

OVAC All-Star Soccer Rosters Announced

By JOSH STROPE
Sports Editor

Another exciting soccer season is in the books and there is no better way to cap it off than with the annual OVAC All-Star Soccer Games, slated for Sunday, Nov. 11 at Red Devil Stadium in St. Clairsville.

The boys will play at 1 p.m., followed by the girls at 3 p.m.

In the boys' game, the West Virginia squad will feature three players representing the OVAC Class 5A champion University Hawks — Wyatt Nett, Matthew Cargill and Cameron Mitchell.

University coach Dustin Talton will lead the team and be assisted by Linsly's Greg Martin and Oak Glen's Joe Provenzano.

Linsly won the Class 3A/1A championship behind solid goalkeeping from Chaz Ghaphery, who is on the team along with Cadets defender, Corban James-Barrett.

Others selected to represent the Mountaineers are Jeffrey Okai (Morgantown), Caleb Shepherd (Trinity), Tino Kayafas (Wheeling Park), Justin Mencer (John Marshall), Kyle Patrick Newmyer (Wheeling Central), Guillaume Weimer (Wheeling Park), Daniel Polinski (Morgantown), Angelo Gentile (Wheeling Park), Evan Gilbert (Weir), Caleb Owen (Weir), Nick Cruny (Brooke), Parker Provenzano (Oak Glen) and Gage Bailey (Oak Glen).

East Liverpool won the Class 4A championship and is represented by Cameron McNicol, Shawn Johnston and Kamren Klakos.

The rest of the Buckeyes roster includes Nicholas Oliver (Cambridge), Ryan McKee (Edison), Michael Herrman (Steubenville Catholic), Kolbe Rice (Steubenville Catholic), Anthony Perrino (Indian Creek), Juan-Miguel Gonzalez (Steubenville Catholic), Ryan Davenport (St. Clairsville), Evan Stine (Harrison Central), Aedan Theobald (Caldwell), Jacob Noble (Steubenville), Justice Slappy (Steubenville), Samuel Brothers (Beaver Local), Devin McFarland (St. Clairsville), Alpha Jallow (Indian Creek), Jacob Clevenger (Steubenville) and Ian Edwards (Cambridge).

Chuck Brettel led a remarkable turnaround for Indian Creek this season and the Redskins boss was rewarded by being named head coach. He is assisted by Steubenville Catholic's Steve Kopcha and East Liverpool's Zack Kinsey.

On the girls' side, all three OVAC champions were from West Virginia — Parkersburg South (5A), Oak Glen (4A) and Wheeling Central (3A/1A).

Riley Pigott and Charley Mae Taylor will suit up as Patriots for the final time. Standout defender Kathryn Bowers was selected but unable to play because of injury.

Oak Glen won its third OVAC title in four years and is represented by electrifying goal-scorer Maggie Kovalcik and midfielder Natalie Szyrka.

And you can't talk about goal-scorers without mentioning Wheeling Central's Kenadee Wayt. She will be joined on the squad by teammate/sister Ireland Wayt.

Julia Gianni (Weir), Stephanie Chmiel (University), Mackenzie Hollaway (Weir), Makayla Virden (Madonna), Andrea Parsons (Wheeling Park), Ari Christiansen (University), Niya Cook (Wheeling Park), Deanna Crumm (Wheeling Park) and Corinne Grabow (University) round out the West Virginia team.

Parkersburg South's Ron Buckholtz is the coach and is assisted by Wheeling Central's Julie Barack and Oak Glen's Ryan Welis.

Don't be fooled, Ohio boasts its bevy of goal-scorers, led by St. Clairsville's Alyssa Otto.

Otto will be joined by teammates Maria Vincenzo and Julie Nardo.

The rest of the Buckeyes are Patricia Boyer (Union Local), Madison Ours (Beaver Local), Jara Madzia (Harrison Central), Darshay Foster (East Liverpool), Michaela Brancazio (Steubenville), Ashley Yaich (Indian Creek), Rebecca Bodo (Steubenville Catholic), MaKayla Crown over (Steubenville), Sydney Starr (Harrison Central), Lauren Ferralli (Edison), Payton Gaydosh (Indian Creek), Jacqueline Francis (Beaver Local), Kiera Johnson (Cambridge), Emily Monte (Beaver Local) and Mackenzie Orban (Indian Creek).

The coaches are Steubenville's Jared Robinson, Steubenville Catholic's Katrina Fabian and Beaver Local's Liz Connor.

Offensive and Defensive Players of the Game will be selected following each game. Prior to each game, the OVAC Player of the Year and Coach of the Year will be recognized.

Cost is $6 for adults and $4 for students.

Wayt Scores Twice To Lead W.Va. All-Stars

Central standout also named 3A/1A Player of the Year

By KYLE LUTZ
Staff Writer

ST. CLAIRSVILLE — For the last time in their prep soccer career, 34 senior girls suited up to represent their high school in the OVAC All-Star game Sunday afternoon at Red Devils Stadium.

While it was a special day for all athletes, it was an extra special one for Wheeling Central's Kenadee Wayt and Parkersburg South's Charley Mae Taylor.

Wayt, who became Wheeling Central's all-time goal scorer and was named 1A/3A Player of the Year, tallied two goals in the second half while Taylor got the scoring going for the Mountain state with a pair of goals in the first half as West Virginia defeated Ohio 4-0.

"It was a good performance considering you're bringing a bunch of girls together that have never played before," West Virginia and Parkersburg South coach Ron Bucholtz said. "You got a couple on the team with each other, but the fact they don't play as a team during the season, it took them a few minutes to get used to each other. From that point, they started to look very good. The possession was good, the combination of play, the movement and even the communication started to get better as they got more familiar with each other."

Bucholtz was also named OVAC Coach of the Year.

Please see WAYT, Page 12

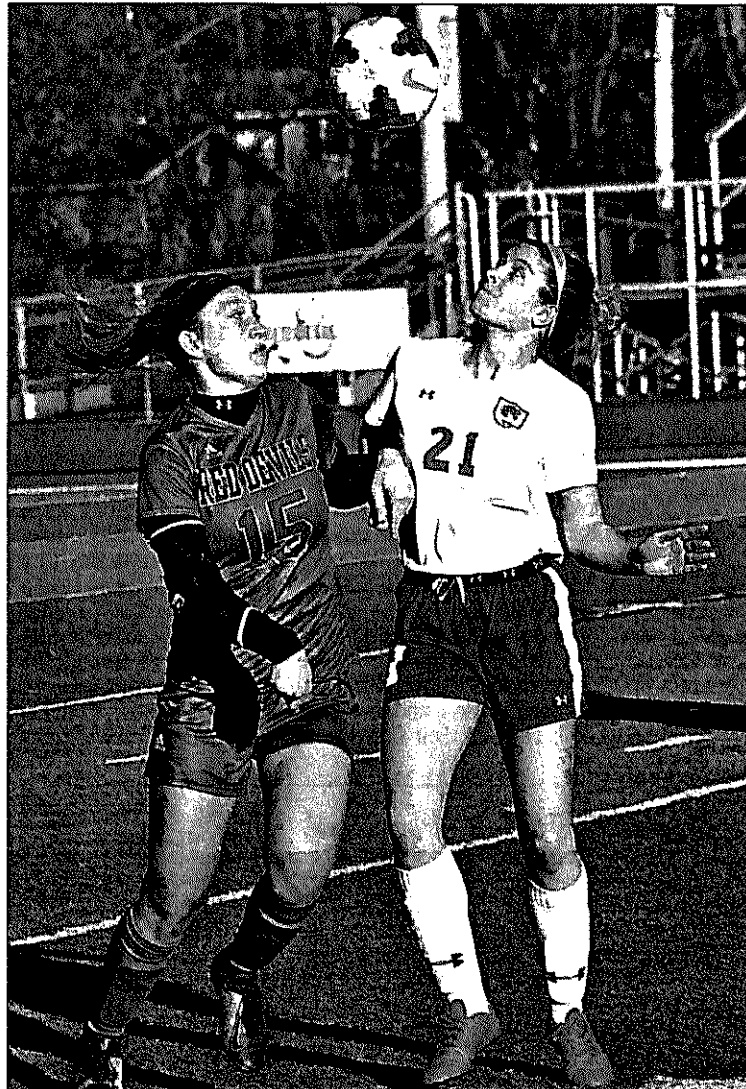

Photo by Kyle Lutz
Wheeling Park's Andrea Parsons (21) and St. Clairsville's Alyssa Otto keep their eyes on a loose ball during the OVAC All-Star game on Saturday at Red Devils Stadium.

Boys' Game Ends in Stalemate

Central's Newmeyer, Creek's Jallow score goals in 1-1 tie

By KYLE LUTZ
Staff Writer

ST. CLAIRSVILLE — While all-star games are all in good fun, the ending to the boys OVAC All-Star Soccer game almost was a Hollywood script.

With the score tied at 1-1 and less than 10 seconds to go, West Virginia had Ohio on the brink.

By KYLE LUTZ
Staff Writer

ST. CLAIRSVILLE — For the last time in their prep soccer career, 34 senior girls suited up to represent their high school in the OVAC All-Star game Sunday afternoon at Red Devils Stadium.

While it was a special day for all athletes, it was an extra special one for Wheeling Central's Kenadee Wayt and Parkersburg South's Charley Mae Taylor.

Wayt, who became Wheeling Central's all-time goal scorer and was named 1A/3A Player of the Year, tallied two goals in the second half while Taylor got the scoring going for the Mountain state with a pair of goals in the first half as West Virginia defeated Ohio 4-0.

"It was a good performance considering you're bringing a bunch of girls together that have never played before," West Virginia and Parkersburg South coach Ron Bucholtz said. "You got a couple on the team with each other, but the fact they don't play as a team during the season, it took them a few minutes to get used to each other. From that point, they started to look very good. The possession was good, the combination of play, the movement and even the communication started to get better as they got more familiar with each other."

Bucholtz was also named OVAC Coach of the Year.

Please see WAYT, Page 12

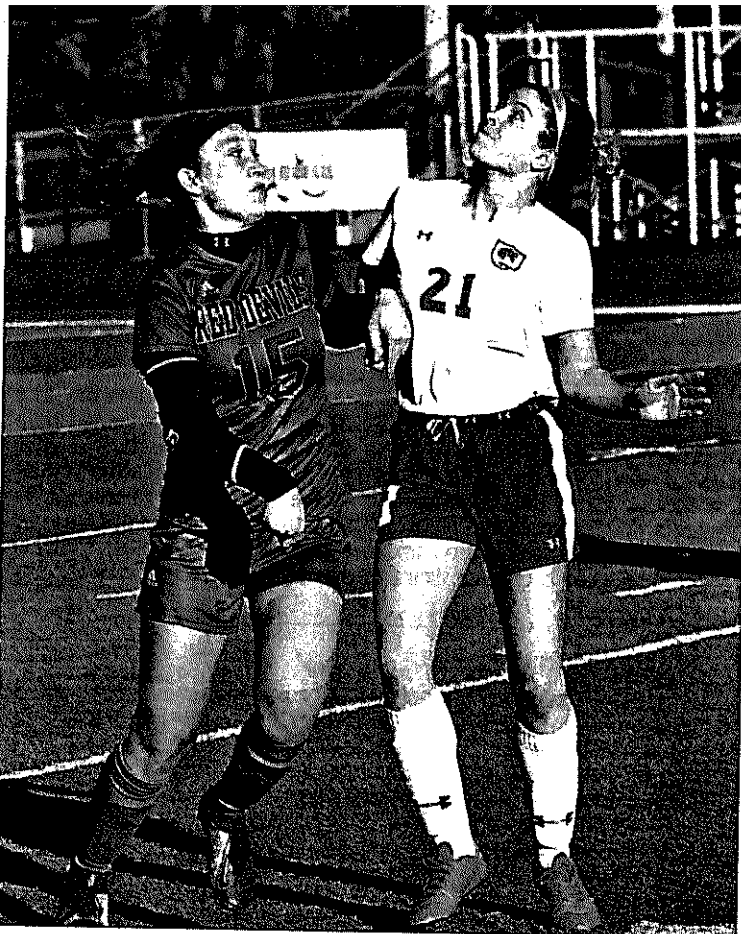

Photo by Kyle Lutz
Wheeling Park's Andrea Parsons (21) and St. Clairsville's Alyssa Otto keep their eyes on a loose ball during the OVAC All-Star game on Saturday at Red Devils Stadium.

Boys' Game Ends in Stalemate

Central's Newmeyer, Creek's Jallow score goals in 1-1 tie

By KYLE LUTZ
Staff Writer

ST. CLAIRSVILLE — While all-star games are all in good fun, the ending to the boys OVAC All-Star Soccer game almost was a Hollywood script.

With the score tied at 1-1 and less than 10 seconds to go, West Virginia had Ohio on the brink.

Moving the ball downfield, Wheeling Park's Guillaume Weimer dished a perfect cross to classmate and teammate James Hofmann. As time was winding down, Hofmann headed the ball, only to see it go centimeters right of the post just before time expired and the game ended in a 1-1 stalemate.

"We were down by a goal, so myself and the coaches decided that we were going to go with three in the back and try to push a few more guys forward. We figured we might as well try to go for it," University and West Virginia coach Dustin Talton said. "We got the goal and we pushed numbers up there and then that's the opportunity we wanted to create. Getting guys in the box and be a little front loaded there. It almost played out for us."

Photo by Kyle Lutz
Wheeling Central's Kyle Newmeyer and Steubenville Catholic's Juan Miguel-Gonzalez go after a loose ball.

West Virginia saw themselves in an early hole. Indian Creek's Alpha Jallow found the back of the net 41 seconds into the game as he took a pass from his Redskins teammate Anthony Perrino.

See STALEMATE, Page 12

WAYT

(Continued from Page 11)

About eight and half minutes into the contest, Taylor — who was also named 5A Co-Player of the Year — took a pass from University's Ari Christiansen and buried the ball in the back of the net to put the score at 1-0. The senior proved why she deserved the award as with less than five minutes to play, she secured her second goal of the afternoon.

"The Ohio team gave us a good game," Bucholtz said. "Traditionally this game been a little bit one-sided. I'm glad to see the gap is closing in the competitiveness of the game. It's good for the Ohio kids to come out and play a good game. They held their own. (Alyssa) Otto from St. Clairsville did a great job. They got her free several times and fortunately Corinne Grabow of University was Johnny-on-the-Spot and stuffed her on three breakaways in a row late in the first half. That kept that game interesting and kept the shutout in line. I was very pleased with what I saw."

In one of those instances, Otto had an open look at the net with about nine minutes to play in the first half, but Grabow read her perfectly.

With Otto's shot on goal, the ball hit off of Grabow's hands. However, the ball did get past the goalkeeper, but with the deflection, the ball was off target and the shutout was kept in tact.

The second half saw more of the same.

With 31:18 left in the game, Oak Glen standout and 4A Player of the Year Maggie Kovalcik dished out a pass to Wayt as she found the back of the net.

Wayt scored her second goal about 20 minutes later as she took a pass from Taylor to make it 4-0.

"It's always a fun atmosphere," Ohio and Steubenville coach Jared Robinson said. "It's really great to see these girls come out here and get to play after their hard work for however many years they've been playing. Just to come together and celebrate all their achievements and their hard work. It's a nice thing to be a part of and it's a good time for them."

Mackenzie Orban of Indian Creek and Jacqueline Francis of Beaver Local played goalie for the Ohio team as Orban made five saves while Francis had four. On the West Virginia side, Wheeling Park's Deanna Crumm had one save while Grabow secured five.

The MVP awards for the game were renamed the Chuck Robinson Memorial Offensive and Defensive MVP Award.

Otto (offense) and Steubenville's MaKayla Crownover (defense) were honored on the Ohio side while Taylor (offense) and University's Stephanie Chmiel received the awards for West Virginia.

Weir's Julia Gianni, who also played in the game, was named 5A Co-Player of the Year along with Taylor.

STALEMATE

(Continued from Page 11)

Jallow had another opportunity to score with 18:30 remaining in the first half. On a free kick, Jallow put up a nice attempt, but the ball went right over the post and the score remained at 1-0.

"We knew West Virginia was very good. They have a lot of talent," Ohio and Indian Creek coach Chuck Brettel said. "With University and some of the bigger schools over there, I looked at us as an underdog coming in. I think scoring early really helped us. It made us believe in our head, 'Hey, we are as good as they are.' I think it just carried through until the end. But you could see a little bit in the second half, West Virginia controlled the ball a little more because they have a lot of premiere type athletes. I'm really proud of the kids. I would have liked to win. But its one case a tie is not such a bad thing and it was a lot of fun. It's the most fun I've ever had at one of these games. I think everybody enjoyed themselves. All the kids played well on the both sides. It was good. It was a good day."

And control the ball West Virginia did. The Mountain State had plenty of shots on goal, however, Ohio goalkeepers kept them in check. St. Clairsville's Ryan Davenport proved why he was one of the best around as he tallied five saves in the first half. The senior was also named 4A Player of the Year.

Steubenville's Jacob Clevenger went in in the second half and was just as solid. The Big Red standout totaled four saves.

"Davenport is Player of the Year and you can see why," Brettel said. "And Clevenger is an excellent goalie. I had a couple of keepers good enough to play in this game, but had to put on defense because those two kids are so good."

With 11:21 left in the contest, Wheeling Central's Kyle Patrick Newmeyer secured a clutch goal to tie it at 1-1.

Like the Ohio goalkeepers, West Virginia's had a solid day of his own. Linsly's Chaz Ghaphery compiled six saves on the day.

"I thought it was an exciting match," Talton said. "I thought it was an even game and both teams had opportunities. I think for these guys for being seniors, being their last time, getting to play high school soccer, I don't think we could've had a much better game for both states."

Talton was named OVAC Coach of the Year while

Wheeling Central's Jacob Estep secured 1A/3A honors and University's Joseph Bifafora claimed 5A honors.

NOTES

■ With the passing of Soccer Director Chuck Robinson, the MVP awards for the game were renamed the Chuck Robinson Memorial Offensive and Defensive MVP Awards.

The offense MVPs went to Jallow and Hofmann while Steubenville's Justice Slappy and Linsly's Corban James-Barrett received defensive honors.

■ After each game, Robinson's widow, Donna, his three sons Jared, Jason and Jeff and his grandchildren were all on the field during the awards presentations. Donna was given a ball that was signed by all the players and coaches that participated in the games.

Monday,
November 12, 2018

West Virginia girls blank Ohio in OVAC All-Star Game

By KYLE LUTZ
For The Times Leader

ST. CLAIRSVILLE — For the last time in their prep soccer career, 34 senior girls suited up to represent their high school in the OVAC All-Star game Sunday afternoon at Red Devils Stadium.

While it was a special day for all athletes, it was an extra special one for Wheeling Central's Kenadee Wayt and Parkersburg South's Charley Mae Taylor.

Wayt, who became Wheeling Central's all-time goal scorer and was named 1A/3A Player of the Year, tallied two goals in the second half while Taylor got the scoring going for the Mountain state with a pair of goals in the first half as West Virginia defeated Ohio 4-0.

"It was a good performance considering you're bringing a bunch of girls together that have never played before," West Virginia and Parkersburg South coach Ron Bucholtz said. "You got a couple on the team with each other, but the fact they don't play as a team during the season, it took them a few minutes to get used to each other. From that point, they started to look very good. The possession was good, the combination of play, the movement and even the communication started to get better as they got more familiar with each other."

Bucholtz was also named OVAC Coach of the Year.

About eight and half minutes into the contest, Taylor — who was also named

See, GIRLS, Page B2

Photo/KYLE LUTZ

OHIO'S MARIA Vincenzo (St. Clairsville) looks to move the ball up the field during Sunday's OVAC All-Star Soccer Match at Red Devil Stadium. Ohio's girls were shutout.

Ohio, W.Va. boys battle to a 1-all tie in OVAC ASG

By KYLE LUTZ
For The Times Leader

ST. CLAIRSVILLE - While all-star games are all in good fun, the ending to the boys OVAC All-Star Soccer game almost was a Hollywood script.

With the score tied at 1-1 and less than 10 seconds to go, West Virginia had Ohio on the brink.

Moving the ball downfield, Wheeling Park's Guillaume Weimer dished a perfect cross to classmate and teammate James Hofmann. As time was winding down, Hofmann headed the ball, only to see it go centimeters right of the post just before time expired and the game ended in a 1-1 stalemate.

"We were down by a goal, so myself and the coaches decided that we were going to go with three in the back and try to push a few more guys forward. We figured we might as well try to go for it," University and West Virginia coach Dustin Talton said. "We got the goal and we pushed numbers up there and then that's the opportunity we wanted to create. Getting guys in the box and be a little front loaded there. It almost played out for us."

West Virginia saw themselves in an early hole. Indian Creek's Alpha Jallow found the back of the net 41 seconds into the game as he took a pass from his Redskins teammate Anthony Perrino.

Jallow had another opportunity to score with 18:30 remaining in the first half. On a free kick, Jallow put up a nice attempt, but the ball went right over the post and the score remained at 1-0. "We knew West Virginia was very good. They have a lot of talent," Ohio and Indian Creek coach Chuck Brettel said. "With University and some of the bigger schools over there, I looked at us as an underdog coming in. I think scoring early really helped us. It made us believe in our head, 'Hey, we are as good as they are.' I think it just carried through until the end. But you could see a little bit in the second half, West Virginia controlled the ball a little more because they have a lot of premiere type athletes. I'm really proud of the kids. I would have liked to win. But its one case a tie is not such a bad thing and it was a lot of fun. It's the most fun I've ever had at one of these games. I think everybody enjoyed themselves. All the kids played well on the both sides. It was good. It was a good day."

See, BOYS, Page B2

• Boys

Continued from Page B1

And control the ball West Virginia did. The Mountain State had plenty of shots on goal, however, Ohio goalkeepers kept them in check. St. Clairsville's Ryan Davenport proved why he was one of the best around as he tallied five saves in the first half. The senior was also named 4A Player of the Year.

Steubenville's Jacob Clevenger went in in the second half and was just as solid. The Big Red standout totaled four saves.

"Davenport is Player of the Year and you can see why," Brettel said. "And Clevenger is an excellent goalie. I had a couple of keepers good enough to play in this game, but had to put on defense because those two kids are so good."

With 11:21 left in the contest, Wheeling Central's Kyle Patrick Newmeyer secured a clutch goal to tie it at

Photo/KYLE LUTZ

OHIO'S EVAN Stine (Harrison Central) chases toward a loose ball during Sunday's OVAC All-Star Soccer match at St. Clairsville. Ohio and West Virginia battled to a tie.

1-1.

Like the Ohio goalkeepers, West Virginia's had a solid day of his own. Linsly's Chaz Ghaphery compiled six saves on the day.

"I thought it was an exciting match," Talton said. "I thought it was an even game and both teams had opportunities. I think for these guys for being seniors, being their last time, getting to play high school soccer, I don't think we could've had a much better game for both states."

Talton was named OVAC Coach of the Year while Wheeling Central's Jacob Estep secured 1A/3A honors and University's Joseph Biafora claimed 5A honors.

NOTES

■ With the passing of Soccer Director Chuck Robinson, the MVP awards for the game were renamed the Chuck Robinson Memorial Offensive and Defensive MVP Awards.

The offense MVPs went to Jallow and Hofmann while Steubenville's Justice Slappy and Linsly's Corban James-Barrett received defensive honors.

■ After each game, Robinson's widow, Donna, his three sons Jared, Jason and Jeff and his grandchildren were all on the field during the awards presentations. Donna was given a ball that was signed by all the players and coaches that participated in the games.

• Girls

Continued from Page B1

5A Co-Player of the Year — took a pass from University's Ari Christianen and buried the ball in the back of the net to put the score at 1-0.

The senior proved why she deserved the award as with less than five minutes to play, she secured her second goal of the afternoon.

"The Ohio team gave us a good game," Bucholtz said. "Traditionally this game been a little bit one-sided. I'm glad to see the gap is closing in the competitiveness of the game. It's good for the Ohio kids to come out and play a good game. They held their own. (Alyssa) Otto from St. Clairsville did a great job. They got her free several times and fortunately Corinne Grabow of University was Johnny-on-the-Spot and stuffed her on three breakaways in a row late in the first half. That kept that game interesting and kept the shutout in line. I was very pleased with what I saw."

In one of those instances, Otto had an open look at the net with about nine minutes to play in the first half. But Grabow read her perfectly.

With Otto's shot on goal, the ball hit off of Grabow's hands.

However, the ball did get past the goalkeeper, but with the deflection, the ball was off target and the shutout was kept in tact.

The second half saw more of the same.

With 31:18 left in the game, Oak Glen standout and 4A Player of the Year Maggie Kovalcik dished out a pass to Wayt as she found the back of the net.

Wayt scored her second goal about 20 minutes later as she took a pass from Taylor to make it 4-0.

"It's always a fun atmosphere," Ohio and Steubenville coach Jared Robinson said. "It's really great to see these girls come out here and get to play after their hard work for however many years they've been playing. Just to come together and celebrate all their achievements and their hard work. It's a nice thing to be a part of and it's a good time for them."

Mackenzie Orban of Indian Creek and Jacqueline Francis of Beaver Local played goalie for the Ohio team as Orban made five saves while Francis had four. On the West Virginia side, Wheeling Park's Deanna Crumm had one save while Grabow secured five.

The MVP awards for the game were renamed the Chuck Robinson Memorial Offensive and Defensive MVP Award.

Otto (offense) and Steubenville's MaKayla Crownover (defense) were honored on the Ohio side while Taylor (offense) and University's Stephanie Chmiel received the awards for West Virginia.

Weir's Julia Gianni, who also played in the game, was named 5A Co-Player of the Year along with Taylor.

T-L File PHOTO/KIM NORTH

ST. CLAIRSVILLE'S Alyssa Otto will be one of the players taking part in the annual OVAC All-Star Soccer Games one week from today at Red Devil Stadium.

OVAC All-Star Soccer rosters set for annual A-S games

By JOSH STROPE
For The Times Leader

Another exciting soccer season is in the books and there is no better way to cap it off than with the annual OVAC All-Star Soccer Games, slated for Sunday, Nov. 11 at Red Devil Stadium in St. Clairsville.

The boys will play at 1 p.m., followed by the girls at 3 p.m.

In the boys' game, the West Virginia squad will feature three players representing the OVAC Class 5A champion University Hawks — Wyatt Nett, Matthew Cargill and Cameron Mitchell.

University coach Dustin Talton will lead the team and be assisted by Linsly's Greg Martin and Oak Glen's Joe Provenzano.

Linsly won the Class 3A/1A championship behind solid goal-keeping from Chaz Ghaphery, who is on the team along with Cadets defender, Corban James-Barrett.

Others selected to represent the Mountaineers are Jeffrey Okai (Morgantown), Caleb Shepherd (Trinity), Tino Kayafas (Wheeling Park), Justin Mencer (John shall), Kyle Patrick Newmyer (Wheeling Central), Guillaume Weimer (Wheeling Park), Daniel Polinski (Morgantown), Angelo Gentile (Wheeling Park), Evan Gilbert (Weir), Caleb Owen (Weir), Nick Cruny (Brooke), Parker Provenzano (Oak Glen) and Gage Bailey (Oak Glen).

See, OVAC, Page C3

• OVAC

Continued from Page B1

East Liverpool won the Class 4A championship and is represented by Cameron McNicol, Shawn Johnston and Kamren Klakos.

The rest of the Buckeyes roster includes Nicholas Oliver (Cambridge), Ryan McKee (Edison), Michael Herrman (Steubenville Catholic), Kolbe Rice (Steubenville Catholic), Anthony Perrino (Indian Creek), Juan-Miguel Gonzalez (Steubenville Catholic), Ryan Davenport (St. Clairsville), Evan Stine (Harrison Central), Aedan Theobald (Caldwell), Jacob Noble (Steubenville), Justice Slappy (Steubenville), Samuel Brothers (Beaver Local), Devin McFarland (St. Clairsville), Alpha Jallow (Indian Creek), Jacob Clevenger (Steubenville) and Ian Edwards (Cambridge).

Chuck Brettel led a remarkable turnaround for Indian Creek this season and the Redskins boss was rewarded by being named head coach. He is assisted by Steubenville Catholic's Steve Kopcha and East Liverpool's Zack Kinsey.

On the girls' side, all three OVAC champions were from West Virginia — Parkersburg South (5A), Oak Glen (4A) and Wheeling Central (3A/1A).

Riley Pigott and Charley Mae Taylor will suit up as Patriots for the final time. Standout defender Kathryn Bowers was selected but unable to play because of injury.

Oak Glen won its third OVAC title in four years and is represented by electrifying goal-scorer Maggie Kovalcik and midfielder Natalie Szyrka.

And you can't talk about goal-scorers without mentioning Wheeling Central's Kenadee Wayt. She will be joined on the squad by teammate/sister Ireland Wayt.

Julia Gianni (Weir), Stephanie Chmiel (University), Mackenzie Hollaway (Weir), Makayla Virden (Madonna), Andrea Parsons (Wheeling Park), Ari Christiansen (University), Niya Cook (Wheeling Park), Deanna Crumm (Wheeling Park) and Corinne Grabow (University) round out the West Virginia team.

Parkersburg South's Ron Buckholtz is the coach and is assisted by Wheeling Central's Julie Barack and Oak Glen's Ryan Wells.

Don't be fooled, Ohio boasts its bevy of goal-scorers, led by St. Clairsville's Alyssa Otto.

Otto will be joined by teammates Maria Vincenzo and Julie Nardo.

The rest of the Buckeyes are Patricia Boyer (Union Local), Madison Ours (Beaver Local), Jara Madzia (Harrison Central), Darshay Foster (East Liverpool), Michaela Brancazio (Steubenville), Ashley Yaich (Indian Creek), Rebecca Bodo (Steubenville Catholic), MaKayla Crown over (Steubenville), Sydney Starr (Harrison Central), Lauren Ferralli (Edison), Payton Gaydosh (Indian Creek), Jacqueline Francis (Beaver Local), Kiera Johnson (Cambridge), Emily Monte (Beaver Local) and Mackenzie Orban (Indian Creek).

The coaches are Steubenville's Jared Robinson, Steubenville Catholic's Katrina Fabian and Beaver Local's Liz Connor.

Offensive and Defensive Players of the Game will be selected following each game. Prior to each game, the OVAC Player of the Year and Coach of the Year will be recognized.

Cost is $6 for adults and $4 for students.