

✓
B

E

L

J

U

1912

1911

A

N

NEXT YEAR!

Try an ad. in the Beljuan and enjoy the profits of quick results

You not only help a good cause but derive the benefit of better business

If you have not advertised do so next year

THE BELJUAN

The young man loves the young lady,
That's his business;

The young lady loves the young man,
That's her business;

Pretty soon they will marry and need a Bank Account,
That's our business.

DEPOSIT WITH

The First National Bank

BELLAIRE, OHIO

4 Per Cent. Interest Paid on Time and Saving Deposits

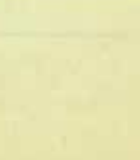

Here are a few of the men for whom we did work during the spring of 1911.

Our high standard of quality and service proven to them insures success to managers who sign with us.

THE NORTHERN ENGRAVING CO.
 COLLEGE ANNUAL ENGRAVERS
 CANTON, OHIO.

B LUM
ROTHERS
ellaire's iggest rightest est and usiess Store

THE STORE THAT SELLS
"WOOLTEX SUITS," COATS
Centerneri Gloves
Ladies Home Journal Patterns
Keyser's Gloves and Hose and dozens of other well known makes of merchandise of quality

The Best ENAMELED WARE in the World

IS MANUFACTURED BY

The Strong Manufacturing Co.
Bellaire, Ohio

W. A. Schramm
The Old Reliable Corner Grocer

3498 Belmont Street

Carries finest line of Staple and Fancy
Groceries in the City

Don't Worry

Let us have your Shoe Troubles

Nicholson & Ball

Standard Shoe Co.

Successors to
W. W. ROBINSON

For Up-to- Date

FOOTWEAR

33rd and Belmont Streets

BELLAIRE, OHIO

THE BELJUAN

Published by the Junior Class

BELLAIRE HIGH SCHOOL

BELLAIRE, OHIO

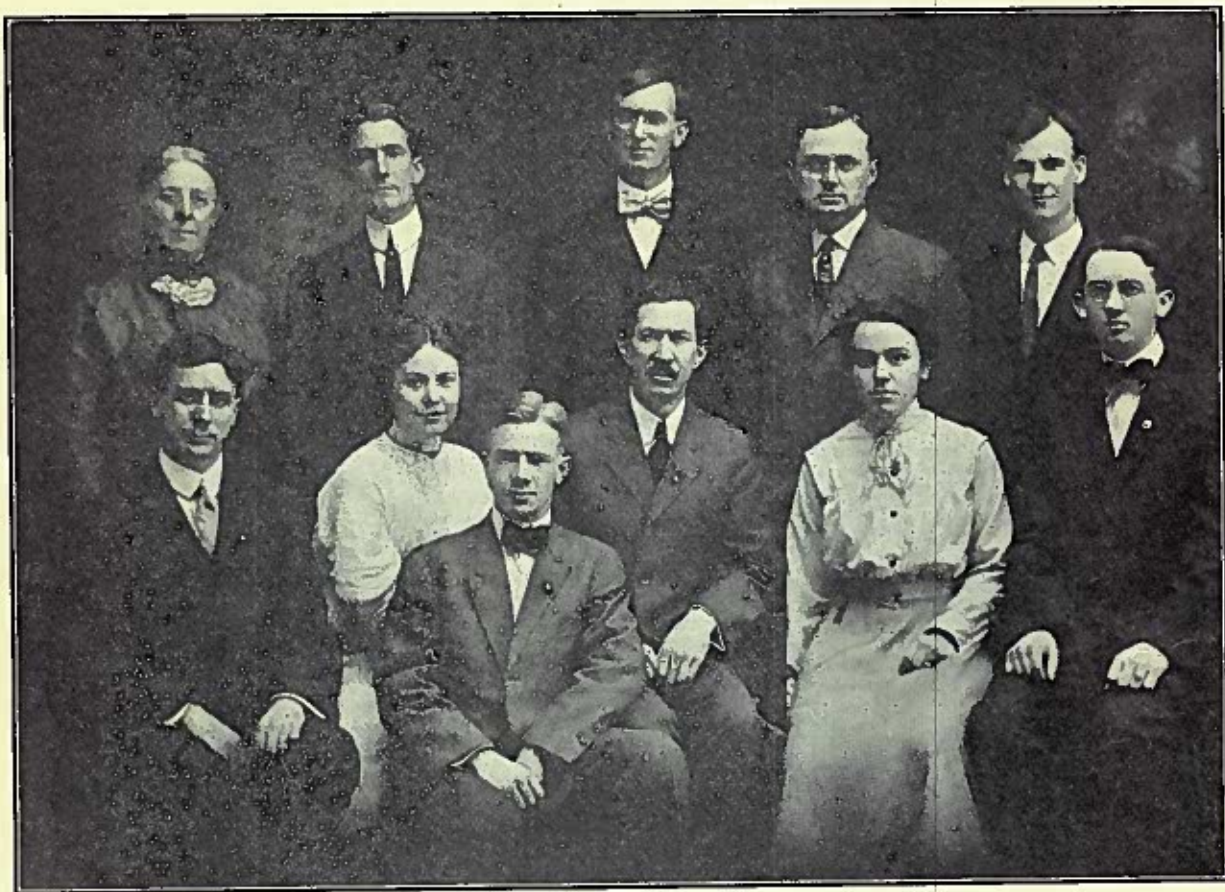

NINETEEN HUNDRED AND ELEVEN

VOL. III

To The School Board
This Volume is Gratefully Dedicated

BELLAIRE HIGH SCHOOL

High School Faculty

Prof. W. S. Hawkins..Superintendent
Mt. Union College.
Prof. J. A. Jackson (Principal)..Latin
Mt. Union College.
Miss Cunningham, English and Science
Prof. C. S. McVey,
Science and Mathematics
Ohio Northern University.
Prof. C. E. Caldwell.....Mathematics
Ohio State University.

Prof. Stout.....Mathematics
Mt. Union College.
Prof. G. Battelle..English and History
Ohio Wesleyan.
Miss Helling.....German
Ohio Wesleyan.
Prof. E. E. Halstead.....Music
Oberlin.
Miss Crabb.....Drawing
Pratt Institute.

The Beljuan Board

Editor-in-Chief	James Wagoner
Assistants	Howard Seabright and Frank Aldredge
Business Manager.....	Ralph Heatherington
Assistants	Jacob Behr and Samuel Price

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

Boys' Athletic Editor..Joseph Duga	Literary Editor....Irene Herzberg
Girls' Athletic Editor, Flora Braunlich	Cartoonist.....Edgar Walters
Humorist.....Don Royer	Alumni Editor....Eleanor Norton
	Class Editor.....Mary Nelson

Editorial

The greatest enemy of success is the "knocker," "Enthusiasm Destroyer," "Ice Hurler." He is one of the greatest detriments to this publication. We, the Board, have striven to make this annual a success and the public is to be the jury. Therefore, dear reader, as you are one of the jury, do not join the detestable order of the "Knockers." Be a booster, for "Knock and the world knocks with you; boost and you boost alone." If this publication does not please you, smile and think of the worry it has cost the business manager, then tell your friends of its merits, but do not say anything of its defects. For the sake of variety be a booster so that we in a measure may be justified in publishing this annual. It was not for us to decide whether we wanted to be one of the Board, but had our positions thrust upon us. We have worked hard to make this edition better than the preceding, and if we have failed do not tell us so, but above all things do not join the "Knockers."

What Bellaire High needs is more class spirit. If we are all pulling in different directions how are we to reach the top of the hill? How can we expect to have progressive classes if they are all divided? Why not stop this practice of forming clans and having nothing to do with anybody else? Why not accept the motto of the Freshman: "Push and pull, but in one direction, toward success?" Class meetings seem to be for the purpose of seeing which person can do the most talking, throw the most erasures, and confiscate the most chalk. Maybe if the faculty would enact the law that all persons caught throwing erasures shall be fined ten points of their deportment grades this rowdyism would be stopped and more time given to the betterment of the classes. These are facts that under ordinary circumstances ought not to be published, but it takes bitter medicine to cure desperate diseases. Take the hint.

C.

Seniors

OFFICERS

President.....	Clarence Pickett
Vice-President.....	Melville Blum
Secretary.....	Fanny Wise
Treasurer.....	Lawrence Greenlee

Colors—Yellow and White

Motto—Excelsior

SENIOR YELL

Boom-a-lacka, Boom-a-lacka

Bow, wow, wow,

Chick-a-lacka, Chick-a-lacka

Chow, chow, chow,

Boom-a-lacka, Chick-a-lacka,

Who are we?

Seniors, Seniors,

Don't you see?

Seniors

JESSE SEABRIGHT:—Pres. Delphian Literary Society; Pres. of the class in 1907-1908; Coach of girls' class basketball team in 1911.

Jesse is a thorough student and does not allow the fact that he is greatly admired by No. 8 lassies to interfere with his school duties. He expects some day to be the Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court. We all hope that his expectations will not be in vain, for one who has labored so incessantly during four years of High School life should not pass unrewarded.

"And still they gazed and still their wonder grew,
That one small head could carry all he knew."

CLARENCE PICKETT:—Utopian Literary Society; Vice-President of Boys' A. A. 1909-1910; President of Senior Class.

Who has not heard of the illustrious President of the Class of 1911? The pride of the Seniors; the joy of the faculty; first in Latin? first in Physics? and first in the hearts of his classmates. What a serious task when he must choose his career, for he is equally adapted for a church soloist, a dancing master, or anything he wishes to be. Our greatest wish is that he will be as successful in life as he has been in the management of this remarkable class.

"A man condemned to wear
The public burden of a nation's care."

JOSEPH BLUM:—Delphian Literary Society.

"Josie," the accomplished musician, is a cute little child, and he quite often provokes his music teacher. He bides his time in amusing Nelle in the laboratory and studying the phenomena of electricity. Quite unlike his dignified (?) brother, he might be found in the gymnasium at divers times, doing the "Grizzly Bear" dance or using his pencil for a mouth organ and humming some silly tune.

"Do well and right, and let the world sink."

ANNA ROSSER:—Treasurer of Utopian Literary Society; Captain girls' basketball team in 1910-1911; Secretary of the class in 1909-19-0.

Anna is considered the society queen of the class and her social duties are varied and numerous as are also her escorts, but she consistently appears in her place on the morning after some function. She has become famous through her remarkable powers of persuasion by which 'tis said she gets things just as she wishes them.

"Hear me, for I will speak."

ELVA KLEBER:—Delphian Literary Society.

May she ever live in peace and contentment. Modest and unassuming in her manner she commands the respect of all. She is quiet, an accomplished musician, and has done much toward making a name for the glorious Class of 1911.

"Who broke no promise, served no private end;
Who gained no title and lost no friend."

BLANCHE KLEBER:—Utopian Literary Society.

Ever just and gracious, she inspires the love of all in general, and of two Senior boys in particular. Her naughty, naughty eyes will not behave and she has caused more than one of the susceptible Senior lads quite a little anxiety. Merciful and kind to all, she favors even the undeserving.

"Graceful and useful, all she does."

LANE KEYSER:—President Utopian Literary Society; football.

Although he has won considerable fame on the gridiron by his prowess, this does not interfere in the least with his devotion to the pursuit of knowledge and his desire to make brilliant recitations. During most of the course he has held himself somewhat aloof from the students in general, but some of the girls who are better acquainted with him say he is quite interesting.

"Beneath the Good how far,—but far above the Great."

ROSA KEMPLE—Utopian Literary Society.

Four years of association with Rosa has not helped us to understand her. Her complex nature has been beyond our power to conceive. Courteous and considerate to all, yet she seems to live in an isolated sphere. When Don Ward attempted to interrupt her solitude, many pairs of eyes and ears became interested, but alas! the end came before the beginning had been fairly launched.

"'Tis said she never cracked a smile."

LAWRENCE GREENLEE:—Utopian Literary Society; Treasurer of class 1910-1911.

Everyone who knows Lawrence is aware of the fact that he is not a disciple of Frivolity. He is endowed with many sterling qualities which cannot fail to make his life successful. He is also a little bashful, which is unfortunate, both for himself and for the girls.

"What he says you may believe."

MAUDE DUNLAP:—Utopian Literary Society.

Maude has the sympathy of every one of her classmates. Very early, almost too early in her life, she was disappointed in a love affair. Now severed from her bliss, that by misfortune her life has been prolonged, she lives to tell the story of her own mishaps. Young and happy when she entered High School, she leaves it, aged in mind and with a sorrowful countenance.

"She reasoned without plodding long,
Nor ever gave her judgment wrong."

CHARLOTTE HERZBERG:—Utopian Literary Society.

When first Charlotte started up her melodious warble, she struck awe in the hearts of all her auditors, and even Prof. Battelle was obliged to stop and listen. Some musical authority instructed her to practice with her head in a pillow, which she does faithfully every day. "Practice Makes Perfect," therefore, we prophesy brilliant success for Charlotte.

"And, but herself, admits no parallel.

DONALD WARD:—Utopian Literary Society; football.

From the time he entered High School Don has surprised the faculty by his depth of mind. He is very optimistic and lends himself enthusiastically to all undertakings. In conclusion let us say of him that his splendid behavior, his fastidious grooming, his unalterable good humor, are exceeded only by his self-esteem.

"He talks much and says little."

WALTER ANDERSON:—Utopian Literary Society.

It is beyond the power of words to do justice to this youth of multifarious duties. Is he busy? Yea, almost rushed to death in preparing himself to become famous. He aspires to the Senate, perhaps even to the Presidency. Whether or not his ambition will ever be realized, time only can tell.

"My mind to me an empire is."

RHEA MUTH:—Delphian Literary Society.

It has deeply moved the faculty to see Rhea leave the High School just when she has been properly schooled in controlling her exuberant spirits, after they have patiently endured all the nonsensical, idiotic eccentricities of her willful, petulant, arrogant youth. But the very fact that she has her high spirits under firm control should be a solace to them.

"Not learned in court, nor versed in wit,
But loved by those who know her best."

MAX DUGA:—Delphian Literary Society; football; basketball.

Want to laugh? Talk to Max, then have Max talk to you. Ever ready with some new (?) joke, he has done more to drive away our despondency than any other in the class. Does he talk?—almost incessantly. Can he sing?—like the braying of a mule. Can he play?—his rendition on the piano of "Way Down Upon the Suane River" brings tears even to the eyes of dogs and cats.

"Let him be sure to leave other men their turns to speak."

THOMAS CURTIS:—Delphian Literary Society.

Tom is an industrious student, however much the faculty may deny the fact. His studious nature, however, is not always applied to his school books. If, perchance, you sit on a pin, hear that Prof. McVey's plants have been torn asunder, Miss Helling has suddenly been put into a disagreeable humor, or you are struck in the back of the head with an eraser, just look for Tom. He has composed several songs, the best of which is "We Feed the Baby Garlic, So We Can Find Him in the Dark."

"Do others before they do you."

LOIS MICHAEL:—Secretary Delphian Literary Society; Treasurer of the class 1909-1910.

Lois is exceedingly quiet and dignified in her bearing toward the class, and has never yet forgotten the fact that she is a Senior. Studious and diligent always, she has made some of her classmates hustle to keep up with the pace she has set.

"Thy modesty is a candle to thy merit."

MARTHA McDONALD:—Utopian Literary Society.

When Martha first became aware of the fact that she was a Senior, she realized at the same time that she must now cast aside childish things and henceforth conduct herself in a very dignified manner. Of course it caused her a dreadful heart ache to say "Farewell" to her kitten and dolls, but after shedding a few salt tears she valiantly concealed her grief and exhibited a very brave exterior to a curious and unsympathetic world. After the pang of that first separation had passed away, she seemed to lose all desire for the companions of her childhood and now she is happy in making others happy.

"Be to her merits kind,
"And to her faults, whate'er they are, be blind."

RALPH NICHOLSON:—Delphian Literary Society.

Early in his career Nickie displayed remarkable vocal talents—sh-h-h. The gyratory manipulations of his voice are weird and wonderful in the extreme, and excel all imitation of bird or beast. He persists in visiting all the surrounding cities and villages to select a pretty girl to his liking. His strong points are German and girls.

"He is wee, but he is wicked."

WALTER KINSEY:—Utopian Literary Society.

Walter did not appreciate the advantages offered him in the city, so he moved back to the farm and decided to spend the rest of his life near nature's heart. But it is now whispered that he will study Theology after he has graduated from B. H. S. If this rumor proves true we wish to warn Walter that he must conquer his fear of girls if he would become a successful Theologian.

"Wisely and slow; they stumble that run fast."

LYDIA PIERSALL:—Utopian Literary Society.

Lydia—oh, what memories that name awakens. A joyous smile, a sympathetic listener, she shared all joys and all sorrows. Ever ready to extend a helping hand to assist the unfortunate, she has made the rocky path of High School life seem less burdensome.

"Reproof on her lips, but a smile in her eye."

BENJAMIN BELT:—Delphian Literary Society;
President of the class in 1908-1909.

Benjamin, one of the solid pillars of the Senior Class, has impressed us all by his intellectual ability. An unerring son of "Mother Nature," he is sturdy not only in mind but also in body. He is very bashful where the gentler sex is concerned and as yet has not begun the study of girls. He considers city life quite uninteresting and he will spend the remainder of his life in quiet seclusion.

"—Nature might stand up
And say to all the world, 'This is a man.'"

JEFFERSON CONRAD:—Delphian Literary Society; Captain football team 1909; President
Athletic Association 1909-1910.

Jeff has many varied accomplishments, but the one which he considers most valuable and cultivates most carefully is the happy faculty he has acquired for jollyng the teachers. He finds this most convenient on certain days when he has been too busy to prepare his lessons.

"Your face is a book where men may read strange matters."

FANNY WISE:—Delphian Literary Society; Secretary of Senior Class.

Behold, we have here the greatest example of the popular idea that big things come in small bundles. From the time of her first arrival in the Bellaire High School she has worn one long and happy smile. In fact, it is one of those smiles that won't come off. Some people refuse to take her seriously, but they will know better some day, let us hope. She is respected by all, beloved by most and feared by a few.

"Her voice is ever soft, gentle and low—an excellent thing in woman."

DALE VANCUREN:—Delphian Literary Society.

"Lank," finding St. Clairsville contrary to his liking, decided to immigrate to the city. He entered the Senior Class somewhat behind in his studies, as would naturally be expected, having come from an almost obscure village, but by vigorous work and earnest endeavor he has attained a high standing in the class. His bashfulness no doubt accounts for his inability to set into vibration the tender cords of Miss Rosser's fickle heart.

"Measures, not men, have always been my work."

MELVILLE BLUM:—Utopian Literary Society; football; Vice-President of Senior Class.

Melville is a model boy. He was never known to lose his temper or get his plumage ruffled. He always appeared at school with his lessons well prepared, except when he did not have time to prepare them properly. His name has almost become proverbial for his regular attendance at all class "functions." Surely the Senior class could not do without him.

"I have more zeal than wit."

BLANCHE RODEWIG: — Utopian Literary Society.

Blanche stands on one of the substantial pillars of the Senior Class. We are all aware of her literary genius, musical talent and mental powers. She seemingly has but little faith in the theory that "God Helps Those That Help Themselves," for she emphatically refused to recognize the golden opportunities of last leap year, and she is hoping against hope that it will not be necessary for her to consider the advantages offered by next leap year.

"Cupid is a knavish lad,
Thus to make poor maidens mad."

KELLY CROZIER:—Treasurer Delphian Literary Society; Class Editor, 1910.

Kind, sympathetic and generous to all, Kelly has made a host of friends and her departure from High School casts a gloom over all who remain. Her happy smile and cheerful disposition has warmed the heart of every boy in the Senior Class. Her studious nature, however, has caused her to reject her many admirers, much to their dismay. Ever perfect in her recitations, she has won the esteem of the entire faculty. Without her the class would be far from complete.

"Give thy thoughts no tongue."

MAY CORBETT:—Delphian Literary Society.

During her long and delightful course in the Bellaire High School May has had many varied experiences, and it is with a heartfelt sigh, part of joy, part of pain, that the faculty see her this year retreat from the haven of the High School and join the alumni.

"It is an irrepressible conflict between opposing and enduring forces."

NELLE CAMPBELL:—Utopian Literary Society

We will all agree that Nelle is "A daughter of the gods, divinely tall and most divinely fair," but will any member of the Class of 1911 ever forget her mournful answer to perplexing questions: "I really know the answer but I can't say it?"

"There is a gift beyond the reach of art of being eloquently silent."

JESSIE McINTOSH:—Delphian Literary Society.

Jessie has experienced many vicissitudes of fortune since her entrance into the Bellaire High School. First, she stands as though on a pinnacle of happiness greeting all with a cheerful smile, then again we see her take her seat in school, no smile upon her lips, but with unseeing eyes directed upon her books, she looks the personification of sorrow. Can you guess the reason for her varied expressions? We all agree that without her the class would feel bereft of one of its strongest assets.

"The reason firm, the temperate will,
Endurance, foresight, strength and skill.

PEARL VAUPEL:—Utopian Literary Society.

Pearl, by her brilliant recitations in German during her first two years in High School, acquired the nickname of "Dutch." Since we have become dignified Seniors, however, we have ceased to call her by any other than her given name. Her fondness for the opposite sex has caused her to somewhat neglect her studies, but the great amount of knowledge of which she has become the possessor, during the past four years, can be doubted by none.

"She would not with a peremptory tone Assert the nose upon her face her own."

ROY HULBERT:—Utopian Literary Society.

Roy had the dreadful misfortune of entering our class almost at the close of its course. Since he has entered it he has surely distinguished himself in the Physics class. Latin makes him tired; accordingly he has selected this period for his afternoon siesta, to the great annoyance of Prof. Jackson. Roy has a very good disposition even tho' his glowing head-piece denotes a signal for danger.

"Knowledge is proud that he has learned so much."

Senior

When you see a fellow smile,
Say "Senior."
And his manners do beguile,
Say "Senior."
If his right hand he extends,
"Glad to meet you, dear old friend,"
Don't be bashful, up and send—
Say "Senior."

If you should be in trouble,
Think of "Seniors."
If woes and cares will double,
Think of "Seniors."
Should you ever feel quite blue,
And there's nothing else to do,
Think of that you ne'er shall rue,
Think of "Seniors."

Stand up against your foe,
Be like a "Senior."
Give to him just what you owe,
Be like a "Senior."
When the battle fierce has passed,
And with conquerors you are classed,
Hold your ground, be not surpassed,
Be like a "Senior."

There are those whose fame is spoken,
They are "Seniors."
And to whom we give our token,
They are "Seniors."
If all dangers you will meet,
Be a Mason, don't repeat,
Be with those who scorn defeat,
They are "Seniors."

Juniors

OFFICERS

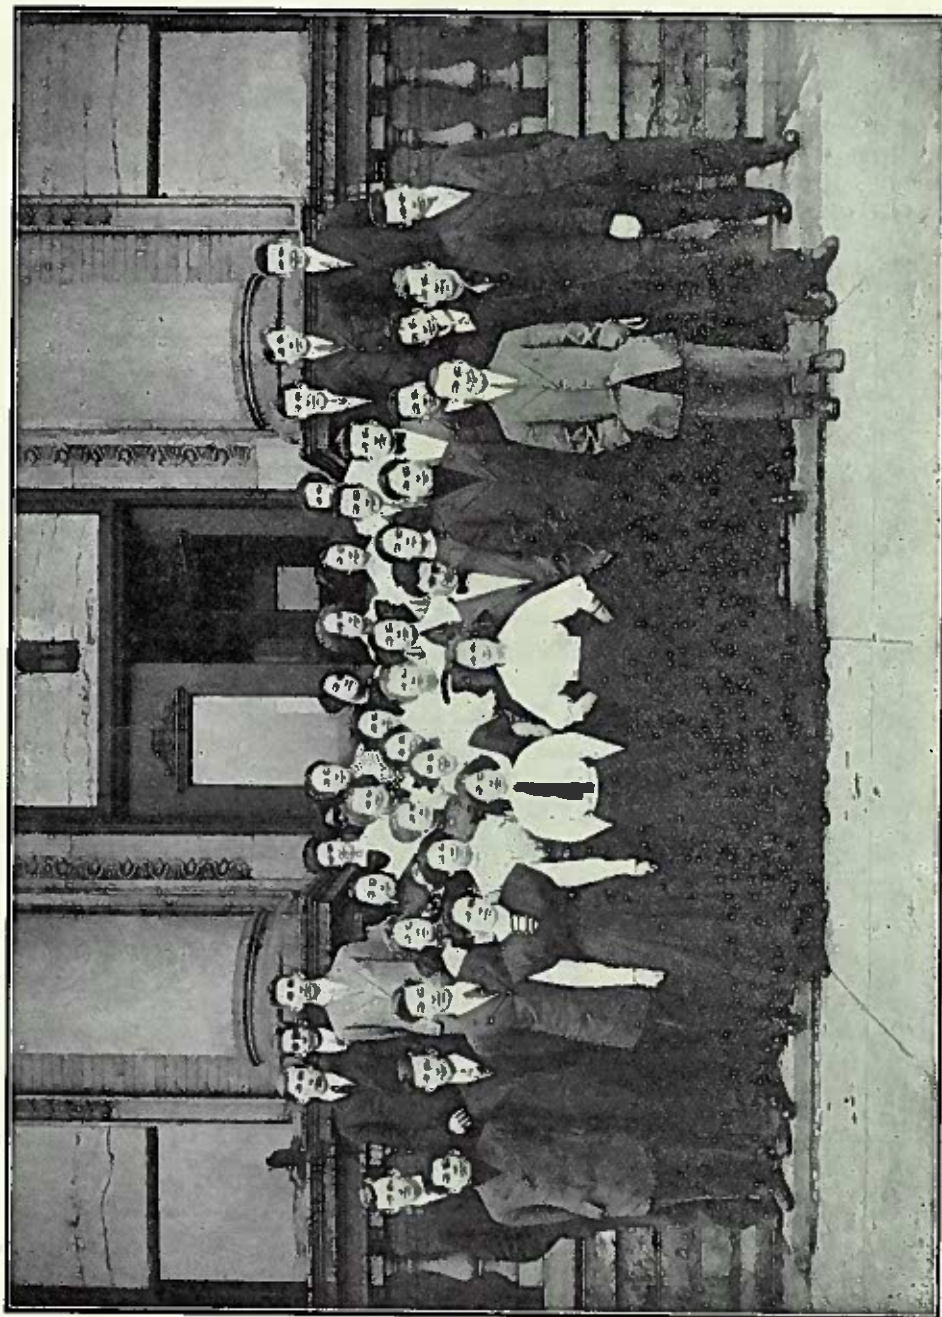

President.....	Ralph Heatherington
Vice-President.....	Frank Aldredge
Secretary and Treasurer.....	James Wagoner
Class Editor.....	Mary Nelson
Class Athletic Editor.....	Howard Seabright

Colors—Crimson and White

Motto—We Strive to Reach the Highest Goal

YELL

Oski, woski, wigelty, welg,
Juniors, Juniors, Nineteen Twelve.

JUNIOR CLASS

Junior Class Roll

Frank Aldredge	Ray Lucas
Sadie Alston	Harry La Roche,
Lucy Archer	Florence Lowell
Herbert Boyer	Leah Lancaster
Flora Braunlich	Burton McCroba
Jacob Behr	Lawrence McAllister
Lena Carman	Emma McElwain
Mary Coleman	Clarice Moorehouse
Joseph Duga	Verna McKelvey
Mollie Dorer	Mary Nelson
Pauline Ewing	Eleanor Norton
Ethel Edwards	Samuel Price
Anna Greenberg	Alta Passmore
Josephine Giffin	Don Royer
Ralph Heatherington	Cecil Stonebraker
Irene Herzberg	Howard Seabright
St. Clair Jennings	Helen Saylor
Alta Jones	Helen Umstead
Harry Kinsey	James Wagoner
Mary Keyser	Paul Shafer
Earl Keyser	Esther Hulbert

Junior Class History

In the Fall, three years ago, a band of Freshmen numbering sixty-six ascended the steps of the Bellaire High School. "They certainly do look green," was the comment of the Sophomores and Seniors. But the Juniors were very courteous to the "green ones," and helped all they could to lessen their embarrassment. The first year for this class was a mixture of greenness, importance and insignificance. But it was destined to become a great class, as you will see.

The first day of school was very exciting and confusing. It was with great difficulty that the "Freshies" became acquainted with the rules and customs of the school. They were ridiculed by the higher classes because they had the misfortune to get lost in the halls and classrooms.

The officers were elected and the flower and colors chosen. Nothing of any great importance was accomplished during the first year. The history of this class in its first year was dull in respect to social life, but it was saving its energy for the future.

The Class of 1912 came back to the B. H. S. after three months' vacation. Thus the Sophomore year came on. Some had dropped from the class and the number had decreased to forty-four. Now they had the opportunity to look down on the Freshmen, but the Sophomores were kind-hearted (?). During this year they enjoyed themselves at such festivities as hayrides, marshmallow toasts, sleighrides and parties. But we must pass on to the next year, when this class may be called Juniors.

This year has been the crowning year for this deserving class of 1912. They have shown themselves to be far superior to the Senior Class. This was fully shown at the Junior and Senior contest. The Juniors were so victorious that the Seniors, even if they had the chance again, would not wish to try it over. The superiority of the Class of 1912 was also shown by the contest in girls' basketball between the classes. There was a great struggle between the classes, and it was doubtful as to what the outcome would be. But the Juniors conquered and came out of the game with high honors. They were very much pleased to think they had not been outstripped by the dignified Seniors. The Junior Class is also well represented in basketball and other athletics, by the boys, as you can see by noticing the Junior athletic notes.

But every story has a bright side and a dark side. The life of the Junior Class has not always been bright and free from cares. Several were inadequate in their studies and therefore were not allowed to pass on with the class. The Juniors have had many strifes and defeats, but yet they are hopeful and are outlining a bright future, for has not "every dark cloud a silver lining?"

The Juniors have a special characteristic that is in their favor. They all work together to promote the interests of the Bellaire High School. They are all striving earnestly to make the name of the Class of 1912

"One of the few, the immortal names,
That were not born to die."

HISTORIAN, '12.

Junior Athletics

The girls of the Junior Class demonstrated to all that they were superior to any class team in the school. They simply walked away with the rest of the teams. They lost but one game, that to the Seniors. Their standing is seen elsewhere in the Beljuan. The team was made up of the following lassies: Braunlich and Jones, Forwards; Greenberg (Captain) and Dorer, Centers; Archer, Umstead and Irving, Guards.

There were two Juniors in the Girls' Varsity team. The Boys' Class Basketball League was discontinued after the Junior Boys took the other classes in camp. The Junior Boys played "rings around" any other class team. We won three games and lost none. The Junior team was comprised of such players as Seabright and Shafer, Forwards; McCroba, Center, and Heatherington, Duga and Baer, Guards. It can easily be seen that with such a "bunch" any school or class would be proud.

The boys had four on the Varsity team.

In football the Juniors were represented by Heatherington, Seabright, Aldredge, Royer, B. McCroba and Boyer.

The baseball team was very much strengthened by the Juniors, Boyer, Seabright, Heatherington and Aldredge.

Sophomores

OFFICERS

President.....	Raymond Beuter
Vice-President.....	Alma Rodewig
Secretary.....	Marie McBride
Treasurer.....	Cloyd Snyder
Class Editor.....	Calvin Hazlett
Athletic Editor.....	Emmett Barrett

Colors—Old Gold and Blue

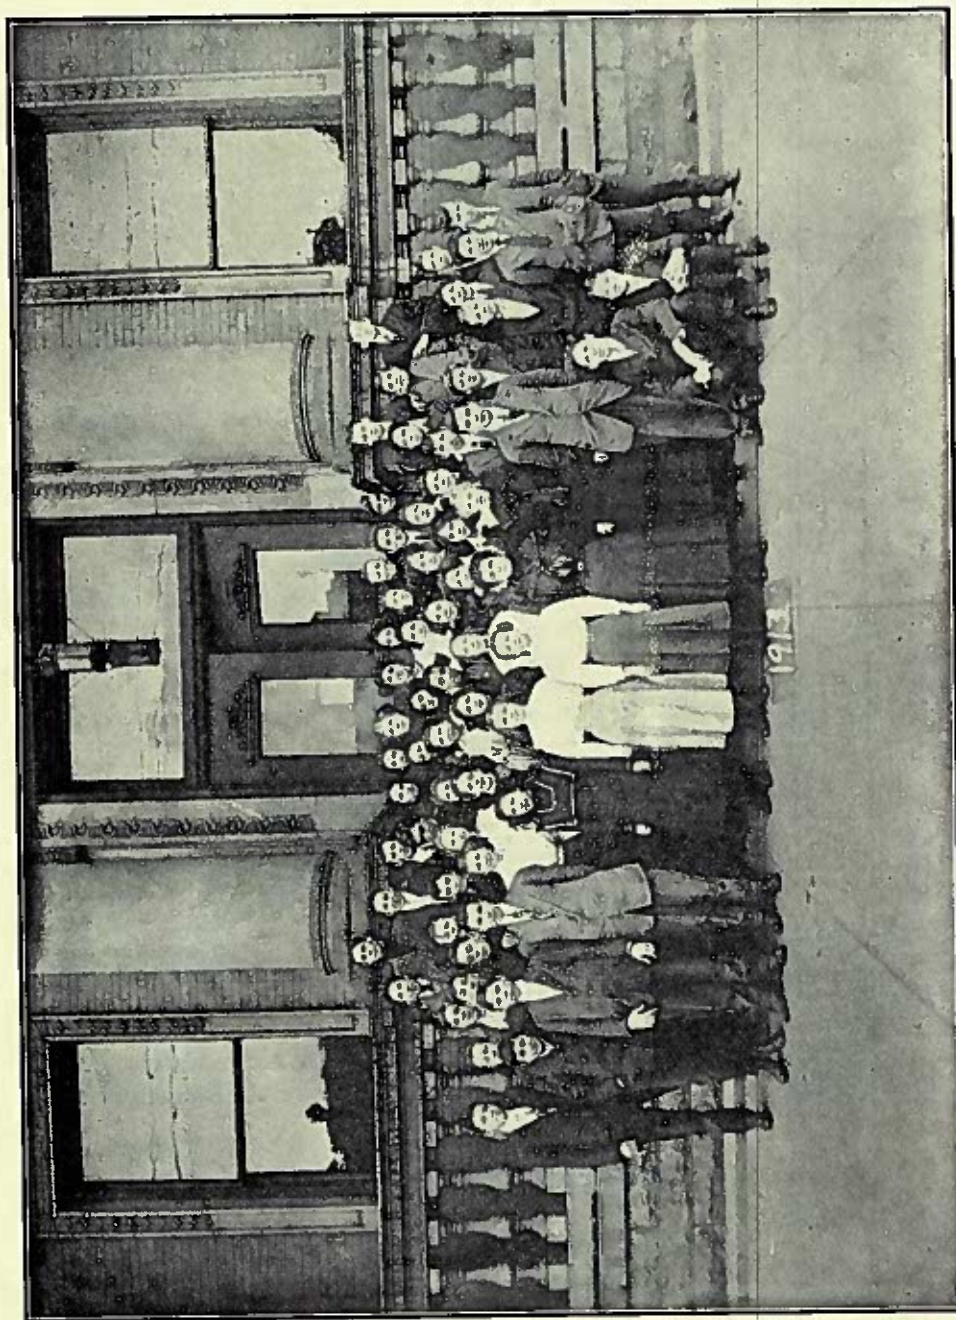

Motto—Be Second to None

YELL

Yor, yor, yell! Yell, yell, yors!

I yell! I yell!

For the Sophomores!

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Sophomore Class Roll

Norma Ambler	Roger Leach
Alvin Adams	Mildred Long
Elsa Berlett	Elva LaRoche
Anna Busch	Morris Lubitz
Bertha Burrows	Delbert Liller
Rena Blum	Marie McBride
Clyde Bryant	Stella Marsh
Hazel Beam	John McGraw
Raymond Beuter	Ebbert Malson
Lester Baird	Robert Neal
Emmett Barrett	Frank Pickett
Owenah Bauer	Arthur Patterson
Martin Clark	Robert Robertson
Hazel Craig	Hilda Rodewig
Robert Carson	Alma Rodewig
Maud Crow	Ruth Selzer
Julius Duga	Chalmer Snyder
Louis Duga	Clarence Siddall
Carl Eggiman	Cloyd Snyder
Orma Fry	Marie Seal
Helen Fritschie	Eugene Schlack
Ruth Forsythe	Bessie Schiffler
John Fulton	Maud Strahl
Ruth Foster	Carlos Smith
Clyde Giesey	Howard Schiffler
Virginia Grafton	Amelia Tracy
Jones Gilleland	Howard Thompson
Calvin Hazlett	Ernest Wilson
Margaret Hermann	Grace Warnock
Earl Houck	Hazel Workman
Harold Hachstrasser	Elizabeth Walchli
Helen Hutchinson	Myrtle Wallace
Franklin Johnson	Amos Weil
Walter Kocher	Edgar Walters
Clarence Keyser	Fannie Tallman
Norma Lockwood	Lura Shafer
	Charles Over

Sophomore Class History

As usual, when the large number of Freshmen entered the High School in 1909, the upper classes made no attempt to conceal their amusement, and the so-called Freshman "greenness" was the cause of many a joke in the High School papers. But the class soon merited the friendship and good-will of students and teachers alike.

Meanwhile a meeting was called and the class was duly organized. A banquet, given by the upper classes and by the faculty, was very enjoyable, and served greatly toward acquainting the different classes. The year was very successful in every way. Most of the students worked hard and accordingly received good grades.

During the year the class lost two of their number through death, and for various reasons a number of others dropped out. At the beginning of the Sophomore year, 71 of the 90 students entering the High School as Freshmen, resumed their studies in the High School.

The class especially distinguished itself in athletics. Four boys from the Sophomore Class played on the football team, and did much toward bringing honor to B. H. S. In basketball the Sophomores had an especially strong class team, and one member of the boys' basketball team and two members of the girls' basketball team were from the Sophomore Class.

At the beginning of the year a High School Orchestra was organized, a large part of which is made up of Sophomores. The music which the Orchestra has furnished has added greatly to the programs rendered at the literaries.

The Sophomore Class has before it a bright future, for at least fifty of the present class will graduate in 1913. That number will be the largest Bellaire High School has had so far.

C. J. W.

Sophomore Athletic Notes

The Sophomore athletes were among the best in the school, taking part in all events.

For the Varsity Girls' basketball team we had three players, of which Miss Marie McBride and Miss Myrtle Wallace were regulars. Miss Mildred Long was a substitute, she taking part in several of the best games. Through the fine playing of these lassies the team was the champion of the Valley. Our girls' class team was one of the strongest, ranking second in the league formed of the classes.

The boys of the class were represented on all the teams, having four players on the football team. They are as follows: Schiffler, Gilleland, Benter and Barrett. With the aid of these players the team won its games.

On the basketball team the class was represented by two players, Barrett being selected as forward from the other fast players in the school. With their aid the team was made one of the fastest in the Valley. Gilleland was a substitute, taking part in some of the fastest games of the season. The class team was one of the fastest in the school, losing one game during the season. The team was composed of Bryant and Barrett, Forwards; Gilleland, Center; Schiffler and Carson, Guards.

The candidates for this coming baseball season are: Schiffler, Carson, Gilleland and Barrett. No doubt they will all be successful. Barrett and Schiffler are two players of last year's fast team.

Freshman

OFFICERS

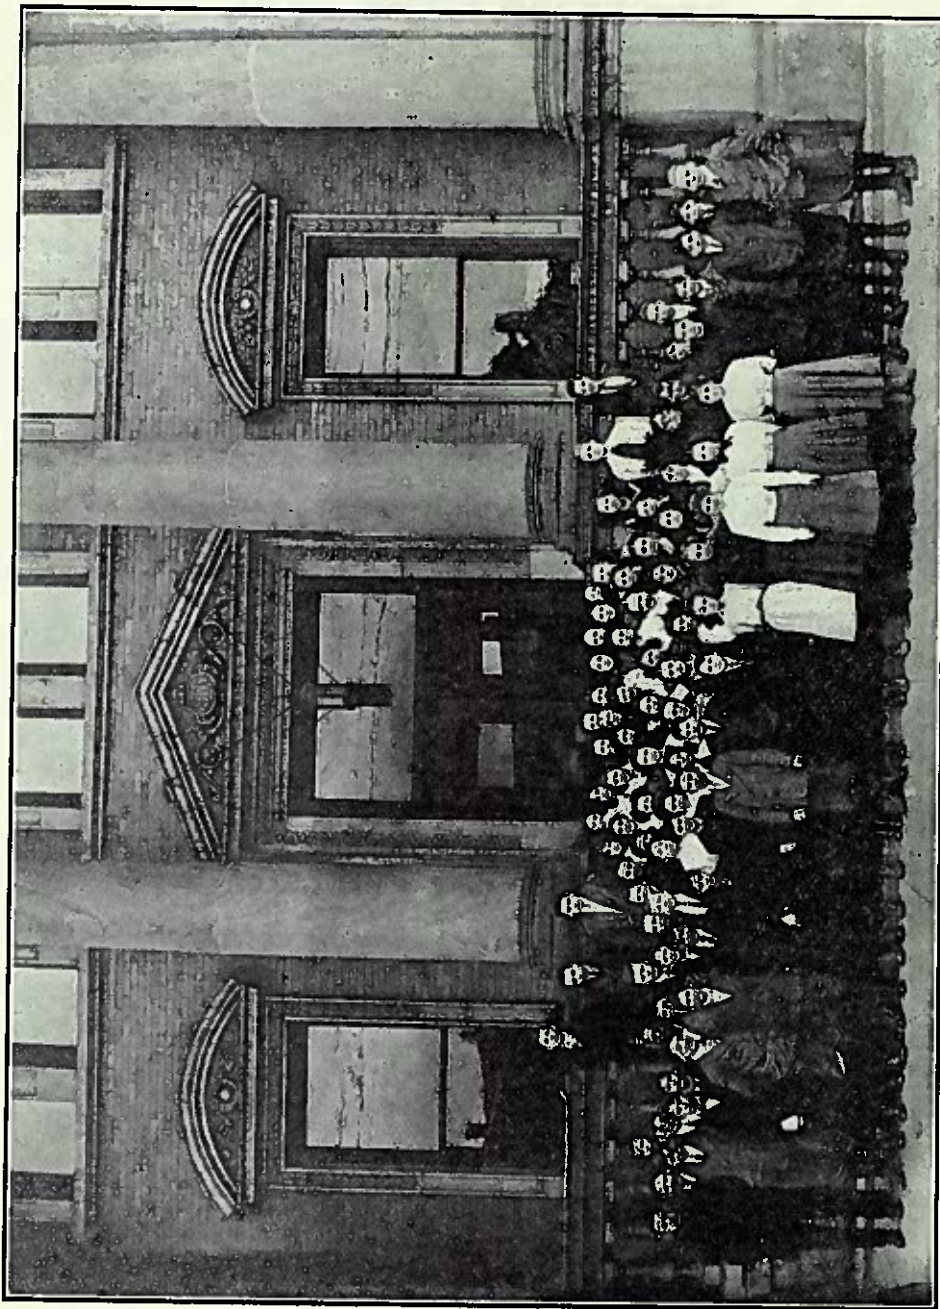

President.....Donald Batelle
 Vice-President.....George Hazlett
 Class Editor.....Jean Heatherington

Colors—Purple and White

Motto—Push and Pull—But in One Direction—Toward Success

YELL

Hippety, heppety! Hip hurrah!
 Freshmen, Freshmen, Rah! Rah! Rah!

FRESHMAN CLASS

Freshman Class Roll

Frances Ault
Mildred Allum
Pearl Albright
Robert Anderson
Florence Boice
Donald Battelle
Robert Blum
John Butler
Vera Boyer
Clarence Corbett
Elizabeth Conway
Elsa Douglas
Lucy Dean
Alex Du Bois
James Frazier
Erma Ferrel
Paul Ferrel
Mary Frazier
Lavinia Forster
Homer Fulton
Vernon Fawkes
Edna Giffin
Lela Giffin
Rhea Greenberg
Richard Grace
Bessie Giffin
Carl Giffin
Bertha Givens
George Hazlett
Fred Heil
Marie Hasal
Jean Heatherington
Marie Howard
Lowell Johnston
Clarence Jahnke
Carl Johnson
Helene Jones
Regina Kilgore
Wilma Kompart
Lillian Knox
Louisa Kasten
Oliver Keys
Willard King
Ray Linard

Alvin Luchs
Samuel Labelsky
Ralph Mason
Roy Messerly
Pauline Meek
Wood McDonald
Walter Meyer
Joe McClain
Clarence Myers
Catherine Marling
Walter McCroba
Esther McDonald
Dacy McMillin
Elizabeth McGraw
Frank Nelson
Margaret Oberman
Edward Orell
Edgar Richards
Howard Reaster
Clara Shepherd
Edgar Selzer
Louis Petran
Louis Siegler
Lucile Sutton
Paul Trimble
Lucy Tabet
Minnie Unterzuber
Cozette Workman
Velma Workman
Alma Wehe
Melvin Waser
Norman Wassman
Fern Williams
Henrietta Wallace
Eugene Walters
Elizabeth Warren
Florence Wise
Nettie Willerton
Mary Zimmerman
Kelly Van Dyne
Frederick Hulbert
Mary Daugherty
Glen Nicholson

Freshman History

The "Freshies" of 1910-1911 certainly belied that appellation as they have proved in their studies and their amount of common sense during the year. The scornful looks (which was all the satisfaction the other pupils had, thanks to Prof. Jackson), did not seem to kill them. They came up to do the work of the High School and not to spend their time in watching the "beautiful" tilt of some of the pupils' noses. There had been a stale joke about the Freshies being slow to learn their classrooms, but it didn't seem to apply to the Freshies of 1911. As they shone in studies, so they shone in athletics. They had a good basketball team and in football had 3 boys on the first team.

We may watch and hope for a fine future for this class and B. H. S. as a whole. Let our motto be: "Push and Pull—But in One Direction—Toward Success."

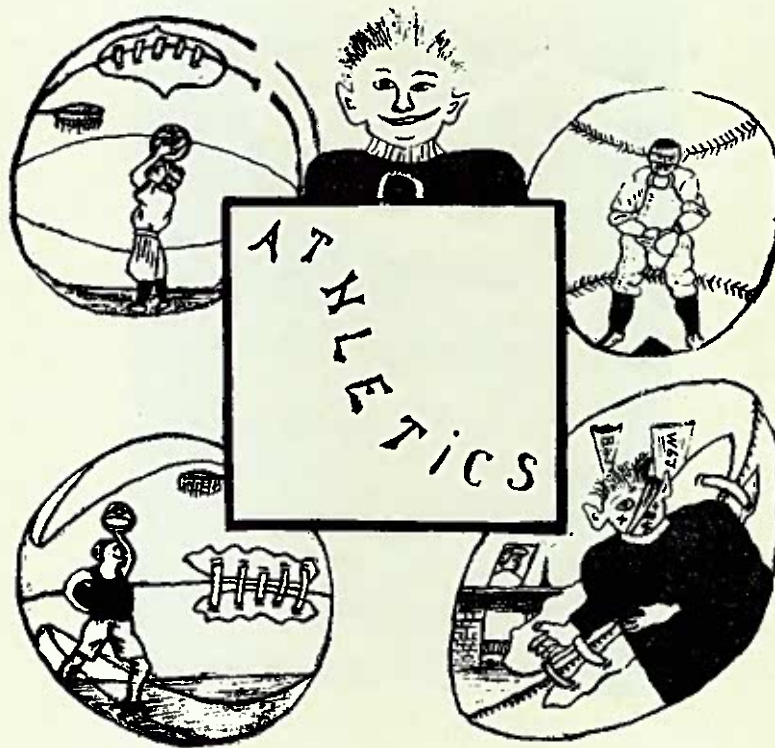

Freshman Athletics

The Freshman Class was well represented in most all the sports. Corbett, Johnson and McCroba played on the football team and to the eye no yellow was discernible. Although they had no regulars on the basketball team, they had a team of Freshmen which came out with a good record. Among the teams that they played were St. Clairsville and Martins Ferry Freshies, and they broke even with both in number of games won.

Corbett, Meyers and Messerly were out for the first baseball team, and those who succeed in getting on the team will no doubt do their share in making the team a success. While they have such a fine showing in athletics in their first year, in their last three years they will surely become much better. But they do not intend to forego the purpose for which they are in H. S., because of these athletics. So here's hoping for the welfare and success of the Class of '14.

Traits

Best Athlete.....	H. Seabright
Greatest Grind.....	Barrett
Brainiest.....	Jess Seabright
Greatest Dude.....	Mac McCroba
Most Conceited.....	Pickett
Windiest	Schiffler
Would Be.....	Julius Duga
Hardest Rattle.....	Royer
Laziest	Aldredge
Greatest Social Light.....	Schafer
High School Doll.....	Adams
Best Natured.....	Stonebraker
Greatest Sport.....	Ward
Meekest.....	Anderson
Noisiest	Behr
Greatest Leg Puller.....	Gilleland
Most Promising.....	J. Heatherington
Tallest.....	Van Curen
Shortest	Hulbert
Biggest Eater.....	B. McCroba
Most Mysterious.....	J. Wagoner
Most Sentimental.....	R. Heatherington
Most Harmless.....	Joe Duga
Craziest	Thompson
Most Quiet.....	Boyer
Most Freckled.....	Walter Myers
Most Industrious.....	Belt

PROF. GORDON BATTELLE

Coach Battelle

Mr. Battelle is the only member of the present High School Faculty who is an alumnus of the Bellaire High School. He was graduated with the Class of 1906, and last year received his A.B. degree from Ohio Wesleyan. We are proud to point him out as a product of our school. He has been very much in evidence in all phases of High School life during the year. Because of his untiring efforts the Athletic Associations have enjoyed the most prosperous year in the history of the school, both financially, and from the standpoint of games won.

His work in the class-room has been par excellent, and his musical ability has aided us very materially.

Then, "Here's to Coach Battelle;
May his kind increase."

The Athletic Association

Herbert Boyer, '12.....President
Ralph Heatherington, '12.....Vice-President
Paul Shafer, '12.....Secretary
Mr. Jackson.....Treasurer
Mr. Battelle.....Athletic Director

THE CAPTAINS

Burton McCorba, '12.....Football—Tackle
Howard Seabright, '12.....Basketball—Forward
Anna Rosser, '11.....Basketball—Guard
Howard Seabright, '12.....Baseball—First Base

The "B's"

Football—

Aldredge
Barrett
Benter
Blum
Boyer
Conrad
Corbett
Gilleland
Heatherington
Keyser
McCroba, B.
McCroba, W.
Royer

Schiffler

Seabright

Basketball—

Boys

Anderson
Barrett
Duga
Heatherington
McCroba
Seabright
Girls
Braunlich
Corbett
Dorer

Herzberg

Jones

Long

McBride

Rosser

Wallace

Baseball—

Boyer
Barrett
Conrad
Corbett
Heatherington
Schiffler
Seabright

B-E-L-L-A-I-R-E (Slow)

B-E-L-L-A-I-R-E (Fast)

B-E-L-L-A-I-R-E (Very Fast)

BELLAIRE!

Martins Ferry.	Position.	Bellaire.
Wilson	Q. B.	Barrett
Morris	F. B.	Seabright
Duff	R. H.	B. McCroba
James	L. H.	Conrad
Reithmuller	C.	Gilleland
Jones	R. E.	Keyser
Thompson	R. E.	Boyer
Short	L. G.	Aldredge, Royer
Seabright	L. G.	J. Blumm, Boyer
Caine	R. T.	W. McCroba
Graham	L. T.	M. Blum
Referee, Battelle; umpire, Smith; head linesman, Corbett, Four 10-minute quarters.

B. H. S. VS. WHEELING

On November 6th the team traveled to Wheeling where our team was defeated to the tune of 10 to 0. In the last half-minute of the first quarter, when Bellaire had the ball on Wheeling's 15-yard line, Barrett's drop-kick was blocked and Pratt ran eighty-three yards before he was sensationally tackled by Barrett. Wheeling scored both touchdowns in the second quarter. Wheeling delayed the starting of the game so that the last half was played in darkness and was reduced to ten minutes. This greatly handicapped the Bellaire team, although they showed flashes of fine playing by using double shifts and guard-over plays. Pratt and Plummer featured for Wheeling, while Keyser and Boyer played the stellar game for Bellaire. The line-up follows:

Wheeling.	Position.	Bellaire.
Stobbs	L. E.	Heatherington, Royer
Woodruff	L. T.	Conrad
L. Smith	L. G.	Blum
Boemer	C.	Gilleland
Winkermeyer	R. G.	W. McCroba, Aldredge
H. Helstrom	R. T.	B. McCroba
Marsh	R. E.	Keyser
Chapman	Q. B.	Barrett
Plummer	L. H.	Seabright
Spears	R. H.	Schiffler
Pratt	F. B.	Boyer
Referee, Voitle; umpire, Brooks, Wesleyan; field judge, Brake, W. V. U.

AT STEUBENVILLE

B. H. S.—5; S. H. S.—10

The team journeyed to Steubenville on the morning of November 20th, ate a healthy (?) dinner at the Y. M. C. A., and were defeated in a good game in the afternoon. It would have been a better game had the Steubenville referee been a little more careful in his decisions. His decisions were away off and once our noble coach threatened to leave the field with his team, but was later persuaded by some enthusiastic rooters to remain. The game was fast from start to finish with the forward pass gaining ground for both teams. Bellaire's double shift took Steubenville off their feet in the early stages of the game and gains averaging fifteen yards were made. In the first half they scored, after ten minutes of hard playing, on a fluke, Herbst carrying the ball over for the touchdown. Fiscus failed at goal. Play was again resumed with Bellaire the aggressor this time, and in five minutes after the whistle was blown Keyser scored our touchdown. "Bar" also failed at goal. In the second half the "Steubenvillians" scored on a second fluke, Fiscus carrying the oval over the line on a straight buck. He later failed at goal. Bellaire could do nothing against Steubenville and the referee in this half. The game ended 10-5 in their favor. Fiscus and Herbst were their shining lights, while Boyer and Keyser did the stellar work for B. H. S. The line-up:

S. H. S.	Position.	Bellaire.
R. Ovington	L. E.	Heatherington, Royer
J. Ovington	L. F.	Conrad
Lewis	L. G.	Blum
Morris	C.	Gilleland
Strong	R. G.	Aldredge
Gossett	R. F.	W. McCroba
H. Fiscus	R. E.	Keyser
Cartledge	Q. B.	Barrett
Herbst	R. H. B.	Seabright
Dougherty	L. H. B.	Corbett
M. Fiscus	F. B.	Boyer

Referee, Johnson; umpire, Toohey; field judge, Battelle; head linesman, Ward; timekeeper, Carson.

BELLAIRE HIGH—11; MARTINS FERRY—0

When Martins Ferry High came to Bellaire on November 12, our team turned the table on our deadly rivals and took them into camp by the score of 11 to 0. The forward pass was used to good effect by both teams and although the game was played on a muddy field and in a drizzling rain, some good trick plays were pulled off. The feature of the game was a 50-yard run of Keyser, Bellaire's star right end, for the first touchdown. The second touchdown was made by Boyer in the third quarter on a line plunge. Morris played the star game for the visitors. The line-up of both teams follows:

Martins Ferry.	Position.	Bellaire.
Morris	F. B.	Boyer
Duff	L. H.	Seabright
James	R. H.	Schiffler
Wilson	R. B.	Barrett
Thompson	L. E.	Heatherington
Graham	L. F.	Aldredge
Seabright	L. G.	Blum
Reithmuller	C.	Gilleland
Short	R. G.	W. McCroba
Caine	R. T.	B. McCroba
Jones	R. E.	Keyser

Referee, Smith; umpire, Battelle; time of quarters, 10 minutes each.

Basket Ball

Although our High School basketball season of 1910-1911 started off rather late, it finally resulted in one of the most successful, if not the most successful season, in the history of the school. Out of twelve games our five won 9 and lost but three. This is a record to be proud of and in after years will stand as a model for the succeeding teams who will represent the Red and Black. Under the general supervision and management of Mr. Battelle, the athletic director, the team was rounded into fairly good shape for the first game. The team was composed of the following players: Heatherington, McCroba, Barrett, Duga, Anderson, Seabright (Captain), and Gilleland.

Heatherington and Seabright were the only two veterans left from last year's team. McCroba and Duga were substitutes from last year, who easily made good as regulars. Barrett, Anderson and Gilleland were the new men who participated in this season's games, the former playing throughout the season and was one of the team's mainstays.

We may here take the opportunity of thanking the students of the High School and the public at large for the support given to the team, and may the teams of the succeeding seasons bring home many victories for the Red and Black. The prospects for a fine team for next year never looked better, and here's hoping that this prediction will come true.

The Opening Game

The boys' basketball season opened in Bellaire January 2nd with a glorious victory for our boys. Bridgeport, having played several games before, claimed to be in trim, and said they would trample us under their feet, while our boys, though practicing, were not yet in condition. All we claimed before the game was a tight game. It was—not. We didn't even sweat. Our pass work was more than could be expected in the first game. We simply played "rings" around them. C. Johnson was easily their shining light, while Seabright and McCroba did the good work for Bellaire. Barrett and Anderson showed up very well for their first inter-scholastic game. Heatherington played up to his standard of last year. The game:

Bridgeport H. S.	Positions.	Bellaire H. S.
Cilles	F.....	(Captain) Seabright
Michner	F.....	Barrett
Johnson (Captain)	C.....	McCroba
Frye	G.....	Anderson
W. Johnson	G.....	Heatherington

Goals from field—McCroba 5, Seabright 5, Heatherington 3, Barrett 2, Anderson, Johnson 3, Mitchner, W. Johnson, Cilles. Goals from foul—Seabright 4, Cilles, Johnson. Referee, Aldredge; umpire, Cilles.

LINSLY INSTITUTE—7; B. H. S.—29

Our second game of this week was with Linsly Institute, fresh from her previous victories. They journeyed to our gym. with the intention of adding another victory to their string. But "we fooled 'em." Linsly started the scoring with a goal from foul. This was the first, last, and only time that they were ahead of us. We simply outclassed them all around. Their basket shooting was poor, considering the practice they had had. Our "trapping" and "shooting" was almost mid-season form. Barrett was the "beaming ray" of the evening. Seabright and McCroba being matched against good men, did not have the chances as "Bar." The guards certainly did their share of work. No baskets by Linsly in the second half. Eneix and Donaldson were their standbys, while Heatherington played a good game at guard. The score:

Linsly Institute.	Positions.	Bellaire H. S.
Donaldson (Captain)	F.....	(Captain) Seabright
Colvig	F.....	Barrett
Eneix	C.....	McCroba
Chambers	G.....	Anderson, Duga
Walters	G.....	Heatherington

Goals from field—Barrett 6, McCroba 3, Seabright 3, Heatherington, Colvig, Donaldson. Goals from foul—Seabright 3, Donaldson 3. Referee, Jones; umpire, Borham.

WOODSFIELD—6; B. H. S.—26.

There is a little hamlet (?) by the name of Woodsfield, situated on the O. R. & W., about 45 miles from Bellaire, where they play their basketball in the hayloft of "Si Slocum's" barn. The place was poorly lighted, poorly ventilated and had a very rough floor. But nevertheless we showed the citizens of Woodsfield as well as the players how to play basketball. We didn't like to beat them too badly, so we took our time and didn't play hard. In order to throw field baskets one of our forwards would stand under the basket and "holler" to the other forward where to throw it. They never had a "look in." Denbow threw six foul baskets, but that's all they got. Some guarding—eh? Our forwards and centre "shot" for baskets in turn. No particular stars for either side. The game:

Woodsfield H. S.	Positions.	Bellaire H. S.
Denbow	F.....	(Captain) Seabright
Reef	F.....	Barrett
Herron	C.....	McCroba
Drumm	G.....	Heatherington
Thornbury	G.....	Anderson

Goals from field—Seabright 4, McCroba 4, Barrett 3, Anderson. Goals from foul—Denbow 6, Seabright, Heatherington. Referee, Aldredge; umpire, Yost.

THE MOUNDVILLE GAME

When Moundville High journeyed up to Bellaire on the 27th of January, our boys proceeded to swamp them by the score of 53 to 2. Never before did the Red and Black administer such a crushing defeat to an opposing team. The "Moundsvillians" were, by the way, handicapped by not having a good place to practice in. Particular mention must be made of the Bellaire guards, who held their opponents without a field goal. This is the second straight game in which this feat was performed. Bellaire scored almost at will and the pass work was perfection. Seabright succeeded in caging the ball an even dozen times, while McCroba got eight and Barrett five. The line-up follows:

Moundsville H. S.	Positions.	Bellaire H. S.
Potts	F.....	(Captain) Seabright
Henderson	F.....	Barrett
Booker	C.....	McCroba
Rogerson	G.....	Heatherington
Arnold	G.....	Duga, Anderson

Goals from field—Seabright 12, McCroba 8, Barrett 5, Heatherington.
Goals from foul—Booker 2, Seabright 3. Referee, Voitle; umpire, Aldredge.
Attendance, 250.

THE FIRST DEFEAT

The Bellaire quintet suffered its first defeat when it journeyed to Martins Ferry on January 27. The game was fast throughout, despite the one-sided score of 39 to 17. The team work of the up-river lads was the one feature of the game, although Bellaire showed flashes of good team work in the last half. Our team was greatly handicapped by the low ceiling and the referee. The following is the line-up of both teams:

Martins Ferry.	Positions.	Bellaire H. S.
Morris	F.....	(Captain) Seabright
Thompson	F.....	Barrett
Williams	C.....	McCroba
Graham (Captain)	G.....	Duga
Jones	G.....	Heatherington

Field goals—Thompson 5, Graham 5, Morris 3, Jones 3, Barrett 3, Seabright 3, Williams 2, McCroba 1. Foul goals—Thompson 3, Seabright 3. Referee, Thompson; umpire, McIntosh; time of halves, 20 minutes.

SISTERSVILLE—17; B. H. S.—32

On the 3rd of February the team representing Sistersville High School journeyed up to Bellaire fresh from several victories down the river, and they expected to add another victory to their list. In this they were, however, disappointed, for our boys proceeded to "clean up" on them by the score of 32 to 17. McCroba threw the most baskets for the Red and Black. The Bellaire guards, Duga and Heatherington, also held down the score very well. Piercy was Sistersville's best man. Following is the line-up:

Sistersville.	Positions.	Bellaire H. S.
Burns	F.....	Barrett
Kirsting	F.....	(Captain) Seabright
Piercy (Captain)	C.....	McCroba
Ewing	G.....	Heatherington
Richards	G.....	Duga

Goals from field—McCroba 6, Seabright 4, Barrett 3, Kirsting 3, Piercy 3, Heatherington 2, Burns 1, Richards 1. Goals from foul—Seabright 3, Kirsting. Referee, Aldredge; umpire, Fitz.

BRIDEPORT 17; B. H. S.—39.

On the 9th of February our basketball quintet for the second time of the season walloped Bridgeport on their own floor by the score of 39-17. Owing to the one-sided score the last part of the game was rather listless. McCroba succeeded in caging the ball eight times, being Bellaire's principal scorer. Heatherington played his usual good game at guard. C. Johnson was Bridgeport's best man. The score:

Bridgeport.	Positions.	Bellaire H. S.
Cilles	F	Barrett
Mitchner	F	(Captain) Seabright
C. Johnson (Captain)	C	McCroba
Thumiss, W. Johnson	G	Heatherington
Frye	G	Duga

Goals from field—McCroba, 8; Barrett 4, Seabright 3, Heatherington 2. Duga 1, C. Johnson 3, Cilles 3, Mitchner 2. Goals from foul—Cilles, Seabright 3. Referee, Cilles; umpire, Aldredge.

LINSLEY INSTITUTE—22; B. H. S.—40

On the evening of Washington's Birthday our team, accompanied by Coach Battelle and several rooters, took a little trip over to Wheeling and added another victory to our long list by the score of 40 to 22. From the very first time the ball was tossed up until the whistle blew at the end of the game Bellaire had the game well in hand and were never in danger of defeat. The feature of the game was the classy pass work and basket-shooting of the Bellaire five. Heatherington played a fine game at guard, while Gilleland, a new man, showed up exceptionally well against the other guard. Seabright was the principal basket shooter for Bellaire. The line-up of both teams follows:

Linsley	Positions.	Bellaire H. S.
Colvig	F	(Captain) Seabright
Chambers	F	Barrett
Eneix	C	McCroba
Donaldson (Captain)	G	Heatherington
Gibson	G	Gilleland

Goals from field—Seabright 9, Barrett 4, Donaldson 3, McCroba 4, Heatherington 1, Colvig 1, Eneix 2, Gibson 2. Goals from foul—Eneix 5, Donaldson 1, Seabright 4. Referee, Battelle; umpire, Hodgson.

SISTERSVILLE H. S.—20; B. H. S.—11

The return game with Sistersville H. S. on February 25 resulted in a victory for the down-river lads. Bellaire was greatly handicapped by the slippery floor, but at times showed some good pass work. Although defeated, our boys had an enjoyable trip and received fine treatment from the home team. The line-up and score follow:

Sistersville H. S.	Positions.	Bellaire H. S.
Burns	F.....	Barrett
Kirsting	F.....	(Captain) Seabright
Piercy (Captain)	C.....	McCroba
Richards	G.....	Heatherington
Campbell	G.....	Duga
Goals from field—Kirsting 3, Piercy 3, Burns 3, Barrett 2, Seabright 1, McCroba 1, Duga 1. Goals from foul—Piercy 1, Seabright 1, Kirsting 1. Referee, Battelle; umpire, Fetz.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE—21; B. H. S.—41.

When the quintet representing St. Clairsville H. S. came to Bellaire on February 17, our boys proceeded to show them how to play real basketball. They came here with the idea of even winning, but they met with a great surprise, for after the first half the game was simply a walkaway for the Red and Black. At the first part of the game the "co-seaters" tried to "buffalo" our five by roughing it, but it is in this department that our team shines when called upon to produce. And produce we did, for by the time the game was over the opposing team was ready to acknowledge our superiority. When the whistle blew at the end of the game the score-board showed the result to be 41-21. The line-up of both teams follows:

St. Clairsville.	Positions.	Bellaire H. S.
Sidebottom	F.....	(Captain) Seabright
Williams	F.....	Barrett
Sutton	C.....	McCroba
Fawcett	G.....	Heatherington
Miller (Captain)	G.....	Duga
Goals from field—Seabright 7, Barrett 5, McCroba 3, Heatherington 2, Duga 1, Sidebottom 3, Williams 3, Fawcett 1, Miller 1. Goals from foul—Williams 3, Seabright 5, Sidebottom, Fawcett.

WOODSFIELD H. S.—19; B. H. S.—24

When Woodsfield came to Bellaire on the 3rd of March for their return game, they were again defeated by the score of 24 to 19. Owing to examination week and other happenings, our team had not practiced for over two weeks and was accordingly out of condition. The Red and Black team was also greatly handicapped by the absence of Heatherington, the star guard. Nevertheless, Bellaire played all the harder and finally won out. The score:

Woodsfield.	Positions.	Bellaire H. S.
Standt	F.....	Barrett
Denbow	F.....	(Captain) Seabright
Jones	C.....	Gilleland, McCroba
Reef	G.....	Shafer, Gilleland
Tshappat	G.....	Duga
Goals from field—Standt 5, Seabright 4, Barrett 2, Gilleland 2, Denbok 2, Reef 1, McCroba 1. Goals from foul—Seabright 6, Standt 4. Referee, Aldredge; umpire, Yost.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

M. F. H. S.—32; B. H. S.—31

As both teams, Martins Ferry and Bellaire, had envious records, it was thought best by both managers to play a game to settle the championship of Belmont County. The game was played on St. Patrick's Day and, although the Bellaire five were "Wearers o' the Green," there was some yellow to be found. The score was in doubt from the first minute of play. Bellaire took the lead and held it until the middle of the second half. The score at the end of the first half was 12-3 in favor of Bellaire. Martins Ferry started the second half with a spurt and tied the score before the Bellaire boys could stop it. The game was even from then to the end. The feature of the evening was the foul-basket throwing of both Thompson and Seabright, Thompson throwing 11 out of 14 and Seabright throwing 14 out of 16. It could plainly be seen that Bellaire, who hadn't played for two weeks, were out of practice. Morris was the main basket-shooter of Martins Ferry, while Seabright and Barrett starred for Bellaire. The lineup:

Martins Ferry.	Positions.	Bellaire H. S.
Morris	F.....	Captain) Seabright
Thompson	F.....	Barrett
Williams	C.....	McCroba
Jones	G.....	Duga
James	G.....	Heatherington

Goals from field—Morris 5, Thompson 1, Williams 2, Jones 3; Seabright 3, Barrett 3, McCroba 3, Heatherington 1, Duga 1. Goals from foul—Thompson 11, Seabright 14.

Base Ball

Owing to the continued rains this Spring, Bellaire has had not much of a chance to organize a baseball team. A regular team has not yet been picked by Coach Battelle and Captain Seabright. (Owing to the latness of the organization no picture has been placed in the Belguan.) Two games were called off on account of cold weather and rain. The boys practice whenever the weather permits, and under the able direction of Coach Battelle the team should win a majority of its games. Bellaire has played but one game, that with Elliot. The details of this game will be found elsewhere. Bellaire is a member of the Ohio Valley Athletic Association and so far is tied for first place. Bellaire's schedule is:

- April 7—B. H. S. at Bridgeport H. S. (cancelled, rain).
- April 12—B. H. S. at Shadyside H. S. (cancelled, rain).
- April 15—B. H. S. at Elliott C. S. (won).
- April 19—Wheeling H. S. at Bellaire (rain).
- April 22—Shadyside at Bellaire.
- April 26—B. H. S. at Wheeling H. S.
- April 29—Barnesville H. S. at Bellaire.
- May 3—B. H. S. at Martins Ferry H. S.
- May 6—B. H. S. at Barnesville.
- May 13—Elliot at Bellaire.
- May 20—Moundsville at Bellaire.
- May 27—B. H. S. at Moundsville.

First Game

Bellaire High School sojourned to the Wheeling Island ball park on Saturday, April 15th, and defeated Elliot to the tune of 5-4. The game was hard fought and interesting throughout.

Elliot started the scoring in the third on a three-bagger, a sacrifice and an error. Bellaire soon overcome the lead in her half of the fourth, on two bases on balls, two hits and a sacrifice. Elliot scored in the fifth on a hit, a stolen base and an error. Bellaire could do nothing this inning. Elliot came in in the sixth and secured another score as the result of a base on balls, an error and a single. Bellaire again forged ahead in the seventh on a bunt, two two-baggers and a fly. Elliot tied up in the eighth on a single, a sacrifice hit and an error. This tying the score, Bellaire scored the winning run in the ninth on a single, a stolen base and a single. Elliot could do nothing in their half. The feature of the game was the batting of Seabright of Bellaire and Kern of Elliot. The line-up:

B. H. S.	A.B.	R.	H.	P.O.	A.	E.
Corbett, 3b.....	6	0	1	1	2	2
Myers, ss.....	5	0	2	1	2	2
Seabright, 1b....	5	1	3	10	0	0
Schiffler, l. f....	4	1	1	1	0	0
Boyer, c.....	3	1	1	9	3	0
Heather'gt'n, 2b..	4	2	1	3	2	1
Aldredge, c. f....	5	0	0	0	0	1
Nicholson, r. f..	5	0	0	0	0	0
Barrett, p.....	5	0	2	1	1	0
*LaRoche	1	0	0	0	0	0
	38	5	12	27	10	6

*Batted for Nicholson in ninth.

E. C. S.	A.B.	R.	H.	P.O.	A.	E.
Kern, r. f.....	4	2	2	0	0	0
Maxwell, 3b....	4	0	0	2	1	1
White, l. f.....	5	0	0	1	0	0
Wagner, c.....	4	0	0	9	1	0
Gilchrist, 1b....	5	0	0	9	0	3
McClansboro, 2b.	3	0	0	2	2	1
Burkle, c. f.....	3	1	1	1	0	0
Miller, ss.....	4	1	3	2	3	1
Lucas, p.....	3	0	1	1	1	0
	35	4	7	21	8	6

Double play—Myers to Heatherington. Hit by pitcher—Barrett (3). Earned runs—Bellaire (2). Two-base hits—Schiffler, Boyer. Three-base hit—Kern. Left on bases—B. H. S., 7; E. C. S., 5. Bases on balls—Off Barrett, 4; Lucas, 2. Strike outs—Barrett, 9; Lucas, 9. Umpire—Smith.

Girls' Athletic Association

Captain.....Anna Rosser
 Manager and Coach.....Gordon Battelle

This year's Basketball Association prospered in every respect. More are becoming interested in the game every year. At the end of this year's basketball season we find the Girls' Athletic Association as brilliant as ever, and we hope for its prosperity in the future. Having no debts carried over from last year, Manager Battelle purchased lockers for both the girls and boys, each member being required to pay fifty cents a year to help pay for them. There are thirty-nine members belonging to the association, out of which each class is represented with a team. Class games continued throughout the year, whereby the Junior team became the champion of the class teams, and at the end of the series of games were presented with a large pennant by G. Taylor. These games were as interesting as the first team games, each class striving to win the pennant.

"Members of the Girls' Athletic Association, form class teams next year! Then each strive for the highest goal."

Basketball is enjoyed by all who attend the game. Come and see. Remember! Don't allow the B. H. S. basketball team to lose its reputation next year, but try and keep the name "Champions" forever, as borne by it in '10-'11.

Here's to the Girls' Athletic Association.

GIRLS' BASKET BALL TEAM

Girls' Basket Ball

Osky — wosky — highty — tie
V - i - c - t - o - r - y
Are we Champions? Well I guess!
Here's to the Girls of the B. H. S.

The girls' basketball team of the B. H. S. again stands on top in 1911. A vote of thanks is extended to Coach Battelle for his excellent coaching, which helped to strengthen and develop this year's team.

The team of '10-'11 was composed of the following girls: Charlotte Herzberg, Flora Braunlich, Forwards; Mollie Dorer, Marie McBride, Centers; Anna Rosser, Myrtle Wallace, Guards.

The team played twelve games, winning nine and losing three, which gives them the championship of Ohio Valley.

The first game was played at the local gym., December 9, where we lost to Bridgeport by one point. Score, 11-10.

The next game was played at Cadiz, December 16. Here the girls lost by score of 15-11.

On January 6, the Bellaire girls traveled to Bridgeport, where Bridgeport suffered a defeat. Score, 8-3.

Next, on January 13, we defeated the Bellaire Alumnae girls. Score, 12-10. This was considered a great victory as last year's team only tied the score with them.

On January 20, the Cadiz girls came to Bellaire only to be defeated by 44 points. Score, 50-6.

After this great victory, the Bellaire girls next defeated Woodsfield by a score of 25-9 at the local gym.

February 3, we journeyed to Martins Ferry, where we were again victorious, winning by 5 points. Score, 9-5.

On February 10, the Muskingum College girls came to Bellaire, which added another victory to our list. Score 13-10. A large crowd witnessed this game, as all Bellaire was anxious for the local girls to win.

Our next game was played February 17, with the St. Clairsville girls at Bellaire. This game also ended in a victory for Bellaire. Score, 9-5.

On February 25, the Bellaire girls went to Muskingum, but went down to defeat. Score, 9-4. This defeat did not interfere with Bellaire's becoming champions of Ohio Valley.

The next game was March 3, when Woodsfield came to Bellaire with a large number of rooters, only to meet a defeat with a score of 24-1.

On March 24, our last game of the season and the game which decided the championship, was played at St. Clairsville. This added still another victory to our list. Score, 10-7. With this game we closed our season, justly claiming the championship of Ohio Valley.

Therefore, those who witnessed these games, always keep in mind the record made by the girls' basketball team of '10-'11.

CLASS GAMES

The following class games were played:

- Oct. 31—Seniors vs. Juniors. Seniors, 12; Juniors, 11.
 Sophomores vs. Freshmen. Sophomores, 15; Freshmen, 2.
 Nov. 2—Juniors vs. Sophomores. Juniors, 35; Sophomores, 3.
 Seniors vs. Freshmen. Seniors, 11; Freshmen, 4.
 Nov. 7—Seniors vs. Sophomores. Seniors, 2; Sophomores, 3.
 Juniors vs. Freshmen. Juniors, 29; Freshmen, 1.
 Nov. 9—Seniors vs. Juniors. Seniors, 5; Juniors, 22.
 Sophomores vs. Freshmen. Sophomores, 12; Freshmen, 4.
 Nov. 14—Juniors vs. Sophomores. Juniors, 8; Sophomores, 5.
 Seniors vs. Freshmen. Seniors, 17; Freshmen, 2.
 Nov. 18—Seniors vs. Sophomores. Seniors, 7; Sophomores, 4.
 Juniors vs. Freshmen. Juniors, 30; Freshmen, 2.
 Nov. 21—Sophomores vs. Freshmen. Sophomores, 12; Freshmen, 9.
 Dec. 5—Seniors vs. Freshmen. Seniors, 20; Freshmen, 2.
 Juniors vs. Sophomores. Juniors, 10; Sophomores, 6.
 Jan. 9—Seniors vs. Juniors. Seniors, 5; Juniors, 19.
 Jan. 16—Seniors vs. Sophomores. Seniors, 12; Sophomores, 6.
 Juniors vs. Freshmen. Juniors, 56; Freshmen, 5.

	Points		Points
Juniors	224	Sophomores	62
Seniors	19	Freshmen	35

The Juniors defeated the Freshmen, you know;
 This was of course a terrible blow.
 The Sophomores then were next on the list,
 They too were defeated just like the rest.
 Then came the Seniors, who played in their turn,
 Defeated the Juniors, once, you have learned.
 But the Juniors defeated all teams, don't forget,
 Except the one team, who think they are 11.

A High School Dilema

(Earl Houck, April 7, 1911.)

"Shorty" Williams had obtained his sobriquet from the fact that he was not more than five feet tall, although he made up for it in width.

He was always on the lookout for jokes to play, either on his companions or upon those older than himself.

"Shorty" had about exhausted his usual supply of jokes, when a strange boy of about "Shorty's" age took up his studies in High School.

The boy, whose name was Jimmy Lynn, was still smaller than "Shorty," and his entire appearance was the opposite; he had a sober and quiet look, whereas "Shorty" was always grinning or laughing.

Before going on, it may be said that although "Shorty" was not to be moved by commonplace objects or tricks, he had a natural aversion, even horror, of all reptiles and things creeping.

It also happened that Jimmy was a born naturalist, and with a few boys of like nature spent all available time out of school, and in vacation, in roaming hills and country in search of all species of local animals.

They had arrived in town one early spring morning, laden with several assorted lizards, bees, harmless snakes and mice, which they had gathered on this expedition. Not having time to go home, and not desiring to be absent from school, they decided to go as they were.

The "Naturalists," as they called themselves, by hurrying, arrived just on time. Before they took their seats the one teacher remaining in the room was called out.

On the night before "Shorty" had suggested to his friends that they play some joke on the "Naturalists." It was arranged that "Booky" Jones and "Shorty" place, instead of the usual one, two tacks on each of the "Naturalists'" seats. No one else knew of the trick, so everything was quiet when the latter arrived.

Before sitting down they examined their captures, thus giving them more of a chance than otherwise of escaping. When they sat down, only to leap to their feet with a yell of mingled surprise and pain, the majority of the animals escaped.

Of course, these things set the whole school into an uproar, which was added to when the following happened: The reptiles seemed personally acquainted with "Shorty," and ran or crawled toward him. With a horrified expression he ran yelling to the door, only to collide with the teacher, who was returning.

With quiet restored, upon investigation, of course, suspicion fell on the "Naturalists." It was against the rules to bring a menagerie to school, much less to turn it loose.

From this time things went on until the "Naturalists" were accused of the whole disturbance. They acknowledged bringing the animals to school, but were unable to make satisfactory explanations to entirely clear themselves, and they were expelled.

"Shorty" and his companions were no cowards, nor intentionally dishonorable, but the situation had so developed that they feared consequences should they confess, for would they not be expelled in turn? They also feared exposure should they seek advice; but above all, they knew that they were the cause of the "Naturalists" being wronged. The "Naturalists" at least suspected them and yet kept silence.

After school "Shorty" told his friends that he was to blame, and would confess alone. This his companions indignantly objected to. Finally they all confessed to the Principal, who told them that, as they had confessed voluntarily, he would parole them on their good behavior in the future.

"Shorty" and his mates are very much prejudiced as to strong jokes for fear of a repetition of this incident. They are fast friends of the "Naturalists," who have no hard feelings for the cause of their temporary predicament.

E. H., '13.

To dodge his creditors required
Such vigilance and vim,
A motor car he went and hired,
And now they're dodging him!

"Your teeth are like the stars," he said.
The simile was right.
He didn't know it, but like the stars,
Her teeth came out at night!

Soliloquy of the Statue of Abe Lincoln

For over two years I have stood, an unnoticed statue, in the Bellaire High School. Though I have been unnoticed by many, I have observed all. Of the four classes that daily pass to and fro, the present Sophomore Class, the Class of 1913, has attracted my attention. This class seems unusually bright and intelligent to me, and for this class I can prophesy a great future.

As I look into the dim future, I see, instead of a row of dwellings, which now bounds the High School building on the east, a noted institution of learning, whose teachers are famous for their large amount of knowledge as well as for the interest they take in their students. Among the noted professors that will be found in this college are: Helen Fritsche, Professor of English Language and Literature; Anna Busch, Professor of Vocal and Instrumental Music; Clarence Siddall, Professor of Botany; Emmett Barrett, Coach of Athletic Teams, and John McGraw, Professor of Morals and Sociology. While the college will be managed by Walter Kohler as president.

The Class of '13 will not only be represented in the world of teaching, but in almost every other occupation worthy of note. Perhaps the most influential book of the time on Woman's Rights will make Bertha Burrows famous, while Maud Strahl will be brought to fame by her wonderful lectures on this book. Charles Over's name will be known to every school boy and girl of the coming generation as one of the greatest modern historians. Cloyd and Chalmer Snyder's magazine will be an authority on all prominent questions from politics to fashions. The humorist's page, conducted by Elizabeth Walchi, will help to make the magazine famous.

Along medical lines the class will also be well represented. As a physician, Earl Houck will win world-wide fame and his hospital will be a famous resort for invalids. One of the most gentle and patient nurses in this hospital will be Ruth Forsythe. Carl Eggiman, the noted druggist, will be one of his most valuable aids. The tonsorialist parlors of Carson and Leach will be the most commendable in Chicago, where Mrs. Leach, formerly Owena Bauers, will be a favorite of society and a very good friend of Mrs. Boyer's, formerly Hazel Workman, of the same class. The beauty parlors of Crow and Tracy will be made famous by their manicurist, Helen Hutchison, and their hair-dresser, Hazel Craig. Elbert Malson and Eugene Slack will be among the daily patrons of the beauty parlors.

In a number of years from now the people of Bellaire will be very much excited by the appearance of a famous dramatic society. Their advertisement will read:

THE YOUNG CLUB STOCK COMPANY

Presents

"WE ARE SEVEN"

By the Famous Dramatist

CLARENCE KEYSER

Assisted by the Famous "Rainbow Trio"

Caste of Characters

RENA BLUM	RUTH FOSTER	MORRIS LUBITZ
HARRY PRICE	GRACE WARNOCK
RAYMOND BEUTER	ELSA BERLETT

Rainbow Trio

MARIE McBRIDE	NORMA AMBLER
MILDRED LONG

Others making themselves famous along similar lines are Martin Clark, whose violin stirs the heart of every true music lover. Robert Robertson's impressive speeches in the Senate will have a deep effect. The influences of the eloquent minister, Calvin Hazlett, will be many and far-reaching. Among those who weekly listen to Rev. Hazlett's stirring sermons will be found James Gilleland, the wealthy and impressive Mayor of Bellaire, and Harold Hochstrasser, the most powerful lawyer in the State. While Lura Shafer will be found laboring in the far away mission fields of the Philippines.

In New York Society Marie Seal will be considered the leader of fashion. Her style of dress will be copied by all society belles. Most of Miss Seal's beautiful gowns come from the Duga Bros.' large store in New York. In connection with their store the Duga Bros. will run a dressmaking establishment, which will be superintended by Stella Marsh. In this work Miss Marsh's most valuable assistants will be Orma Fry and Elva La Roche. In Parisian society Alvin Adams will be a general favorite with the ladies.

On one of the suburban roads which lead to Pittsburg I see a large touring car going in the direction of Pittsburg at a rapid rate. The occupant of the car proves to be Pittsburg's most wealthy manufacturer, Frank Pickett. Mr. Pickett has just left the famous Smith and Johnson garage, where his car has been under repair. He is in an unusually great hurry because he has received word from the most valuable electrician in the plant, Clyde Bryant, that an important matter needed his attention. Because of his haste he fails to notice the beautiful farms which he is passing, one of the most noted being the large poultry farm of Weil and Fulton.

Others of the class will be occupied in different work. Postmaster General Howard Thompson will be widely known, while his wife, formerly Margaret Hermann, of the same class, will be quite a favorite in society. Norma Lockwood's name will be long remembered for her inspiring verses on all lofty subjects. Lester Baird is destined to become the most famous artist of modern times. A world-known conservatory of instrumental music will be conducted by Hilda and Alma Rodewig. Howard Schiffler will become a famous baseball player, while Myrtle Wallace will become famous for her expert knowledge of basketball.

Thus have I traced the history of the Calss of 1913. May they ever prosper and each one fit himself for his respective occupation.

A., B. and C., '13.

LITERARY

Literary Societies of B. H. S.

The two literary societies of the Bellaire High School were organized in November, 1908, by Prof. Jackson. They have proved the most successful of the numerous things of interest organized by the professor. Each one is composed of half the school and are evenly divided as far as talent is concerned.

About every two weeks each society alternately holds a public meeting, consisting of a program of declamations, orations, book reviews, essays, a debate and musical selections.

The societies are also rivals in athletics, having both a girls' and boys' basketball team on each side.

Those who favored us with excellent lectures during the year were: Rev. Shafer, Superintendent Hawkins, Miss Bessie Hoge, Mr. Van Fossan, Prof. Johnson of Case School, and Prof. McMaster of Mt. Union College.

The general principles and officers of the societies for the year are as follows:

UTOPIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

Colors—Crimson and White

Flower—Carnation

Motto—"We, By Just Degrees, Strive to Reach Perfection's Height"

Fall Term	OFFICERS	Spring Term
Lane Keyser.....	President.....	Lane Keyser
Burton McCroba.....	Vice-President.....	Mollie Dorer
Mollie Dorer.....	Secretary.....	Flora Braunlich
Anna Rosser.....	Treasurer.....	Anna Rosser
Donald Ward.....	Marshal.....	Burton McCroba
Blanche Rodewig.....	Pianist.....	Blanche Rodewig

This society, which was the first to be organized, has always been highly praised for the excellence of its programs.

DELPHIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

Colors—Brown and White

Flower—Rose

Fall Term	OFFICERS	Spring Term
Jesse Seabright.....	President.....	Jesse Seabright
Ralph Heatherington.....	Vice-President.....	Herbert Boyer
Margaret Battelle.....	Secretary.....	Lois Michael
Kelly Krozier.....	Treasurer.....	Kelly Krozier
Paul Ferrell.....	Marshal.....	Max Duga
Alma Rodewig.....	Pianist.....	Alma Rodewig

This society, too, has not fallen short in any way of the standard set by the students of the school.

JUNIOR-SENIOR CONTEST

The second contest between the Junior and Senior Classes of the school was held at the High School Auditorium February 21, 1911.

One-half of the hall was decorated with yellow and white, the Seniors' emblem, the other with the Juniors' red and white.

A large audience filled the auditorium and enjoyed the following program:

Music.....	(a) "Band, Band, Band" (b) "Oh, You Dream"
	High School Orchestra
Composition.....	"A Day in September"
	Eleanor Norton, '12
Composition.....	"The Triumph of Enthusiasm"
	Lois Michael, '11
Music—Vocal Duet	Selected
	Messrs. McCormick and Battelle
Oration.....	"Slavery in the United States Today"
	Josephine Giffen, '12
Oration.....	"For Value Received I Promise to Pay"
	Blanche Rodewig, '11
Music	"Carmena"
	Girls' Glee Club
Debate... "Resolved—That the United States Should Adopt Penny Postage"
	Affirmative—Benjamin Belt, '11; Jefferson Conrad, '11
	Negative—Cecil Stonebraker, '12; Joseph Duga, '12
Music.....	"Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup"
	Boys' Glee Club
Declamation.....	"Old Benedict Arnold"
	Pauline Ewing, '12
Declamation.....	"The Swan Song"
	Blanche Kleber, '11
Music.....	"He Has No Show"
	Male Quartette
Decision of Judges
Music	"Winter"
	High School Orchestra

The Judges of the contest were: Supt. W. G. Wolff of Shadyside and Principal H. R. Smith of Martins Ferry. Since this was a contest of classes and not of individuals, the exact number of points in favor of each was not made public; but the average of the Seniors was about 87%, while that of the Juniors was about 93%.

This was the one event required to complete the entire victory of the Juniors over the Seniors, since they had previously established it in athletics and various other lines.

"What rot is this," I hear you growl,
"That mars our books' chaste pages?
A ballet show!
Who sunk so low?
'Tis the worst we've heard for ages!"

But read again and study well,
'Tis a group you all should know,
For all through town
They've gained renown
As "Seaby's Ballet Show."

For Seaby's bank account ran low,
And with his genius rare
He set his cap
To catch each chap
At the Belmont County Fair.

"I'll start a show," he mused aloud,
"But what freaks can I get
To rope them in
And get their tin?
Great Guns, that Gym Quartet!"

So then he drilled the famous four
And fixed each man in place.
He then essayed
To draw his trade
And thus shot off his face:

"Come one! Come all! Both maids and men!
Here are freaks of wide renown!
It costs a dime,
Well worth your time!
The greatest show in town!

How noble, stern and statuesque!
Observe them as they stand
In calm repose
And lack of clothes.
Say, don't they beat the band?

Note on the left this hero grand,
His muscles firm as tar,
He's ust five karet—
His name is Barrett,
Though often dubbed plain Barr.

A quarterback! In basketball
He's always been a winner.
Does it bite? you say;
No, Miss. I pray
Be calm—he's just had dinner.

Step up and look him over please,
And feel that biceps muscle!
Just see how quick
He does each trick.
Great Heavens, Barrett, hustle!

No athletes are the next two men,
Their names not know so wide,
And not so wise
As these two guys
That stand on either side.

But each one thinks he's all the eggs,
Which makes him none the safer;
This cunning pair,
One with red hair,
Is Heatherington and Schafer.

Just note their shapely arms and legs,
Their haughty purse-proud air!
The hits they make,
The hearts they break,
Can all be blamed on "hair."

And now you'd better shade your eyes,
My next star is so bright
That should he start
To act his part
You'd stay here all the night.

As center, tackle, "gym" team shark,
McCroba is quite the thing,
And then you see
They say that he Plays ping-pong every spring."

And all the while poor Seaby sang
This "Kluge" McCroba's praises,
The music played
But the crowd has strayed
And left him mad as blazes.

And so they sadly packed their goods
And looked not on a soul;
With humbled air
They left the Fair
And walked back home to "poll."

O. SLUSH AND I. D. CLAIR.

Alumni Notes

The Alumni Association of Bellaire High School was organized in 1905. It holds regular meetings annually, near the time of Commencement, at which the Alumni, with the graduating class, are always present. The new officers are elected at these meetings and a banquet is served after the business is finished. Each year adds more members to the association, until Bellaire has an Alumni to be proud of, for many have attained high positions in the world and encourage those who are still in school to do the same.

The present officers of the Association are: President, Gordon Battelle; First Vice-President, Gene Carnes; Second Vice-President, Alice (Fittin) Wilson; Secretary, Minnie Lowman; Treasurer, Charles Reed.

The graduates are scattered in many countries and States. There are now about four hundred members.

The first class had only four members, two of whom have died, Ella (Blankencop) Morrison, the only girl in the class; Lyle Thoburn, who died in India as a missionary; Ben Paris, who is now in Cincinnati; William C. Stewart, who is in Moundsville, W. Va.

Among our present teachers who have graduated from B. H. S. are: Martha Kirkpatrick, '81; Minnie Lowman, '86; Minnie Workman, '87; Nellie Houston, '88; Elsa Lazure, '99; Rose Bonarius, '91; Myrtle Clements, '91; Maggie Kern, '91; Retta Plaffenbach, '91; Bertha Brainard, '91; Emma Reed, '90; Maude Corbet, '94; Anna Carroll, '04; Mazie Walker, '04; Gene Carnes, '05; Alma Robertson, '05; Carrie Meyers, '06; Nora Robertson, '06; Gordon Battelle, '07; Blanche Lee, '08; Anita Mason, '08; Mary Norton, '08; Pearl Heil, '09; Fay Crow, '09; Hazel Burrows, '08; Mary Ernst, '08; Margaret Walker, '08.

Among those who graduated in 1910 there are a number of girls taking the normal course in preparation to teach: Margaret White, Vera Long, Helen Nicholson, Muriel Lee, Lorena Richards, Nora Landkrohn, and Elsie Lowell.

Among those who are in different States are: Mary (Powell) Weisenberger, '80, St. Paul, Minn.; Mary Saunders, '93, Pittsburg, Pa.; Katie Schilling, '93, Toledo, Ohio; Ida Warden, '96, Dresden, Ohio; Edna (Young) Powell, '06, Youngstown.

Charles Clements, '99, is in Cleveland; Orlando Irwin, '99, is also in Cleveland.

Two graduates are now engaged in Y. W. C. A. work: Mabel Cratty, '84, in New York, and Inez Kinney, '99, in Paris.

Willa (Wise) Kelso, '84, is the wife of the President of the Western Theological School in Pittsburg.

Anna (Wallace) Cummins, '82; Elizabeth Hoge, '84; Sue (White) McArthur, '97, are all foreign missionaries.

Fred Mercer, '95, is in a bank in Chicago.

Andrew Anderson, '80, is now a professor at Macalister College, St. Paul, Minn.

Rose (Phillips) Jones, '84, the wife of a former superintendent of the Bellaire schools, lives in Cleveland.

John Cratty, '90, is in Philadelphia, Pa.

Howard McGregor, '90, is a professor of Biology in Columbia University.

Fred Leydecker, '93, and Jessie Wise were recently married and are living in Panama, where Mr. Leydecker has a government position.

Will Hoffman, '93, is with a large glass company in Pittsburg.

The class of 1901 only had five members. It was the last class to graduate under the three-year course.

Edgar Kinney, '04, graduated from Ohio State University last year, and is a lawyer in Columbus, Ohio.

William Thomas, '04, is a chemist in one of the Homestead mines in Pittsburg. He also graduated at O. S. U. in 1910.

William Anderson, '05, is a graduate of West Point.

Edward Anderson, '06, after attending O. S. U., is now in Cuba.

Gordon Battelle, '06, is one of the faculty of B. H. S., after graduating at Delaware in 1910. Henry Cowen also graduated at Delaware last year. Monta Talme is Mrs. W. Althar of Bellaire.

Kenneth Cooper, after graduating at Wooster, teaches in Bridgeport High School.

Florence Rodewig, graduates at Wooster this year. Helen Kinney, '07, is Mrs. Charles Alexander, living in Chicago, Ill.

Harry Morris, '08, was the first one of that class to be married. Harry Seabright is at the University of Virginia. Ella May Holliday is at Oxford.

In the Class of 1909 William Shepherd is at O. M. U.; Marian and Lillian Helliwell are at Oxford, and Harold Lamb is at Wooster.

Lane Lancaster, '10, is a chemist in Benwood; Walter Russell of the same class goes to Delaware. Florence Seabright is a student at Oxford.

This year will add another fine, large class to that association, of which we are already proud.

On Thursday evening, December 8, 1910, the Class of 1884 held a reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McGregor on Harrison street.

The members of the class present were: Miss Bessie Hoge, missionary to India, and honor guest of the occasion; Mrs. L. G. Battelle, Miss Lina Thomas, Miss Mary Kelly and Mr. McGregor, who was the only boy in the class of thirteen.

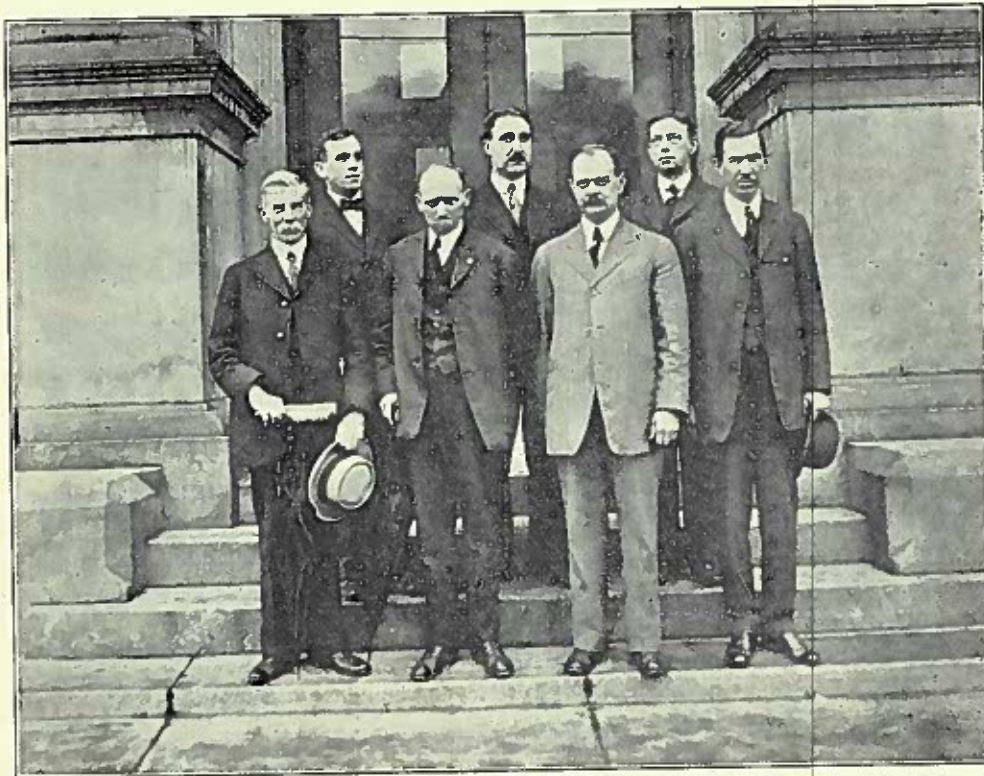

Immediately following the six o'clock dinner, cordial and interesting letters were read from former Superintendent of Schools B. T. Jones, of Cleveland, Ohio, and his wife, formerly Miss Rose Phillips, a member of the class; Mrs. Ella Grove Baldrige, of Joplin, Mo., and Mrs. Wilhelmina Wise Kelso, of Pittsburg, Pa., all regretting their being unable to be present.

After dinner much enjoyment and at times some chagrin was experienced in reviewing the old class-book containing records, memoirs, graduation essays and photographs of the members of the class.

Music and other pastimes were the order of the evening. It was resolved that copies of the letters sent by Superintendent Jones and by the various classmates be prepared and sent to each member of the class; also that the following morning the members present at the reunion have a group photograph taken, and that one be sent to each member of the class, both of which resolutions were duly carried out.

Of the class of thirteen, three are dead, viz.: Miss Laura Robinson, Mrs. Lizzie Piper Thompson and Miss Anna Blaney.

At a late hour the class reluctantly parted company after a most enjoyable reunion, and with many wishes for a happy return of the occasion.

The Bellaire Board of Education

The Bellaire High School students would show a spirit of ingratitude if they did not make recognition of the efforts of the city Board of Education. The Board as now composed is as follows: H. P. Rodewig, President; C. M. Wyrick, Vice-President; Dr. J. M. McDonald, Dr. A. C. Beetham, C. M. Rodefer, and C. N. McKelvey. It will be seen at a glance that the Board is made up of gentlemen of more than average education and ability.

While the Board has been very careful to protect and encourage the best interests of the High School, it has not neglected the welfare of the elementary schools. The past few years has seen some very advance steps taken in the Bellaire schools. A fine new building on Rose Hill is in use this year for the first time. The capacity of the Forest Hill building has been enlarged. The enrollment of the city schools has reached the twenty-three hundred mark. The High School enrollment has doubled, and new courses have been added. The enrollment in the H. S. has reached the high mark of two hundred and forty, of which more than forty are foreign tuition pupils. Over one thousand dollars in tuition will be received from foreign pupils this year. Bellaire can boast of the largest High School in Belmont county, and the growth is bound to continue under the encouragement received from the Board and teachers.

While the Board does not place athletics above scholarship, yet it believes in High School athletics under proper control, and has always encouraged the athletics by providing some member of the faculty who is capable of directing the athletic spirit along proper lines.

Before the Beljuan is offered for distribution to the public an election will take place, in which it will be decided by the voters whether Bellaire is to have two more fine new school buildings. The Board favors this, and it is the hope of the High School that their wishes will be carried out by the voters.

With the interest manifested by the Board of Education and the citizens in general, the Bellaire schools have been among the most progressive in the State. While Bellaire is an industrial city, its citizens are alert to the best interests of the schools, and are always willing to support reasonable movements for the advancement of the schools. The regularity of attendance of pupils, the spirit of punctuality shown by them, and the low percentage of pupils who fail to be promoted from year to year are all evidences of the community interest in the schools.

The interest has been greatly stimulated under the administration of the Board of Education, who have the confidence of the community and of the teachers, and who are always alert to provide the children with the best instructors, the best buildings, and the best equipment to be secured.

The schools of Bellaire are in safe hands when under the administration of such men as make up the present Board of Education, and it is the hope of the editors of the Beljuan and of all those who have a direct interest in our city schools, that Bellaire may always select men of the high personal and moral standing of those who now compose the Board.

The loss of Mr. Faris from the Board early in the year, due to his removal from the city, was deeply regretted, but the Board exercised rare judgment in selecting Mr. McKelvey to fill the vacancy. Mr. McKelvey, always a public spirit citizen, has heartily entered into the plans of the Board, and is proving to be an ideal member of that body.

IMPROVEMENTS IN HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING

The external appearance of our High School building is very much the same as it has been since its erection in 1904, with the exception of the addition of a fire escape just recently completed; but the interior of the building has undergone a very great transformation.

The assembly room has been very much enlarged by the removal of the partition which formerly separated it from the grils' cloak room.

Across the hall two new and larger cloak rooms have been made, while the room formerly used as the boys' cloak room has been fitted up for the Principal's office.

This was the first year than any space on the first floor of the building was required for High School use. A complete and up-to-date department been installed on this floor, and the "click" of the typewriters heard as one enters the hall gives the impression of practical business training. Two other rooms on the first floor have also been used during the year as High School recitation rooms, and it seems to be only a matter of a very short time when the entire building will be used entirely for High School purposes.

Practically the entire interior was refrescoed during the summer vacation, some new statuary has been added, and altogether we are proud of our building. It seems to lack but one thing—an auditorium capable of seating about a thousand people, and when we become voters in Bellaire we will see that this need is supplied.

Get a Transfer

If you are on the Gloomy Line,
Get a transfer.

If you're inclined to fret and pine,
Get a transfer.

Get off the track of Doubt and Gloom,
Get on the Sunshine Track,—there's room,
Get a transfer.

* * *

If you are on the Worry Train,
Get a transfer.

You must not stay there and complain,
Get a transfer.

The Cheerful Cars are passing through,
And there is lots of room for you,
Get a transfer.

* * *

If you are on the Grouchy Track,
Get a transfer.

Just take a Happy Special back,
Get a transfer.

Jump on the train and pull the rope,
That lands you at the station, Hope,
Get a transfer.

—Selected.

Teachers of Bellaire Public Schools

1910-1911

HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING

1. John A. Jackson.....Principal of High School and Central
2. Alice Cunningham.....Assistant Principal of High School
3. C. S. McVey.....Teacher in High School
4. C. E. Caldwell.....Teacher in High School
5. I. R. Stout.....Teacher in High School
6. Gordon Battelle.....Teacher in High School
7. Bertha Helling.....Teacher in High School
8. Margaret Kern.....Eighth Grade
9. Blanche Phillips.....Eighth Grade
10. Kate Rodefer.....Seventh Grade

CENTRAL BUILDING

1. Maude Corbett.....Assistant Principal and Seventh Grade
2. Mrs. Estella Long.....Sixth Grade
3. Mazie Walker.....Sixth Grade
4. Laura Wise.....Fifth Grade
5. Carrie Brown.....Fourth Grade
6. Nellie Meyers.....Third Grade
7. Florence Barrell.....Second Grade
8. Minnie Workman.....First Grade

GRAVEL HILL BUILDING

1. Bertha Brast.....Fifth Grade
2. Margaret Walker.....Fourth Grade
3. Iva Ross.....Third Grade
4. Emma Reed.....Second Grade
5. Lulu Miller.....First and Second Grades
6. Myrtle Clements.....Principal and First Grade

INDIAN RUN BUILDING

1. Elsa Lazure.....Fourth Grade and Principal
2. Edith Nulton.....Third Grade
3. Helen Chase.....Second Grade
4. Rose Bonarius.....First Grade

ROSE HILL BUILDING

1. Nellie Houston.....Seventh Grade
2. Alma Pickett.....Sixth Grade
3. Gene Carnes.....Sixth Grade
4. Anna Carroll.....Fifth Grade
5. Mary Norton.....Fourth Grade
6. Blanche Lee.....Third Grade
7. Anita Mason.....Second Grade
8. Campsa Snedeker.....First and Second Grades
9. Martha Kirkpatrick.....Principal and First Grade

UNION STREET BUILDING

1. H. E. Hathorn.....Principal and Sixth Grade
2. Alice Green.....Fifth Grade
3. Isadore Witten.....Fifth Grade
4. Dora Elliott.....Fourth Grade
5. Bertha Brainard.....Third Grade
6. Fay Crow.....Second Grade
7. Carrie Meyer.....First and Second Grades
8. Coretta Pfaffenbach.....First Grade

FIRST WARD BUILDING

1. Minnie Lowman.....Principal and Fourth Grade
2. Pearl Heil.....Third Grade
3. Hazel Burrows.....Second Grade
4. Della Diver.....First Grade

FOREST HILL BUILDING

1. John Anderson.....Principal and Second, Third and Fourth Grades
2. Alma Robertson.....First and Second Grades

PINCH RUN BUILDING

1. L. B. Hayward.....Principal and Third and Fourth Grades
2. Nora Robertson.....First and Second Grades

SPECIAL TEACHERS

- E. E. Halstead.....Music
 Nellie Crabb.....Drawing

WILSON HAWKINS, Superintendent of Schools.

The Sophomore

"Tough luck, old chap," "You're up against it, Soph," "Cheer up, Kid"—such were the exclamations that greeted the ears of Bob Wilson, as he left the main building of one of the large Eastern colleges.

Ever since he had entered college as a Sophomore, Robert Wilson, Jr., was the most popular boy at school. The football coach, who "knew a good thing," kept a steady, eager watch on "that Sophomore," and hence he got his name "The Sophomore" or "Soph."

He had not what the girls deemed a handsome face, but everyone of them openly admitted that they "did feel proud to walk to or from school with Mr. Wilson." He had big, expressive gray eyes and a countenance that was honesty itself. He was witty, jolly, belonged to the leading frat., and was, as one admiring Freshman said, "The Real Man of the Hour."

It was the day before final exams. Here and there, scattered about the campus, were groups of boys talking in wild, excited tones. The exam questions, which had been made out a few days previous, had mysteriously disappeared, though not really disappeared, for they were found in Bob Wilson's room. Every circumstance pointed to Bob as being guilty of the deed, and everything looked dark for him. He had received notice to come to the President's office at noon, and now the boys, too excited to eat, were waiting for him.

"Wilson," said the President sternly, though not unkindly, as Bob entered his office, "I hardly think it necessary to tell you why you have been summoned here, and I dislike it as much as you. But you see, Wilson, how things stand—the papers were found in your room and the watchman is sure no one left the building after the light bell was rung. Have you anything to say now before the final step is taken?"

"Doctor Hallet," and Bob threw back his head proudly as he spoke, "I have nothing to say, except that I am perfectly innocent of this whole affair, and that I hope you will carefully consider before anything definite is done."

You know, sir, it would break mother's heart, and—and—Babette—oh, sir, I tell you I'm innocent, that's all."

"I can't tell you, my boy, how sorry I am to lose you, for your personal worth as much as for your athletic ability, but—well, it's the rule of the school and there's nothing else to be done. Guess you'd better prepare to leave in the morning."

"The Soph" said no more, but left the room. On the outside the boys were waiting, and they could see by Bob's face what had happened.

"I've got to leave, fellows," he said, "but this thing isn't going to be dropped. It's a mean, contemptible trick for a fellow to play and I can't understand his motive." Here Bob glanced over the crowd, and felt that every boy present was in sympathy with him.

A deep gloom had overshadowed the entire school. Through the half open door of his room Bob could hear, in muffled tones, the discussion in the adjoining room, of the "terrible occurrence," of which he, Bob, was the leading factor.

In his room "The Sophomore" sat at his desk. With one hand he held a picture, and with the other he was trying to write.

After several unsuccessful attempts he finally wrote:

"My dear Bab:—

"You always were the most sensible girl in the world and I know you'll understand and believe in me. There's been some terrible mistake up here at school. That's all I can tell you now. I leave for home in the morning. You do trust me, don't you? But I want to hear it from your own lips. And you'll tell the 'mater' gently, won't you? I'm going to find the guilty party though, and when I do—well, I'm praying for strength to control myself. Goodbye, then, girl, till I see you.

"Always yours,

"BOB."

This done, "The Sophomore" went to join the crowd in the next room. "Boys," he said, "you'd better go to bed. Remember, exams tomorrow and you need the rest,—you're excited,—and besides, the noise disturbs me, and I want to be alone. I want to think. I'll say goodbye to you now and I want to hear from each one of you, that you believe I'm innocent of this thing."

As they shook Bob's hand and declared that "they'd stick up for him," a lump arose in his throat. "Goodbye, good comrades, I'll miss you lots."

Bob went back to his room, and sat down to think. What would his mother say? Would she be very disappointed in him? And Bab? Would she sympathize with him and comfort him? Could he dare ask her to wear his frat pin, as he had planned to do?

As these questions and a hundred others surged through his mind, there was suddenly a soft rap at the door, but Bob was too deep in thought to hear. Then it was slowly opened and a dark head appeared in the doorway.

"Soph," said a low, quivering voice.

Bob jumped up. "Who's there?"

"It's I, Bob, and I've something to tell you."

"Oh, it's you, is it? Well, Cal, what do you want?"

"Bob," came the quivering voice again, "I heard what you said this morning, and—and—I want to tell you, Soph, you've found the fellow who

Advertising Spiel

You have all heard the story of the two men who had offices opposite each other. One advertised, the other did not. One day the fellow that did not advertise went out and hung a sign on his door: "Will be back in half an hour." When he came back he found written under it: "What for?" Then again the Charleston News and Courier says: "Not all the lunatics are behind the bars." To which the New York Herald replied: "Quite so, there are yet a few men at large who try to do business without advertising."

An ad. is a silent salesman for the man who wrote the ad. Therefore our subscribers will greatly help us by patronizing the advertisers in this issue.

It is here we wish to show our appreciation of the support and co-operation of our advertisers. We thank them one and all and wish them success in their various undertakings and hope we have aided them in obtaining that success.

THE BOARD.

Advertising List

Althar, G. W.
Bellaire Livery, The Bleifus Bros.
Blum Bros.
Buckeye Bank, The Cleveland-Pulte Medical School
Dankworth Bros.
Daub, Lena
Dickens, Charles Dollar Bank, The Dorer, William
Eclipse Pool Room
Fitton, James R.
Franklin College, The Freedman Bros.
Freter Bros.
Fry Grocery Co.
George, S.
Gow, John
Greenlee, J. R.
Grubb, H. D.
Herzberg Bros.
Herzburg, Harry
Holloway, N. D.
Hoffman, M.
Kern, A.
King, Byron
Levy, Morton
Lipo Roma, The List, M.

Locke Shoe Co.
Manchester Grocery Co.
Moyer, Al.
Mellot Co., The
Moore Bros.
Muskingum College
McKelvey Drug Co., The McLellan, A.
National Bank, The Nicholson & Ball
Olympic, The
Phillips, J. B.
Radium Shoe Shine
Rodewig Co., H. P.
Schramm, M. A.
Shoe Hospital, The Sellers' Music Store
Standard Shoe Store
Starkweather, C. S.
Starling-Ohio Medical College
Stewart & Ward Co., The
The Strong Manufacturing Co.
Sulsberger, E. E.
Taylor Harness Co.
Union Store, The Washington & Jefferson College
Wilkinson Co., H. B.
Willerton, M.
Workman, E. E.
Wooster Summer School

TOM

LEN

MOORE BROS.

POOL BILLIARDS CIGARS

LARGEST POOL AND BILLIARD PARLORS IN THE CITY

BASEBALL SCORES RECEIVED BY INNINGS
National, American and Central Leagues

Latest Returns from all Sporting Events of the Day

PIPES, CIGARETTES, CANDY, FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC CIGARS

We give first class service in every respect—Call in and see us

3176 UNION STREET

Bellaire's Leather Shop

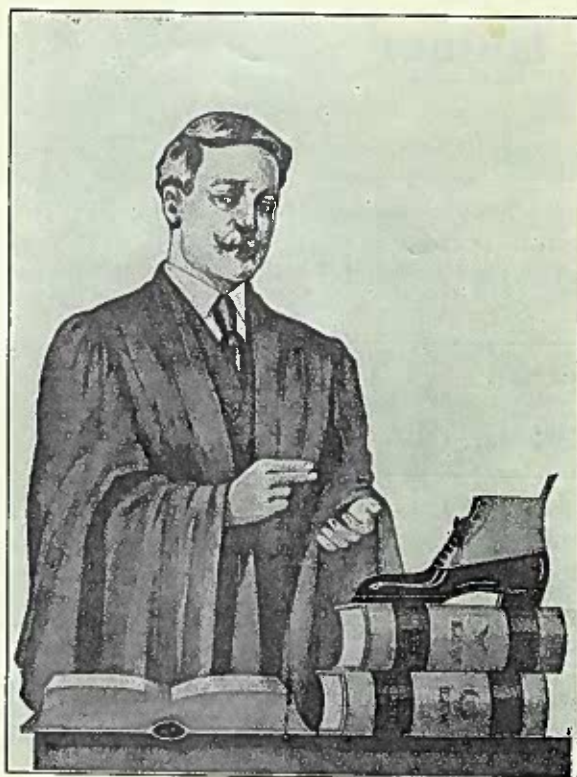

Trunks, Bags, Sporting Goods, Etc.

BOTH PHONES

Taylor Harness & Leather Co.

BELMONT STREET

BELLAIRE, - OHIO

"Blackstone"

The Correct Shoe

FOR YOUNG MEN

$3.50, $4.00 and $4.50

If we knew of any better Shoes we would not sell the Blackstone.

Locke Shoe Co.

The Home of "Betsy Ross" and "Blackstone" Shoes

3117 Union St., Bellaire

DIAMONDS
Watches and Jewelry
FOR Graduating
Presents

Prices Right or Your Money Back

T. B. PHILLIPS

JEWELER

OPTICIAN

For the Best Line of

Dry Goods, Notions
Clothing and other MERCHANDISE

SEE

S. George

Cor. 35th and Guernsey Sts.

Humor

Jeff—I know a man who says he can't sit down or stand up.

Jess—Then if he tells the truth, he lies.

Mr. Battelle (at Follen's Eat Shop)—Well, I'll swear, waiter, this is the first time I ever had a tender steak here.

Waiter (aghast)—Good Heavens! I'll bet I gave you the proprietor's steak.

May told a joke to Flo one day.

"Oh, my, that's old," said Flo.

"Oh, is it really, dear?" said May. "Of course YOU ought to know."

Mr. McVey—Frank, the next question.

Frank—Gump—um—uhum——"

Mr. McVey—Did you choke on that one, Frank?

Wise Sayings by Wonderful People

Mr. Battelle—Oh Shucks!

Seaby—I guess that's bad.

Barr—For Goodness' Sake.

Tubby—Son of a bean. —

Cecil—I don't give a whoop.

Mack—Ye Gods and little fishes.

Jeff—Is that right?

Red—Get away from that horse's head!

May—What's this hicky?

Mr. McVey—Don't you see that? Why don't you?

Mae—It was like this——

Muggsy—Let's go to Wheeling.

Alta—Aman!

Jess—Nix on that heavy stuff.

Jake—I'll tell you how it was——

Don W.—I'm on, Kid.

Andy—Lord deliver me from the skirts.

Nick S.—Now watch out what you tell us.

Burton—Hullo, Cud.

Cocky—Tie that out side.

Jessie—Oh, I don't know.

The Washington and Jefferson College

WASHINGTON,
PENNA.

FACTS ABOUT W. & J.

Oldest College west of the Alleghenies.

First building erected on Campus, 1793.

Charter granted in 1802.

Origin of College Library due to gift of fifty pounds from Benjamin Franklin.

Washington and Jefferson College united by Act of Legislature, March 4th, 1865.

THERE HAVE BEEN GRADUATED FROM W. & J.:

4 Cabinet Ministers of the United States.

11 United States Senators.

10 Governors or States.

82 United States Congressmen.

230 State Legislators.

81 Presidents of Colleges and Universities.

33 Moderators of General Assemblies.

20 Judges of State Supreme Courts.

120 Judges of County Courts.

1714 Ministers.

1107 Lawyers.

560 Doctors.

Also many Engineers, Teachers, Chemists and Business Men.

6 out of the 15 Judges at the Pittsburg bar are W. & J. men.

In all there have graduated from W. & J., 4615 men.

JUNE 19

AUGUST 11

Elevator to Success Not Running Stairway Route Still Popular Via

WOOSTER UNIVERSITY SUMMER SCHOOL

THIS SCHOOL offers hard work, pleasant surroundings, wide range of studies, superlative instruction, and expenses within the range of all. It aims to secure the best, no matter at what cost. It works for the interests of its patrons first, last and all the time. $3,000 worth of positions secured every week in the year. Its more than $1,000 lecture course is rich. Every day is bargain day. Those who invest time and money are satisfied. Bulletin for the asking.

J. H. DICKASON, Principal
Wooster, Ohio

SEE

WORKMAN

C. S. Starkweather

DENTIST

Buckeye Building

BELLAIRE, - - OHIO

King's School of Oratory

204 SIXTH STREET, PITTSBURG, PA.

To Pupils, Patrons and Friends

TAKE NOTICE:—May 1st, 1911, we move to our new home, our own building, Virginia Avenue and Zara Street, Knoxville, Pittsburgh, Pa. For some thirty years we have been seeking a permanent place of abode for our School and now we have found it: Knoxville Heights. It will be our own School and beautiful, commodious and adapted to our needs. It will be convenient, easy of access and above the smoke and river fog.

We offer the best advantages in all departments of a Conservatory of Speech, Arts, Voice and Physical Culture. Language, Literature, etc. The cure of Speech Defects is made a specialty.

New Books.—Practice of Speech and Successful Selections, $1.50.
Spring and Summer Sessions.

BYRON W. KING, President

Why We Advertise

Good advertising simply means telling the truth about the goods handled. Simple, truthful, sincere—that is the keynote of our publicity at all times. We have but one object in our advertising and that is to induce you to give our goods and our prescriptions service a trial. We rely upon quality, fair prices and fair treatment to hold you as a regular customer. We want your business. Give us a trial.

GOOD DRUGS, GOOD SODA

DANWORTHS
DRUGGISTS

3242 Belmont Street

Real Estate and General Insurance

Fire, Life, Health, Plate Glass and Steam Boiler Employes' Liability, Store, Residence, Burglar, Tornado, Lightning, Etc.

National Phone 174-J

WILKINSON REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE CO.
3174 Belmont St.
BELLAIRE, OHIO

G. W. ALTHAR CO.

CLOTHING AND TOGGERY SHOP

We Want Your Trade

Antique Songs and Music by New Authors

"Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly?".....	Pickett
"Cheer Up, Oh Cheer Up".....	Cocky S.
"The Ideal of My Dreams".....	Mollie
"Maybe You Will and Maybe You Won't".....	Marie S.
"Barber Shop Chord".....	Bobby C.
"I Wish I Had a Beau".....	Alta
"Hug Up a Little Closer".....	Billiken
"Nix On That Glow Worm, Lena!".....	Barr
"I'm Afraid to Go Home in the Dark".....	Cecil
"Vanity".....	Irene H.
"Powder (Rag)".....	Hazel Craig
"Some of These Days".....	Seaby
"Oh, Gee! Be Sweet to Me, Kid".....	Blanche R.
"Billiken, Billiken, My Billiken Man".....	Fannie W.
"We're Members of the Midnight Crew".....	{ Cocky Ward Muggsy
"I'm Glad I'm Married".....	{ Red Billiken Mack Seaby Pickett Jeff
"No Wedding Bells for Me".....	{ Tom Max Cecil Tubby Andy Jess

How does it come that nearly all the football players who went to Steubenville came home with black ayes, big noses and loose teeth? We heard, some place, that the Bellaire High School football team of 1910 had a bad reputation as fighters—that is, in some localities.

Tell me, little girlie, do.—Nicky.

HERZBURG BROS.

The Only and Leading

Men's and Boy's

Head-to-Foot

OUTFITTERS

in the City

ONE PRICE TO ALL

All Clothes Pressed Free

Union Street

Bellaire, Ohio

General Insurance

FIRE, LIFE, ACCIDENT
and HEALTH

JOHN R. GOW

3184 Union St.

BELLAIRE, OHIO

Phones: Nat'l 149-R Bell 153-L

THE RADIUM Shoe Shining Parlors

THE ONLY UP-TO-DATE
SHOE SHINE IN TOWN

Highest Grade of Silk Laces and Polishes

Thirty-Second St.

Harry F. Engas, Prop.

Hat Cleaning Our Specialty

INSURE WITH THE Cowen & Co.
Agency

BELLAIRE, OHIO

WINDSOR HOTEL

"Always the Leader"

CENTRAL AVE. and UNION STREET

Opp. Penn. R. R. Station

Twenty Years
OF SUCCESSFUL BANKING

Your Account is Desired by this Bank

Capital and Surplus
$110,000.00

DOLLAR SAVINGS BANK

BELLAIRE, OHIO

Insurance

IN ALL ITS BRANCHES

"Better Be insured Than Sorry"

Charles Dickens

DOLLAR BANK BUILDING

Furniture

WALL PAPER, ALUMINUM
WARE, ROOFING

If you appreciate any of the items mention in this ad. (and many others we have not mentioned) that look different without being too expensive, you certainly want to see us as bad as we want to see you.

Plenty of stores can show you the ordinary stuff, but that's why we have spared no efforts to brighten our line with exclusive styles. Let us show you.

ANDREW KERN

3254 Belmont St. BELLAIRE

W. H. FRY

DEALER IN

High Grade Groceries

AND

PROVISIONS

TERMS ON FEED, CASH

BOTH PHONES

18th & Belmont Streets

BELLAIRE

OHIO

The Lifo-Rama

THIRTY-SECOND ST.

THE HOUSE OF
GOOD
CLEAR
STEADY
PICTURES

And the Best Sanitary Showhouse
in the City

Don't Forget the Hospitality that is Also Shown Here.

JOS. W. HEATHERINGTON

Proprietor and Manager

Franklin College

NEW ATHENS, OHIO

Fourteen miles from Bridgeport, then back six miles to New Athens. A thoroughly clean, healthful, moral village. Good chemical laboratory, library, literary society halls, rest rooms, class rooms, an elegant gymnasium, baths, baseball field. All the regular studies of a classical college. Students room with private families. Board and room $2.60 per week. Tuition $40.00 per year. Each student recites daily in all his classes. Both young men and young women students. The Faculty is composed of Pres. Campbell, Profs. Stewart and Amon, Drs. Nixon and Pettay, Misses Elder, Garvin, McFarland and Thomas.

Franklin is in its 94th Year.

E. E. Sulesberger

D. D. S.

Cor. Thirty-second and Belmont Sts.

BELLAIRE, OHIO

Bell Phone 188-J

National Phone 393-J

N. D. Halloway,

Gen. Insurance,
Real Estate,
Securitiets, Investments.

Herzberg Building

You will know exactly what distinctive style and individual fit really mean, when your eyes behold

The System Clothes

HIRSCH'S

THE HOME OF
GOOD
CLOTHES

3208 Belmont St.
BELLAIRE

Get In Line For Position and Power

MUSKINGUM COLLEGE

Has always stood for "honesty and thoroughness" according to President Thompson of Ohio State University, an honored alumnus of Muskingum College. After visiting all the Summer Schools of the State, a prominent educator said: "The most earnest work I saw done this Summer was at Muskingum College."

THE ROAD TO SUCCESS

In these days leads through college halls. Over 500 young men and women are this year attending Muskingum. Graduates of this college have always taken front rank as educators and professional men.

WE WANT YOU TO JOIN THE PROCESSION

For Catalogue and Information, Address

PRESIDENT J. KNOX MONTGOMERY

NEW CONCORD, OHIO

FRETER BROS.

High Class Photographers

LATEST STYLES

BEST FINISHES

ARTISTIC MOUNTINGS

The Best for the Least Money

KODAK SUPPLIES

Developing and Finishing for Amateurs Our Specialty

Studios 220 Thirty-Second Street

Nat'l Phone 351-R

BELLAIRE, OHIO

Fine Interior Decorating
House and Sign Painting

Also Dealer in

WALL PAPER, PAINTS AND GLASS

J. R. GREENLEE

3273 Belmont St.

BELLAIRE, OHIO

ATTENTION!

Prospective Medical Students !

The choosing of an Alma Mater is the most important step in obtaining a medical education. A careful investigation of the different schools should be made.

THE CLEVELAND-PULTE MEDICAL COLLEGE

Offers unequalled facilities for studying medicine. Splendid opportunities for obtaining actual, practical work while in college. The Hospital Service at the Cleveland City and Huron Road Hospitals afford excellent opportunities for the systematic study of cases. The Good Samaritan Dispensary, in connection with the college, brings an almost unlimited amount and variety of actual, practical work which is done by students under the supervision of the various professors.

For particulars and information address

J. A. LYTTLE, M. D., 612 Rose Building, Registrar.

GEORGE H. QUAY, M. D., 818 Rose Building, Dean

The Cleveland-Pulte Medical College

710 HURON ROAD

CLEVELAND, OHIO

SHOE HOSPITAL

Meet Us Face to Face With Your SHOES At

3357 BELMONT STREET

HAVE YOU HEARD THE WONDERFUL VICTROLA

If not, come in. You can hear the World's Best Artists, such as

Melba, Caruso, BATTELLE

and others at

SELLER'S MUSIC STORE

3289 Belmont St.

BELLAIRE, OHIO

A Broad Education Teaches,

Among other things, the value of the use of money.

Both of these are demonstrated by a savings account in

THE BUCKEYE SAVINGS & LOAN Co. OF BELLAIRE

Every young person who has some money saved in this way has not only the cash but the power to earn and acquires the habit of saving.

Five per cent interest makes an account of this kind profitable.

Resources, Over • • $1,900,000

Earned Surplus and Profits, $118,000

Under Supervision of the State of Ohio