To

FLOYD DEACON

For his four years of faithful service as our Principal, this fourteenth issue of the Beljuan is respectfully dedicated by the class of nineteen hundred and twenty-three.

Greetings

WE HAVE finally worked our way or shirked our way, whichever it may be, to the last of the school year. However, there have been no loafing days for the Board; we have burned the "midnight oil" more than once. We ask you to look at our pictures in the front of this volume, (these represent "Before"). Then compare them with our present selves (which represent "After"), and you will realize how thin we are.

As our last request we ask that you will not be too critical with this book.

Before we go to our ancestors from exhaustion due to overwork, we wish to heartily thank the business men of this city for their advertisements, and hope that you will patronize them. We are also very grateful to the many students of this high school whose suggestions and material we have used to such advantage.

THE EDITORS.

BELJUAN BOARD

Necrology

FROM the time that school closed in June last year up to the present time, death has thrice taken its toll from the ranks of Bellaire High School.

It seems that death always selects the brightest and best for all three were in the class of "Leaders."

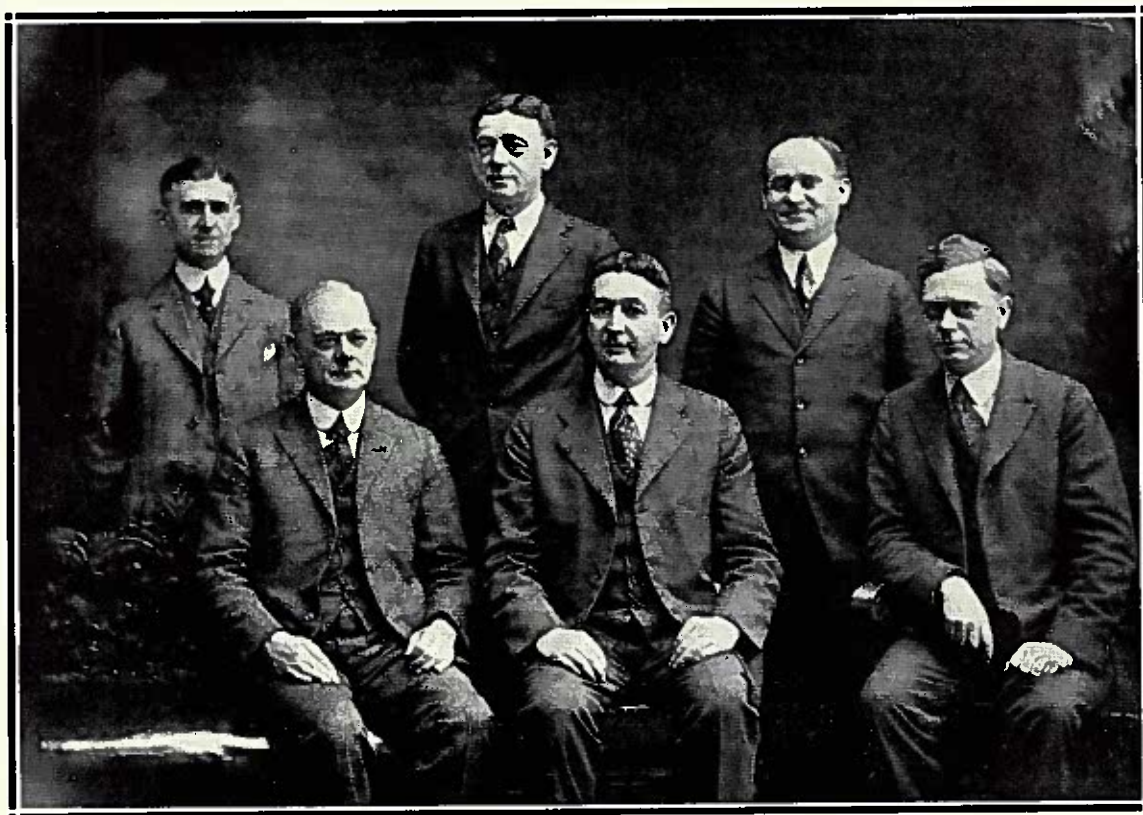

All of us were made very sad this summer by the news of the death of Dora Pearl Anderson, a member of the Sophomore Class. She came to Bellaire from Kirkwood, in 1920 and entered B. H. S. with the class of "1924." This summer she moved to Bridgeport, where she later died.

The whole High School, and especially the Junior Class, was saddened greatly by the deaths of John Pertl and Elva McClain, two of our classmates. Both were leaders in every sense of the word.

We were both shocked and surprised to hear of the death of John Pertl this summer. He was one of the strongest members of our Junior Class, and had been with it since entering High School. Nobody ever saw John without his smile, which cheered up everyone who came in contact with him. On account of his energetic spirit, and his excellent scholarship, we are sure that he would have brought honor and glory to his class.

Everyone mourns the death of Elva McClain who all must admit was an excellent student. She had already made her class proud of her by winning first prize in the Alexander Hamilton essay contest. Elva had the "flu" last year when it made its rounds. This seemed to have so affected her that she died on Sunday, October 23rd. As she struggled so hard to keep up with her school work, and attended school up to within two or three days of her death, we cannot express our feelings in words. Elva had attended the Bellaire Schools all her life, and on this account we miss her even more.

We feel that words can really express nothing, but we extend our heartfelt sympathies to the families of our deceased classmates.

Class Colors

Crimson and Gold

BESSIE VERNICE AMBLER
Latin Club

Bessie is a very quiet and dignified little Senior with a ready smile for everyone. We are proud to have one such as her in the "Class of '22." She is very pleasant and we are sure that she will make a success of her later life.

MABEL ANDERSON

Class Secretary '20; Glee Club '20, '21

One of the shining lights of the "Class of '22." Whenever anyone gets ahead of Mabel in school they sure have to travel. She is very studious and always has her lessons and consequently is one of our Honor Students. We predict a brilliant future for her.

ELOISE FRANCES AULT
"Theda"

Girls Glee Club, Cercle Francaise, Red and Black, Y. W. C. A.

Theda is far-famed for her beautiful eyes and the manner in which she uses them leaves nothing to be desired. In the future we will find her a Home Economist instructor for she is a firm believer in that old adage, "the shortest path to a man's heart, etc." Lucky man!

CHARLES ORVILLE BERRY
"Cob"

Orville is one of those good natured fellows who has a smile for everyone and is a friend to all who know him. He hails from a certain rural district just south of the city. Wit? Say, you have to get up early to get ahead of him! Seriously, though, his present industrious traits assure us that there is no doubt as to his future success.

"Rare compound of frolic and fun;
Relishes a joke and rejoices in a pun."

RAE BURKOVER
"Just Rae"

Hail! this young lady from Pittsburg. Although she has not been with us very long she has proved herself an excellent scholar and we are seeing a brilliant future for her in some office.

"A dark eyed lass from the Smoky City
She's noted in class for being so witty."

JOHN SHERMAN BLON

"Blon"

John a rather quiet, studious and dignified but always has a smile for everyone. He is very energetic and we predict a successful future for him.

GEORGE BRANDSTROOP

"Brandy"

George is a very quiet (?) commercial student. He has a habit of studying and pleasing the teachers by seldom failing to recite. He hates the ladies! Oh! my yes! This good looking lad is liked by all and is sure to succeed in whatever he undertakes.

"A person like George is hard to find. He likes to study, yet he is no grind."

MARY JANET CAMPBELL

Glee Club. Junior-Senior Contest. Y. M. C. A. Cabinet Beljeun Board. Cercle Francais.

"Kind, sweet, lovable, with eyes that's our Mary." Mary is always ready for a good time and consequently is very popular with the boys and "Professors" of B. H. S. She is very accomplished and has a bright future before her, be it in the home or out in the world.

CLYDE CROOK

This jolly chap comes from Riverview, and is quite popular with his classmates. His "Ambish" is to become an expert bookkeeper, in this we wish him every success.

MARTHA E. COX

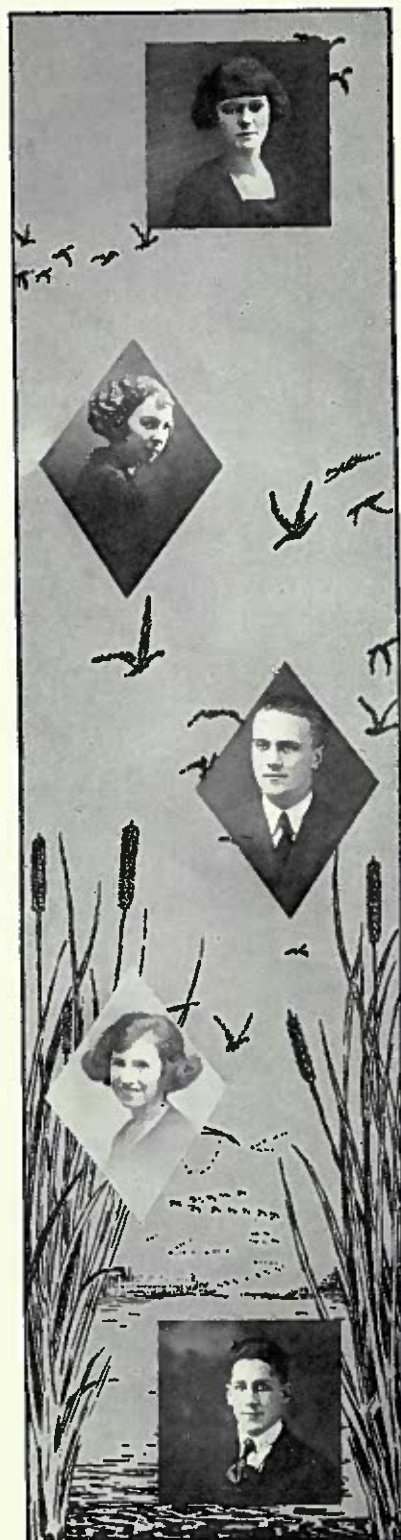

"Coxie"

Y. W. C. A. Sec'y '22
Glee Club '20, '21, '22.
Junior-Senior Contest '21

Martha does not believe in the adage that good things comes in small packages. We don't think so either. She is so full of fun that she simply could not be small. She is full of pep taking life as a song. She is one of the most beloved members of the Commercial Department, but we don't think Bob will allow her to continue along that line of work.

"Sweet personality, full of rascality; That's our Martha Cox."

IRENE CROSS

"Renie"

This fair maiden is one of our best students in shorthand, but she is always trying to make Mr. Rose believe she knows about one-half as much as she really does, therefore, getting in wild arguments with him. But we know she'll succeed in the business world.

"This charming girl has many beaux,
But in her garden of love she excludes the 'Rose'."

LOUISA DILLON

"Lou"

Glee Club, '20, '21, '22. Beljuan Board.
Treasurer of Y. W. C. A. '22.

Louisa is known for her magnificent silence (?) in the school room. She is not the worst, however, and considering everything we find her an enjoyable girl. Her work does not stop in the class room for we feel sure that the "Y. W." could not have had a better little worker. Her life work? Why do you ask that; you should already know!

"And like the wind in summer sighing,
Her voice is sweet and low."

PHILIP EBELING

"Phil" "Flip"

Class President '21, '22.

Student Manager '22. Interscholastic Debate '22. Junior-Senior Contest '21, '22. Counsel Latin Club. Vice President Debating Club. Class Basketball '21, '22.

Philip has been very successful in his school life since he has been with us. As a class president he can't be beaten. He is also one of our Honor Students. He is very popular, especially with the girls. It is certain that he will make a success of whatever he may attempt in future years.

ESTHER FITTON

"Mope"

Junior-Senior Contest '22.

Glee Club '20, '21, '22.

Class Basketball '21.

Esther is quite a famous character about the school. She was the original introducer of the bobbed hair coiffure to B. H. S. But her real notoriety is due to her unswerving loyalty to her class and school. She will do anything to help them. Also she is our claim to fame in high class singing. May she sing and smile her way to success.

JOSEPH MARVIN GETROST

Freshman Class President. Glee Club '19, '20. Beljuan Board. High School Paper. Class Basketball '21, '22.

Marvin is one of our Honor Students. He is very studious and always comes to school well prepared. He is very popular. We predict a great future for him in whatever he may undertake.

SYLVIA MARGARET GIFFIN

A blonde who hails from the country. She never says much but when she does, it has some reasoning back of it. She has made many friends in her high school life and is liked by everyone. We all wish her the best of success in whatever line of work she later pursues.

ELBERT SEVIERE GOSSEYE "Gossy"

Silence is golden.

We never hear "Gossy" say much. May be he thinks a whole lot. He is usually found at McKelvey's or with a crowd of boys. He doesn't mingle with the other sex much, but his time is coming. We predict that he'll be a great pharmacist.

AUDREY HALL

Very quiet and reserved fits Audrey to a "T", though this has no effect on her when it comes to reciting in class as she is always there with the goods and knows how to deliver them. We all wish her much success in the future.

"A clever student, a wonderful mind,
Never is absent, and yet, not a grind."

CHARLES HENRY GRODHAUS

Class Basketball '22.

The gent with the long hair. Don't muss it up girls as he takes great pride in it. Charles thinks school is a place to sleep. In spite of all these faults he is a good scout, always ready for a good time. He certainly is a knockout among the opposite sex.

MARGARET HENTHORNE "Peggie"

Peggie's motto is "never let anyone get ahead of you in bookkeeping," and she surely has lived up to it. It is rumored she intends to obtain further knowledge in some higher institution, and be some one's private secretary.

"To work, means success. Success means work.
I'll do my part and from neither will shirk."

OLIVE HORNE

"Ollie"

Olive is a very good-natured girl and has a smile for everyone. No, she does not believe in overworking her brain by studying. She has a habit of making sea foam and saying "Oh! my heart." Well, it is in danger! She is going to take up dressmaking but from all appearances she will turn to Home Economics.

"Farrings I love, earrings I adore
I'm going down to Woolworth's and get me some more."

EVA HESTON

"Eve"

Another of our quiet commercial Seniors. It is very easy to foretell Eva's future, for if we are correct she will do all the cooking for Walter soon after graduation.

"A modest maiden her praise we sing
We glimpse her future in a diamond ring."

WALTER EDWIN HEIL

"Butch"

Cheer leader '21, '22. Glee Club, '19, '20, '21, '22. Class Basketball, '21, '22.

"Heard before seen."

The above just describes Butch. For all of that a finer sport never lived. Walter certainly is a gloom-killer. His witty sayings have won for him a place with all his classmates. Here's to your success in whatever line of work you later take up.

LOIS ANN HORNE

"Red"

Glee Club '20, '21.

A fun-maker wherever she be. Short and sweet—as many boys will testify. That wonderful hair is what "knocks" 'em cold. Always ready for a good time. She is a favorite with everyone. As far as we know she has no favorite, but you never can tell.

GEORGE HUMPHREY

"Georgie" "Hump"

George is a very dignified and studious (?) Senior and spends most of his time in the typewriting room. George is very speedy stenographer and in the future he will probably take Mr. Albert Tangora's position as champion amateur typist of the world.

"Practice makes perfect."

HILDA FAITH HUMES

Debating Society, Junior-Senior Contest '21, '22, Beljuan Board, Glee Club '20, '21, '22.

Hilda is one who takes part in all literary lines. Tho modest she is a sport. Her pleasant disposition has won for her many friends. At present we do not know what she'll do later, but here's wishing her success.

MARIE HUNTER

"Russell"

Junior-Senior Contest '22, Beljuan Board.

Just the picture of a doll. So modest and nice. Ask "Rus" he knows. Marie believes in having a good time, but always has her lessons. She always wears a smile and is never down-hearted. From indications we predict a happy life for her and ——— well you know.

WILLIAM WEST KING

"Kingie"

A deep thinker but not a loud one. As yet he has not been vamped by the other sex. Usually he is found with a crowd of boys, voicing his opinion. He takes great interest in radio instruments. We perceive a successful future for him along that line.

ELIZABETH KREITER

"Giggles"

There is one thing Elizabeth excels in besides shorthand, and that is—giggling. She has a very promising career, either as a "stenog" for some business man or taking dictation from "Bill" or "Tom."

"An awful lot you haven't got.
But what you've got,
You've got an awful lot."

MORGAN C. KOEHNLINE

"Soapy"

Football '19, '20, '21
Basketball '20, '21, '22
Class Baseball '19, '20
Beljuan Board

An athlete of renown, and a student as well. "Soapy" has never been seen in other than a good humor. He delights in teaching Miss Verring, Virgil. We predict for him a bright future as a business man, but we fear his life will not be spent in solitude. How about it "Soapy?"

CHAUNCEY C. LINARD

"Chaunce"

Glee Club '20

Debating Club '22

Le Cercle Francaise

What Chauncey doesn't know about electricity isn't to be known. Just ask Mr. Babcock. Chauncey is a firm believer of the saying "Seniors for the Sophomores, and Juniors for the Freshmen." Better watch the "B" tho; "Chaunce" or you might get stung.

NEOSHO M. LOGAN

"Shorty" "Shrimp"

Glee Club '20, '21

Class Basketball '19, '20, '21

Y. W. C. A.

Short, it is true, but quite as sweet and dignified as a Senior should be. Neosho's greatest worry is in teaching new teachers to pronounce her name. We hope that that won't cause her to change it tho. Be careful "Louie."

ROBERT LOCKWOOD

"Red"

Red is a handsome strawberry blonde from the Commercial Department. He has a sunny disposition and is a friend of all. Red is a ladies' man and spends much of his time at Thelma's. We predict success for him in the business world.

"Although 'RED' is a strawberry blonde Of the girls he is very fond."

MARGARET LONG

"Peg"

"A maiden fair with golden hair."

Margaret is, without doubt, '22's prettiest member. She is a very quiet young lady having little to say. We do not know what she intends to do, but judging from her popularity with the members of the opposite sex, we fear that her name will not be Long, long.

JAMES R. LONG

"Jimmy"

"Jimmy" is that bashful little Senior with the curling locks, who hails from Shadyside. "Jimmy" never forgets to study and he usually knows what he is talking about in class. He has never been seen with a girl but—"it's hard to tell." "Jimmy" is sure to succeed in whatever he undertakes, and we wish him luck.

DOROTHY LOVEJOY
"Dot"

Dorothy is very quiet but we always know when she is around. She is very industrious but always finds time to enjoy herself. She is a very good stenographer and we think she will make use of it. All her classmates know she will be successful.

SAMUEL D. LUCHS
"Sam" "Sammy"

Glee Club '20, '21

"Sam" is that small boy who completed the High School course in three years. He is really a walking encyclopedia. His brilliancy makes the Freshmen stare in wonder, and the Seniors flee in bewilderment. We wish him the very best of luck.

GOLDIE MARTIN
"Tank"

Girls' Glee Club '20, '21, '22

Basketball '19, '20, '22; Capt. '22

Goldie is one of those jolly care-free girls who is always ready for a good time. Her happy smile won't come off and she is liked equally well by the faculty and students. She is very athletically inclined having played for four years on the basketball team and is one of the best guards in the valley.

Here's to her success in the future

PAUL LUCHESSI
"Bo" "Dashing"

Class Basketball '21, '22

Latin Club

Paul is the Senior with the slick black hair, that is always combed. He can usually be found in the store, or with Charles and "Jimmy." He has not told us what he intends to do, but as he is one of the star students of the class, we are sure that his efforts will be crowned with success.

BESSE MILLIKEN
"Irish"

Class Secretary '22.

If you don't know Besse you are missing a lot. Under her dignified Senior pose she is always ready to see a joke—especially in Shorthand class. Besse is, after all, one of our best commercial students, but I will not predict a very long future for her in the business world because you often hear her speak of (Cecil or Henry?)

"Man wants but little here below.

A woman less ———
But she wants a man."

DELBERT MINDER

"Adriana" "Runt"

Boys' Glee Club '20, '21

This good looking young chap is one of the fun makers in the Commercial Department. He is a ladies' man and his main pastimes are arguing and flirting. It is a frequent sight to see Delbert Oh! so sleepy in the morning, but nevertheless he always has his lessons. We expect to find him in a higher institution of learning and here's to his success.

"Speed is his motto when he is in his car
But in his studying he doesn't get far."

THELMA VIRGINIA MORGAN

"Tess"

Thelma is a coy miss, vampish eyes, 'n'everything. She has a fondness for flirting and then breaking the hearts of the opposite sex. Some day she will not have the heart to break a heart, and then—two hearts will be one.

"My studies worry me an awful lot?
And for the fellows, I care naught (??)"

HOWARD MORGAN

"Porky"

Glee Club '19, '20, '21, '22

"On with the dance let joy be unconfined, for in it I find happiness to relieve my mind."

"Porky" is very quiet until he has an inspiration, and then—oh my!! He has never been known to permit such trifles as girls or lessons to bother him. Howard intends to enter Cornell next year and we are sure that he will succeed.

DORA MAE McFADDEN

"Do-Do"

Dora is of a very happy nature, although she comes to school daily over the B. Z. & C. She is a great talker and suffragist, and is now aspiring for the position of Mayor of Neffs. We wish her success.

"She is studious, she is neat,
She is quiet, she is sweet."

THOMAS McNAMEE

"Tom"

Cercle Francaise

Tom enjoys the distinction of being the originator of marcelled waves for the sterner sex. He is a good-looking, likable chap, and a "terror" with the ladies. We predict for him a brilliant future with Emma.

DeMAR AUSTIN NEAL
"De"

Class Basketball '19, '20, '21, '22.

DeMar is one of the popular boys of B. H. S. He is always ready for a good time and wherever you see him, you see his cheery smile. He is very studious and we are sure that he will make a success of whatever he may undertake.

MARGARET LUCILE NEFF
"Peg"

Margaret is a Titian-haired lassie who hails from the metropolis of Neffs, Ohio. She is a very valuable addition to our class and has many friends. We wish her unlimited success.

SHANNON OWENS
"Izzy"

Glee Club

'Tis a sad state of affairs when two young men meet at the same house again and again. Izzy's recreation hour he seems to believe ought to be when Made-moiselle says he should be "recitant le francaise."

Shannon finds that his work should be in Mechanical Engineering. We all hope him the best of success.

MARGARET JANE PORTER
"Fidget"

Beljuan Board. Glee Club '21.

Margaret is a "wee blue-eyed lass" with a kind word and smile for everyone. She is one of our Commercial stars but she will probably never do much bookkeeping outside of keeping accounts for Allen. May they always balance!

"Her one great ambition in life,
Is to be to Allen, a sweet little wife."

ISAAC WILLIAM PALMER
"Bill"

William is one of our Commercial pupils who is very seldom heard, and has the bad habit of blushing when spoken to by a girl. He is very good in his studies and will some day be one of the most prominent business men of Pipe Creek.

"Studious, quiet, bashful, shy,
We are proud to have him in Bellaire High."

NATHAN PERILMAN

"Nate"

Debating Club, Junior-Senior Contest, Inter-scholastic Debate, Beljuan Board, Red and Black.

The mere fact that "Nate" and "debate" are so closely related provides enough material to fill this book. No matter what be your opinion on a subject hear Nate debate it and you will change your opinion to coincide with his. According to Hoyle, he possesses a "magnetic personality." More power to him!!

PEARSON PUGH

"Show Me"

Pearson is one of those reliable practical people who contribute so much to the success of the world. No one has seen him with the opposite sex, but it is rumored that he is a devoted reader of the "Follies Review!" In spite of his wild (?) ways we expect to find Pearson among the great in years to come.

HELEN GERTRUDE RAMSAY

Cercle Francaise

Helen has many friends, and no enemies, which is quite a distinction in these days. She has a reputation for good fellowship among her class mates. We wish her success in whatever she undertakes.

ANDREW RICHARDS

"Dizzy" "Andy"

Andy always comes to school with a big grin and he looks toward the bright side of everything. He is one of those industrious Seniors—Commercial, yes, he is, rather, a certain—Junior girl says. Well we think "Andy" will find a job with the Traction Company if the busses don't put them out of the running. All success to you "Andy."

SOLON IRA RISLER

"Soap"

Beljuan Board '21. Glee Club '21

Soap hails from Brooks Run and does his traveling principally between 1 A. M. and 3 A. M. It can be truly said that his wit shines at the expense of his memory. He certainly does not let studies interfere with his education.

"This is a fact we all know
He cares not for the ladies,
Oh, no! no!"

CLARENCE CECIL ROBINSON

"Teeter" "Tater"

Football '20, '21. Captain of Football
'21. Track '20.

Cece is an all around man A-1, clear grit and human nature. His name goes down in the annual among those of B. H.
S's best athletes. He is unassuming and "listen girls" bashful.

"His limbs were cast in manly mould
For hardy sports and contests bold."

JAMES ROFF

"Jimmy"

Junior-Senior Contest

Jimmy is one of our studious students (?) but he manages not to study one or two nights a week. We wonder why a smartly dressed Senior waits on the car about () o'clock between 48th and 49th streets. Jimmy plans to be an Engineer of Construction, absorbing said degree from Case. Here's to your success from Class of '22.

ALMA MAE ROSSER

"Pats"

Girls Glee Club. Y. W. C. A.
Cercle Francaise

"Pats" is humor personified and her witty, if sometimes caustic remarks are duly appreciated. "Pats" aspires to be a
French teacher, but you never can tell!
Present indications show that her life will not be spent in solitude.

HOWARD ALBERT SIMPSON

"Simmie"

Howard is a young man who hails from "up back of the brewery." Although he is of a quiet temperament and not much of a ladies' man, he will be heard from again in the higher circles of business.

"And still they looked, and still their wongrew,
That one small head could carry all he knew."

MARTHA SIDDALI

Glee Club. Latin Club.

Martha is very athletically inclined and is somewhat of an acrobat as she demonstrates to the "Training Classes." In school she is very studious and quiet. We all hope her success in her path from High School.

GENE SMITH

W. L. S. Girl's Glee Club,

"I think lots and say little."

This, although Gene has never told us so, seems to be her motto. She is a very likeable person who joined our class in her Sophomore Year from Shadyside. She especially shines in the Physics Lab. We are glad to have her with us and hope that when she has gained the height of her ambition she will be a success.

MARIE SNIVELY

Glee Club '21, '22. Class Basketball '19, '20, '21, '22. Class President '19

Marie is a jolly girl and very likeable. If she pursues her work along the line of stenography she will certainly be successful. This may not be her life work—that is if "Joe" has anything to say about it.

"A bit of a curl, a bit of a smile,
The kind of a girl that is really worth while."

EDYTH SNYDER

"Ede" "Snitz"

Glee Club '20, '21. Class Basketball '22. Junior-Senior Debate '22. Vice President Y. W. C. A. '22.

"Ede" is one of our popular Senior girls. When "Snitz" comes into a class room it's a different room altogether as she manages to put every one in the best humor. We are not sure whether she will build homes or have one built, but chances stand and are more for the latter if that fellow who drives a Buick has anything to say. We all hope her success.

MYRTLE SUTTON

Debating Society

"Le Cercle Francaise"

Myrtle is one of the most loyal supporters of the class of '22. When the opportunity arose, she was always ready to do her part. She too, is a faithful friend and the many friends she has gained in B. H. S. wish her success in whatever work she may pursue.

RUSELL TIBER

"Russ"

Football '20, '21. Track '21, '20. Class Basketball '19, '20, '22.

"Russ" is a mighty fine fellow. Those that don't know him say he is rather quiet, but for full information in regard to his character and favorite places of residence inquire at 41 Harrison street. She knows everything.

"The Latin's say 'mare' when they mean sea;

But Russell prefers to say Marie."

LEOTA THARPE

"Red"

Glee Club '22. Le Cercle Francais
Leota is the prize redhead of the class. Everywhere you go around the building, "Red" can be seen flashing around with her ready smile. She is one of the happiest and friendliest girls in our class. We doubt if "Red" even has one enemy. We can only express our thanks that we have such an optimist in our class, and a friend to everyone.

EDWARD TRISLER

"Mickey"

Football '20, '21, '22. Class Basketball '19, '20, '21, '22.

"Mickey" is a knock-out. That is the way most people remember him because at most every football game, some man on the opposite team worked their energy on him. Thelma will confirm this statement, but not for the same reasons the fans do.

"At football, he is quite a star
And right at home where the ladies are."

HENRY VAUPLE

"Heiny" "Dutch"

"Dutch" is one of our brilliant French stars(?) He takes to athletics, but plays mostly on around town "teams." Usually find him around with "Dizzy," "Kinky" and "DeMar." We all give Henry our best wishes for success.

MARIE WARREN

"Mac"

Although she may seem very quiet to some, that is only to those who do not really know her. You have missed something if you have never heard her laugh. Few have missed seeing that perpetual smile. Marie informs us that she intends to take up "Home Economics" at college next year. We can't imagine why. However, we all join in wishing her success for she deserves it.

"When Marie without her lessons comes to class,

There is not any use for the rest of us trying to pass."

LOUIS WEEKLY

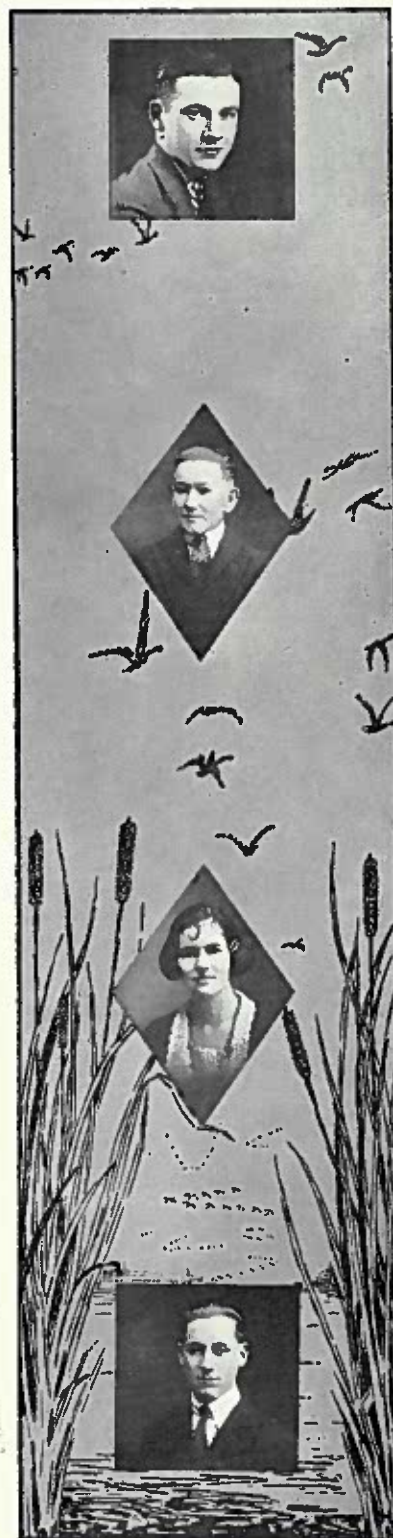

"Louie"

"Pleasure before work" is Louis's motto. He is from Stewartsville so that explains it. He comes from the "sticks" but you would never know it. However, he is a jolly good fellow and liked by all. We understand that a Marinello Shoppe is his heart's desire as he has the art and loves the ladies.

"Pleasure before work, not work before pleasure;

After your pleasure, you can work at your leisure."

GORDON WILSON

"Chow"

His friendliness and good sportsmanship have made him popular with all the fellows and when it comes to the ladies—even Wallace Reid has nothing on "Chow"

"Isn't he stunning!"—That is the cry.
Whenever Gordon passes by

CHARLES WILLIAMS

"Chuck"

Chuck is well liked because of his wit and good nature. He is always happy except when Miss Mansell tells him he is naughty like all the rest of the boys. "Chuck" is very fond of all his studies and will be a very energetic (?) man—some day.

"Charles is small, but his cheery smile,
Makes every foot seem like a mile."

GRACE WIRGHT

Although Grace has just been with us this year we feel as though she always belonged to us. A smile, a kind word for everyone, and her willingness to help a friend in need have gained her many lasting friends. She is going to start out into the world by teaching, but before many years she will be darning socks.

"Ride over all obstacles and win the race,
And always keep a smiling face."

CARL ZASTUDIL

"Whitie" "Peachie"

Carl seems awfully quiet—at times, and we know he isn't thinking of "her." But, by the amount of ability he portrays when it comes to bookkeeping we can readily understand why he can't waste time on anything frivolous.

"Why should I spend my time with a lass,
When I can be at the head of the book-keeping class?"

WILL

Last Will and Testament

WE, THE Seniors of Bellaire High School knowing that our High School life is about to come to a happy end, being sound in mind and body, do leave this last will and testament for the disposition of our possessions:

We bequeath:—

1. To the faculty our lasting remembrance of their toil and labor in making us useful men and women.
2. To Mr. Deacon, a gallon of gas for the "flivver."
3. To Mr. Rose, a bottle of "Lily of the Valley" perfume so that he may have a remembrance of a certain Lily with him always.
4. To Miss Price, a diamond ring—her greatest wish.
5. To Misses Bauer, Luchs, and Verring we leave the right to a speedy change of names.
6. To Misses Hoyle and Reinicke, the right to keep their maidenly youth and beauty.
7. To the Junior Class, we give our haughtiness, dignity and refinement.
8. To the Sophomores, our sister class, we give our best wishes for a glorious success in the next Junior-Senior Contest.
9. To the Freshmen, we give a cake of Sapolio, to brighten up their brass.
10. To the Athletic Department, and "would be" athletes we leave the grit and skill of such warriors as Koehnline, Orin, Trisler, Robinson and Harris.
11. To the School as a whole, we leave our wisdom and folly. May they keep and cherish it.
12. To the Glee Club, we leave the right to produce imitations of Fitton, Campbell, Owens, Risler and Heil.
13. To the Literary Department, we leave the oratorical skill and logic of Humes, Ebeling, and Perilman.
14. To the world, we leave the right to have hopes for as bright a class of students.
15. To the Citizens of Bellaire, we leave the confidence that B. H. S. is the best factory of good, clean, citizens in the United States.

BELLAIRE

16. To everybody, we leave good will, best wishes, and hopes for success and happiness in return for which we ask an appreciation for our trials and tribulations during these four years and a lasting remembrance for the good old class of '22, which waxed rich in wisdom and experience and died a natural death to go to a greater task in life.

THE CLASS OF TWENTY-TWO

Sworn before me on the 29th day of May, in the presence of the following witnesses: Philip Ebeling, Russel Tiber, Bess Milliken.

(SEAL)

NATHAN PERILMAN, Notary.

Senior Song

Tune: "Leave Me With a Smile."

1st Verse.

Now we are leaving our dear old Bellaire High,
Our hearts are grieving as days go hastening by,
While we are thinking of times that used to be,
Of the years of school days, a pleasant memory.

Chorus

Now it's time for parting
And our futures starting
School day's almost thru
Tho' our hearts must sigh and
We must say good bye
Old Bellaire High, to you
Maybe its forever
And while we're together
Skies are always blue
Let us rise to cheer her
Always we'll endear her
High School twenty-two!

2nd Verse

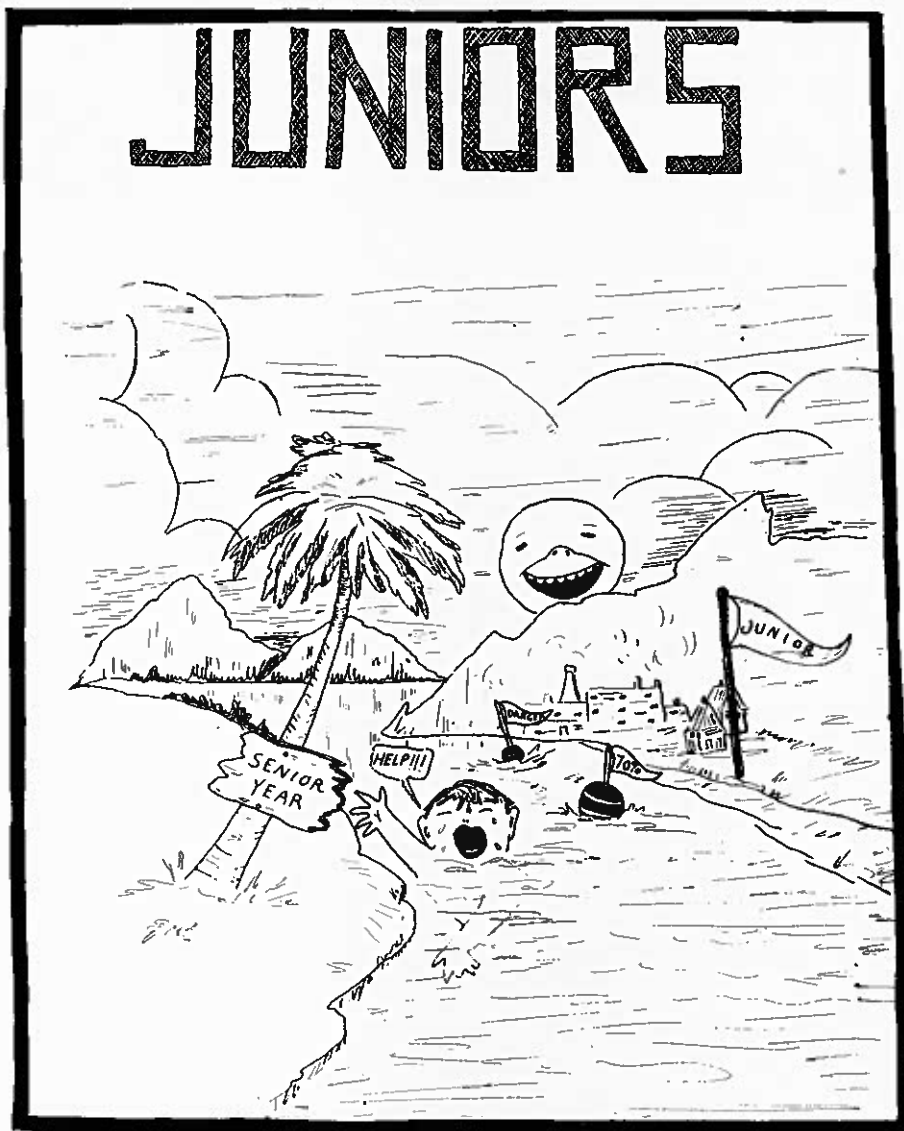

We all must enter the world of men today,
Hearts staunch and sturdy we must pursue our way,
We'll keep our mem'ries of you the long years through
And in our deeds and actions to Bellaire High be true.

Chorus

MARY CAMPBELL,

Junior Class History

ON THE second day of September, 1919, a class of about one hundred and seventy-five Freshmen entered Bellaire High School. At an early date the importance of the class of '23 was recognized. During the first year of High School life we contributed to many of its activities, such as the Boys' Glee Club, the Orchestra, Football and Basketball. We held our own in the High School Tournament.

Shortly after Christmas vacation the Freshies met to organize. They conferred upon George Tyler the honor of being their first president. Edgar Keyser was chosen vice-president and Charles H. Henderson became secretary-treasurer. A little later the "green" Freshmen surprised everyone by disregarding the slur upon their name and electing to sail through High School under the colors of green and white.

One hundred and thirty-seven of our number began the Sophomore year. When the Glee Clubs were organized many larks were found among our girls while several of the boys also discovered their voices. The Orchestra was not forgotten. The Sophomore Class of '23 was a great addition to the music department.

A Sophomore played on the Football Team and many of them were on the squad. A Sophomore held the position of first sub on the Girl's Basketball Team. We also furnished scrubs for the Boy's Team.

When it came time for the Inter-scholastic Debate two members of our class showed their ability as debators and made the squad. Several others of the class tried out but were not successful.

In April the Sophomores had their first party. A large crowd attended and the affair served as a "get acquainted" meeting.

In the annual Basketball Tournament the Sophomores of '23 were proclaimed the champions of the School. And now we have arrived at the third stage of our journey with one hundred and twenty-six of our original members still on the job. We are the Juniors of B. H. S. '23.

The Juniors have a full representation in the Glee Clubs and the Orchestra. We are not at all one-sided in our activities. When the Inter-scholastic Debate Squad was picked the judges chose six Juniors of the eight debaters on the team.

When the new Y. W. was started the Junior Class stepped forward with a president, who has so ably fulfilled the duties of this office that she is to have it for another year. Some of the other officers of the Y. W. are also Juniors.

And then there's the Junior-Senior Contest. Everyone remembers that, especially the Seniors. Of course we are sorry for them that they must leave B. H. S. without at least one victory of this sort to gladden their hearts. But they procrastinated too long. They should have won last year. The Class of '23 is unanimous in extending congratulations to its representatives in this great event.

Last but not least we come to this Beljuan. The Board was elected early in the year. They have been on the job without any trouble since they began and we may hope that their efforts will be appreciated.

There are all indications that the Class of '23 will graduate more than one hundred members. With this as our goal let us strive to make our class the biggest and best that has ever gone through Bellaire High School.

NELLIE GIFFIN.

Mr. Rose, in class: "What have I in my hand?"

Lillian Hammond: "A tin can."

Mr. Rose: "Very true, is it an animated or inanimate object?"

Pearson Pugh: "Inanimate."

Mr. Rose: "Exactly, how can I generate a surprising amount of speed and power almost beyond control?"

Jigs Weekly: "Tie it to a dog's tail."

George Sherry: "I had a job yesterday advertising a fire sale at Arnold's drug store."

Wendle Harris: "Did you make it a success?"

George: "Sure, I yelled 'fire' as loud as I could and 'sale' in a whisper and I soon had a great crowd."

Henry Vople: "We had not been hunting long when there lay a rabbit dead at our feet."

A. Margaret Long: "What did it die of?"

Mr. Crow: "Robert would you mind driving a little slower?"

Bob Crow: "Father, surely you're not afraid."

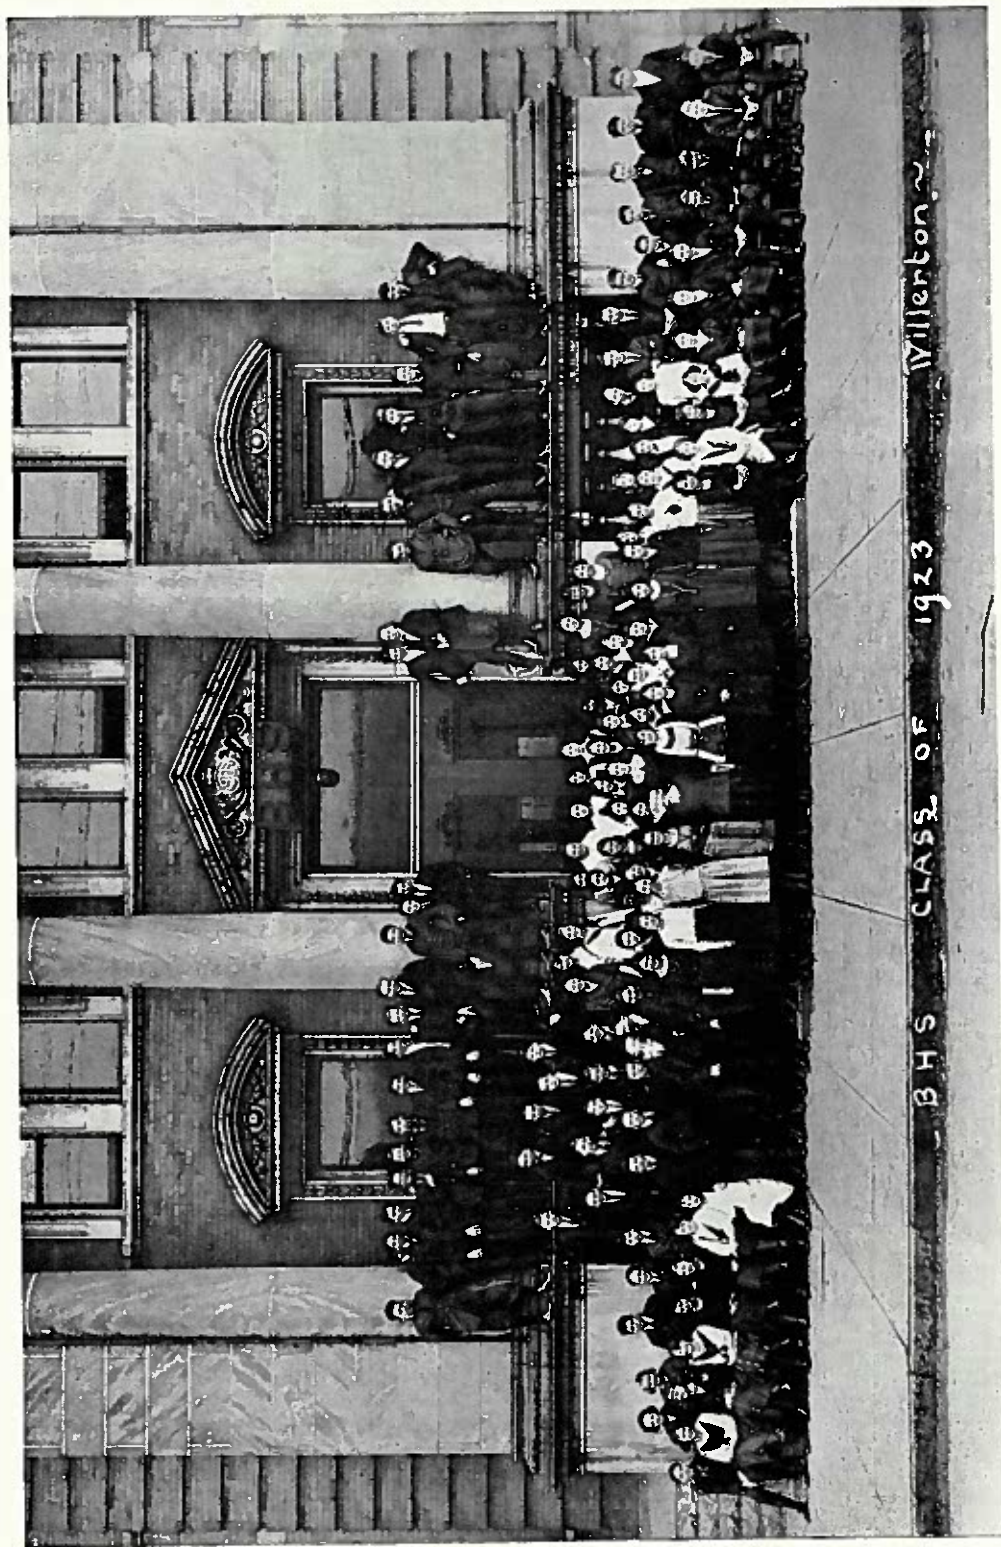

Mr. Crow: "No, not that, but I would hate to take advantage of my life insurance company."

Cecil Robinson at the telephone: "Send assistance at once. I've turned turtle."

Dave Dankworth: "My dear sir, this is a garage. What you want is an aquarium."

Sollen Risler, shoe dealer, was hiring a new clerk: "Suppose, he said, a lady remarked, while you were trying to fit her. 'Don't you think one of my feet is larger than the other?' what would you say?"

"On the contrary, one is smaller than the other," replied Bob Russel. And he got the job.

BELLAIRE

Junior Class Prophecy

June 1, 1930.—Dear Diary, at last I have attained my desire of becoming a Chautauqua Platform Reader. After leaving Bellaire the year after I graduated I have heard very little about my classmates. I have, therefore, decided to tell you about any I should happen to meet while traveling about. I have been admitted into the Redpath Chautauqua and am going to talk to the manager.

June 2.—My goodness, I'm meeting them already. Just guess, when I went over to the Redpath office, who should come in but Natalie Thomas now Carnahan. She told me she and William Carnahan have been traveling in Chautauqua for two years. What was a greater surprise though was that the manager was none other than Maurice Favish. I am to travel with two violinists, one soprano and a pianist, all of whom are strangers to me.

June 10.—I've been getting acquainted with the town and have met quite a few more friends. George Sherry is a very prominent doctor in Columbus, in fact he has the largest practice of any physician here. Ella Stewart is Mayor and her term which is soon to expire, I hear is to be renewed again. This city has prospered very much under the wonderful guidance of Ella and her right hand women, Nellie Giffin and Kathryn Grafton. Bellaire people evidently like Columbus.

June 13.—Well, we are to have our first performance tonight. We arrived here (Dayton) at noon. I was tired but I decided to see the town and perhaps find something to tell you, dear diary. I certainly did find some things, surprises too.

I was walking along, worrying about what the evening would bring forth and not watching where I was going when who should I run right into but George Tyler. He was ready to pass on when I spoke and called him by name. He was surprised to see me, of course, and asked me to have lunch with him. Imagine! I had already had my lunch but I went with him anyhow. He told me he and John Beetham were very bitter rival lawyers, but that neither one could "get anything" on the other. Of course, we got to talking about our classmates and he told me Wayne Greenlee was a very rich man of Dayton, owning a branch of garages which handled only the Rolls-Royce and Pierce Arrow cars. Wayne has been married for three years to Lillian Hammond. Of course, when George told me that I asked him if he was married and he said, "Well, not just exactly." You can imagine how he said it. The lucky girl is none other than Elizabeth Heath. I had to leave George then and go hunt a beauty shop to have my hair dressed. He directed me to one and I could readily see he had something up his sleeve. I was prepared for almost anything when I entered the attractive place, but was very much surprised to find Mary Marling and Leonoir Pomeroy as proprietors. I asked about Snitz and Shrimp and was grieved to learn that both had married other girls and Mary and Leonoir were preparing to run their beauty shop and be old maids. Their hearts were broken, how I pity them.

BELLEVILLE

June 14.—The performance was a success. I'm off for Duluth, Minnesota.

June 18.—Things went off "great" at Duluth and we are headed for Phoenix, Arizona. In Duluth I met several people whom I knew. After the grand finale I was about to leave the room when I heard some one call and who should come hurrying up but Fern Strasser, dragging two little ones by the hands and last of all Joseph Poorman. Poor Joe surely did look hen-pecked. Fern has become quite a poet and Joe is in the printing business, just like his father. The next day while I was sitting in the park resting from a long walk along came a young girl who looked quite familiar to me. She was wheeling a baby buggy and had two other children walking beside her. When she drew near I recognized Altha Allcorn. I stopped her and she seemed quite glad to see me. She told me she was nurse to Galberach's children. I always knew Altha would get in that family some way but I never dreamed of this.

June 25.—I've been pretty busy and haven't had time to write in this, but I sure have been traveling some. In Phoenix, Arizona, Wiley Noice and his wife, formerly Margaret Gordon, run a hotel. It is a very large and flourishing establishment because of the many travelers who come to see the Grand Canyon. She told me Sonora Schramm and John Brady had come there on their honeymoon. John must have come into a fortune. They were going to live in Cleveland. From Phoenix, we went to Frisco, California. There I found that Darrel Turner had the largest orange groves in that section of the country. While talking to him he said all of his successes were due to his wife, who had been Helen Talbot, and had kept him from getting discouraged. Rah! for Helen! Vera White is a High School teacher here, but Helen told me that Vera was soon to be married to a rich young man of Frisco and that they were going to Europe for their honeymoon. Helen also said that Elizabeth McClain, who is the last of the "S. O. M.'s" is a true scientific farmer. I knew Elizabeth had always had that desire and I was glad to hear of her wonderful success. I picked up a magazine only the other day and read of a great discovery she had made which will be of wonderful value to the modern farmers. I visited Hollywood while in California and found only one of my friends. I have lost all interest in movies lately and so had not learned of my friend Thurma Kinsey's entrance. Those wonderful eyes of hers have ranked her as a second Nazimova. I'm on my way to Cleveland where I expect to meet more friends.

July 2.—Cleveland sure is some place and I have found it to be quite interesting since I have met so many people I know. I was badly in need of some gowns; so going into an attractive French shop met with a great surprise. Here came the graceful familiar figure of Dorothy McDonald toward me. She is a regular French mademoiselle. She began to talk over olden times and I learned many things concerning Wilbur Armstrong as Mayor of Cleveland. That's two mayors out of the Class of '23. Truman Garret also lives here and is Coach of a great college team. Dorothy says he surely is proud of his boys. Myers Creamer is a minister of an Evangelical Church and with the help of his wife, formerly Faye Gordon, is accomplishing wonders.

BELLAN

July 10.—Yes, diary, I have neglected you terribly but I have found very little to tell you. I have been to several small towns but I have not met one of my classmates. We are leaving Washington, D. C. tomorrow for Wheeling, W. Va. While I am there I intend to visit Bellaire and see whom I can find. We arrived here (Washington) yesterday. I've been exploring the city and have met with quite a few surprises. I met Emma Stewart while walking around the town. She is a Social Worker among the poor and needy. She asked me to accompany her to several poor communities. We went in her car and left several baskets and money for the families. I can readily see that Emma is doing wonders in this town and know that she is being blessed by everyone for the things she has accomplished. She told me Edgar Keyser was Judge in the Supreme Court and that Cora Wagner was a member of Congress and had much influence.

August 15.—I've been in Bellaire for a few days visiting old friends, but have found very few of them. Most of them have left to seek their fortune elsewhere. However, John Fowler is Superintendent of the Public Schools and Dalace Watson is principal of the High School. I also found Mildred Hudson to be Mayor of Bellaire. Charles Henderson is the Chief of Police.

August 19.—Well, here we are at our last stopping place this year. I have found more of my friends have come to the Metropolis and found success than in any other city. Inez McClain has become a prima donna and is noted all over the world for her marvelous voice. John J. Reitz is editor of the New York Herald and has made it more famous than ever. I found that Mary Bott lived in New York and so I went to see her. She lives in a wonderful mansion and was going to give a ball for Gladys Archibald this evening but I declined her invitation. She told me Estella Boyer is the Governor of New York and also that Norman Cartwright is the Chief Surgeon in the city. Emma McGraw is the head nurse at the hospital but is soon to become Mrs. Cartwright. I always knew the Class of '23 was an exception, and I assure you there is no doubt in my mind that there will never be any like it.

IRENE LONG, '23.

Mis Reinicke: "What is it that binds us together and makes us better than we are by nature?"

Hazel Gansler: "Corsets!"

Speaker James Bonar: "I'm a practical farmer, mention if you can, one thing I can't do on a farm?"

George Meek: "Ken you lay an egg?"

Some beauty is only rouge deep.

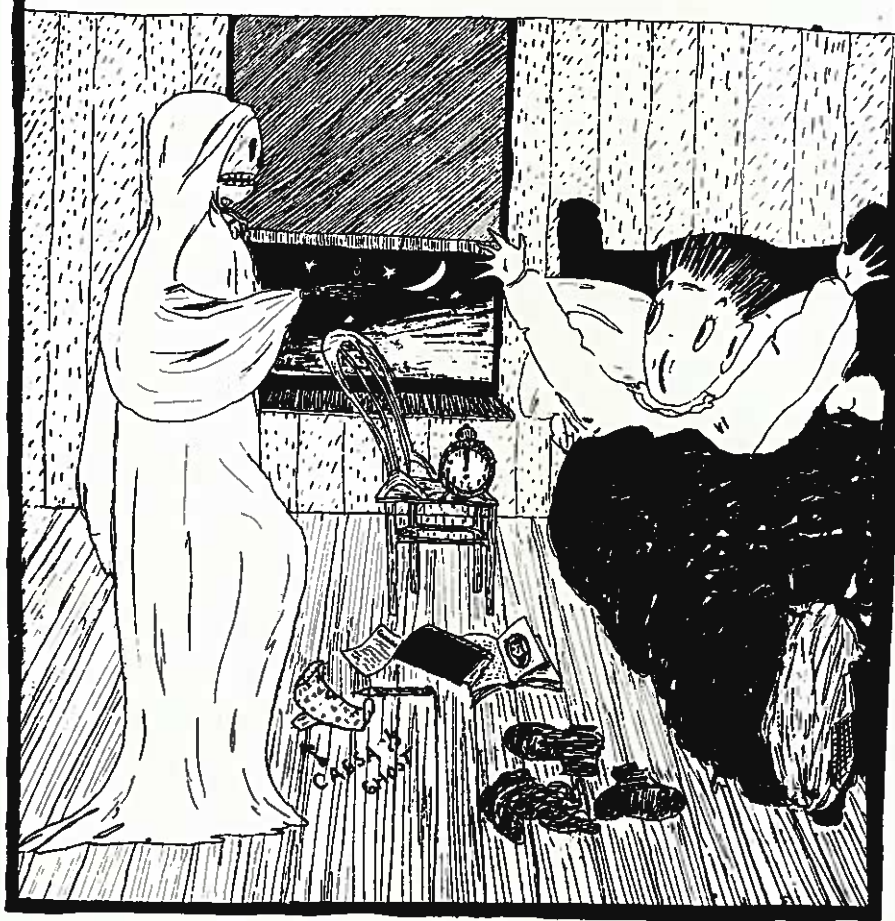

Consider the little pin, it's flat head never sees the point.

Park Mozena: "Do you save men and women?"

Life Guard, John Brice: "Certainly."

Park: "Well, save me a couple of good looking girls for Wednesday night."

Coon Hunting on Captina

IT WAS along the first of November and coon hunting season was drawing to a close. A sudden cold snap which lasted for four days, had driven the coons to their dens and ledges. Then slowly the temperature began to rise. The following morning was bright and clear, with a warm breeze blowing steadily from the south, and by night it was ideal coon hunting weather.

The town clock was striking five when we hit the trail for Captina, but the Paige ate up the twenty odd miles in short order. Brother Bill sat on the front seat with me and Joe and Ed sat on the back seat with the dogs. Sport and Brownie, who had their heads out over the door trying hard to sniff the breeze. Their eyes were almost shut and their ears a-flopping.

After a while we pulled up to Charlie Wilson's farm at the head of Captina. Shortly the lanterns were made ready and we headed for the brook. We were hardly across the meadow below the house when, over to the right near a mud hole, Sport gave tongue, with a long, clear bay that echoed from hill to hill, then shorter and faster. Suddenly Brownie joined in and away they went toward the brook, on a red hot trail. Across the swamp and over the ridge they were going and all of us after them. It was some hike up that ridge, blackberry briars, spoon-wood and brush tearing at our clothes, but there was no stopping with such music in the air ahead of us.

Bill was first to reach the top, with the writer a close second. He was puffing some, but Gee Whiz! I couldn't puff: I could just wheeze. One by one the rest came up, and down around the valley, Sport and Brownie were barking terrorfully as they had treed a coon, and no mistake. After a few minutes fair walking we reached the tree, an open laden chestnut that had braved the winds and storms of nearly a hundred years, judging by its size. Up among its top branches sat four big coons.

I put on the hooks and was soon up among the branches, within shooting distance. Then, as the 32-30 Colt began to speak, down they came one at a time, and just as fast as they landed, Sport had them by the throat. The boys had to choke them off from every one. Brownie being a younger dog, was grabbing here, there and everywhere. When I reached the ground they had all four coons tied up and we were ready to start again. We lost no time in following and in a few minutes the dogs had one in a tall hemlock on the steep bank of the brook, and it wasn't long before I was among the branches looking for Mr. Ringtail, when all of a sudden, Ringtail sailed out of the very top of the tree and landed with a loud thump down the bank next the brook. Sport heard him land and in about three seconds both dogs were in full cry down the brook. Well that music had any jazzy fox trot you ever heard stopped forty ways. We surely made some quick steps in the direction of the dogs, for they had treed in a big oak on the bank of the brook. I climbed the tree. There in the crotch of the big limbs I could just see the coon's ears. The first shot made him sit up and take notice, and the second shot rolled him out and down. Another throat hold by Sport and it was all over for that coon which weighed twenty-one pounds. After picking up the five coons, to our surprise it was 3:30 A. M., so we decided to call it a night.

We rolled in Stewartsville about 6:35 and upon weighing the five coons found that they tipped the scales at seventy-six pounds. Later they were admired by many sportsmen that cold November morning, and all thought it would be much colder when they again saw five as good coons caught in a one night's hunt, in any locality, or ahead of any dogs.

NELSON JEFFERS, '25.

Demar Neal: "Already, now, run up the curtain."

Bill Dean: "Say what do you think I am, a squirrel."

Carl Franke: "Say, there, why don't you watch out where you are going?"

Martha Cox: "Why, do you want me to make a noise like an auto?"

Carl: "You're no auto, but you're some runabout."

Joseph Seabrooks: "Ralph, what is the difference between a bicycle and a head of cabbage?"

Ralph Davis: "You have got me."

Joseph: "You would be a nice one to send to the store after a head of cabbage."

Charles Grodhouse: "Too bad about Paul."

Minnie Wily: "Paul who?"

Charles: Theda Bara's brother, Paul Bara."

Walter Heil: "Well, after all, what would the world be without women?"

Charles Maloney: "Sort of stag-nation you might call it."

Mr. Babcock: "What is ordinarily used as a conductor of electricity?"

Shannon Owens: "Why er-r."

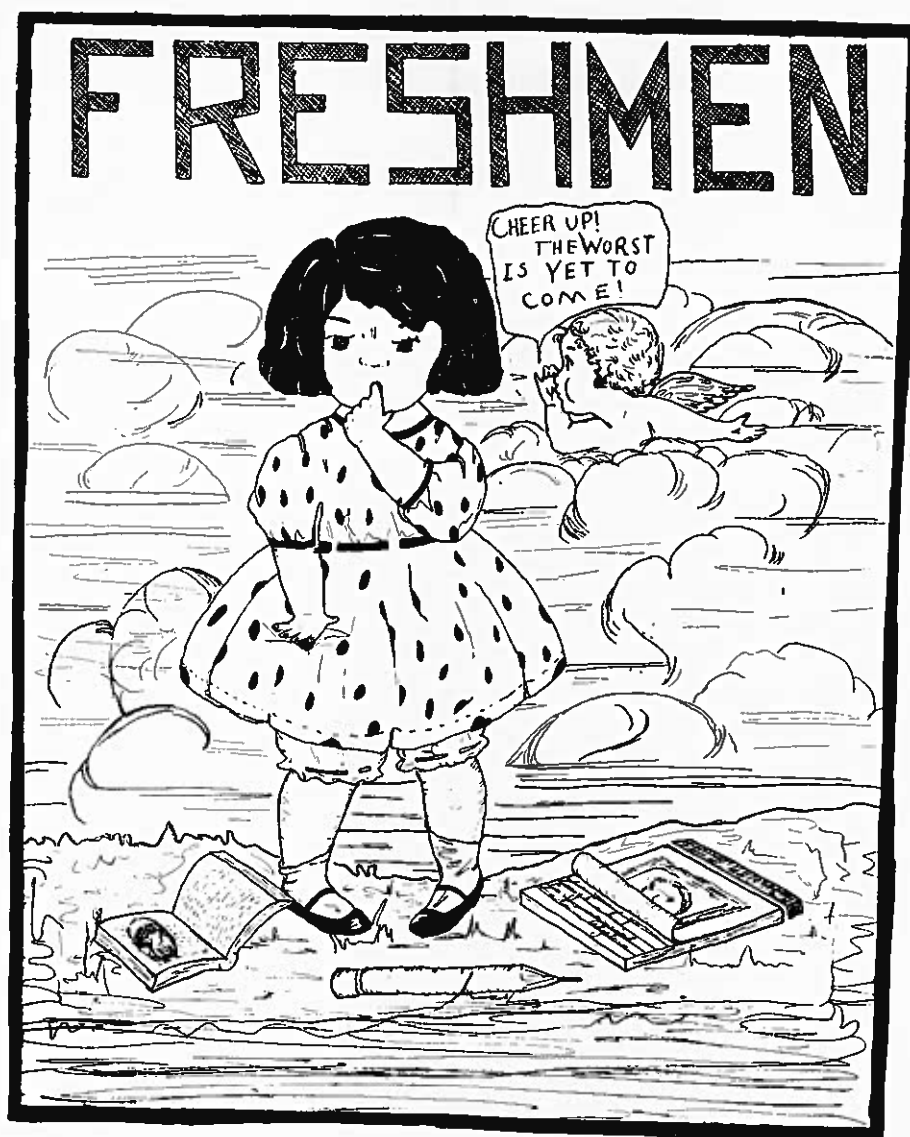

Mr. Babcock: "Correct. Now tell me what is the unit of electricity power?"

Shannon: "The what, sir?"

Mr. Babcock: "That will do, very good."

Captain Edward Glasser: "Ahoy there, let go the anchor."

Green Sailor David Reed: "I ain't never touched it yet."

Freshmen Class History

IT WAS a sunny morning in September in the year of nineteen hundred and twenty-one. The High School was awakened from its long sleep by the hum of human voices.

The higher classes seemed to be composed but the Freshmen were all in a tremble. Some had never been in the school before and their actions seemed to imply that this was their day of doom.

They were sent to the Assembly hall and the principal called forth the names of the various pupils and the classroom to which they were to go.

After they arrived at the classroom to which they were sent there became an animated discussion as to the kind of person the principal was. Some seemed to like him. Others were a little afraid of him, while some declared him to be no less than an ogre.

In the afternoon the Freshmen played the usual plan of getting lost. They were running around as if they were wild. Some (girls) were almost in tears. If a teacher laughed at them they put that teacher down as being mean.

About four o'clock they were let out and I must confess they all felt some relief. The next days' routine was about the same and also the third day, but at the end of the week most of the so said Freshmen were very confident of themselves.

Not long after this the Freshmen chorus was organized by the singing teacher, Miss Carmichael. It seemed to thrive for awhile and it was used at the Teacher's Convention.

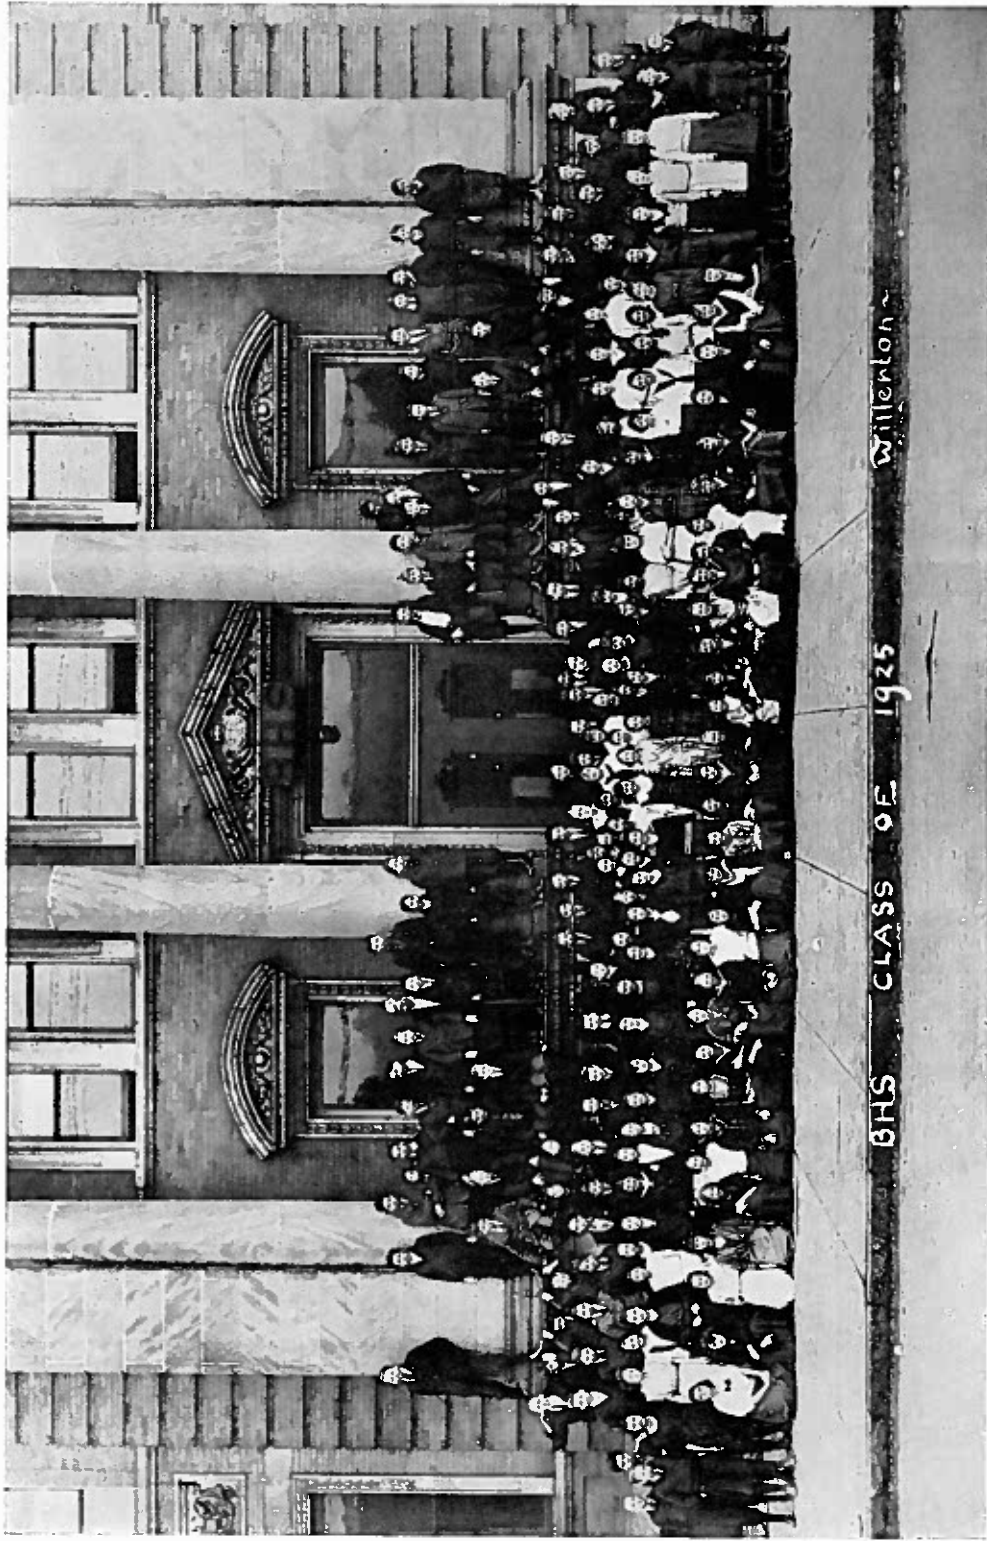

Then things went on smoothly until examination time came, and many pupils found that they would have to study hard if they expected to get out of the next examinations.

Soon after this the class officers were elected which resulted in all boys holding office. They were sure that they weren't going to give the girls a ghost of a chance.

There was nothing of much note after this until the Glee Club gave their operetta and some of the Freshman boys were in this.

After the operetta work forged ahead and the Freshman went on hoping that the day would come when they would no longer be only Freshmen.

Three Belles

Two of a kind

The purpose of this Association shall be to interest all girls in Bellaire High School to become better Christian citizens; to serve humanity at home and abroad to the best of their ability; to maintain high ideals in school life and personal living; to obey the laws of health; and to promote the ideas of democracy, sisterhood and fellowship among all the girls of our school.

With this purpose in mind the Y. W. has steadily progressed until we feel that in the future great things will be accomplished by this worthy organization.

This year was rather a trying one due to the fact that the organization was just being introduced into our high school. We have been very fortunate in having had several of the most efficient members of the faculty to direct us. The citizens of Bellaire too have helped by expressing their admiration for us, because Bellaire has been sadly in need of a Y. W. for many years.

The cabinet and the numerous committees with the cooperation of all the girls, at Christmas and Thanksgiving, distributed among the poor and needy in the city, baskets and toys, which were liberally donated.

Many instructive meetings have been held such as the Recognition Service, Health Meeting, a Trip Around the World, the purpose being to inform the girls what things can be accomplished as a branch of the National Organization.

Mixed with all these interesting meetings, we have had some fine times at social affairs. Lets all boost the "Y. W. C. A." so that in the coming years it will be one big success.

Evading One's Duty

IN OLDEN days when the ox was used as a working animal on the farm the following incident is told:

It was plowing time, and this particular ox thought that he was being abused and overworked, so he formed a plan by which he could get even with his master.

One morning while waiting with his companions for the farmer to come, he said: "Listen, I don't feel like working today and I am going to pretend that I'm sick." When the farmer came he found the ox lying on the floor of his stall, breathing heavily in a very weary attitude.

The farmer noticed this, harnessed the other ox and took him out to the field where he worked till evening. The first ox remained idle the whole day long, rejoicing in himself for having so easily fooled the farmer.

In the evening the second ox returned, very tired indeed for having done the work of two. The ox asked, "Has the master said anything about me?" "No," answered his companion, "I didn't hear anything." The next morning the ox said to his companion, "I'm thinking of doing the same thing today. It's better to stay here all day long than to go out in the field and work."

His companion again had to work by himself the whole day long.

On his return in the evening the ox again asked, "Has the master said anything about me?" No," answered his companion, "however this evening while coming back from the field I noticed that our master talked for a long while with the butcher." This simple news was enough to work a veritable miracle.

The following morning the ox was wide awake and very alert. When his master entered the barn he tried his best to show that he wanted to be harnessed for the work of the fields.

This simple story is applicable to a great majority of us.

Every person who practices idleness and habitually makes up falsehood for the purpose of escaping duty, may think that life easier. This may lead you to a place where sincerity and happiness are destroyed. It invariably happens that like the ox they who are doing this are running the risk of perishing in the attempt of evading their duty.

The Debating Club

THE Debating Club is now a permanent fixture in Bellaire High School. It was reorganized quite early this year, and started off with about forty members.

At the first meeting held there was, as a matter of course, the election of officers. Hilda Humes was honored with the presidency, while Philip Ebeling was made vice-president and John Beetham, secretary-treasurer.

The president entered into her duties at once, by appointing Program and Constitution Committees. A Constitution was drawn up and passed upon, and during the year many excellent programs were given, of which the Christmas program and the two Mock Trials, for divorce and murder, were pronounced the best.

The drain on the membership caused by the Junior-Senior Contest and the Interscholastic Debate was great, since so many members participated. As a result, despite the loyal support of the Faculty, the Debate Club began to wane.

Nevertheless there is no doubt that it will loom even larger than ever next year.

"LE CERCLE FRANCAIS"

"LE CERCLE Francais" first came to light at the beginning of the second semester. Forty-four students expressed their desire to learn to "parlez francais beaucoup" by becoming members. Under the capable and efficient instruction of the "professeur" Miss Weinstock. Meetings are held every other Thursday evening.

"Les officiers" are: President, Hilda Humes; vice-president, Vera White; members du cometes fetes, Esther Fitton, Eloise Ault, Alma Rosser, Nellie Giffen.

The club has gained considerable note and we hope it will continue to do so; that it will help to add a greater wealth of knowledge and a greater appreciation of the French language to B. H. S.

THE ROMAN SENATE

THIS year marks the birth of the Latin Club, called the Roman Senate, in our High School. It has been made a possibility and success only through the efforts of Miss Verring of the Latin Department who is now Dictator of the Senate. Meetings are held every two weeks on Wednesday afternoon after school at which time programs consisting of Roman life and Mythology are given. A social meeting is held once a month at the homes of the Equites. All students of Virgil and Cicero are eligible for membership. At present there are thirty-five members all of whom are enthusiastic workers in the Senate. The success with which the Senate has met this year makes it almost certain of a permanent place in high school activities.

Junior-Senior Contest

On Friday night, January 21, 1922, the most enthusiastic Junior-Senior Contest for years was held in the high school auditorium. The program of the evening opened by a selection by the High School Orchestra. This was followed by an essay, "The House Not Made With Hands," delivered by Miss Marie Hunter (Senior). The essay for the Juniors was delivered by Miss Lillian Hammond. The title of her essay was "The Realization of the Impossible." Then an excellent vocal solo, "As High As the Stars, As Deep As the Sea," was rendered by Norman Cartwright. Next the platform was taken by a Junior, Dorothy McDonald, who gave an oration, "It Must Not Happen Again." This was followed by an oration from the Senior side, entitled, "Skyscrapers and Pyramids," given by Miss Hilda Humes. A little variation of the program was given by the Boys' Glee Club, who sang "Joy and Courage," which the following speakers afterward declared they needed. After this the debate was staged. Rev. Parce took the platform as chairman and announced the question and debaters as follows: "Resolved, That Congress Should Adopt a 3 per cent. Manufacturers' Sales Tax." The affirmative speakers which represented the Junior class were: John Beetham, George Tyler, Wilbur Armstrong and Ella Stewart as alternate. The debaters for the negative who represented the Senior class were: Nathan Perilman, Edyth Snyder, Philip Ebeling, and James Roff as alternate. After the debate was over Rev. Pearce expressed the thought which was in the minds of all that "They were the winners." But this was not all, which was a great relief to the judges, for up to this time it was so close that it would have been almost impossible to make a fair decision. Next on the program was music by the Girls' Glee Club; they sang "Ye Shepherds Tell Me." A recitation was then given by Miss Esther Fitton, the name of which was "A String of Pearls." Irene Long represented the Juniors in also giving a recitation, "Jean Valjean and the Bishop."

Interscholastic Debate

The Interscholastic Debate was one of the most interesting features of the year. The members of both teams coached by Miss Hoyle worked hard for two months preparing a convincing argument for each side of the question. "Resolved, That the Employer is justified in refusing to accept the principle of the Closed Union Shop." The affirmative team composed of George Tyler, captain, Wilbur Armstrong, John Beetham and Ella Stewart, alternate, journeyed to Martins Ferry only to be defeated in a hot debate by a 2 to 1 vote. The negative team composed of Philip Ebeling, captain, Lillian Hammond, Nathan Perilman and Nellie Giffen, alternate, strongly defended the Red and Black at home, but they too were defeated by a 3 to 0 vote. Even though defeated this year Bellaire High is determined to bring home a cup next year or make the vote a tie.

MUSIC

Girls' Glee Club

Under the supervision of Miss Mary Carmichael, the Girls' Glee Club has progressed very nicely. A number of our best singers graduated last year but many good additions were made by way of our Sophomores and the Glee Club is better than ever.

The Girls' Glee Club has been of great enjoyment and help both in school activities and in the town.

Boys' Glee Club

The Boys' Glee Club was organized the third week after school started and elected as manager, Walter Heil, and librarian, George Tyler. They did not have the chance to sing as much as the Girls' Glee Club, but when they did start, they made a success of it.

The graduation of several good singers last year proved a handicap for a while, but this was soon overcome. Miss Carmichael chose the quartet the second semester which was also a success.

About the first of April the Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs combined and gave an operetta entitled "Princess Crysanthemum," which was considered a great success.

High School Orchestra

The High School Orchestra had been larger and better this year than any preceding year. Besides furnishing music for the school, it has played for many popular organizations of this city. It has never failed to do its duty whenever called upon. The music rendered by the orchestra has been highly appreciated at all times.

Track

For the second successive year Bellaire won the Annual Track Meet of the O. V. A. A. As a result of this victory they secured permanent possession of the trophy cup offered by the Wheeling News.

Much honor is due to the various individuals who entered but "Big Jim" Futhey, the Shadyside lad, secured almost enough points himself to win the meet, by securing a total of 23 points.

In the various events Bellaire scored as follows:

Half mile, Tiber of Bellaire second.

In the 440-yard dash Tiber again was second. The 220-yard dash was won by Futhey. In the high jump and running broad jump Futhey again pulled down firsts.

In the Shot Put Niemic of Bellaire won first, Futhey second and Cut-haver of Bellaire, third.

Our closest competitor in the meet was Cameron with a total of 24 points, Wellsburg followed with 20, Triadelphia 7 and Wheeling 2.

In individual winners, Futhey of Bellaire was high with 23 points. Stoops of Wellsburg was next with 10 points.

It is very unfortunate that owing to no place to practice we can not again have track this year.

BELLAIRE

THE football team of '21 of Bellaire High School will be long remembered as one of the best that was ever turned out.

On September 6, 1921 Coach Galberach gave the call for football players and was well rewarded for they came not thinking of size or ability to do the work that was to be done.

The team was a little slow in starting but was well pepped for the first game of the season. This game showed where Bellaire was weak and these places were filled in the next game with the more capable men.

The next games were easy ones for the Red and Black warriors. In these games such teams as Sistersville, Marietta, Martins Ferry and East Liverpool met defeats at the hands of our men.

Then came the biggest game of the season. That with Wheeling. The weather was very bad and the game had to be played in a sea of mud and water. In this game it seemed that our team went to pieces, but when Wheeling came too close to our goal line they began to hammer a stone wall, for the Bellaire boys would not give an inch more. This game came out a tie and it showed that Wheeling had nearly as good a team as Bellaire. But we all know that the old Red and Black has the best team in the valley.

Captain Cecil Robinson

Robinson was a mighty fine captain as well as a player. He was always there when he was needed and could always keep the boys in good spirits when in a tough game. We hate to lose you Robinson, but wish you the best of luck wherever you may go.

John "Butch" Niemic

"Butch" was our kicking ace in football and was also a point getter. "Butch" should have his foot insured for it is worth a million dollars. John we are sorry that you can not come to school any longer to play football. We shall greatly miss you in the backfield next year.

"Butch" was also captain of the basketball squad and led them to a highly successful year winning 15 out of 19 games. He is one of the best guards that was ever put out by the school.

Orin and Poliski

Orin and Poliski filled the positions of quarter and full back on the Big Red team. Orin was a good pilot and showed his ability to make gains although he was small compared to the other fellows. This is his last year in B. H. S. and we will greatly miss him.

Poliski was also a good player and made many gains when it looked like a defeat for Bellaire. He will be back with us next year and will be sure to make good.

Snider and Harris

Snider played left end and showed his ability by bringing down many long passes thus gaining ground when it was needed. He was a hard worker and a smooth one. He will be back with us next year to help tear down Wheeling and Martins Ferry.

Harris was also a capable man when it came to pulling passes out of thin air. He was also a good tackler and spilled many fellows larger than himself. He will be back next year to do the same if his health will let him.

Koehnline and McMasters filled up the tackle positions and they were well filled (?). They both played good games and could not be expected to do better. We lose "Soapy" this year but will retain "Fat" who will be our captain next year. We wish him the best of luck in his leadership.

Garrett, Buttitta, Robinson

Buttitta played left guard on the Red and Black team and was a mighty good one for he was always there with the fight.

The other guard was played by Garrett and Robinson. They both played a good game and are expected back next year to do a little better than they did this year.

Trisler and Matthews

These two men played center for the Big Red team and showed some ability in passing the ball to our back field men. They could pass it whether it was dry or muddy. Matthews will be back next year to help make a good team.

Coach Galberach

As a coach he could not be beaten by any other man either on the field or on the floor. He is a hard worker and is a man that knows the games and can show others how it is done. He is always trying to put the best team on the field or floor. We sincerely hope that he is with us next year to put our team in the lead of all the others.

Subs

Valloric, Maloney, Tiber, Wharton, Morris, Franke and Chambers were also hard workers and should be given credit for the work they did in helping to put out a championship team. They also showed that they could play when given a chance. These men will help us turn out another winning team next year.

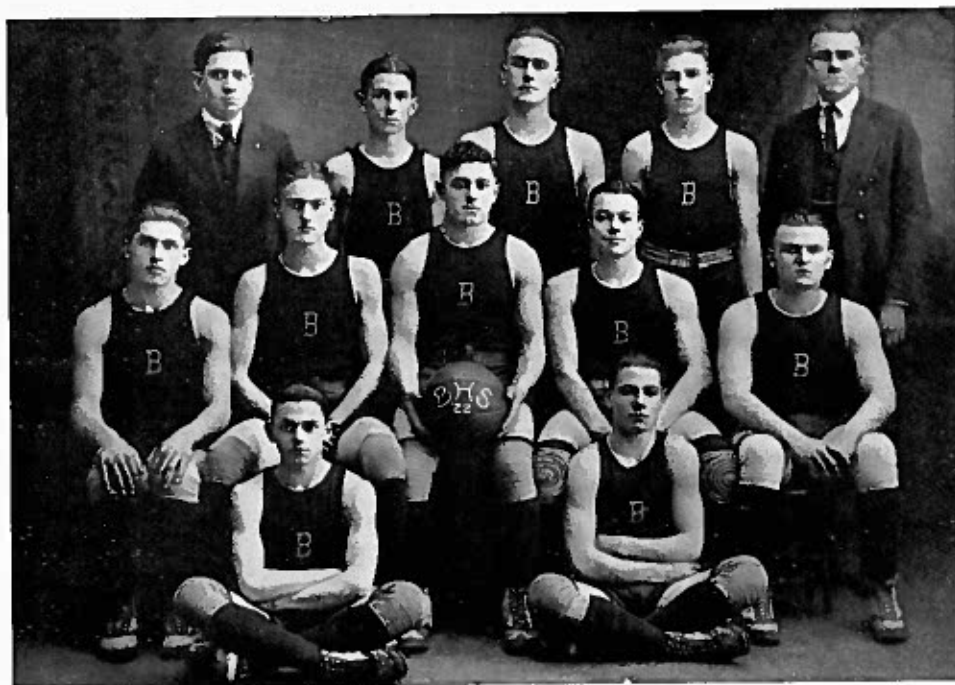

T. M. GARRETT.

In football Bellaire won eight out of ten games tying the other two. The scores are as follows:

BELLAIRE 1923

Basket Ball

WITH the football season over and the year coming to an end Bellaire started out to have a championship team in Basketball. After much hard work and practice five men were turned out that were believed to be the best team in the valley and undoubtedly were.

The season opened with Union which was a might easy one. This was followed by another easy one over Triadelphia.

"Steubenville"

Then the "Big Red" team went to Steubenville who was said to have the best team in the valley. But after a hard struggle it was proved that they were not when they were overwhelmed 30-22.

Sistersville having lost one game on Friday to Warwood by one point came to Bellaire and was beaten very badly 49-15.

"East Liverpool"

East Liverpool then invaded Bellaire and they looked so big that the people thought it was going to be a defeat. The game was a hard one, first one team would be in the lead and then the other. When the final whistle blew Bellaire had one more basket than Liverpool.

"Martins Ferry"

The Red and Black warriors went to Martins Ferry with a determination to beat them in basketball as well as they did in football. Although Ferry had a new and inexperienced team they put up a good fight. It was all in our favor at the end by a count of 39-15.

"Wheeling"

Bellaire's first defeat (?). This was one night when the Red and Black team could not get into their old stride. Every time the ball would reach our basket it seemed that there was a foul called. And by the good foul shooting of Brinkman we were beaten. The game ending with a score of 41-27 in Wheeling's favor.

"Pittsburgh 5th Ave."

This was the first time a team was ever scheduled from the big city and proved a good drawing card. This game was a rough and tumble one with many arguments. But it ended in our favor 24-22.

After this game we traveled to Sistersville and put them out for the count. This game was very close in the first half, but some one blindfolded Snider and he hit the basket every time he shot the ball. Score 30-15.

"Steubenville"

When Steubenville came down to our little burg for revenge one night they went back with another defeat. For every one was on their toes in this game and sent the ball through the hoop for a count of 37-28 in our favor.

BELLAIRE

"Cambridge"

Bellaire took a ride out to Cambridge to get some more bacon but there was none out there. With no centers and a sick man just back the team was pretty badly crippled and so were put back 17-28.

"Martins Ferry"

In the return game with Ferry there was too much Snider for the Ferrians. So we gave them a good drubbing. The final score was 46-27.

"Revenge is Sweet"

And we got it this year for the drubbing which Wheeling gave us in the first of the year. After a mad struggle it showed that Bellaire out-classed them all. The Red and Black team took the game from the Gold and Blue lads 24-20.

"East Liverpool"

Our third defeat came at the hands of East Liverpool. At the end of the first half Bellaire was four points ahead and then their lanky center shoved a couple over the ring and won the game.

"Revenge"

When the Big Red team went on the floor for the last game of the season and the last game for most of the boys, they determined not to leave without defeating Cambridge. When the final whistle blew the score stood 27-14.

"Marietta Tournament"

At the tournament Bellaire was a great favorite. At 2:55 Saturday they won a hard game over Pennsboro by the count of 19-14. And 45 minutes later were called for a game with Marietta. They defeated us. Maybe (?). Thus putting Bellaire out of the running by the count of 15-12.

Miss Cole: Joseph, prove that a woodchuck is a hamburger."

Joseph Poorman: "A woodchuck is a groundhog. A ground hog is ground ham. Ground ham is a hamburger."

Miss Luch: "What made the tower of Pise lean?"

Helena Burkett: "Gee, if I knew I would take some myself."

Miss Verring had written on the back of a theme. "Please write more legibly."

Darrel Hall next day in class: "Miss Verring what is that you put on my theme?"

Evert Brown: "Why can't an Indian shimmy?"

Bus Philip: "I don't know, why?"

Evert: "Because his quiver is in the wrong place."

Anna Linard: "What is a polygon?"

Dot Russel: "A dead parrot."

Captain Martin, Guard

Goldie was the only member left from last year's team and has proved her worth as captain this season. She had one advantage on most of her opponents—size. (Some forwards probably remember this much to their regret). Goldie has now fought her last fight for B. H. S. and her absence will be keenly felt.

Kinkade, Guard

Esther was truly one of the big assets of the team. Her ability can be estimated when it is remembered this is her first year in B. H. S. and she obtained her position by competing with upper classmen. She fought hard and filled her position well in all the games and not too much credit can be given to her.

Boyer, Center

Estella's playing was one of the main features in all the games. Her quickness and jumping ability saved the team from many complete defeats. She was always where needed and then did what was wanted. B. H. S. will welcome her again next year, for it is felt she will lead the team to many victories.

Marling, Center

Although Mary played second center she was far from being a second class player. She was a first class second center and knew the game. Of course she will be back on the job next year. (Sh! So is Snitz).

Wagner, Forward

Cora was another one of the best players and workers on the team. Her shooting was one of the foremost attractions in all the games this season. With another year before her, she will surely become a star forward and bring honor and glory to B. H. S.

White, Forward

Vera has shown signs of being a good forward for the last two years, so last season Coach Stover polished her up and she surely did shine. She was a wonderful foul shooter and a good worker. She will be with us again next year and we predict an even brighter season for her.

Yost, Forward

This little Wheeling girl surely knows how to fill the position of forward. To see her is a real treat. And smile; why even in the dark hour of defeat her smile would shine forth. We are very glad this is not her last year because she "sure can shoot 'em."

Vogel, Guard

Thresa was one of the best players outside of the regular team and we know she will work wonders next year. We are all boosting her and wish her success.

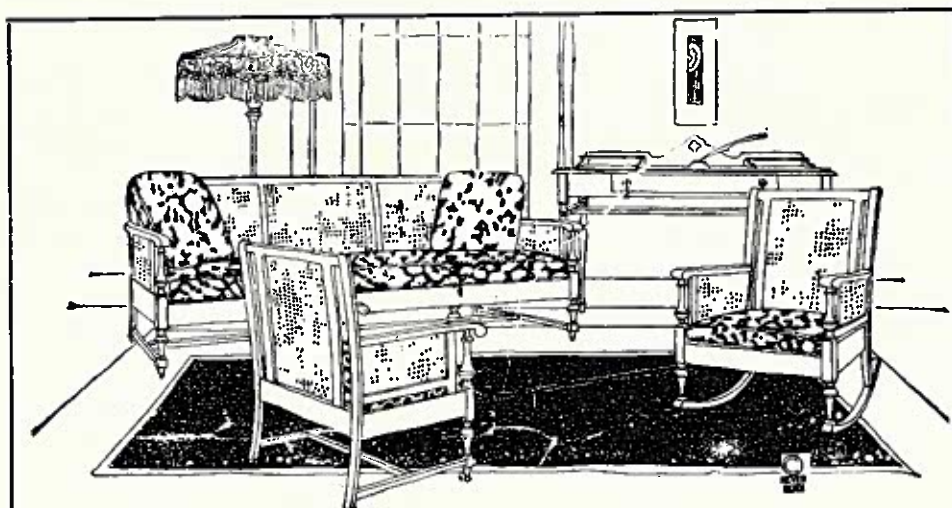

Coach Stover

This was Miss Stover's first year to be with B. H. S. but she showed her worth as coach. She did her best to turn out a winning team, but it seemed as though luck were against her. She was always ready to back her team no matter what was said about it. We wish her success wherever she may go.

Important Message To All

SOME DAY YOU MAY NEED A DOCTOR

Too often we overlook or totally forget our obligation to the good health which we might at the present enjoy. Thoughtlessness, carelessness, is the greatest attribute of humanity, and this frequently leads us into sickness which in many cases might have been prevented, although in so many other cases perhaps contracted from somebody else and through no fault of our own. Now the thought should be in the mind of everybody that some day, some time, somehow, they are liable to be ill and that a physician's attention is going to be compulsory. They should likewise think ahead to that time when medicines are required, and to that druggist most willing to assume responsibility for the supplying of medicines of the highest possible character. Our prescription business is always most satisfactory from a business standpoint when sickness and epidemics prevail. The public and the physicians have plenty of confidence in us, and they are willing to trust these serious wants with us. To those who are not ill (and sincerely we hope you never will be ill) against the time when illness may unexpectedly come, remember us for all prescription work. If even now the doctor is your dependence let his prescriptions come to us for the finest of drugs, put up in the most careful way. Remember that this is an individual organization with a one-man foresight and care over all of your wants—not a "syndicate" concern, interested more in the sales question than in business honesty. We are after your business, but we are also willing to buy it and to pay for it with better quality drugs and better care in compounding. Truly, no druggist anywhere, big or little, can offer you more. Give us every opportunity to supply every medicinal requirement you may have, whether it's a simple drug, root, herb or bark, and up to the most intricate and difficult prescription that a doctor ever wrote. Our drugs are adequate for every purpose, our care is unsurpassed—our prices, because of lower cost of doing business, are lower than bigger stores in bigger centers. Altogether it pays to bring prescriptions here, but you can know this best only by test.

After Graduation ?

Know which way you are going and why. To be—or not to be, that is the question. Success doesn't "just happen" in very many instances.

When you start to save—Save with a will. Hap-hazard, now-and-then saving never gets very far. Best results come with determined action—regular deposits even though in small amounts.

What you expect is Good Luck; What you don't expect is Bad Luck, but you're sure to get some of both. So the break will be more than fifty-fifty, hedge against bad luck. A bank account is the best hedge we know of.

A lot of people find the First National a very satisfactory bank. Just the place to begin. Young people's accounts are always welcomed here. Let's go!
