

TWENTY-FIVE years ago, Gordon Biggs, center, was a valuable member of Bellaire High's 9-1 record football club. Wednesday night, he returned to help honor the Big Reds' 9-1 team of 1992 at the 53rd Bippus Memorial Banquet sponsored by the Bellaire High Sports Foundation. With Biggs, who resides in Michigan where he is a supervisor with Ford Motor Co., are former Big Red Dave Liberati, left, who served as toastmaster, and head coach John Magistro who introduced his staff and players. Magistro also reviewed the season which saw only a 16-14 loss to Cambridge stand in the way of the school's first perfect record campaign.
