Well Begun

IS HALF DONE IF WE KEEP ON THE JOB

School work is the start of life work.
The lessons of effort and energy learned in school are worth many times their cost.

The use of thought and the practice of thrift are taught to every pupil in the public schools of this city.

Thought and thrift with effort and energy are the winners of success.

Last but not least is thrift; the saving of the surplus power of to-day to meet the added task of to-morrow.

Thrift pulls many people out of tight places and pushes many more on the way to real success.

The home of real thrift is the place where savings do their best work like The Buckeye
Savings & Loan Company where every dollar loaned is secured by a first mortgage.

The small accounts of young people are welcome and safe.

This Beljuan is respectfully dedicated by the Class of Nineteen Hundred Twenty-two

Greetings

DEAR HEARTS:

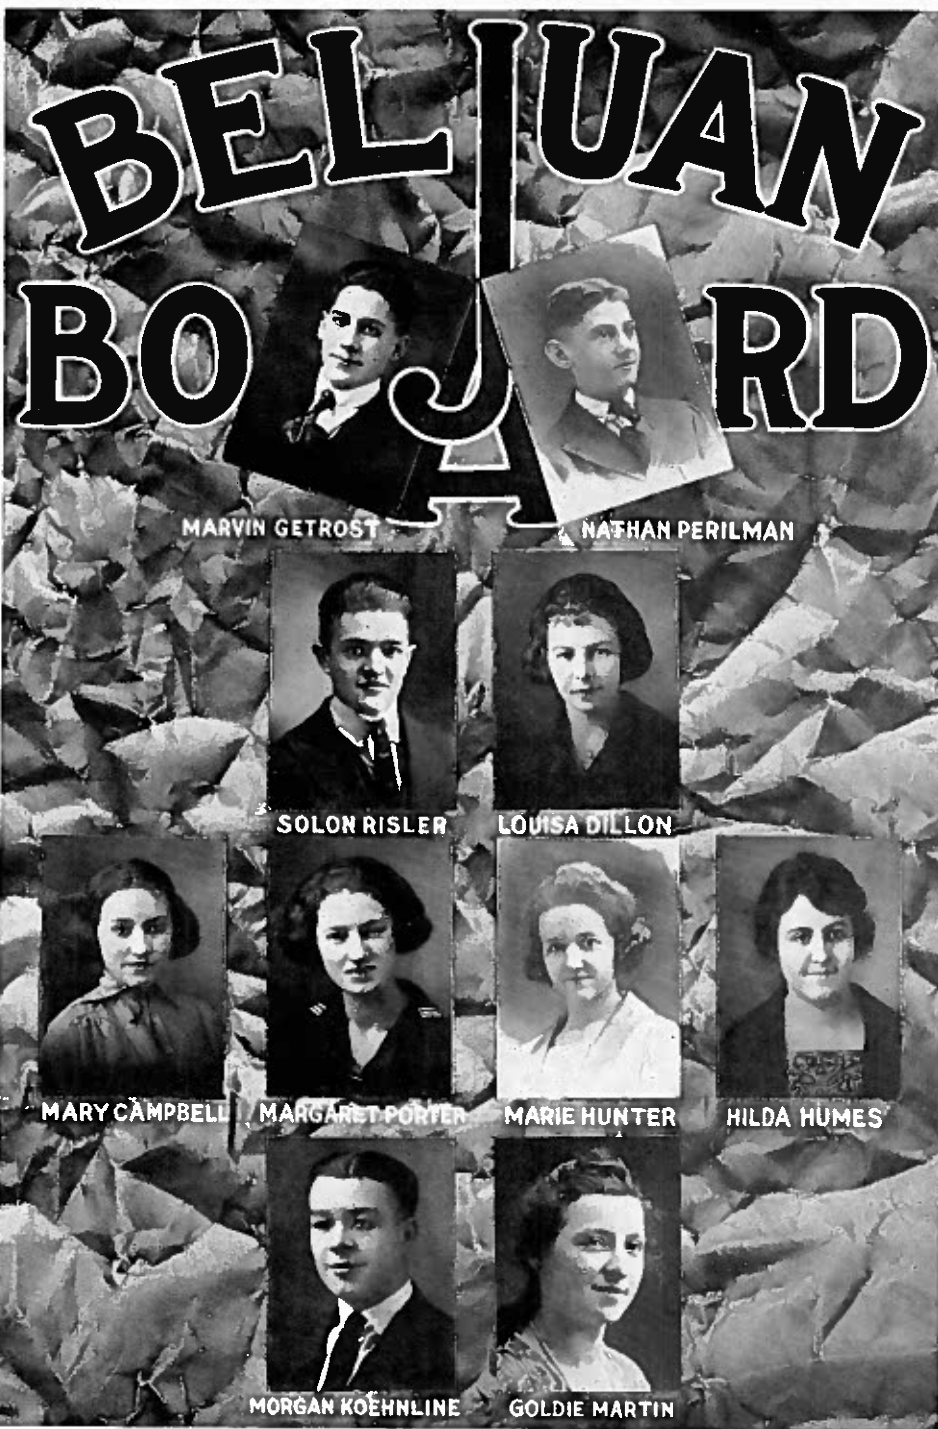

It was through the efforts of the Board and the hearty co-operation of others that this publication of the "BELJUAN" was made possible.

We have attempted to please all our readers and hope to meet with the approval of all who are in any way interested in the welfare of our public schools.

If we have in any degree accomplished this, we shall feel very happy.

It is fitting that we should here express our indebtedness to all those who have so faithfully helped us to make this annual "worth while," especially the business men of our city who have contributed so willingly.

THE EDITORS.

A Building Program for Bellaire

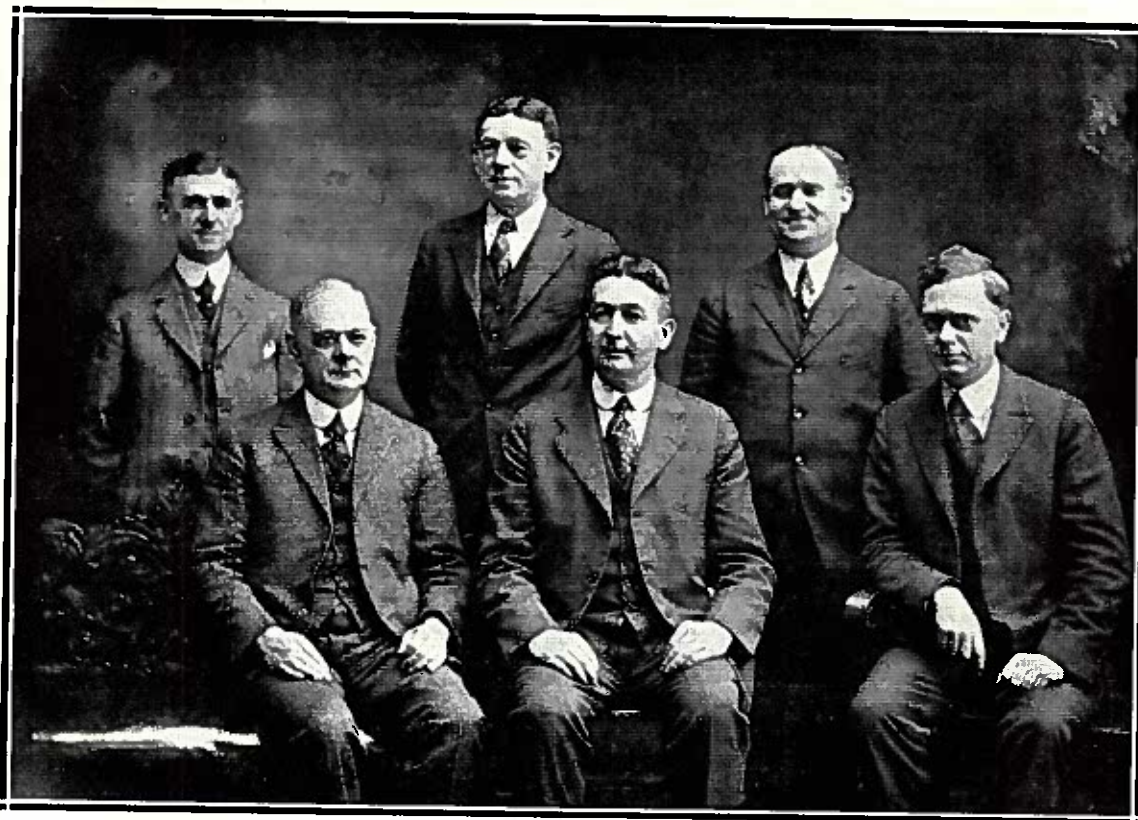

THE crowded condition existing in the High School has brought forth the question as to how this congestion might be relieved. A grade or two might be moved from Central, thus making available one or two rooms for High School purposes. But to what building could these grades be moved? Also, is the Central Building suitable for High School purposes?

A temporary relief could be secured if the Board had previously adopted the policy of building the grades in larger units. As it is the grade buildings are all filled to their capacity and the old Central Building is entirely inadequate for High School purposes. A grade building placed in the north end of the city will not help the congestion in First Ward and vice versa. An addition to Indian Run which is somewhat centrally located, might help relieve the congestion. A like addition to Rose Hill would also help. These two suggestions give us the key to what we believe to be the solution of the entire question. Why not place in the central part of the city, somewhat near the present High School, a large building suitable for both grade and High School work. In this building could be placed all the Seventh and Eighth grade classes of the city, in addition to the First year High School. As the Seventh and Eighth grades already have departmental work they would need very little change in course of study. These pupils already come to the High School for Manual Training and Domestic Science, so this work could be provided for in the new building.

The withdrawal of the Freshman class from the present High School Building would relieve the congestion there and place the seventh, eighth and ninth year pupils in the same building. This would cause the schools to be grouped on the six-three-three-plan, a mode of organization which is now used in many cities.

A building of the above type should be large enough to accommodate at least twice the present enrollment of the above grades.

There was before the General Assembly this winter a law raising the compulsory school attendance age. As the tendency seems to be for pupils to remain in school longer, provision must be made for them. Had the above law passed this winter, Bellaire could not possibly have accommodated the extra number of pupils which would have been kept in school. The above law would probably require a revision of the course of study. A building of the above type could be made to meet all the needs imposed upon it and at the same time solve Bellaire's Building Program for many years.

Class Colors

Red and White

MARY ALBRIGHT

"Mary Anne"

U. L. S.

"Kind, sweet, lovable—Yes, that is Mary."

Mary always has a smile for everyone, especially a certain dark-haired boy. She would make a good bookkeeper but we do not think she will take up that kind of work. Mary is always ready for a good time after she has her lessons.

PETER ARCHIBALD

"Pete"

D. L. S., Class Basketball

Pete is one of the numerous "strawberry blondes" of our class. He is a star French student (?) and his chief delight is to make a brilliant recitation for Miss Weinstock. In the evening one can usually see him strolling towards the vicinity of the stone bridge.

HEWETSON AULT

"Cap"

D. L. S.

"The strongest minds are often those whom the noisy world hears least."

One of the brightest members of our class, although he doesn't seem to realize it. Who could describe that odd little smile which accompanies Hewetson's most serious statement? He will probably further pursue his education for a time; then, judging from his industrious habits, we know that he will succeed in whatever line of work he chooses.

MARIE BARNETTE

D. L. S.

"Dance and be merry while ye may"

Marie is a member of the Commercial Department, but we do not think she will have much use for it as we often hear her mention "Bud". She can usually be found at Stillies, alone?

EMERSON BELL

"Em"

D. L. S. Boys' Glee Club
Football and Basketball

"The girls think I'm just as nice as I look, and between you and me, I am."

Emerson is one of the most popular boys in B. H. S. He is known for his intelligent remarks in French. Emerson expects to enter Journalism and we predict him a rival of Wm Jennings Bryan. Judging from his attention to a certain senior girl, we fear he will change his mind and enter the ministry.

ALFRED BEUTER
"Funny"

D. L. S. Basketball and Football

"Take it slow and easy"

Alfred furnishes much laughter in his classes as he rarely sees a joke until everyone is through laughing. Alfred expects to become an expert auto mechanic. He has shown his ability in B. H. S. and we are sure he will succeed in any undertaking.

MILDRED BRIGHT
U. L. S.

"So quiet, yet so sweet and gentle"

Mildred's quiet and unassuming ways have won her many friends. She is a good student and never arouses the wrath of any of our dear faculty. Unlike most of the girls of our class she has no use for men.

ALFRED BRUTCHEY
"Brutch"

D. L. S.

"To-morrow comes and we are where?
Then let us live to-day."

This is the fellow who is always on time? Always has his lessons? Stays in every night and studies? A member of the "Amen Boys" from Klee Town. Alfred's ambition is to get the C. P. A. degree. We wish him luck.

SARAH BYRNES
D. L. S. Glee Club

"Short but sweet
Who could help loving her?"

Sarah is one of the "fifty-seven varieties" of ministers' children that we have in our class. She is very popular with the opposite sex and is very much in demand at all times. However she seldom refuses to recite in class.

GEORGE CARNAHAN
"Shorty" "Red"

U. L. S. Football Interscholastic debate
Junior-Senior Contest '21

"Speed is my motto, Speed is my song,
Speed I think of all the day long."

Shorty is another one of our "strawberry blondes." His chief ambition is to get more Physics experiments in his manual than anyone else. He expects to be a mining engineer some-time in the future.

VERA CORBET

"Tootsie"

D. L. S.

Vera's favorite pastime is burning the midnight oil. Although she is one of our Commercial students, we do not think she will make a living at that kind of work for from what we hear Vera is right there when it comes to cooking. We wish her success in her chosen life.

ELIZABETH COLEMAN

U. L. S.

"If silence were golden, I'd be a millionaire."

Elizabeth is one of our out-of-town girls of whom we have seen too little. Though quiet and reserved we believe she has accomplished and received much from her High School course.

WILLIAM CUTSHAVER

"Bill", "Cutty."

U. L. S.

Football 18-19-20-21. Captain '21

"Nothing ever worries me, nothing ever hurries me."

Bill never looks natural unless he is arguing with his teachers or playing football. He is a master at either game. It is a constant query to Bill why those teachers have a liking for subjects that are so uninteresting to bright folks. We predict Bill will make an excellent preacher or movie censor.

DOROTHY COX

"Dot"

D. L. S. Glee Club Beljuan Board '20
Junior-Senior Contest '20

"Kiss rhymes with bliss, in fact as well as verse."

Dorothy is one of the best known girls in our class. We feel sure she could write a book on the subject of "Affairs of the Heart." She has had so much experience along that line. But nevertheless she has found time to take part in a great many school activities.

ZORAH CROW

"Red" "Sam"

U. L. S.

Glee Club '20

"A girl as sweet as one could meet."

A charming girl, whom we all delight in seeing around the school. She is always in for a good time and you may always find her with the bunch or at the show. She has a good word and a happy smile for everyone. Zorah surely will be missed by all.

EDITH COX

D. L. S.

"Good things come in small packages."

In Edith we have a quiet, studious well-liked maiden. She has a great amount of class spirit and takes deep interest in all High School activities. She wants to be a kindergarten teacher and we wish her great success.

ALFRED CROOK

"Beans"

D. L. S.

"Success crowns Labor."

Alfred is a fellow who is very quiet and gets so interested in his work that he does not know what is going on around him. He hails from West Wheeling but we know that his future will not confine him there.

MYRTLE CRONIN

D. L. S.

"Look in her eyes and you'll know what is expected of you."

This fair maiden possesses a pair of blue eyes and light hair. Myrtle works hard and whatever she undertakes to do she always succeeds. We do not know what her habits are for she never told us. We wish her success in whatever she undertakes.

EARL CUMMINGS

"Bailey"

D. L. S.

"Know more than others if you can,
But do not tell them so."

Earl is that tall, handsome commercial that is a little backward but is liked by everyone. He is the star of our Commercial department. He has ambitions to attain a greater speed on the typewriter than Mr. George Gaskell, the present amateur champion of the world.

GENEVA DARRAH

U. L. S.

"Good things should be praised."

This golden-haired maiden is very industrious. Nevertheless, she always finds time to enjoy herself. At times Geneva seems very dignified but we who know her well are not at all in awe of it. Talking to her classmates and laughing at something funny are Geneva's favorite amusements.

ARTHUR DEAN

"Tubby"

U. L. S.

"A laugh is worth a hundred groans in any market."

Every one knows this chubby commercial, who is never seen with a girl and blushes every time one looks at him. We do not know what Arthur's ambitions are but we feel sure that he will succeed in whatever he attempts.

ELSIE DAVIS

"Peggy"

U. L. S.

Elsie, another one of our country pupils, is well liked by all who know her. Her chief hobby is thinking up reasons to be absent from school without taking exams. We understand that she intends to take up teaching and we all join in wishing her success in her chosen work.

ALVA DUNFEE

"Ab"

U. L. S.

"Be slow in choosing a friend,
Slower in changing."

This is a fellow who is always on time, always has his lessons, takes everything serious and is liked by everyone. We do not know what Alva expects to do when he is out of school, but we wish him success in whatever he undertakes.

GERTRUDE DIXON

"Rusty"

D. L. S.

"She is as sweet as she can be."

Rusty is one of the most popular girls in our class. She is liked by all her classmates. Although she expects to take up commercial work, we do not expect it to be permanent. She has no special favorite as yet—but she likes them all.

CYRIL DUNFEE

"Pete"

U. L. S.

"I have never felt the kiss of love,
Nor maiden's hand in mine."

This young man has unusual ability especially on the line of invention. He shines in all his studies, and has the qualities necessary for success in life. His future success is foretold by his present ability.

CHARLES DuBOIS

"Red"

U. L. S.

Glee Club '18, '19, '20, '21; Boys' Quartette '20, '21; Class Basketball '20, '21.

"This new life is likely to be,
Hard for a gay, young fellow like me."

Red is very popular, especially with a certain Senior girl. His worst habit is staying at home burning the midnight oil? You often see him taking his friends out in the car. We do not know what he intends to take up after leaving school but expect to find him in a higher institution of learning.

JACOB DUGA

"Jake"

U. L. S.

Football '19, '20; Track '20

"You all know the boy named Jake
Altho' he's nothing but a fake,
In looks and acts, he takes the cake
You need not worry about our Jake."

Jake is a good-natured boy and to hear him laugh surely cures the blues. In French, his translations afford much merriment to the class. We surely could not do without him.

MABEL EVANS

U. L. S.

Mabel is a lass with dark hair who hails from Neffs. She is a favorite with everyone especially "Bob." She has been an excellent student while she has been in B. H. S. and she is bound to succeed. She has our sincere wishes along this line.

ADELIA FAVOT

D. L. S.

"What is worth doing at all is worth doing well."

Adelia is very good natured and is liked by all who know her well. She is very industrious and she always has her lessons well prepared. We wish her success in anything she may undertake.

JAMES FUTHEY

"Farmer" "Hick"

U. L. S.

Basketball '20, '21, Football '19, '20, '21, Track Team '20, Capt. '21, Boys' Glee Club '19, '20, '21, Beljuan Board '20.

"Of manners gentle, of affections mild,
In wit a man, simplicity a child."

"Jim" is six-foot-two in his stocking feet but what care we for that? Think of the fame he has helped to bring to B. H. S. during the three years he has been with us. We must not forget that "Jim" is a good singer. But for all this we wish him success in his profession and also his (?)

SYLVIA FIENBERG

D. L. S.

Junior-Senior Contest '21

Sylvia is a very sweet girl with dark hair and brown eyes. She has a natural tendency to acquire knowledge but is not a grind. Sylvia can always be depended upon to do anything asked of her. An accomplishment worthy of mention is her ability to speak in public.

HELEN GRAFTON

U. L. S.

Girls' Glee Club '20, '21

"Better late than never."

You usually see Helen sliding down from Rock Hill about the time classes begin in the morning. She is a member of the Commercial Department that just loves to talk and laugh. She is always ready for a good time. We predict that she will be a very successful stenographer.

GRACE GRAY

D. L. S.

"Never trouble trouble, until trouble troubles you."

Grace is one of our students who comes from one of the surrounding rural districts. She is very fond of substitution for teachers, and we feel that she will make quite a success along that line.

LOREDA GRESS

D. L. S.

"Silence is golden."

This little lass with the pretty curls is of a quiet disposition. She has very little to say except when necessary, for she spends most of her time studying. We are sure that she would make a very successful stenographer, but we do not think this will be her vocation in life.

HELEN HALL

U. L. S.

"To know her is to love her, and love but 'Her' forever."

Helen is a star in everything and a regular full moon in English. But Oh! her future looks very favorable for a Domestic Course. When not in school you will find her with Leonard. Here's to her health and future "Happiness."

• LILLIAN HARRIS

D. L. S. Basketball '20, '21

"So graceful and gentle, who could help loving her."

Lillian is very popular with her classmates and especially with "Shorty", and "Phil." She is especially noted for her good work on the basketball floor. Lillian is a very good student, and we perceive a successful future for her.

BESSIE HARRIS

"Bess"

D. L. S., Basketball '21, Girls' Glee Club, '18, '19, '20, '21, Cheer Leader '21.

"Hear me for I will speak."

Bess is always in for a good time and such little things as lessons never trouble her in the least. She can generally be found taking walks with Jimmie or at Stillies! She always has something to say and likes to argue. We wish her much success in her chosen life work.

DONALD HALL

"Don"

D. L. S.

Glee Club '19, '20

"The girls think I'm just as nice as I look, and between you and me, I am."

Love, ladies, and latest styles interest our sailor boy. This good-looking young man is one of the best known and liked member in our class. He has sincere wishes for success in whatever he attempts.

HELEN HARTZELL

U. L. S.

"Speak freely what you think."

She is a jolly good pal, an excellent student, and yet she finds time to enjoy herself. Helen has a mind of her own and believes in expressing her opinion frankly. We wish her success in her stenographic work, at which she is very adept.

GAIL HENTHORN

D. L. S.

"A little bit of powder
And a dab of paint
Make one's complexion
Look like what it ain't."

Gail is one of our bright Seniors of the Commercial Department who likes to argue. She has unusual ability along the line of stenography and we think she will make good use of it. She has our sincere wishes for success.

ROBERTA HUFFMAN
"Bertshy"

Girls' Glee Club '21, Class Basketball '21

"I am sure care is an enemy to life."

A jolly girl whose fun is irresistible. How could we be blue when Roberta comes around? Arguments are her delight (ask Mr. Rose). Roberta studies more than she ever would admit. But for all this we hope she will succeed in whatever she attempts as we know it will be for the good of humanity.

HARRY HUNTER
D. L. S.

"When I leave who will take my place."

Harry is more than an average student both in his ability to get lessons and in his propensity for mischief. Is Harry a lady's man? Well, just keep your eyes open and see for yourself. Harry is something of a Horticulturist as he likes the "Rose". We wish him a successful career.

NANNIE JACKSON
"Nan"
D. L. S.

"The best of things come in small packages."
This little girl believes in having her lessons and, also her fun. She is very popular among her schoolmates, and we predict great success for her in the future.

ETHEL JONES
U. L. S. Girls' Glee Club

"She's the dearest little lady
And with eyes so deep and shady."

This young lady appears to be very quiet, but when she is out with her friends she finds much to talk about. Ethel has taken great interest in her school work and we wish her success in whatever she undertakes.

ARTHUR KERN
U. L. S. Pres. Utopian Library '21
Junior-Senior Contest '20

"I have never felt the joy of love
Nor maidens hand in mine."

This young man pays very little attention to the opposite sex but perhaps college will change him in this respect. Arthur continually haunts the assembly room before and after school. With such studious habits it leads us to predict a brilliant future for him.

HILDA KNOPE

D. L. S.

"Woman—She needs no eulogy, she speaks for herself."

Hilda is one of our best Commercial students. She is equally ready for business or fun. Who ever saw Hilda when she did not have her smile and her shorthand?

WILMA KREBS

D. L. S.

Secretary of Freshman Class

Glee Club '18, '19, '20, '21

"As sweet a little miss as ever there was."

Have you ever seen this lass at work on the typewriter? A sight well worth while. But that is only her avocation, her vocation is writing letters to a lad out west. Here's success and happiness to the future Mrs. R. Lockwood.

LEWIS LONG

D. L. S.

"A business man from foot to head."

This lad is sure to succeed in the business world. He attends to work first and pleasure afterwards. His motto will bring him great fame.

DOROTHY LANCASTER

U. L. S. Junior-Senior Contest '21

"Eyes so blue, face so fair.
Is this maid with golden hair."

Dorothy is one of the most popular girls in the class because she is ever ready for a good time. A certain young man has been paying especial attention for quite a long while and it will be easy to predict a future for her.

MARJORIE LEACH

"Marj"

U. L. S. Glee Club

"The most certain sign of wisdom is a continual cheerfulness."

Marjorie does not believe in the adage that good things always come in small packages. In this we all agree. Never does she fail to recite in any of her classes and is always ready for a good time.

THRESA LUCHESSI

D. L. S.

"Love me and the world is mine."

A little mite of a girl, but capable of great things.

She is a very good student and we know that she will make some office brighter and more cheerful by her presence.

FRANK MAZELLI

"Frenchy"

U. I. S.

"Is he not more than painting can express?"

A bright fellow with dark hair and eyes, who does not have much to say most of the time. But when he is started upon some of the subjects of Physics, especially telegraphy, you are going to receive some excellent information. We hope that Frank will take up this line of work as he will be sure of success.

MARGARITA MASON

"Reta"

U. L. S.

Girls' Glee Club '21

"Smooth runs the water, where the brook is deep."

Margarita thinks she is going to be a teacher but first she is going to a higher school of learning. We know she will not teach very long if a certain young man has anything to say in the matter. But we wish her success in whatever she undertakes.

GEORGE MILLER

"Georgie"

D. L. S. Music, Piano

"Silence is Golden."

George is one of the Boys who has made good in Bellaire High. He has been somewhat reserved but this is to his credit.

FANNIE MASUR

U. L. S. Class Basketball

"Happy I am, from care I'm free
Why aren't they all contented like me."

Really this young lady's name should be "Funny" because she is always causing amusement in the assembly. Outside of that Fannie is a good student and next year will find her enrolled in a higher institution of knowledge.

MARGARET MEEK

"Peg"

U. L. S.

Glee Club '20, '21 Basketball '20, '21

Peg came from Shadyside in her junior year and we are certainly glad to have her, for we have all learned to love her. She is a member of the Commercial Department, but we do not think her course will be of much use, for her future will be spent in making home pleasant for "Bill."

JOHN McCLARIN

"Jonnie"

D. L. S. Glee Club '19, '20

"Silence is better than an empty chatter."

John is very quiet in class but always has his lessons. He is not bothered much by the girls. John will probably be a great musician.

EDNA MEECHEN

U. L. S.

"Still water runs deep."

Edna is a silent and gentle lass. She always has a smile on her face and is constantly trying to help someone out of a difficult place. We know that she will succeed in whatever she undertakes because the smile on her face spells success.

CHARLES McCROBA

"Bus" "Croba"

D. L. S. Glee Club '19, '20, '21 Football '21
Class Basketball '20, '21

This is one of the left-handed boys whom Mr. Hunter says stands on their head to write. Charles seems to like science better than anything else—except just one (thing?).

MILDRED MORGAN

D. L. S.

"With eyes that just can't behave."

This curly-headed lass is very popular among her schoolmates, especially the male sex. Her main object in life is to be a dancer of great success. We all wish her the best of luck.

CHARLES McELROY

"Mack"

D. L. S.

Boys' Glee Club '18, '19, '20

Senior Vice President

Class Basketball '20, '21

With blue eyes and blonde hair he is the pick of all the girls, especially one little red-headed Commercial. But this fair admirer never keeps him from having his lessons well prepared.

BLANCHE McNAMARA

"Mackie"

D. L. S.

Beljuan Board

"Here's to the rose of brilliant hue; pluck it and call it your own, The rose will fade and so will the maid, if she's left too long alone."

Blanche is a pretty and popular girl whom everybody loves, because of her happy smile and sunny disposition. She deems it best to get her lessons, but she is always ready for a good time. We do not know what Blanche is going to do, but we think it will be something worth while.

HENRY McENDREE

"Henpeck"

D. L. S.

"A man's a man for all of that."

His nickname tells his fate. We predict many happy marriages, and wish him success in all he undertakes.

MARIE NALLY

"Curly"

U. L. S. Interscholastic Debate and Junior-Senior Contest '20, '21

Marie has secured much from her High School Course. We predict for her a great future.

NEWELL NEFF

"Pete"

U. L. S.

"His mother calls him Newell, and his father calls him Newt. The boys call him Pete, but the girls call him Cute.

Pete is a small, curly-headed youth who is always smiling. He hails from Shadyside, the town where "Big Jim", comes from. Pete always comes to class with his lessons well prepared and we predict a bright future for him.

IRENE PATTERSON

U. L. S. Glee Club '21

"I had rather have a fool to make me merry than experience to make me sad."

She is a girl full of pep, taking life as a song. Irene believes in telling the teachers what she knows. Seriously speaking she is very capable and will in the end make some young man's heart throb.

CHARLES PEARSON

"Cap"

Interscholastic Debate '20, '21

Junior-Senior Contest '20, '21

Beljuan Board

"Who will fill the vacancy I leave?"

Cap is one of the best known and best liked members of the Senior Class. He has taken a part in almost everything of interest in the school. Although not athletically inclined, he certainly has the mental qualities of a great man. We think he will be one of our greatest statesmen someday.

MARGARET PEARCE

"Peggy"

D. L. S. Girls' Glee Club

"Her voice was gentle, meek, and mild.
An excellent thing in a woman."

Margaret is one of the new additions to our class and we have learned to respect her judgment and "wit". Here's wishing her success.

EULA RAUCHENBERG

"Dutch"

D. L. S.

"With black hair, sparkling eyes, and a perpetual smile."

The above just describes Dutch. She always has a smile for everyone. She is a member of the Commercial Department, but we do not think she will choose that line of work for her vocation. Although she would make the dreariest office bright, she will make a brighter little "Two by four" for some lucky fellow.

KIRK RAMAGE

D. L. S.

"Silence is his one great art."

Kirk is a good-looking young man, but blushes very much when any girls come around. He never says much, but does a great deal of thinking. He comes to school on the wonderful train, the O. R. & W. We think that Kirk will be a great farmer as he likes agriculture very much.

MARY REED

D. L. S.

"Hear me, for I will speak."

Mary is another of our preacher's daughters. She is studious, but we could hardly call her a grind. She always knows everything which the teachers ask her and we are proud of her. Mary has set her mind on the law profession and we wish her much success.

ALAN RIFE

U. L. S.

"Alan is good looking, very gay and free, The way he vamps the girls is very great to see."

He doesn't say much until you get him started. When he studies we do not know. He can always be seen in his machine with (?), we wonder! We believe that Alan will someday be known as a great singer—"Lullabys."

MARTHA RODEWIG

"Just Martha"

D. L. S. Junior-Senior Contest '20, '21

Basketball '20, '21

Interscholastic Debate '20, '21

Girls' Glee Club '18, '19, '20, '21

Martha has interested herself in so many school activities that she is an athlete, Literary star, singer, and still an excellent student. Martha's smile has been one of the best aids in winning her a place among the students of B. H. S.

ROBERT ROY

"Bob"

U. L. S.

Class President '20

"Comb down his hair; look, look! it stands up-right."

Bob likes to be liked by a certain young lady from Neffs. Often we are startled by a bombardment of paper wads. He really should join the Artillery for he has a wonderful aim. School isn't hard for Bob, it's a cinch and he always has his lesson.

MARY ROMAN

"Sis"

U. L. S.

"The smile that goeth not away."

Mary is a lovable, dark-haired maid with deep dark eyes that are bubbling over with laughter. She don't believe in tormenting teacher nor boys but she does believe in having her lessons. We are expecting to hear great things of her some day.

AUDREY ROLF

D. L. S. Girls' Glee Club '18, '19, '20, '21
Class Secretary

"Sweet and Pretty"

Audrey is one of the proud possessions of the beauty collection of the class of '21. Though few have made a familiar acquaintance with Audrey everyone knows her by her voice and curls. We cannot help but predict a rosy future for her in the world to be.

TILDA ROMAN

U. L. S. Glee Club '21

"Love me little, love me long."

One of those sincere girls whose dark eyes sparkle with meaning. Tilda is loved by all who know her best. She has a capacity for doing great things; we know her efforts will be crowned a success. Tilda's graduation gown is very likely to serve as a double purpose.

EDWARD SCHIFFLER

"Nick"

D. L. S. Football '19, '20 Class Basketball '18, '19
Class Baseball '18, '19, '20 Beljuan Board '20

"As student he's among the best,
In some things he's in the other class."

"Nick" has been one of our most popular students of B. H. S. He has shown a special interest in outdoor sports, football and baseball, but he also has an indoor sport, "Mary". He will be found working hard in later years somewhere with "Shorty". Nerve is his password to success.

HELEN SNEGG

U. L. S.

"Still water runs deep."

Helen is very quiet and bashful. A smile and a kind word for everyone has gained her many friends. She always has her lessons but she is always ready for a good time. We think she will take the "Four years Loaf". Here's to her success.

CLARENCE SHACKLEFORD

"Shacky"

U. L. S. Football '19, '20 Track '21

"What the world expects I can do."

Shacky is one of our best Commercial students. He always has his lessons and is then ready for some fun. He is good natured too, even on a football field. We are sure he will succeed in whatever work he undertakes.

MELISSA SMITH

"Charlie"

U. L. S.

Glee Club

"If she will, she will, and you may depend on it. If she won't, she won't so there's an end on it."

A bright college prep. who talks much and says little. "Charlie" believes in having a good time and she generally gets what she wants. You will find her at home entertaining, at the movies, or having a good time with the "bunch." She has shown us indeed that she will make a success.

DAVID SPRIGGS

"Nutz" "Dave"

D. L. S. Business Manager of Beljuan '20
Junior-Senior Contest '20, '21
Interscholastic Debate team '20, '21

"The good Lord has not endowed me with a football physique but he made me a debater."

Not too much can be said in praise of this member of '21 who has brought his class more fame and glory by his power of speech than all of partners in the High School debating business. Every member of B. H. S. knows "Nutz" by the sound of his never ceasing flow of words. Although the Freshmen can't comprehend his words, they respect him still.

ELIZABETH SPRING

"Betty"

D. L. S.

Glee Club

"Never worry and get a wrinkle, always smile and get a dimple."

"Betty" is a fairy-like maiden who lives a quiet and harmless life. She always has her lessons and can be depended on. Her ambition is to become a great musician.

CHARLES STRAILL

D. L. S.

"I never felt the joy of love,
Nor maiden's hand in mine."

Charles is an easy-going quiet fellow, with a blush like the roses. He rides the B. & O. from Warnock. He is very quiet in walk, talk, and manner, and never bothers the opposite sex. He has won a host of friends during his four year career at this school. He is noted for his sensible recitations (?). Nevertheless "a man's a man for all of that."

KATHERINE TARBETT

D. L. S.

"Her ways are ways of pleasantness
And all her paths are peace."

A quiet girl with dark hair and brown eyes. We do not hear much from Katherine for she thinks in preference to talking. She will probably spend the next few years in some higher institution of learning.

MERLE THOMAS

"Happy"

U. L. S. Class Basketball '20
Football '20 Track '20, '21

"Better to work and fail
Than sleep ones life away."

A quiet retiring young fellow who "Has never felt the kiss of love but thinks it best to keep his mind on one thing at a time. Although athletically inclined he has not as yet gained fame. He has a way of doing things that strikes everyone alike. Ohio State will claim him next year.

ALMA THURBER

"A"

D. L. S. Glee Club

Alma, formerly a member of Fostoria H. S. joined the ranks of '21 in the midst of the first semester. She caused a sudden flurry in the minds of the males of B. H. S., but she soon settled down to the lessons of which no member of the faculty can complain.

JAMES THOMAS

"Jimmie"

D. L. S.
Class President '21
Student Manager, Athletics

"I wonder if any one knows I am here?"

Jimmy is that dignified young gentleman who hails from the southern part of Bellaire. He has not stood out prominently, but every one has heard of him. You will usually find him at school or home studying, or at the Elk Grand Theatre. We expect that Jimmie will be an Auditor or an Expert Accountant, and we wish him success.

ALBERT VOIGHT

D. L. S.

"Late to bed, Late to rise,
Comes to school, rubbing his eyes."

Usually called Voighty. This good-looking young fellow is one of our brightest??? Commercial students. You will usually find him at the Smoke House or riding in the Ford. As Albert seems to have taken a fancy to Civics, we think he will take this subject to teach. The class wishes him success in whatever he attempts.

LAURA WALLACE

"Dolly" "Boob"

D. L. S. Class Basketball '18
Girls' B. B. '19, '20, '21

We're mighty glad to have Laura in our class. She is a typical all-round American girl, full of pep and energy. She has always been a basketball star and has changed defeat to victory many times. She intends to teach school but we cannot say for how long, as the attentions of a certain Senior boy are quite noticeable.

CLARENCE WINLAND

D. L. S.

"A proper man as anyone shall see in a summer's day."

During the first three years of his high-school course, Clarence made a great mistake, but upon discovering his error, he entered B. H. S. this year. He has proved a worthy addition to the class of '21. Knowing the original turn of his mind, we feel certain that he will succeed in whatever he undertakes to do.

JULIA WELCH

D. L. S.

"A winning way, a winning smile,
Dresses so neat, and quite in style."

She has dark hair and dangerous dark eyes. She is always talking but saying little. There is little to say about her, but those that are acquainted with her will know that she is always to be found where there is a good time.

LEONARD WIRTZ

D. L. S.

"He drops a coin upon the floor,
To hear the scraping, answering roar."

Leonard, sometimes called Bud, is a curly-headed, carefree fellow. One of those that is always in for a good time, and never misses a joke. Leonard studies sometimes, or at least he makes us think so once in a while. We don't know what he will do in after life, but we know that he will have a partner.

MARGARET YOCUM

"Maggie"

U. L. S.

Interscholastic debate '21

"With too much quickness ever to be taught
With too much thinking to have common thought."

A girl whose smile, in varying degrees of brightness, is always present. Margaret has the gray matter to originate all sorts of ideas. Nor is she selfish for she shares them all! For the time being she will administer "reading and writing and 'rithmetic" to the younger generation.

Senior Class Song

Tune, "Old Pal Why Don't You Answer Me"

Bellaire High School we must tell you goodbye
Although it brings a tear to every eye;
Strangers 'round us gather in the years to come
Then we'll miss the friendship of old '21.

Chorus:

The long years through we'll think of you
Bellaire how we hate to leave you.
We'll ne'er forget when we first met
In that dear old assembly;
School days are done, but twenty-one
Will linger in our memory.

The boys and girls were loyal to the end
And in each one we've found a faithful friend,
They were always with us in our joys and tears,
Let us all remember those four golden years.

Miss Mitchell: "What are the five senses?"

Joseph Poorman: "Nickels."

Miss Boswell: "How do bees dispose of honey?"

Margaret Porter: "They cell it."

Miss Price: "Where was Soloman's Temple?"

Letha Creamer: "On the side of his head."

Mr. Rose: "What are mumps?"

Guy Lucas: "A swell disease."

Freshie: "I'm trying awfully hard to get ahead."

Teacher: "Very advisable. You need one."

Jake Duga to Editor of "Red and Black": "You sit down on every joke I write."

David Spriggs: "Well, I wouldn't, if there was any point to them."

19 BELLIAN 22

Farewell to B. H. S.

AND now our graduation day has come! It does not seem possible that it has been four years since we ascended into High School. But they have passed, and happily, too. To be sure, we have encountered our difficulties; we have had our mountains to climb over; but these were greatly surpassed by the pleasure and successes. High School days were happy days. The friendships formed, the helpful teachers, the school spirit, the social functions, and best of all, the mastery of the difficult studies—all these, combined with the many little every-day incidents, made our High School days a pleasure. And as a fitting joyful ending to this comes our commencement.

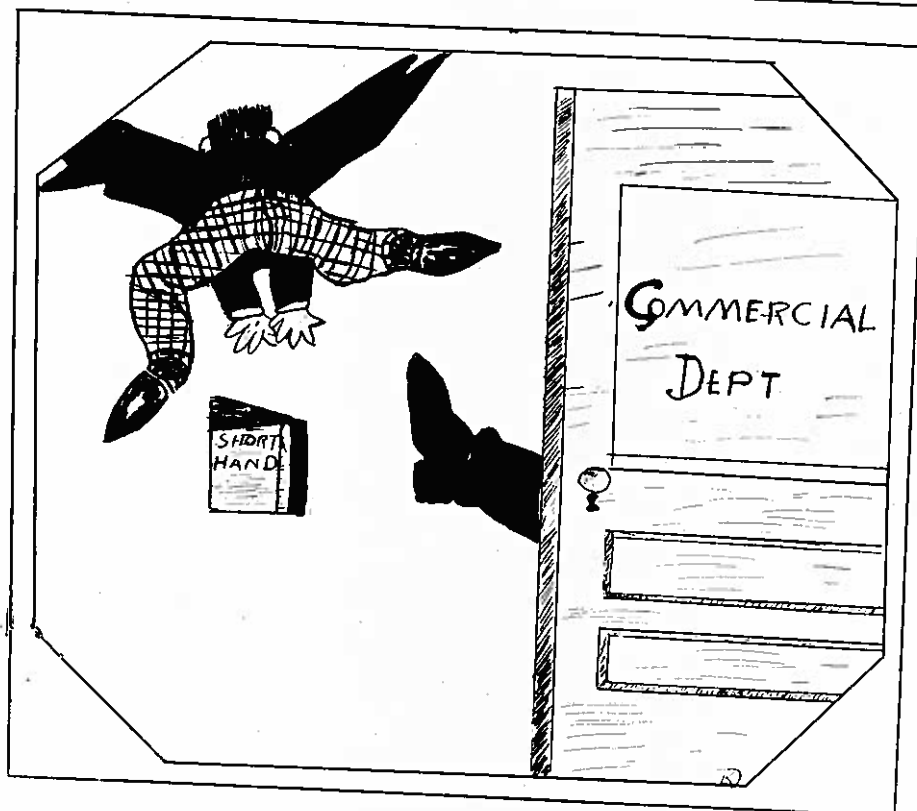

It is always looked upon as a merry time, with everyone in the best of spirits; and to strangers it does appear to be all gayety. But to each individual in the class there is a secret feeling of regret and sadness. It is not apparent, but it is keenly felt by all of us. For it is the end of our happy school life. Many of the old friends will be separated. The merry class gatherings will cease. We will not be able to meet again in the free and easy way that we have in school. The class will be divided and scattered. Some here; some there. Some will go on with school life; some will go into life's school. Some will become world-famed; some will be unknown.

Our High School has been a great thing for us. And we, as a class and as an individual, have always upheld it and battled for it at every opportunity. In mental strength and in physical, we have done our part with our best efforts.

More great and noted personages may arise from other classes; but nevertheless, with true class spirit, we will always think that our class, the good old class of 1921, is the best of them all. The thought of these years that we have spent in Bellaire High School will always bring a light to our faces.

But we are at an end now; we are leaving the sheltered harbor of High School to sail over the great sea of life. We will have many difficulties to overcome, but all hope to be able to pass through these, thanks to the efficient training given us by the faithful faculty. We must say farewell to our schoolmates, our happy surroundings, our teachers, and take a step higher on the ladder of life.

Junior Class History

TO be a member of the Junior Class is a real honor, but to have been a member of the Junior Class of '22 was the highest honor possible.

The Junior Class of 1922 is composed of about 125 members, all of them were hearty boosters of all departments of B. H. S. The Junior Class was organized on October 5, 1920. Philip Eberling, a new student from Washington, Pa., was elected president, Mary Campbell as vice-president, and Hilda Humes as secretary. All of these officers have capably filled their positions.

In athletics the Junior Class was very well represented. The famous basketball squad of B. H. S. had two juniors on it, both of them were star players. In the basketball tournament the Juniors showed excellent playing, but luck was against them, so they came in third.

This year's track team, which made a good showing, was well represented by juniors. A great many juniors went out for practice and thus helped to make such a fine track team possible.

In music the juniors could not be surpassed. In "THE GYPSY ROVER," a musical comedy given by boys' and girls' GLEE CLUBS, six out of the twelve leading characters belonged to the class of '22. The leading lady was also a junior.

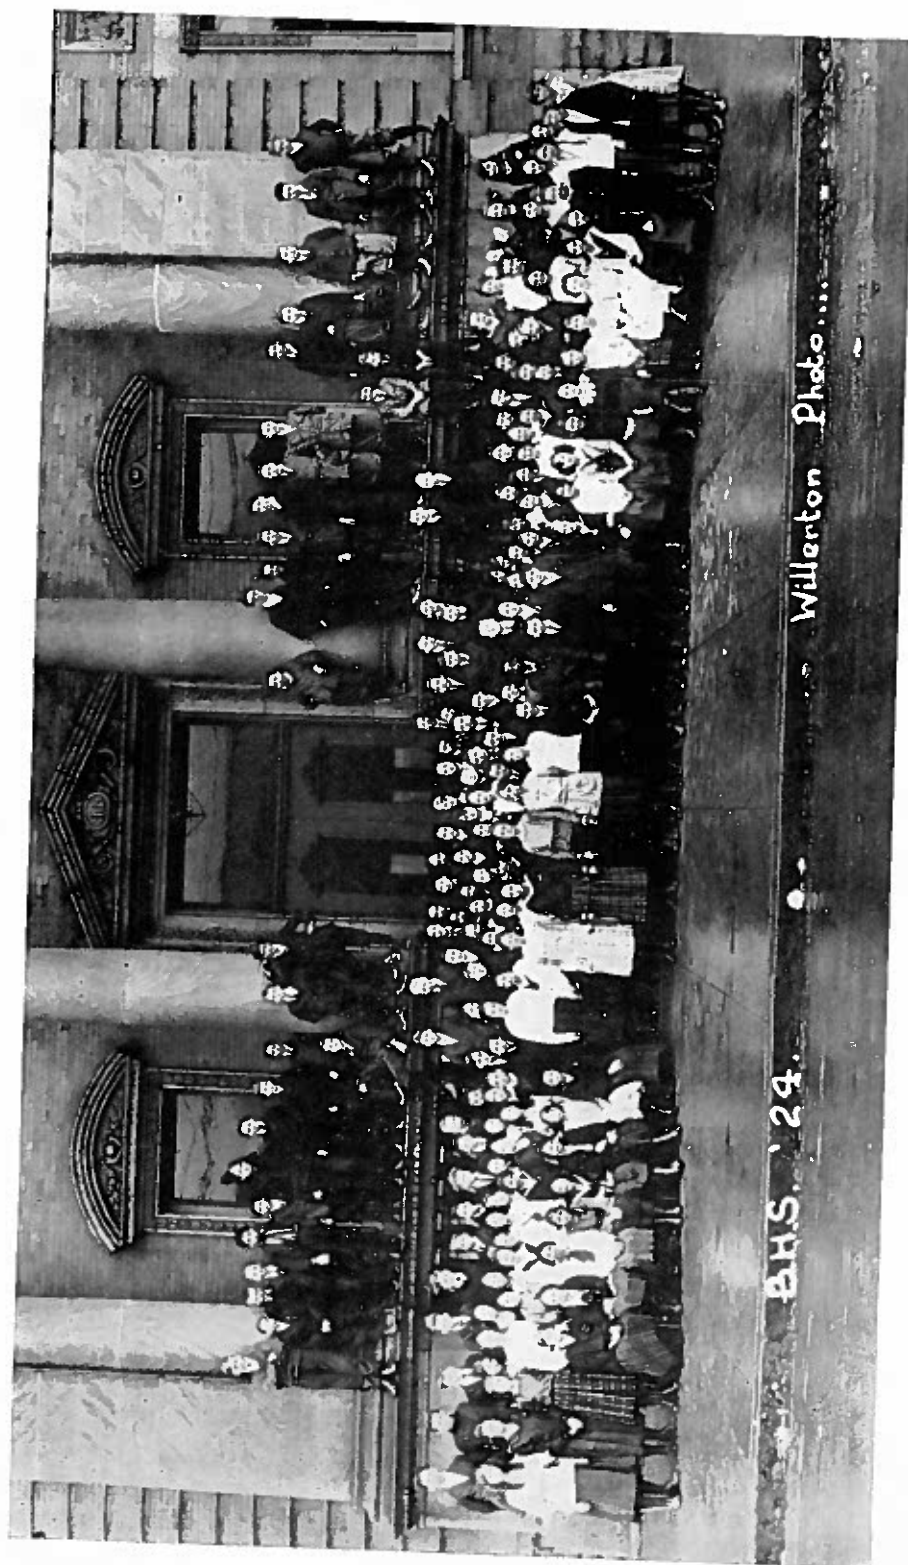

In literary circles the juniors took an active part. The Inter-scholastic debating team had a junior on it. The Junior-Senior contest was held on April 26, 1921. The juniors did excellent work, especially in the debate, but the judges seemed to have the edge on the seniors, so the juniors lost by a very close margin.

The junior party was held on April 22, 1921, and was a huge success, especially the Junior Class Minstrel.

When all the members of the class of '22 have graduated and have started on life's long, hard road, it will be a pleasure and honor indeed, to proudly say that you were once a member of the class of '22.

Thus ends the history of the Mighty Junior Class of 1922.

JUNIOR CLASS

Juniors in 1936

HOW could I ever do it? It seemed absolutely impossible. I was to write a prophecy of my beloved class, telling what my classmates would be doing fifteen years from now. 1936! How far away it seemed. Why, they would be scattered all over the world. Such a task was indeed impossible, but—well I had to do it.

How should I start? I'd better take the class president first. Philip Ebeling—He'll be a lawyer, I thot; no, not a lawyer, a minister; perhaps not, tho' he'd make a better doctor.

"Oh, it's no use," I said aloud, "I'll have to go over and tell president Ebeling to get someone else to write the prophecy. I just can't."

So that was what I decided to do. Gathering up the blank pages before me, I put my pen away and started out. The president lived about five blocks away, and as the day was clear and bright, I walked slowly, trying to think up what to offer as a good excuse to the president. My spirits rose a little, however, after walking for a few minutes, and I began to forget about the Prophecy. Suddenly I hit upon an entirely different plan. I would not go to the president now, but would go to the show, and upon returning home, I would try once more. "I would feel better anyway," I argued.

Upon reaching the theatre I saw, by the advertisements, that "William S. Hart" was playing. This suited me exactly, so I went in. After the first few reels, however, I began to worry again, and wish that I had gone to the president and told him to get someone else to write the troublesome prophecy. I could then set my mind at rest.

While I was still debating whether or not to leave, the scenery before me began to change. From the western ranch of "Bill Hart" it moved rapidly to Washington, D. C. Then there were some notes given about the new U. S. President. "This seems interesting," I thot, "I wonder who it is." Could I believe my eyes? The man posing before me was none other than Clarence Snider, and with him was his wife, Mrs. Snider, wee Hilda Williams, both were old classmates of mine. I began to sit up and take notice. I soon found that the time had changed from 1921 to 1936. This certainly was interesting. I then noticed the men attending the president. There was Morgan Koehnline, Earl Sanders, Andrew Richards and Shannon Owens. How dignified they all looked. Could they be the old "Bring on the fun" Juniors of '22? They were, all right.

The next scenes were in Europe. Paris first.—Here I saw the American Consul, Charles Grodhaus, who, with his wife, Neosha Logan, was living in a beautiful little chateau. Then came the French president and his American wife.

19 JULIAN 22

She was Esther Fitton, our little "Mope" of B. H. S. Well, she certainly fit right in the gay Parisian society. She was giving a large ball in honor of two old school friends who were visiting with her. I was ready for anything now, so when I saw that the old friends were Mary Campbell and Alma Rosser, I was hardly even surprised.

As the ball wore on, there were many people whom I had known. There was Leota Tharpe, having a wonderful time filling up her dance program. How did she ever succeed in getting all those names on that small card. She did, however, and soon she was whirling off with another American, Howard Morgan.

The scenes were next shifted to London. Here was shown a gorgeous theatre. In one of the boxes I saw a beautifully dressed woman, whom I soon recognized to be Eloise Ault. She was accompanied by her husband, James Orin. Both seemed very interested in the show before them. It was the famous "Romeo and Juliet," and the parts were well taken by the noted DeMar Neal Company. The part of Romeo was taken by Walter Heil, and Juliet by the wonderful American actress, Miss Marie Hunter. Even manager Neal was pleased, for the play certainly was a decided success.

Upon watching the people leave the theatre I noticed a distinguished looking couple elbowing their way to the street. Who should it be but George Sherry and his wife, formerly Gene Smith. They seemed to be having a heated discussion or rather argument, about something, but altho' it was a little one-sided (in Gene's favor), George looked quite contented. I soon lost track of them when they reached the street, as I was attracted by a beautiful green automobile skimming along at a lively clip. The notes soon informed me that the goggled driver was the "speed king" of Europe, Robert Lockwood. He had perfected this beautiful racer and after making no small fortune, set about to see how much of it he could "get away with" before leaving this world.

The pictures were now once more of the good old U. S. A. I settled back and drew a deep breath. I felt more at home now. Things began to look familiar. Where were these pictures taken? Could it possibly be Bellaire? It most assuredly was. There was the High School in the same old square, but such an improvement. It was a wonderful new one. I was informed that the wonderful architecture had been done by Contractor Wilson. Well, it must be Gordon. So he was an architect. Who would have tho't it? The pictures of the interior of the High School had been taken while school was in session. The principal was standing on the large platform making some announcements. His features somehow, looked familiar to me. Yes, it was "Louie" all right—Louis Weekly. He certainly made a fine principal.

19 JULIAN 22

Upon seeing the large office of the Superintendent I recognized at the desk, Russell Tiber. Russell was at last superintending something, not only something, but someone, I soon learned, as Mrs. Tiber, nee Margaret Long, was ushered into his office.

The next pictures introduced Mayor Morgan and the city council. So Emily was in politics. The Board consisted of a number of prominent Bellaire people, among whom were Vera Mansell, Mabel Anderson, George Branstroop, Nathan Perilman and Henry Vaupel. Here also was Chief of Police Goldie Martin, and her corp of efficient policemen, Officers Norman Cooper, Ethel Moorehouse, and Elizabeth Parker, of whom it has been said, their very names strike terror to the hearts of criminals.

With the beginning of the sixth reel the scenes were again changed. This time to Panama. As a large steamer passed thru the canal, I caught a glimpse of the captain on the bridge of the ship. I rubbed my eyes in amazement, for it was Chauncey Linard. On the deck I saw a gay party of tourists, and among them I recognized Thomas McNamee, and his wife, formerly Miss Martha Cox. Other members of this party of famous "Globe Trotters" were Marie Snively, Elizabeth Krieter and Hilda Humes. They were discussing a large map which lay before them. Upon getting a closer view of it I saw at the bottom the name of the famous geographer, John Blon.

As the business district of Panama was shown I noticed in a large office, Lawyer Cecil Robinson, who was fussing and fuming because his stenographer, Merle Hammond, was just an hour late.

All along the street were large and imposing looking posters reading thus: "The wonderful acrobatic toe dancer, Martha Siddall. Famous the world over. Two weeks showing." So Martha had finally gotten her wish.

The pictures following this were taken in New York City. Who of my classmates had come to this metropolis, I wondered. I did not wonder long, however, for as the greatest sky-scraper of this wonderful city was shown, I saw the name "Gosseye and Matthews" across the front of it. Elbert and "Buddy" I concluded in an instant.

19 BELJUAN 22

Then the tall buildings of New York began to fade away and in their places came beautiful palm trees, wonderful orange groves and perfect sunsets. It was Florida—Who would I find here? I was soon to know. I noticed a figure beneath these palms. She was seated on a bench on a sandy stretch of beach, reading. I was surely losing my senses, for as she looked up I recognized myself.

EDYTH SNYDER, '22.

Mr. Heil, talking to Walter: "What do you expect to be when you get thru college?"

Walter: "An old man, Father."

Miss Boswell: "Where was Tennyson's first poem written (meaning locality)?
Porky Morgan: "On a piece of paper."

Walter Heil: "Can you carry a tune?"

Sammie Luchs: "Certainly."

Walter: "Well, carry that one out and bury it."

A cat looking at a plate of doughnuts. "Now I'll get the deuce. Some mouse has been here and nibbled a hole in every one of these cookies."

Miss Boswell: "Why do you always sign your name J.J.J. John F.F. Fowler?"

John Fowler: "Because that's my name. The minister who christened me stuttered."

Marie Nally (a missionary to Cuba): "What is the death rate here?"

Native: "Same as it is everywhere else——one death for every inhabitant."

Mr. Galberach: "My wife can drive nails like lightning."

Mr. Lamb: "You don't mean it."

Mr. Galberach: "Sure I do. Lightning, you know, seldom strikes in the same place."

Alan Rife: "If I were you I wouldn't laugh; it's dangerous."

Edith Snyder: "Why is it dangerous?"

Alan: "When the smile flashes, it might ignite the powder."

Sophomore Class History

HERE we are again, only we've changed our name—become more dignified. We are no longer Freshmen, but Sophomores. Yes, we have changed a great deal but, upon analysis, you will find the same good will, activity and perseverance that has always characterized us. We seldom finish second best in anything—we never undertake a thing into which we do not put every ounce of power belonging to us. Our activities have been very many. We have taken part in every branch of High School work. We have carried our standards far to the front in all matters.

In respect to athletics our class has shown its colors. Several of our boys were on the football squad and one made the team. Incidentally we lost but one game of football this year. We also showed our versatility by our strength in basketball. Though none of our classmen made the first team among the boys, one of them played in several games. We furnished a member to the girls' team also. These players helped to increase the strength of our teams.

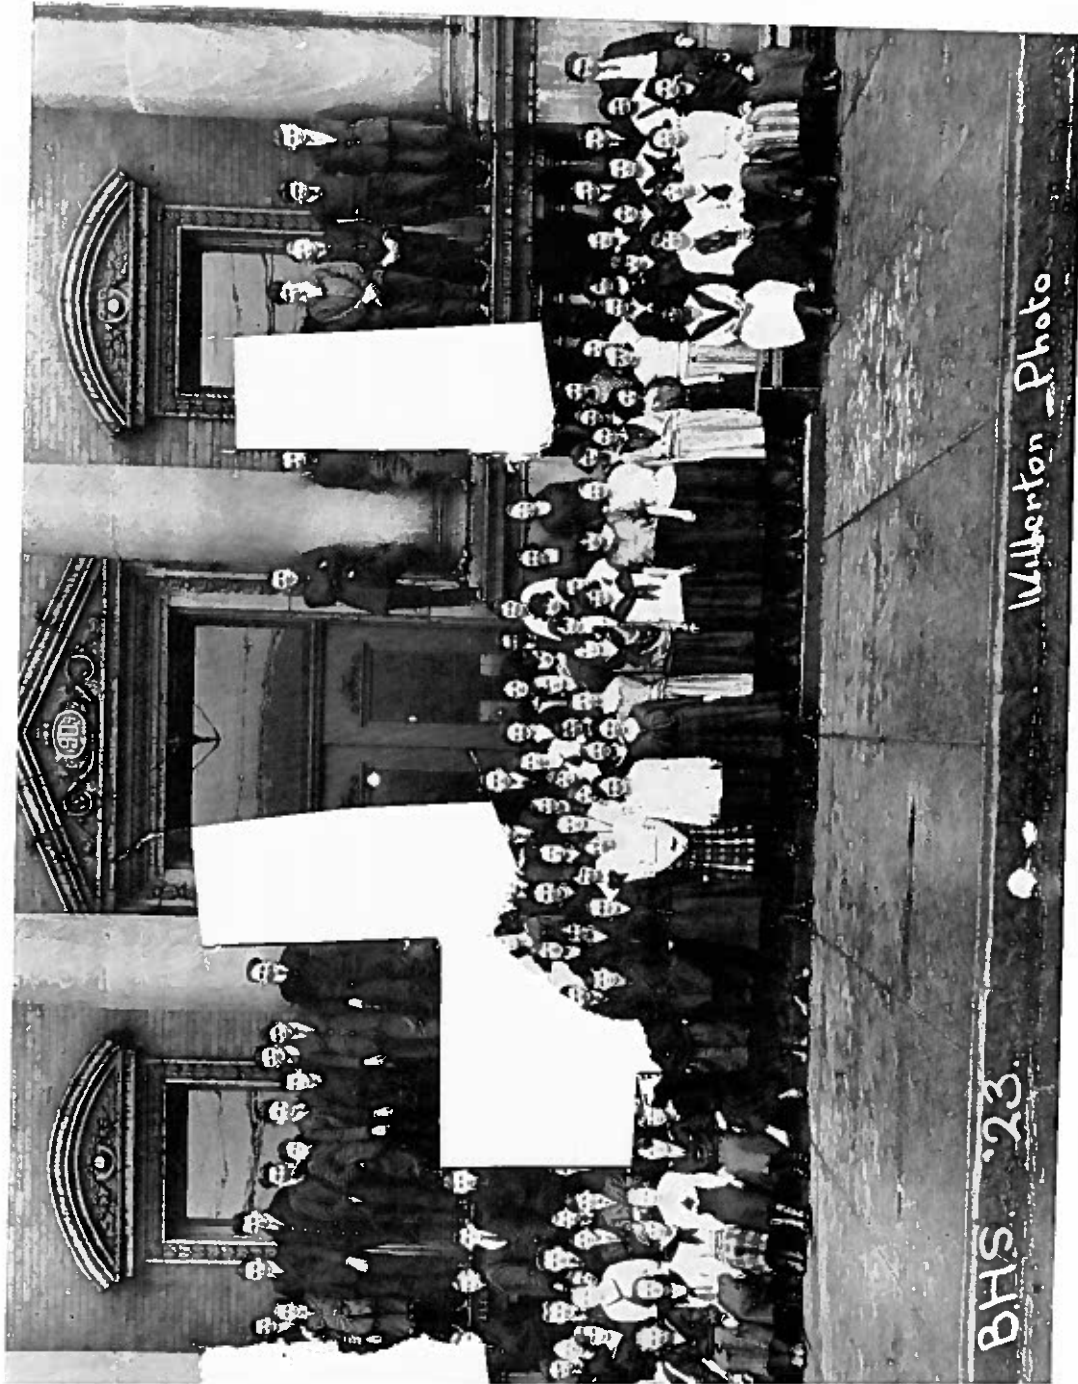

Nor are our activities limited to athletics only. In music the Sophomores contributed greatly. We gave our quota to the Orchestra and helped to make it a success. We furnished material aid to the Glee Clubs as many will testify.

And last, but by no means least, we come to debating. When the announcement was made concerning the Debating Society the Sophomores were very well represented. They continued active in this line and had parts in several of the debates, which were very full of enthusiasm. And then came the great call for the Interscholastic Debate. From all directions drifted the scholars, who were desirous of trying out. And when the final decision was made it was found that two Sophomores had made the team. By a stroke of ill luck, however, one of these took sick and was unable to compete on the "Big Night." His place was very ably filled, nevertheless, and we won at home, unanimously. But in this case the bitter was mixed with the sweet, for, at Steubenville, although our team put up a strong fight they were beaten.

So you see how our class has forged to the front. We are trying to make an unparalleled record in every line. We now have a few less than 120 pupils and we are putting forth every effort to graduate the largest class in the history of B. H. S.

Whenever any assistance is needed the Sophomore class is always at the front. And the best thing that we can do for our class is to keep boosting and working in order that we may attain a still higher standard.

Freshmen Class History

THE beginning of the new school year, which started Sept. 2, 1920, was one which will be remembered by each and every one of us. We entered with a total of about one hundred eighty pupils, said to be the largest and greenest class that ever entered old B. H. S. The upper classmen seemed to make merry over us but we shall show them that their opinion of us is altogether different, as we all intend to reach our goal, which is success.

Our first few days were quite embarrassing, as you could almost always find us freshmen some place where we did not belong. Mr. Deacon seemed to have quite a time to keep us out of the assembly between the shifting of classes. But in a few days everything was moving along smoothly. Except once in a while you would see a freshman whose face would turn very red when crossing the assembly. When visitors happened to drop in our class room we were all hoping that we would not be the one to be called on, but we soon got over that feeling.

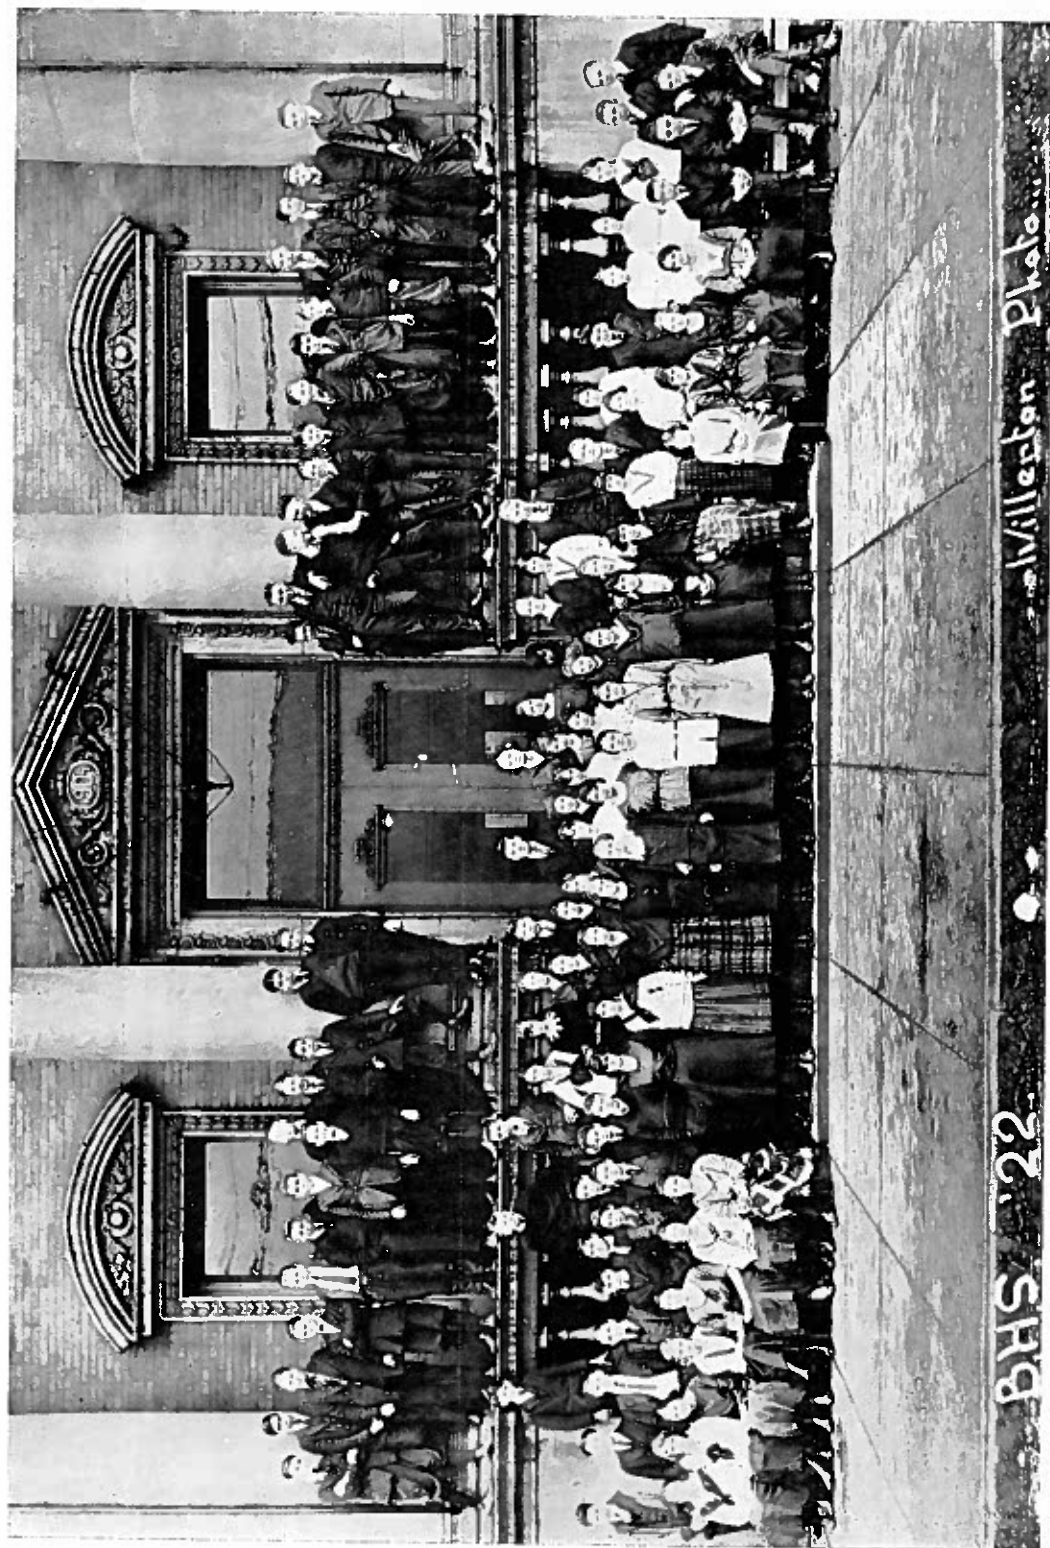

Our class was not organized until after Christmas. We elected John Neimic for president, Beatrice Bowen for secretary, and Elizabeth Humes for vice-president. Our colors have been selected as Blue and Gold, and we hope that each and every one of us will respect them to the utmost. We had music very regularly every Monday and Wednesday mornings until Mr. Snider left us. We always tried to please him and hope since we have had Mr. Wright as our new instructor we have also secured his favor.

The Freshmen girls were not allowed to belong to the Girls' Glee Club, but we had quite a large number of boys who represented us in the Boys' Glee Club. The High School orchestra was almost all composed of Freshmen. We have always been well represented at Rhetoricals, as Mr. Deacon is bound that he will not forget any one of us.

We have been greatly interested in both athletic and literary lines. In athletics both boys and girls have succeeded. In football we had a regular and several subs, who promise to be members of the first squad next year. In basketball we also had a regular on the boys' team. Several girls tried for the Varsity team and were pretty successful.

In the beginning of the remainder of our three years we want to welcome other Freshmen as we were welcomed. We also hope to set a standard for our lower classmates as others have set a standard for us.

The Best Vacation I Ever Had

WHAT I think to be the best vacation I ever had probably will not appeal to most people.

I usually spend the greater part of my vacation at home, on the farm. That would hold very little attraction for some people, but to me it means much.

I live on a farm containing one hundred and twenty acres. We usually have eight to ten cows to milk in the summer time.

My brothers and sisters and myself are kept very busy during the summer. First, the corn is to be planted, then hoed. But do we mind that? No. For in hoeing the corn we can be thinking of the time when the ears of that corn will be big enough to eat. Then comes wheat harvesting. This is a busy time, for the wheat has to be shocked, then it has to be hauled into the barn.

Then the berries are ripe. That means getting up early, getting the morning work done, and getting to the berry patch before somebody beats you to it. It is fun to get to the patch and to chase the intruder out, providing he is smaller than you. Then there is the canning of the berries and the jam-making.

Next the hay is ready to cut. When it is dry enough to haul in, or stack, there are great times. Because in the hauling in you get a chance to ride on the wagon which has just as much on it as harvesters can possibly get. Then there are hay shocks to ride, or if not riding the hay shocks you can ride the horse that is pulling that shock. What sport! Then there is the oats to be cut, and we go through the same process in that as with the wheat.

After wheat and oats are dry there is the threshing. How we enjoy cooking for so many men and watching them eat, even though it is a lot of work and hustle and bustle to get it ready. But such fun!

But do not think for a minute that we do nothing but work, for "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." No, we have automobile rides after the work is all done. Sometimes to the confectionery for a treat. Other times just a ride.

19 JULIAN 22

Then the meeting of the Grange every other Friday night is something to look forward to. For such good times as we certainly have!

Then we are ready for school to begin in the fall, all healthy and happy.

Some may envy me, some may pity me, but I do not need pity, for am I not happy? Life on a farm is the healthiest and best.

ELIZABETH DANIEL, '24.

David Spriggs: "Hear about the accident at Vogel's bakery this morning?"

Pete Archibald: "No."

David: "Yeh! a man got electrocuted."

Pete: "How'd it happen?"

David: "He ate a biscuit with a currant in it."

Mr. Weekly to his son: "What does that sixty mean on your report card?"

Louis: "Why- -er - - that's the temperature of our room."

Alfred Beuter: "Did your watch stop when you dropped it on the floor last night?"

Emerson Bell: "Sure, did you think it would go through."

Wayne Greenlee: "I'm a greater man than you—I have seventeen George Washington dollars."

John Rietz: "That's nothing; I've an Adam's Apple."

Ralph McMasters (at Bolte's restaurant): "Do you serve lobsters here?"

Waiter: "Yes, sir; we serve anyone, sit down."

Norman Cartwright (in Caesar): "Caesar wore a wreath when he appeared in the public on his head."

Newell Neff: "Have you a fire-escape in this hotel?"

Thomas McNamee: "Two of them."

Newell: "I thought so. The fire all escaped from my room last night, and I came near freezing."

High School Orchestra

One of the most wonderful of all the organizations of the High School is the Orchestra. The continued improvement of this orchestra from year to year has now produced one of the best orchestras that the high school has known. On every occasion where it was possible the orchestra took part because it was really an inspiration to the things which were to follow. The music rendered by the orchestra has been highly appreciated at all times.

Boys' Glee Club

This musical organization was not organized until the Football season closed. The boys of the Glee Club began on "The Gypsy Rover," which they helped present. Had it not been for the Boys' Glee Club the Gypsy Rover could not have been held because they took parts equal to that of the girls.

Three of the boys of the Glee Club were chosen with Prof. I. M. Snyder, to form the High School Quartet. The Quartet has rendered music several times at the Literary programs, and it made the trip to Key with the Girls' Glee Club.

The Glee Clubs as a whole proved to be one of the most successful that has ever been formed.

Girls' Glee Club

After testing the voices of the entire school seventy-five girls were chosen because of their musical ability, to form the Girls' Glee Club. The majority of the voices were exceptionally good, and due to the ability of such a large number, it was necessary to choose seventy-five of the best voices.

The Glee Club has taken part in several of the Literary programs, and on November 30th it made its initial trip to Key to sing at the Farmers' Institute. This opportunity was considered quite an honor for last year a noted quartet entertained at the Farmers' Institute.

On March 17th the Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs, combined, produced the musical comedy, "The Gypsy Rover." This play was given in the Miners' Temple. The main characters of this play deserve much praise for the manner in which they carried out their parts.

Where
Can a man
Buy a cap
For his knee,
Or
A key
To the lock
Of his hair?
Can
His eyes
Be called
An academy
Because
There are
Pupils there?
In
The crown
Of his head
What gems

Who Travels
The bridge
Of his nose?
Can
He use
When shingling
The roof

Of his elbow
Be sent
To jail?
If so,
What did

Literary

The Debating Society

THE Debating Society of the Bellaire High School is a permanent literary institution, formed by members of B. H. S. in the year 1919, to further the oratorical abilities of any who care to attend. The success of this society in furthering these abilities is shown by the fact that seven of the eight members of the interscholastic debate were active members of this institution and many of the Junior-Senior contestants were also enrolled in this society.

The first meeting of the second year of this society was held Oct. 4. Many attended this meeting. All classes were represented and splendid spirit was shown. Officers were elected and a committee appointed by the president, David Spriggs, to make a constitution. Another committee was also appointed to have charge of the programs, which were rendered every Monday evening in the High School Assembly. These meetings were largely attended by teachers and former members. At one of the meetings the society was entertained by a speech from Leslie Keyser, who is now attending Ohio State University.

The success of this society has made for it many friends among the faculty, student body, and even outsiders, who visit and note its continual improvement towards success. We hope that in time the Debating Society will become of interest to the whole High School Student Body and B. H. S. will prosper by it.

Interscholastic Debate

THE question, Resolved, that all cities of the United States with a population of 500,000 or less should adopt the Commission-Manager form of Municipal Government, formed the basis of the Triangular Debate held annually between the old Ohio River rivals, Steubenville, Martins Ferry and Bellaire. The ability and eloquence of the members of our teams were readily shown on the eventful night of March 11. The defenders of this question who remained in Bellaire and brought another victory to our school were David Spriggs, Nathan Perilman, Marie Nally, with Margaret Yocum as alternate. The team that journeyed to Steubenville was not so successful on the final count but it can be seen that no inferior work was done by the fact that all three negative teams lost. Those who made the trip to Steubenville were Charles Pearson, John Beetham, Martha Rodewig, and George Carnahan as alternate. The coach, Miss Helen Mitchell, who has shown much interest in this work deserves much praise for her indispensable services.

The fact that so many Sophomores took an interest in this work is very gratifying, because most of our debaters graduate with the Class of '21.

Junior-Senior Contest

The Junior-Senior Contest, which has been looked forward to with much anticipation, was held on April 26, 1921. This is probably the most enthusiastic of all the contests of the year. The High School Auditorium was appropriately decorated for this occasion, with the colors of the Junior and Senior classes. The contestants had their parts well in hand and were eager to show their ability to fulfill the office for which they had been chosen. The program was well carried out and proved to be very interesting to all.

When the decision of the judges were to be read an intense silence reigned each awaiting the final outcome. The Seniors were the winners. Though the Juniors were defeated they still have one consolation and that is, that they have another chance in which to bring victory to their class.

FOOTBALL TEAM 1920

Football

ON the first day of school Coach "Bill" Galbraith, formerly of Kenyon College, issued the call for football practice. For the first day's practice twenty-five men were issued uniforms. More than that number were turned away on account of lack of equipment. After three weeks' of hard practice the team opened the season with Burgettstown. The team showed the results of the wonderful coaching received for they ran up thirty-four points on Burgettstown. The Coach made numerous substitutes, thereby showing that the team would not suffer this year for lack of subs.

On the following Saturday Bellaire played the heavy Cameron High School team. With several regulars out of the game our boys beat Cameron 26-12. Niemic and Shackelford both turned in a fine game.

Saturday, Oct. 9th, our warriors found East Liverpool an easy opponent, amassing the total of 34 points while the Potters were unable to score. Coach Galbraith realizing the situation used the majority of his second string men during the second half.

On Oct. 16th the team journeyed to Moundsville. The team ran up against their first poor officiating of the season, but, nevertheless, they came out on the long end of 21-0 score.

On the following Saturday the big team from Marietta played Bellaire. A big crowd witnessed the game, which was one of the best ever played in Bellaire. Bellaire snatched the victory in the last few minutes of the play when Niemic intercepted a long forward pass and ran fifty-five yards for a touchdown. He missed goal, but six points was enough to win.

In the afternoon of Nov. 6th Bellaire suffered her first and only defeat of the season, 28-14. The game was played at League Park, with Martins Ferry, and was clean and hard fought throughout. It was witnessed by seven thousand people, the largest number that ever attended a football game in Martins Ferry.

On Nov. 13th the team was scheduled to meet Wellsville High School, but they cancelled, so the manager brought on the Gallipolis team from down the river. This proved to be an easy game and Bellaire came out of the fray with a 27-0 victory. The Coach substituted the entire second team, and by their play it showed that the team next year would not lack class. Uhrichsville cancelled the game for the following Saturday so the team remained idle and went to see Wheeling play Cambridge.

Turkey day came at last and the big game of the year was at hand. This was a battle royal. The Red and Black scored in the second quarter and held the Gold and Blue scoreless the remainder of the game. Niemic, Snively, Shackelford and Shrimp Orin played the best game for Bellaire, but the whole team played wonderful football. To compliment the boys for their wonderful season and for bringing home bacon from Wheeling the third year in succession, Capt. Cutshaver, The Booster's Club, Jim Futhey, and the High School Athletic Association gave the football squad four banquets, which the boys enjoyed immensely.

However, the football season must not be closed until we mention the ability of the seven seniors on the team, Capt. Cutshaver is one of the best tackles in the

19 BELJUAN 22

Ohio Valley and showed it in the Wheeling game. Shackelford is little, but mighty. His specialty is in blocking punts. He was selected as All Valley Guard on every team picked. Shiffler is a good player, and when needed most he usually plays his best game. Snively is a wonderful center. He made many tackles behind the line and intercepted many a forward pass when playing roving center. Shrimp Orin was the brains of our 1920 team. Big Jim Futhey was out plunging fullback and he will be a helpful addition to any college eleven next year. Shorty Carnahan was not a regular, but filled the shoes of Shrimp Orin ably in two of our biggest games. We wish these men were with us next year, but anywhere they go we wish them the best of success.

Mr. Hunter: "Why is silk more expensive than wool?"

Albert Zumpano: "Because it is so much harder to shear the little silk worm than the big sheep."

Miss Palmer, out of breath, rushed into a hardware store and said to a clerk: "A nickel mouse trap, please, and let me have it quickly, as I want to catch the B. & O. train."

Mary Campbell: "A kiss speaks volumes."

Eloise Ault: "Are you collecting a library?"

If you don't like our jokes,
And their dryness makes you groan
Why didn't you stroll around occasionally
With some good ones of your own?

Miss Boswell: "For to-morrow we will have an oral test."

Madeline Gordon: "Are we to write it in pen and ink or with pencil?"

TRACK TEAM

Track Notes for the Year 1920

FOR the first time since 1916 Bellaire was represented by a track team. Coach Gosnell Layman issued the call for candidates early in April. Twenty-five or more reported for practice, each eagerly wanting to display his skill in track and field events. After a month or more of practice in all kinds of inclement weather the fellows were ready for the Ohio Valley Track and Field Meet, which was being held after a lapse of four years. So, on May 8th, the team journeyed to the Fair Grounds to compete in this big event.

Futhey, Carnahan, Elliot, Tiber, Thomas, Parkinson, Bell, Starret, Ault, Favot, Mazella, Snively, Cutshaver, and R. Kilgore comprised the team which was to represent Bellaire. The men who placed for Bellaire are as follows:

Futhey, 1st in 220 yd. dash, 220 low hurdles; 2d in broad jump;
3rd in 100 yd. dash.....	14
Ault, 1st in half-mile and mile races.....	10
R. Kilgore, 2d in pole vault.....	3
Cutshaver, 2d in shot put.....	3
Snively, 2d in discuss throw.....	3
Tiber, 3rd in 220 yd. dash.....	1
Relay team (Parkinson, Elliot, Tiber, Futhey) 1st.....	5
Total.....	39

19 BELLIAN 22

With a total of 39 points Bellaire won the meet after a bitter fight. For winning the meet the boys received a large silver loving cup, of which we are very proud. Each one of the Athletes for winning first place received a gold medal, second place a silver medal; third place a bronze medal.

Much credit must be given to the boys who trained faithfully and to Coach Layman, who taught inexperienced candidates the fine points of track. We sincerely hope that B. H. S. will be represented with a track team in 1921 that will not only repeat last year's performance, but will also keep up this good work from year to year.

ON A VACATION DAY

Rain, rain, go away,
All the school kids want to play;
And since they can't, at home they stay,
And use their 'phones the live long day.
By—A. TILLIE FONE.

Shannon Owens: "If you were in prison what disease would you prefer to have?"

Harry Hunter: "Measles, so I could break out."

Prof. Rose, in Hygiene: "Why must we always keep our homes neat and clean?"
Betty Parker: "Company might walk in any time."

HARD TO EXPLAIN

Typewriter to the pencil said,
"Now, will you tell me, please,
Why, when I have no doors nor locks,
I have so many keys?"
"We do not know," the Pencil said,
"It's queer as quadrupeds,
But can you tell us why we wear
Our rubbers on our heads?"

Miss Verring: "Give principal parts of possum."
Howard Morgan: "Head, legs, and tail."

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

Girls' Basketball Notes

As the time came to take up basketball four Varsity players left from last year were still found with us. Two more regulars were soon chosen and a fairly good team was formed. Even if it did not quite win half of the games it showed pep from start to finish.

Coach McCauley—Coach McCauley had charge of the team this season and she took much pains to develop a strong sextette for B. H. S. She deserves a large amount of credit for the splendid work she did. We hope to find her with us next year, but if she is not we wish her success wherever she goes.

Martha Rodewig, Captain:

"The thrill of a happy voice, the light of a pleasant face."

This was the main inspiration of the girls on the team of '21. It was only Martha's influence that caused the girls to rally at a time which was seemingly a time of defeat and bring to B. H. S. another victory. A smile from her during a game made the girls forget their own feelings and work for the team and school. Her clever guarding was the means of more than one victory, and we must all thank her for what she did in the line of coaching until a regular coach was secured.

Goldie Martin, Guard:

"It is quality, not size that counts."

In this instance our efficient guard possessed both. Many guards on rival teams have found this out when Goldie threw the ball over their heads, or in such a manner that left the opposing guard staring at her. Goldie has worked for the team all year in such a way that every member of the school can be justly proud of her, especially the Juniors.

19 BELLIAN 22

Laura Wallace, Forward:

"I find joy in living and laughing ——— and basketball."

It surely was a real find when Laura was placed on the floor as Forward. Laura possessed the pep and spirit that always puts a team on top. Her brilliant work at shooting baskets was the envy and admiration of all High School pupils, as well as other people interested in basketball.

Lillian Harris, Forward:

"Kindness, sweetness, and merit in her person shine."

Laura's co-worker cannot be praised too much for her work during this season's game. Lillian had the tact and ability to make the ball go thru the basket in such a way that made all spectators sit up and take notice. Lillian is one of the girls in our school who is a friend to everybody; always has a smile on her face and a kind word to any unfortunate classmate or basketball partner. It is with deep regret that we must lose her this year.

Margaret Meek, Center.

"Many a rub serves to keep our honor bright."

Margaret has received many a rub during her work in the various games of this season. Her wonderful jumping and hitting of the ball was one of the main features of every game. We have found out that it would have been impossible to have gone thru this basketball season without her.

Bess Harris, Side Center:

"And I oft have heard defended ——— Little said is soonest mended."

Bess would like for the chance to come when she could see the writer of this old adage, but we fear that all her hopes will be in vain. Although she was the greatest talker on the team she was also one of the strongholds of this year's team throughout the season.

Estella Boyer, Sub:

"If good fortune falls into your pot it is up to you to keep it boiling."

When Stella was fortunate enough to get into a game she showed that she was worthy of being first sub. Her playing showed ability, skill, and brainwork. The team was fortunate in getting this Sophomore to help them out on more than one occasion.

The Subs: Marie Snively, Helena Burkett, Mary Marling, Fannie Masur, Roberta Hoffman, Ella Stewart, and Emily Morgan were the Subs. Much credit is due them for helping to make a strong varsity.

1922 BELLAIRE

Boys' Basketball

THE Basketball Team of 1921, a very clever aggregation, made the best record of any team that ever represented Bellaire High. That is, they won 19 and lost only 5. The team under the able leadership of Captains Snively and Orin improved so rapidly that at the end of the season it was considered one of the best in the Ohio Valley.

Coach Galberach—Coach "Bill" Galberach, a former basketball star at Kenyon, had charge of the team this year. He deserves much credit for developing a winning five out of green material. We sincerely hope we may find him with us next year, but if he is not, we wish him success wherever he may be.

Manager Rose.—This was Mr. Rose's first year at managing basketball. He did his work creditably well. His assistants helped him very much in taking care of the large crowds.

Captain Snively.—This was Mac's last year and he certainly showed his worth in the games he played. His great delight was shooting long shots thru the hoop.

Orin, Forward.—Shrimp is one of our midget forwards. The fans' delight is to watch Shrimp dribble past some big guard and score a field goal. The latter part of the season he was acting as captain and displayed wonderful leadership.

Snider, Forward.—Snitz is the other member of the midget wonders. Snitz delights in snatching the ball away from some opponent who is working hard to get thru the five man defence. He was a wonderful shot on field goals.

Futhey, Center.—Big Jim was always in the game, fighting hard. He improved rapidly during the season and was the choice for Ohio Valley center. Towards the end of the season he showed marked ability in shooting foul baskets. This is Jim's last year to play with B. H. S., and we certainly will miss him.

Niemic, Guard.—Butch was just as good on the Basketball court as on the Football field. He was a great defensive guard, always holding his man to a few field goals; but he made quite a few field goals, always when needed most.

Koehnline, Guard.—Another great defensive guard. He showed much ability in grabbing the ball from the backboard and advancing it up the floor. Although this was his first year on the team, he showed them how to play real basketball.

Harris, Chambers, Mathews, Heil, Dubois, Archibald, Ebeling, Beuter and Bonar were the Scrubs. They deserve much credit for remaining out all season and helping to make such a formidable varsity. In all we must say that 1922 should be a famous year for B. H. S., as there will be such a hearth of material, four varsity men and the best on the various class teams.

The Class of '20

NOTE: We tried to get in touch with every member of last year's class, but have only received the following replies:

Bellaire, Ohio.

Dear Friends:

I am teaching the first, second and third grades of the Riverview school at Riverview. I shall attend Muskingum Summer Normal School this summer.

Sincerely,

LOIS HATHORNE.

Warnock, Ohio

Dear Friends:

At present I am teaching in one of the rural schools of this vicinity and expect to teach again next year.

Respectfully,

DENA FAVOT.

Bellaire, Ohio.

Dear Friends:

This year I have been taking a Normal course under the supervision of the Bellaire Schools and in addition a Teachers' Training Course, under Prof. Morton, of Ohio University. After a course in some good college I expect to become a teacher. "Good Luck" to the Red and Black.

MAEMERY YERIAN.

Bellaire, Ohio.

Dear Friends:

I am now employed as stenographer at the New York Life Insurance Company at Wheeling.

Yours truly,

ELSIE SIMPSON.

Bellaire, Ohio.

Dear High School Friends:

As you probably know, I began a business course at Elliott just after Commencement last year. I finished it at the end of the year and have now been a "stenog" for two whole months. It is certainly interesting work and I like it almost as well as I liked High School work.

Nevertheless, I haven't finished with school work yet. Next year I hope to be enrolled with some of my classmates in college, if I haven't become completely "wedded" to my present position with the Neill Grocery Company.

I wish everyone the best of luck in everything connected with Old B. H. S.

Sincerely,

HAZEL SNYDER.

19 BELLAIRE 22

Dear Friends:

Bellaire, Ohio.

Am very glad to be able to say "Hello" to all my friends in school.
I am attending Elliott Commercial School, Wheeling, W. Va. Have no definite prospects for the future at present.

Sincerely,

FLORENCE STELLERS.

Bellaire, Ohio.

Dear Friends:

Since leaving Bellaire High School I have spent twelve weeks in summer school and eight months as a very dignified (?) "school marm." I have been teaching at Dille, Ohio. I am going back to Muskingum this spring to finish my normal training. I expect to teach for one or two more years and then finish my college work. I still am and always expect to be, a loyal booster for our Dear Old High School. With best wishes for each one of the Class of '20, I remain,

MARY AULT.

Valley City, Ohio.

Dear Friends:

I am teaching fifth and sixth grades in Liverpool Township Centralized Schools. Wishing you all success, I am,

ANNA DELL ARMAN.

Bellaire, Ohio.

Dear Friends:

I am employed in the Electric Shop at Carnegie Steel Mill. I expect to take up Electrical Engineering at college after a few years' experience at Carnegie.

C. PAUL BRAFFORD.

Bellaire, Ohio.

Dear Friends:

I am now employed in the office of the Wheeling Traction Company, and find the work very interesting. Every day I meet members of the Class of '20, and they are all holding good positions

Sincerely,

ELEANOR BRANSTROOP.

Warnock, Ohio.

Dear Friends:

I am working for the Youghiogheny and Ohio Coal Co. at Warnock, Ohio.

Sincerely yours,

DARIO FAVOT.

Granville, Ohio.

To Alumni and Students:

This is my opportunity to "kill several birds with one stone." I would like to have written to each one of you, but owing to the fact that a freshman's life is mostly work and not play, this opportunity was denied.

I am located at Denison University, Granville, Ohio. Have made the freshman football and basketball teams, and have been pledged to Phi Delta Theta, a national fraternity.

In closing may I urge that each of the members of the class of twenty-one attend some college?

Sincerely,

"CHICK" STARRETT.

19 BELLIAN 22

Delaware, Ohio.

Dear Friends:

I am one of that vast number of students striving at the endless task of obtaining knowledge. I am attending Ohio Wesleyan University at present.

I feel confident that I am expressing the sentiments of every member of the Class of 1920 when I say that we follow with interest the work B. H. S. is doing. I assure you that the interests of B. H. S. lies close to the hearts of all her graduates. May her honor and prestige increase as the years roll by, and may her future classes carry on the work of glorifying her name.

Very sincerely yours,

HILDA MINDER.

Denver, Colo.

Dear Friends:

I am at the present time employed at the Denver Rock Drill Manufacturing Company as a recording clerk, with some stenography. It is a growing company and the prospects are very good, and a good company to be affiliated with.

At the time of writing this letter I have been here over five months, and in that time there hasn't been a day that the sun hasn't shown, and off in the distance, the "snow-capped" peaks make a very picturesque scene.

With best wishes to the High School and its Faculty, I am

Very truly yours,

Dear Schoolmates:

I am at present working in the office of F. W. Woolworth & Co. of this city. My prospects for the future are being an old maid and living a life of single blessedness.

Wishing the Class of '20 all success, I remain,

Yours very sincerely,

NELLIE HOLLINGSHEAD.

Bellaire, Ohio.

School Friends and Classmates:

For the past two years I have been working for the R. D. Nicholson Co., Wholesale Jobber, Leather and Shoe Findings, of Bellaire, but since February our firm has moved to 24 Bridge Street, Wheeling.

My work is very interesting and credit is due to the Bellaire High School.

GLADYS ST. CLAIR.

Wilberforce, Ohio.

Dear Friends:

I am now attending Wilberforce University, where I am preparing myself for future life by taking the Teacher's Training Course. I find my work very interesting. It deals mainly with children and the proper discipline of the school room.

Although I like the course I am taking, and am well satisfied with the school, I shall never forget the happy days spent at Bellaire High School.

Sincerely,

ELIZABETH ASHER.

St. Clairsville, Ohio.

Dear School Friends:

I am at present teaching the first and second grades at Wheeling Valley, which is four miles from St. Clairsville. I like teaching very well, for I always loved to work with little children. But I am handicapped by my slow recovery from an operation for appendicitis.

I am planning to teach another year and then expect to do one of two things: take a four-year course in the college of Wooster or enter a hospital to take training as a nurse.

ANNA E. HARBAUGH.

Dear Friends:

Bellaire, Ohio.

I am continuing the study of music. I am studying piano and pipe organ in Wheeling, and have the privilege of using a fine, modern pipe organ six hours a week for practice. I attend the recitals and musical programs as often as possible. I also have some pupils whom I am teaching to play, and am enjoying the work very much.

Yours very sincerely,

EDITH L. GRAHAM.

Dear Schoolmates:

I am now located at Shadyside, employed by Dawson's Pharmacy. Work is that of assistant Pharmacist. Since graduation I have become a member of the Ohio State Pharmaceutical Association and also appointed a member of the Committee on Unofficial Formula. I contemplate completing a Pharmacy course at Pittsburgh College of Pharmacy.

Sincerely, EDNA L. STARRETT.

The quality is remembered long after the price is forgotten

For ladies of mature age, over and under—perfumes, toilet waters, soaps, powders, creams, rouge, lip sticks and all the necessary accessories. For the kiddies, from baby age to "almost a man" or "almost a woman"—soaps, talcums, brushes and combs, toilet waters, cleansers, manicure goods, etc. To the men of shaving age, a fine line of razors, both safety and regular, with blades for all safeties and hones to sharpen the others. Stropps of all kinds, brushes, mugs and soaps. After shaves, too, in powder and liquid form. And for boys, the soap that takes the grime away from play hands, the comb and brush for his own individual use, the equipment to keep his teeth clean and so pretty looking. All toilet needs for everybody at any time.

Building Character

Saving money does not merely mean an accumulation of cash, although this is highly desirable.

It means foresight and efficiency, and is a builder of character.

The key to steady saving is—be a careful spender.

We make it easy for you to save by accepting small deposits—paying four per cent. interest compounded semi-annually.
