

23rd Annual SENIOR All ★ Star Classic

NOVEMBER 11, 2018

WELCOME

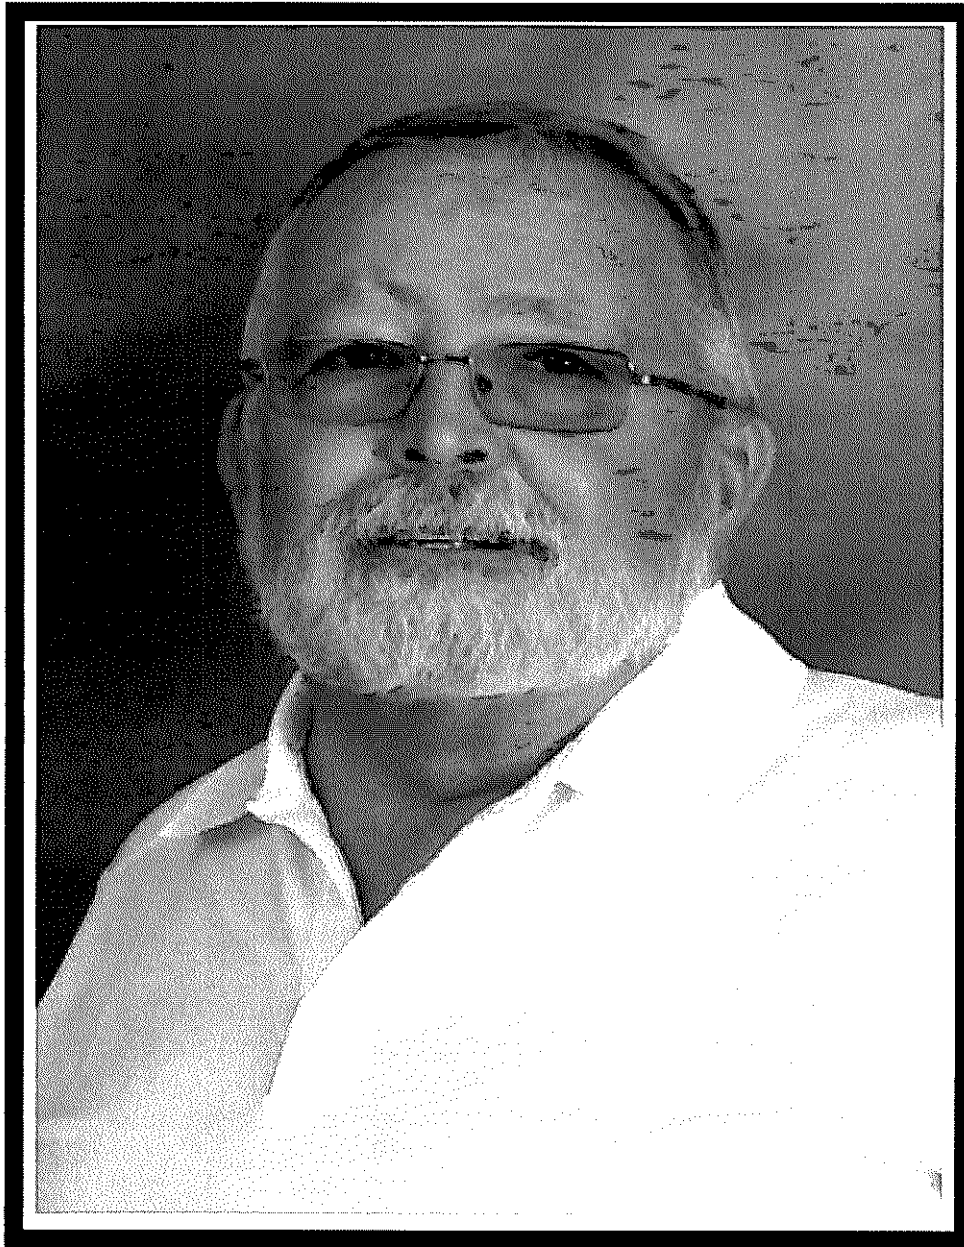

On behalf of the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference and its fifty member schools, we welcome you to beautiful St. Clairsville High School Red Devil Stadium and the 23rd Annual Senior All-Star Classic. The athletes you are about to watch today are representatives of over 23,000 students in our Conference. They were chosen from more than 150 senior soccer players to participate in the games today. When the OVAC began sponsoring soccer as a sport in 1991, little did they realize how fast the sport would grow to this size. Today, the Conference consists of 50 teams in three divisions for both boys and girls, with over 1,000 athletes competing this past fall.

We would be remiss in not recognizing and thanking the parents of today's players. Your countless hours of dedication to your sons and daughters are evident in the outstanding young men and women you see on the field. Thank you for your hours of driving. Thank you for washing sweaty uniforms and dirty practice gear. Thank you for sitting in strange weather conditions, from heat to cold to rain to even snow. But most importantly, thank you for cheering on and supporting your children.

So sit back, relax, and enjoy today's matches.

In Memory of Our Soccer Director and Friend

You Are And Will Be Missed.
The OVAC Soccer Family

CHARLES “CHUCK” ROBINSON

September 8, 1948

September 20, 2018

It all happens so quickly. A blink of the eye. Not a chance to say thanks. A missed opportunity to tell someone how much you appreciate them. You'll do it later. And then the door slams shut.

On Sunday, Chuck and I set up soccer voting, talked about the season, joked about some stuff, and said we'll talk Wednesday when the nomination process closed. Tuesday comes a text that says I'm in the emergency room. I'll be in touch. Not certain if it's him, a family member, a friend. Next day his wife says he's in ICU. Wednesday his son says he had heart problems, but everything looked okay. Then Thursday you get the call. Chuck didn't make it. You talked Sunday, a week later you're sitting at his funeral still in disbelief. And you missed that opportunity to say anything.

Chuck was one of the best. The little general. He ran things his way, but ALWAYS with the best interest of the kids in mind. He stood firm when he had to, compromised when necessary, and gave in if it meant getting something better accomplished.

Josh Strobe, sports editor of The Intelligencer, interviewed several veterans in the soccer community prior to his funeral. Here's a sampling.

"Soccer was always a part of him, whether it was as a coach, a referee, a referee instructor, you name it. Then he took over as OVAC director and took the Conference to a new level with the all-star games, making sure everything was in tip-top shape." -Joe Pepe, Brooke High School

"He brought me into the sport of soccer and into coaching. His advice, guidance, and support have made me a better coach." -Bob Kolanko, Madonna High School

"I got to know Chuck when I was a young player and then had a chance to start working with him when I started coaching with the Force Travel team, where once again he was heavily involved in the development of travel soccer. . . His purpose was always for the kids." -Steve Kopcha, Steubenville Catholic Central High School

"Moving in from out of the area, Chuck quickly took me in as a mentee. His message in our OVAC meetings was for the good of the game. That meant for coaches and officials to work together for the benefit of the kids and the game." -Greg Bowers, Steubenville High School

"Chuck was 100% committed to the kids, and he put them first. Anything he thought was important, he tried to implement. I have the utmost respect for a man who would sacrifice his time for the betterment of soccer in the Ohio Valley. He meant so much to so many people. Coaches looked up to him for direction. Players looked up to him for his wisdom of the game." -Mario Julian, Wheeling Park High School.

"Chuck Robinson always encouraged all coaches to teach our students with integrity, and conduct our play in a manner that exemplified the highest ideals of the game and sportsmanship." -Carrie Hanna, Wheeling Park High School

"He was a good friend, and the Ohio Valley soccer scene has lost one of its biggest advocates. He will be missed by many, but his efforts to grow the game will live on." -Jay Adams, former soccer director

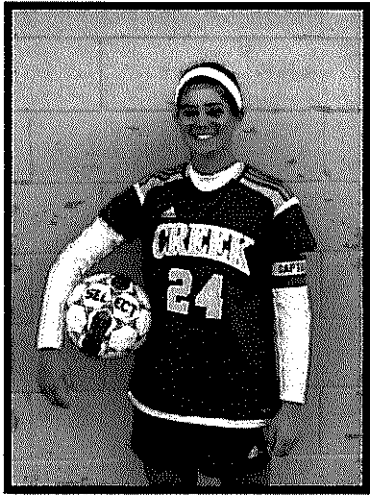

"At the end of the game, going through the line to shake hands, Chuck said 'Nice Goal, Josh.' It stuck out because most opposing coaches don't always acknowledge a goal scorer, let alone by name. But that was Chuck." -Josh Strobe, sports editor

"The tournaments will run, because if they do not, it would be an insult to Chuck. They will always go on, but they won't go on as always." -Tom Rataiczak, Executive Director

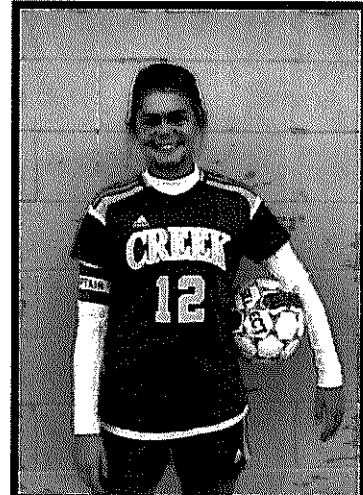

A blink of the eye. It happens so quickly that you ask yourself "did it really happen?" But the fact that you look down on the field today and he's not standing there making things happen is cold, stark reality. Chuck's gone. And while he is missed tremendously, his contributions to OVAC soccer will be a constant reminder of a life given to helping young athletes and coaches enjoy a sport he cared about so much.
