

y, May 15, 1975

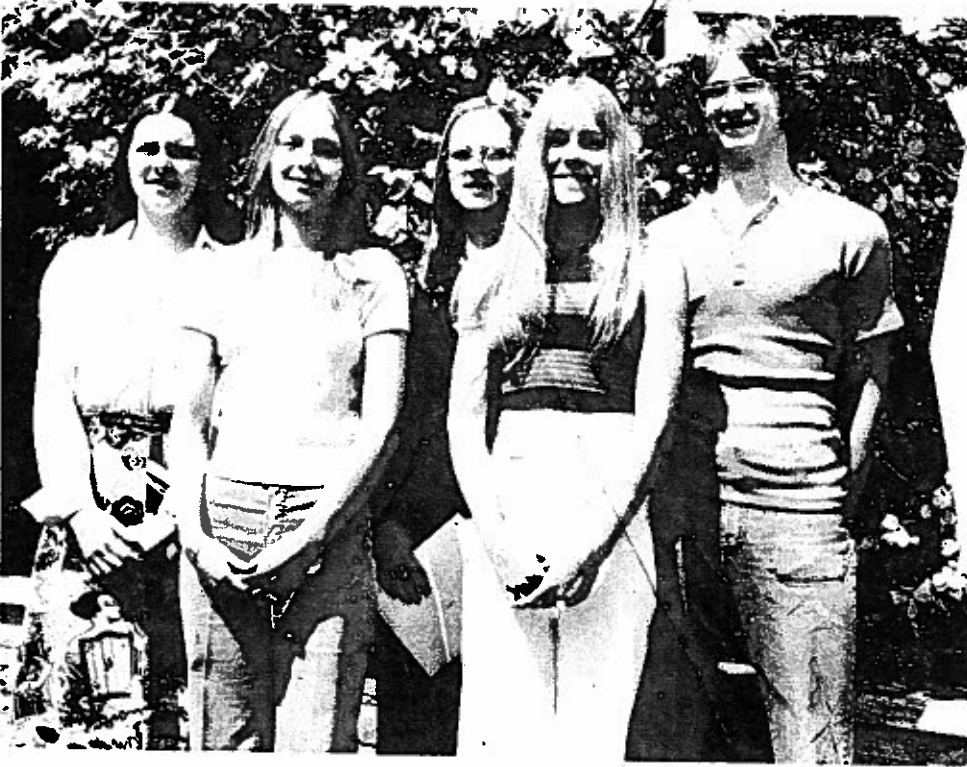

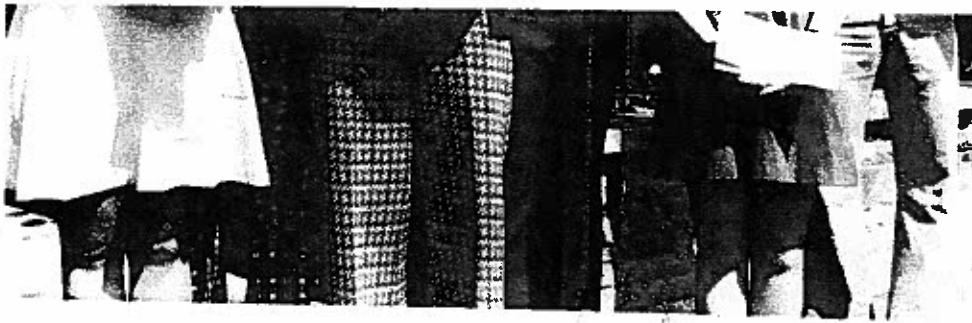

INDIVIDUAL AWARD winners at the Bellaire High School Awards Assembly Wednesday included, top photo from left, Betsy Giffin, Michael Givens, Emily Gonglik, Dave Liberati, Marlene McNeill

and Norman DeLong; bottom photo from left, Cynthia Thompson, Billie Jo Campbell, Debbie Graham, Dana Greenwood and Richard Skrabak.

GREG FEHR PHOTOS

Awards Assembly Wednesday at Bellaire High School

INDIVIDUAL AWARD winners at the Bellaire High School Awards Assembly Wednesday included, top photo from left, Betsy Giffin, Michael Givens, Emily Gonglik, Dave Liberati, Marlene McNeill

and Norman DeLong; bottom photo from left, Cynthia Thompson, Billie Jo Campbell, Debbie Graham, Dana Greenwood and Richard Skrabak.

GREG FEHR PHOTOS

Awards Assembly Wednesday at Bellaire High School

TWELVE STUDENTS and biology teacher Mike Kinter received individual honors at the annual Awards Assembly at Bellaire High School Thursday.

Kinter was honored as "Teacher of the Year", while the top winner among the students was Betsy Giffin, who received five awards.

Miss Giffin's awards included the Burrows Scholarship, Lions Club top science student, Alumni Service, Ewing Award for top senior girl, and Reader's Digest valedictorian award.

Dave Liberati received four awards, including Alumni Service, Big Reds Touchdown Club scholarship, J. V. Nelson Citizenship award, and Beljuan

Outstanding Male Athlete award.

Receiving two awards was Marlene McNeill, including the Neffs School PTA scholarship and PTA scholarship, while receiving one award were the following:

Billie Jo Campbell, Allen Dickey and Co. award for top commercial student; Cynthia Thompson, Pilot Club scholarship; Debra Graham, Neffs School PTA scholarship; Emily Gonglik and Norma

DeLong, Sears Foundation awards to distributive education; Mike Kovalick, special recognition for state wrestling championship; Michael Givens, Robert Wehe award for top senior boy; Dana Greenwood, Betty Crocker award; and Richard Skrabak, outstanding junior mathematics and science student.

Group awards were made for office girls, eighth grade sewing, high school sewing with Beth Baker as Seamstress of the Year, DECA, AVT Technicians, Junior Town aides and freshmen athletics.

At the opening of the program, 1975-76 Student Council and officers were installed by Dave Liberati, retiring Student Council