Welcome to the championship finals of the 71st Annual Ron Mauck OVAC Wrestling Tournament! Today's final round will see six former OVAC champions on a mission to claim another OVAC title. One of tonight's finalists is an Ohio high school state champion and three are WV high school state champions.

Five freshmen are featured in today's championship matches, and there are five wrestlers who hope to keep their undefeated records spotless.

One wrestler won by injury default, and one wrestler won by overtime decision to reach the finals, while three wrestlers have pinned their way through the tournament so far.

And finally, we want to congratulate the seniors who have placed in the OVAC Tournament all four years: Barnesville's Ayden King, Cameron's Slaton Pettit, Harrison Central's Landen Thomas, John Marshall's Carter Adkins and Zander Ward, Oak Glen's Hayden Lamb, Parkersburg South's Brycen Arthur, Steubenville's Brody Saccoccia and Ethan Llewellyn, University's Carter Pauley and Brock Kehler, and Wheeling Park's Noah White and Jameson Maynard.

106

Our first matchup of the finals pits #1 Brock Humphrey of Linsly against 2nd-seeded senior Justuce Fisher of Beaver Local. Humphrey, a talented freshman with an 19-6 record, already has several junior state and national titles under his belt. He's the son of 2004 OVAC champion Brian Humphrey. Dentz, who is currently 21-4 on the season, is ranked #24 in Ohio Division 3. Fisher sports a 21-5 record. He was the 2024 OVAC runner-up at 106 and placed 7th in 2023. He's currently ranked #4 in Ohio Division 2. Humphrey owns a win by tech fall in head to head competition with Fisher.

113

In the 113-pound final, the #1 seed from University, Pepper Martin, will face Aiden Anderson of Oak Glen. Martin, a senior with a 23-3 record, is the defending OVAC 106-lb champion and a 2024 WV state champion. Martin also finished as the 2023 OVAC runner-up at 106. He's currently ranked #1 in West Virginia. Anderson, the #3 seed, is a senior who brings a 17-9 record into the match. He placed 4th at 113 in last year's OVAC tournament and 5th in 2023 at 106. He's currently ranked #3 in West Virginia.

120

At 120, we have #1 Tristan Eckles of East Liverpool squaring off with #2 Gamble Gossett. Eckles, a senior with an unblemished 31-0 record, was the 2024 OVAC runner-up at 113 and placed 7th in Ohio Division 2. He's currently ranked #4 in Ohio Division 2. Gossett, a freshman from Union Local, is 27-3, and currently ranked #9 in Ohio Division 3.

126

The upper bracket of the 126-pound weight class features #1 Colton Gillespie of University against #2 Braxton Birch of Cameron. Gillespie, whose record sits at 19-4, finished 2nd last year at 116 and 4th as a freshman. He's a returning WV state 5th-place finisher who is currently ranked #3 in West Virginia. Birch is a sophomore with a 15-1 record. He was the 2024 WV state runner-up at 120 and finished 3rd at last year's OVAC tournament. He's currently ranked #3 in West Virginia.

132

The 132-pound championship final pits two talented freshmen against each other as #1 George Mamakos of Linsly faces off against #3 Nico Maisel of University. Mamakos brings a 14-6 record into the match. Maisel is the son of University head coach Ken Maisel. He brings a 22-6 record into the match, and he's currently ranked #4 in West Virginia. Mamakos owns a win by fall in head to head competition with Maisel.

138

In the 138-lb championship final, #4 Zander Ward of John Marshall will face #3 Bobby Buchheit of Beaver Local. Ward, a senior with a 20-7 record, upset #1 Colt Carpenter of Barnesville in the semis with a 4-2 decision. He is a 4-time OVAC placer who's ranked #7 in West Virginia. Buchheit, a two-time defending OVAC champion, is a junior with a 23-3 record. He's currently ranked #3 in Ohio Division 2. A win in today's match will put him on track to join the elite group of 4-time OVAC champions.

144

The upper bracket of the 144-pound weight class pits #1 Cooper Smith against #2 Carter Pauley of University. Smith, a junior with a 22-3 record, is the defending OVAC 144-lb champion and finished 6th in Ohio Division 2 last year. He's currently the #2 ranked wrestler in Ohio Division 2. Pauley is also a senior who is placing in his fourth OVAC tournament. At 20-4, he's currently ranked #2 in West Virginia. He placed 4th at 132 in the 2024 WV AAA state tournament.

150

At 150, top-seeded Slaton Pettit will face #2 Jake Hughes of Beaver Local. Pettit, a senior with a 20-1 record, has pinned his way through the bracket. Pettit, who is the top-ranked wrestler in West Virginia, is seeking that elusive OVAC title as he's finished runner-up the past two years. He also finished 2nd in the 2024 WV state tournament at 138. Hughes, a freshman, enters the match with a 25-3 record. He's currently ranked #4 in Ohio Division 2.

157

The 157-pound championship final features top seed Brody Saccoccia of Steubenville against #3 Eli Tedrow of Cameron. Saccoccia is an undefeated senior with 21 wins and four straight pins in this year's tournament. He's the defending Ohio Division 2 state champion at 150, a 2-time OVAC champion and a 2023 OVAC runner-up. Committed to wrestle at Purdue, Saccoccia is currently the top-ranked Ohio wrestler in Division 2 at 157. Tedrow, a sophomore with a 30-3 record, was the 2024 WV state runner-up at 157 and placed 7th at last year's OVAC. He's currently the top-ranked wrestler in West Virginia at 157.

165

At 165, #1 Ayden King of Barnesville takes on #3 Isaac Sands of Wheeling Park. King, a 26-2 senior who is ranked #11 in the nation by FloWrestling, finished 3rd in the Ohio Division 3 state tournament last year at 165. He was the 2024 165-lb OVAC runner-up and finished 3rd as both a sophomore and freshman. Sands is a junior with a 27-4 record. He placed 5th at 138 in last year's OVAC tournament and is currently ranked #7 in West Virginia. Earlier in the season, King decisioned Sands 8-3.

175

The 175-pound weight class features top seed and undefeated Aden Strahler of Warren against #2 Emerson Murphy of University. Strahler, who shares the tournament's best record with Tristan Eckles at 31-0, will be standing on the 175-lb podium for the third time, having placed 4th last year and 5th in 2023. He's currently ranked #9 in Ohio Division 2. Murphy, a junior with a 24-5 record, placed 5th at 175 in both the OVAC and WV state tournaments last year. He's currently ranked #3 in West Virginia. Strahler owns a win by fall in head to head competition with Murphy.

190

In the 190-pound championship final, #1 Jameson Maynard of Wheeling Park will face #2 Johnny Bailey of Southern Local. Maynard, a senior with a spotless 15-0 record, was the 2024 WV state runner-up last year at 175. He was the 2023 OVAC champion at 165 and finished 2nd last year and 6th as a freshman. He's currently the top-ranked West Virginia wrestler at 175. Bailey, a senior with a 25-1 record, is a 2-time OVAC placer at 215 and is currently ranked #8 in Ohio Division 3.

215

In the 215-pound weight class, #1 Isaac Martin, a junior from Wheeling Central, will face #6 Jackson Pate of University. Martin, at 31-2, is the top-ranked WV wrestler in his division. He was the 2024 WV state champion at 215 and was the first wrestler from Wheeling Central since 2008 to win a state title. He is placing at in the OVAC at 215 for the third straight year. He is also a 3rd generation wrestler from a very famous family in Ohio Valley wrestling, as he's the son of Rick Welker and the grandson of Dr. Bill Welker. Pate, who boasts a 23-2 record, is having an outstanding season and is currently ranked #3 in West Virginia. He placed 6th at 190 in last year's WV state tournament, and reached the finals via upsets of #3 Kane Curran of Beaver Local and #2 Knox McKibben of Harrison Central

285

The final match of the night is a rematch of the 2024 OVAC 285-lb championship final, as #1 Brock Kehler of University takes on #2 Landen Thomas of Harrison Central once again. Kehler, an undefeated senior with 23 wins, has lost only one match in his high school career, and interestingly enough, that loss came in the 2022 195-lb OVAC finals to Austin Starr of Indian Creek. Currently ranked #13 nationally by FloWrestling and #1 in West Virginia, Kehler is a 3-time WV state champion and a 2-time OVAC state champion. The WVU recruit is in the lead for this year's Hercules award, given to the wrestler who records the most pins in the least amount of time. Thomas, a senior, brings a 22-1 record into the finals. He was the 2024 Ohio Division 3 state runner-up at 285, and finished runner-up to Kehler at the OVAC. A 4-time OVAC placer, Thomas is currently ranked #1 in Ohio Division 3.
