled tough all weekend and was in command of every match."

the finals, To reach Meadowbrook's Patterson scored a 16-2 major decision over Derek Patterson of Cambridge; notched a 16-0 tech fall against Austin Digiandomenico of Wheeling Park; gained a 10-3 decision over Blake Kiedrowski of Steubenville Catholic and an 11-4 decision against Josh Cornell of Oak Glen.

Although Patterson was the Ione Colt place-winner, Wells felt his team turned in a solid performance all weekend.

"I was happy our team scored more points than last year," the MHS coach commented.

Steubenville claimed the overall and Class 4A team titles, unseating three-time defending champion Parkersburg South. South claimed the 5A crown while River won the 3A diviinsion, and Shadyside took the winners on Saturday, with 2A/1A title.

Three other local wrestlers settled for runner-up finishes.

Cambridge High's Sawyer Leppla finished second to top-seeded Alex Quinn at 152 pounds, dropping a 5-1 decision in the title bout.

"There's certainly no shame in losing to the defending OVAC champion," said Cambridge coach Tom "Tank Moore" of the second-seeded Leppla. "It's was definitely good preparation for him for the upcoming sectional tournament.'

included a 47-second pinfall against Nick Lemasters of Union Local; a pin of Cody Boles of John Marshall in 5:32; a pin of Bruce Sefert of Beallsville in 1:23; and a 4-0 decision against Chip Sturek of Parkersburg South. In posting a 4-1 mark, he is now 35-2 on the season.

Caldwell's Rayner, the No. 1 OVAC Wrestling Tournament seed at 170, lost a 10-6 deciwhich wrapped up on Saturday. sion to sixth-seeded Daniel became Lattanzio of Beaver Local in

The Redskins' Leasure, the with a 5-0 mark in the tourna- No. 2 seed at 182, was pinned ment to improve his season in 5:18 by top-seeded Cody Amos of Wheeling Park in the championship bout.

Leasure's road to the finals included a 28-second pin against Brandon Neville of Indian Creek; a pin of Westin Fogle of Harrison Central in 1:05; a 13-2 major decision against Skippy Scurry of Brooke; and a pin of Mitchell Wells of Edison in 2:42. He's now 31-3 for the season.

"Our team was a little banged up, but we wrestled through them and had five placers," said Caldwell coach Tom es: Brown, whose team settled for a runner-up finish to Shadyside in the Class 2A/1A division. "I'm especially proud all three seniors placed.

"Both guys who finished as runner-ups (Rayner and Leasure) still have room for improvement and we want to get better going forward," Brown added.

Barnesville had two place-Hobie Howiler claiming third place at 120 pounds and Austin Singleton taking seventh at Howiler won his third place bout over Braidon Knotts of Parkersburg South, 7-3, while Singleton beat Cambridge's Wesleigh Lewis for seventh place with a hard-fought 1-0 decision.

"I was very pleased with how Hobie finished the match as he scored four points in the final 19 seconds," said Barnesville coach Jayson Stephen, "and Leppla's route to the finals Austin was able to get a small measure of revenge tonight because he had lost twice to Lewis two years ago."

Stephen also praised his team for its weekend of work.

"I though our young kids got a lot of valuable experience," the Shamrock boss said. "Our veterans did a better job of advancing this year, too.'

Caldwell's Kameron Rayner took fifth place at 138, defeating Justin Callarik of St. Clairsville, 10-4, in his final match of the tournament.

Caldwell's Tyler Wiley settled for sixth place at 120 pounds, dropping a tough 8-7 decision to Josh Cornell of Oak Glen in the fifth place match. Teammate Caleb Van Meters was also sixth, falling by a 6-4 count to Leo Hermann of Steubenville Catholic in his final bout of the event.

Cambridge's Kevin Scrudders scored two points in the final 10 seconds to pull out a 4-3 decision over Dillon Blake of Cameron to claim seventh place at 145 pounds; and the Bobcats' Eric Fox finished in eighth place, defaulting due to injury to Brad Tomolonis in the 170-pound seventh-eigth place match.

"I thought we started well Thursday and early Friday but lost some focus late last night and maybe got intimidated by the venue a little," said Cambridge's Moore. "We don't want to peak yet, though. We still have work to do heading toward the sectional."

Steubenville ended Parkersburg South's three-year reign as Ron Mauck OVAC Wrestling Tourna-ment champions on Saturday night in the closest finish in four years

Big Red topped the team standings with 267.5 points in winning the tournament for the first time 1995. South totaled 257.

Wheeling Park was third with 197, while Brooke (139) and Beaver Local (132.5) rounded out the top five.

Harrison Central edged Bellaire by 16.5 in 2009, the year before South entered the conference.

"John Craig started this huge tradition back in the day and we've steadily been trying to get the program back to where it was," an elated Steubenville coach Mike Blackburn said. "This is just a stepping stone and these kids

Saturday night on the home floor, the 5-foot-11 McCormick turned in yet another double-double, scoring 26 points and pulling down 10 rebounds as the Maroon Knights (13-1) earned a 59-44 victory against Morgantown Trinity Christian.

Central coach Penn Kurtz obviously doesn't need much convincing about the kind of year McCormick is having, especially with her all-state teammate Emily Bucon still out indefinitely with a source brace in item. with a severe knee injury.

"If there is anybody in the state having a better year in the state than Colleen, I haven't heard of them," Kurtz said.

Despite the 15-point difference, the Maroon Knights needed - and got

- some big help from several others that had been counted on mainly as role players prior to Bucon's injury.

Freshman Lyndsey Baker came off the bench to score six of her 14 points during the fourth quarter. Senior Beth Stayduhar provided just five points but both her 3-pointer and two-point goal on a nice move toward the basket came at important times. Maria Olson, another senior, also contributed six points and a lot of hustle on the defensive

The visiting Warriors (7-7) didn't go down easily and stayed close until Central put together an 8-0 spurt the last 3:20 of the

For The News-Register
McMECHEN — With
an hour bus trip, an early afternoon start and the absence of two players and coach Mallory Blanton because of the flu, Toronto found itself behind the eight ball heading into a contest with a steadily improving Bishop Donahue team Saturday.

And the Bishops felt lit-tle sympathy for their guests early on, crashing the offensive boards for repeated second and third shots to take a four-point halftime lead.

However, junior Lindsay Bodnar scored 16 points and added eight rebounds and the Red Knights came out of the locker room and went on a 14-3, third-quarter blitz to record a comefrom-behind, 47-42, repeat victory against Bishop

But while Coach Donnie Gillis' Bishops (3-10) couldn't finish the deal Saturday, he was happy about progression improvement his team has made since earlier in the

"We had 28 turnovers and they beat us by 28 points earlier this season," Gillis said. "So I think just in that you can tell that we have improved as a team. We average 21 turnovers a game, and that was our high against them. Unfortunately, we have a tendency to not take care of the ball very well.'

Not only did the Bishops make a game of it, they turned the ball over just 19 times - three times fewer than the Red Knights.

Rich Coburn, stepped in for Blanton, watched Toronto (9-5) race to a quick 8-3 lead before settling for a 10-9 margin after the first quarter. After

Kaepernick Poses Challenges

FLOWERY BRANCH, Ga. (AP) — Michael Turner's trademark high-pitched laugh filled the Falcons' locker room.

Asked about San Francisco quarterback Colin Kaepernick, Turner grinned Thursday and said "I'm glad I'm not on

Turner, the big running back, and the Falcons' offense want to hold the ball and limit Kaepernick's time on the field in today's NFC championship game.

The Falcons have seen enough in Kaepernick's eight starts to respect the versatile quarterback with the long stride and strong right arm.

Kaepernick comes to Atlanta after running for 181 yards — an NFL record for a quarterback — with two touchdowns in last week's win over Green Bay. Kaepernick also threw for 263 yards with two touchdowns. He became only the third quarterback, after Otto Graham and Jay Cutler, to run and throw for at least two touchdowns in a postseason game.

It's little wonder the Falcons are impressed, even after facing such other dual-threat quarterbacks as Robert Griffin III, Cam Newton and Russell Wilson this 6-foot-4, 230-pound Kaepernick is unique. "I think he's just a different guy altogether," Weatherspoon said. "He's a taller guy, obviously. He broke the record last week, so that makes him special and different. I think he has a lot more speed. Russell is more of a quick guy. Colin is a faster guy.

Wilson and Griffin are scramblers. Kaepernick looks more like a 200-meter sprinter with his unusually long stride.

"That's the thing," Weatherspoon said.
"You look at him and you think long striders are not fast, but then you look and he's covering a lot of ground and passing a lot of people. You can tell he can run. Speed won't be a surprise to us. We've watched the tape. We'll be ready to go."

The 49ers don't have to be told they'll bring an unusually gifted quarterback to the Georgia Dome. In only half of a season, Kaepernick has given the San Francisco offense a facelift. "He's super-fast, athletic and he can throw the ball," said 49ers running back LaMichael James. "Once he breaks the pocket he's always looking downfield. He's looking to throw the ball more than run the ball. But once he takes off, he's faster than a lot of running backs and line-backer Sean Weatherspoon says the backers. He's an incredible athlete."

He finished eighth in balloting for the Heisman Award. Austin earned first team All-Big 12 Conference both as a receiver and kick returner and was the Big 12's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year with kicker Quinn Sharp of Oklahoma State.

For the season, Austin compiled 2,910 all-purpose yards — an average of 223.8 yards per game, to rank second in the nation after ranking first as a jun-

This season, he caught 114 passes for 1,289 yards and 12 touchdowns; ran for 643 yards on 72 carries with three scores; had 32 kick returns for 813 yards and a TD; and returned 15 punts for 165 yards and a score. He was one of only two players in the nation with 500 yards in three different categories and one of three players with 110 or more pass receptions.

Against the University of Oklahoma, he recorded the second highest total allpurpose yards (572) in a single game in FBS history while setting WVU and Big 12 Conference records. In the 50-49 shootout loss to the Sooners, Austin set WVU's single game rushing record with 344 yards and his two rushing touchdowns made him the first Mountaineer in history to score a TD four different ways (receiving, rushing, kick and punt return) in one season.

Burcham is the most honored boys' distance runner in Mountain State history. Entering his final track season this spring, he has earned five Gatorade state Athlete of the Year awards in cross country and track. This fall, he worn a record third straight Class AAA cross country title with a course record times. Last spring, he repeated as Class AAA 800, 1,600 and 3,200 meter track champion while tying his own 800 state meet record and recording the state's first-ever sub-9 minute 3,200 time. He has committed to the University of Oklahoma.

"He doesn't give up hardly any plays, makes a ton of tackles," Brady said of the 37-year-old Lewis, who missed 10 games with a right triceps injury, but has been a tackling machine in the postseason. "He's great in the pass game, great in the run game. He blitzes well, like he did a few years ago. He's really a playmaker for them, so they give him an opportunity to make those plays. time. Scott Zurevinski flew ahead on the left side, centering the puck to Lenes, who found the net for his second of the night, just nine seconds after the Solar Bears' tally. Paul Crowder also notched a helper, in his first game back from the AHL Penguins. With 2:35 left in the second period the Solar Bears evened the score. Ryan Cruthers took a shot from the left circle, which was originally stopped by Scott Darling. However, the puck squirted free, and the constant jamming of CJ Severyn forced the puck out of Darling's control, and in over the line. The goal was credited to Cruthers, as the teams went to the third period tied at two.

Neither team was able to find the twine in the third period, as overtime was necessary. Unfortunately, the extra session concluded with a triumph for the home team, as Scott Tanski ripped of the Hornung Award as the most versatile player in major college football, will be honored by the W.Va. Sports Writers Association at the 67th annual Victory Awards Dinner on Sunday, May 5 at the Village Square Conference Center in Clarksburg.

The 5-foot-9, 180-pound senior receiver-kick returner-running back from Baltimore, Md., is the 12th multiple honoree since 1934 of the oldest statewide award from the 81-year-old WVSWA.

Second in the voting was Cabell Midland's worldranked distance runner Jacob Burcham. Other top vote-getters included ex-WVU rifle shooter and Olympic gold and silver medalist Nicco Campriani; WVU All-America basketball player Kevin Jones; WVU record-setting foot-ball quarterback Geno Smith; Marshall quarterback and Conference USA Offensive Player of the Year Rakeem Čato; two-time Kennedy Award winStedman Bailey; and golfer Pat Carter, who won a 13th W.Va. Amateur title.

Austin earned All-Amer-Austin, also the winner ica recognition from various outlets including the Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, Sports Illustrated, and Pro Football Weekly. He finished eighth in balloting for the Heisman Award. Austin earned first team All-Big 12 Conference both as a receiver and kick returner and was the Big 12's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year with kicker Quinn Sharp of Oklahoma State.

For the season, Austin compiled 2,910 all-purpose yards - an average of 223.8 yards per game, to rank second in the nation after ranking first as a jun-

This season, he caught 114 passes for 1,289 yards and 12 touchdowns; ran for 643 yards on 72 carries with three scores; had 32 kick returns for 813 yards and a TD; and returned 15 punts for 165 yards and a score. He was one of only

more pass receptions.
Against the University of Oklahoma, he recorded the second highest total allpurpose yards (572) in a single game in FBS history while setting WVU and Big 12 Conference records. In the 50-49 shootout loss to the Sooners, Austin set WVU's single game rushing record with 344 yards and his two rushing touchdowns made him the first Mountaineer in history to score a TD four different ways (receiving, rushing, kick and punt return) in one season.

Burcham is the most honored boys' distance runner in Mountain State history. Entering his final track season this spring, he has earned five Gatorade state Athlete of the Year awards in cross country and track. This fall, he worn a record third straight Clasis AAA cross country title with a course record time. Last spring, he repeated as Class AAA 800, 1,600 and 3,200 meter track champion while tying his own 800 state meet record and recording the state's first-ever sub-9 minute 3,200 time. Steubenville also won the Class 4A crown. South took home the 5A title, with River and Shadyside winning championships in Class 3A and 2A/1A, respectively.

Wheeling Park boasted two champions - Dylan Taylor at 138 and Cody Amos at 182. It was the third straight crown for Amos, a senior, who received the David Bierkorette Award as the event's top wrestler as voted on by coaches.
"Dylan and Cody deserve everything they got," Park coach Jack Doyle said. "They came out and did what they needed to do."

Amos also won both the Hercules Award given to the wrestler with the best time in pinning opponents. During the three-day event, Amos won five matches by pin in 6:40.

'His goal just isn't to win championships," Doyle said of Amos. "His goal goal is to pin his way to a title."

It was a big night for the Tigers as the senior trio of Ian Baker (145), Alex Quinn (152) and Chase Kinemond (160) won backto-back-to-back crowns.

Quinn won his second straight title, while Baker and Kinemond stepped to the top spot on the awards' stand for the first time.

"This is something special. Scott Kinemond was lifted into the air for the third time. "This is the best wrestling moment for me.

"To see these three seniors accomplish this is great. Coaching them from kindergarten, first grade and just being with them throughout their lives and watching them grow up.

"I'm speechless."
St. Clairsville's Corey Earnest won his first OVAC crown by upending 2012 runner-up Taylor Ortiz of Morgantown at

South's Lance Hill (113), Meadowbrook's Jerad Patterson (120), University's Scott Lopez (132) and Beaver Local's Daniel Lattanzio (170) were the other individual champions. NOTE

Tournament to formally dedicate the school's new mat to Douglas, a 1961 graduate of Bridgeport.

"I am honored, flattered and humbled," Douglas said. "This is a tribute to George Kovalick, Bridgeport Local Schools and the OVAC Wrestling Committee for the job they've done not only for this tournament, but for developing wrestling in this valley.'

The Douglas mat has been down all weekend at WesBanco Arena and it's actually the first time all season the mat has been used.

Bridgeport, which is low on numbers in its program, didn't have a home meet, which got its officials thinking of a way to bring recognition to Douglas in the correct way.

"There aren't many (school) districts that have a wrestler from its school that's achieved as much as Bobby has," said Bridgeport Board of Education President Jodi Harkness.

"We just thought we needed to recognize Bobby the way we did the Niekros (Phil and Joe) and (John) Havlicek in their sports. We were planning something just small in the school, but to be able to do it at the OVAC Tournament is awesome because instead of maybe just 50 people, we've got the whole valley

The Bulldogs' wrestling program is still close to Douglas' heart though he lives in Iowa. He's continually trying to come up with ways to improve the numbers both at his alma mater and in the sport in general.

"The grandkids need to get busy and start having some babies because "I AM honored, flattered and humbled."

Ohio Valley," Douglas said. "We need to do a better job of selling the sport and it's value to our educators. We need to give women and girls more of an opportunity."

Douglas knows the sport of wrestling is still on the rise and he used the growth of the OVAC Tournament as an example.

"This tourmament is growing, so obviously the OVAC is doing some-thing right," Douglas said, "There's a fresh energy in the Ohio Valley as far as wrestling, and I believe this tournament has a lot to do with it. This tournament is one of the key ingredients of wrestling development in the valley. This is the greatest sport given by God to man!"

Douglas views wrestling as much, much more than a sport.

"This provides our youth with the discipline, education, protection from bullies and so many other things for so many of us," Douglas said.

Douglas' mark on the wrestling world is well documented. He was the first black Ohio High School state champion and was a member of the 1959 Bulldogs' squad, which won the state team championship.

He then took his talents to West Liberty State College and won a NAIA National Championship and was NCAA runnerup before transferthere aren't enough babies in the ring to Oklahoma State University sstaskey@timesleaderonline.com where he won the Big Eight Conference title.

Douglas obviously didn't stop with his collegiate accomplishments. He won five national championships and was named the nation's most outstanding wrestler in 1970. All told, Douglas ended the competition portion of his wrestling career with a 303-17-7 record.

He then entered the coaching profession where he served as the head coach of the United States Freestyle team in 1992. He also coached at Arizona State and Iowa State, winning a NCAA National title with the Sun Devils.

While coaching at the collegiate level is in Douglas' rear-view window, the passion for the sport won't ever change. That's why he's working feverishly on his United States Olympic Training Centers to help continue to build the sport.

"We're going to raise the level of competition in the valley, in Ohio and West Virginia and all over America for that matter," Douglas said. There's a ton of talent here and we're going to come in here and take it to the next level."

Douglas is also working on his 20-20 program where he hopes to find the next 20 big things in wrestling by

"We're going to start at the gradeschool level and we've already identified several, including a very young girl in the valley," Douglas said.
"Now, I just have to convince her parents to let her wrestle.'

Hinegardner's named added to dual meet event

By SETH STASKEY

Times Leader Sports Editor

WHEELING - The Ohio Valley Athletic Conference has long paid tribute to its most dedicated supporters, coaches and volunteers.

Saturday evening, prior to the start of the placement bouts at the 60th annual Ron Mauck OVAC Wrestling Tournament, the OVAC honored long-time John Marshall coach Bill Hinegardner, who fits into all of the above categories.

The OVAC announced that it was formally adding Hinegardner's name to its dual meet tournament, which will be contested next month at WesBanco Arena.

The second annual event will now, forever, be known as the OVAC Bill Hinegardner Wrestling Dual Meet Championship.

"When you talk in the wrestling circles, Bill is probably the most respected coach and wrestling person in Ohio and West Virginia locally," said OVAC Executive Secretary Tom Rataiczak. "Bill is a super person and there couldn't be

Hinegardner led the Monarchs to four West Virginia Class AAA state titles and five runner-up finishes. They won five OVAC 4-A titles and a like number of dual tournament titles, including winning 41 dual matches in a row. All told, he had a dual record of 133-29-1.

FINALS TRIVIA

OF the 28 wrestlers in the championship final bouts, 22 were seniors and only one was a freshman.

Shadyside's Ian Baker, Wheeling Park's Cody Amos, Steubenville's Greg Moray and Anthony Craig were the only four wrestlers in the tournament field to have placed in the event in all four years of their high school career.

During Saturday's afternoon session, the presentation of special awards continued. River's entire team was recognized with the Project Best Sadler Sportsmanship Award for their examplary work done throughout the season.

This is an amazing feeling," Ernest said. "After the football season, I wanted to carry that into wrestling season and it's working out for me so far. We're only about halfway through our schedule, though. We have some big tournaments left."

Ernest led the match much of the way, 1-0, but Ortiz got a late escape to knot the match at 1 and then got another escape in the first OT, which forced the win all session.

Tournament to formally dedicate the school's new mat to Douglas, a 1961 graduate of Bridgeport.

"I am honored, flattered and hum-bled," Douglas said. "This is a tribute to George Kovalick, Bridgeport Local Schools and the OVAC Wrestling Committee for the job they've done not only for this tournament, but for developing wrestling in this valley."

The Douglas mat has been down all weekend at WesBanco Arena and it's actually the first time all season the mat has been used.

Bridgeport, which is low on numbers in its program, didn't have a home meet, which got its officials thinking of a way to bring recognition to Douglas in the correct way.

'There aren't many (school) districts that have a wrestler from its school that's achieved as much as Bobby has," said Bridgeport Board of Education President Jodi Harkness.

"We just thought we needed to recognize Bobby the way we did the Niekros (Phil and Joe) and (John) Havlicek in their sports. We were planning something just small in the school, but to be able to do it at the OVAC Tournament is awesome because instead of maybe just 50 people, we've got the whole valley

and start having some babies because

Douglas knows the sport of wrestling is still on the rise and he used the growth of the OVAC Tournament as an example.

"This tourmament is growing, so obviously the OVAC is doing something right," Douglas said. "There's a fresh energy in the Ohio Valley as far as wrestling, and I believe this tournament has a lot to do with it. This tournament is one of the key ingredients of wrestling development in the valley. This is the greatest sport given by God to man!"

Douglas views wrestling as much, much more than a sport.

"This provides our youth with the discipline, education, protection from bullies and so many other things for so many of us," Douglas said.

Douglas' mark on the wrestling world is well documented. He was the first black Ohio High School state champion and was a member of the 1959 Bulldogs' squad, which won the state team championship.

was NCAA runnerup before transferthere aren't enough babies in the ring to Oklahoma State University where he won the Big Eight Conference title.

Douglas obviously didn't stop with his collegiate accomplishments. He won five national championships and was named the nation's most outstanding wrestler in 1970. All told, Douglas ended the competition portion of his wrestling career with a 303-17-7 record.

He then entered the coaching profession where he served as the head coach of the United States Freestyle team in 1992. He also coached at Arizona State and Iowa State, winning a NCAA National title with the Sun Devils.

While coaching at the collegiate level is in Douglas' rear-view window, the passion for the sport won't ever change. That's why he's working feverishly on his United States Olympic Training Centers to help continue to build the sport.

We're going to raise the level of competition in the valley, in Ohio and West Virginia and all over America for that matter," Douglas said. "There's a ton of talent here and we're going to come in here and take it to the next level.

Douglas is also working on his 20-20 program where he hopes to find the next 20 big things in wrestling by

Hinegardner's named added to dual meet event

By SETH STASKEY

Times Leader Sports Editor

WHEELING - The Ohio Valley Athletic Conference has long paid tribute to its most dedicated supporters, coach-

Saturday evening, prior to the start of the placement bouts at the 60th annual Ron Mauck OVAC Wrestling Tournament, the OVAC honored long-time John Marshall coach Bill Hinegardner, who fits into all of the above cate-

The OVAC announced that it was formally adding Hinegardner's name to its dual meet tournament, which will be contested next month at WesBanco Arena.

The second annual event will now, forever, be known as the OVAC Bill Hinegardner Wrestling Dual Meet Championship.

"When you talk in the wrestling circles, Bill is probably the most respected coach and wrestling person in Ohio and West Virginia locally," said OVAC Executive Secretary Tom Rataiczak. "Bill is a super person and there couldn't be a better person to name this tournament after."

The OVAC Bill Hinegardner Wrestling Dual Meet Championship will be held on Feb. 6 and the top four teams in the OVAC standings of each class will converge on downtown Wheeling for the tournament, which determines the pennants that are awarded at the Banquet of Champions in May.

"Bill was a big advocate of dual meets when they were first starting," Rataiczak said. "Plus, with this being the 70th anniversary of the OVAC, we felt this would be a good time to honor him. There are few people in the conference who've put as much time into a sport as Bill has."

Hinegardner led the Monarchs to four West Virginia Class AAA state titles and five runner-up finishes. They won five OVAC 4-A titles and a like number of dual tournament titles, including winning 41 dual matches in a row. All told, he had a dual record of 133-29-1.

FINALS TRIVIA

OF the 28 wrestlers in the championship final bouts, 22 were seniors and only one was a freshman.

Shadyside's Ian Baker, Wheeling Park's Cody Amos, Steubenville's Greg Moray and Anthony Craig were the only four wrestlers in the tournament field to have placed in the event in all four years of their high school career.

SADLER SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

During Saturday's afternoon session, the presentation of special awards continued. River's entire team was recognized with the Project Best Sadler Sportsmanship Award for their examplary work done throughout the season.

STERLING ANTHEMS

Both of the Star Spangled Banners sang during Saturday's two sessions were simply outstanding. The afternoon session was sung by Harrison Central's David Forrester, who wrestled in the 120-pound weight class. The evening session was sung by Victoria Haswell, a student at Shadyside.

Both did tremendous jobs in honoring our nation.

WELCOME BACK

The past champions of the 1988 season were honored with their 25-year reunion prior to the start of wrestling Saturday night. Included were local graduates Reed Case and Aric Gibson (Cadiz), Dean Burke and Rick Burlenski (Bridgeport) and Terry Holcomb (St. Clairsville).

WHEELING - The Shadyside Tigers' trio of Alex Quinn, Ian Baker and Chase Kinemond have spent countless hours together in the wrestling room.

However, this is the first time since 2010 that all three are in the OVAC Tournament together for one reason or another.

The trio is on cusp of adding their names to a large and crowded board of OVAC champions at Shadyside High School. However, you'll only hear each talk about the next match at hand and not get caught looking ahead.

Baker has been in the finals as a freshman and junior and is looking to get the OVAC monkey off his back this year at 145 pounds.

"Having (Chase and Alex) in the semifinals too means the world," Baker continued. "We all work hard together and we should all be rewarded together."

Quinn, meanwhile, was a finalist as a frosh, missed his sophomore campaign and came back last season to win the 152-pound title and has his eyes on a repeat.

"It's the same routine," Quinn said. "It's nice that we've been here before because we know we won't be starstruck. We know what to prepare for and know how to get past this."

Quinn knows he's got a match to win before reaching the finals, but he's also well versed in his Tigers' wrestling history.

"I want to be in the same breath as guys like Mike Miller, Johnny Merryman and guys like that." Quinn said. "I feel like I am wrestling pretty well right now, but I know there's room for improvement."

Kinemond, meanwhile, is back in the semifinals for the first time since 2011 after missing last season with a knee injury he sustained in football. He's bumped up several weight classes to 160 pounds and has cruised through three rounds thus far.

"Getting this far is a great feeling, but I've been here before and I am still taking it one match at a time," Kinemond said. "I felt a little sluggish and rusty when I first came back this season, but I feel good about where I'm at

Senior standout Damon Outward is on the cusp of his first OVAC final. The third-seed at 126 pounds has been impressive in his three matches. After reaching the quarters with a technical fall against Morgantown's Seth Gribble by a Senior 285 pounder Corey 19-4 score, he had a date with East Ernest and senior 160 pounder Liverpool's Frankie Williams, who Dalton Nolte are in the 'Final 4' of earned his 100th career win on Outward, who earned his 100th career win earlier this month, notched a victory by a 5-2 count over Williams.

"I felt like I was able to wrestle my match," Outward said. "I just and wrestle my match again. Being in the semifinals is so awesome. and Dalton. We've never wrestled seeded and undefeated Scott Lopez My family has been with me the either kid, and when we see fresh whole time. Parts of my high school career have been a rough Martins Ferry head coach Scott ride, but my family has allowed me to keep it as smooth as possible and I am thankful for that.'

> Senior Zac Coole earned a trip to the semifinals and avenged a loss from earlier this season in the process. The Riders' 220 pounder took down River's J.D. Dotson, 3semifinals.

> En route to the quarters, Coole decisioned Morgantown's Cody Maurin, 8-2.

Coole's next challenge is the top-seeded in Steubenville's Greg Moray, who has three pins in the tournament in a combined 2:40 of mat time.

St. Clairsville, which finds itself in 11th overall and trailing only Big Red in the Class 4A standings, also has two in the championship semifinals.

Both of the Red Devils' semifi-nalists earned second seeds prior to the tournament.

the tournament.

"We've been hot and cold this weekend, but when we're hot, we've been really hot," said Red Devils' head coach Joel Sansone. "I hate Friday night (at the OVAC) because there are too many nerves. When we go out and force our have to go into the semifinals with offense, that's when we win. We the same mindset, have some fun need to continue to press the issue. I really like the draws for Corey faces, it's just like blood in the water.'

Ernest has pinned his way to the semifinals and didn't need much time in doing so on Friday. He got past Toronto's Tim West in just 35 seconds. In the quarters, he stuck Magnolia's Alex Newman in 26

He'll now take on third-seeded 1, in overtime to advance to the Ryan Wood of Big Red, who dispatched third-seeded Preston Wise of Brooke to the consolation bracket in the quarters. Nolte, meanwhile, got to the semifinals by virtue of a pin of Meadowbrook's Richard Ramge in the second round and then a major decision against University's Nick Fisher by a 13-5 count.

Nolte will take on Wheeling Park's Danny Colby in the semifinals. Colby was a winner against Cambridge's Dillon Sunnafrank, the third seed, in the quarters.

Barnesville, which trails River in the 3A team standings, has one semifinalist.

Freshman dandy Hobie Howiler was impressive in earning two more victories Friday en route to a meeting with second-seeded Matthew Beaman of Brooke today in the 120-pound semifinals.

Howiler was a winner by technical fall over Bellaire's Austin Hollingshead in the second round and then took down Beaver Local's Jason Keyes by pin at the 2:40 mark of the match.
